Collection Note

This material was collected by various individuals and relates to Section 106 Review for the U.S. 31-W to Interstate 65 Connector project first proposed around 2000 to facilitate better truck traffic flow from the Kentucky Transpark in northern Warren County to Interstate 65. The government and consultant reports and correspondence deals with the project's potential effect on historic resources in the area. Folder 3 contains a property by property survey of historic resources in the area. The collection also includes some minutes from stakeholders’ meetings.
