HILLTOPPERS OPEN CHALLENGING SPRING SCHEDULE IN MOBILE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — After the program's best qualifying competition in many years, WKU Hilltopper Golf returns to the course this week to start its spring slate at the Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate.

WKU will be one of 16 teams competing Monday and Tuesday at the par-72, 7,212-yard Magnolia Grove Crossings Golf Course in Mobile, Ala.

Teams will play 36 holes Monday with an 8 a.m. CT shotgun start, followed by Tuesday's final round with tee times.

The Hilltoppers enter the tournament after some intense qualifying rounds in challenging winter conditions that produced encouraging results.

"These are the lowest qualifying scores we've had top to bottom since I've been here," WKU head coach Phillip Hatchett said. "The guys have been working really hard. They're doing all the right things. Fortunately, as a coach, this couldn't be a better situation. All the guys want to play. They're out here all hours of the day – before practice, after practice. It's an ideal situation."

Redshirt junior Billy Tom Sargent, juniors Blake Smith and Stuart Easton, redshirt sophomore Linus Lo and sophomore Tom Bevington will represent WKU in the event.

Freshman Chase Landrum will compete simultaneously in the USA Individual Tournament, which will take place at the Magnolia Grove Falls Golf Course.

The Hilltoppers finished in the top five in three of their five events in the fall, and they registered 10 top-25 individual performances. WKU also had seven top-10 individual results and four top-fives.

This week is the start of a challenging spring schedule, in part meant to help players earn world ranking points for greater opportunities in the future.

"I expect only good things for us," Smith said. "We're playing in some big-time tournaments, so the plan is to show some people what we can do."

SARGENT LEADS HILLTOPPERS ON ABBREVIATED DAY ONE IN MOBILE

MOBILE, Ala. — WKU Hilltopper Golf's Billy Tom Sargent started the spring with a strong showing Monday, finishing the first day of the Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate tied for second individually.

Sargent shot a 3-under 69 in the first round at the par-72, 7,212-yard Magnolia Grove Crossings Golf Course, tallying five birdies with two bogeys. That had him just one stroke behind Florida State's Jamie Li.

Play was called midway through the second round because of darkness. They'll return to the course at 8 a.m. CT to finish Round 2 and complete the final round.

Through one round, WKU was third as a team with a 3-over 291, four strokes behind second-place host South Alabama. Florida State was in first with a commanding 8 under as a team. The Hilltoppers were trending upward in the second round with four players at 1 under or better through at least 13 holes each before play was halted, according to the unofficial scoring.

Junior Blake Smith was tied for 18th with a 1-over 73 – his best score of the season – and redshirt sophomore Linus Lo was tied for 24th with a 74. Junior Stuart Easton was tied for 32nd with a 75, and sophomore Tom Bevington is tied for 50th following a 77.

Meanwhile, WKU freshman Chase Landrum is right in the hunt as an individual in the nearby USA Individual Tournament after shooting an even-par 71 – the best score of his young career – at the Magnolia Grove Falls Golf Course. Landrum was just one stroke back of Florida State's Parker Reddig (70).

HILLTOPPERS SHOOT 6 UNDER AS TEAM TO FINISH THIRD IN MOBILE

MOBILE, Ala. — WKU Hilltopper Golf turned in one of its best rounds in several years Tuesday, finishing third in a stout 16-team field at the Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate.

The Hilltoppers shot a 6-under 858 total as a team across three rounds, which marked the first time they've broken par as a team since shooting 2 under at the Wyoming Cowboy Classic in April 2016. The 858 total was the team's lowest since shooting 852 in the Sam Hall Intercollegiate to open the fall of 2016.

But WKU really made its mark in Tuesday's second round, when it shot a 9-under 279 with all four contributing scores under par.

That was the program's lowest team score to par in head coach Phillip Hatchett's tenure, which dates back to 2010, and the 279 was the team's best single-round score since carding a 278 at the Dayton Flyer Invitational in October 2013.

Florida State won the team title with a commanding 30-under performance, while host South Alabama was second at eight strokes ahead of WKU. Among the teams the Hilltoppers outscored was 46th-ranked Kennesaw State.

"I'm really excited about the way the guys played this week," Hatchett said. "I'm really proud of our second round, with 9 under being our best score for 18 holes since I've been here. It was really fun to watch the guys perform, get on a run and continue on. We pulled it together in the final round, so all in all, I'm really proud of the guys."

Redshirt junior Billy Tom Sargent led the Hilltoppers with a career-low 206 (69-68-69) total, good enough for third place — just one stroke behind Florida State's Harry Ellis and Jamie Li and at least seven shots ahead of two top-50 golfers. Sargent's second round 68 tied his season low. That was the highest finish of the season for Sargent, who tied for the tournament lead with 14 birdies. It's Sargent's fifth top-20 finish of the season and his second top-five.

"I think we did really well in a strong field," Sargent said. "The second round was when we played the best with a 9 under, so I think going forward it's really good. As for myself, I feel like I've had a pretty strong week. I put myself in contention there with about nine holes left in the day. I just had a few mistakes and kind of knocked myself out of it, but I'm proud of how I finished. For the whole week, I just played solid and didn't get in trouble too much."

Sargent was one of four Hilltoppers who finished in the top 20 individually, including junior Blake Smith, who turned in his best effort of the season.

Smith tied for 12th with a season-low 216 (73-71-72) total, using a strong offseason to get back on track. Each of Smith's rounds in this week's tournament were lower than any round he recorded in the fall.

"Everybody was showing some good things going forward, so we need to keep building that," Smith said. "For me, first tournament back in a while, I thought it was pretty solid. I've been playing really well and working on all the right things, and I think my swing is starting to show it.”

Junior Stuart Easton (75-69-74) and redshirt sophomore Linus Lo (74-71-73) each tied for 20th at 218. Easton’s second round 69 tied his career low, while Lo’s 54-hole tally was his best this season.

Sophomore Tom Bevington tied for 67th at 230.

Nearby at the USA Individual Tournament, WKU freshman Chase Landrum tied for 11th with a three-round total of 218 (71-73-74) playing as an individual. That topped his previous best for 54 holes by nine strokes.

The top competition will continue for the Hilltoppers in the Seminole Intercollegiate on Feb. 24-25 in Tallahassee, Fla., hosted by this week’s 29th-ranked champion, Florida State.

“To be able to beat a lot of teams ranked ahead of us was obviously good for our rankings, and it’ll be good for our confidence going forward,” Hatchett said.

HILLTOPPERS TO FACE TOP COMPETITION IN SEMINOLE INTERCOLLEGIATE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — Coming off a strong start to spring play, WKU Hilltopper Golf returns to action this weekend at Florida State's 42nd Seminole Intercollegiate.

WKU will be one of 14 teams – including five ranked in the Golfstat top 100 – competing Saturday and Sunday at the par-72, 6,965-yard Golden Eagle Country Club in Tallahassee, Fla. Teams will play 36 holes on Saturday, beginning with a 7 a.m. CT shotgun start, followed by Sunday's final round with tee times at 7 a.m.

The Hilltoppers are already familiar with the host, Florida State. The Seminoles took the team title earlier this month at the Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate, where WKU finished third out of 16 teams.

The Hilltoppers shot 6 under as a team in that event with an 858 team total, their lowest since fall 2016. That performance was highlighted by a second-round, 9-under 279 – the team's best single-round score since October 2013 and its lowest score to par in head coach Phillip Hatchett's tenure, which began in 2010.

"That's what we practice for," WKU junior Stuart Easton said of the stiff competition. "We want to be in the best tournaments and play against the best players. There's no one that we fear, that's for sure. We're not going to put too much pressure on it. We're going to take each tournament as it comes, keep doing what we're doing and do it well."

Easton will be joined on the trip by redshirt junior Billy Tom Sargent, junior Blake Smith, redshirt sophomore Linus Lo and freshman Chase Landrum.

Sargent shot a career-low 206 at the Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate, finishing in third place and just one stroke behind Florida State's Harry Ellis (the defending British Amateur champion) and Jamie Li.

Sargent also led WKU last year with a 22nd-place finish individually at the Seminole Intercollegiate. The Hilltoppers were ninth as a team.

The freshman Landrum hopes to bring some momentum into the week after a solid showing at the USA Individual Tournament, which took place simultaneously to the team event in Mobile. Landrum tied for 11th with a three-round total of 218, topping his previous best for 54 holes by nine strokes.

"It gave me a lot of confidence to get going like I did," Landrum said. "I hit the ball really well all week. I kept it in front of me, which is what I have not been doing. In the last round, the putter got a little cold on me, but other than that, I was happy with how I ended up finishing in that tournament."

EASTON PAVES WAY FOR TOPS ON FIRST DAY AT SEMINOLE INTERCOLLEGIATE

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — WKU junior Stuart Easton led the way for the Hilltopper Golf team on Saturday and is tied for 26th through two rounds of Florida State's Seminole Intercollegiate. Easton shot a 145 (70-75) across the first two rounds at the par-72, 6,965-yard Golden Eagle Country Club, and he was tied for 11th after starting the day with a 2-under 70.

Easton is pursuing his fifth top-25 result of the season.

The Hilltoppers sit in 13th as a team with a 598 total. The final round is slated to begin at 7 a.m. CT Sunday with tee times.

WKU redshirt sophomore Linus Lo and redshirt junior Billy Tom Sargent improved in Round 2 with a pair of 1-over 73s. Lo is tied for 33rd at 147 (74-73), while Sargent is tied for 49th at 151 (78-73).

Junior Blake Smith (75-81) and freshman Chase Landrum (77-82) finished the first day with totals of 156 and 159, respectively.

LADY TOPS OPEN SPRING IN MASSIVE KIAWAH ISLAND FIELD

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — A massive field awaits the WKU Lady Topper Golf team in its first outing of the spring semester.

