BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Francis Morgan "Frank" Willis was born on 12 August 1839 to George B. (1785-1848) and Eliza J. (Thompson) Willis (1807-1890). They lived on a large farm near the Salem Church, in the Cave City area of Barren County, Kentucky. Family lore indicates that Francis later changed his name to Frank and added the middle name Morgan, as he admired Civil War general John Hunt Morgan. The Willises were a very musical family, playing a wide array of instruments, and Frank M. Willis held singing schools and enjoyed an enviable reputation as a singer, as did his brother John Settle Willis. George and Eliza had 16 children. Frank married Laura Wilson Edmunds on 21 February 1878 at the home of his in-laws Charles Penn and Elizabeth T. (Eubank) Edmunds. The Willises had six daughters that lived to adulthood and two children (a boy and a girl) that died as small children. Frank maintained a farm near Beckton, Barren County, for many years. Frank died on 13 October 1913 and his wife Laura on 12 March 1929. They are both buried in the Beech Grove Baptist Church cemetery in Barren County.

COLLECTION NOTE

This collection consists almost exclusively of correspondence of the Edmunds and Willis families of Barren County, Kentucky. The majority of the collection contains the correspondence of the immediate family of Francis Morgan "Frank" Willis (1839-1913) and Laura Wilson (Edmunds) Willis (1857-1929), which includes their daughters: Annie Elizabeth (Willis) Edmunds (1889-1972), Minnie Lee (Willis) Duvall (1879-1900), Katherine Allen "Kate" (Willis) Edmunds (1884-1948), Mayme Scott (Willis) Lewis (1890-1913), Hattie Maude (Willis) Amos (1883-1958), and Jessie Francis (Willis) Hildreth (1895-1984). Because of the overwhelmingly female audience of this correspondence, it chiefly includes information about family matters, health, sewing and other handwork, fashion, housekeeping, maternal relations and consolation. The one interesting exception to this typical feminine correspondence is found in several letters written by Laura's sister, Virginia Edmunds, of San Jose, California. She mentions topics such as meditation and yoga and holistic health. The Willis family enjoyed and played music of all types, so that topic is addressed frequently. Frank, on occasion, leads singing schools, and several of the daughters play musical instruments and later teach private lessons. Occasional mentions are made of church and social events. Frank Willis does write his daughters on occasion. In these letters he discusses farming and provides paternal advice. Although the daughters do move frequently in search of jobs and following their husbands, Laura Willis—the mother—spends almost her entire life in Barren County, Kentucky.

Most of the Edmunds family correspondence, outside of Laura Edmunds Willis, is found in Box 1, Folder 2. It is chiefly letters written to William Edmunds in Glasgow, Kentucky and letters written by Lizzie Edmunds to family members in Louisville. Folder 2 also includes a number of letters written by Elizabeth George “Lizzie” Willis to her brother Frank M. Willis.

BIBLIOGRAPHIC RECORD

MSS EDMUNDS & Willis Family Papers 1832-1968
549

Almost exclusively correspondence of the Edmunds and Willis families of Barren County, Kentucky. The Willis family correspondence (the bulk of the collection) is almost exclusively amongst females, so housekeeping, sewing, fashion, family matters are discussed frequently. Frank Willis, the family patriarch, does discuss farming with his daughters. Many of the letters are addressed to his wife, Laura (Edmunds) Willis, and a majority of those are from her daughters.
