

10-6-2017

UA12/2/1 WKUHerald321

WKU Student Affairs

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records

 Part of the Higher Education Administration Commons, Journalism Studies Commons, Mass Communication Commons, Social History Commons, Sociology Commons, and the Sports Studies Commons

Recommended Citation

WKU Student Affairs, "UA12/2/1 WKUHerald321" (2017). WKU Archives Records. Paper 5333.
http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records/5333

This Other is brought to you for free and open access by TopSCHOLAR®. It has been accepted for inclusion in WKU Archives Records by an authorized administrator of TopSCHOLAR®. For more information, please contact topscholar@wku.edu.

October 6, 2017

Don't have time to sort through every article published in the Herald to get your daily news? No worries! Just check out the Herald 3 – 2 – 1, a weekly newsletter that recaps the most important or interesting stories we've put out over the past seven days.

Each issue, we'll highlight 3 breaking news stories, 2 amusing or fascinating features and 1 photo, comic or social media nugget to put a little spice in your day.

3 Noteworthy News Stories

Exhibit explores Bosnian culture

The Kentucky Museum's recently-opened newest exhibit, "A Culture Carried: Bosnians in Bowling Green," has already begun to attract large and intrigued crowds. The exhibit takes visitors through the nation's culture, history and scars of war with exhibits ranging from a collection of objects brought to the U.S. by Bosnian refugees to a replica of a Bosnian living room.

Read the full story by Michelle Hanks.

Students and faculty mourn death of former professor Lloren Foster

Lloren Foster, a former professor in the African American Studies Program, passed on Tuesday following a heart attack. Now, students and fellow faculty members who knew him reflect on the impact that he had in strengthening the perspectives and ambitions of those around him with his dedication.

Read the full story by Monica Kast.

Future teachers face pension uncertainty

Subsequent to heated battles in the state's capital over cuts to Kentucky pensions, some students in the education program have expressed concerns about their ability to maintain a steady career. Others explain that the changes will not impact their decision to pursue education. The debate continues.

Read the full story by Monica Kast.

2 Fun Features

WKU alumna coordinates hurricane relief group in Puerto Rico

Following the recent hurricane devastation in the Caribbean and southern U.S., a former WKU student, now an accomplished photojournalist, worked tirelessly with an aeronautical company to organize the transport of vital supplies and reveal the true extent of the devastation.

Read the full story by Laurel Deppen.

New church welcomes international members

Partnering with other international churches, Journey Church strives to draw in community members from any culture, background or especially language. Additionally, the church offers English as a Second Language classes to interested members.

Read the full story by Laryn Hilderbrandt.

1 Entertaining Extra

International Festival 2017: A Video Celebration

On Saturday, Sept. 30, crowds from across Bowling Green and the surrounding area gathered to celebrate cultural and ethnic diversity at the annual Bowling Green International Festival. Hundreds of participants enjoyed delicious food, stunning performances and the opportunity to browse and buy items from around the world.

Experience a taste of the excitement with the Herald's recap video by Silas Walker and Tyger Williams.