The Lady Toppers will be one of 42 programs competing this week in the Edwin Watts/Kiawah Island Spring Classic across two courses at the Kiawah Island Golf Resort in Kiawah Island, S.C. The tournament is tabbed as the largest collegiate golf tournament in the country.

Play begins at 7:45 a.m. CT Sunday with a shotgun start to kick off the first round. Monday's second round and Tuesday's final round also start at 7:45 a.m.

Two courses are used for the event, hosted by the College of Charleston. After 36 holes of play, the top 22 teams will play for the championship at Osprey Point (par 72, 5,964 yards) in the final round, while the remaining teams will play for a flight championship at Oak Point (par 72, 5,941 yards).

"It's a historically really strong field," WKU head coach Adam Gary said. "It's going to be a tough challenge for us, but I think it's a good gauge to know where we stand before we go into the rest of the semester."

Seniors Katie Story and Georgina Blackman, sophomores Mary Joiner and Bailey Tyree and freshman Megan Clarke will represent the Lady Toppers in South Carolina this week.

WKU has had to battle through rough weather conditions for qualifying, but the team has taken advantage of the time it's had and really focused on its play around the greens.

"We've gotten those rounds in, and we've been practicing a lot on short game, which is good for the spring semester when the weather might not be as good," Story said. "You might be missing some greens, so we've been working to make sure we can get up and down. We feel pretty good going into the first tournament."

The Lady Toppers registered two second-place finishes as a team in the fall. They also recorded 15 top-25 individual performances, eight top-10s and three top-fives.

This will be the final go-around for three seniors – Blackman, Story and Elizabeth Cason – who hope to make the most of these final opportunities.

"It's quite bittersweet," Blackman said. "I definitely think it's motivating me to do well. I really want to finish on a high note. I just want to enjoy this semester and have us do as well as we can as a team."

LADY TOPS TIED FOR FOURTH OF 42 TEAMS AFTER DAY ONE AT KIAWAH ISLAND

KIAWAH ISLAND, S.C. — The WKU Lady Topper Golf team navigated a huge field with success Sunday, finishing the first day of play at the Edwin Watts/Kiawah Island Spring Classic tied for fourth out of 42 teams.

The Lady Toppers shot a 5-over 293, five strokes back of the leader and host, College of Charleston. Monday's second round is scheduled to begin at 7:45 a.m. CT at the Kiawah Island Golf Resort.

Senior Georgina Blackman paced WKU with a 1-under 71 and is tied for 15th. Senior Katie Story and sophomore Bailey Tyree each shot 73s and are tied for 25th.

WKU was steady all day, recording the best score of the entire tournament on par-4s at 3 over.

The tournament is tabbed as the largest collegiate golf tournament in the country with 42 programs and 218 individuals competing. After 36 holes of play, the top 22 teams will play for the championship at Osprey Point (par 72, 5,964 yards) in the final round, while the remaining teams will play for a flight championship at Oak Point (par 72, 5,941 yards).

SARGENT CLOSSES SEMINOLE INTERCOLLEGIATE WITH SEASON-LOW 67

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — WKU's Billy Tom Sargent hit his stride in Sunday's final round of Florida State's Seminole Intercollegiate with a season-low 67.

The redshirt junior's 5-under 67 was the lowest round of the day at the par-72, 6,965-yard Golden Eagle Country Club, as well as the second-lowest single-round score of the entire tournament.

Sargent improved drastically across each round and finished tied for 26th with a 218 (78-73-67) total. Sunday's finale was two shots off his career low and was his sixth round of 69 or better this season.

WKU finished 13th as a team with a 904 (296-302-306) tally. The host Seminoles won the crown at 844.

Redshirt sophomore Linus Lo tied for 41st for WKU with a 224 (74-73-77) total, while junior Stuart Easton tied for 43rd at 225 (70-75-80).

Junior Blake Smith carded a 238 (75-81-82) across the three rounds, and freshman Chase Landrum finished at 243 (77-82-84).

WKU is back in action this month at the Border Olympics, hosted by Houston on March 9-10 in Laredo, Texas.

LADY TOPS STAY NEAR TOP OF STANDINGS THROUGH SECOND ROUND AT KIAWAH ISLAND

KIAWAH ISLAND, S.C. — WKU Lady Topper Golf improved by two strokes Monday and maintained fourth place out of 42 teams with one round to go at the Edwin Watts/Kiawah Island Spring Classic.

The Lady Toppers shot a 3-over 291 as a team Monday at the Kiawah Island Golf Resort for a two-day total of 584. They're just five strokes back of third-place Jacksonville and six shots back of second-place Murray State. Host College of Charleston leads the field at 567.

The top 22 teams in the tournament – the largest college event in the country – will play for the championship at Osprey Point during Tuesday's final round, while teams 23-43 will play for a flight championship at Oak Point. The final round will be a 7:45 a.m. CT shotgun start.

WKU senior Georgina Blackman is tied for 18th individually through two rounds with a total of 144 (71-73) – her lowest 36-hole tally of the season.

Sophomore Mary Joiner led the Lady Toppers on Day 2 with a 2-under 70, tying her for 29th at 146 (76-70). She played bogey-free golf Monday with two birdies.

Senior Katie Story and sophomore Bailey Tyree are both tied for 38th at 147 (73-74) each.

Freshman Megan Clarke has a two-round total of 152 (76-76).

The Lady Toppers continued to find success with consistency Monday, now tied for the lead on par-4s at 9-over and tied for fifth in total pars at 118. Joiner leads the tournament with 30 pars.

LADY TOPPERS FINISH FIFTH IN FIELD OF 42 TEAMS AT KIAWAH ISLAND

KIAWAH ISLAND, S.C. — Two individuals in the top 20 helped WKU Lady Topper Golf claim a fifth-place finish among 42 teams Tuesday at the Edwin Watts/Kiawah Island Spring Classic. Senior Georgina Blackman and sophomore Mary Joiner both finished in the top 20 for the Lady Toppers, who carded a three-round total of 889 (293-291-305). They were just three strokes out of fourth place and seven shots out of third.

Host College of Charleston won the team title at 872. The top 22 teams in the tournament – the largest college event in the country – competed at the Osprey Point course in Tuesday's final round at the Kiawah Island Golf Resort.

This was WKU's third top-five finish in six outings this season.

"I'm really proud of how the team did this week, especially considering the weather we had leading up to this tournament," WKU head coach Adam Gary said. "We had tough conditions today with high winds, but we held our ground and didn't lose any positions. It was a nice start to the season and a good experience leading into a very busy stretch of golf for us."

Blackman tied for 15th out of 200-plus individuals – her fourth top-20 performance of the season – with a 219 (71-73-75) total, which tied her season low.

Joiner finished just one stroke back at 220 (76-70-74) and tied for 20th, which was also her fourth top-20 effort of the year.

Freshman Megan Clarke shot her best round of the tournament Tuesday with a final-round 74, tying for 51st at 226 (76-76-74). Sophomore Bailey Tyree finished at 229 (73-74-82), while senior Katie Story rounded out WKU's card at 230 (73-74-83).

"Georgina had another solid finish," Gary said. "Anytime you finish top 15 in the field of 42 teams, that's a good accomplishment. I'm also proud considering three of our top five have never played this tournament before, and we only got one practice round on two courses." The Lady Toppers will compete in Florida again next week, participating in the UNF Collegiate on March 5-6 in Jacksonville, Fla.

LADY TOPS RETURN TO ACTION AT NORTH FLORIDA'S UNF COLLEGIATE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The WKU Lady Topper Golf team enters its first of two straight weeks of competition in Florida, participating this week in North Florida's UNF Collegiate.

The Lady Toppers will be one of 17 teams competing Monday and Tuesday at the par-72, 5,926-yard Jacksonville Golf and Country Club in Jacksonville, Fla.

Teams will play the first two rounds Monday beginning at 7:30 a.m. CT with a shotgun start.

Tuesday's final round will follow the same format.

WKU opened its spring schedule last week with a fifth-place finish among 42 teams at the Edwin Watts/Kiawah Island Spring Classic in South Carolina.

The Lady Toppers earned their third top-five finish of the season in the largest college event in the country, while Georgina Blackman and Mary Joiner each finished in the top 20 individually. Blackman tied for 15th out of 200-plus individuals – her fourth top-20 performance of the season – with a 219, which tied her season low.

WKU will use its same lineup from last week's tournament, with Joiner and Blackman joined by freshman Megan Clarke, sophomore Bailey Tyree and senior Katie Story.

LADY TOPPERS CARD BEST ROUND IN PROGRAM HISTORY AT UNF COLLEGIATE

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — Behind the best single round in program history, WKU Lady Topper Golf is tied for second place heading into the final day of North Florida's UNF Collegiate.

The Lady Toppers fired a two-round total of 586 (286-300) on Monday at the par-72, 5,926-yard Jacksonville Golf and Country Club.

WKU's 2-under 286 in the first round was the best team score in the history of the program, topping a pair of 288s – most recently accomplished at the MSU Spring Citrus Challenge in spring 2017.

All of the top-10 best single-round scores in program history have come in WKU head coach Adam Gary's tenure since 2014.

"I'm so proud of the team's historic accomplishment today," Gary said. "They have been working really hard, and it's nice to see it pay off."

WKU got its spark from a pair of outstanding days from sophomore Mary Joiner and senior Katie Story. Joiner is tied for third with a career-low 142 (69-73) total, while Story is one stroke back and tied for fifth with a career-low 143 (68-75).

Joiner's 142 total is the best 36-hole score for a Lady Topper this season, and her first-round 69 ties her single-round season low. She torched the par-5 holes Monday at 7 under, while WKU went a blistering 15 under as a team on par-5s.

Story fired a career-low 68 in the opening round, which ties for the third-best single-round score in program history. In the first round, Joiner and Story mustered a combined seven birdies, two bogeys and an eagle.

