NOBLE NAMED 2016 C-USA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL SCHOLAR-ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

IRVING, Texas - Rising redshirt senior Kendall Noble has been named the 2016 C-USA Scholar-Athlete of the Year for women's basketball, becoming WKU's first winner of the prestigious award since joining the conference.

Noble, who became just the fourth player in C-USA history to sweep both the Player and Defensive Player of the Year awards, averaged 18.1 points, 7.7 rebounds and 5.6 assists for the Lady Toppers this season as the team reached the quarterfinals of the WNIT, its deepest postseason run since the 2006-07 campaign.

The Hazard, Ky., native recorded the first two triple-doubles in WKU's storied history during the 2015-16 season, notching 17 points, 11 rebounds and 11 assists against Charlotte on Jan. 23 and repeating the feat with 17 points, 11 rebounds and 10 assists against Marshall in the C-USA Quarterfinals on March 10. The latter was the first triple-double in the history of the C-USA Tournament, and Noble was the lone Division I player in the nation with a pair of triple-doubles this season.

In addition to her on-court prowess, Noble excelled in the classroom and earned her undergraduate degree in May. The senior captured a spot on the C-USA All-Academic Team and became WKU's first CoSIDA Academic All-American since 1981 and the third in program history by earning Third Team honors in February.

Noble was WKU's recipient of the C-USA Winter Spirit of Service Award that recognizes an athlete from each member university for their qualities in competition, in the classroom and in service for the community.

The senior joins Ellinor Haag (women's golf) as WKU's 2016 C-USA Scholar-Athlete of the Year recipients. WKU posted two honorees in 2015-16 after having one winner, cross country's Mary Lever, in its first year as a member of C-USA.

LADY TOPPERS RELEASE FULL 2016-17 SCHEDULE

PDF Schedule Attached

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Lady Topper Basketball has released its complete 2016-17 schedule as announced by Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard on Monday morning, a slate that features 15 dates inside E.A. Diddle Arena and marquee matchups against opponents like Indiana, DePaul and Louisville.

The Lady Toppers return eight letterwinners from their 2015-16 team that posted a 27-7 record, including a 15-3 mark in C-USA play and a run to the quarterfinals of the WNIT, the program's deepest postseason trek since the 2006-07 campaign. Redshirt senior Kendall Noble, the 2016 C-USA Player and Defensive Player of the Year, returns after an incredible season that saw the Hazard, Ky., native average 18.1 points and 7.7 rebounds per game while tallying 189 assists and 90 steals. Noble also became the program's first CoSIDA Academic All-American since 1981, earning Third Team honors from the organization.

In addition to Noble, WKU will return its top five scorers and nearly 75 percent of its rebounding from 2015-16. Tashia Brown and Ivy Brown will be back after making strong sophomore jumps; the former earned First Team All-C-USA honors while the latter collected 10 double-doubles, only the 15th player in program history to accomplish the feat.

WKU will kick off its 2016-17 campaign with an exhibition against Young Harris inside Diddle Arena at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 3, and will begin the regular season one week later against Alabama A&M on Nov. 11. The Lady Bulldogs are coached by former WKU assistant Margaret Richards, who is in her first season with the SWAC program.

The Lady Toppers will continue their season-opening homestand with matchups against UT Arlington (Nov. 16) and Indiana (Nov. 19) before going on the road for each of their next six contests. As previously announced, WKU will compete in the 2016 Gulf Coast Showcase that features five teams which reached the 2016 NCAA Tournament. WKU will open against DePaul at 12:30 p.m. (CT) on Nov. 25 before facing either Kent State or Baylor on Nov. 26; the Lady Toppers will also have a third game on Nov. 27 against one of the four remaining teams in the bracket.

WKU will remain on the road following the in-season tournament, squaring off at Eastern Kentucky (Nov. 30) and Austin Peay (Dec. 3). The Lady Toppers will then close out the road swing at in-state rival Louisville on Dec. 11; last season, WKU earned a thrilling 71-69 victory over the then-No. 16 Cardinals inside Diddle Arena, the program's first win against a ranked opponent since 2004.

The team is set to close out its non-conference schedule with three consecutive games at home, battling Lipscomb (Dec. 15), College of Charleston (Dec. 18) and Ball State (Dec. 21) before taking a week off for the holidays.

Entering its third year as a member of C-USA, WKU will open its conference slate with visits from Florida Atlantic (Dec. 30) and FIU (Jan. 1) inside Diddle Arena. C-USA scheduling will remain the same as in recent years, with teams generally playing on both Thursday and Saturday each week with the exception of bye weeks in which teams play just one game.

After traveling to Charlotte (Jan. 5) and Old Dominion (Jan. 7), the Lady Toppers will be back at home to face UAB (Jan. 12) and Middle Tennessee (Jan. 15). For the first time since joining C-USA, WKU's men and women will not play a mirrored schedule in the first meeting against the Blue Raiders; the Hilltoppers will play in Murfreesboro on Saturday, Jan. 14, while the Lady Toppers host Middle Tennessee on Sunday, Jan. 15.

"[Middle Tennessee Director of Athletics] Chris Massaro and I both agreed that Western Kentucky and Middle Tennessee represent one of the signature rivalries in Conference USA, and to play weekend games in men's and women's basketball on the same date is not good for either fan base," said WKU Director of Athletics Todd Stewart. "Moving our women's game from Saturday to Sunday should help attendance at both the men's game on Saturday and the women's game on Sunday, and we are also hopeful this date change enables one of our conference's television partners to showcase the league's top women's basketball rivalry."

WKU will face Marshall, its travel partner, inside Diddle Arena on Jan. 21 and will make the short trip to Huntington, W. Va., on Feb. 11. The Lady Toppers will host Louisiana Tech (Feb. 2), Southern Miss (Feb. 4), Charlotte (Feb. 23) and Old Dominion (Feb. 25) in its remaining home series, and will go on the road to UTEP (Jan. 26), UTSA (Jan. 28), Middle Tennessee (Feb. 16), UAB (Feb. 18), North Texas (March 2) and Rice (March 4) to round out its regular season conference schedule.

The 2017 C-USA Tournament will remain in Birmingham for the third consecutive year between March 8-11. The first two days of games will be played at Bartow Arena on the campus of UAB, while the semifinals and championship will shift to Legacy Arena in downtown Birmingham.

Season ticket renewals will be available in the upcoming weeks while individuals wishing to make new season ticket purchases to see the Lady Toppers are encouraged to call the Ticket Office at 1-800-5-BIG-RED to inquire about ticket opportunities.

LADY TOPPERS BEGIN FIFTH SEASON UNDER CLARK-HEARD

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Lady Topper Basketball head coach Michelle Clark-Heard met with the media Monday afternoon after the Lady Toppers began their preseason preparations this weekend, just over a month from the start of the 2016-17 regular season.

WKU returns its top five scorers from the 2015-16 campaign that saw the Lady Toppers go 27-7 (15-3 in C-USA play) and reach the quarterfinals of the WNIT, the program's deepest postseason run since the 2006-07 season. Redshirt senior Kendall Noble became just the fourth player in C-USA history to sweep both the Player and Defensive Player of the Year awards, while junior Tashia Brown was named First Team All-C-USA. Ivy Brown, Dee Givens, Kayla Smith, Micah Jones, Ima Akpan and Sidnee Bopp also return for the Lady Toppers.

"We're just looking forward to it, we've got a great group. I feel like we have a lot of veterans that are returning, and a lot of new faces too. I'm just really excited, the effort was great yesterday. You know it was the first day of practice, with veterans which is nice. The good thing about it is, they kind of know the things, some of the same drills we do a lot for repetition, they already still know. The greatest thing is the rule that we can have team practice right before we go into the season for practice – it has helped us. It was a good day yesterday."

Among the newcomers are a trio of Kentucky freshmen in Whitney Creech, Malaka Frank and Sarah Price. Creech finished her high school career as the top-scoring player in Kentucky high school history, male or female, with 5,527 points, and all three were selected to the 2016 Kentucky All-Star Team, the first time since 2012 that WKU has had three committed players compete in the game in the same year.

Also joining the Lady Toppers for the 2016-17 season are Kentucky transfers Jaycee Coe, who sat out last season due to transfer regulations, and Kyvin Goodin-Rogers. Junior college product Naomi Mayes joins after playing one season at Joliet Junior College and will have three years of eligibility remaining, and Egyptian national Raneem Elgedawy will round out the 15-player roster.

"Kyvin Goodin-Rogers will be eligible to play in the second semester and Jaycee came in last year and had a whole year with us. Jaycee was able to do a whole for us last season, specifically in practice and got the system under her belt, so I think the fans will be really excited to see both of them. I've coached a lot of kids who can shoot the ball and Jaycee can really, really shoot it," Clark-Heard said.

WKU kicks off its season on Friday, Oct. 14, with the annual Hilltopper Hysteria event inside E.A. Diddle Arena. The festivities are set to begin follow the volleyball match at 6 p.m. and will include scrimmages, a shooting stars challenge and performances by the WKU Spirit Squad.

The Lady Toppers are set to challenge themselves with a strong non-conference schedule, including dates at home against Indiana (Nov. 19) and on the road at Louisville (Dec. 11). WKU will also compete in the 2016 Gulf Coast Showcase Season tickets for WKU Lady Topper Basketball begin at just $40 per person and are now on sale through the WKU Ticket Office. Fans can also take advantage of the "Big Red Family Plan," which includes four reserved seats in the 200-level of Diddle Arena for only $25 each when purchased in groups of four or more. Call 1-800-5-BIG-RED or visit WKUSports.com to lock in tickets today.

On expectations for practice...

"We're just looking forward to it, we've got a great group. I feel like we have a lot of veterans that are returning, and a lot of new faces too. I'm just really excited, the effort was great yesterday. You know it was the first day of practice, with veterans which is nice. The good thing about it is, they kind of know the things, some of the same drills we do a lot for repetition, they already still know. The greatest thing is the rule that we can have team practice right before we go into the season for practice – it has helped us. It was a good day yesterday."

On having a lot of veterans returning and the momentum that come with that...

"I think that every year is a different year. I think with us having veterans in Kendall (Noble) and Micah (Jones) coming back and with them being fifth-year seniors it's great. I definitely think it's a great feeling but for me it is a sad feeling because they'll be leaving and they were here when I first got here. I think we all just get really excited about basketball season getting rolling around again and all of the opportunities that we have."

On the comfort there is with having many returners coming back...

"Well, I think the comfort is understanding and knowing as a coach is that you know what you're putting on the floor day in and day out and they understand me and this staff – that's the most important thing. Practice is where it all starts. We get better when we put them in different situations but when it comes to game time it's all about them. So I'm just really glad that they've been together and they understand what we are looking for as a staff."

On if the transfers will be a big impact:

"Kyvin Goodin-Rogers will be eligible to play in the second semester and Jaycee Coe came in last year and had a whole year with us. Jaycee was able to do a whole for us last season, specifically in practice and got the system under her belt. So I think the fans will be really excited to see Jaycee and Kyvin. I've coached a lot of kids who can shoot the ball and Jaycee Coe can really, really shoot it. And I think it is going to really open it up for us. Kyvin is one who has the ability to do a lot of different things at her size. She can shoot the three, she's very strong and can rebound."

LADY TOPPERS TO HOST TIP-OFF LUNCHEON THURSDAY, OCT. 27

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Season ticket holders and fans of the WKU women's basketball program are encouraged to attend the annual Lady Topper Tip-Off Luncheon on Thursday, Oct. 27, inside the Harbaugh Club on the second floor of Houchens Industries-L.T. Smith Stadium.

Attendance for the event is $15 and all attendees are asked to pay in advance. Those interested in attending should RSVP by Oct. 17 to Peggy Jones by phone at (270) 745-2133 or by e-mail at peggy.jones@wku.edu.

The luncheon is scheduled to begin at 11:00 a.m. and will run through 1:00 p.m. on Thursday afternoon. Those attending should park in Parking Structure #2 located next to the football stadium.

The Lady Toppers, coming off their deepest postseason run since 2006-07 after reaching the quarterfinals of the WNIT, have won 57 games over the last two seasons, the second-most in a two-year span in program history. Now heading into head coach Michelle Clark-Heard's fifth season at the helm of the program, WKU is set to challenge itself with a difficult schedule in 2016-17 as it seeks to return to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in the last five seasons.

Both the men's and women's basketball teams will be in action on Friday, Oct. 14 for the annual Hilltopper Hysteria event inside E.A. Diddle Arena. Presented by Hughes Supply, Hilltopper Hysteria will feature individual player and coach introductions for both teams, scrimmages, a shooting stars challenge and entertainment from the WKU Spirit Squad. Parking and admission are free for the event, and the first 500 fans in attendance will receive a free t-shirt.

Season tickets for both the Hilltoppers and Lady Toppers are on sale now through the WKU Ticket Office, and season ticket renewals have been mailed. For more information, call the ticket office at 1-800-5-BIG RED or 745-5222 locally.

NOBLE NAMED C-USA PRESEASON POY, WKU TABBED FIRST IN COACHES POLL

Kendall Noble and Tashia Brown Headshots Attached

IRVING, Texas – Kendall Noble has been named the 2016-17 Preseason C-USA Player of the Year and joins Tashia Brown on the Preseason All-C-USA Team, and WKU has been picked as the favorites to win the league as announced by the conference office on Wednesday afternoon.

Noble is the third preseason conference Player of the Year selected in head coach Michelle Clark-Heard's five seasons with the team, joining former WKU standouts Alexis Govan (Sun Belt, 2013-14) and Chastity Gooch (C-USA, 2014-15). In addition, the Lady Toppers have garnered multiple preseason all-conference nods in four of Clark-Heard's five seasons, with the lone exception coming last year when Noble was the sole preseason representative for WKU.

The reigning C-USA Player and Defensive Player of the Year, Noble has now collected preseason all-conference honors in each of her last three seasons, while Brown's accolades are the first preseason honors of her career. Both were selected as All-C-USA First Team members following the 2015-16 season.

Noble, became just the fourth player in C-USA history to sweep both the Player and Defensive Player of the Year awards in 2015-16. She averaged 18.1 points, 7.7 rebounds and 5.6 assists for the Lady Toppers last season as the team reached the quarterfinals of the WNIT, its deepest postseason run since the 2006-07 campaign, and posted a 27-7 record.

The Hazard, Ky., native recorded the first two triple-doubles in WKU's storied history, notching 17 points, 11 rebounds and 11 assists against Charlotte on Jan. 23 and repeating the feat with 17 points, 11 rebounds and 10 assists against Marshall in the C-USA Quarterfinals on March 10. The latter was the first triple-double in the history of the C-USA Tournament, and Noble was the lone Division I player in the nation with a pair of triple-doubles last season.

One of the most electrifying scorers in C-USA, Brown averaged 17.5 points per game last season and was WKU's leading scorer in points per game during conference play, averaging 18.1 points. The junior eclipsed the 20-point barrier 12 times during the 2015-16 season and had 30 or more points twice, including a career-best 34-point outing at Old Dominion on Feb. 18 that ranks as the 10th-most points in a single game in program history.

Brown completed an impressive jump from her freshman to her sophomore campaign last season, averaging nine more points per game to emerge as one of the top scoring threats in the league. Including Noble and Brown, WKU is set to return its top six scorers from 2015-16 in addition to its top three rebounding options.

WKU was picked to win C-USA this season in the annual preseason coaches poll, garnering six first-place votes to narrowly beat out Middle Tennessee (five first-place votes) and Old Dominion (two first-place votes). This marks the first time under Clark-Heard that the Lady Toppers have been tabbed the preseason favorites to win the conference and the fourth consecutive season in which WKU has been slated to finish in the top three of the conference dating back to its tenure in the Sun Belt.

The public will get its first look at the 2016-17 edition of the Lady Toppers on Friday, Oct. 14, at the annual Hilltopper Hysteria event presented by Hughes Supply. Alongside WKU men's basketball, the Lady Toppers will compete in a scrimmage, a shooting stars challenge and will sign autographs for fans following the event that kicks off with a WKU volleyball match at 6 p.m.

WKU opens its 2016-17 slate with an exhibition against Young Harris at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 3, before kicking off the regular season inside E.A. Diddle Arena against Alabama A&M at 7 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 11.

Season tickets for both the Hilltoppers and Lady Toppers are on sale now through the WKU Ticket Office, and season ticket renewals have been mailed. For more information, call the ticket office at 1-800-5-BIG RED or 745-5222 locally.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Lady Topper Basketball head coach Michelle Clark-Heard, redshirt senior Kendall Noble and sophomore Kayla Smith represented WKU in its annual on-campus Media Day on Tuesday afternoon inside E.A. Diddle Arena's Paul Just Media Center.

"Every year our goal is like everyone's: to win a championship or get a chance at an at-large bid. We were very disappointed that we didn't perform the way we needed to in the conference tournament, but I was really, really proud of how we bounced back and the team we became in the postseason WNIT. Hopefully, it's a team we continue to be this season, just being competitive and understanding and knowing there are no days off," Clark-Heard said in her interview on Tuesday.

The Lady Toppers will be guided by Clark-Heard in her fifth season with the program. The former WKU standout player has guided the team to 103 victories since taking the reins prior to the 2012-13 season, the most among C-USA programs. In addition, the Lady Toppers have reached the postseason following all four campaigns, including a trip to the WNIT Quarterfinals in 2015-16. For the first time under Clark-Heard, the Lady Toppers were picked to win C-USA in the preseason coaches' poll announced earlier this month.

Led by the reigning C-USA Player and Defensive Player of the Year and preseason Player of the Year in Noble, the Lady Toppers will look to continue building on one of the most successful eras in program history in 2016-17. Over the last two seasons, WKU has posted an impressive 57-12 (.826) record, the second-highest win total over a two-year span in school history, trailing only the 1984-85 and 1985-86 Final Four teams.

"I think what makes Kendall special is that she doesn't worry about those individual accolades, she never has. And when you talk to her you can tell she doesn't like that attention, she's all so much as a team player and that's what I love about her, that's what I love about coaching her," Clark-Heard said of the Hazard, Ky., native.

WKU will open its 2016-17 campaign next Thursday evening, Nov. 3, at 7 p.m. as the Lady Toppers host Young Harris College in an exhibition matchup inside Diddle Arena. The team will then open the regular season against Alabama A&M, coached by former WKU assistant Margaret Richards, at 7 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 11, also inside Diddle Arena.

Lady Topper Basketball holds a rich tradition as one of the traditional powerhouses in women's college basketball. Ranked 10th in NCAA history with 933 victories, WKU has collected more wins in its 53-year history than perennially strong programs such as Notre Dame, North Carolina, Maryland and Baylor. In 2016-17, WKU will seek to return to the NCAA Tournament and collect the program's first tournament victory since the 1999-00 campaign.

Season and single-game tickets are available for the 2016-17 season at WKUTickets.com or by phone at 1-800-5-BIGRED or 745-5222 locally. Season tickets begin at $40 for Lady Topper Basketball, and fans can also purchase the Big Red Family Plan with a four-pack of season tickets in the 200-level of Diddle Arena for only $25 each.

Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard

Reflecting on last year and the team's goals this season...

"Every year our goal is like everyone's: To win a championship or get a chance at an at-large bid. We were very disappointed that we didn't perform the way we needed to in the conference tournament, but I was really, really proud of how we bounced back and the team we became in the postseason WNIT. Hopefully, it's a team we continue to be this season, just being competitive and understanding and knowing there are no days off. I think going into the conference tournament we weren't as focused as we needed to be to get it done, so we've learned a lot from that. The veterans, of course, with Kendall, Tashia and Ivy and everyone, I think that made them hungrier. Our ultimate goal is for us to just get better every single day and have a chance to compete in the non-conference, then hopefully put ourselves in the position to win a couple of these tough games we have on the schedule."

On managing high expectations in the preseason...

"I think expectations are good things, you know you always want to have the opportunity to be in the conversation and being talked about. From the first day I stepped foot on campus, that's what we talked about: We wanted a chance to be talked about and be in the company of all the great programs. So the expectations are always going to be there, but you know no one puts more pressure on ourselves than us. I just want to make sure our team is ready and we're excited. We're just going in to make sure every single day we're competing and doing the things we need to, and the rest will take care of itself. That's what we talk about a lot, that's what we talk to our team about. They understand even if we weren't picked preseason No. 1, we still would be in the same position we are today because of our non-conference schedule. We're playing a lot of teams that are going to be really good in different places. So at the end of the day, you want people to be talking about your program and say that you're the team to beat."

On incoming transfers from Kentucky, Jaycee Coe and Kyvin Goodin-Rogers...

"I think they'll make a huge impact, that's why we got them here and we're excited to have them on the roster. Jaycee Coe came in last year and I talked about her during some of the press conferences last year, about how she helped us in practice and made us a better team. Well, she's just continuing to work even harder and she's going to be fun to watch. She can shoot the basketball maybe better than any player I've coached, but she's also working on a lot of things, too, so she can be an all-around player. Kyvin works hard every single day and I'm just excited she's on the court more because she has had some little injuries that have held her back some in practice at times. But she has been on the court now just competing and getting better, and we're excited to be able to add her in the second semester."

On Conference USA Preseason Player of the Year, Kendall Noble...

"I think what makes Kendall special is that she doesn't worry about those individual accolades, she never has. And when you talk to her you can tell she doesn't like that attention, she's all so much as a team player and that's what I love about her, that's what I love about coaching her. She has been all about 'Coach, what do I need to do for this team for us to be successful?' She's just one that every single day I have to find ways to challenge her because she has done a lot for this program and done a lot for herself individually. But I think at the end of the day her biggest feat that she wants to accomplish is to win another championship and for her to be the best she can be with this team. She's incredible to coach and she works hard every single day to be the best she can be. I'm the one who has to find new ways to challenge her every day so she can be great, but I take my hat off to her because she allows that to happen. And no matter how I have to challenge her, or what I have to do for her, she accepts the challenge. She's just an incredible teammate and a leader by example, but I also need her to be a leader vocally, so she's working on that more and more because she understands what we need to be successful."

Redshirt Senior Guard Kendall Noble

On being picked to win Conference USA...

"We know that we have a target on our back. It's true, everybody else in the conference is going to be gunning for us. We're just trying to come to practice every single day and get better to be able to live up to those expectations."

On the team's depth compared to previous seasons...

"We should be pretty deep as long as we can stay healthy. If everybody keeps playing like they have been in practice, we'll have a deep team. We should be able to get a little more of a break after having to play so many minutes last season."

Sophomore Guard/Forward Kayla Smith

On the most improved player on the team from last season...

"I would say Sidnee Bopp. She's come into practice focused and has worked hard every day. She's been pushing everyone else on the team to work even harder than usual."

On the benefit of having veteran leaders on the team...

"It means a lot, not only for us younger players but for everyone else as well. They bring so much to the table and they encourage us. We're able to follow their lead because they're such a good example for the team."

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Coming off its deepest postseason run since 2006-07, WKU will open its 2016-17 campaign with an exhibition against Division II Young Harris College inside Diddle Arena on Thursday evening at 7:00 p.m. The Lady Toppers and Mountain Lions have never met on the hardwood.

Under Michelle Clark-Heard, the Lady Toppers have won their five most recent exhibition contests by an average of 43 points, including a 65-point victory over Ouachita Baptist last season. WKU has won all five open exhibitions since the 2012-13 season by more than 30 points.

The Lady Toppers return their top six scorers from a season ago and will have redshirt senior Micah Jones back on the court after she missed all but two games due to injury in 2015-16.

Young Harris is led by first-year head coach Matt Stearsman and put together an 11-15 record in 2015-16. Leading scorer Meredith Tarver returns for the Mountain Lions after averaging 13.6 points per game last season as does leading rebounder Jenny Vernet, who pulled down 8.8 boards per game. Young Harris is a member of the Division II Peach Belt Conference based in the states of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia.

Following Thursday's matchup, WKU will remain at home for its regular season opener next Friday, Nov. 11, at 7:00 p.m. as the Lady Toppers take on Alabama A&M. The Lady Bulldogs are coached by former WKU assistant Margaret Richards in her first season with the team.

