HELLO - AGAIN - COACH HELTON

Tyson Helton, WKU's offensive coordinator during the 2014 and 2015 seasons in which Brandon Doughty and company rewrote the offensive record books, returned to The Hill following the 2018 season to take over the program as it's 21st head coach.

Helton spent one season at Tennessee as offensive coordinator and the previous two at USC as passing game coordinator during his three years away from The Hill. After three consecutive seasons of top-10 offenses from 2014-16, the Hilltoppers dipped to No. 69 in 2017 and No. 102 in 2018. It will be on Helton and his staff to begin the process of resurrecting the high-octane offenses the Hilltoppers became known for.

GOTTA HAVE A TRIGGER MAN

One of Helton's talking points since taking over as the program's head coach has been the importance of a quality "trigger man" under center. Helton and offensive coordinator Bryan Ellis will spend a bulk of spring practice trying to figure out who that will be heading into the summer in preparation for the 2019 season. In their previous tours of duty, Helton developed All-Century team quarterback Brandon Doughty into a phenomenon while also helping develop 2016-17 starter Mike White during his transfer season on the sidelines in 2015. Following White's departure, it was a QB carousel under center.

From 2010-17, only Troy had fewer opening day starters at quarterback than WKU's three. Kawaun Jakes (2010-12), Brandon Doughty (2013-15), and Mike White (2016-17) had a steady presence at the position. But, in 2018, it was a three-man show as senior Drew Eckels, sophomore Steven Duncan, and freshman Davis Shanley all started at least three games while freshman Kevaris Thomas factored in while maintaining his four-game redshirt.

This spring, with the addition of Arkansas graduate transfer Ty Storey, Helton and Ellis will attempt to solidify the position.

TWO-GAME WINNING STREAK

Outside of a four-game stretch in 2017, the Hilltoppers won back-to-back games just one other time over the past two seasons. And those, fortunately, came in the final two games of the 2018 campaign meaning the Hilltoppers entered the offseason - and new head coach era - on a winning streak.

WKU's victory at Louisiana Tech was the program's first victory in Ruston in four tries dating back to 1940, and the win over UTEP at home was the second-largest margin of victory over a C-USA opponent over the last two seasons.

OFFENSE RETURNS...JUST ABOUT EVERYONE

Just two years after replacing nearly every starter from the 2016 C-USA Championship squad, WKU enters the 2019 spring season with a lot of continuity on the offensive side of the football. With the loss of tight end Mik'Quan Deane, WKU returns the other 10 starters including a pair of quarterbacks with four or more starts at the position.

All five starting offensive linemen are back as well as Cole Spencer, who was expected to hold the left tackle position before an injury at Louisville sidelined him for the rest of the season, and Mason Brooks who platooned at left tackle with Parker Howell. At the skill positions, 80 percent or better of the total rushing and receiving yards from last year also return.

DEFENSIVE SKILL STAYS HIGH

The Hilltoppers will have to replace the team's top two tackles in linebackers Ben Holt and Masai Whyte as well as four-year lettermen in safety Drell Green and defensive tackle Evan Sayner, but returners include a pair of solid young defensive ends, including freshman All-American Juwuan Jones, as well as senior leader Ta'Corian Darden. Roger Cray is expected to start at corner for the third year while Dionte Ruffin will compete to hold down the other spot in the loss of senior DeAndre Farris.

Where the Hilltoppers must identify the next run of players will be in the linebacking corps as position coach Maurice Crum has to replace his leading tackler a year early for the third consecutive season as well as in the defensive interior next to junior Jaylon George.

Head Coach TYSON HELTON

Tyson Helton was named Western Kentucky University's 21st head football coach on November 27, 2018.

Helton returned to WKU three years removed from the 2015 football season which ended with WKU's final Associated Press ranking of 24 – the highest in school history – and a school-record 12 victories, including the first-ever FBS conference championship. Helton's tenure coincided with quarterback Brandon Doughty's astronomical ascension up the NCAA's career record book and total rewriting of the program's own offensive records.

During his three years away from the program, Helton spent two seasons at the University of Southern California as the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Clay Helton. Helton developed quarterback Sam Darnold into an All-Pac-12 First Team quarterback and the No. 3 overall selection in the 2018 NFL Draft by the New York Jets.

In that same draft class, another of Helton's protégés, WKU's Mike White, was also selected in the fifth round by the Dallas Cowboys.

Helton's work with Darnold and the Trojan offense was instrumental in the team's run to a thrilling 52-49 victory over Penn State in the 2017 Rose Bowl following the 2016 season. Darnold was named the game's offensive MVP after throwing a game-record five touchdown passes and accounting for 36 points. Darnold's 473 yards of total offense were also a new individual record for the Rose Bowl, one of the nation's oldest and most prestigious postseason college football games.

Helton enjoyed otherworldly success as WKU's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2014 and 2015 under then-head coach Jeff Brohm. WKU's offensive numbers ranked among the nation's elite during Helton's two years on the staff and featured the first-ever 4,500-yard passer (Brandon Doughty) and 1,500-yard rusher (Leon Allen) in the same season in FBS history in 2014.

WKU broke more than two dozen school offensive records under Helton, including the points scored record in each of his two years. The Hilltopper offense was in the national Top 10 in 2015 in passing efficiency (1st, 177.4), scoring (3rd, 44.3), passing (4th, 372.2), first downs (8th, 349) and total yards (9th, 526.4).

In 2014, WKU became the first NCAA program with a 4,500-yard passer and 1,500-yard rusher while winning the Bahamas Bowl to finish 8-4. That season, they were second nationally in passing (374.3), fourth in total offense (534.6) and sixth in scoring offense (44.4) and first downs (351).

Helton was among four finalists for the 2015 FootballScoop.com Offensive Coordinator of the Year Award. He coached quarterback Brandon Doughty to back-to-back Conference USA MVP honors as he threw 97 touchdown passes in 2014 and 2015 (the most in NCAA history in consecutive seasons). Doughty led the nation in 2015 in completion percentage (71.9), passing touchdowns (48), passing yards (5,055) and points responsible for (304) while ranking second in passing efficiency (176.5).

Helton began his coaching career at Hawaii for four years (2000-03), the first year as a graduate assistant working with the special teams and the final three seasons as the special teams coach. In 2001, his first as a full-time coach, the Warriors led the nation in kickoff return yardage and broke the NCAA record for season kickoff return average. Return specialist Chad Owens set NCAA game records for most combined return yardage and most kickoff return yardage and tied an NCAA record with 2 scoring kick returns in a game.

Helton played quarterback at Houston (1996-99), where he earned a bachelor's degree in business in 1999, after starring at Clements High in Sugar Land (Texas). His father, Kim, was the head coach at Houston during Tyson's tenure.

Helton and his wife, April, have two daughters, Shelby Grace and Presley, and twin boys, Cole and Clay. Besides being Houston's head coach (1993-99), his father, Kim, was an assistant in college (Florida, Miami and Alabama Birmingham), the NFL (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Houston Oilers, Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins) and CFL (Toronto Argonauts).