Freshman Megan Clarke also had a strong opening round with an even-par 72 and is tied for 33rd at 151 (72-79). Senior Georgina Blackman is tied for 41st at 153 (77-76), and sophomore Bailey Tyree is tied for 45th at 154 (78-76).

Old Dominion leads the team standings with a 571 tally, while WKU is tied with Murray State for second at 586. Daytona State's Jiwon Jeon is the individual leader with a 36-hole total of 135.

Tuesday's final round is scheduled to begin at 7:30 a.m. CT with a shotgun start.

JOINER TIES SECOND-BEST TOURNEY SCORE IN PROGRAM HISTORY, FINISHES THIRD AT UNF COLLEGIATE

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — WKU sophomore golfer Mary Joiner tied the second-best 54-hole score in program history Tuesday, finishing third individually at North Florida's UNF Collegiate. Joiner finished with a 4-under 212 (69-73-70) total at the par-72, 5,926-yard Jacksonville Golf and Country Club, tying her own career low previously reached in September at the USA Intercollegiate.

The 212 tally was just one stroke off Ellinor Haag's program record of 211 set in 2014. Joiner now owns three of the top four 54-hole scores in Lady Topper history.

The Franklin, Ky., native went a combined 9 under on par-5s throughout the tournament. This is the fourth top-three performance of her career.

"I played a really solid tournament," said Joiner, who went a combined 9 under on par-5s throughout the event. "I didn't finish as well as I'd hoped, but there were still a lot of positives to take away from this week. I'm proud of this team and looking forward to our next chance to compete."

WKU ultimately finished fifth as a team in a congested field. The Lady Toppers finished with an 889 (286-300-303) score, only six strokes behind second-place Chattanooga. Old Dominion won the title at 864.

Senior Katie Story tied for 12th for WKU with a 219 (68-75-76) total, tying her career low.

Freshman Megan Clarke tied for 35th at 227 (72-79-76).

Senior Georgina Blackman (77-76-81) and sophomore Bailey Tyree (78-76-82) finished at 234 and 236, respectively.

The Lady Toppers stay in Florida next week as they host the Spring Break Shootout in Tampa, Fla.

JOINER NAMED C-USA CO-GOLFER OF THE WEEK AFTER UNF COLLEGIATE SHOWING

IRVING, Texas — After tying for the second-best 54-hole score in program history, WKU Lady Topper Golf sophomore Mary Joiner was named Conference USA Co-Women's Golfer of the Week by the league office Wednesday.

This is Joiner and the Lady Toppers' first weekly honor of the season, but it's the third of Joiner's career. She won the award twice as a freshman following a pair of tournament victories.

The Franklin, Ky., native finished third this week in a field with multiple top-100 individuals at North Florida's UNF Collegiate, carding a 4-under 212 (69-73-70) total at the par-72, 5,926-yard Jacksonville Golf and Country Club and tying her own career low previously reached in September at the USA Intercollegiate.

The 212 tally was just one stroke off Ellinor Haag's program record of 211 set in 2014. Joiner now owns three of the top four 54-hole scores in Lady Topper history.

She went a combined 9 under on par-5s throughout the tournament, including 7 under over the first two rounds. This is the fourth top-three performance of her career.

Joiner set a new career low for 36 holes at 142 through two rounds, and her opening-round 69 tied her season low. Across the tournament, she had 36 pars, 10 birdies and an eagle.

The Lady Toppers stay in Florida next week as they host the Spring Break Shootout in Tampa, Fla.

TOPS HEAD TO TEXAS TO COMPETE IN HOUSTON'S BORDER OLYMPICS

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The spring season continues on for WKU Hilltopper Golf this week at the Border Olympics, hosted by Houston.

The Hilltoppers will be one of 18 teams competing Friday and Saturday at the par-72, 7,125-yard Laredo Country Club in Laredo, Texas.

Teams will play the first two rounds Friday, starting at 8 a.m. CT with a shotgun start, followed by the final round Saturday at 8 a.m.

WKU most recently competed in the Seminole Intercollegiate, part of a challenging slate of competition for the program.

Redshirt junior Billy Tom Sargent led the Hilltoppers in that event in a tie for 26th, including a season-low 67 in the final round.

Sargent will be joined by junior Stuart Easton, redshirt sophomore Linus Lo, sophomore Tom Bevington and freshman Crimson Callahan in Texas.

SARGENT ONE STROKE BACK OF LEAD ENTERING FINAL ROUND OF BORDER OLYMPICS

LAREDO, Texas — WKU's Billy Tom Sargent is one stroke out of the lead after a strong opening day Friday at Houston's Border Olympics, while the Hilltopper Golf team is poised to make a push in the final round after a promising collective start.

Sargent, a redshirt junior, fired a 7-under total of 137 (67-70) over the first two rounds at the par-72, 7,125-yard Laredo Country Club. That ties his career low for 36 holes.

Sargent opened play with a red-hot 67 in the first round, carding five birdies with no bogeys. The 67 ties his season low for a round, and he has five rounds of 69 or better in his last eight opportunities.

He's just one shot behind Sam Houston State's Camden DeBonis and William Holcomb going into Saturday's final round, which begins at 8 a.m. CT.

"I think the team played really solid," Sargent said. "We've seen this course only two times around, and there's always things you can learn about a course. We learned a lot in the first round and adjusted. The greens got a little bumpy there in the second round, so it made it a little tougher to make putts, but we're right there."

The Hilltoppers are in 11th place in the 17-team field with a 1-over 577 (286-291) tally, but they're just 10 strokes behind the leader, Arkansas State.

Junior Stuart Easton is tied for 62nd with a 148 (74-74) total. Redshirt sophomore Linus Lo (73-76-149), sophomore Tom Bevington (72-78-150) and freshman Crimson Callahan (80-71-151) are right behind him.

"We're really close, and I'm proud of the guys," WKU head coach Phillip Hatchett said. "I'm proud of the way they're holding their heads high and carrying themselves out here. For the first time to play in this tournament, for us to get it as a collective team under par and finish at 1 over – we're poised to play really well."

SARGENT CLAIMS BORDER OLYMPICS TITLE FOR THIRD CAREER VICTORY

LAREDO, Texas — WKU's Billy Tom Sargent used the best 54-hole score by a Hilltopper since 2009 to record the third tournament victory of his career Saturday at Houston's Border Olympics.

The redshirt junior fired a 12-under 204 (67-70-67) tally at the par-72, 7,125-yard Laredo Country Club, holding off Campbell's Pontus Nyholm by two strokes.

The 204 beat Sargent's previous career low by two shots and is the best 54-hole score by a Hilltopper since Neil Horsley completed a 203 at the Renaissance Invitational on Nov. 3, 2009.

"I just tried to stay patient," Sargent said. "You've hit every golf shot so many times. Just because you're at the top of the leaderboard doesn't really change how the shot is. I hit the ball well today, hit some good tee shots, putt well and chipped pretty good. I was able to stay positive, stay calm and execute my shots."

This is the third tournament win for Sargent in the last two seasons. He also won the Sam Hall Intercollegiate and Kenny Perry Invitational last season as a sophomore.

"I'm really proud of the fight Billy Tom showed today," WKU head coach Phillip Hatchett said. "He's been in the hunt for a long time, and it's good to see him finish one. Nobody really understands the amount of work this young man has put into aspects of his game that leans on constantly and consistently."

Sargent had an eventful final round on his way to a 5-under 67, carding two eagles, five birdies and four bogeys. One of his eagles came after the turn on hole No. 1 when he hit a 240-yard shot to about 2 feet of the cup.

Sargent played the par-5s better than anyone across the tournament at 9 under, and he now has six rounds of 69 or better in his last nine opportunities.

"I knew I would definitely have to go under par," Sargent said. "I didn't really put a number in my head. I just wanted to make as many birdies as I could, but I didn't really force anything."

WKU finished strong and placed sixth as a team out of 17 programs with a 6-under 858 (286-291-281) total. Campbell won the title at 843.

Redshirt sophomore Linus Lo tied for 56th at 220 (73-76-71), while junior Stuart Easton (74-74-73) and freshman Crimson Callahan (80-71-70) each tied for 61st at 221. Sophomore Tom Bevington finished with a 225 (72-78-75).

Sargent, Lo, Easton and Callahan each either tied or shot their best round of the tournament on Saturday. The Hilltoppers now take a month off before returning to action in Lipscomb's Ryman Hospitality Intercollegiate from April 9-10 in Nashville, Tenn.

"We took everybody's score and had a lot of under-par scores," Sargent said. "It was a lot better than we've been doing in the past, and I think we're really close to shooting some really low numbers. We just have to keep practicing hard, stay positive and stay focused on the goals."

LADY TOPPERS HOST SPRING BREAK SHOOTOUT FOR SECOND STRAIGHT YEAR

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Lady Topper Golf heads into its second straight week in Florida with a tournament of its own, hosting the Spring Break Shootout for the second year in a row in Dade City, Fla.

The Lady Toppers will be one 14 teams competing Monday and Tuesday at the par-72, 6,321-yard Lake Jovita Golf Club.

Play will begin with the first two rounds Monday with a 7:30 a.m. CT shotgun start. The final round is slated to begin at 7:30 a.m. CT Tuesday.

This is the second straight year that WKU has hosted the event in Florida, although the Lady Toppers will co-host with Florida Gulf Coast this season instead of Southern Miss.

Georgia Southern returns as the defending team champion. WKU finished fifth a year ago, led by Georgina Blackman's fifth-place individual showing.

The Lady Toppers will take all nine golfers on the roster to compete for the first time this season. Blackman, sophomores Mary Joiner and Bailey Tyree, senior Katie Story and freshman Megan Clarke will represent the program in team play.

Senior Elizabeth Cason, redshirt junior Hannah Turner, sophomore Abigail Smee and freshman Caroline Cavin will compete as individuals.