QUICK SHOTS

- WKU has won 32 consecutive exhibition outings and owns a perfect 5-0 record in such games under Clark-Heard. Last season, the Lady Toppers defeated Ouachita Baptist, 108-43, inside Diddle Arena.

- Redshirt senior Kendall Noble was named the 2016-17 Preseason C-USA Player of the Year and both Noble and junior Tashia Brown were selected to the preseason All-C-USA team in a vote conducted by the league's coaches. Noble is the third preseason player of the year for WKU in the last five seasons.

- For the first time under Clark-Heard, WKU has been picked to win the conference in the annual preseason poll. The Lady Toppers received six first-place votes and narrowly edged out both Middle Tennessee and Old Dominion for the top spot.

- Clark-Heard captured her 100th victory as the head coach of the Lady Toppers in a 69-58 victory at Louisiana Tech on March 5 last season, reaching the milestone in just her 130th game at the helm of the program. Only the legendary Paul Sanderford, WKU's all-time winningest coach, reached the mark more quickly, doing so in his 127th game with the team.

- By winning her 100th game, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

- Over its first two seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 31-5 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted a 15-3 record last season.

- By winning all eight of the contests in which it hit 80 points last season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted an undefeated 39-0 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

- WKU finished the 2015-16 season with a 14-1 mark at home and has posted a 49-10 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

LADY TOPPERS KICK OFF 2016-17 SEASON WITH YOUNG HARRIS EXHIBITION

Coming off its deepest postseason run since 2006-07, WKU will open its 2016-17 campaign with an exhibition against Division II Young Harris College inside Diddle Arena on Thursday evening at 7:00 p.m. The Lady Toppers and Mountain Lions have never met on the hardwood.

Under Michelle Clark-Heard, the Lady Toppers have won their five most recent exhibition contests by an average of 43 points, including a 65-point victory over Ouachita Baptist last season. WKU has won all five open exhibitions since the 2012-13 season by more than 30 points.

The Lady Toppers return their top six scorers from a season ago and will have redshirt senior Micah Jones back on the court after she missed all but two games due to injury in 2015-16.

Young Harris is led by first-year head coach Matt Stearsman and put together an 11-15 record in 2015-16. Leading scorer Meredith Tarver returns for the Mountain Lions after averaging 13.6 points per game last season as does leading rebounder Jenny Vernet, who pulled down 8.8 boards per game. Young Harris is a member of the Division II Peach Belt Conference based in the states of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia.

Following Thursday's matchup, WKU will remain at home for its regular season opener next Friday, Nov. 11, at 7:00 p.m. as the Lady Toppers take on Alabama A&M. The Lady Bulldogs are coached by former WKU assistant Margaret Richards in her first season with the team.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

► WKU has won 32 consecutive exhibition outings and owns a perfect 5-0 record in such games under Michelle Clark-Heard. Last season, the Lady Toppers defeated Ouachita Baptist, 108-43, inside Diddle Arena.

► Redshirt senior Kendall Noble was named the 2016-17 Preseason C-USA Player of the Year and both Noble and junior Tashia Brown were selected to the preseason All-C-USA team in a vote conducted by the league's coaches. Noble is the third preseason player of the year for WKU in the last five seasons.

► For the first time under Clark-Heard, WKU has been picked to win the conference in the annual preseason poll. The Lady Toppers received six first-place votes and narrowly edged out both Middle Tennessee and Old Dominion for the top spot.

GAME NOTES

NEW FACES, SAME GOAL

WKU will mix seven new faces with eight returners in 2016-17, including four freshmen and three transfers. Jaycee Coe will be eligible to play after sitting out last season, while Kyvin Goodin-Rogers will be eligible following the fall semester. Naomi Mayes will also be able to contribute immediately for the Lady Toppers as a junior college transfer.

Malaka Frank, Whitney Creech, Sarah Price and Raneem Elgedawy make up the incoming freshman class for WKU and will be called upon immediately to bolster the roster.

EXHIBITION PLAY

WKU enters Thursday's game against Young Harris with a 32-game winning streak in exhibition play. Over the last 24 seasons, the Lady Toppers are 39-4 in pre-season play, and Michelle Clark-Heard has posted a perfect 5-0 mark in exhibition games with WKU.

KEEPING THE STREAK(S) GOING

WKU has won 20 or more games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that the Lady Toppers have had such a streak since 2004-05 to 2007-08.

WKU has also posted three consecutive seasons with a winning streak of 10 or more games. In 2013-14, the Lady Toppers strung together 10 straight wins from Feb. 12 through March 22; in 2014-15, WKU had two separate streaks of 14 and 12 games; and in 2015-16, WKU won 14 consecutive games from Dec. 5-Jan.

28. The Lady Toppers are one of just nine programs in the nation with a 10-game winning streak in each of the last three seasons, joining perennial title contenders such as UConn, Maryland, Notre Dame and Baylor.

CLARK-HEARD SECOND FASTEST TO 100 WKU WINS

Michelle Clark-Heard captured her 100th victory as the head coach of the Lady Toppers in a 69-58 victory at Louisiana Tech on March 5 last season, reaching the milestone in just her 130th game at the helm of the program.

Only the legendary Paul Sanderford, WKU's all-time winningest coach, reached the mark more quickly, doing so in his 127th game with the team.

By winning her 100th game, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

WKU PICKED TO WIN C-USA IN PRESEASON COACHES' POLL

After returning the Player and Defensive Player of the Year in Kendall Noble, as well as the team's top six scorers from a season ago, WKU was picked to win C-USA in the annual preseason coaches' poll, garnering six first-place votes to edge out Middle Tennessee's five votes and Old Dominion's two votes.

NOBLE, BROWN TABBED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE BY COACHES

Redshirt senior Kendall Noble, just the fourth player in C-USA history to sweep the Player and Defensive Player of the Year awards in 2015-16, and teammate Tashia Brown were both selected to the preseason All-C-USA team by the league's coaches.

Noble collected the first two triple-doubles in program history, as well as the first in the history of the C-USA Tournament last season, averaging 18.1 points, 7.7 rebounds and 5.6 assists.

Brown became one of the most electric scorers in the league, averaging 17.5 points and tallying a pair of 30-point games, including a career-best 34 points at Old Dominion on Feb. 18.

NOBLE NAMED PRESEASON C-USA PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Redshirt senior Kendall Noble was tabbed by C-USA coaches as the Pre-season C-USA Player of the Year for 2016-17.

Noble's selection marks the third time in Michelle Clark-Heard's five seasons with the program that the Lady Toppers have had the preseason conference player of the year.

Former WKU All-Americans Chastity Gooch (Sun Belt, 2013-14) and Alexis Gowan (C-USA, 2014-15) were the previous preseason players of the year under Clark-Heard's watch.

THAT 80S SHOW

WKU broke the 80-point barrier eight times in 2015-16 and have scored 80 or more points on at least seven occasions per season since Michelle Clark-Heard assumed control of the program in 2012-13.

By winning all eight of the contests in which it hit 80 points last season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted an undefeated 39-0 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU finished the 2015-16 season with a 14-1 mark at home and has posted a 49-10 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers had a 15-game home winning streak prior to falling against UTEP on Feb. 6 last season, a mark that was the ninth-longest streak in the nation at the time.

HEADING TO FLORIDA FOR THANKSGIVING

WKU will be one of eight teams competing in the 2016 Gulf Coast Showcase in Estero, Fla., from Nov. 24-26.

The Lady Toppers will open the tournament against DePaul, who ranks No. 21 in both the preseason Associated Press and USA Today polls. The Blue Demons reached the Sweet 16 last season before falling to Oregon State.

Following the matchup against DePaul, WKU will face either Baylor or Kent State. The Lady Toppers share a bit of history with the Bears after pushing them to the brink as a No. 15 seed in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament in 2014 before falling, 87-74.

APPROACHING THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Junior Tashia Brown and redshirt senior Micah Jones are seeking to become the 37th and 38th members of WKU's 1,000-point club during the 2016-17 season. Redshirt senior Kendall Noble became the 36th member of the club during her Player of the Year campaign last season.

Also competing in the tournament are 2016 national runner-up Syracuse and NCAA Tournament participants from a year ago in Ohio State and George Washington.

WKU IN IN-SEASON TOURNAMENTS UNDER CLARK-HEARD

Under Michelle Clark-Heard, the Lady Toppers have posted an 11-1 record in in-season tournaments and have claimed the championship in four of the five tournaments in which they have competed.

Last season, WKU powered past George Mason and host Alaska-Anchorage to capture the 2015 GCI Great Alaska Shootout.

In previous seasons under Clark-Heard, the Lady Toppers have won the Wright State Invitational (2012-13), the Puerto Rico Classic (2013-14) and the Hofstra Thanksgiving Tournament (2014-15). WKU also reached the final of the 2014-15 Preseason WNIT before falling at Mississippi State.

TOUGH UNDER PRESSURE

Since Clark-Heard took over the program, the Lady Toppers have played 23 contests that have been decided by three or fewer points. In such games, WKU has posted a 17-6 record, including four victories this season over Louisville, FIU, Rice, Southern Miss and Saint Louis.

In the same vein, the Lady Toppers have been very tough closers down the stretch as well, recording a 93-8 record when leading or tied with five minutes remaining in games since 2012-13.

WKU LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, Sweet 16 appearances, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

MICHELLE CLARK-HEARD
Fifth Season

Michelle Clark-Heard has quickly shaped the Western Kentucky University Lady Topper Basketball program back into a national name, putting the Lady Toppers back on the national map. In just three seasons at WKU as head coach, Clark-Heard has reached two NCAA Tournaments, won two conference tournament championships and a regular season conference title while posting 76 wins, the most in a coaches first three seasons in WKU women's basketball or men's basketball history.

Clark-Heard's third season directing her alma mater in 2014-15 was one of the best the storied program has seen. She led the Lady Toppers to a 30-5 record, posting a Conference USA record 30 wins in the program's first season as a league member.

The season began with the Lady Toppers making huge waves early by reaching the finals of the Preseason Women's NIT with wins at Colorado and over eventual American East Conference champion Albany before a loss on the road at Mississippi State. WKU also posted non-conference wins over Hofstra, Tulane and Ole Miss.

The Lady Toppers made an immediate impact in Conference USA, posting a 16-2 record to tie the league mark for league wins in a season, including eight wins on the road, to secure the program's first regular season league title as a Conference USA member and 11th in program history. In early January, she led the Lady Toppers to the Associated Press Top 25 Rankings for the first time since the 1997-98 season. She also became just the 10th coach in NCAA history to lead their alma mater into the Associated Press Top 25 rankings as both a player and coach when the Lady Toppers were ranked for two weeks in January 2015.

The Lady Toppers then won three games in three days by a combined eight points to secure a tournament title at the Conference USA Championships in Birmingham, Ala.

Following the season, Clark-Heard was recognized for her outstanding accomplishments, earning Conference USA Coach of the Year and 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I Regional Coach of the Year honors. Her selection as a WBCA Regional Coach of the Year also made her a finalist for the Pat Summitt Trophy, awarded annually to the 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year.

Her success at WKU has also helped her land new opportunities in the USA Basketball ranks. Clark-Heard was named an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Pan American Women's Basketball Team, joining head coach Lisa Bluder of the University of Iowa and fellow assistant coach Scott Rueck of Oregon State University on the 2015 staff.

In Toronto, Clark-Heard helped lead the United States to a silver medal in her international assistant coaching debut, falling just short in the gold medal game against the host Canadians.

In 2013-14, Clark-Heard helped WKU win its final seven regular season games before reeling off three straight in New Orleans, La. in March 2014 to win the Sun Belt Conference Championships with a 61-60 win over Arkansas State after WKU faced a 14-point deficit in the second half. The season also saw WKU defeat Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic after facing a 16-point deficit in the second half.

The season was capped by a 87-74 loss to fifth-ranked Baylor in Waco, Texas in the opening round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament, ending the longest NCAA Tournament appearance drought in program history.

The run to the tournament helped WKU secure a 24-9 record and finish with 20-wins for the second straight season. Her consecutive 20-win seasons to begin her time at WKU marked the first time in Sun Belt Conference history that a team had won 20 games in back-to-back years following a season in which it had won less than 10 games.

Her success in 2013-14 followed a massive improvement on the floor in 2012-13.

In her first year as a Division One coach in 2012-13, Clark-Heard helped WKU to a 13-win improvement over the 2011-12 season output. It was the largest in Sun Belt Conference history as WKU turned a 9-21 mark into a 22-11 record. WKU's eight win improvement in conference play from five wins to 13 wins was tied for the largest in league history. The Lady Toppers also became the first team in Sun Belt Conference history to win 20 games in the season following a year in which the team won less than 10 games earlier this season.

Her first season at WKU also showcased her ability to develop players. The duo of Chastity Gooch and Alexis Govan averaged a combined 12.7 ppg in 2011-12 but posted 36.5 per outing in 2012-13. The duo combined for 1,203 points after posting 381 last season. The team also saw major improvement in nearly all statistical categories, including improving free throw shooting by over 11 percent to .739, the third highest mark in school history.

Clark-Heard spent five years as an assistant coach to Jeff Walz at Louisville. During her time with the program, the Cardinals made three Sweet 16 appearances and made their first Final Four appearance, finishing as the National Runner-Up in 2009. A roster she helped build also reached the Final Four in 2013 after beating No. 1 Baylor and national power Tennessee in the regional semifinals and finals. Clark-Heard was instrumental in bringing in the No. 12 recruiting class in 2008, then followed with three consecutive Top 10 classes in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The 2010 recruiting class was the highest ranked class in school history, ranked fifth in the nation.

Among the most notable players Clark-Heard coached at Louisville was overall number one pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, Angel McCoughtry and overall number eight pick in the 2013 WNBA Draft, Shoni Shimmel. Overall, she coached five players at Louisville that went on to be drafted in the WNBA Draft.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Clark-Heard spent two seasons as the head coach at Kentucky State, taking the reigns of the program in June 2005. She took over a program that had won just one game during the 2004-05 season. In her first season she led the Thorobrettes to a 5-23 record, four of the wins were against Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opponents. Her team was picked to finish 11th in the SIAC but ended the season in ninth place. In her second season at KSU, she guided the Thorobrettes to an impressive 19-9 record, finishing tied for fourth place in the SIAC. Clark-Heard earned SIAC Coach-of-the-Year honors after the impressive turnaround. Her 2006-07 Thorobrettes were the second most improved team in NCAA Division II women's basketball during the 2006-07 season.

Before being named head coach at Kentucky State, Clark-Heard spent three seasons at Cincinnati as an assistant and four years at Nebraska in the same role. The Bearcats advanced to postseason play in two of her three seasons there while she helped Nebraska reach the NCAA Tournament twice during her time with the team. She was also responsible for helping sign McDonald's All-American Janice Bright for the Cornhuskers in 2001 while coaching alongside current Louisville coach Jeff Walz and under former WKU coach Paul Sanderford.

A four-year letterwinner on the Hill (1987-90), Clark-Heard was part of four NCAA Tournament teams during her Lady Topper career. She also helped guide the Lady Toppers to a pair of Sun Belt Conference Tournament championships (1988 and 1989) and two conference regular-season titles (1989 and 1990). She played in 118 games during her four years in the Hill, scoring 790 points and pulling down 615 rebounds. WKU amassed 89 victories during her four years in uniform, winning 70 percent of the games over that span and putting together three 20-win seasons.

Upon graduation from WKU, she spent eight years working within a recreational setting, five in Bowling Green and three with the Louisville Metro Parks Department. While in Louisville, she also served as head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at DuPont Manual High School for the 1994-95 seasons and played professionally with the Kentucky Marauders of the Women's Basketball Association in 1994-95.

The Louisville native earned Kentucky High School State Player of the Year honors in 1986 while playing at Atherton High School and was inducted into the Atherton Hall of Fame in 2003.

She was married on August 16, 2003 to Luther Heard.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU raced out to a 16-1 lead and used a 38-7 advantage in points off turnovers to defeat Young Harris, 98-51, in exhibition action inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Thursday evening.

The Lady Toppers dished out 23 assists on 37 made field goals and knocked down 10 of their 24 three-pointers on the evening in the victory. Jaycee Coe, making her debut for WKU after sitting out last season due to transfer rules, led all scorers with 19 points and went 6-of-10 from beyond the arc.

Coe was joined in double figures by Ivy Brown (18), Tashia Brown (15), Kayla Smith (15) and Dee Givens (12). Tashia Brown pulled down a game-high eight rebounds, and Givens finished with seven boards for the Lady Toppers. Making her return after missing much of last season due to injury, Micah Jones notched five points and five assists in 18 minutes of action.

Every Lady Topper who saw action played at least 12 minutes, including newcomers Naomi Mayes, Malaka Frank and Whitney Creech. Frank and Creech each tallied four points in their collegiate debuts on The Hill.

Meredith Tarver led the way for Young Harris with 17 points and six rebounds and was joined in double figures by Dyiesha Brown with 12 points.

WKU came out of the gates hot, scoring 16 of the game's first 17 points over the opening four and a half minutes of the contest. Five different Lady Toppers scored during the run, including five points from Smith and four from Ivy Brown. Seeing her first game action since last November, Jones scored her first points of the evening at the 7:52 mark on a driving layup.

The Lady Toppers pushed their lead to 24 points, 36-12, midway through the second quarter on the strength of a 12-2 run. Jones capped the stretch with her first three-pointer of the night, while Ivy and Tashia Brown combined to score the remaining nine points.

Young Harris battled back, but a shot from beyond the arc from Smith with just 14 seconds remaining in the frame sent WKU into the locker room with a 51-25 advantage.

Bria Ratliff connected on a three-pointer for the Mountain Lions just under a minute into the third quarter to cut WKU's lead to 53-28, but the Lady Toppers responded with a 25-2 run that spanned nearly seven minutes to build their largest lead of the night to that point, 78-30. Ivy Brown and Coe each scored seven points during the run, including a four-point play after Coe's deep shot from beyond the arc with 5:37 remaining in the quarter.

The Mountain Lions trimmed WKU's lead to under 40 points midway through the fourth quarter, but Givens answered by scoring seven of the Lady Toppers' final 11 points to seal the 47-point win. The Lady Toppers move to 6-0 in exhibition play under Michelle Clark-Heard with the victory, winning the six games by an average of 44 points.

WKU will return to action next Friday evening at 7 p.m. for its regular season opener against Alabama A&M inside Diddle Arena. The Lady Toppers won the only other meeting between the two sides, 96-44, on Dec. 1, 2014; the Lady Bulldogs are now coached by former WKU assistant Margaret Richards.

Press Conference Quotes
November 3, 2016

Coach Michelle Clark-Heard

On getting what you wanted to see out of the players...

"I think we learned a lot. You know, we'll have a lot of film to go back and watch and break it down. There will be some things to work on but that is what it's all about. When you go into an exhibition you don't really know a lot because normally we scout. So this gives us the opportunity to play against someone and let us see different rotations with so many new players."

On the communication being up to par...

"I do think they did a good job with that. The real thing is next Friday night but we got to go back and break the film down. But for me being in the game and watching things, I'm pretty sure when I watch film I'll see some other things that we need to go back and work on."

On Kendall Noble only having one shot tonight...

"I think everybody else got a lot of shots and that's just who Kendall (Noble) is. I think that she understands and knows that there's a lot of different scorers on this team, and I think she was letting the new faces do some work."

G Jaycee Coe

On finally getting a chance to play for WKU tonight...

"It felt great. After a year and a half of not playing, it was so fun and I can't wait until next game."

On hitting six three pointers ...

"At first I would say there was a little nerves, but after I hit my first one it felt really good."

On getting a lot of people involved in tonight's game...

"It was nice to get Naomi (Mayes) and Malaka (Frank), like all the freshmen, and give them some minutes. It was good to show them what the game atmosphere is like."

G Tashia Brown

On having everyone come in and score...

"I mean, it's a team effort. Everybody came in and did their part and played their role like coach (Clark-Heard) talks about all the time. It was a good game overall but we still have a lot to work on. We'll just keep working and get better."

On hitting the expectation going into the game...

"We did a lot of good things but we still have a lot to work on. We are going to work on those things at practice and we'll be ready for our first game against Alabama A&M."

On being a returner and the duty to lead the newcomers...

“It is very important. I just got to step up and lead. I need to continue the things that I have been doing and be a leader more. I need to show the girls how it is and be a leader.”

WKU KICKS OFF 2016-17 REGULAR SEASON AGAINST ALABAMA A&M

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU is set to open its 2016-17 regular season campaign against Alabama A&M inside Diddle Arena on Friday evening at 7:00 p.m. The Lady Toppers and Lady Bulldogs have met just once, a 96-44 WKU win in 2014-15.

Under Michelle Clark-Heard, the Lady Toppers are a perfect 4-0 in home openers and are 3-1 in season openers overall. In last season's home opener, WKU pulled a 71-69 upset against then-No. 16 Louisville on Nov. 21 as then-freshman Kayla Smith sank the go-ahead basket with just over 30 seconds remaining.

The Lady Toppers return their top six scorers from a season ago and will have redshirt senior Micah Jones back on the court after she missed all but two games due to injury in 2015-16. WKU also adds three new in-state freshmen to the mix in Whitney Creech, Malaka Frank and Sarah Price, all of whom are coming off stellar high school careers.

In their lone exhibition of the year, WKU downed Young Harris, 98-51, inside Diddle Arena last Thursday evening. Jaycee Coe led all scorers with 19 points on 6-of-10 shooting from three-point range, and she was joined in double figures by Ivy Brown (18), Tashia Brown (15), Smith (15) and Dee Givens (12).

Alabama A&M is led by former WKU assistant coach Margaret Richards (2013-15) in her first season with the program. The Lady Bulldogs lost their top four scorers from last season, including top scorer and rebounder Janie Myles (14.4 points, 8.6 boards). Nashaye Sutton is the top returning scorer for Alabama A&M after tallying 6.9 points a season ago, while Shakira Logan is back after pulling down 3.5 rebounds per contest.

Following Friday's matchup, WKU will remain at home for the second matchup of its three-game homestand, taking on UT Arlington on Wednesday evening at 5:30 p.m. The Lady Toppers downed the Mavericks on the road last year in a 73-64 victory.

QUICK SHOTS

- WKU sports a 33-10 record in season openers in modern program history (1973-present) and is 7-3 in such games over the last 10 seasons. In home openers, the Lady Toppers are 37-6 in modern program history and have won four consecutive games in that category.

- WKU play-by-play announcer Barry Williams will be calling his 1,000th game with the Lady Toppers on Friday evening. Williams stands as one of the most veteran radio broadcasters in the nation and calls all home and away games for the Lady Toppers.
- In non-conference play under Clark-Heard, WKU owns a 46-15 record (.754) dating back to the 2012-13 season and has dropped no more than four non-conference games in a single season over that same span.
- Redshirt senior Kendall Noble was named the 2016-17 Preseason C-USA Player of the Year and both Noble and junior Tashia Brown were selected to the preseason All-C-USA team in a vote conducted by the league's coaches. Noble is the third preseason player of the year for WKU in the last five seasons.
- For the first time under Clark-Heard, WKU has been picked to win the conference in the annual preseason poll. The Lady Toppers received six first-place votes and narrowly edged out both Middle Tennessee and Old Dominion for the top spot.
- Clark-Heard captured her 100th victory as the head coach of the Lady Toppers in a 69-58 victory at Louisiana Tech on March 5 last season, reaching the milestone in just her 130th game at the helm of the program. Only the legendary Paul Sanderford, WKU's all-time winningest coach, reached the mark more quickly, doing so in his 127th game with the team.
- By winning her 100th game against Louisiana Tech last season, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.
- Over its first two seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 31-5 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted a 15-3 record last season.
- By winning all eight of the contests in which it hit 80 points last season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted an undefeated 39-0 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.
- WKU finished the 2015-16 season with a 14-1 mark at home and has posted a 49-10 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

LADY TOPPER HOOPS ANNOUNCES TRIO OF EARLY SIGNEES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard announced Nichel Tampa, Terri Smith and Sherry Porter as the three members of WKU's 2016-17 early signing class on Thursday morning, with the three becoming the first members of the Class of 2021 for the Lady Toppers.

