BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

This collection documents the families of Laura Josephine “Jo” and/or “Tiny” (Duff) Jelley Jurgens (1915-1999) and her first husband Michael Edward Jelley (1911-1969). This couple married on 1 September 1934. Laura was the daughter of James S. “Jim” Duff (1874-1948) and Linnie Leota (Nichols) Duff (1887-1974). The Duffs were both natives of Breathitt County, Kentucky, both Baptists attending First Baptist Church in Jackson, Kentucky for decades. James was active with the Masons Lodge and Linnie was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star for well over fifty years. The Duffs were buried in the Marcus Heights Cemetery in Jackson. Additional information about the Duff genealogy can be found in Box 1, Folder 2. After Michael Edward’s death, Laura married Arthur William Jurgens on 10 April 1971.

Michael Edward Jelley was born on 23 September 1911 the son of John Francis Jelley, Sr. (1875-1953) and Margaret (Patterson) Jelley (1875-1963) in Blairsville, Pennsylvania. He was a graduate of Pennsylvania State University and served as a forester for federal and state agencies and worked for several private lumber companies. He died on 1 April 1969. Both Michael and Laura were interred in the Hamilton Memorial Gardens in Hixson, Tennessee. The Jelley family attended the Catholic Church. Laura and Michael had five children: Richard Lawrence “Larry” Jelley (b. 1935), John Michael “Mike” Jelley (b. 1942), Elizabeth Ann “Betty” (Jelley) Tomaselli Yambrek (1943-2019), James Daniel “Danny” Jelley (b. 1954), and Joan Leslie “Joanie” (Jelley) Surles (b. 1957).

COLLECTION NOTE

Box 1 includes information about the Duff family. Folder 2 includes genealogical information and Bible records recorded by James S. Duff. Folder 3 includes some receipts and a letter written to James S. Duff by his brother A.P. Duff on 17 January 1939 explaining why he cannot send money at the time. Folder 3 also includes a birth registration certificate for Fred Duff born on 22 September 1926 in Winchester, Kentucky. Folder 4 includes correspondence between James S. Duff and various lumber companies; it also includes several written agreements with the same. Mr. Duff was involved in the lumber business. This folder includes several pay envelopes for Duff from the Mowbray Robinson Lumber Company of Combs, Kentucky. Folder 5 includes information related to a court case "James Duff v. Staves Manufacturing Corporation" (1936) in which Duff is suing Staves for back wages and expenses for men who worked for him under a contract with the company. Folder 6-8 include monthly workmen's time book in which Duff kept account of hours worked by laborers for 1936 (Folder 6), 1937 (Folder 7) and 1945 (Folder 8). Folder 9 houses James Duff's receipts for the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Masons. Folder 10 includes James Duff's tax receipts from 1912 to 1925 in Breathitt County and Clark County, Kentucky. Insurance papers for an accident insurance with the Iowa State Traveling Men's Association for James Duff can be found in Folder 11. Letters written to Ollie May Duff by various individuals can be found in Folder 12, including a lengthy and newsy family letter from Laura Jelly dated 1942. Folder 13 includes various items related to the Duff family, including correspondence, news clippings, social invitations, poems, a lengthy reminiscence titled "Typhoon, December 1944" by F. R. Duff, and information about a Duff family reunion in 2004. Folders 16 and 17 contain videocassette tapes documenting a Duff family reunion held in September 1993 at Buckhorn State Park in eastern Kentucky. A legend of family members is included in the folders.

Box 2, Folder 1 includes a script titled "The Wonder Team" written by Dr. Don Miller and James Duff about the basketball team from Carr Creek, Kentucky, that won the state basketball tournament in 1928; it also includes several news clippings about the team. Folder 2 houses a videocassette tape of a short film titled "The Elf Who Made Christmas Special" which was written, produced and directed by James Duff in 1979. Folder 3 through 7 include diaries kept by Laura Duff from 1928 to 1935. They include Laura's teenage years through her early marriage. She discusses boyfriends, social and family activities, community happenings and religiously records movies that she has attended and about things she was hearing on the radio. Folder 8 includes an oral history interview on cassette tape about Laura's reminiscences of growing up in Jackson, Kentucky. Folder 9 contains a transcription of the tape in Folder 8. Folder 10 includes an oral history interview, also on cassette tape, in which Laura and interviewee, Ginger Ramsey, discuss the Lebanon Cedar Forest, as Laura's husband worked with the U.S. Forest Service at that Tennessee preserve in the mid-1930s.

Box 3, Folders 1 through 9 include the correspondence of Laura (Duff) Jelley Jurgens, and it has been organized chronologically. This correspondence is about equally divided between family and friends and is filled with news about both. Folder 10 includes epigrams, quotes, poems, and prose excerpts that Jurgens clipped for use in her letter writing and for her own personal use.

Box 4 includes the recipes of Laura (Duff) Jelley Jurgens, arranged alphabetically by food type, i.e.: appetizers, bakery goods, condiments, etc. Folder 16 includes some recipes of Duncan Hines or that included Duncan Hines products.

Box 5 houses files related to Michael Edward Jelley and the children of he and Laura (Duff) Jelley Jurgens. These files include correspondence, invitations to weddings and graduations, funeral announcements, e-mails, printed material, and other memorabilia related to the individual members of the family. At least half of this material was created by Elizabeth Ann "Betty" (Jelley) Tomaselli Yambrek.

Box 6 contains numerous photographs of the Duff and Jelley families. Most are identified. Folder 9 includes a number of nice 1964 wedding portraits of Elizabeth Ann Jelley when she married William Joseph Tomaselli in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Box 7 includes a large scrapbook that has been partially disassembled. Folder 1 contains the scrapbook, which was assembled by Laura (Duff) Jelley Jurgen in the mid-1930s in Middletown, Ohio, although some of the information is from a later time period in LaFollette, Tennessee. Folder 2 includes a photocopy of the scrapbook contents before they were removed. The remaining folders include different genres of items removed from the scrapbook, i.e. news clippings about the family, poetry, news clippings about entertainment stars, etc. The scrapbook includes many examples of sentimental poetry and popular quotes.
