COLLECTION NOTE

This collection consists primarily of genealogy and family history collected by Vickie Lynn Stovall and several other extended family members. It focuses on the Bennett, Hunt, Taylor and associated families of Kentucky, many of whom resided in Butler, McLean, Muhlenberg and Daviess counties. The genealogical research consists of family trees and data sheets as well as clippings and photographs, many of which were assembled in scrapbook style.

In addition to genealogical research, the collection contains biographical data, narratives, reminiscences and articles, primarily on local history, created by several of the collectors. Individual collectors include:

- Edith L. Bennett (1931-2013), a Livermore, Kentucky native, local historian, and active member of Owensboro's Third Baptist Church who spent more than 50 years as a broadcaster of religious programming for radio station WOMI. Included (Box 4, Folder 16) are materials evidencing her interest in Josiah Henson (1789-1883), who once resided in Daviess County and was the model for "Uncle Tom" in Harriet Beecher Stowe's novel Uncle Tom's Cabin;
- Edith's half brother, Wendell H. Rone (1913-2003), a Daviess County Baptist minister, church historian, and president (1978-1980) of Mid-Continent College in Mayfield, Kentucky;
- Edward M. Manley (1894-1971), who wrote affectionately of his native Kentucky from his home in Los Angeles; and
- William McClellan (1901-1978), a columnist and local historian, especially of the Green and Mud River country near Rochester, Kentucky.

The collection also includes materials highlighting the Christian and evangelical traditions in some of the family lines: the Bloom Evangelistic Trio of South Carolina (Box 1, Folder 5); Edith Bennett's partnership, through WOMI, with Haiti's Voice of Caribbean (Box 3, Folder 6); and early 20th-century pamphlets about foreign missions (Box 4, Folder 20).