"I'm thrilled to add these three young ladies to our Lady Topper family," Clark-Heard said of the signee trio. "Our fans will like each of them. They will compete with the guards we already have and make our team better as soon as they arrive on campus."

All three players are dynamic guards who are capable of both scoring and directing the offense as floor generals. Clark-Heard has praised the trio's versatility and ability to play multiple spots on the floor as well as their competitive nature coming from winning high school programs.

Tampa, Smith and Porter will join the program as senior guards Kendall Noble, Micah Jones and Ima Akpan all depart after graduation in May. The trio will join Naomi Mayes, Sidnee Bopp, Malaka Frank, Whitney Creech, Jaycee Coe and Kayla Smith at the guard position for the Lady Toppers. Guards have played a critical role in WKU's resurgence on the national stage, culminating in Noble's selection as the 2015-16 C-USA Player and Defensive Player of the Year after recording WKU's first two triple-doubles in program history last season.

2016-17 WKU EARLY PERIOD SIGNEES

Nichel Tampa, 5-6, Alpharetta, Ga. (St. Francis HS)

Terri Smith, 5-8, Harvest, Ala. (Sparkman HS)

Sherry Porter, 5-7, Baton Rouge, La. (Madison Prep Academy)

Nichel Tampa

Tampa heads north to join the Lady Toppers following a prep career at St. Francis High School in Alpharetta, Ga.

One of the top-ranked point guards in her class, Tampa has led St. Francis to consecutive Class A private school state championships as a sophomore and junior in 2015 and 2016. Overall, she led her team to an impressive 84-9 record since the 2013-14 season. In her junior season, Tampa averaged nine points and 4.8 assists per game playing for the Knights under Head Coach Aisha Kennedy.

For her career, the rising senior has posted strong numbers across the board, averaging 9.5 points, 3.9 assists, 3.3 steals, and 3.2 rebounds across 85 games for the Knights. Tampa has received All-State, All-Region and All-Metro honors during her high school career and was the NBA Dribble, Dish and Swish national champion in 2011.

At the AAU level, Tampa is a member of the Finest Basketball Club Southeast Elite team under Head Coach Alfred Motton. Tampa received interest from South Carolina, Notre Dame, Louisville and more than 40 other Division I programs as early as her middle school playing career. She chose WKU over scholarship offers from Memphis, George Mason, South Carolina and South Florida.

Clark-Heard on Tampa...

"Nichel is going to be a great addition to our roster. She's a high energy, point guard who can really speed up the game. She sees the floor. She can score. Plus, she can guard the socks off of the other team's ballhandler. Playing for St. Francis in the Atlanta area, Nichel knows how to win and expects to win. That's what I love about her game."

Terri Smith

Smith will join WKU after committing to the program during her junior season at Sparkman High School in Harvest, Ala.

A highly decorated guard under Head Coach Patrick Delay, Smith earned an honorable mention nod as a sophomore on the All Tennessee Valley girls' basketball team before receiving Third Team All-Huntsville Region honors as a junior last season, averaging 12.5 points and 2.9 rebounds per game.

Smith led the Senators to a 21-7 record in 2015-16 and earned a spot on the North team in the 2016 AHSAA North-South All-Star Game for her performance.

In addition to the previously mentioned honors, Smith has served as a team captain for the Senators and is set to be a leader on the court for Sparkman in her final high school season. She will seek to add to her haul of awards that also includes All-County and All-Tournament team selections during her career.

She joins Heather Mayes (1996) as one of only two players in program history from the state of Alabama. On the AAU circuit, Smith has competed for the Southern Starz under Head Coach Doug Bush. Smith received scholarship offers from Little Rock, Hampton, and North Florida prior to committing to WKU.

Clark-Heard on Smith...

"We are so excited for Terri to become a Lady Topper. We've been watching Terri for several years. She's been to our camps and several of our games. Our fans are going to enjoy Terri. She's quick and a very serious competitor. She might not be the biggest player on the floor, but she's tough and she can shoot from the parking lot. We'll look for Terri to come in and give us depth at the point guard spot right away."

Sherry Porter

Porter is set to join the Lady Toppers after a stellar high school career at Madison Prep Academy in Baton Rouge, La.

She is coming off a strong junior season averaging 19 points and six assists for Coach Dwayne Hayes. Porter helped the Chargers to a runner-up finish in the 2016 Allstate Sugar Bowl/LHSAA Class 2A State Tournament, including an upset of No. 2 St. Thomas Aquinas in the semifinals.

For her efforts as a junior, Porter was named to the Louisiana Sports Writers Association's Class 2A All-State Team in 2016 after leading Madison Prep to a 31-5 overall record.

Over the last two seasons with the Chargers, Porter has helped the team to a combined 53-14 record and back-to-back regional appearances in the LHSAA State Tournament, the first coming at the 1A level before Madison Prep made the leap to 2A last season. Porter captured Second Team 1A All-State honors as a sophomore following a season that saw her average 21 points, 3.5 steals and three rebounds.

Porter has also competed at the AAU level with the Louisiana Lady Legends under Head Coach Calvin Ursin. She was recruited by Louisiana-Lafayette, Southern Miss, and Troy and will be just the second player in program history from the state of Louisiana.

Clark-Heard on Porter...

"Sherry is another athletic combo guard that will help us to try to fill the shoes of Kendall Noble and Micah Jones. Those are some big shoes, but fortunately Sherry isn't afraid of hard work or high expectations. She's able to play multiple guard spots on the floor, which fits well with what we do on both offense and defense as a team."

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU matched a program record by knocking down 13 three-pointers and scored its second-most points in the Michelle Clark-Heard era in a season-opening 96-32 victory over Alabama A&M on Friday evening inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

The Lady Toppers' 13 three-pointers matched efforts against Lamar (Jan. 20, 1996) and Middle Tennessee (March 11, 2003) for the most in school history, and the 96 points were the most in a single game for WKU (1-0) since notching 98 against Troy on Jan. 30, 2013.

Kendall Noble (12 points, 10 rebounds) and Tashia Brown (13 points, 10 rebounds) each recorded double-doubles for WKU, and Ivy Brown finished with a game-high 20 points and nine boards. As a team, WKU outrebounded the Lady Bulldogs 47-31 and tallied 23 offensive rebounds on the evening.

Jaycee Coe scored 14 points on 4-of-10 shooting from three-point range in her regular season debut for WKU, and Dee Givens rounded out the group of five in double figures with 10 points. Micah Jones dished out a career-best 12 assists on the evening to lead all players.

WKU held a 40-7 advantage in points off turnovers and a 26-9 edge in second-chance points. The Lady Toppers' bench alone contributed 48 points in the high-scoring effort.

Jameica Cobb led Alabama A&M (0-1) with 10 points, and Shakira Logan finished with a team-high six rebounds. The Lady Bulldogs are coached by Margaret Richards, a former WKU assistant coach who made her debut with the program on Friday evening.

WKU raced out to an 8-0 lead over the opening two minutes behind a pair of three-pointers from Noble and Smith, and the Lady Toppers continued their early run by scoring 13 of the game's first 15 points. Ivy Brown chipped in five points during the run to key the team's early lead.

The Lady Bulldogs fought back into the game and whittled WKU's lead to just eight points, 18-10, after a layup by Hillary Williams with just over 30 seconds remaining in the first frame. Tashia Brown rebuilt the double-digit advantage at the buzzer, however, as she sank a fast-break layup off an assist from Jones to give the Lady Toppers a 20-10 edge.

WKU broke open the game in the second quarter, holding Alabama A&M to just three points over the 10-minute period and outscoring them by a 21-3 margin. The Lady Toppers closed the quarter on a 14-0 run over the final seven minutes to carry a 41-13 lead into the halftime break.

After holding Alabama A&M to three points in the second quarter, WKU maintained its strong defensive pressure in the third frame, limiting the Lady Bulldogs to just four points over 10 minutes. The Lady Toppers gave up two of the first three baskets but shut out Alabama A&M for the final nine minutes of the quarter, going on a 22-0 run to build a 65-17 lead going into the final quarter.

WKU's lead grew to as many as 66 points in the fourth quarter after three-pointers by Sidnee Bopp and Whitney Creech before the Lady Toppers closed out the 96-32 win, their largest margin of victory since 1998.

The Lady Toppers will return to action for the second of three games in their season-opening homestand on Wednesday evening at 5:30 p.m. as they square off against UT Arlington inside Diddle Arena. WKU earned a 73-64 win over the Mavericks on the road last season and owns a perfect 3-0 record in the all-time series between the two sides.

Press Conference Quotes
November 11, 2016

Coach Michelle Clark-Heard

On another game where the team can score at will...

"Well, I was really proud of how we came out. I think defensively we started out with a lot of intensity and it started rolling from there. I'm just proud of our effort. Of course this will be a great game to go back and break down the film and work on some things. But I was proud of Micah (Jones) sharing the ball and having 12 assists, a couple kids had double-doubles with rebounds. That's always crucial because that's something I've been preaching to them about. Then we got to see some different combinations so I was happy about that, too."

On the bench scoring 48 points...

"I'm really proud because challenging this team coming out of halftime was a very important thing, so we could not play the score but get better. And that's exactly what we did and I felt like we got better. The tempo can keep going and we can continue to get better because at the end of the day, this is one game and we are trying to prepare for the next game and the next game after that."

On holding Alabama A&M to just seven points in the second and third quarter combined...

"I think it was good for us because we tried to switch it up and we worked a lot on our zone, which is good. We've been wanting to get some practice with it, was really glad about that. It will also be good for us to go back and watch the film so we can clean it up a little bit with defensive rotations. But out of the zone we didn't box out as well and I think that's one thing we really got to focus on."

F Ivy Brown

On scoring 90 points again and the offense clicking...

"I think we are clicking with everybody scoring and everybody contributing. We are looking for the open man and the extra pass. I think our defense helps with that, with us being aggressive on d, we had 20 steals tonight which carries over to the offensive side."

On the bench outscoring Alabama A&M's whole team 48-32...

"Obviously you don't want to play just five people and we talk about it a lot in practice with the grey team and the red team pushing each other, which makes each other better. We had several players step up big tonight and they were a little shy at first, but they stepped up in the second half and knocked down some shots."

G Kendall Noble

On the defense playing lights out...

"We just came fired up on defense and had our hands up and got deflections, which caused them to not get into an offensive rhythm. So that just helped everything flow."

On the cold stretch of shooting in the second quarter...

“Yeah, I don’t know, they just weren’t falling I guess. But we were hitting the offensive boards hard and we got plenty of opportunities, but they just weren’t going in.”

Alabama A&M Lady Bulldogs at WKU Lady Toppers

Postgame Notes

November 11, 2016

E.A. Diddle Arena; Bowling Green, Ky.

FINAL SCORE: -/RV WKU 96, Alabama A&M 32

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU improves to 1-0 on the season, while Alabama A&M falls to 0-1.
 - Following Friday's matchup, the Lady Toppers lead the all-time series between the programs 2-0.
- UP NEXT: WKU continues a three-game homestand to start the season with a matchup at 5:30 p.m. (CT) Wednesday with UT Arlington at E.A. Diddle Arena. That game will be televised nationally on Fox College Sports and regionally on WKU PBS.

Team Notes

- WKU started Micah Jones, Tashia Brown, Kendall Noble, Ivy Brown and Kayla Smith against the Lady Bulldogs. It's the same lineup the Lady Toppers used in an exhibition victory over Young Harris.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: WKU opened the game with a 13-2 run over the first four-plus minutes, sparked by an 8-0 burst to start the game. Four different Lady Toppers scored during the run, including 3-pointers by Kendall Noble and Kayla Smith.
 - The Lady Toppers kept the momentum going by outscoring Alabama A&M 21-3 in the second quarter. The Lady Bulldogs' three points in the second frame were WKU's fewest allowed in a quarter since the women's college game moved to quarters at the start of the 2015-16 season.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: WKU scored 22 straight points to end the third quarter until Alabama A&M broke the streak, giving the Lady Toppers a 65-17 advantage going to the fourth quarter. The Lady Bulldogs didn't score for the final nine minutes of the third quarter after making two of the half's first three field goals.
- WKU's 64-point win was its largest since a 113-47 victory over Lamar on March 5, 1998.
- The Lady Toppers' 96 points were their second-most ever under head coach Michelle Clark-Heard and their most overall since a 98-80 win over Troy on Jan. 30, 2013.
- WKU's 13 made 3-pointers tied a program record and were the Lady Toppers' most since March 11, 2003, against Middle Tennessee.
- WKU's 20 steals were its most since grabbing 22 at Rice on Feb. 7, 2015. They forced 25 turnovers Friday and scored 40 points off those miscues.
- WKU's 23 assists were its most since dishing out 25 at Austin Peay on Dec. 16, 2014.
- The Lady Toppers outrebounded Alabama A&M 47-31, including 23 offensive rebounds.
- WKU got 16 more points off its bench (48) than Alabama A&M scored in the entire game.
- The Lady Toppers shot 49.2 percent in the game, including an 11-of-13 (84.6 percent) clip in the fourth quarter.

Individual Notes

- Jaycee Coe, Naomi Mayes, Sarah Price, Malaka Frank and Whitney Creech all made their regular-season debuts for the Lady Toppers.
- Kendall Noble and Tashia Brown both recorded double-doubles. It was the first time the Lady Toppers have had two double-doubles in one outing since Noble and Chastity Gooch did it against Mississippi State on Nov. 23, 2014.
- Kendall Noble notched her 17th career double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds – all in the first half. She also grabbed five steals.
- Tashia Brown mustered her first career double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds.
- Ivy Brown paced WKU with 20 points to go along with nine rebounds and three steals.
- Micah Jones tallied a career-high 12 assists in her first regular-season action since suffering a season-ending injury last season on Nov. 21, 2015. That shattered her previous record of eight assists.

- After missing her first six 3-point tries in the first half, Jaycee Coe netted her final four 3s in the second half and scored 14 points.
- Sidnee Bopp went 2-of-2 from 3-point range and made multiple long-range shots for the first time in her career.
- All 13 active Lady Toppers played, while 10 scored in the victory. Freshmen Whitney Creech (7 points), Sarah Price (7 points) and Malaka Frank (2 points) all scored their first college points.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – In its second of three straight games at home to open the season, WKU will welcome former Sun Belt foe UT Arlington to E.A. Diddle Arena on Wednesday evening at 5:30 p.m. Last season, the Lady Toppers earned a 73-64 win over the Lady Mavericks on the road.

Wednesday evening's matchup will be carried nationally on Fox College Sports and locally on WKU PBS, the first of five Fox College Sports broadcasts for the Lady Toppers on their home court this season.

WKU is coming off a strong performance on both sides of the ball in its 96-32 victory over Alabama A&M on Friday. The Lady Toppers matched a program record with 13 three-pointers and held the Lady Bulldogs to just 32 points, the fewest by a WKU opponent since Jan. 15, 1998.

Tashia Brown notched her first career double-double with 13 points and 10 boards against Alabama A&M, while Kendall Noble added her first of the season with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

UT Arlington returns two of its top three scorers from last season in Rebekah VanDijk (12.2) and Cierra Johnson (10.2), but lost second-leading scorer Amara Wainwright (10.4) to graduation. VanDijk also returns as the team's leading rebounder after averaging 8.9 rebounds per game in 2015-16.

Following Wednesday's matchup, WKU will remain at home to close out its three-game season-opening homestand against No. 23/RV Indiana on Saturday at 2:00 p.m. The game will also double as the 34th Annual BB&T Classic matchup for the Lady Toppers.

QUICK SHOTS

- After scoring 96 points in the opener against Alabama A&M, WKU now holds a perfect 40-0 record under Michelle Clark-Heard when scoring 80 or more points in a single game. The Lady Toppers are also 47-3 overall when holding opponents to 59 or fewer points.

- In non-conference play under Clark-Heard, WKU owns a 47-15 record (.758) dating back to the 2012-13 season and has dropped no more than four non-conference games in a single season over that same span.

- WKU held Alabama A&M to just 32 points in the season opener, the fewest points scored by a WKU opponent since UTRGV scored 32 on Jan. 15, 1998. The Lady Toppers also held the Lady Bulldogs to 13-of-52 (25 percent) shooting from the field on the evening.
- WKU limited the Lady Bulldogs to just three points in the second quarter, the fewest points surrendered by the Lady Toppers in a single quarter since the system was implemented at the beginning of last season.
- Already 10th in school history with 141 three-pointers, Micah Jones needs just two more to pass Laurie Townsend (1995-98) for ninth and four more to pass Dawn Warner (1993-96) for eighth.
- Redshirt senior Kendall Noble was named the 2016-17 Preseason C-USA Player of the Year and both Noble and junior Tashia Brown were selected to the preseason All-C-USA team in a vote conducted by the league's coaches. Noble is the third preseason player of the year for WKU in the last five seasons.
- For the first time under Clark-Heard, WKU has been picked to win the conference in the annual preseason poll. The Lady Toppers received six first-place votes and narrowly edged out both Middle Tennessee and Old Dominion for the top spot.
- Clark-Heard captured her 100th victory as the head coach of the Lady Toppers in a 69-58 victory at Louisiana Tech on March 5 last season, reaching the milestone in just her 130th game at the helm of the program. Only the legendary Paul Sanderford, WKU's all-time winningest coach, reached the mark more quickly, doing so in his 127th game with the team.
- By winning her 100th game against Louisiana Tech last season, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.
- WKU finished the 2015-16 season with a 14-1 mark at home and has posted a 50-10 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

WKU DROPS 71-68 DECISION TO UT ARLINGTON

Video – Michelle Clark-Heard: youtu.be/sVdnGLkZ4PU

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU opened the game on a 15-0 run, but UT Arlington responded with a 24-point fourth quarter as the Lady Toppers dropped a tight 71-68 matchup inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Wednesday evening.

Despite leading for more than 37 minutes, the Lady Toppers (1-1) could not overcome a 46-26 deficit in paint points and a 28-9 differential in points scored by bench players. Ivy Brown led all scorers for the second straight game with 18 points.

Tashia Brown (15) and Kayla Smith (13) also reached double figures for WKU, while Smith and Kendall Noble tied for the team lead with seven rebounds.

Rebekah VanDijk tallied a double-double for the Lady Mavericks (2-0) with 14 points and 12 rebounds and was joined in double figures by Christina Devers (15), Cierra Johnson (14) and Breck Clark (10).

WKU raced out of the gates against the Lady Mavericks, scoring the game's first 15 points over the opening five minutes. Three consecutive three-pointers, one from Smith and a pair from Ivy Brown, keyed the run, and a pair of free throws from Smith with just under five minutes remaining in the frame put the Lady Toppers up 15-0. VanDijk finally ended the initial run with a jumper at the 4:23 mark to give UT Arlington its first points of the evening.

The Lady Mavericks fought their way back into the game in the second quarter, using a 9-2 run to cut WKU's lead to just six points, 35-29, with just over three minutes remaining in the half. Four different UT Arlington players scored during the stretch, punctuated by two free throws from Devers with 3:17 on the clock.

Neither side could make a dent in the six-point advantage, and WKU carried a 39-33 lead into the halftime break.

WKU's lead grew to as many as 11 points on two occasions during the third quarter, but UT Arlington was able to close the frame on a 10-4 run over the final four and a half minutes to cut the deficit to 52-47 going into the final 10 minutes. Balanced scoring again keyed the Lady Mavericks as four different scorers contributed to the run.

Both sides battled throughout a fourth quarter that featured four ties and five lead changes, but a late layup by UT Arlington's Johnson with 23 seconds remaining put the Lady Mavericks ahead for good. Tashia Brown attempted a three-pointer from the right corner with just over one second left on the clock but could not convert the chance to send the game to overtime.

WKU will close out its season-opening three-game homestand on Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. as the Lady Toppers welcome No. 23/RV Indiana to Diddle Arena. WKU leads the all-time series against the Hoosiers by a 4-2 margin, but the two sides have not met since an 85-70 Indiana victory on Nov. 17, 2001.

Press Conference Quotes
November 16, 2016

Coach Michelle Clark-Heard

On UT Arlington's ball pressure...

"We knew that pressure was going to happen. I think we made a lot of mistakes ourselves. We're really going to have to go back and adjust; we acted like we had never seen a press before. But the real key to everything is that they had 18 offensive rebounds, there's no way that you're going to win when that happens. We just gave up offensive rebounds at the end of the game, and at the end of the day you just can't do that."

On adjustments at halftime...

"I think the biggest thing that we talked about is that we needed to do what we do, everything that we practiced to prepare for this game. We just really tried to emphasize the gameplan to them, but at the end of the day we just didn't get box-outs and allowed them to make some shots. Credit to them to come in on our home floor where we don't normally lose and do what they needed to do in order to beat us."

On the differences between the two teams...

"They had 28 points off the bench and we had nine. We have people on our bench that we're dependent on to come out and give us some points, and I think that hurt us tonight. We just have to go back to work and get our kids better. It looked like at times we didn't want to handle the ball when the pressure was there, and we have to correct that."

UT Arlington Lady Mavericks at WKU Lady Toppers

Postgame Notes

November 16, 2016

E.A. Diddle Arena; Bowling Green, Ky.

FINAL SCORE: UT Arlington 71, -/RV WKU 68

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU goes to 1-1 on the season, while UT Arlington improves to 2-0.
 - Following Wednesday's matchup, the Lady Toppers lead the all-time series between the programs 3-1.
- UP NEXT: WKU finishes their three-game homestand to start the season with a matchup at 2:00 p.m. (CT) Saturday with Indiana at E.A. Diddle Arena. That game will be televised nationally on Fox College Sports and regionally on WKU PBS.

Team Notes

- WKU started Micah Jones, Tashia Brown, Kendall Noble, Ivy Brown and Kayla Smith against the Lady Mavericks. It's the same lineup the Lady Toppers used in an exhibition win over Young Harris and the season opener versus Alabama A&M.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: WKU opened the game with a 15-0 run over the first five-plus minutes, sparked by eight points scored off of turnovers. Three different Lady Toppers scored during the run, including two 3-pointers by Ivy Brown.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: WKU trailed 60-61 with 4:00 minutes left in regulation and went on a 6-0 run to regain the lead, 65-61.
- Lady Toppers shot 62 percent from the field in the first quarter, going 8-of-13.
- WKU had three players in double figures – Ivy Brown (18 points), Tashia Brown (15 points) and Kayla Smith (13 points).
- The Lady Toppers shot 45 percent in the game, including 13-of-17 (76 percent) clip from the charity stripe.
- The Lady Toppers' largest lead was 17 points at the 2:25 mark in the first quarter.

Individual Notes

- Micah Jones tallied nine points – her most since she scored nine points against Ball State on Nov. 19, 2015.
- Kayla Smith racked up 13 points – her most since she dropped 18 points versus Dayton on March 17, 2016.
- Smith also snatched down a career-high seven rebounds topping five versus Marshall on Jan. 2, 2016.
- Ivy Brown scored 18 points to push her total through two games to 38 points, she also gathered six rebounds.
- Jaycee Coe tallied seven points and two assists on the evening.

WKU WELCOMES NO. 23/RV INDIANA FOR 34TH ANNUAL BB&T CLASSIC

Live Stats:

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU will close out its season-opening homestand at 2 p.m. on Saturday afternoon as it welcomes No. 23/RV Indiana to E.A. Diddle Arena. The Lady Toppers lead the all-time series against the Hoosiers 4-2, but the sides have not met since an 85-70 Indiana win on Nov. 17, 2001.

In the most recent visit to Diddle from a ranked team, WKU upset then-No. 16 Louisville, 71-69, on Nov. 21, 2015. Saturday will mark just the fifth time that WKU has met a ranked opponent in the Clark-Heard era.

Saturday also features as the 34th Annual BB&T Classic matchup for the Lady Toppers, who own an 18-6 record in the event since it was shortened to one game in 1992-93 and a 33-8 record overall.

