Charles Keown Memo

Western Kentucky State College July 14, 1964

Bowling Green, Kentucky

MEMORANDUM TO: Dr. Raymond Cravens

Mr. Rhea Lazarus

Mr. Lee Robertson

Dr. William Hourigan

Mr. Dero Downing

Mr. Ronnie Sutton

SUBJECT: Chapel Assembly

The following requirements pertaining to Chapel Assembly have been adopted by the college and are to become effective with the opening of the fall semester. Item number one is a continuation of a requirement that has been in effect since 1959.

1. All new freshmen (non-transfers) shall continue to be required to take two (2) semesters of chapel Assembly. The semesters shall be taken consecutively.
2. All freshmen transfer students who earned less than twelve (12) hours of college credit shall be required to complete the two (2) semesters of Chapel Assembly
3. All transfer students of freshman classification with twelve (12) hours or more of earned credit shall be required to take one (1) semester of Chapel Assembly upon the first semester of enrollment.

All transfer students of sophomore classification shall be required to take one (1) semester of Chapel Assembly upon the first semester of enrollment.

Chapel Assembly requirement for a sophomore transfer who has completed a similar course at another institution may be waived by Admissions Counselor if the Counselor's judgment the person is sufficiently mature, oriented, and of serious purpose to the extent that taking the course would not materially benefit the student.

4. All transfer students admitted with less than a "C" average regardless of classification shall be required to complete one (1) semester of Chapel Assembly upon the first semester of enrollment.

Charles A. Keown

Dean of Students
