

10-19-2018

UA12/2/1 College Heights Herald

WKU Student Affairs

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records

 Part of the Higher Education Administration Commons, Journalism Studies Commons, Mass Communication Commons, and the Sports Studies Commons

Recommended Citation

WKU Student Affairs, "UA12/2/1 College Heights Herald" (2018). WKU Archives Records. Paper 6215.
https://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records/6215

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by TopSCHOLAR®. It has been accepted for inclusion in WKU Archives Records by an authorized administrator of TopSCHOLAR®. For more information, please contact topscholar@wku.edu.

College Heights Herald

THE HILL IN REVIEW

The College Heights Herald newsletter is sponsored by
Bowling Green Athletic Club

The Loftis family plays at the rubber duck racing station at Just Piddlin
Farm on Oct. 12.
Ivy Ceballo/HERALD

In this issue

- WKU lineman cited for marijuana possession
- SGA strikes down Greek Life defunding bill

Jared Savage (2), from Bowling Green, and Moustapha Diagne (12) from Rufisque, Senegal, fight for the rebound during WKU's first basketball media day October 11 in Bowling Green. Joseph Barkoff/HERALD

SGA strikes down bill to defund Interfraternity and Panhellenic Council organizations

1

In a narrow decision at its meeting Tuesday, Student Government Association voted to strike down Bill 10-18-F, which called for the end of SGA funding to Interfraternity Council and Panhellenic Council organizations, following a lengthy session of debate. The bill was authored by senator Amy Wyer and Committee for Diversity and Inclusion Chair Mark Clark. Wyer said she was motivated to create the bill after seeing how other universities' SGA interacts with Greek organizations.

Potter College celebrates the wizarding world of Harry Potter

2

The Potter College of Arts and Letters hosted its ninth annual fall festival Tuesday afternoon. The festival surrounded the theme of "Live the Magic of Potter College" and allowed for students to branch out through crafts and other "Harry Potter"-themed activities.

All departments within the Potter College were represented on the Colonnade, and department heads made appearances throughout the afternoon.

Hilltopper lineman Jalen Madden cited for marijuana possession

3

Redshirt sophomore defensive lineman Jalen Madden was cited for marijuana possession Thursday, according to WKU Police Department crime reports. Madden was given the citation at the Kentucky Street Apartments at 8:59 p.m. Thursday, according to the report. He also received discipline from the program.

Lady Toppers picked to finish fourth in preseason C-USA coaches' poll

4

WKU women's basketball has been picked to finish fourth in Conference USA by the annual preseason C-USA coaches' poll. The Lady Toppers, a program which has claimed the last two C-USA Tournament Championships and been to the NCAA Tournament four times in the past six years, received no first-place votes.

Hilltoppers to be featured on ESPN, CBS networks and more this season

5

The WKU men's basketball team will be featured across a plethora of networks throughout the 2018-2019 season. Every game the Hilltoppers will compete in during the upcoming season will be televised or streamed online nationally.