Tyra Buss (16.3), Alexis Gassion (15.3) and Amanda Cahill (13.7) lead the Hoosiers in scoring this season, and Cahill also paces the team on the glass with 8.0 rebounds per contest.

Indiana enters Saturday's game with a perfect 3-0 record after a narrow 79-76 victory at Chattanooga on Thursday evening. The Hoosiers have also picked up wins against Presbyterian (71-37) and Vanderbilt (94-61) in the early stages of the season.

Following Saturday's matchup, WKU will go on the road for the first time this season at the 2016 Gulf Coast Showcase. The Lady Toppers are guaranteed three games, including the opener against DePaul, in a field of eight teams that includes five NCAA Tournament participants from last season.

GAME #3 – WKU VS. INDIANA

QUICK SHOTS

- After scoring 96 points in the opener against Alabama A&M, WKU now holds a perfect 40-0 record under Michelle Clark-Heard when scoring 80 or more points in a single game. The Lady Toppers are also 47-3 overall when holding opponents to 59 or fewer points.

- In non-conference play under Clark-Heard, WKU owns a 47-16 record (.746) dating back to the 2012-13 season and has dropped no more than four non-conference games in a single season over that same span.

- WKU will look to bounce back from its loss to UT Arlington and has a strong track record of doing so under Michelle Clark-Heard. In games immediately following a loss since 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 26-6 and have not suffered consecutive losses since Nov. 23 and 25, 2014 (at Mississippi State and Louisville).

- WKU held Alabama A&M to just 32 points in the season opener, the fewest points scored by a WKU opponent since UTRGV scored 32 on Jan. 15, 1998. The Lady Toppers also held the Lady Bulldogs to 13-of-52 (25 percent) shooting from the field on the evening.

- WKU limited the Lady Bulldogs to just three points in the second quarter, the fewest points surrendered by the Lady Toppers in a single quarter since the system was implemented at the beginning of last season.

- WKU will be seeking to bounce back from Wednesday's setback against UT Arlington and holds a 26-6 record under Michelle Clark-Heard in games immediately following a loss. The Lady Toppers have not dropped consecutive games since Nov. 23 and 25, 2014.

- Already ninth in school history with 143 three-pointers, Micah Jones needs just two more to pass Dawn Warner (1993-96) for eighth. Renee Westmoreland (1990-93) would be up next on the list with 164 career shots from deep.

- Redshirt senior Kendall Noble was named the 2016-17 Preseason C-USA Player of the Year and both Noble and junior Tashia Brown were selected to the preseason All-C-USA team in a vote conducted by the league's coaches. Noble is the third preseason player of the year for WKU in the last five seasons.

- For the first time under Clark-Heard, WKU has been picked to win the conference in the annual preseason poll. The Lady Toppers received six first-place votes and narrowly edged out both Middle Tennessee and Old Dominion for the top spot.

- Clark-Heard captured her 100th victory as the head coach of the Lady Toppers in a 69-58 victory at Louisiana Tech on March 5 last season, reaching the milestone in just her 130th game at the helm of the program. Only the legendary Paul Sanderford, WKU's all-time winningest coach, reached the mark more quickly, doing so in his 127th game with the team.

- By winning her 100th game against Louisiana Tech last season, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

- With six steals through two games this season, Kendall Noble has collected 280 takeaways for her career. The Hazard, Ky., native is just six steals shy of setting a new WKU program record and appears set to surpass Lady Topper legend Clemette Haskins at the top of the chart.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Junior Tashia Brown tallied 15 of her game-high 28 points in the fourth quarter and redshirt senior Kendall Noble approached a triple-double as WKU took down No. 23 Indiana, 85-74, inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Saturday afternoon in the 34th Annual BB&T Classic matchup.

The Lady Toppers have now defeated a ranked opponent in back-to-back seasons for the first time since the 1996-97 and 1997-98 campaigns after dropping No. 16 Louisville inside Diddle last season.

Brown's 28 points led all scorers on Saturday afternoon for WKU (2-1), and she was joined in double figures by Noble (16), Ivy Brown (11) and Micah Jones (11). Noble, the only active Division I player with a triple-double in her career, stuffed the stat sheet by adding nine rebounds, seven assists, two blocks and a steal as well.

For No. 23 Indiana (3-1), Tyra Buss paced the team with 24 points, Alexis Gassion had 13 and Amanda Cahill added 12. Jenn Anderson fell just one point shy of a double-double with nine points and 11 boards.

WKU held No. 23 Indiana under 50 percent shooting for the first time this season, limiting the Hoosiers to just 28-of-68 shooting (41.2 percent) from the floor. The Lady Toppers knocked down 27 of their 56 attempts, good for a 48.2 percent clip. WKU also converted 26 of its 28 free throws (92.9 percent), the fifth-highest mark in a single game in school history when attempting 20 or more shots from the charity stripe.

Both sides battled nearly evenly over the opening 10 minutes that featured one tie and four lead changes. Indiana led by as many as three points on three occasions, but each time WKU was able to battle back and cut into the lead. The Hoosiers carried a 17-14 advantage heading into the second frame after scoring the final four points of the quarter.

Indiana's lead grew to as many as seven points just over two minutes into the second quarter after a run of six unanswered points keyed by a pair of layups from Anderson. Her second gave the Hoosiers a 23-16 lead with 7:56 remaining before the halftime break.

WKU refused to go away, however, and again battled back and surged into the lead just before halftime. Six straight points from Kayla Smith erased the deficit, and midrange jumpers from Tashia Brown and Ima Akpan handed the Lady Toppers a 34-30 lead after the first half.

The opening two minutes of the third quarter featured a pair of ties as the two sides traded baskets, but a layup from Noble at the 7:55 mark gave WKU a 39-37 lead that they would not relinquish for the remainder of the contest. The Lady Toppers' lead jumped to 10 points just over three minutes later after

Jones' three-pointer, but Indiana managed to close the gap to just seven points, 63-56, to sit within striking distance heading into the final quarter.

Tashia Brown took over the contest to open the fourth quarter for the Lady Toppers, netting the first nine points of the frame for WKU to push the lead to double digits, 72-57. Behind 15 points from Brown over the final 10 minutes, WKU closed out the upset victory to conclude its season-opening homestand with the 85-74 victory.

WKU will return to action next Friday afternoon at 12:30 p.m. (CT) for the opening game of the 2016 Gulf Coast Showcase in Estero, Fla. The Lady Toppers are set to take on No. 20/20 DePaul in the tournament that features five NCAA Tournament participants from last season and will face either Kent State or No. 2/4 Baylor in their second matchup on Saturday.

Press Conference Quotes
November 19, 2016

Coach Michelle Clark-Heard

On the overall performance of the team...

"I think the biggest thing was the gameplan. We followed the gameplan to a T. We boxed out more, we took care of the basketball, we didn't turn it over. Executing is what it's all about; we took advantage of the things that they gave us. How about us going to the free throw line 28 times and making 26 of those? As coaches we made some adjustments to the lineup and it showed a lot of maturity in this team. Our veterans and our leaders stepped up and then everyone else just followed suit."

On giving Sarah Price her first collegiate start...

"We as a staff decided that we probably needed a little changeup. Now we have two posts out there and we're running our motion offense the way that we have been, so we were just looking at some different things as a coaching staff."

On honoring the 1985 and 1986 Final Four teams...

"If you come in my office, I have pictures of Lillie Mason and Clemette Haskins. Our kids know about the history here; they know that without those teams, WKU is not who people talk about the way they talk about with our tradition and pride. It was a special day for me because some of my teammates were out there. I was very fortunate to get to play with a lot of amazing players. I didn't go to a Final Four, but I'm very blessed to have had the opportunity to play in such an amazing program."

Forward Tashia Brown

On the team's improvement after the loss on Wednesday night...

"I think we improved a lot. Today we played all as one. Last game, we had issues here and there, but we worked hard in practice and wanted to come out and play as one team tonight."

On the team's performance in the fourth quarter...

"It's like Coach Heard told us, it was gut check time. We had to do what we knew how to do in attacking them and get some stops on the other end."

Guard Kendall Noble

On solving the press that the offense struggled against on Wednesday...

"I think we just kept our composure today. Last game we were just all over the place and everybody was flustered. We knew it was going to come, so we worked on it and made sure that we were able to move the ball up the court."

On the bench chipping in with some big performances...

"It was really big. Micah came off the bench and she was hitting threes and Ima played really well. The bench really brought a boost for us today."

November 19, 2016

E.A. Diddle Arena; Bowling Green, Ky.

FINAL SCORE: -/RV WKU 85, No. 23/RV Indiana 74

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU improves to 2-1 on the season, while Indiana goes to 3-1.
 - Following Saturday's matchup, the Lady Toppers lead the all-time series between the programs 5-2.
- UP NEXT: WKU finished their three-game homestand to start the season and now head to Estero, Fla., to compete in the Gulf Coast Showcase with a matchup at 12:30 p.m. (CT) Friday with No. 20/20 DePaul.
- WKU took down a ranked opponent in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1996-97 and 1997-98 seasons. The two wins were over ACC foe Louisville and Big 10 foe Indiana as both games were in E.A. Diddle Arena.
- It was Michelle Clark-Heard's second win over a ranked opponent in her WKU era.
- WKU is now 41-0 when they score 80 or more points in the Michelle Clark-Heard era.

Team Notes

- WKU started Micah Jones, Tashia Brown, Kendall Noble, Ivy Brown and Sarah Price against the Hoosiers, the first time the team has used that starting lineup.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: Down 20-26 with six minutes remaining in the first half, WKU went on an 8-2 run paced by Kayla Smith's six points to take the lead, 30-28.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: WKU used a 13-2 run to the Lady Toppers up 73-60 at the 7-minute mark.
- WKU had four players in double figures – Tashia Brown (28 points), Kendall Noble (16 points), Ivy Brown (11 points) and Micah Jones (11 points).
- The Lady Toppers' largest lead was 15 points at the 7:35 mark in the fourth quarter.
- The Lady Toppers forced five Indiana turnovers in the first quarter compared to WKU's one.
- WKU held Indiana to a season-low first quarter score of 17 points.
- There were four lead changes and two ties in the opening half.
- WKU came down with seven offensive rebounds in the first half.
- The Lady Toppers only had three turnovers in the first two quarters.
- WKU scored a season-high 29 points in the third quarter – tied for second-most in program history since moving to quarters last season. The last time it happened was versus Florida Atlantic on Jan. 9, 2016.
- The Lady Toppers shot 26-of-28 (92.9 percent) from the charity stripe – tied for fifth-most in the program's single game history (minimum of 20 attempts).
- The Lady Toppers had six players with at least three rebounds.
- Today's win was the Lady Toppers' 34th over a ranked team in program history.
- WKU is now 34-8 in the BB&T Classic.

Individual Notes

- Micah Jones tallied 11 points – her most since she scored 22 points against UTEP on Jan. 22, 2015.
- Jones moved into eighth place for three-point field goals with 146, passing Dawn Warner.
- Kayla Smith scored six points and notched two rebounds.
- Ivy Brown scored 11 points to push her total through three games to 49 points, she also gathered three rebounds.
- Freshman Sarah Price logged the most minutes of her career (27) and also had a career high in points (4) in her first career start.
- Tashia Brown scored nine straight points to open the fourth quarter for WKU.
- Brown dropped 15 points in the fourth quarter which is a program record for a quarter.
- Brown tallied 28 points, four rebounds and one assist.
- Kendall Noble racked up 12 points, nine rebounds, seven assists, two blocks and a steal.

BROWN TABBED C-USA, COLLEGE SPORTS MADNESS PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Headshot and Action Shot of Tashia Brown Attached

IRVING, Texas – Junior forward Tashia Brown has been named the C-USA Player of the Week by both the conference office and College Sports Madness as announced by the organizations on Monday morning following WKU's 85-74 victory over No. 23/RV Indiana.

The honor is the first Player of the Week of Brown's career from the conference office, the first for WKU this season and the Lady Toppers' 10th since joining the conference prior to the 2014-15 season. Brown was named the C-USA Freshman of the Week three times during her rookie campaign in 2014-15.

Brown keyed the Lady Toppers with 28 points on Saturday afternoon, her sixth career outing with 25 or more points and the second-most points scored against a Division I opponent by a C-USA player thus far in 2016-17. The Lake Park, Ga., native tallied 15 of her points in the fourth quarter, setting a new program record for most points in a quarter by an individual player as she helped WKU to build a lead of as many as 15 points with seven minutes to play.

Saturday's victory over Indiana marked the first time that WKU has defeated a ranked opponent in back-to-back seasons since 1996-97 and 1997-98. Last season, the Lady Toppers defeated then-No. 16 Louisville inside E.A. Diddle Arena, 71-69, after Kayla Smith's go-ahead basket with just over 30 seconds remaining. The win was also the first for C-USA against a top-25 opponent this season.

The leading scorer on the most explosive offense in C-USA in the early stages of the season, Brown ranks fourth among all C-USA players with 18.7 points per game.

Brown and the Lady Toppers will return to action against No. 20/20 DePaul on Friday afternoon at 12:30 p.m. (CT) in their first matchup of the 2016 Gulf Coast Showcase in Estero, Fla. With a win, WKU would likely face No. 2/4 Baylor on Saturday afternoon at 4 p.m. (CT) for a spot in Sunday's championship game. The eight-team tournament field features five teams that reached the NCAA Tournament last season, including national runner-up Syracuse.

Full NCAA Release: ncaa.com/news/basketball-women/article/2016-11-23/womens-basketball-notre-dames-ogunbowale-headlines-players

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Junior forward Tashia Brown has been named to the NCAA's weekly Starting Five that honors the five most outstanding performers in the nation over the past week after her 28-point outburst to push WKU past No. 23 Indiana last Saturday afternoon.

WKU has now landed a player in the NCAA Starting Five at least one time in each of the last three seasons: Chastity Gooch captured the honor in 2014-15 before Kendall Noble earned the weekly award last season. Brown's Starting Five honor is the first of her career on The Hill; she is joined on the Starting Five list this week by Emily Clemens (Western Illinois), Arike Ogunbowale (Notre Dame), Teniya Page (Penn State) and Katie Lou Samuelson (Connecticut).

Brown keyed the Lady Toppers with 28 points on Saturday afternoon, her sixth career outing with 25 or more points and the second-most points scored against a Division I opponent by a C-USA player thus far in 2016-17. The Lake Park, Ga., native tallied 15 of her points in the fourth quarter, setting a new program record for most points in a quarter by an individual player as she helped WKU to build a lead of as many as 15 points with seven minutes to play before ultimately coming away with the 85-74 victory.

Saturday's victory over Indiana marked the first time that WKU has defeated a ranked opponent in back-to-back seasons since 1996-97 and 1997-98. Last season, the Lady Toppers defeated then-No. 16 Louisville inside E.A. Diddle Arena, 71-69, after Kayla Smith's go-ahead basket with just over 30 seconds remaining. The win was also the first for C-USA against a top-25 opponent this season.

The leading scorer on the most explosive offense in C-USA in the early stages of the season, Brown ranks fourth among all C-USA players with 18.7 points per game.

Brown and the Lady Toppers will return to action against No. 20/20 DePaul on Friday afternoon at 12:30 p.m. (CT) in their first matchup of the 2016 Gulf Coast Showcase in Estero, Fla. With a win, WKU would likely face No. 2/4 Baylor on Saturday afternoon at 4 p.m. (CT) for a spot in Sunday's championship game. LADY TOPPERS OPEN 2016 GULF COAST SHOWCASE FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Live Stream (YouTube): youtube.com/bdglobalsportsnetwork

Live Stats: statbroadcast.com/events/central.php?tid=438&t=1

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU is set to compete in one of the premier in-season tournaments in the nation this weekend, traveling to Estero, Fla., as one of eight participants in the 2016 Gulf Coast Showcase. The field features five NCAA Tournament teams from one year ago, including national runner-up Syracuse.

The Lady Toppers will open the tournament on Friday at 12:30 p.m. (CT) against DePaul and will then face either Baylor or Kent State at 11 a.m. or 5 p.m. (CT) on Saturday. Sunday's opponent and game time is contingent upon WKU's results in the first two contests, but potential opponents include Syracuse, Ohio State, Florida Gulf Coast and George Washington.

Tashia Brown, the reigning C-USA Player of the Week, tallied 28 points to lead WKU to an 85-74 victory over then-No. 23 Indiana in its last time out last Saturday afternoon. With a victory over DePaul, WKU would have a winning streak over ranked teams in consecutive games for just the third time in program history.

WKU last met DePaul on Feb. 8, 1994, in what would be a 69-63 victory for the Lady Toppers. Overall, WKU leads the all-time series against the Blue Demons 3-1, with the lone loss coming in the first meeting between the two sides (73-63) on March 14, 1990.

DePaul enters Friday's matchup with a perfect 3-0 record and wins over Appalachian State, UAB and Northwestern. Jessica January leads the Blue Demons with 21.3 points per game and is joined in double figures by Ashton Millender (17.7). Jacqui Grant is the team's leading rebounder at 9.7 boards per game, and January also paces the team with 6.7 assists per outing. The high-scoring Blue Demon offense averages 92.7 points per game, and 107 of DePaul's 217 field goal attempts on the season (49.3 percent) have come from beyond the arc.

Following the Gulf Coast Showcase, WKU will remain on the road for its next three contests, the first of which will come at Eastern Kentucky next Wednesday, Nov. 30, at 4:30 p.m. (CT). The Lady Toppers defeated ECU 76-60 inside E.A. Diddle Arena last season and own a 28-7 edge in the all-time series against the in-state foe.

GAMES #4-6 – WKU AT THE 2016 GULF COAST SHOWCASE

RV/RV WKU (2-1, 0-0 C-USA) vs. No. 18/17 DePaul (3-0, 0-0 Big East) – Game #1

QUICK SHOTS

- After scoring 96 points in the opener against Alabama A&M and 85 points in the win over Indiana, WKU now holds a perfect 41-0 record under Michelle Clark-Heard when scoring 80 or more points in a single game. The Lady Toppers are also 47-3 overall when holding opponents to 59 or fewer points.
- In non-conference play under Clark-Heard, WKU owns a 48-16 record (.750) dating back to the 2012-13 season and has dropped no more than four non-conference games in a single season over that same span.
- Junior Tashia Brown earned recognition from both C-USA and the NCAA following her 28-point outburst against Indiana. Brown tallied 15 points in the fourth quarter, setting a new program record for most points scored by a single player in one quarter. For her efforts, Brown was named the C-USA Player of the Week for the first time in her career and was also honored with a spot on the NCAA's weekly Starting Five list.
- For the second consecutive year, WKU took down a top-25 team inside Diddle Arena with its win over Indiana. That victory marks the first time since the 1997-98 campaign that the Lady Toppers have defeated at least one ranked team in back-to-back seasons.
- Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, WKU has posted a 41-10 record (.804) in games played prior to January 1, including a 19-7 mark (.731) in games played during the month of November.
- In games immediately following a loss since 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 27-6 and have not suffered consecutive losses since Nov. 23 and 25, 2014 (at Mississippi State and Louisville).
- WKU held Alabama A&M to just 32 points in the season opener, the fewest points scored by a WKU opponent since UTRGV scored 32 on Jan. 15, 1998. The Lady Toppers also held the Lady Bulldogs to 13-of-52 (25 percent) shooting from the field on the evening.
- WKU limited the Lady Bulldogs to just three points in the second quarter, the fewest points surrendered by the Lady Toppers in a single quarter since the system was implemented at the beginning of last season.
- Already eighth in school history with 146 three-pointers, Micah Jones needs just 19 more to pass Renee Westmoreland (1990-93) for seventh place on the charts.
- With seven steals through three games this season, Kendall Noble has collected 281 takeaways for her career. The Hazard, Ky., native is just five steals shy of setting a new WKU program record and appears set to surpass Lady Topper legend Clemette Haskins at the top of the chart.
- Redshirt senior Kendall Noble was named the 2016-17 Preseason C-USA Player of the Year and both Noble and junior Tashia Brown were selected to the preseason All-C-USA team in a vote conducted by the league's coaches. Noble is the third preseason player of the year for WKU in the last five seasons.
- For the first time under Clark-Heard, WKU has been picked to win the conference in the annual preseason poll. The Lady Toppers received six first-place votes and narrowly edged out both Middle Tennessee and Old Dominion for the top spot.
- Clark-Heard captured her 100th victory as the head coach of the Lady Toppers in a 69-58 victory at Louisiana Tech on March 5 last season, reaching the milestone in just her 130th game at the helm of the program. Only the legendary Paul Sanderford, WKU's all-time winningest coach, reached the mark more quickly, doing so in his 127th game with the team.

- By winning her 100th game against Louisiana Tech last season, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

WKU NARROWLY FALLS TO NO. 18/17 DEPAUL, 77-69

PDF Box Score Attached, Postgame Notes to Follow

ESTERO, Fla. – Junior Ivy Brown notched her first double-double of the season with 12 points and 12 rebounds and redshirt senior Kendall Noble poured in 19 points, but WKU dropped a tight 77-69 decision against No. 18/17 DePaul in the opening round of the 2016 Gulf Coast Showcase on Friday afternoon.

WKU (2-2) will now face Kent State in the consolation bracket on Saturday morning at 10 a.m. (CT) inside Germain Arena. The Golden Flashes fell, 84-42, against Baylor on Friday morning in the first game of the opening session.

Noble led the Lady Toppers with 19 points on the afternoon and was joined in double figures by Tashia Brown (15) and Ivy Brown (12). Ivy Brown also added a game-high 12 rebounds for her first double-double of the season.

For DePaul (4-0), Jessica January led all scorers with 25 points, Jacqui Grant added 13 and Ashton Millender had 11. Grant also pulled down 10 rebounds for a double-double, while January dished out a game-high seven assists.

WKU jumped out to an early lead over the Blue Demons, netting 11 of the first 15 points of the contest. Noble and Sarah Price each tallied four points during the opening run for the Lady Toppers, and Tashia Brown capped the burst with a free throw at the 5:49 mark to hand WKU a seven-point advantage.

Two consecutive three-pointers from DePaul brought the Blue Demons within one point, but WKU was able to maintain its lead throughout the final five minutes of the quarter with a 19-15 lead at the end of the opening 10 minutes.

DePaul began the second quarter on an 8-0 run, keyed by four points from Grant, to grab its first lead since the first minute of the contest. Micah Jones halted the stretch with a three-pointer at the 7:04 mark, and Ivy Brown tied the game back up at 25-25 with a three-pointer of her own just 30 seconds later.

The Blue Demons' lead twice grew to as many as seven points in the closing minutes of the first half, but free throws from Noble and Tashia Brown to close the frame brought WKU within three points, 39-36, at the halftime break.

Midway through the third quarter, the Lady Toppers twice tied the game, first on a free throw from Ivy Brown and again less than a minute later on a layup from Ima Akpan. Both times, however, DePaul was able to rebuild its lead and the Blue Demons took a 61-56 edge into the final 10-minute quarter.

Sidnee Bopp's layup with 8:45 to play brought WKU within one point, 61-60, but DePaul's Tanita Allen answered with a three-pointer on the Blue Demons' next possession. The Lady Toppers battled hard down the stretch but were unable to close the gap any closer than three points the rest of the way.

WKU Lady Toppers vs. DePaul Blue Demons

Postgame Notes

November 25, 2016

Germain Arena; Estero, Fla.

FINAL SCORE: No. 18/17 DePaul 77, RV/RV WKU 69

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU falls to 2-2 on the season, while DePaul improves to 4-0.
 - Despite the loss, WKU still leads the all-time series against the Blue Demons by a 3-2 margin.
- UP NEXT: WKU is set to face Kent State in the consolation bracket of the 2016 Gulf Coast Showcase on Saturday morning at 10 a.m. (CT). The Golden Flashes dropped an 84-42 decision against Baylor in the first game of the opening session on Friday.

