

9-21-1956

UA1B Welcome to Western

Western Kentucky University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records

Part of the Higher Education Administration Commons, Journalism Studies Commons, Social History Commons, and the Sociology Commons

Recommended Citation

Western Kentucky University, "UA1B Welcome to Western" (1956). WKU Archives Records. Paper 6071.
https://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records/6071

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by TopSCHOLAR®. It has been accepted for inclusion in WKU Archives Records by an authorized administrator of TopSCHOLAR®. For more information, please contact topscholar@wku.edu.

WELCOME

To

WESTERN

RECEPTION

FOR

New faculty and administrative staff members

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1956

7:30 P.M.

KENTUCKY BUILDING

Western Kentucky State College

It is our duty to sanctify this great hill by hard study; by expressing its harmony, its order, its articulation, its saneness, and its stateliness in our lives; by seeing to it that its nobility is not marred by a single mark or desecrated in any other way. . .

H. H. CHERRY

ORLAND NEAL ALFORD — Agriculture Department

Mr. Alford teaches animal husbandry and related subjects. He was awarded the M. S. degree in agriculture at the University of Illinois in 1952. He was graduated from Western with the B.S. degree in 1950, majoring in agriculture.

Since receiving the masters degree he has been connected with the U. S. Soil Conservation Service in Warren County.

A graduate of Richardsville High School in 1942, Mr. Alford and his wife, Marie Basham, reside at Richardsville with their two children, Teresa Neal, 2; and Marcus Edwin, 1.

ALVIN ALMOND — College High

Mr. Almond is the basketball coach at College High. He came to Western from Alvaton High School in Warren County where he compiled a highly successful six-year record. He was awarded the A. B. degree by Western in 1950 and the M. A. degree in 1952. A native of Bowling Green, Mr. Almond resides with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Almond, at 644 14th Street.

MRS. BLAKE CLARK — Library

Mrs. Clark, wife of the administrator of the Bowling Green-Warren County hospital, is director of the periodical room in the college library. A native of Idaho, she was awarded the A. B. degree by the University of Idaho in 1935 and has done graduate work at Western.

Mrs. Clark taught English and music in the schools of Idaho until she became a Girl Scout executive and camp director in Florida in 1940. Last year she served as librarian for the Warren County Bookmobile.

The Clarks live at 848 Magnolia Avenue with their three sons, Blake, Bruce, and Craig.

GEORGE W. DOWNING — Mathematics Department

Mr. Downing was graduated from Western in 1950 with the B. S. degree, majoring in mathematics. He was awarded the M. A. degree in mathematics by George Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tennessee, this past summer.

He taught mathematics at College High the second semester last year. Prior to that he taught three years in the Charleston, West Virginia, public schools. While in service he served as a research chemist at Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Alabama.

He lives at 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ Proctor Court.

DR. FREDERICK EBERSON — Biology Department and Director of Health Services

Dr. Ebersson has the unusual distinction of holding both the Ph. D. and the M.D. degrees. A native of New York he was awarded the B. S. degree by City College of New York in 1912. He was awarded the M. S. degree by Iowa State College in 1915. He was awarded the Ph. D. degree by Columbia University in 1918 and the M. B. and M. D. degrees by the University of Minnesota in 1924.

Dr. Ebersson came to Western from the Kentucky Department of Health with a wide background in preventive medicine, public health work and experience in teaching bacteriology.

Dr. and Mrs. Ebersson live at 1853 Rodes Avenue.

MILLARD GIPSON — Agriculture Department

Mr. Gipson fills the position made vacant when Charles Keown was elevated to the post of Dean of Students. Mr. Gipson was awarded the M. S. degree by the University of Kentucky in 1952 in farm economics. He was graduated from Western in 1950 with the B. S. degree, majoring in agriculture. He came to Western from Lexington where he was a representative for the J. I. Case Farm Machinery Co. since 1952 and engaged in the real estate business.

He was graduated from Horse Cave High School in 1942. He and his wife, Hilda Garner, and their daughter, Deborah Susan, 4, live at 706 Ogden Avenue.

JAMES M. GOODMAN—Geography and Geology Department

Mr. Goodman, a native of Oklahoma, was graduated from the University of Oklahoma in January, 1952, with a major in geography. In 1953 he was awarded the M. S. degree in geography by Northwestern University. He entered the U. S. Air Force in 1954 and was discharged last spring. This summer he completed residence requirements leading to the Ph. D. degree at Northwestern.

Mr. Goodman and his wife, Mary Elizabeth, live at 503 Nutwood Avenue with their daughter, Karen Ann, 1.

MISS EDITH GRUNDMEIER — Home Economics

Miss Grundmeier came to Western from the University of Kansas where she has been doing graduate work for the past year. She teaches dietetics and nutrition. A native of Kansas she was awarded the B. S. degree by Kansas State College, Manhattan, Kansas, in 1922 and the M.A. degree in 1924. She taught at the University of Wyoming and Michigan State College prior to joining the Home Economics department at the University of Kentucky where she taught for fourteen years.