WKU is coming off a fifth-place effort last week at North Florida's UNF Collegiate. Joiner tied for the second-best 54-hole score in program history with a 4-under 212, placing third individually and being named Conference USA Co-Women's Golfer of the Week.

LADY TOPS, JOINER LEAD TEAM, INDIVIDUAL STANDINGS AT SPRING BREAK SHOOTOUT

DADE CITY, Fla. — WKU Lady Topper Golf felt right at home Monday in its own remote tournament in Florida, finishing the first day of its Spring Break Shootout in the lead of both the team and individual standings.

The Lady Toppers shot a 14-over total of 590 (289-301) as a team Monday at the par-72, 6,239-yard Lake Jovita Golf Club. That puts WKU six strokes ahead of second-place Jacksonville in the 14-team field.

WKU's 1-over 289 total in the first round was the best team score of the day and the fourth-best team round in program history. The Lady Toppers are co-hosting the event with Florida Gulf Coast.

WKU sophomore Mary Joiner is the individual leader through two rounds with a 2-under 142 (69-73) tally, tying her career low for 36 holes and putting her four strokes ahead of Jacksonville's Maria Brunzell and Florida Gulf Coast's Madeline Marck-Sherk.

Joiner, the reigning Conference USA Women's Co-Golfer of the Week, tied her season-low with a 3-under 69 in the first round. She's tied for the tournament lead with nine birdies, including six in her opening 18 holes.

Joiner is one of four Lady Toppers in the top 20 heading into Tuesday's final round, which begins at 7:30 a.m. CT with a shotgun start.

Senior Georgina Blackman is in fourth at 147 (71-76) and leads the tournament field with 26 pars and a 2-under effort across the par-3s.

Senior Katie Story is tied for seventh at 150 (73-77), and sophomore Bailey Tyree is tied for 19th at 153 (78-75). Freshman Megan Clarke is tied for 43rd at 157 (76-81).

LADY TOPPERS, JOINER NOTCH COMMANDING VICTORIES AT SPRING BREAK SHOOTOUT

DADE CITY, Fla. — Tuesday proved to be a dominating day with two victories for WKU Lady Topper Golf at their own Spring Break Shootout.

The Lady Toppers won the team crown by a convincing 24 strokes with an 880 (289-301-290) tally, while sophomore Mary Joiner claimed individual medalist honors with a 4-under 212 (79-73-70) — eight strokes ahead of second-place teammate Georgina Blackman.

Jacksonville finished second as a team at 904. WKU co-hosted the event with Florida Gulf Coast. This is WKU's fifth team championship in coach Adam Gary's four seasons at the helm. Gary's five titles are the second-most for a Lady Topper coach, and he's the second coach in program history to win a tournament in each of his/her first four seasons with the reins.

"I'm so proud of the team this week," Gary said. "They were focused and prepared while I was busy running the tournament. To win by 24 over a good field is a real confidence boost. Mary Joiner's eight-shot victory was very impressive. I'm glad to see her hard work paying off."

The Lady Toppers took full control with three individuals in the top five and all five in the top 20, led by Joiner's third victory in just her second college season. The Franklin, Ky., native won two tournaments as a freshman.

Joiner turned in nine pars on the front nine Tuesday at the par-72, 6,239-yard Lake Jovita Golf Club before registering three birdies and a bogey on the back nine. She played par-4s and par-5s better than anyone across the tournament and notched a tournament-high 12 birdies.

Joiner tied her career low for 54 holes of 212 — tied for the second-best score in program history — that she set just last week at North Florida's UNF Collegiate. She finished third in that tournament and was named Conference USA Women's Co-Golfer of the Week as a result.

Tuesday's win is the fifth top-three performance of her career.

"It's been a great tournament," Joiner said. "I'm so excited for the team, and it feels great to get it done as an individual as well. I'm looking forward to the next tournament and seeing what else we can do."

The senior Blackman shot a 4-over 220 (71-76-73) to finish second behind Joiner. That ties the highest finish of her career.

Senior Katie Story also tied her best finish in fifth place at 224 (73-77-74), and sophomore Bailey Tyree tied for 16th at 229 (78-75-76). Freshman Megan Clarke set a new best career finish by tying for 18th at 230 (76-81-73).

The Lady Toppers also had four individuals competing, led by sophomore Abigail Smee's tie for 21st at 231 (79-76-76). Freshman Caroline Cavin finished with a 239 total, followed by redshirt junior Hannah Turner (252) and senior Elizabeth Cason (253).

WKU is back on the course at Georgia State's John Kirk Panther Intercollegiate from March 25-27 in Atlanta.

JOINER, SARGENT SWEEP C-USA GOLFER OF THE WEEK AWARDS

IRVING, Texas — WKU Golf made it a clean sweep Wednesday, as the Hilltoppers' Billy Tom Sargent and the Lady Toppers' Mary Joiner took home both of the Conference USA Golfer of the Week awards following a pair of victories.

This is the second time Sargent and Joiner have won the honors in the same week. They also did it in the first week of the 2016-17 season after opening that campaign with individual wins. The award is the fourth of Joiner's career and her second straight. The sophomore was named C-USA Women's Co-Golfer of the Week last week after finishing third in the UNF Collegiate. This is the third weekly award for the redshirt junior Sargent, who last won it after taking the Kenny Perry Invitational title in October 2016.

Joiner logged the third individual victory of her young career Tuesday at WKU's own Spring Break Shootout, firing a 4-under 212 total to help the Lady Toppers win the team title by 24 strokes.

The Franklin, Ky., native won the individual crown by eight strokes over teammate Georgina Blackman. She played the par-4s and par-5s better than anyone across the tournament and notched a tournament-high 12 birdies.

Joiner tied her career low for 54 holes at 212 – tying for the second-best score in program history – that she just set last week at UNF Collegiate. She now has five top-three performances in her career.

Sargent used the best 54-hole score by a Hilltopper since 2009 to record the third tournament victory of his career last week at Houston's Border Olympics. He fired a 12-under 204, beating Campbell's Pontus Nyholm by two strokes, and finished ahead of two top-100 players, including one top-50 individual.

Sargent's 204 beat his previous career low by two shots and is the best 54-hole score by a WKU player since Neil Horsley completed a 203 at the 2009 Renaissance Invitational. He finished 9 under on par-5s for the tournament and now has six rounds of 69 or better in his last nine opportunities.

The Lady Toppers are back in action at Georgia State's John Kirk Panther Intercollegiate from March 25-27 in Atlanta, Ga.

The WKU men are off until they compete in Lipscomb's Ryman Hospitality Intercollegiate on April 9-10 in Nashville.

FRESH OFF TOURNEY WIN, LADY TOPPERS HEAD TO GEORGIA STATE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — Coming off a dominant tournament victory, WKU Lady Topper Golf will try to continue its momentum this week at Georgia State's John Kirk Panther Intercollegiate.

The Lady Toppers will be one of 17 teams competing Sunday through Tuesday at the par-72, 6,043-yard Eagle's Landing Country Club in Stockbridge, Ga.

Play will begin at 7:30 a.m. CT both of the first two days with tee times, while the final round will begin at 8 a.m. Tuesday with a shotgun start.

According to GolfStat rankings as of March 20, WKU was the second-highest ranked team in the field at No. 105.

That ranking was helped by their last performance in their own Spring Break Shootout in Dade City, Fla., earlier this month. WKU won the team crown by 24 strokes, while sophomore Mary Joiner claimed individual medalist honors with a 4-under 212 – eight strokes ahead of second-place teammate Georgina Blackman.

That was the third individual victory of Joiner's career. She was named Conference USA Women's Golfer of the Week for the second straight week as a result.

It was WKU's fifth team championship in coach Adam Gary's four seasons at the helm. Gary's five titles are the second-most for a Lady Topper coach, and he's the second coach in program history to win a tournament in each of his/her first four seasons with the reins.

The Lady Toppers finished the Spring Break Shootout with three individuals in the top five and all five in the top 20.

That same group of Joiner, Blackman, senior Katie Story, sophomore Bailey Tyree and freshman Megan Clarke will take the course for WKU in Georgia. They will be joined by sophomore Abigail Smee, who will compete as an individual.

LADY TOPPERS IN NINTH AFTER FIRST DAY AT GEORGIA STATE TOURNAMENT

STOCKBRIDGE, Ga. — WKU Lady Topper Golf is tied for ninth, but within eight shots of fourth heading into the second round of Georgia State's John Kirk Panther Intercollegiate.

The Lady Toppers fired a 317 team total Sunday in the first round at the par-72, 6,043-yard Eagle's Landing Country Club. Jacksonville leads the field at 299.

Senior Georgina Blackman paced WKU with a 5-over 77. She's tied for 19th, but only four strokes separate her from third overall individually.

Senior Katie Story is tied for 26th following a 78, and sophomore Mary Joiner and freshman Megan Clarke are tied for 44th with an 81 each. Sophomore Bailey Tyree opened play with an 89, and sophomore Abigail Smee shot an 84 playing as an individual.

Winthrop's Ashley Sloup is the individual leader following a 1-under 71.

The second round is scheduled to begin at 7:30 a.m. CT Monday with tee times.

LADY TOPS MOVE UP IN SECOND ROUND AT GEORGIA STATE WITH 17-STROKE IMPROVEMENT

STOCKBRIDGE, Ga. — WKU Lady Topper Golf improved by 17 strokes in Monday's second round of Georgia State's John Kirk Panther Intercollegiate, moving up to seventh with one round to go.

The Lady Toppers shot a 300 team total in the second round at the par-72, 6,043-yard Eagle's Landing Country Club, giving them a two-day total of 617. Although they're in seventh place, they're just two strokes back of fourth.

Jacksonville leads the field at 594.

Every WKU golfer in team competition improved her score Monday, led by senior Georgina Blackman's even-par 72. She's tied for sixth individually with a 149 (77-72) tally.

Sophomore Mary Joiner (81-74) and senior Katie Story (78-77) are both tied for 22nd at 155.

