The Nurse

As a nurse, Dear Lord, You know
I have no easy task
And when my spirits sink so low
Some favors I must ask

If troubles should work beset
Let this not spoil my mission
Never once let me forget
I assist God, the Great Physician

Few compliments will come my way
You know this truth Dear Lord
That's why I ask You every day
Walk with me through each ward.

Hugh X. Lewis

A special thanks to everyone who has made this possible for us.

Nurse's Prayer

Teach me, O God, to put into practice the art that I have been taught,
With a song in my heart, a smile on my face, and always a kind thought.
Into my hands put the most gentle touch, but with strength to support the weak,
And on my tongue place tactful words for the encouragement my patients seek.
And, teach me, O God, to plan my work in the most intelligent way.
Let not one thing be left undone as I slip through the busy day.
Put keen sight in my eyes, fast steps in my feet so I may be quick to see,
The right way, the wrong way in caring for the life that is trusted to me.
And as the years go by, life's winter passed, and my task on earth is through,
Let me, O God, be able to say, that I have been of service to you.

International Pledge

In the full knowledge of the obligations I am undertaking, I promise to care for the sick with all the skill and understanding I possess, without regard to race, creed, colour, politics or social status, sparing no effort to conserve life, to alleviate suffering and to promote health.

I will respect at all times the dignity and religious beliefs of the patients under my care, holding in confidence all personal information entrusted to me, and refraining from any action which might endanger life or health.

I will endeavor to keep my professional knowledge and skills at the highest level, and to give loyal support and cooperation to all members of the health team.

I will do my utmost to honour the international code of ethics applied to nursing and to uphold the integrity of the nurse.