Team Notes

- WKU started Micah Jones, Tashia Brown, Kendall Noble, Ivy Brown and Sarah Price against the Blue Demons, the second consecutive game which has featured that starting lineup.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: WKU grabbed its largest lead of the game after scoring 11 of the afternoon's first 15 points. Price and Noble each tallied four points during the early run for the Lady Toppers.
- DePaul carried a narrow 39-36 lead into the halftime break.
 - KEY SECOND HALF RUN: With DePaul leading by seven, 43-36, at the 8:39 mark in the third quarter, WKU closed the gap to just one point, 43-42, over the next two minutes.
- WKU had three players in double figures – Kendall Noble (19 points), Tashia Brown (13 points) and Ivy Brown (12 points).
- The Lady Toppers' largest lead was seven points at the 5:49 mark in the opening quarter.
- WKU outscored DePaul on the offensive glass, scoring 16 second-chance points compared to just eight for the Blue Demons.
- WKU held DePaul to 25 percent shooting (5-of-20) in the opening quarter while shooting 8-of-19 (42.1 percent).
- WKU finished 19-of-22 (86.4 percent) from the free-throw line, the team's second effort of 85 percent or better this season.
- The Lady Toppers dropped just their second in-season tournament game since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13. WKU's only other loss came to Mississippi State in the Preseason WNIT championship game on Nov. 23, 2014.

Individual Notes

- Ivy Brown finished with 12 points and 12 rebounds, her first double-double of the season and 11th of her career.
 - Brown also added two blocks and a steal on the afternoon.
- Kendall Noble led the Lady Toppers with 19 points, her 70th career effort with 10 or more points in a game.
 - Noble also was a perfect 7-of-7 from the free-throw line and is now 19-of-20 (95 percent) for the season.
- Reigning C-USA Player of the Week Tashia Brown scored 13 points and has finished in double figures in all four games to date in 2016-17.
- Sidnee Bopp and Micah Jones each scored five points off the bench for the Lady Toppers.
- Freshman Sarah Price made her second consecutive start for WKU, playing 14 minutes while scoring four points and three rebounds.

WKU WINS 79-73 OVERTIME THRILLER OVER KENT STATE

PDF Box Score Attached, Postgame Notes to Follow

ESTERO, Fla. – WKU overcame its largest deficit in nearly three years in its second game at the Gulf Coast Showcase on Saturday afternoon, erasing a 14-point second-half lead for Kent State to earn a 79-73 overtime victory inside Germain Arena.

The 14-point comeback victory is WKU's largest since coming from 16 points down to defeat Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic on Dec. 21, 2013. The Lady Toppers improve to 3-2 on the season with the victory, while Kent State drops to 2-4.

WKU will now face the winner of Saturday's second game between Florida Gulf Coast and George Washington on Sunday afternoon at 12:30 p.m. (CT). The Lady Toppers have never faced the Eagles on the hardwood and own a 3-2 record in the all-time series against the Colonials.

Kendall Noble led the Lady Toppers with a season-best 28 points and Tashia Brown chipped in 21 points of her own. Ivy Brown added her second straight double-double with 13 points and 13 rebounds while also coming away with a game-high three takeaways.

The Lady Toppers took advantage of their trips to the free throw line on Saturday, knocking down 26 of their 28 attempts (92.9 percent) from the charity stripe. Tashia Brown was a perfect 11-of-11 and Noble was perfect on the afternoon as well, knocking down all eight of her chances.

Kent State's Larissa Lurken poured in a Gulf Coast Showcase-record 39 points and connected on 22 of her 25 chances from the free throw line. Jordan Korinek added 19 points for the Golden Flashes to join Lurken in double figures.

The Lady Toppers jumped out to an early lead and held an advantage for much of the first quarter. Noble and Ivy Brown each had three pointers for WKU in the opening frame and pushed the team to a 10-6 lead with two minutes left in the period. Kent State rallied, however, scoring the final six points of the quarter and taking a 12-10 lead at the end of the opening 10 minutes.

Kent State continued its run, scoring the first four points of the second quarter to build a 16-10 lead. Over the next four minutes, WKU gradually chipped away at the deficit, and five straight points, capped by a three-pointer from Jaycee Coe at the 4:32 mark, tied the game at 19-19.

Both sides battled hard down the stretch to close the half, but the Golden Flashes were able to maintain a small lead, 25-21, heading into the halftime break.

Whitney Creech brought the score within two points after a pair of free throws to begin the third quarter, but Kent State responded with an 11-2 burst to build its first double-digit lead of the afternoon. Korinek and Lurken combined for nine of the 11 points during the run.

Kent State's lead grew to as many as 14 points midway through the third quarter as the Golden Flashes took a 41-27 advantage after a Korinek jumper at the 4:09 mark. With a 7-0 run just two minutes later, though, WKU battled its way right back into the contest and trimmed its deficit to just eight points, 47-39, heading into the final quarter.

WKU whittled away at the eight-point hole throughout the fourth quarter, finally knotting the game at 60-60 and taking a lead 30 seconds later on the strength of eight unanswered points. Both baskets came off layups from Tashia Brown as the Lady Toppers completed erased the double-digit deficit that they had faced earlier in the half.

The final two minutes of regulation featured four ties and four lead changes, but ultimately the two sides headed into overtime tied up at 67-67.

WKU took an early one-point lead in the extra frame off Ivy Brown's free throw and the Lady Toppers did not relinquish the lead following that basket en route to the 79-73 victory.

WKU Lady Toppers vs. Kent State Golden Flashes

Postgame Notes

November 26, 2016

Germain Arena; Estero, Fla.

FINAL SCORE: RV/RV WKU 79, Kent State 73 (OT)

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU improves to 3-2 on the season, while Kent State drops to 2-4 on the 2016-17 campaign.
 - The Lady Toppers now lead the all-time series against the Golden Flashes with a perfect 3-0 mark in the series that dates back to the 2010-11 season.
- UP NEXT: WKU will now face the winner of Saturday's second game between Florida Gulf Coast and George Washington on Sunday afternoon at 12:30 p.m. (CT). The Lady Toppers have never faced the Eagles on the hardwood and own a 3-2 record in the all-time series against the Colonials.

Team Notes

- WKU started Tashia Brown, Kendall Noble, Ivy Brown, Sarah Price and Kayla Smith against the Golden Flashes, the third consecutive game which has featured that starting lineup. The lineup owns a 2-1 record when starting together following Saturday's win.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: With the Golden Flashes leading 19-14 after a three-pointer from Ali Poole at the 6:22 mark in the second quarter, WKU rattled off five straight points to tie the game at 19-19. Jaycee Coe capped the burst with her own three-pointer with 4:32 remaining before the half.
- Kent State took a 25-21 advantage into the halftime break.
 - KEY SECOND HALF RUN: Trailing 57-48 with 5:35 remaining in the game, WKU fired off a 14-3 run over the next three and a half minutes to take its first lead since the opening quarter.
- The two sides entered overtime tied at 67-67. WKU moved to 6-1 under Michelle Clark-Heard in overtime games and has won five straight overtime contests. In program history, the Lady Toppers are 38-14 (.731) in games that have gone to overtime.
- WKU had three players in double figures – Kendall Noble (28 points), Tashia Brown (21 points) and Ivy Brown (13 points).
- WKU overcame a 14-point deficit, its largest in a victory since overcoming a 16-point deficit against Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic on Dec. 21, 2013.
- The Lady Toppers went 26-of-28 (92.9 percent) from the free throw line, tied for its fifth-best mark in a single game in program history with 20 or more attempts.
 - WKU fired an identical 26-of-28 mark on free throws against Indiana last Saturday afternoon.
- Despite shooting just 17.6 percent (6-of-34) in the first half, WKU rallied to finish 24-of-67 (35.8 percent) for the game.

Individual Notes

- Ivy Brown finished with 13 points and 13 rebounds, her second consecutive double-double after 12 points and 12 rebounds against DePaul on Friday.
 - Brown also added three steals on the afternoon.
- Kendall Noble led the Lady Toppers with 28 points, her 22nd career game with 20 or more points.
 - Noble grabbed two steals, giving her 283 for her career. The redshirt senior needs just three more to pass Clemette Haskins for the school record in the category.
 - Noble also was a perfect 8-of-8 from the free-throw line and is now 27-of-28 (96.4 percent) for the season.
- Reigning C-USA Player of the Week Tashia Brown scored 21 points and has finished in double figures in all four games to date in 2016-17.
 - Brown became the first WKU player since Kenzie Rich on Dec. 20, 2009, to make 10 or more free throws without a miss (11-of-11) and marks just the 13th time a Lady Topper has accomplished the feat.
- Sidnee Bopp played a career-high 23 minutes and finished with two points, one rebound and an assist.

WKU FALLS, 68-49, TO GEORGE WASHINGTON IN SHOWCASE FINALE

PDF Box Score Attached, Postgame Notes to Follow

ESTERO, Fla. – Junior Ivy Brown notched her third consecutive double-double with 13 points and 11 rebounds, but WKU fell to George Washington, 68-49, in its final game at the 2016 Gulf Coast Showcase inside Germain Arena on Sunday afternoon.

The Lady Toppers (3-3) closed the tournament by earning sixth place ahead of Kent State and Florida Gulf Coast. WKU dropped contests against DePaul and George Washington (5-2) but overcame a 14-point deficit to defeat Kent State on Saturday afternoon.

Ivy Brown led WKU in both scoring and rebounding on the afternoon, and Micah Jones dished out a team-best three assists.

For George Washington, Caira Washington scored 13 points and pulled down nine boards. She was joined in double figures by Brianna Cummings (10 points) and Lexi Martins (10), and Mei-Lyn Bautista led all players with five assists on the day.

The Colonials opened the game on a 12-2 run over the first seven minutes. After Sarah Price's early layup, George Washington's run was keyed by four points apiece from Washington and Cummings and was capped by Hannah Schaible's layup at the 3:47 mark. Tashia Brown halted the Colonials' run with just under three minutes remaining in the frame and WKU cut the lead to single digits, 16-10, after the opening 10 minutes.

A 12-0 run by the Colonials rebuilt their double digit advantage over the first four minutes of the second quarter before Kendall Noble ended the stretch with a pair of free throws with 5:43 remaining before the halftime break. WKU twice closed within 12 points over the final five minutes of the quarter, but entered the locker room trailing George Washington, 32-18.

Down 45-26 midway through the third quarter, WKU tallied six unanswered points to cut into the deficit. Noble began the run with a pair of shots from the charity stripe while Tashia Brown poured in the other four points for the Lady Toppers off pullup jumpers to get the Lady Toppers within 13, 45-32, at the 2:38 mark.

George Washington built its largest lead of the night, 64-41, with 6:01 to play, following Kelsi Mahoney's layup. WKU fought hard down the stretch and trimmed the Colonials' advantage to just 68-49 at the final whistle.

In its first game following the Gulf Coast Showcase, WKU will travel to in-state rival Eastern Kentucky on Wednesday, Nov. 30, at 5:30 p.m. (CT) as part of a doubleheader; the Hilltoppers will take on the Colonels following the women's matchup. WKU leads the all-time series against Eastern Kentucky 28-7, including a 76-60 win in Bowling Green on Dec. 16 last season.

WKU Lady Toppers vs. George Washington Colonials

Postgame Notes

November 27, 2016

Germain Arena; Estero, Fla.

FINAL SCORE: George Washington 68, RV/RV WKU 49

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU drops to 3-3 on the season, while George Washington moves to 5-2 on the 2016-17 campaign.
 - The all-time series between the two sides is now tied at 3-3.
- WKU finished in sixth place at the 2016 Gulf Coast Showcase following Sunday's loss. The Lady Toppers finished the event ahead of Kent State and Florida Gulf Coast.
- UP NEXT: In its first game following the Gulf Coast Showcase, WKU will travel to in-state rival Eastern Kentucky on Wednesday, Nov. 30, at 5:30 p.m. (CT) as part of a doubleheader; the Hilltoppers will take on the Colonels following the women's matchup.
 - WKU leads the all-time series against Eastern Kentucky 28-7, including a 76-60 win in Bowling Green on Dec. 16 last season.

Team Notes

- WKU started Tashia Brown, Kendall Noble, Ivy Brown, Sarah Price and Kayla Smith against the Colonials, the fourth consecutive game which has featured that starting lineup. The lineup owns a 2-2 record when starting together following Sunday's setback.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: After dropping into an 18-point hole midway through the second quarter, WKU fought back with six unanswered points, punctuated by Ivy Brown's layup with 2:36 to play to close the gap to 28-16.
- George Washington carried a 32-18 lead into the halftime break.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: Trailing 45-26 in the third quarter, WKU cut into George Washington's lead with six unanswered points; four came off jump shots by Tashia Brown and two more from Kendall Noble free throws.
- WKU had seven blocks against the Colonials, its most in a single game this season. Ivy Brown had three to lead all players and Kendall Noble had two more rejections.
- The Lady Toppers held George Washington to 23.1 percent (3-of-13) shooting from three-point range, their third game this season holding opponents to 25 percent shooting or less from beyond the arc.

Individual Notes

- Ivy Brown finished with 13 points and 11 rebounds, her third consecutive double-double after 12 points and 12 rebounds against DePaul on Friday and 13 points and 13 boards against Kent State on Saturday.
 - Brown also added three blocks on the afternoon.
- Kendall Noble had eight points, four rebounds, two assists, two blocks and two steals to stuff the stat sheet for the Lady Toppers.
 - Noble grabbed two steals, giving her 285 for her career. The redshirt senior needs just one more to pass Clemette Haskins for the school record in the category.
- Freshman Malaka Frank played a career-best 16 minutes against the Colonials.

WKU HEADS TO IN-STATE RIVAL EASTERN KENTUCKY WEDNESDAY

Live Stats: sidearmstats.com/eku/wbball/

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU will play its fourth game in six days as part of its six-game road trip on Wednesday, taking on Eastern Kentucky inside McBrayer Arena at 4:30 p.m. (CT) in a nationally-televised contest on Fox College Sports that will also be carried locally on WKU PBS.

The Lady Toppers are coming off a sixth-place showing at the 2016 Gulf Coast Showcase this past weekend, earning a thrilling overtime victory against Kent State but falling to DePaul and George Washington. Junior Ivy Brown tallied double-doubles in all three contests and is one of the top rebounders in C-USA thus far in 2016-17, pulling down 9.2 boards per game. Tashia Brown leads WKU in scoring at a 16.0 clip per contest.

On Wednesday, WKU will be seeking to extend its winning streak against the Colonels to 13 consecutive victories dating back to a double-overtime 89-87 win on Jan. 9, 1982. The Lady Toppers lead the all-time series against Eastern Kentucky by a 28-7 margin and have won 18 of the last 19 battles between the two sides.

Last season, WKU picked up a 76-60 victory over the Colonels inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Dec. 16, 2015. Tashia Brown fired a then-career best 23 points and Ivy Brown notched a double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds for the Lady Toppers. Kendall Noble also poured in 14 points and hauled in six boards for WKU in that contest.

Eastern Kentucky enters Wednesday's contest with four players averaging double figures in scoring per game. Shavontae Naylor and Jalen O'Bannon have each tallied 13.4 points per outing, while Alexis Cooper and Mariah Massengill average 10 points apiece. O'Bannon is the team's leading rebounder at 7.6 boards per game, and Massengill has dished out a team-best 18 assists through five games.

Following Wednesday's matchup, WKU will remain on the road for a clash on Saturday at Noon against Austin Peay in Clarksville, Tenn. Like Eastern Kentucky, the Lady Toppers also sport a long winning streak over the Lady Govs: seven straight victories dating back to a 96-54 win on Dec. 8, 1988.

QUICK SHOTS

- After scoring 96 points in the opener against Alabama A&M and 85 points in the win over Indiana, WKU now holds a perfect 41-0 record under Michelle Clark-Heard when scoring 80 or more points in a single game. The Lady Toppers are also 47-3 overall when holding opponents to 59 or fewer points.

- In non-conference play under Clark-Heard, WKU owns a 49-18 record (.731) dating back to the 2012-13 season and has dropped no more than four non-conference games in a single season over that same span.

- With 11 steals through six games this season, Kendall Noble has collected 285 takeaways for her career. The Hazard, Ky., native is just one steal shy of setting a new WKU program record and appears set to surpass Lady Topper legend Clemette Haskins at the top of the chart.

- With a thrilling 79-73 overtime victory over Kent State on Nov. 26, WKU earned its fifth consecutive victory in an overtime contest and moved to 38-14 (.731) in such games in program history. The Lady Toppers have not lost after reaching overtime since Feb. 5, 2014, against Arkansas State.

- With a 14-point comeback over Kent State, the Lady Toppers notched their largest come-from-behind victory since erasing a 16-point deficit to win against Georgetown on Dec. 21, 2013. Since the beginning of last season, WKU owns eight victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.

- As a team, WKU is shooting 109-of-133 (82.0 percent) from the free throw line this season, an improvement of 12 percent from the 2015-16 season. Currently, WKU ranks fourth among all Division I teams in free-throw percentage this season.

- For the second consecutive year, WKU took down a top-25 team inside Diddle Arena with its win over Indiana. That victory marks the first time since the 1997-98 campaign that the Lady Toppers have defeated at least one ranked team in back-to-back seasons.

- Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, WKU has posted a 42-12 record (.778) in games played prior to January 1, including a 20-9 mark (.690) in games played during the month of November.

- In games immediately following a loss since 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 28-6 and have not suffered consecutive losses since Nov. 23 and 25, 2014 (at Mississippi State and Louisville).

- WKU held Alabama A&M to just 32 points in the season opener, the fewest points scored by a WKU opponent since UTRGV scored 32 on Jan. 15, 1998. The Lady Toppers also held the Lady Bulldogs to 13-of-52 (25 percent) shooting from the field on the evening.

- WKU limited the Lady Bulldogs to just three points in the second quarter, the fewest points surrendered by the Lady Toppers in a single quarter since the system was implemented at the beginning of last season.

- Already eighth in school history with 149 three-pointers, Micah Jones needs just 16 more to pass Renee Westmoreland (1990-93) for seventh place on the charts.

- Redshirt senior Kendall Noble was named the 2016-17 Preseason C-USA Player of the Year and both Noble and junior Tashia Brown were selected to the preseason All-C-USA team in a vote conducted by the league's coaches. Noble is the third preseason player of the year for WKU in the last five seasons.

- For the first time under Clark-Heard, WKU has been picked to win the conference in the annual preseason poll. The Lady Toppers received six first-place votes and narrowly edged out both Middle Tennessee and Old Dominion for the top spot.

- Clark-Heard captured her 100th victory as the head coach of the Lady Toppers in a 69-58 victory at Louisiana Tech on March 5 last season, reaching the milestone in just her 130th game at the helm of the program. Only the legendary Paul Sanderford, WKU's all-time winningest coach, reached the mark more quickly, doing so in his 127th game with the team.

- By winning her 100th game against Louisiana Tech last season, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

NOBLE BREAKS STEALS RECORD IN 90-63 WIN AT EASTERN KENTUCKY

PDF Box Score Attached, Postgame Notes to Follow

RICHMOND, Ky. – Redshirt senior Kendall Noble became WKU's all-time leader in steals and scored a team-high 18 points on Wednesday evening as WKU picked up a 90-63 victory over Eastern Kentucky inside McBrayer Arena in its first true road game of the season.

With her first steal of the night, Noble made WKU history as she passed the legendary Clemette Haskins atop the Lady Toppers' all-time steals list. After registering two takeaways on Wednesday, Noble now has 287 for her career early in her final season.

Noble led the Lady Toppers in scoring with 18 points on the evening and also stuffed the stat sheet with eight rebounds and five assists. She was joined in double figures by Ivy Brown (14), Tashia Brown (12) and Jaycee Coe (11), the last of whom knocked down three of her four three-pointers on the night.

As a team, WKU shot 54 percent (34-of-63) from the field, nearly 20 percent better than Eastern Kentucky's 34.8 percent (23-of-66). All but one Lady Topper who saw game action also scored in the balanced effort.

Eastern Kentucky's Shavontae Naylor led all scorers with 20 points, Alexis Cooper had 18 and Jalen O'Bannon rounded out the Colonel trio in double figures with 10 points. O'Bannon was also the team's leading rebounder with seven boards.

Neither side could gain more than a three-point advantage over the first eight minutes of the game that featured six ties. The Lady Toppers finally broke through to gain some breathing room with 10 unanswered points over a five-minute span across the first and second quarters. Four different WKU players scored during the run that was keyed by four points from Noble, and Ima Akpan's pair of free throws with 7:42 to play in the second quarter gave the Lady Toppers a 28-16 lead.

Eastern Kentucky battled back to cut WKU's lead to as few as seven, 36-29, but the Lady Toppers fended off the offensive burst by the Colonels and rebuilt their double-digit advantage to carry a 41-29 lead into the halftime break.

Leading 46-32 early in the third quarter, the Lady Toppers broke open the game even further with nine more unanswered points. Ivy Brown and Noble each poured in four points during the stretch that left WKU with a 55-32 advantage at the 4:26 mark in the third quarter.

The Colonels were unable to cut the WKU lead to any fewer than 27 points in the final quarter as WKU claimed the 90-63 victory for its first true road win of the season.

WKU will make the short trip south into Tennessee on Saturday for a Noon (CT) tipoff against Austin Peay inside the Winfield Dunn Center, WKU's fifth straight game away from E.A. Diddle Arena. The Lady Toppers own a seven-game winning streak against the Lady Govs dating back to a 96-54 win on Dec. 8, 1988, and lead the overall series between the two teams 17-7. In the most recent meeting, WKU picked up an 88-69 win inside Diddle Arena on Dec. 5, 2015, last season.

WKU Lady Toppers at Eastern Kentucky Colonels

Postgame Notes

November 30, 2016

McBrayer Arena; Richmond, Ky.

FINAL SCORE: WKU 90, Eastern Kentucky 63

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU improves to 4-3 on the season, while Eastern Kentucky drops to 2-4 on the 2016-17 campaign.
 - WKU extended its winning streak over the Colonels to 13 consecutive games. The Lady Toppers have not lost to Eastern Kentucky since an 83-75 setback on Jan. 29, 1981.
- UP NEXT: WKU will make the short trip south into Tennessee on Saturday for a Noon (CT) tipoff against Austin Peay inside the Winfield Dunn Center.
 - Saturday's game will be WKU's fifth straight game away from E.A. Diddle Arena. The Lady Toppers are 2-2 on their current road trip.
 - WKU owns a seven-game winning streak against the Lady Gobs dating back to a 96-54 win on Dec. 8, 1988, and leads the overall series between the two teams 17-7. In the most recent meeting, WKU picked up an 88-69 win inside Diddle Arena on Dec. 5, 2015, last season.

Team Notes

- WKU started Tashia Brown, Kendall Noble, Ivy Brown, Sarah Price and Micah Jones against the Colonels, marking the first time that this lineup has started together. With the win, the lineup moved to 1-0.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: Leading 18-16 with 1:42 to play in the opening quarter, WKU used a 10-0 run over the next four minutes to build its first double-digit lead of the night. Four different Lady Toppers scored during the stretch that was capped by Ima Akpan's pair of free throws with 7:42 on the clock in the second quarter.
- WKU led Eastern Kentucky 41-29 at the halftime break, the Lady Toppers' second-largest halftime lead of the 2016-17 season.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: Holding a 46-32 lead at the 8:05 mark in the third quarter, WKU surged to its first 20-point lead of the night with nine unanswered points. Kendall Noble and Ivy Brown each had four points to key the stretch for the Lady Toppers.
- WKU's 60 percent shooting (15-of-25) in the first half was its best in an opening half this season. The Lady Toppers also shot 69.2 percent (9-of-13) in the first quarter, their second-best mark in any quarter in 2016-17.
- WKU remained a perfect 42-0 when scoring 80 or more points under Michelle Clark-Heard.
- WKU has now scored 90 or more points multiple times in the same season since achieving the feat five times during the 2014-15 campaign.
- All but one Lady Topper who saw game action scored at least one point on Wednesday evening.