Freshman Megan Clarke is tied for 51st at 161 (81-80), while sophomore Bailey Tyree carded a two-round total of 166 (89-77). Sophomore Abigail Smee is at 169 (84-85) playing as an individual.

Blackman is just five shots back of the individual leader, South Alabama's Siti Shaari.

The final round is scheduled to begin at 8 a.m. CT Tuesday with a shotgun start.

LADY TOPPERS FINISH FOURTH AT JOHN KIRK PANTHER INTERCOLLEGIATE

STOCKBRIDGE, Ga. — WKU Lady Topper Golf continued its ascent up the leaderboard at Georgia State's John Kirk Panther Intercollegiate, finishing Tuesday's final round in fourth place as a team.

The Lady Toppers finished day one in ninth, moved to seventh Monday and finished in fourth with a 917 (317-300-300) total at the par-72, 6,043-yard Eagle's Landing Country Club.

Senior Georgina Blackman led the way for WKU, tying for fifth with a 222 (77-72-73) total. It's Blackman's fourth top-five performance of the season. She finished the event second in par-4 scoring at 2 over and tied for fourth with 36 total pars.

Senior Katie Story earned her fifth top-20 result of the season by tying for 14th at 229 (78-77-74), while sophomore Mary Joiner tied for 21st at 231 (81-74-76).

Freshman Megan Clarke tied for 49th at 238 (81-80-77), and sophomore Bailey Tyree completed play with a 248 (89-77-82) tally.

Jacksonville won the team title with an 882 total and also split the individual medalist honors between Maria Brunzell and Amanda Detmer at 218.

The Lady Toppers will next compete in Eastern Kentucky's ECU Colonel Classic on March 30-31 in Richmond, Ky. That's the team's final event before the Conference USA Championship.

LADY TOPPERS STAY IN-STATE TO COMPETE AT ECU COLONEL CLASSIC

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Lady Topper Golf won't have to travel far for its final tournament of the regular season.

The Lady Toppers will be one of 15 programs competing in Eastern Kentucky's Colonel Classic on Friday and Saturday at the par-72, 5,815-yard University Club at Arlington in Richmond, Ky. This is the second time this season that WKU has competed in Kentucky and the first since Kentucky's Betty Lou Evans Collegiate in October. Teams will play the first two rounds Friday beginning with a shotgun start at 7:30 a.m. CT, while the final round is slated to begin at 8 a.m. The Lady Toppers are coming off a fourth-place finish earlier this week in Georgia State's John Kirk Panther Intercollegiate. They finished the first round in ninth place and steadily moved up the leaderboard each round.

On the individual side, senior Georgina Blackman led the way with a tie for fifth – her fourth top-five result of the season – while senior Katie Story also found the top 20 in a tie for 14th. Those seniors will be in team competition for WKU at Eastern Kentucky, along with sophomores Mary Joiner and Bailey Tyree, and freshman Megan Clarke. Sophomore Abigail Smee and freshman Caroline Cavin will play as individuals.

This is the final tune-up for the Lady Toppers before they participate in the Conference USA Championship in April in Fort Myers, Fla.

JOINER, LADY TOPS LEAD ECU COLONEL CLASSIC ENTERING FINAL ROUND

RICHMOND, Ky. — Mary Joiner and WKU Lady Topper Golf are both back in the championship chase.

Joiner, a sophomore, leads the individual standings with round to go at Eastern Kentucky's Colonel Classic, while the Lady Toppers sit atop the team leaderboard by one stroke heading into Saturday's final round.

Joiner took control in Friday's opening round with a 2-under 70 at the par-72, 5,815-yard University Club at Arlington. The Franklin, Ky., native had a steady day with three birdies, one bogey and 14 pars. She's two strokes ahead of Tennessee Tech's Hollee Sadler and Oakland's Alexis Jones.

Joiner will vie for her fourth career individual title and second this season in Saturday's final round. Her three titles in her first two college seasons are already a program record.

Teams were originally scheduled to play two rounds Friday and the final round Saturday, but rainy conditions at the course changed the format to one round each day.

As a team, the Lady Toppers fired a 9-over 297 in the first round and lead second-place Akron by one stroke. Only five shots separate the top five teams in the 15-team field.

Behind Joiner, WKU senior Katie Story is tied for 10th following a 2-over 74. Sophomore Bailey Tyree is tied for 22nd with a 76, while senior Georgina Blackman and freshman Megan Clarke are both tied for 29th with 77s.

Freshman Caroline Cavin and sophomore Abigail Smee each shot 79s while competing as individuals.

JOINER WINS COLONEL CLASSIC FOR PROGRAM-RECORD FOURTH CAREER VICTORY

RICHMOND, Ky. — In less than two seasons, WKU's Mary Joiner has etched her name into the Lady Topper Golf record book.

The sophomore sank a 10-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole Saturday to win the individual title at Eastern Kentucky's Colonel Classic, notching her fourth career victory and her second in the last three events. Joiner's four individual titles in less than two seasons are already a program record.

"The win was really something special," Joiner said. "To go into a playoff and pull it out was super exciting, and having all my teammates there cheering me on made it even more amazing. I'm really looking forward to conference and seeing all that this team can do."

Joiner entered the day with a two-stroke lead, but found herself tied with Akron's Danielle Nicholson after the final round with an even-par 144 (70-74) total at the University Club at Arlington.

They headed to hole No. 10 to break the stalemate, and Joiner made a downhill putt breaking right to left for birdie to claim the victory.

Joiner also won the individual title this month at the Spring Break Shootout and finished third at the UNF Collegiate. She was named Conference USA Women's Golfer of the Week for both efforts.

The Franklin, Ky., native also won two tournaments in fall 2016 as a freshman.

Joiner led the EKU tournament in par-4 scoring at 2 under and also tied for the tourney lead with 30 total pars. As a team, WKU finished third with a two-round total of 596 (297-299) and fell just one stroke shy of Eastern Kentucky and Xavier at 595.

"I'm proud of how Mary battled this week," WKU head coach Adam Gary said. "The weather conditions were tough, but she stayed patient. It's disappointing to lose the team competition by one, but I feel like we are saving the best for last."

Senior Katie Story (74-76) and sophomore Bailey Tyree (76-74) both tied for ninth at 150. That tied Tyree's best result of her career.

Senior Georgina Blackman registered her seventh top-20 performance of the season at 152 (77-75), and freshman Megan Clarke tied for 35th at 155 (77-78).

Freshman Caroline Cavin tied for 31st – her best career finish – at 154 (79-75) competing as an individual, while sophomore Abigail Smee tied for 53rd at 158 (79-79).

The tournament was WKU's last of the regular season. The Lady Toppers will compete in the Conference USA Championship on April 16-18 in Fort Myers, Fla.

JOINER'S HOT STREAK CONTINUES WITH THIRD C-USA WEEKLY AWARD

IRVING, Texas — The latest victory in WKU golfer Mary Joiner's recent hot streak produced her third Conference USA Women's Golfer of the Week award of the season Wednesday.

Joiner has won the C-USA weekly award in three of the last five weeks. No other women's golfer in the league has won multiple awards this spring.

The latest honor – the fifth of her career – came after the sophomore's playoff win last weekend at Eastern Kentucky's Colonel Classic, her program-record fourth career victory.

After finishing the final round tied with Akron's Danielle Nicholson with an even-par 144 (70-74) total, Joiner sank a 10-foot downhill birdie putt on the first playoff hole to claim the win.

Joiner has won two of her last three events and finished in the top five in three of the last four.

She also won the individual title last month at the Spring Break Shootout and finished third at the UNF Collegiate. She was named C-USA Golfer of the Week for both efforts.

The Franklin, Ky., native also won two tournaments in fall 2016 as a freshman.

Joiner led the ECU tournament in par-4 scoring at 2 under and also tied for the tourney lead with 30 total pars.

The Lady Toppers conclude their season at the Conference USA Championship on April 16-18 in Fort Myers, Fla.

HILLTOPPERS HEAD TO LIPSCOMB EVENT AFTER MONTH-LONG HIATUS

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — After a month off from competition, WKU Hilltopper Golf returns to the course this week at Lipscomb's Ryman Hospitality Intercollegiate.

The Hilltoppers will be one of 11 programs competing Monday and Tuesday at the par-71, 6,943-yard Richland Country Club in Nashville, Tenn.

Teams will play two rounds Monday beginning with an 8:30 a.m. shotgun start, followed by Tuesday's final round at 8 a.m. with tee times.

This is the first tournament for WKU since participating in Houston's Border Olympics from March 9-10.

"It's been nice to not have so many weeks in a row," junior Stuart Easton said. "It gives you more time to work on the game and look back at how we played in the first few events and what we have to do to get better. But at the same time, it's frustrating because I think a few of us have been playing quite well and just want to get out there in tournament mode."

One of those players who's been dialed in is redshirt junior Billy Tom Sargent, who won the Border Olympics for his third career title.

Sargent fired a 12-under 204 in that event, the best 54-hole score by a Hilltopper since Neil Horsley shot a 203 at the Renaissance Invitational on Nov. 3, 2009.

"My short game and putting is finally getting there," Sargent said. "I've been working on that for probably the last two years, really, getting it to where I need it to be. One thing I've learned about my game is to just stay patient. The birdies will come if you just keep the bad numbers off."

After Lipscomb's event, WKU departs quickly for Purdue's Boilermaker Intercollegiate on April 14-15. Then the Hilltoppers will head into the Conference USA Championship, which begins April 22 in Texarkana, Ark.

Sargent and Easton will be joined at the Ryman Hospitality Intercollegiate by redshirt sophomore Linus Lo, sophomore Tom Bevington and freshman Crimson Callahan.

Bevington, who's fought for his spot in qualifying several times this season, said this round of qualifying during the break from play came down to the last hole.