Miss Grundmeier lives at 422 East 15th Street.

WILBURN C. JONES — College High

Mr. Jones teaches mathematics. He fills the position left vacant when Dero Downing was elevated to the position of Director of the College Training School.

Mr. Jones was awarded the A. B. degree by Western in 1950 with a major in mathematics. He was awarded the M. A. degree by Western in 1953.

A native of Union County where he was graduated from Sturgis High School in 1946, Mr. Jones has been teaching mathematics in Bardstown High School since 1951.

In 1954 he was appointed assistant superintendent in addition to his teaching duties. He and his wife, Helen Bartlett reside at 1538 State Street.

EDWARD A. KNOB — Music Department

Mr. Knob is an instructor in woodwinds and music education. He came to Western from Kansas State Teachers College, Pittsburg, Kansas, where he taught woodwinds.

He was awarded the M. M. degree by the University of Michigan School of Music in 1954. In 1950 he was awarded the B. M. E. degree by State Teachers College, Mansfield, Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Knob live at 139 Virginia Avenue.

W. SCOBEE LAWRENCE JR. — Auditor and Accountant

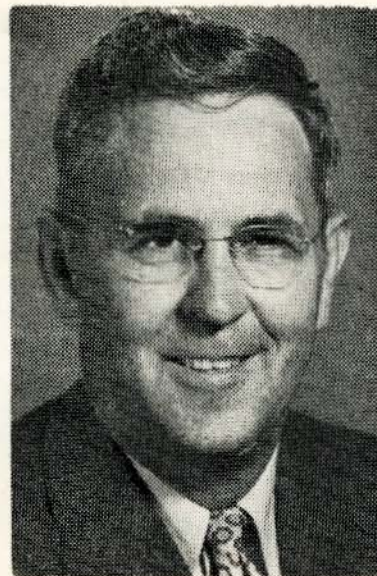

Mr. Lawrence is a native of Winchester, Ky. He was graduated from Winchester High School in 1937. After attending Fugassi Business College in Lexington, he was employed by the Veterans Administration in Washington, D. C., as a supervisor in the insurance division. He resigned the position with the Veterans Administration in 1951 to join the State Department of Finance in Frankfort as supervisor in the Division of Accounts.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lawrence Sr., Lexington, Ky.

He lives at 659 East 14th Street.

DR. TATE C. PAGE — Education Department

Dr. Page came to Western from the College of the Ozarks, Clarksville, Arkansas, where he was Director of Personnel and Admissions and head of the Department of Education and Psychology. He was awarded the A. B. degree by Tulane University in 1934. In 1941 he was awarded the M. A. degree by the University of Kentucky and the Ed. D. degree by the University of Kansas in 1955.

Dr. Page is well known in Kentucky having served as a member of the faculty at Transylvania College from 1936 until 1942.

He and his wife, Wanda Wayne, live at 1676 Normal Drive with their daughter, Sarah Jane, 4.

BILLY S. SMITH — Business Manager

Mr. Smith was graduated by the University of Kentucky College of Commerce in 1949. He joined the Commonwealth of Kentucky as an auditor in the Department of Economic Security in February, 1950. He remained in this post until April, 1954, when he became assistant director of the Division of Accounts in the State Department of Finance. On May 1, this year he became consultant accountant in the Division of the Budget.

A native of Lexington, Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith, Paris, Kentucky. He and his wife, Edith Shirley, with their four children, Linda Faye, 9; Carolyn Louise, 7; Kathy Elaine, 3; and John William, 1, reside at 308 Marylan Drive.

DR. CHARLES E. WHITTLE JR. — Physics Department

Dr. Whittle was awarded the Ph. D. degree by Washington University at St. Louis in 1953. He was graduated from Centre College in 1949 with the A. B. degree, majoring in physics. A native of Brownsville, Kentucky, he was graduated from Brownsville High School in 1946. He went to the Netherlands in 1954 for one year under a Fulbright Scholarship and a Research Corporation Grant for research in low temperature-nuclear physics. He came to Western from the Union Carbide and Chemical Corporation in New York City.

He is the son of Charles E. Whittle Sr., Brownsville attorney and former president of Ogden College. He and his wife, Suzanne, live at Smiths Grove, Ky., with their three children, Charles E. III, 3; Laura Jane, 2; and Jessica Suzanne, 1.

MANUEL WILKERSON — Chemistry Department

Mr. Wilkerson was awarded the B. S. degree with a major in chemistry by Western in January, 1953, and the M. A. degree by the University of Illinois in January, 1956. He served as an assistant instructor in the Western chemistry department from January, 1953, until August, 1954, when he entered graduate school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilkerson, Henderson, Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkerson live in Cherryton.