Individual Notes

- Redshirt senior Kendall Noble made WKU history on Wednesday evening, surpassing the legendary Clemette Haskins atop the Lady Toppers' career steals list. With two steals against Eastern Kentucky, Noble now has a school-record 287 takeaways since arriving on The Hill.
 - Noble also added 18 points, eight rebounds and five assists on the evening.
- Freshman Sarah Price made her fifth consecutive start for the Lady Toppers, marking the third consecutive year that a true freshman has started at least five games for WKU.
 - In 2014-15, Tashia Brown started five games for the Lady Toppers, while Kayla Smith made 31 starts for WKU last season.
- Jaycee Coe knocked down three of her four three-pointers on the night, her first game with multiple made three-pointers since hitting four in the opener against Alabama A&M.

Live Stream: ovcdigitalnetwork.com/watch/?Live=5022

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU will play its fifth game in nine days at Noon (CT) on Saturday afternoon, traveling just over an hour south to take on Austin Peay inside the Winfield Dunn Center. The Lady Toppers lead the all-time series against the Lady Gobs 17-7 and are eyeing their eighth straight win in the series.

The Lady Toppers earned a 90-63 win at Eastern Kentucky in their last time out on Wednesday behind double-digit performances from Kendall Noble (18), Ivy Brown (14), Tashia Brown (12) and Jaycee Coe (11). Noble also became the program's all-time leader in steals with 287 in her career during the contest.

Austin Peay is led by 15.5 points per game from Tearra Banks, the lone Lady Gov averaging double figures. Banks is also the team's leading rebounder at 8.3 per game, while Bri Williams has dished out a team-best 34 assists in 2016-17.

Against the Lady Gobs last season, WKU earned an 88-69 win inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Dec. 5. Tashia Brown led the Lady Toppers with 21 points and a career-best seven assists, Noble and Dee Givens each chipped in 16 points and Ivy Brown notched a double-double with 12 points and 12 rebounds. Tashia Gray led Austin Peay on the afternoon with 17 points.

After Saturday's matchup, WKU will be off for a week before completing its six-game road trip at No. 7/7 Louisville at 1 p.m. (CT) next Sunday afternoon. The Lady Toppers snapped a four-game losing streak in the series with a 71-69 upset of the then-No. 16 Cardinals inside Diddle Arena last season. WKU will be competing against a top-10 team for the first time since facing No. 5 Baylor in the NCAA Tournament on March 22, 2014.

QUICK SHOTS

- WKU has tallied multiple 90-point games in a single season for the first time since 2014-15, when the Lady Toppers broke the 90-point barrier five times. WKU holds a perfect 42-0 record under Michelle Clark-Heard when scoring 80 or more points.

- In non-conference play under Clark-Heard, WKU owns a 50-18 record (.735) dating back to the 2012-13 season and has dropped no more than four non-conference games in a single season over that same span.

- Tashia Brown is set to become the 37th member of WKU's 1,000-point club, needing just 17 points to reach the threshold. The junior is WKU's leading scorer this season with 15.4 points per game and has two outings of 20 points or more.
- With two steals at Eastern Kentucky, Kendall Noble became the program's all-time leader in steals with 287 for her career, surpassing the legendary Clemette Haskins in the category. Noble owns the top two single-season marks in program history for steals with 105 in 2014-15 and 90 in 2015-16 and has earned C-USA Defensive Player of the Year in each season.
- WKU has started a true freshman in at least five games in each of the last three seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16 and Sarah Price has appeared in the starting lineup five times thus far in 2016-17.
- As a team, WKU is shooting 125-of-154 (81.2 percent) from the free throw line this season, an improvement of 11 percent from the 2015-16 season. Currently, WKU ranks seventh among all Division I teams in free-throw percentage this season.
- Already eighth in school history with 150 three-pointers, Micah Jones needs just 15 more to pass Renee Westmoreland (1990-93) for seventh place on the charts.
- For the second consecutive year, WKU took down a top-25 team inside Diddle Arena with its win over Indiana. That victory marks the first time since the 1997-98 campaign that the Lady Toppers have defeated at least one ranked team in back-to-back seasons.
- With a thrilling 79-73 overtime victory over Kent State on Nov. 26, WKU earned its fifth consecutive victory in an overtime contest and moved to 38-14 (.731) in such games in program history. The Lady Toppers have not lost after reaching overtime since Feb. 5, 2014, against Arkansas State.
- With a 14-point comeback over Kent State, the Lady Toppers notched their largest come-from-behind victory since erasing a 16-point deficit to win against Georgetown on Dec. 21, 2013. Since the beginning of last season, WKU owns eight victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.
- Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, WKU has posted a 43-12 record (.782) in games played prior to January 1, including a 21-9 mark (.700) in games played during the month of November.
- In games immediately following a loss since 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 29-6 and have not suffered consecutive losses since Nov. 23 and 25, 2014 (at Mississippi State and Louisville).

BROWN JOINS 1,000-POINT CLUB IN 85-65 VICTORY AT AUSTIN PEAY

PDF Box Score Attached, Postgame Notes to Follow

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. – Junior Tashia Brown became the 37th member of Lady Topper Basketball's 1,000-point club on Saturday afternoon, leading all scorers with 18 points in WKU's 85-65 victory over Austin Peay inside the Winfield Dunn Center.

Brown finished the afternoon with 9-of-15 shooting and eclipsed the 1,000-point mark on a layup at the 7:18 mark of the fourth quarter. The Lake Park, Ga., native joins teammate Kendall Noble in the prestigious club and becomes the fourth player under Michelle Clark-Heard to reach 1,000 career points. Following her 18-point outing on Saturday, Brown has tallied 1,001 points on The Hill.

She was joined in double figures by Noble (12), Micah Jones (11), Jaycee Coe (11) and Ivy Brown (10) on the afternoon. Ivy Brown pulled down a game-high and career-best 15 rebounds against the Lady Govs, including six on the offensive glass, and Jones, Noble and Tashia Brown each dished out a trio of assists.

Malaka Frank came up big on the defensive end in 18 minutes of action for the Lady Toppers (5-3), grabbing five steals to lead all players.

Austin Peay (5-4) was led by 16 points from Brianne Alexander. The Lady Govs also had double-digit efforts from Tearra Banks (15) and Falon Baker (11) on the day. WKU's victory was the Lady Toppers' eighth straight win over the Lady Govs.

Neither side could gain more than a three-point advantage during the opening quarter in a tight early battle. Back-to-back baskets from Ivy and Tashia Brown put the Lady Toppers ahead, 8-5, at the 4:18 mark, but Austin Peay quickly erased the WKU lead with a pair of quick jumpers of their own. Baker's three-pointer with just over a minute remaining gave Austin Peay a one-point lead, but Frank's free throw in the final seconds knotted the two sides at 13-13 after 10 minutes.

Both sides remained close early in the second quarter as they battled to a 17-17 draw. Over the final eight minutes, however, WKU broke open the contest with a 27-7 run spanning the remainder of the half. Seven different Lady Toppers scored during the run, including eight points from Coe and a jumper from the top of the key by Jones at the very end of the quarter. Following the big run, WKU carried a 44-24 lead into the locker room.

WKU maintained its 20-point cushion until the 2:53 mark of the third quarter, when Jacey Scott's three-pointer trimmed Austin Peay's deficit to 18, 63-45. After briefly rebuilding a 20-point lead off Frank's three-point play, Austin Peay's April Rivers knocked down a three-pointer with under a minute to play to cut the WKU lead to 67-50 heading into the final quarter.

The Lady Toppers protected their large lead through the fourth quarter, refusing to allow the Lady Govs any closer than 17 points. WKU's lead grew to as many as 24 points following an Ivy Brown jumper with 3:46 to play and the Lady Toppers held off Austin Peay down the stretch to claim the 85-65 victory.

WKU will now be off for its annual exam break and will return to action next Sunday, Dec. 11, at 1 p.m. (CT) at No. 7/7 Louisville inside the KFC Yum! Center. The Lady Toppers defeated the then-No. 16 Cardinals 71-69 in the most recent meeting on Nov. 21, 2015, inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Kayla Smith's go-ahead basket in the final minute. WKU leads the all-time series against Louisville by a 25-19 margin but has won just two of the eight most recent meetings dating back to 2003.

WKU Lady Toppers at Austin Peay Lady Gobs

Postgame Notes

December 3, 2016

Winfield Dunn Center; Clarksville, Tenn.

FINAL SCORE: WKU 85, Austin Peay 65

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU improves to 5-3 on the season, while Austin Peay drops to 5-4 on the 2016-17 campaign.
 - WKU extended its winning streak over the Colonels to eight consecutive games. The Lady Toppers have not lost to Austin Peay since a 72-69 loss on March 3, 1982.
- UP NEXT: WKU will be off for its annual exam break and will return to action next Sunday, Dec. 11, at 1 p.m. (CT) at No. 7/7 Louisville inside the KFC Yum! Center.
 - The Lady Toppers defeated the then-No. 16 Cardinals 71-69 in the most recent meeting on Nov. 21, 2015, inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Kayla Smith's go-ahead basket in the final minute.
 - WKU leads the all-time series against Louisville by a 25-19 margin but has won just two of the eight most recent meetings dating back to 2003.

Team Notes

- WKU started Tashia Brown, Kendall Noble, Ivy Brown, Sarah Price and Micah Jones against the Lady Gobs for the second straight contest. With the victory, the lineup moved to 2-0 when starting together.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: Tied at 17-17 with 8:21 to play in the second quarter, the Lady Toppers closed the half on a 27-7 run to build a 20-point halftime lead. Seven different Lady Toppers scored during the run, which was keyed by back-to-back three-pointers from Jaycee Coe.
- WKU carried a 44-24 lead into the halftime break, its second largest of the season after leading Alabama A&M at the half in the season opener by 28 points.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: After Austin Peay cut WKU's lead down to 17, 71-54, with 7:47 to play, WKU used a 9-2 run to rebuild its 20-point advantage. Four different Lady Toppers scored during the run and Kayla Smith knocked down a key three-pointer with 5:35 on the clock.
- WKU matched its highest scoring output in a single quarter this season with 31 points in the second quarter against the Lady Gobs. The Lady Toppers also tallied 31 points in the fourth quarter against Alabama A&M in the season opener on Nov. 11.
- WKU's 13-of-20 (65.0 percent) in the second quarter was its third-best in a single quarter in 2016-17.
- The Lady Toppers shot better than 50 percent for the second straight game.
- WKU's 13 steals were its second-most in a single game this season. The Lady Toppers had 20 takeaways against Alabama A&M in the season opener.

Individual Notes

- Junior Tashia Brown became the 37th member of WKU's 1,000-point club on a layup with 7:18 to play. Brown accomplished the feat in just her 76th career game and now has 1,001 points in her career, an average of 13.2 points per game.
 - Brown is the fourth player under Clark-Heard to score 1,000 points, joining Kendall Noble, Alexis Govan and Chastity Gooch.
- Junior Ivy Brown had her fourth double-double of the season with 10 points and a career-best 15 rebounds.
- Freshman Malaka Frank had five steals on Saturday afternoon, the most by any WKU individual in a single game this season.
- Redshirt sophomore Jaycee Coe found her shooting stroke, hitting a trio of three-pointers and finishing with 11 points, her second straight game with three shots from beyond the arc.
- Sophomore Kayla Smith finished with seven points, her most in a game since tallying 13 against UT Arlington on Nov. 16.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU will round out its six-game trip away from E.A. Diddle Arena with one of its toughest tests of the season, traveling north to face in-state rival No. 8/8 Louisville inside the KFC Yum! Center on Sunday afternoon at 1 p.m. (CT).

The Lady Toppers picked up an 85-65 victory at Austin Peay in their last time out on Saturday, Dec. 3. Tashia Brown poured in a game-high 18 points and was joined in double figures by Kendall Noble (12), Jaycee Coe (11), Micah Jones (11) and Ivy Brown (10). Ivy Brown also pulled down a career-best 15 boards against the Lady Govs.

Louisville enters Sunday's bout coming off a 69-67 overtime victory over No. 15/18 Kentucky in its last game on Dec. 4. Asia Durr leads the Cardinals with 18.4 points per game, Mariya Moore adds 12.3 and Myisha Hines-Allen chips in 11.6 per outing. Hines-Allen is the team's leading rebounder with 8.0 per game, and Briahanna Jackson has dished out a team-best 40 assists.

Last season, WKU took down then-No. 16 Louisville, 71-69, inside Diddle Arena on Nov. 21, 2015. Sunday's matchup will be WKU's first time squaring off against a top-10 team since facing No. 5 Baylor in the NCAA Tournament on March 22, 2014.

WKU will close out its non-conference schedule with three home games over the next 10 days, facing Lipscomb, College of Charleston and Ball State before opening C-USA play.

GAME #9 – WKU AT NO. 8/8 LOUISVILLE

WKU (5-3, 0-0 C-USA) at No. 8/8 Louisville (7-2, 0-0 Atlantic Coast)

QUICK SHOTS

- Junior Tashia Brown became the 37th member of the Lady Toppers' 1,000-point club with 18 points at Austin Peay last Saturday afternoon and now has 1,001 points for her career in just 76 games. The Lake Park, Ga., native joined teammate Kendall Noble (1,454 points) in the category and is the fourth player to enter under Coach Clark-Heard.

- Junior Ivy Brown has continued her strong growth from her sophomore season early in her third campaign on The Hill, tallying four double-doubles across WKU's first eight games this season. Brown is the lone Lady Topper to score in double digits in all eight games in 2016-17 and set a new career-best with 15 rebounds at Austin Peay, the most by a Lady Topper since Chastity Gooch had 16 against Troy on Jan. 4, 2014.

- WKU has tallied multiple 90-point games in a single season for the first time since 2014-15, when the Lady Toppers broke the 90-point barrier five times. WKU holds a perfect 43-0 record under Michelle Clark-Heard when scoring 80 or more points.
- In non-conference play under Clark-Heard, WKU owns a 51-18 record (.739) dating back to the 2012-13 season and has dropped no more than four non-conference games in a single season over that same span.
- Both Michelle Clark-Heard and Greg Collins have spent time with the Cardinals as assistant coaches. Collins was with the Cardinals from 2002-07 before joining Arkansas as an assistant coach, while Clark-Heard moved directly into the WKU head coaching position after five years as an assistant coach at Louisville (2007-12). Clark-Heard and Louisville head coach Jeff Walz both come from the coaching tree of former WKU great Paul Sanderford, and Walz spent one season as an assistant coach with WKU in 1996-97.
- In Sunday's tilt, WKU will be facing its third ranked team of the season after previously playing No. 23 Indiana and No. 18 DePaul. The Lady Toppers have not faced three or more ranked teams in a single season since battling against five such teams during the 2007-08 campaign. That season, the Lady Toppers had games against North Carolina (No. 3), George Washington (No. 17), Vanderbilt (No. 20), Notre Dame (No. 23) and UTEP (No. 23).
- With two steals at Eastern Kentucky, Kendall Noble became the program's all-time leader in steals with 287 for her career, surpassing the legendary Clemette Haskins in the category. Noble owns the top two single-season marks in program history for steals with 105 in 2014-15 and 90 in 2015-16 and has earned C-USA Defensive Player of the Year in each season.
- WKU has started a true freshman in at least five games in each of the last three seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16 and Sarah Price has appeared in the starting lineup five times thus far in 2016-17.
- As a team, WKU is shooting 136-of-170 (80.0 percent) from the free throw line this season, an improvement of 10 percent from the 2015-16 season. Currently, WKU ranks sixth among all Division I teams in free-throw percentage this season.
- Already eighth in school history with 152 three-pointers, Micah Jones needs just 13 more to pass Renee Westmoreland (1990-93) for seventh place on the charts.
- For the second consecutive year, WKU took down a top-25 team inside Diddle Arena with its win over Indiana. That victory marks the first time since the 1997-98 campaign that the Lady Toppers have defeated at least one ranked team in back-to-back seasons.
- With a 14-point comeback over Kent State, the Lady Toppers notched their largest come-from-behind victory since erasing a 16-point deficit to win against Georgetown on Dec. 21, 2013. Since the beginning of last season, WKU owns eight victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.
- Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, WKU has posted a 44-12 record (.786) in games played prior to January 1.

- In games immediately following a loss since 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 29-6 and have not suffered consecutive losses since Nov. 23 and 25, 2014 (at Mississippi State and Louisville).

WKU Lady Toppers at No. 8/8 Louisville Cardinals

Postgame Notes

December 11, 2016

KFC Yum! Center; Louisville, Ky.

FINAL SCORE: No. 8/8 Louisville 68, WKU 61

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU drops to 5-4 on the season, while Louisville improves to 8-2 on the 2016-17 campaign.
- Sunday's matchup was WKU's third against a ranked opponent this season after also facing No. 23 Indiana and No. 18 DePaul. Three games against ranked teams are WKU's most in a single season since squaring off against five ranked teams during the 2007-08 campaign.
- UP NEXT: WKU will return home to E.A. Diddle Arena for the first time since Nov. 19 as the Lady Toppers take on Lipscomb at 7 p.m. (CT) on Thursday evening.
 - In Nashville last season, WKU downed the Bisons, 64-59, on Dec. 21, 2015. Ivy Brown tallied 24 points and 10 rebounds to log a double-double, while Kendall Noble pitched in 23 points, seven rebounds and seven assists. Tashia Brown completed the trio in double figures with 11 points.
 - WKU leads the all-time series against Lipscomb, 2-0. Last year's meeting was the first between the two sides since a 102-54 Lady Topper victory on Jan. 5, 1985.

Team Notes

- WKU started Tashia Brown, Kendall Noble, Ivy Brown, Kyvin Goodin-Rogers and Micah Jones together for the first time this season. Goodin-Rogers moved into the starting lineup in her first game since becoming eligible.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: Trailing 23-21 with 8:03 to play in the second quarter, WKU pieced together an 11-4 stretch over the next six minutes to take a 32-27 lead. Ivy Brown tallied five points during the stretch and Kayla Smith punctuated the run with a three-pointer at the 2:07 mark.
- WKU carried a 38-32 lead into the halftime break over the Cardinals.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: Down 42-38 with 4:27 remaining in the third quarter, the Lady Toppers powered ahead with 13 unanswered points over the next four minutes. Jaycee Coe paced the run with a trio of three-pointers, and Kendall Noble capped the stretch with four points of her own to give WKU a 51-42 advantage.
- WKU's 29 points off turnovers were the team's second-highest in the category this season, trailing only 40 in the season opener against Alabama A&M.
- The Lady Toppers forced 19 Louisville turnovers, tied for their second-most in a single game this season.
- WKU's nine three-pointers were its second-most in a game this season. In the season opener, the Lady Toppers knocked down 13 triples against Alabama A&M.

Individual Notes

- Redshirt junior Kyvin Goodin-Rogers made her debut for the Lady Toppers and featured in the starting lineup, finishing the day with eight points, four rebounds, a block and a steal.
 - Goodin-Rogers is the second transfer from the University of Kentucky to take the floor for WKU this season, joining teammate Jaycee Coe.
- Ivy Brown approached a double-double despite missing much of the second half, tallying 12 points and nine rebounds on the afternoon in just 28 minutes of play.
 - Brown remains the only Lady Topper to reach double digits in scoring in all nine contests in 2016-17.
- Jaycee Coe came in off the bench red-hot from long range, hitting her first three shots from beyond the arc and tallying nine points in just seven minutes of playing time.
- Kendall Noble matched a season-best with seven assists and also had eight points, four rebounds and a pair of steals.
 - Noble, who already holds the school record for steals, is now just eight shy of 300 for her career.
- Freshman Whitney Creech played a season-high 15 minutes for the second straight game and had four points, three rebounds and two steals.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU finally returns home to E.A. Diddle Arena after six games away on Thursday evening at 7 p.m. (CT), squaring off against nearby Lipscomb to kick off a five-game homestand that spans through the beginning of January.

In its most recent game, WKU led for more than 25 minutes and had No. 8/8 Louisville on the ropes on the road this past Sunday afternoon, but the Lady Toppers fell just short in the upset bid, 68-61. Ivy Brown nearly tallied her fifth double-double of the season with 12 points and nine rebounds in the matchup.

Lipscomb is led by 11.5 points and 6.4 rebounds from Alex Banks, while point guard Loren Cagle does a bit of everything for the Bisons, averaging 8.5 points, 4.2 rebounds, 4.2 assists and 1.3 steals per game.

The Bisons hold a 1-9 record thus far in 2016-17 with their lone victory coming against Anderson, 66-59, on Nov. 20. In its last time out, Lipscomb dropped a tight 77-71 overtime decision against Tennessee State on Sunday.

In the all-time series between the two sides, WKU holds a 2-0 edge over the Bisons. The Lady Toppers won the first meeting, 102-54, during the 1984-85 season, but the series was not resumed until a 64-56 WKU victory at Lipscomb on Dec. 21, 2015, last season.

WKU will round out its non-conference schedule with two more home games over the next week, first taking on College of Charleston at 2 p.m. (CT) on Sunday afternoon before battling Ball State next Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. (CT).

QUICK SHOTS

- Redshirt junior Kyvin Goodin-Rogers made her debut for the Lady Toppers at Louisville, immediately moving into the starting lineup and tallying eight points, four rebounds, a block and a steal in 27 minutes of action.

- In non-conference play under Clark-Heard, WKU owns a 51-19 record (.729) dating back to the 2012-13 season and has dropped no more than four non-conference games in a single season over that same span.
- WKU will look to bounce back from its loss to Louisville and has a strong track record of doing so under Michelle Clark-Heard. In games immediately following a loss since 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 29-6 and have not suffered consecutive losses since Nov. 23 and 25, 2014 (at Mississippi State and Louisville).
- Junior Tashia Brown became the 37th member of the Lady Toppers' 1,000-point club with 18 points at Austin Peay on Dec. 3 and now has 1,012 points for her career in just 76 games. The Lake Park, Ga., native joined teammate Kendall Noble (1,462 points) in the category and is the fourth player to enter under Coach Clark-Heard.
- Junior Ivy Brown has continued her strong growth from her sophomore season early in her third campaign on The Hill, tallying four double-doubles across WKU's first nine games this season. Brown is the lone Lady Topper to score in double digits in all nine games in 2016-17 and set a new career-best with 15 rebounds at Austin Peay, the most by a Lady Topper since Chastity Gooch had 16 against Troy on Jan. 4, 2014.
- WKU has tallied multiple 90-point games in a single season for the first time since 2014-15, when the Lady Toppers broke the 90-point barrier five times. WKU holds a perfect 43-0 record under Michelle Clark-Heard when scoring 80 or more points.
- WKU faced its third ranked team of the season at No. 8 Louisville after previously playing No. 23 Indiana and No. 18 DePaul. The Lady Toppers have not faced three or more ranked teams in a single season since battling against five such teams during the 2007-08 campaign. That season, the Lady Toppers had games against North Carolina (No. 3), George Washington (No. 17), Vanderbilt (No. 20), Notre Dame (No. 23) and UTEP (No. 23).
- With two steals at Eastern Kentucky, Kendall Noble became the program's all-time leader in steals and now has 292 for her career, surpassing the legendary Clemette Haskins in the category. Noble owns the top two single-season marks in program history for steals with 105 in 2014-15 and 90 in 2015-16 and has earned C-USA Defensive Player of the Year in each season.
- WKU has started a true freshman in at least five games in each of the last three seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16 and Sarah Price has appeared in the starting lineup five times thus far in 2016-17.
- As a team, WKU is shooting 142-of-180 (78.9 percent) from the free throw line this season, an improvement of nine percent from the 2015-16 season. Currently, WKU ranks 14th among all Division I teams in free-throw percentage this season.
- Already eighth in school history with 153 three-pointers, Micah Jones needs just 12 more to pass Renee Westmoreland (1990-93) for seventh place on the charts.

WKU SETS NCAA SCORING DEFENSE RECORD IN 87-35 WIN OVER LIPSCOMB

Postgame Box Score Attached, Notes and Quotes to Follow

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU held Lipscomb to just two first-half points, setting a new NCAA record in the process, and finished with six players in double figures in Thursday's 87-35 victory over the Bisons inside E.A. Diddle Arena to open its five-game homestand.

