Bowling Green, Ky., Feb. 7—Hilltopper basketball fans who think they have been seeing double this season needn't bother to visit their optometrist. Western Kentucky State Teachers college is probably the only institution to boost two sets of twins as cheer-leaders. Both sets are identical to such a degree that even they have difficulty determining 'who is who' in action pictures snapped by the camera men who lurk in the Western gymnasium.

Mayfield has the distinctive honor of furnishing one set of twins to the Western ~~well~~-leading section. The Willett twins—Helen and Hazel—were born on February 25, 1927, on Oak street, Mayfield. They moved to Bowling Green six years ago and now reside at 1025 Nutwood avenue. The twins' father, W. L. Willett, is manager of the Charles Store in Bowling Green, while their mother is deceased.

While at Mayfield, the twin sisters attended Sisters' School and sang in the choir of the St. Joseph's church. After moving to Bowling Green, Helen and Hazel continued their studies at Bowling Green, high, where they were elected cheer-leaders their senior year.

Pursuing their vocal activities, the comely twins entered St. Joseph's Junior College for Girls at Maple Mount where they sang in the glee club. In addition to their vocal efforts as Western cheer-leaders, they now sing in the St. Joseph's choir in Bowling Green.

While both are sophomores at Western, the popular twins chose different fields of study at the college. Helen is an art major while Hazel is majoring in home economics
