COLLECTION NOTE

This account book documents the transactions of an unnamed general store in Hadensville, Todd County, Kentucky, from 1844 to 1846. The accounts are arranged chronologically and then by customer. Items, quantities, and their prices are carefully notated for each customer. Besides food, the store handled a large array of dry goods including glassware, clothing, silverware, sewing supplies, cloth, and hardware.

The exterior of the account book was in extremely poor condition. It was removed and the pages separated into the years, 1844 to 1846, with each folder containing a complete year.