"I've been playing in qualifying a lot, and we've been really competitive to where it feels like you're playing a tournament – a really tough round every time that you play," Bevington said.

"It really pushes you competitively and gets you ready for tournaments when you have to compete for the team."

EASTON SHOOTS CAREER-LOW 67 WITH TOPS TIED FOR SECOND IN NASHVILLE

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — WKU's Stuart Easton shot a career-low 67 in Monday's second round of the Ryman Hospitality Intercollegiate, helping Hilltopper Golf finish the first day tied for second place as a team.

Easton — a junior from Irvine, Ayrshire, Scotland — is in fifth place individually with a two-round total of 141 at the par-71, 6-943-yard Richland Country Club.

He tallied six birdies with two bogeys in his second round for a 4-under 67, beating his previous low round of 69 last reached earlier this season. The 67 ties redshirt junior Billy Tom Sargent for the lowest round by a Hilltopper this season.

"Overall it was a good day for the team as a whole," Easton said. "There were some good scores, especially in the second round. I didn't have a great start to the first round, but in the second round, I was really solid. I stuck to my game plan, executed well, was calm when things got a little bit rough and took my chances when I had them."

Easton and redshirt sophomore teammate Linus Lo are both tied for second in the Lipscomb-hosted event with nine birdies apiece. WKU leads the field in total birdies (35) and par-4 scoring (+15).

The Hilltoppers are tied with Lipscomb for second in the 14-team field with a total of 580 (296-284), trailing only Conference USA foe Rice by nine strokes at 571.

WKU got rounds that counted toward the team score from all five competitors Monday, culminating with an even-par 284 in the second round.

"After having a month off between tournaments, it was good to go home and work on what we need to work on, and then have three more tournaments — almost like a second season within a season," WKU head coach Phillip Hatchett said. "Hopefully we're hitting our stride at the end of those three weeks where we can take it into conference and go."

Lo led WKU in the first round with a 2-under 69 and is tied for 12th at 144 (69-75). After starting with a 7-over 78, Sargent — who was adjusting to a brace after recently hyperextending his knee — rallied in the next round with an even-par 71 to tie him for 26th at 149.

After opening with an 80, sophomore Tom Bevington answered with an even-par 71 and is tied for 35th at 150, as is freshman Crimson Callahan (75-76).

Rice's Mitchell Meissner leads the individual standings at 136.

Tuesday's final round is scheduled to begin at 8 a.m. with tee times.

HILLTOPPERS TIE FOR FIFTH IN TIGHTLY CONTESTED LIPSCOMB TOURNAMENT

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — WKU Hilltopper Golf finished the Ryman Hospitality Intercollegiate with three players in the top 20 individually Tuesday, as the team tied for fifth in the Lipscomb-hosted event.

The Hilltoppers finished with an 876 (296-284-296) total, just two strokes out of third place. Rice won the team title at 860.

"Just past midway through the round, we were just three shots back of Rice after 11 holes," WKU head coach Phillip Hatchett said. "We let some shots slip away coming down the stretch, which is not like us at all. The course was still soft from all the rain and was receptive to shots coming in, but it was difficult to get the ball in the correct quadrant on the green because of so much spin on the ball. ... All in all, a good week and a step in the right direction with us playing ourselves close to the lead without our best stuff."

"We feel like we can simply play our game and be competitive in every tournament we play, and we're looking forward to the next opportunity to finish the next tournament stronger coming down the stretch."

Junior Stuart Easton led WKU with a sixth-place result and a 54-hole tally of 216 (74-67-75). It's his fourth top-10 performance of the season.

"We didn't have our best golf on the final day, but with nine holes left to play we were only a few shots off the lead which shows we can still compete even when we are not playing our best," Easton said. "For me, I am a little disappointed I did not have a better final day, but finishing top 10 with two average rounds highlights to me that my game is trending in the right direction. We're really looking forward to these next two weeks."

After struggling early with a knee injury, redshirt junior Billy Tom Sargent continued to get better each round, capped by Tuesday's 1-under 70. He tied for 12th at 219 (78-71-70), his seventh top-20 finish of the season.

"I thought the team made some big strides this week," Sargent said. "Everyone's score counted and everyone had some good moments during the tournament. We are all getting closer and closer to playing great at the same time, which will be dangerous when we do. We all really wanted to win this tournament and had a chance with about nine holes to play. There was a lot to learn for everyone this week, and I feel confident moving on. This team is getting close."

Redshirt sophomore Linus Lo also broke the top 20 in a tie for 17th at 221 (69-75-77), while sophomore Tom Bevington tied for 33rd at 225 (80-71-74). Freshman Crimson Callahan tied for 46th at 228 (75-76-77).

Rice's Mitchell Meissner and Lipscomb's Dawson Armstrong shared medalist honors with 208 totals.

The Hilltoppers head quickly into their final event of the regular season, Purdue's Boilermaker Intercollegiate, which takes place Saturday and Sunday in West Lafayette, Ind.

LADY TOPS' JOINER NAMED TO C-USA ALL-ACADEMIC TEAM

IRVING, Texas — WKU's Mary Joiner has been named one of five members of Conference USA's 2018 InTouch Credit Union Women's Golf All-Academic Team, the league announced Friday.

Joiner, a native of Franklin, Ky., is the Lady Toppers' first all-academic honoree since Ellinor Haag in 2016.

The sophomore currently has a 3.85 GPA and is majoring in finance.

Joiner leads WKU this season with a 73.8 stroke average and has seven top-20 finishes, five top-10s, four top-fives and two victories in 10 tournaments.

She has picked up the individual victory in two of her last three tournaments, giving her a program-record four wins in her career. She was also named C-USA Golfer of the Week three times in a five-week span this spring.

Joiner most recently took home the win at Eastern Kentucky's Colonel Classic with a playoff victory on March 31.

The Lady Toppers conclude their season at the Conference USA Championship on April 16-18 in Fort Myers, Fla.

HILLTOPPERS TO FACE TOUGH FIELD AT BOILERMAKER INVITATIONAL

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Golf will face stiff competition in its final regular-season tournament, teeing off in a strong field at Purdue's Boilermaker Invitational this weekend.

WKU will be one of 17 programs competing Saturday and Sunday at the par-72, 7,465-yard Kampen Golf Course in West Lafayette, Ind.

The tournament features nine teams ranked in the GolfStat Top 100, including six in the top 75 and three in the top 40.

The first two rounds will take place Saturday beginning at 8 a.m. CT with a shotgun start, with the final round to follow Sunday.

The Hilltoppers are in the midst of a busy stretch to wind down the season, having just tied for fifth as a team Tuesday at Lipscomb's Ryman Hospitality Intercollegiate in Nashville, Tenn.

WKU finished two strokes out of third place in the event and was within three shots of eventual team champion Rice through 11 holes on the final day.

Junior Stuart Easton led the Hilltoppers with a sixth-place finish, while redshirt junior Billy Tom Sargent and redshirt sophomore Linus Lo also placed in the top 20 individually.

Those three will be joined once again at Purdue by sophomore Tom Bevington and freshman Crimson Callahan.

This is the final event before WKU competes in the Conference USA Championship on April 22-25 in Texarkana, Ark.

Boilermaker Invitational first-day results attached.

SARGENT LEADS HILLTOPPERS ON FIRST DAY OF BOILERMAKER INVITATIONAL

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Billy Tom Sargent leads WKU Hilltopper Golf through two rounds at Purdue's Boilermaker Invitational, sitting in a tie for 20th with one round to go.

Sargent, a redshirt junior, shot a 2-under 70 in Saturday's second round at the par-72, 7,465-yard Kampen Golf Course. He shot a 76 in the opening round for a first-day total of 146.

Junior Stuart Easton is one shot back of Sargent at 147 (71-76), notching the Hilltoppers' other under-par round of the day.

WKU is in 15th place as a team with a 598 (301-297) total in a field that features nine teams ranked in the GolfStat Top 100. Kent State and Northwestern lead the standings at 579.

Redshirt sophomore Linus Lo is tied for 52nd for the Hilltoppers with a two-round total of 150 (77-73). Freshman Crimson Callahan (77-78) and sophomore Tom Bevington (78-81) shot a 155 and 159, respectively.

The final round is scheduled to begin at 8:30 a.m. CT Sunday with a shotgun start.

LADY TOPS BRING MOMENTUM INTO 2018 C-USA CHAMPIONSHIP

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Lady Topper Golf has finished in the top five as a team in seven of 10 events this season, including six straight going back to the fall. The Lady Toppers hope to carry that momentum onto the big stage this week at the Conference USA Championship in Fort Myers, Fla.

"I think as a team, we're capable of finishing really high," senior Georgina Blackman said. "I think we stand a good chance of having our best finish at conference. Individually, I just want to do as best I can. I love that tournament and love the course, so I just want to have a good finish."

Twelve teams will be vying for the championship Monday through Wednesday at the par-72, 6,194-yard Verandah Club. The first round is scheduled to begin at 7 a.m. CT Monday with tee times.

The Lady Toppers are familiar with the course, including last season's sixth-place team finish following a three-round total of 906, the second-best conference championship score in program history. Two seasons ago, WKU finished fourth on the course for its best conference tourney result since 1997.

"It's definitely the longest course we play all year," sophomore Mary Joiner said. "It's a tough course, but it's not overly tough. I feel like if you're hitting the ball well, you can score. It's just really all about the short game on that course."

WKU has finished in the top eight in the C-USA championship in each of head coach Adam Gary's first four seasons at the helm after finishing 10th or 11th in the Sun Belt Conference in each of the five prior seasons.

The Lady Toppers' team totals the last three seasons at the conference championship are the three best in program history by 30-plus strokes.

Since the final tournament of the fall in October, WKU has finished second, fifth twice in a row, first, fourth and third in its last six events.

"I'm so lucky that I have a great group," Gary said. "They really get along well. They push each other, they're happy for each other, they hang out with each other off the golf course. No matter what it is, they really have a good camaraderie together, and I think that's shown on the golf course when they compete."

