8-3-2018

UA12/2/1 College Heights Herald

WKU Student Affairs

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records

Part of the Higher Education Administration Commons, Journalism Studies Commons, and the Mass Communication Commons

Recommended Citation

https://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records/6208

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by TopSCHOLAR®. It has been accepted for inclusion in WKU Archives Records by an authorized administrator of TopSCHOLAR®. For more information, please contact topscholar@wku.edu.
The College Heights Herald newsletter is sponsored by Bowling Green Athletic Club

THE HILL IN REVIEW

The WKU Board of Regents discusses the university’s strategic plan during its annual retreat at the Downing Student Union on Thursday, Aug. 2. Photo by Isabel Brinegar/HERALD.

In this issue

- WKU announces new admission standards
- Meet Terry Ballman, WKU's next provost
- WKU's Board of Regents discusses strategic plan at annual retreat

Terry Ballman will assume her role as WKU's new provost and vice president of academic affairs on Aug. 1, replacing current provost David Lee. She worked as the dean of the College of Arts and Letters at California State University, San Bernardino since 2013. Photo by Isabel Brinegar/HERALD.
WKU announces new admission standards

WKU has announced new admission standards for fall 2019, including new standards about admitting students who have a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or lower.

Meet Terry Ballman, WKU's next provost

Terry Ballman assumed her role as WKU's next provost and vice president of academic affairs on Aug. 1, replacing former provost David Lee. Before becoming provost, she served as the dean of the College of Arts and Letters at California State University, San Bernardino since 2013. Ballman hopes to move the university forward with its new strategic plan as she takes on her new position.

WKU's Board of Regents discusses strategic plan at annual retreat

The WKU Board of Regents discussed the university’s strategic plan and budget model during its annual retreat at the Downing Student Union on Thursday. The board will vote on the newest version of the strategic plan on Friday.

First Medical School class includes WKU grads

The first class of 30 students at the new UK College of Medicine Bowling Green campus was seated Monday and includes seven WKU graduates. The new campus, which was a collaboration between UK and WKU, opened for its week-long orientation on Monday.

WKU brings in $45 million in donations, breaking record

WKU earned a record-breaking $45 million in private donations in 2017-18, surpassing its record from the previous year by $9 million. The university received donations from more than 14,000 donors from all 50 states and eight countries.