COLLECTION NOTE

This collection consists mostly of genealogy, correspondence, and miscellaneous papers of the Campbell, Moulder and related families of Warren County, Kentucky. The principal correspondents are members of the family of Herbert S. Moulder (1880-1969) and Lena (Ball) Moulder (1890-1977); and descendants of George Washington Campbell (1827-1908) and Hester Taylor (Penner) Campbell (1842-1922), especially their two daughters Laura Bell Campbell (1861-1938) and Georgia Ennis Campbell (1886-1957). Laura Campbell adopted Bertha Douglas, the Campbell family maid and a cousin through an illegitimate (but recognized) line: Bertha's father was John H. Douglas (1853-1928), the illegitimate son of John H. Penner, who was the brother of Laura's mother Hester. In 1944, Bertha married Robert W. Moulder, the son of Herbert and Lena Moulder.

Of interest in this collection are: stock certificates in various mining and oil concerns (Box 1, Folders 3 and 6 and Box 2, Folder 9); deeds and accounts pertaining to the estate of George Washington Campbell and his landholdings (Box 2, Folders 1 and 2); Masonic certificates and membership cards of Herbert and Lena Moulder (Box 1, Folders 3 and 4); copies of some ordinances and related documents in connection with Robert Moulder's service on the Bowling Green, Kentucky Common Council (Box 1, Folder 6); clippings and printed matter relating to Bertha Moulder's involvement with the Girl Scouts (Box 1, Folder 7); letters to Georgia Campbell from her nephew and another young man during their World War II military service (Box 1, Folder 10); short stories and other writings by Laura Campbell (Box 2, Folder 1); correspondence of Laura's niece Clyde (Boulton) Cates, a faculty member of the Bowling Green Business University and WKU (Box 2, Folder 3); a small amount of papers of two early ancestors, Wesley Love (Box 2, Folder 6) and Enoch Floyd (Box 2, Folder 9); a diary of an unidentified female, possibly a Campbell (Box 2, Folder 9); and a memo book with population data, 1910-1915, for an extensive list of U.S. cities (Box 2, Folder 9). The collection also contains genealogical data and genealogy-related correspondence on the Moulder, Campbell and related families, evidently collected by Lena Moulder.