Blackman, Joiner, senior Katie Story, sophomore Bailey Tyree and freshman Megan Clarke will represent the Lady Toppers in the championship.

Blackman led WKU at last year's conference championship in a tie for seventh. It was the best conference tournament finish by a Lady Topper since 2000, and her 4-over 220 set a program record for lowest total score in a conference championship by an individual.

Blackman has been the team's top finisher six times this season with seven top-20 results and four top-five finishes, while Joiner has logged two victories — giving her a program-record four for her career.

However, WKU also has six top-20 performances from Story. Tyree has finished in the top 10 twice, including last time out at the ECU Colonel Classic, and Clarke has competed in every event this season as a freshman.

"Going into conference, you never know if you're going to have a good round or a bad round, so you need all those people to be able to step up and have your back if you need it," Story said.

The winning team at the C-USA Championship earns the league's automatic bid to the 2018 NCAA Women's Golf Championship Regionals.

TOPS' FINAL ROUND CANCELED AT BOILERMAKER INVITATIONAL

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Sunday's final round of Purdue's Boilermaker Invitational was canceled due to steady rainfall overnight and unplayable course conditions.

WKU Hilltopper Golf finishes in 15th place in the shortened event with a two-round total of 598 (301-297). There were nine teams ranked in the GolfStat Top 100 competing in the event.

Redshirt junior Billy Tom Sargent led WKU with a total of 147 (76-70), tying for 20th at the par-72, 7,465-yard Kampen Golf Course.

The Hilltoppers will next compete in the Conference USA Championship, which takes place April 22-25 in Texarkana, Ark.

BLACKMAN SHOOTS RECORD-LOW 69 TO LEAD AFTER FIRST DAY AT C-USA CHAMPIONSHIP

FORT MYERS, Fla. — WKU senior golfer Georgina Blackman used the lowest conference tourney round in program history to take sole possession of first place through one round at the Conference USA Championship, while the Lady Toppers are tied for fifth in the team standings after Monday's opening day.

Blackman, an Essex, England, native, shot a season-low, 3-under 69 to open play at the par-72, 6,194-yard Verandah Club.

That was the lowest 18-hole conference championship score in program history for WKU, beating Ellinor Haag's second-round 70 in 2016. Blackman is one stroke ahead of UTSA's Ana Gonzalez with two rounds to play.

Blackman opened her round at 3 under through six holes. After a rough start to the back nine, she finished strong with birdies on her final two holes. Her six birdies in the opening round were two more than anyone else in the field.

WKU is tied with Marshall for fifth as a team with a first-round total of 302. UTSA leads the way at 294.

Lady Topper sophomore Mary Joiner is tied for 12th following a 3-over 75 in the opening round, while freshman Megan Clarke is tied for 20th at 76.

Sophomore Bailey Tyree and senior Katie Story opened with an 82 and 83, respectively.

The second round will get underway Tuesday morning in Florida, with the final round to follow Wednesday.

CLARKE COMEBACK LEADS LADY TOPPERS IN DAY TWO OF C-USA CHAMPIONSHIP

FORT MYERS, Fla. – WKU freshman Megan Clarke led the way for the Lady Toppers in Tuesday's second round of the Conference USA Championship, while senior Georgina Blackman continued her success on the course. Blackman and Clarke stand tied for third and sixth, respectively, through day two while the Lady Toppers are sixth in the team standings.

The Heckmondwike, England, native Clarke tied her season low of 71 at the par-72, 6,194-yard Verandah Club. Clarke last earned that mark at the season opening USA Intercollegiate in September. The freshman was the most improved Lady Topper from the first to second rounds having lowered her score by five strokes. She notched five birdies throughout the day.

Blackman started off with a tough front nine but was able to stay toward the top of the leaderboard after shooting 2 under in her last eight holes, finishing with a score of 76 for the day. She is just two strokes back from the leader with only one more round to play.

Both Clarke and Blackman are in contention for WKU's top finish since Crystal Anglea finished fifth at the 2000 Sun Belt Conference Championship. They are also each in the top five for birdies made thus far in the tournament with Blackman notching eight and Clarke sinking seven.

As a team, WKU is sixth with a second-round score of 303 and a two-day total of 605. UTSA leads the pack with a score of 586. The Lady Toppers are second in team pars with 108, just behind Old Dominion with 112.

Sophomore Mary Joiner repeated her 3-over score from the opening round, shooting 75 in day two. The Kentucky native sits tied for 12th place.

Lady Topper senior Katie Story and sophomore Bailey Tyree finished the day shooting 81 and 82, respectively.

The final round of the C-USA Championship will begin Wednesday morning.

BLACKMAN FINISHES CAREER WITH BEST CONFERENCE RESULT BY LADY TOPPER IN 20 YEARS

FORT MYERS, Fla. — WKU senior golfer Georgina Blackman turned in the highest conference finish by a Lady Topper in 20 seasons on Wednesday, finishing fourth at the Conference USA Championship with a record-low score.

Blackman shot a 2-over 74 in Wednesday's final round for a 3-over, three-day total of 219, the lowest conference tournament score by an individual in program history. The senior broke her own record of 220 from last year in her senior send-off at the par-72, 6,194-yard Verandah Club.

Blackman's fourth-place finish is the best in a conference tournament by a Lady Topper since Beth Blevins tied for second in the 1998 Sun Belt Conference Tournament. Blackman was named to the all-tournament team for her efforts.

"Before the tournament I said that I wanted to get a top-five finish, so to finish in fourth place was really good for me," Blackman said. "I love the course so I knew going into the tournament that I had a good chance of playing well. I played really solidly all week and it was nice to get the putter going in the first round. Overall, I'm really pleased with my performance and happy to finish my senior year and college golf with my best result at conference."

Blackman tied for seventh at last year's C-USA Championship. The Lady Toppers have had an individual finish in the top 10 in their conference tournament in each of the last three seasons after previously not doing so since 2007. The Essex, England, native Blackman finished in the top 20 in 32 of 43 tournaments across her career, including 8 of 10 this season. She had five top-five results this season and 14 in her career.

WKU finished seventh as a team with a total of 908 (302-303-303). UTSA won the team title with an 874 finish.

Lady Topper freshman Megan Clarke registered the best result of her young career in her first conference tournament, tying for 11th with a total of 223 (76-71-76).

Sophomore Mary Joiner also finished in the top 20, tying for 17th at 224 (75-75-74).

Sophomore Bailey Tyree (82-82-79) and senior Katie Story (83-81-79) each finished at 243.

The Lady Toppers finished the season with seven top-five team performances in 11 events, including six straight – and the first five of the spring – leading into the C-USA championship.

WKU also won the title at its own Spring Break Shootout in March. That was the program's fifth team championship in head coach Adam Gary's four seasons at the helm. Gary's five titles are the second-most for a Lady Topper coach, and he's the second coach in program history to win a tournament in each of his/her first four seasons with the reins.

Individually, the Lady Toppers tallied 29 top-20 finishes this year, as well as 17 top-10s and two individual victories by Joiner.

"I'm very proud of Georgina ending her career by making the all-tournament team," Gary said. "The team had a great season and broke a lot of scoring records, including what I believe is the lowest team stroke average in program history. Mary also had one of the best seasons in school history. I'm even more proud of the work they've done the classroom. They've been working hard to get it done on the course and in the classroom."

TOPS PREPARE FOR TEST AT TEXARKANA IN C-USA CHAMPIONSHIP

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The members of WKU Hilltopper Golf representing the program this week at the Conference USA Championship know that precision will be key.

"The course is not easy," junior Stuart Easton said. "It's demanding for your second shot, and it's tricky if you miss the greens in some bad shots. We've been making sure to work on our iron play and as always keep our short game sharp. Chipping and putting around the greens is so important for this golf course."

Easton and the rest of the Hilltoppers will take on the C-USA field this week at the par-72, 6,969-yard Texarkana Country Club in Texarkana, Ark.

The tournament begins at 8 a.m. CT Sunday with the first of three days of stroke play. The final four teams advance to match play on Wednesday to determine the team champion.

The winning team earns the league's automatic bid to the 2018 NCAA Men's Golf Championship Regionals.

"We have some very good teams in our conference, but we are a very good team as well," WKU head coach Phillip Hatchett said. "Our aim is to relax and let all our hard work pay off on the course. When we simply play our game, I believe we can compete with anyone in the conference. Our first goal is to make the four-team match play, then take it one match at a time. We are poised to play some really good golf and we look forward to the opportunity and challenge."

WKU finished 10th as a team in last year's C-USA Championship at Texarkana, led by now-redshirt junior Billy Tom Sargent.

Sargent tied for 12th in the 2017 tournament, which was the highest individual conference finish by a Hilltopper since 2010. His three-round total of 221 was WKU's best individual conference score since 2014, and he led the tournament with 40 total pars.

Sargent has finished in the top 20 on seven occasions this season, including five top-10s, three top-fives and one victory. Easton also has three top-five results.

Easton and Sargent will be joined in competition this week by redshirt sophomore Linus Lo, sophomore Tom Bevington and freshman Crimson Callahan.

"I think we all feel pretty good going into the tournament," Sargent said. "We're playing good. We did a lot of hard practice working on our short game, putting – all the things we need for Texarkana. Texarkana isn't too long a course. It's a positioning course off the tee. The greens are a little difficult, so we have to make sure we leave ourselves on the right side of the pins and don't miss on the wrong side of the greens. We've got three rounds to get in that top four for match play, and I think if we can get to match play, anything can happen."

SARGENT PACES TOPS IN FIRST ROUND OF CONFERENCE USA CHAMPIONSHIP

TEXARKANA, Ark. — Billy Tom Sargent leads WKU Hilltopper Golf in a tie for 18th after the first day of the 2018 Conference USA Championship.

