The Board of Trustees of Ogden College met in Bowling Green, Kentucky on February 13th, 1925. Present: Max B. Nahm, John B. Rodes, W. D. McElroy, Carl D. Herdman and R. C. P. Thomas.

WHEREAS Max B. Nahm has been serving as President of the Board of Trustees of Ogden College for more than ten years, and whereas it is necessary to show by resolution that he is the regular acting and qualified President of said Board of Trustees, it is now moved and ordered that his election and qualification be confirmed again as of this date, and that he is authorized as President of the Board of Trustees of Ogden College to make application to the Collector of Internal Revenue for a permit to use alcohol in the laboratory of Ogden College, and that he is authorized by the Board to represent it in executing the bond and making the application for the withdrawal and use of alcohol on behalf of said College for scientific purposes, and whereas the said Max B. Nahm has already executed the application, said application being made of date December 22nd, 1924 and the bond of date January 28th, 1925, the said acts of the said Nahm as President of the Board of Trustees of Ogden College in signing said application and said bond, are both hereby approved.

William D. McElroy
