

1946

UA3/2/4 Poem

Paul Garrett

Western Kentucky University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records

Part of the Mass Communication Commons, and the Poetry Commons

Recommended Citation

Garrett, Paul, "UA3/2/4 Poem" (1946). WKU Archives Records. Paper 7142.
https://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records/7142

This Poem is brought to you for free and open access by TopSCHOLAR®. It has been accepted for inclusion in WKU Archives Records by an authorized administrator of TopSCHOLAR®. For more information, please contact topscholar@wku.edu.

The moral's plain for all to see
Before you sit look for a bee.
For on a bee perhaps you can't
But act like what you really ain't
T'was that which our dear Ferdie led
Where thence they take out most bulls dead.

For each to be himself was meant
And as himself to be content.
So while some say he should have fit
I say, "Not so, let Ferdie sit"
For while for some combat were fitter
Ferdie was born to be a sitter!

Paul L. Garrett