

1-30-2017

UA12/2/1 WKUHerald321

WKU Student Affairs

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records

 Part of the Higher Education Administration Commons, Journalism Studies Commons, Mass Communication Commons, and the Social History Commons

Recommended Citation

WKU Student Affairs, "UA12/2/1 WKUHerald321" (2017). WKU Archives Records. Paper 5185.
http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records/5185

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by TopSCHOLAR®. It has been accepted for inclusion in WKU Archives Records by an authorized administrator of TopSCHOLAR®. For more information, please contact topscholar@wku.edu.

January 30, 2017

Don't have time to sort through every article published in the Herald to get your daily news? No worries! Just check out the Herald 3 – 2 – 1, a weekly newsletter that recaps the most important or interesting stories we've put out over the past seven days.

Each issue, we'll highlight 3 breaking news stories, 2 amusing or fascinating features and 1 photo, comic or social media nugget to put a little spice in your day.

3 Noteworthy News Stories

Board of Regents names 10th president of WKU

Tim Caboni, from the University of Kansas, was unanimously voted to be next university president at the Board of Regents meeting on Friday.

Read the full story at the WKU Herald.

Students join Women's March on Washington

More than 20 WKU students traveled to Washington D.C. and joined with over 4 million people worldwide to protest for women's issues on Saturday.

Read the full story by Emma Austin.

Kentucky student body presidents defend higher education

WKU's SGA president, Jay Todd Richey, voiced his support for maintaining university funding with other student body presidents from around Kentucky in a petition to state legislators.

Read the full story by Jamie Williams.

2 Fun Features

Traveling duo brings world to new sandwich cafe

Roam, a travel-themed grab-and-go sandwich shop, opened up on Fountain Square this week. Not only does it offer patrons the spirit of adventure, but it is also contributing to the travel culture of Bowling Green.

Read the full story by Rebekah Alvey.

Brewery supply serves up fundraiser for non-profit

On Saturday, Blue Holler Brew Supplies teamed up with other local businesses to host a beer-and-food-themed event that raised money for St. Jude Children's Hospital.

Read the full story by Andrew Critchelow.

1 Entertaining Extra

Photo Staff features best work from break

During the winter break, members of the WKU Photo Team practiced their skills and are now showing off the results in this breath-taking photo gallery.

(Photos by Gabe Scarlett, Morgan Hornsby, and Alyse Young.)

See the full gallery.