The Lady Toppers led 56-2 at the halftime break, surpassing the previous NCAA record of three points allowed in a half held by Florida State (against Savannah State on Nov. 23, 2003), Georgia Tech (against Tennessee State on Dec. 30, 2010) and Alabama (against Lipscomb on Nov. 17, 2016). WKU held Lipscomb to 3.3 percent shooting (1-of-30) in the opening half.

Kendall Noble led all scorers with 15 points and was joined by five others in double figures: Dee Givens (13), Ivy Brown (12), Whitney Creech (12), Tashia Brown (12), Kayla Smith (11). Creech approached triple-double territory in just her ninth career game with the Lady Toppers, pulling down nine rebounds and dishing out seven assists.

As a team, WKU was 35-of-68 (51.5 percent) from the floor for the game and held Lipscomb to just 12-of-57 (21.1 percent) shooting on the evening. Despite not hitting a three-pointer in the second half, WKU finished 7-of-22 (31.8 percent) from long range.

Alex Banks led Lipscomb with nine points on the evening, Meredith Lovelady had a team-best five rebounds and Loren Cagle had three assists for the Bisons.

WKU came out of the gates hot, scoring the first 27 points of the night to build a big lead during the first quarter. Six different Lady Toppers scored during the stretch, and Sidnee Bopp capped the early run with a three-pointer to put the Lady Toppers up, 27-0, with 1:20 remaining in the first frame.

Lipscomb's Banks ended the WKU run with a layup at the 1:02 mark in the first quarter, but the Lady Toppers responded with another big run, shutting the Bisons out for the remainder of the half while tallying 29 unanswered points. At the halftime break, WKU held a 56-2 lead while outshooting the Bisons by nearly 65 percent from the floor.

WKU's lead grew to as many as 63 points midway through the third quarter following a pair of free throws from Tashia Brown at the 6:09 mark. Lipscomb whittled the deficit to as few as 55, 70-15, after eight unanswered points and trailed 75-15 heading into the final quarter.

In the final quarter, the Bisons outscored the Lady Toppers, 20-12, and managed to cut the WKU lead to 49 points, 78-29, following Lovelady's three-pointer with 5:49 to play. WKU rebuilt a 56-point advantage from that point and maintained its large edge in the 87-35 final tally.

WKU will continue its five-game homestand on Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. as the Lady Toppers welcome College of Charleston inside Diddle Arena. The two sides have met just once in program history, a 78-44 WKU victory in Charleston, S.C., on Dec. 18, 2015, last season. In that matchup, Noble registered 19 points, nine assists and eight rebounds and the Lady Toppers outscored the Cougars 48-26 in the second half to pull away for the win.

WKU Lady Toppers vs. Lipscomb Bisons

Postgame Notes

December 15, 2016

E.A. Diddle Arena; Bowling Green, Ky.

FINAL SCORE: WKU 87, Lipscomb 35

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU improves to 6-4 on the season, while Lipscomb drops to 1-10 on the 2016-17 campaign.
- Thursday's matchup was one for the record books. WKU held Lipscomb to two points in the first half which is now the NCAA record for fewest points scored in any single half in women's college basketball history.
- WKU leads the all-time series against Lipscomb, 3-0. Last year's meeting was the first between the two sides since a 102-54 Lady Topper victory on Jan. 5, 1985.
- UP NEXT: WKU will be home again at E.A. Diddle Arena to continue their five-game slate in Bowling Green as the Lady Toppers will take on College of Charleston at 2 p.m. (CT) on Sunday.

Team Notes

- WKU started Tashia Brown, Kendall Noble, Ivy Brown, Kyvin Goodin-Rogers and Micah Jones together for the second time this season.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: Led by Kendall Noble's nine points and three assists, WKU started the game off hot going on a 27-0 run to open the first quarter. Ivy Brown tallied four blocks to keep the Bisons to only two points in the first quarter.
- WKU carried a 56-2 lead into the halftime break over the Bisons.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: WKU picked up where they left off and started the game on an 8-0 run and never looked back.
- WKU only gave up two first-quarter points which were the fewest allowed any quarter this season.
- The Lady Toppers held the Bisons to shooting only 3.3 percent in the first half by going 1-of-30 from the field.
- WKU hit a season-high seven 3s in the opening half.
- The Lady Toppers improve to 5-0 when they outrebound their opponent – WKU (53), Lipscomb (30).
- WKU shot over 50 percent from the field for the third time this season (EKU on Nov. 30, Austin Peay on Dec. 3).
- The Lady Toppers had six players score in double digits – the first time this year.
- The Lady Toppers tied a season-high mark of 48 points in the paint (EKU on Nov. 30).
- Tonight marked WKU's second victory this season winning by 50-plus – Alabama A&M on Nov. 11 by 64 points.

Individual Notes

- Freshman Whitney Creech had her best game to date for the Lady Toppers and finished the night with 12 points, and a team-high nine rebounds and seven assists – all were career-highs.
- Ivy Brown posted 12 points and four rebounds. Brown has scored 10 points in every game this season and is the only Lady Topper to do so.
- Dee Givens came in off the bench red-hot from long range, hitting her first three shots from beyond the arc and tallying 13 points.
- Kendall Noble tallied a team-high 15 points, four rebounds and assists, plus one steal.
 - Noble, who already holds the school record for steals, is now just seven shy of 300 for her career.
- Ima Akpan posted a career-high eight rebounds in only just 14 minutes of action.
- Kayla Smith had her best performance since UT Arlington on Nov. 16 reaching double digits for the second time this year by dropping 11 points and six rebounds.
- Tashia Brown had her ninth double digit game scoring with posting 12 points and pulling down four rebounds.

WKU Women's Basketball
Press Conference Quotes
December 15, 2016

Coach Michelle Clark-Heard

On what to take away from this game...

"I think the most important thing to get out of this game is to see the young kids get some minutes and I was really proud of our starting five and the way we started the game out. We shot the ball well, the defense did some different defensive transition things that we like to do. Ivy (Brown) set the tone with a few blocks in the first quarter. So I was just really proud of how we started out and the intensity. So, you get a lot from a game like that with bench players getting quality minutes to help them keep building."

On if she's ever been in a game leading 56-2 at halftime...

"I never have. But I'm really proud of this group to be able to come back out and to continue to play. And then being able to get our subs in and our younger players so they can continue to get some confidence."

G Kendall Noble

On how the team performed tonight...

"I think we came out tonight with a lot of energy and we were playing hard – and I guess that's what happens when you play hard."

On if the team was talking about the big lead...

"I didn't realize the score until I came out and then I looked up and was like 'wow.' But we came out at halftime with the coaches saying don't look at the scoreboard, this about us and getting better."

G Whitney Creech

On how the team didn't get complacent...

"I think that everyone came out and played really hard. We were just really comfortable moving the ball and knocking down shots."

On having the best game of your young college career...

"It felt pretty good. I'm just getting more comfortable and confident each and every game – and it showed tonight."

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Coming off a record-setting performance in Thursday's 87-35 win over Lipscomb, WKU is set to welcome College of Charleston to E.A. Diddle Arena at 2 p.m. Sunday in the return game of a home-and-home series began by the Lady Toppers' trip to Charleston last season.

WKU held Lipscomb to just two first-half points and 1-of-30 (3.3 percent) shooting in the opening half to set a new NCAA record in the category and had six players in double figures, led by Kendall Noble's 15 points, for the first time since accomplishing the feat on Jan. 21, 2009, against Louisiana-Lafayette.

Breanna Bolden averages 14.6 points per game to lead the Cougars this season and is joined in double figures by Brianna Boyd (14.0) and Tanisha Brown (13.4). Boyd is the team's leading rebounder at 10 per game and Shidasia Brown has dished out a team-best 26 assists.

College of Charleston holds a 2-6 record thus far in 2016-17 with wins over Winthrop and Appalachian State with both coming on the road. In their last time out, the Cougars fell, 86-58, at Louisville on Friday evening. WKU defeated the Cougars, 78-44, in the first-ever meeting between the two sides on Dec. 18, 2015, last season.

WKU will close its non-conference schedule before taking a break for the holidays against Ball State on Wednesday evening at 5:30 p.m. The Lady Toppers will be looking to bounce back from last year's 74-60 setback against the Cardinals in the mid-week matchup.

WKU Game Notes

QUICK SHOTS

- WKU broke the NCAA women's basketball record for fewest points allowed in a half by holding Lipscomb to just two first-half points on Dec. 15. The mark was also the fewest in men's basketball since the introduction of the shot clock. In addition, WKU had six players reach double figures for the first time since Jan. 21, 2009, in the victory, a stretch of nearly eight years.

- Ivy Brown sits atop C-USA and ranks 25th in the nation among all players by making 59 percent (49-of-83) of her attempts from the field. That represents a huge leap from both her freshman (29.1 percent) and sophomore (48.3 percent) campaigns on The Hill. Brown also has the most total rebounds among C-USA players through 10 games, pulling down 86 boards (40 offensive, 46 defensive), and is WKU's top three-point shooter at 38.7 percent (12-of-31).

- Redshirt junior Kyvin Goodin-Rogers made her debut for the Lady Toppers at Louisville, immediately moving into the starting lineup and tallying eight points, four rebounds, a block and a steal in 27 minutes of action.

- In non-conference play under Clark-Heard, WKU owns a 52-19 record (.732) dating back to the 2012-13 season and has dropped no more than four non-conference games in a single season over that same span.

- WKU bounced back from its loss to Louisville with the win over Lipscomb on Thursday and has a strong track record of doing so under Michelle Clark-Heard. In games immediately following a loss since 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 30-6 and have not suffered consecutive losses since Nov. 23 and 25, 2014 (at Mississippi State and Louisville).

- Junior Tashia Brown became the 37th member of the Lady Toppers' 1,000-point club with 18 points at Austin Peay on Dec. 3 and now has 1,024 points for her career in just 76 games. The Lake Park, Ga., native joined teammate Kendall Noble (1,477 points) in the category and is the fourth player to enter under Coach Clark-Heard.

- WKU has tallied multiple 90-point games in a single season for the first time since 2014-15, when the Lady Toppers broke the 90-point barrier five times. WKU holds a perfect 44-0 record under Michelle Clark-Heard when scoring 80 or more points.

- WKU faced its third ranked team of the season at No. 8 Louisville after previously playing No. 23 Indiana and No. 18 DePaul. The Lady Toppers have not faced three or more ranked teams in a single season since battling against five such teams during the 2007-08 campaign. That season, the Lady Toppers had games against North Carolina (No. 3), George Washington (No. 17), Vanderbilt (No. 20), Notre Dame (No. 23) and UTEP (No. 23).

- With two steals at Eastern Kentucky, Kendall Noble became the program's all-time leader in steals and now has 293 for her career, surpassing the legendary Clemette Haskins in the category. Noble owns the top two single-season marks in program history for steals with 105 in 2014-15 and 90 in 2015-16 and has earned C-USA Defensive Player of the Year in each season.

- WKU has started a true freshman in at least five games in each of the last three seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16 and Sarah Price has appeared in the starting lineup five times thus far in 2016-17.

- As a team, WKU is shooting 152-of-194 (78.4 percent) from the free throw line this season, an improvement of nine percent from the 2015-16 season. Currently, WKU ranks 13th among all Division I teams in free-throw percentage this season.

- Already eighth in school history with 153 three-pointers, Micah Jones needs just 12 more to pass Renee Westmoreland (1990-93) for seventh place on the charts.

BROWN'S CAREER DAY LEADS WKU PAST CHARLESTON, 89-76

Postgame Box Score Attached, Notes and Quotes to Follow

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Junior Ivy Brown enjoyed one of the finest performances of her career with 21 points and a career-high 17 rebounds as WKU weathered a strong second-half comeback attempt from College of Charleston on Sunday afternoon inside E.A. Diddle Arena to claim an 89-76 victory in its penultimate non-conference game.

The Lady Toppers (7-4) had five players in double figures led by Ivy Brown's 21 points. The junior was joined in the category by Tashia Brown (18), Whitney Creech (17), Kendall Noble (16) and Micah Jones (11) on the afternoon. Brown's 17 boards were the most among all players, while Tashia Brown dished out a game-high five assists. Noble, WKU's all-time career leader in steals, finished with four on the afternoon to push her career total to 297.

Breanna Bolden led all scorers with 23 points for College of Charleston (2-7) and was joined in double figures by Tanisha Brown (15) and Dajah Logan (14). The Cougars shot 50.8 percent (32-63) from the floor as a team, including a 12-of-15 (80 percent) mark in the third quarter, but could not overcome a strong closing 10 minutes by the Lady Toppers.

Both sides were locked in a tight battle early with neither team able to gain more than four points of separation over the opening five minutes. College of Charleston cut the Lady Toppers' lead to 8-6 with 5:23 to play, but four straight points in response built a 12-6 advantage for WKU.

Despite College of Charleston twice taking the lead over the final five minutes of the first half, WKU battled back each time and carried a 19-15 lead after the opening 10 minutes.

Using the strength of a 10-0 run that spanned the first and second quarters, the Lady Toppers surged ahead and built their lead to nine points, 24-15, with 8:40 to play in the second frame. Three different WKU players scored during the run, including five points from Ivy Brown and four from Creech to pace the stretch.

Leading 33-23 at the 4:03 mark, WKU scored nine of the next 10 points to put together an 18-point advantage, 42-24, with 1:33 left before the halftime break. The Cougars managed to trim their deficit to just 11, however, after seven unanswered points to close the second quarter. WKU carried a 42-31 lead into the locker room at the break.

After allowing College of Charleston within seven points early in the third quarter, WKU pulled back in front by double digits after a quick 7-0 burst with four points from Tashia Brown and a three-pointer from Jones. Again, however, the Cougars managed to whittle the lead back down to single digits with six unanswered points of their own, capped by Logan's three-pointer at the 5:18 mark to make it 50-42.

Tashia Brown's layup 30 seconds later briefly rebuilt a double-digit advantage, but College of Charleston fought back with nine more unanswered points to cut WKU's lead to just one, 52-51, and eventually grabbed a 58-57 lead with just over 30 seconds remaining in the third quarter following Courtney Gardner's layup.

Jones struck from three-point range just before the buzzer to end the quarter, sending the Lady Toppers into the final 10 minutes with a 60-58 advantage.

College of Charleston's Bolden gave the Cougars a 61-60 edge early in the final quarter, but that would mark the last time the Cougars would lead in the contest. WKU responded with 10 straight points and the Cougars were unable to close any tighter than six points down the stretch as the Lady Toppers claimed the 89-76 victory.

WKU will return to action on Wednesday evening at 5:30 p.m. for its final non-conference game of the season, taking on Ball State inside Diddle Arena in the first game of a doubleheader alongside men's basketball. The Lady Toppers will be seeking to avenge a 74-60 setback against the Cardinals on the road last season.

WKU Lady Toppers vs. College of Charleston Cougars

Postgame Notes

December 18, 2016

E.A. Diddle Arena; Bowling Green, Ky.

FINAL SCORE: WKU 89, College of Charleston 76

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU improves to 7-4 on the season, while College of Charleston drops to 2-7 on the 2016-17 campaign.
- The Lady Toppers are 2-0 all-time against College of Charleston after beating them on the road last year as well.
- WKU improves to 45-0 under head coach Michelle Clark-Heard when scoring at least 80 points.
- UP NEXT: WKU stays home to continue its five-game slate in Bowling Green against Ball State at 5:30 p.m. (CT) Wednesday at E.A. Diddle Arena. The game will be televised nationally on Fox College Sports and regionally on WKU PBS via the Hilltopper Sports Satellite Network.

Team Notes

- WKU started Tashia Brown, Kendall Noble, Ivy Brown, Kyvin Goodin-Rogers and Micah Jones together for the third time this season.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: After College of Charleston took a 15-14 lead with 2:06 left in the first quarter, WKU used a 14-2 run – including eight points from Whitney Creech – to pull in front 28-17 with seven-plus minutes left in the second quarter. The burst included 10 straight points by the Lady Toppers at one point.
 - WKU later scored seven straight points, capped with two 3s by Ivy Brown, to take a 40-23 lead with 2:18 remaining in the frame. The Lady Toppers ultimately led by as much as 18 in the half.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: College of Charleston opened a 61-60 lead with a 3-pointer to start the fourth quarter, but the Lady Toppers scored the next 10 points, pulling back in front 70-61 with 6:48 to play.
 - The Cougars got back in the game with a 19-5 run in the third quarter, turning a 14-point deficit into a tied ballgame with 2:23 to play in the quarter.
- WKU shot 48.4 percent from the field, made nine 3-pointers, netted 20 of 26 free throws and had five players finish in double figures scoring. The Lady Toppers shot 59 percent from the floor in the second half.
- WKU outrebounded the Cougars 39-27, including 16 offensive boards, and outscored them 21-4 in second-chance points. The Lady Toppers improved to 6-0 when outrebounding their opponent.
- College of Charleston made 12 of 15 shots in the third quarter and shot 50.8 percent for the game with 20 assists.

Individual Notes

- Junior Ivy Brown led the Lady Toppers with 21 points and a career-high 17 rebounds, including eight offensive boards. Brown reached a double-double in the first half, hitting the benchmark for the fifth time this season and the 15th time in her career. She has scored in double figures in every game this season.
 - Brown's 17 rebounds are tied for the most in a single game among all C-USA players this season, matching UAB's Keonna Farmer against Samford on Dec. 8.
- Freshman Whitney Creech scored a career-high 17 points with four rebounds in 21 minutes off the bench.
- Junior Tashia Brown added 18 points, five assists and five rebounds in 36 minutes, reaching double figures for the 10th time this season.
- Senior Kendall Noble, making her 100th career start, tallied 16 points, five rebounds, four assists and four steals.
- Senior Micah Jones scored 11 points with three made 3-pointers and dished out four assists.

WKU Lady Toppers
College of Charleston Postgame Quotes
Dec. 18, 2016

Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard

Opening Statement....

"This was a game where I felt like some adversity hit. It was good to see how our players were going to respond. Every game situation is going to be different. That's what I talked to them about. We didn't play very smart at times. Sometimes we did. We were up 18, and they come back and take the lead, but that's basketball. But I was really glad that as a group we settled down, listened to the coaching staff in the huddle, and they brought the intensity in the fourth period."

On the play of junior forward Ivy Brown....

"She's the glue and a big part of what we do. Without her, you take her numbers away and what she does for this team, and we don't get wins. What I love about her, day in and day out, she works and she competes and she does whatever we ask her to do as a staff. She's a joy to coach. She might not be the flashiest or the fastest, but she always figures out a way to get it done."

On freshman guard Whitney Creech....

"She's getting more comfortable, and you can see it. You can see it when she has the ball in her hands. You can see it when she's pushing it. Those are the things we saw a lot in high school. She's a natural scorer. That's why she was able to score as many points as she did in high school. And now, the crazy thing about it is she's starting to understand and know the speed of the game at this level."

Junior Forward Ivy Brown

On WKU's fourth-quarter run to seal the win....

"Coach Heard just talked about playing as a fist. We kind of went away from our gameplan a little at the beginning of the second half, so we regrouped and went back to that and started playing together and playing hard on the defensive end, and that of course led into the offensive end."

On grabbing a career-high 17 rebounds....

"My main focus every game is to crash the boards. I don't really care about scoring. It's mostly about getting those boards, so I try to go after every one I can."

Freshman Guard Whitney Creech

On scoring a career-high 17 points and settling into the college level....

"I'm feeling really confident in my game right now. I'm getting more comfortable and getting used to the flow of the game."

On the fourth-quarter run....

“Coach Heard told us to move the ball, and I thought we did a good job of getting open and knocking down shots. Our defense really amped it up out there and got steals and turned it over and got easy layups.”

CREECH NAMED C-USA FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Whitney Creech Headshot Attached

IRVING, Texas – Freshman guard Whitney Creech has been named the C-USA Freshman of the Week as announced by the conference office on Monday morning, WKU's first Freshman of the Week honor since the 2014-15 campaign.

Creech excelled this week in just her ninth and 10th games on The Hill, helping to push the Lady Toppers to victories over Lipscomb (87-35) and College of Charleston (89-76). Across the two games, Creech averaged 14.5 points, 6.5 rebounds and four assists while knocking down 60 percent (12-of-20) of her shots from the field.

The Jenkins, Ky., native approached triple-double territory against the Bisons on Thursday evening, playing a career-best 32 minutes while logging 12 points, nine rebounds and seven assists in the win. Creech also came away with a steal in the contest and contributed to a strong defensive effort by the Lady Toppers; WKU held Lipscomb to just two first-half points, setting the all-time record in NCAA women's basketball and also allowing the fewest in men's basketball since the introduction of the shot clock.

On Sunday against College of Charleston, Creech's confidence continued to grow as she connected on seven of 10 shots, including a pair of critical baskets early in the fourth quarter to stymie the Cougars' comeback attempt. The freshman finished the afternoon with a career-best 17 points and four rebounds in just 21 minutes of action.

Creech is WKU's second C-USA honoree this season after teammate Tashia Brown earned Player of the Week honors on Nov. 21. She is also WKU's first C-USA Freshman of the Week recipient since Tashia Brown claimed the same honor on March 2, 2015. Creech was the leading high school scorer in the nation in each of the last two seasons, averaging 42 points per game as a junior in 2014-15 before tallying 50.3 per outing as a senior last year.

WKU will return to action on Wednesday evening at 5:30 p.m. inside E.A. Diddle Arena for its final non-conference matchup of the season as the Lady Toppers host Ball State. The Cardinals defeated WKU, 74-60, in the most recent meeting between the two sides last season.

LADY TOPPERS HOST BALL STATE IN NON-CONFERENCE FINALE WEDNESDAY

Live Stats: wkusports.cstv.com/gametracker/launch/?event=1515082&school=wkyl&sport=wbaskbl&

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - WKU is set to close out its 2016-17 non-conference slate with a visit from Ball State on Wednesday evening at 5:30 p.m. in the first game of a doubleheader that will feature the Hilltoppers against Ohio following the women's matchup.

In their last time out on Sunday, WKU weathered a big second-half comeback from College of Charleston and responded with 29 fourth-quarter points to earn an 89-76 win over the Cougars inside Diddle Arena. Ivy Brown led the way with a 21-point, 17-rebound effort, setting a new career-high for boards.

Ball State is led by 17.6 points per game from Renee Bennett and also gets double digits from Moriah Monaco (14.1) and Destiny Washington (10.3). Bennett is also the team's leading rebounder with 7.5 boards per game, and Carmen Grande deals out 8.3 assists per outing.

The Cardinals fell, 78-74, in their last matchup on Sunday against Lipscomb. The Bisons overcame 28 points from Bennett and connected on nine three-pointers to defeat Ball State on its home floor.

Following Wednesday's bout, WKU will be off for just over a week before resuming play with the C-USA portion of its schedule. The Lady Toppers are set to host Florida Atlantic and FIU next Friday and Sunday in the opening weekend of conference play.

QUICK SHOTS

- Redshirt senior Kendall Noble made her 100th start with the Lady Toppers against College of Charleston. Noble holds the school record with 297 steals and ranks in the top 15 in points (12th, 1,494), rebounds (11th, 732), assists (fourth, 479) and blocked shots (11th, 79).

- On Monday, freshman Whitney Creech became WKU's first C-USA Freshman of the Week selection since Tashia Brown on March 2, 2015. Creech averaged 14.5 points, 6.5 rebounds and four assists in WKU's two victories last week and is shooting an incredible 56.8 percent (25-of-44) from the floor this season.

- Ivy Brown sits atop C-USA and ranks 20th in the nation among all players by making 59.6 percent (56-of-94) of her attempts from the field. That represents a huge leap from both her freshman (29.1 percent) and sophomore (48.3 percent) campaigns on The Hill. Brown also has the most total rebounds among C-USA players through 11 games, pulling down 103 boards (48 offensive, 55 defensive), and is WKU's top three-point shooter at 43.2 percent (16-of-37).

- WKU broke the NCAA women's basketball record for fewest points allowed in a half by holding Lipscomb to just two first-half points on Dec. 15. The mark was also the fewest in men's basketball since the introduction of the shot clock. In addition, WKU had six players reach double figures for the first time since Jan. 21, 2009, in the victory, a stretch of nearly eight years.

- As a team, WKU is shooting 172-of-220 (78.2 percent) from the free throw line this season, an improvement of nine percent from the 2015-16 season. Currently, WKU ranks 15th among all Division I teams in free-throw percentage this season.

- In non-conference play under Clark-Heard, WKU owns a 53-19 record (.736) dating back to the 2012-13 season and has dropped no more than four non-conference games in a single season over that same span.

- Junior Tashia Brown became the 37th member of the Lady Toppers' 1,000-point club with 18 points at Austin Peay on Dec. 3 and now has 1,042 points for her career in just 79 games. The Lake Park, Ga., native joined teammate Kendall Noble (1,494 points) in the category and is the fourth player to enter under Coach Clark-Heard.

- WKU has tallied multiple 90-point games in a single season for the first time since 2014-15, when the Lady Toppers broke the 90-point barrier five times. WKU holds a perfect 45-0 record under Michelle Clark-Heard when scoring 80 or more points.

- WKU has started a true freshman in at least five games in each of the last three seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16 and Sarah Price has appeared in the starting lineup five times thus far in 2016-17.

- Already eighth in school history with 156 three-pointers, Micah Jones needs just nine more to pass Renee Westmoreland (1990-93) for seventh place on the charts.

WKU DOWNS BALL STATE, 68-61, IN NON-CONFERENCE FINALE

Postgame Box Score Attached, Notes and Quotes to Follow

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU led by as many as 17 points early in the third quarter before holding off a strong rally down the stretch to claim a 68-61 win over Ball State in its non-conference finale inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Wednesday evening.

Despite being outscored by 10 points in the third quarter, the Lady Toppers (8-4) never relinquished the lead in part due to strong three-point shooting (9-of-23, 39.1 percent) on the evening. Ball State (6-5) dropped its second straight game and fell in a true road game for the first time this season.

Tashia Brown led all scorers with 22 points and Kendall Noble approached a triple-double with 11 points, seven rebounds and nine assists. Ivy Brown did not reach double digits in scoring for the first time this season, but still finished the matchup with nine points and six rebounds.

As a team, WKU knocked down 24 of its 52 shots (46.2 percent) on the evening, including an 8-of-12 (66.7 percent) mark in a 22-point second quarter.

Ball State was led by 18 points from Jill Morrison and she was joined in double figures by Moriah Monaco (12) and Renee Bennett (11). Bennett fell just shy of a double-double by corralling eight rebounds, while Carmen Grande dished out a team-best four assists.

Neither side could gain more than a two-point edge over much of the first quarter as the Lady Toppers and Cardinals matched one another shot for shot. Noble scored four of the first 10 points for WKU, while Bennett matched her total over the first nine minutes.

WKU finally pushed its lead to five points following Ivy Brown's three-pointer with 1:01 remaining in the opening quarter and the Lady Toppers carried a 15-12 edge after the opening 10 minutes.

Ball State closed the gap to just one, 15-14, early in the second quarter, but WKU answered with a 16-4 run to build its largest lead of the night to that point. Four different Lady Toppers hit three-pointers during the stretch, including Micah Jones' shot from deep that gave WKU a 31-18 lead with 3:02 to play before the break.

The Cardinals snapped WKU's run with a Morrison three-pointer but could not get any closer than 10 points before halftime as WKU took a 37-21 lead into the locker room.

WKU pushed its lead to 17 points, 40-23, after Noble's three-pointer just over a minute into the third quarter, but the Cardinals fired back with a 12-2 run over the next three minutes to cut the Lady Topper advantage down to just seven points. Four points from Bennett and three-pointers from Monaco and Morrison keyed the run for Ball State.

After Jones' shot from deep rebuilt a double-digit Lady Topper lead, 50-40, with 2:12 remaining in the quarter, Ball State netted seven of the final 10 points of the frame to cut the deficit to 53-47 heading into the final 10 minutes.

Over the final 10 minutes, the Cardinals managed to climb within three points on four different occasions, but each time WKU was able to respond. Morrison's three-pointer with 2:06 to play was the final time that Ball State made it a one-possession affair; the Lady Toppers answered with the final four points of the contest from the charity stripe to seal the 68-61 victory.

WKU will return to action after a break for the holidays next Friday, Dec. 30, at 7 p.m. as the Lady Toppers open C-USA play by hosting Florida Atlantic. WKU claimed an 81-62 victory over the Owls on the road last season and leads the all-time series between the two sides by a 15-2 margin.

- WKU improves to 8-4 on the season, while Ball State drops to 6-5 on the 2016-17 campaign.
- The Lady Toppers are now 3-3 all-time against Ball State after dropping their last game versus the Cardinals, 74-60, on Nov. 20, 2015.
- UP NEXT: WKU stays home to continue its five-game slate in Bowling Green against Florida Atlantic at 7 p.m. (CT) Friday at E.A. Diddle Arena. The Lady Toppers lead the all-time series against the Owls 15-2 and earned an 81-62 victory in the most recent meeting on Jan. 9, 2016.

Team Notes

- WKU started Tashia Brown, Kendall Noble, Ivy Brown, Kyvin Goodin-Rogers and Micah Jones together for the fourth time this season.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: After Ball State cut it to a three-point game, 21-18, at the 5:48 mark in the second quarter, WKU when on a 16-3 run to close the first half. The burst was led by junior Tashia Brown's 7 points.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: With the Cardinals cutting the deficit to just three points at 61-58, WKU went on a 7-3 run to preserve the victory after some clutch free throws by Kendall Noble and Ivy Brown.
- WKU shot 46 percent from the field, made nine 3-pointers and netted 11 of 16 free throws. The Lady Toppers shot 52 percent from the floor in the first half to hold a 16-point lead (37-21).
- Ball State tallied 26 points in the third quarter – the second most of an opponent this season.
- Seven Lady Toppers hit a three-pointer – a season high.
- Wednesday's victory was Michelle Clark-Heard's 200th combined win as a player (89) and coach (111) at WKU.

Individual Notes

- Junior Ivy Brown scored nine points and four rebounds. She had scored in double figures in every game this season until today.
- Freshman Whitney Creech scored five points with four rebounds off the bench.
 - Creech hit her first three-pointer since the season-opener versus Alabama A&M on Nov. 11.
 - Creech also tallied a steal – her sixth-straight game with a steal.
- Junior Tashia Brown led the Lady Toppers with 22 points and five rebounds in 36 minutes, reaching double figures for the 10th time this season.
- Senior Kendall Noble filled up the stat sheet posting 11 points, seven rebounds and nine assists.
 - Noble has now tallied at least four assists in three straight games. The senior also posted a season-high nine assists, just four short of her career high of 12 versus UT Martin on March 21, 2016.
- Senior Micah Jones scored six points with two made three-pointers and dished out four assists.
 - Jones' two three-pointers mark the first time she had back-to-back multi-three games. The senior knocked down three versus College of Charleston on Sunday.
- Senior Ima Akpan scored her second highest mark of the season tallying five points. Akpan's season-high was six points against Indiana on Nov. 19.
 - Akpan also swiped a career-high four steals.

Postgame Quotes
WKU 68, Ball State 61
E.A. Diddle Arena
December 21, 2016

Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard

On the struggle of playing the last game before the holiday break...

"This game is always the toughest one on the schedule because it's right before break. I'm just really proud of our kids' focus and how we came out and started the game. We know this was a good team, we always have good games and they have a lot of talent. In the third quarter we got good looks and the ball just didn't fall for us. Like the last game, we really came out and turned it on in the fourth quarter and did the things we needed to in order to get the win."

On adjusting to the pressure from Ball State in the paint...

"Since a lot of our players are around the same height, we try to spread them out. I think that really helped us on the offensive end where we could pull their big players out from the basket. Playing against those bigs, what we always try to do is make sure that we can change up and switch our defenses. That's always going to be our tactic because we are undersized."

Redshirt Senior Guard Kendall Noble

On ending non-conference play with a victory...

"I think we ended non-conference pretty strongly. We're finally coming around and getting into a rotation and getting used to playing with everybody. I think we're starting to click."

On Ball State coming back from a 17-point deficit...

"We knew that they were a three-point shooting team, so a lead didn't really mean anything to them. We expected for them to make a comeback and they did, but I think we hung tough and pulled that one out."

Junior Forward Tashia Brown

On scoring 15 points in the second half...

"I was just playing my game. That's just what I do. I don't try to take over the game, but they gave me shots and I just took them."

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - WKU will open its 2016-17 C-USA slate on Friday evening at 7 p.m. as the Lady Toppers welcome Florida Atlantic to E.A. Diddle Arena. The game will also be WKU's final contest of the 2016 calendar year; the Lady Toppers have put together a 26-9 record (.743) since January 1 of this year.

The Lady Toppers are coming off a 68-61 victory over Ball State last Wednesday that saw WKU hold off a late rally from the Cardinals for the win. Florida Atlantic holds a 4-7 record and has dropped five of its last six outings, including a 76-59 loss to Maryland-Eastern Shore in its last time out on Dec. 17.

Florida Atlantic is led by 10.5 points per game from Sasha Cedeno, the lone Owl in double figures. Raven Doyle has pulled down a team-best 7.5 rebounds per game, and Julia Jenike has dished out 27 assists to lead the Owls. Florida Atlantic owns a +4.0 rebounding margin, but also averages 5.7 more turnovers per game than its opponents.

WKU owns a 15-2 all-time record against the Owls and has won six in a row in the series dating back to Feb. 15, 2012, including an 81-62 win in Boca Raton, Fla., last year.

Following Friday's game, WKU will close out its five-game homestand with a visit from FIU on Sunday at 2 p.m. to conclude the opening weekend of C-USA play.

QUICK SHOTS

- WKU owns a 24-8 record (.750) in conference openers all-time and has a 3-1 mark in such games under Michelle Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have won both conference openers since joining C-USA prior to the 2014-15 season.

- Redshirt senior Kendall Noble eclipsed the 1,500-point mark with 11 points against Ball State on Dec. 21, becoming one of only 12 players in WKU history to reach that mark. Noble, with 1,504 points for her career, needs 102 to catch former teammate and All-American Alexis Govan for 11th place in the record book.

- Ivy Brown sits atop C-USA and ranks 19th in the nation among all players by making 59.6 percent (59-of-99) of her attempts from the field. That represents a huge leap from both her freshman (29.1 percent) and sophomore (48.3 percent) campaigns on The Hill. Brown also has the most total rebounds among C-USA players through 12 games, pulling down 109 boards (49 offensive, 60 defensive), and is WKU's top three-point shooter at 42.5 percent (17-of-40).

- As a team, WKU is shooting 183-of-233 (78.5 percent) from the free throw line this season, an improvement of nine percent from the 2015-16 season. Currently, WKU ranks ninth among all Division I teams in free-throw percentage this season.

- Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard earned her 200th total win at WKU as both a coach and a player in Dec. 21's win over Ball State. Clark-Heard captured 89 wins during her four years on The Hill as a student-athlete and has picked up 111 wins since arriving as the head coach before the 2012-13 season.

- Freshman Whitney Creech became WKU's first C-USA Freshman of the Week selection since Tashia Brown on March 2, 2015, with her selection on Dec. 19. Creech averaged 14.5 points, 6.5 rebounds and four assists in WKU's two victories that week and is shooting an incredible 55.1 percent (27-of-49) from the floor this season.

- WKU broke the NCAA women's basketball record for fewest points allowed in a half by holding Lipscomb to just two first-half points on Dec. 15. The mark was also the fewest in men's basketball since the introduction of the shot clock. In addition, WKU had six players reach double figures for the first time since Jan. 21, 2009, in the victory, a stretch of nearly eight years.

- Junior Tashia Brown became the 37th member of the Lady Toppers' 1,000-point club with 18 points at Austin Peay on Dec. 3 and now has 1,064 points for her career in just 80 games. The Lake Park, Ga., native joined teammate Kendall Noble (1,504 points) in the category and is the fourth player to enter under Coach Clark-Heard.

- WKU has tallied multiple 90-point games in a single season for the first time since 2014-15, when the Lady Toppers broke the 90-point barrier five times. WKU holds a perfect 45-0 record under Michelle Clark-Heard when scoring 80 or more points.

- WKU has started a true freshman in at least five games in each of the last three seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16 and Sarah Price has appeared in the starting lineup five times thus far in 2016-17.

- Already eighth in school history with 158 three-pointers, Micah Jones needs just seven more to pass Renee Westmoreland (1990-93) for seventh place on the charts.

WKU TOPS FLORIDA ATLANTIC, 76-55, IN C-USA OPENER

Postgame Box Score Attached, Notes and Quotes to Follow

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Kyvin Goodin-Rogers and Kendall Noble each scored 13 points in a balanced effort for WKU in the Lady Toppers' C-USA opener on Friday evening, a 76-55 victory over Florida Atlantic inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

Goodin-Rogers and Noble led all scorers with 13 points apiece on Friday evening and were joined in double figures by Jaycee Coe (12) and Tashia Brown (11); Coe knocked down four shots from beyond the arc on the night. Ivy Brown pulled down 14 rebounds to go with nine points, falling just shy of a double-double, and Noble dished out a game-high five assists.

Malia Kency was the lone Florida Atlantic player in double figures with 12 points; Sasha Cedeno, Katelyn O'Reilly and Jacey Bailey each finished with nine points. The Owls were outrebounded 52-30 on the night and were held to 5-of-19 (26.3 percent) from three-point range.

WKU established a lead out of the gate with three-pointers on its first two possessions of the night. Goodin-Rogers opened the scoring with a shot from beyond the arc in the right corner, and Micah Jones knocked down a triple less than a minute later to add to the early Lady Topper advantage.

Florida Atlantic trimmed WKU's lead to three points, 8-5, but the Lady Toppers responded with a 9-2 run over the next four minutes to build their first double-digit lead of the evening. Noble keyed the stretch with five points and helped to give WKU a 24-16 edge at the end of the opening quarter.

Late in the second frame and holding a 38-23 lead, WKU tallied nine straight points en route to a 24-point lead over the Owls. Tashia Brown chipped in six of the points during the run for the Lady Toppers, and Coe's second three-pointer of the night capped the burst. Florida Atlantic got a late layup just before the half as WKU carried a 47-25 lead into the locker room.

WKU's lead grew to as many as 25 points late in the third quarter before Florida Atlantic used a 7-0 run to cut into the deficit. Kency scored four of the points during the run for the Owls, and Bailey punctuated the run with a layup to cut the Lady Toppers' lead to 62-44 with just 22 seconds remaining in the quarter.

Coe halted the Florida Atlantic run at the buzzer to end the quarter with a long three-pointer, sending WKU into the final 10 minutes with a 65-44 edge.

The Owls again cut WKU's lead to 18 points midway through the fourth quarter, but the Lady Toppers did not allow Florida Atlantic any closer down the stretch, scoring five unanswered to end the run and seal the 76-55 win to kick off conference play.

WKU will wrap up its five-game homestand and close the opening weekend of C-USA play on Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. with a visit from FIU inside Diddle Arena. The Lady Toppers own a 27-9 edge in the all-time series against the Panthers and have won three in a row in the series, including a 71-69 win in Miami last season.

WKU Lady Toppers vs. Florida Atlantic Owls

Postgame Notes

December 30, 2016

E.A. Diddle Arena; Bowling Green, Ky.

FINAL SCORE: WKU 76, Florida Atlantic 55

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU improves to 9-4 on the season, while Florida Atlantic drops to 4-8 on the 2016-17 campaign.
- The Lady Toppers are 16-2 all-time against Florida Atlantic after Friday night's win and have now won seven consecutive games against the Owls.
- UP NEXT: WKU stays home to conclude its five-game slate in Bowling Green against FIU at 2:00 p.m. (CT) Sunday at E.A. Diddle Arena.

Team Notes

- WKU started Tashia Brown, Kendall Noble, Ivy Brown, Kyvin Goodin-Rogers and Micah Jones together for the fifth time this season.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: After taking a 24-16 lead at the conclusion of the first quarter, WKU used an 8-0 run to start the second quarter behind Whitney Creech's two mid-range jumpers.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: Jaycee Coe drilled a 25-footer from downtown to close the third quarter as WKU tallied four more points off of Ima Akpan's layups to start the final quarter. The Lady Toppers used a 7-0 run to push their lead to 69-44.
- WKU outrebounded the Owls 52-30, including 26 offensive boards which is a season high. The Lady Toppers improved to 7-0 when outrebounding their opponent.
- WKU showed off their ability to get to the rim in the first half by knocking down 13 free-throws – a season-high for the first half.
- The Lady Toppers also scored 47 points in the first half which is the second most this season going into intermission.
- WKU forced three-straight turnovers in the third quarter over a 1:20 minute span.
- The Lady Toppers notched their sixth 20-plus point differential victory.

Individual Notes

- Junior Ivy Brown led the Lady Toppers with nine points and 14 rebounds, which is tied for most the rebounds the Hodgenville, Ky., native has had in a single game against a C-USA opponent in her career.
 - Brown's 14 rebounds marked the sixth time she has hit double digits in the rebounding category this season.
- Junior Tashia Brown added 11 points, including shooting 5 of 6 from the charity stripe.
- Senior Kendall Noble tallied 13 points, five rebounds and five assists – her fourth straight game of double figures.
- Redshirt sophomore Jaycee Coe matched her season high of four 3s made, while adding 12 points – her second most of the season.
- Redshirt junior Kyvin Goodin-Rodgers tallied a season-high 12 points on 4 of 9 shooting, including a season-high five rebounds as well.
- Senior Ima Akpan added six points and set a career-high for rebounds pulling down nine.

WKU Women's Basketball
Press Conference Quotes
December 30, 2016

Coach Michelle Clark-Heard

On the 21-point victory...

"I'm just really pleased that different people contributed. That's what we have been talking about. I think we came out in the third period making sure that we could come out of the locker room and still play well given the score. What I was really proud of was when we started missing some shots but we kept playing, and kept playing defense with staying with the momentum so it wouldn't shift. So I was really proud of our girls because of that."

On not coming out rusty with having nine days off...

"Well, I think what we try to do is focus on the things we need to and talk about them. We have veterans like Kendall (Noble), Micah (Jones), Tashia (Brown) and Ivy (Brown) who have been there. They understand that and the conference season too. As a coach you always worry a little bit about that, but you just have to prepare them and then you get ready for what happens in the game."

On the team slowly starting to come together...

"I think what really is happening is the ability of regularity on the floor at different times. I credit Jaycee's (Coe) teammates for when she comes in the game, they look for her and they understand and know where she likes to shoot it from. I'm really happy for Kyvin (Goodin-Rodgers) because she continues to keep working and she plays so hard. She's starting now, her shot is falling and she's rebounding."

F Ivy Brown

On putting together a complete game...

"We talked a lot about that over the break with playing good quarters in the non-conference but we never really put it together for a full game. So we talked about coming out and playing focused, especially in the third quarter. But I thought we did a good job and played a full 40 minutes."

On if the team was talking about the big lead...

"I actually asked Kendall (Noble) what the score was at halftime, but you can't really look at the score with games like this. You just have to come out with the same energy and excitement as you do the first quarter, and I think we did."

F Kyvin Goodin-Rodgers

On coming back from a big break...

"Yeah, I thought we did a good job of getting ourselves mentally focused because I know with some time off that can slip away and not be mentally there. But tonight was the night we came together and played."

On you and Jaycee Coe fitting in and being more comfortable with the team...

"Coach gave us our expectations for the year and we knew we had to buy in to what coach (Michelle Clark-Heard) told us to do and that's what have done so far."

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - WKU is set to open the new year on Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. against FIU in a game that will also close the opening weekend of C-USA play for both sides.

The Lady Toppers downed Florida Atlantic, 76-55, in their C-USA opener on Friday evening. Kendall Noble and Kyvin Goodin-Rogers had 13 points apiece and Ivy Brown hauled in a game-high 14 rebounds for WKU. The lead grew to as many as 25 points and WKU never led by fewer than 18 points in the second half.

In FIU's last time out, the Panthers fell, 70-52, at Marshall on Friday evening. FIU carries a 2-10 record into Sunday's game with losses in six of their last seven games.

Kristian Hudson and Alexis Gordon lead the Panthers with 11.3 and 10.5 points per game, respectively, and Hudson is the team's leading passer with 50 total assists. 2014-15 C-USA Freshman of the Year Kiandre'a Pound redshirted last season, but has come back with a team-best 5.8 rebounds per game in her redshirt sophomore campaign.

WKU owns a 27-9 all-time record against FIU and has won three straight games in the series, including a narrow 71-69 win in Miami last season.

The Lady Toppers hit the road for a critical away swing at Charlotte and Old Dominion after Sunday's matchup and will open against the 49ers at 10:30 a.m. (CT) on Thursday.

QUICK SHOTS

- WKU finished the 2016 calendar year with 27 victories, marking the third time in four full years under Michelle Clark-Heard that the Lady Toppers won 27 or more games. In games to start a new calendar year, WKU holds a 3-1 record under Clark-Heard.

- Micah Jones leads all C-USA players and ranks 13th among all Division I players with a 3.06 assist-to-turnover ratio this season. Jones has dished out 52 assists to just 17 turnovers.

- Ivy Brown ranks second in C-USA and ranks 34th in the nation among all players by making 57 percent (61-of-107) of her attempts from the field. That represents a huge leap from both her freshman (29.1 percent) and sophomore (48.3 percent) campaigns on The Hill. Brown also ranks second among C-USA players through 13 games with 9.5 rebounds per game, pulling down 123 total boards (57 offensive, 66 defensive).

- WKU owns C-USA's top-scoring offense through 13 games, averaging 77.1 points per outing. The Lady Toppers have scored 80 or more points six times this season and have reached 90 points twice.

- Redshirt senior Kendall Noble eclipsed the 1,500-point mark with 11 points against Ball State on Dec. 21, becoming one of only 12 players in WKU history to reach that mark. Noble, with 1,517 points for her career, needs 89 to catch former teammate and All-American Alexis Govan for 11th place in the record book.

- Earlier this season, Kendall Noble became WKU's all-time leader in steals and now has 302 for her career. Among all active Division I players, Noble trails only Northwestern's Ashley Deary (370) on the career charts and is the only active C-USA player with more than 200 career takeaways.

- As a team, WKU is shooting 202-of-254 (79.5 percent) from the free throw line this season, an improvement of 10 percent from the 2015-16 season. Currently, WKU ranks sixth among all Division I teams in free-throw percentage this season.

- Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard earned her 200th total win at WKU as both a coach and a player in Dec. 21's win over Ball State. Clark-Heard captured 89 wins during her four years on The Hill as a student-athlete and has picked up 112 wins since arriving as the head coach before the 2012-13 season.

- Freshman Whitney Creech became WKU's first C-USA Freshman of the Week selection since Tashia Brown on March 2, 2015, with her selection on Dec. 19. Creech averaged 14.5 points, 6.5 rebounds and four assists in WKU's two victories that week and is shooting an incredible 55.8 percent (29-of-52) from the floor this season.

- WKU broke the NCAA women's basketball record for fewest points allowed in a half by holding Lipscomb to just two first-half points on Dec. 15. The mark was also the fewest in men's basketball since the introduction of the shot clock. In addition, WKU had six players reach double figures for the first time since Jan. 21, 2009, in the victory, a stretch of nearly eight years.

- Junior Tashia Brown became the 37th member of the Lady Toppers' 1,000-point club with 18 points at Austin Peay on Dec. 3 and now has 1,075 points for her career in just 80 games. The Lake Park, Ga., native joined teammate Kendall Noble (1,517 points) in the category and is the fourth player to enter under Coach Clark-Heard.

- WKU has tallied multiple 90-point games in a single season for the first time since 2014-15, when the Lady Toppers broke the 90-point barrier five times. WKU holds a perfect 45-0 record under Michelle Clark-Heard when scoring 80 or more points.

- WKU has started a true freshman in at least five games in each of the last three seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16 and Sarah Price has appeared in the starting lineup five times thus far in 2016-17.

- Already eighth in school history with 160 three-pointers, Micah Jones needs just five more to pass Renee Westmoreland (1990-93) for seventh place on the charts.