Sargent, a redshirt junior, shot a 3-over 75 to open play at the par-72, 6,969-yard Texarkana Country Club.

The Hilltoppers are in 10th place as a team with a 304 total, but just eight strokes out of second place following an expected day of difficult pin placements.

"Shooting 304 was not the plan we had for the first round," WKU head coach Phillip Hatchett said.

"We knew the course would be set up strong, and we were not let down. There are just so many pins you cannot even hit toward, but you have to play away from in order to give yourself a chance for a decent birdie putt. The greens are difficult, fair, but awesome at the same time. You just have to maintain your discipline and hit it to the quadrant you know you must hit it toward to have the best opportunity for birdies."

Junior Stuart Easton and redshirt sophomore Linus Lo are both tied for 29th following opening-round 76s.

Freshman Crimson Callahan and sophomore Tom Bevington provided the final counting score for WKU with 77s apiece, tying them for 37th.

Callahan in particular battled back from a 6-over start on the back nine, playing the front at 1 under with birdies on two of his final three holes.

Play is scheduled to resume at 8 a.m. CT Monday in the second round.

"When you have three excellent players who are leading your team shoot rounds of 75 and higher, it is going to be tough to score like you would like," Hatchett said. "But everyone fought hard today and left it all out on the course. Not playing anywhere near our best and only being eight shots out of second place lets us know we are not out of the tournament by a long shot. We know what we need to do so all we have to do is execute tomorrow, and we can play ourselves back into this tournament."

EASTON, SARGENT SHOOT PAIR OF 74S ON SECOND DAY OF C-USA CHAMPIONSHIP

TEXARKANA, Ark. — WKU golfers Billy Tom Sargent and Stuart Easton each shot a 2-over 74 in Monday's second round of the 2018 Conference USA Championship, the best rounds in the event by a Hilltopper thus far.

The redshirt junior Sargent, who led WKU in the first round, is tied for 22nd individually with a two-round total of 149 (75-74) at the par-72, 6,969-yard Texarkana Country Club.

"The course has played pretty tough," Sargent said. "The greens have firmed up quite a bit, even though we had quite a bit of rain after the practice round. Pin locations have been really tricky. It's been tough leaving yourself on the right sides of the holes where you need to putt from, lot of false fronts. As a team, I think we're playing solid – just a few mistakes here and there."

The junior Easton also helped his cause Monday, moving up into a tie for 27th with a two-round total of 150 (76-74).

Their efforts helped WKU improve by four strokes in the second round. The Hilltoppers remain in 10th with a two-round team total of 604 (304-300).

Middle Tennessee leads the standings at 582.

"Overall, it was a good day for the team as a whole," Easton said. "I didn't have a great start to the first round, and I thought it should have been a lot better. But in the second round, I was really solid. ... I took my time and took my chances when I had them. There are always a few putts that you can take advantage of that don't fall, but overall it was a good day. I have one three-putt through 36 holes, which for that golf course is very good."

Redshirt sophomore Linus Lo (76-76-152) and sophomore Tom Bevington (77-76-153) are tied for 40th and 46th, respectively. Freshman Crimson Callahan is tied for 57th at 159 (77-82).

Teams will play the final round of stroke play Tuesday. The top four teams will then advance to match play Wednesday to determine the conference champion.

"Tomorrow we just need to grind it out," Sargent said. "We need to make a bunch of birdies and see what we can do – see if we can get in the match play."

HILLTOPPERS CONCLUDE SEASON WITH BEST CONFERENCE TOURNEY ROUND SINCE 2008

TEXARKANA, Ark. — Four WKU golfers fired their best round of the 2018 Conference USA Championship on Tuesday, completing the day with a 2-over 290 team total.

The Hilltoppers improved by 10 strokes from their second round and finished ninth as a team with an 894 (304-300-290) tally. The top four teams will decide the team champion in match play.

WKU's final-round 290 was its best team score in a conference tournament since 2008.

"I am happy for the guys to have a solid last round," WKU head coach Phillip Hatchett said. "It shows that we can play this course as well as anyone. With conference back here next year, it does a lot for our confidence moving into the next season's preparation for the C-USA Championship.

"Everybody played solid today on a day when the pins were tucked in some very difficult spots on the greens. Everybody kept a level head and fought hard all day. I am really proud of the gritty performance."

Individually, redshirt junior Billy Tom Sargent continued to find his groove and ended the tournament with a 2-under 70. He tied for 11th overall with a 219 (75-74-70) total.

Just as he did last year, when he tied for 12th in the C-USA Championship, Sargent's 11th-place finish is the best by a Hilltopper in a conference tournament since 2010. Alex Yost tied for sixth in that year's Sun Belt Conference Championship.

"Today was a perfect day for golf with perfect weather, and I just wanted to go out there and give it all I had," Sargent said. "We were a little too far from the top four to be in contention to get into match play, so that wasn't really on my mind. I just wanted to have a good start and keep the momentum going. ... I am extremely proud of how the team finished today with the second-lowest score of the day. Everyone played pretty solid and really fought back for a respectable finish on a tough course."

Sargent notched five birdies in Tuesday's final round of stroke play, including two of his first three holes and two of his last three holes.

His 219 score is the best by a WKU golfer in a conference tournament since Cameron Beal also shot 219 at the 2014 Sun Belt tournament.

"I am really happy for Billy Tom finishing with a 70 and an 11th-place overall performance,"

Hatchett said. "The last three tournaments have been a grind for him playing with a knee brace on and enduring a lot of pain. As usual, he never complained but toughed it out with a super solid round today when he needed it."

Junior Stuart Easton followed Sargent in a tie for 21st, shooting an even-par 72 on Tuesday to finish with a 222 total.

Redshirt sophomore Linus Lo and sophomore Tom Bevington each shot 2-over 74s in the round – their best efforts of the tournament – and tied for 31st and 36th, respectively.

Freshman Crimson Callahan placed 58th at 238.

WKU recorded five top-five performances as a team this season with two 6-under outings that produced 858 totals.

The program also had 21 top-25 individual results, 11 top-10s and six top-fives, including a win by Sargent at the Border Olympics.

The Hilltoppers will return their entire competing five from this year's C-USA Championship next season and graduate one senior, Bryant Evans.

"Going into the offseason, this really gives us an indication of what exactly we need to work on," Hatchett said. "Works starts very soon, and I know these guys are looking forward to it."

JOINER, BLACKMAN RECEIVE ALL-CONFERENCE USA ACCOLADES

IRVING, Texas — For the third time in four seasons, WKU has placed multiple Lady Topper golfers on the All-Conference USA Teams.

Sophomore Mary Joiner was named to the All-C-USA First Team on Friday, while senior Georgina Blackman received her program-record fourth all-conference selection when she was named to the Second Team.

"I'm very proud to have two players selected to the all-conference team," WKU head coach Adam Gary said. "It's a great way to cap off a successful year, especially Georgina being selected all four years to set a school record. We will miss her greatly next year, but we're lucky to have a returning all-conference member with Mary."

In Gary's four seasons at the helm, the Lady Toppers have had multiple All-C-USA selections three times.

They're also the only C-USA school with a different first-team selection each of the last three years: Joiner this season, Blackman in 2017 and Ellinor Haag in 2016.

Joiner, a Franklin, Ky., native, competed in all 11 events for the Lady Toppers this season and led the team with a stroke average of 73.9. This is her first all-conference selection.

She finished the season with nine top-25 performances, five top-10s and four top-5s, including individual victories at the Spring Break Shootout and the ECU Colonel Classic. That gave her a program-record four career wins in just two college seasons.

Joiner was named C-USA Golfer of the Week three times during a five-week span this spring. She was also named to the C-USA All-Academic Team.

Blackman becomes the first Lady Topper to ever receive all-conference honors in each of her four seasons on The Hill. She and Haag were previously the only WKU women's golfers to even receive three all-league accolades.

In addition to her second-team honor this season and her first-team selection last year, Blackman was also named to the All-C-USA Third Team as a sophomore and freshman.

In her final season, Blackman was WKU's top finisher in 7 of 10 events. She finished the year with a stroke average of 74.3.

The Essex, England, native recorded eight top-20 results, as well as six top-10s and five top-5s. She finished fourth in the 2018 C-USA Championship, the best result by a Lady Topper in 20 years, and she broke her own program record with a three-round total of 219 in the conference tournament. Blackman was named to the C-USA All-Tournament Team.

SARGENT EARNS HILLTOPPERS' FIRST NCAA REGIONAL BERTH SINCE 2008

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU men's golfer Billy Tom Sargent was selected Wednesday to compete in the NCAA Regionals as an individual, making him the first Hilltopper to participate in the NAAs in 10 seasons. Sargent, a redshirt junior from Georgetown, Ky., was one of five individuals selected to compete in the Kissimmee (Fla.) Regional, hosted by Central Florida. Play will take place May 14-16 at the Reunion Resort Watson Course.

"I'm really excited to be selected to participate in the NCAA Regionals, and going to Florida will be a lot of fun," Sargent said. "I've played that course before, so I was hoping that I would be selected to go there. It's a relief to finally if and where I get to go. I started to get nervous when I didn't see my name called after four regions, then finally saw my name. It was a big relief, and I'm really excited to play."

The last Hilltopper to participate in the NCAA Regionals was Brent Long, who competed as an individual in 2008.

"I am so happy for Billy Tom Sargent to be included in the NCAA Regional field at Reunion Resort in Kissimmee," WKU head coach Phillip Hatchett said. "He has played so solid this whole fall and spring season with three top-five finishes and five top-10 finishes throughout the season. Then he proved himself with a great individual win at the Border Olympics with some highly ranked teams. He is building himself into a world-class player who just gets how to play the game, and I am very happy the NCAA selection committee included such a talented WKU player into the mix."

Earlier Wednesday, Sargent was named to the All-Conference USA Second Team, making him the first Hilltopper to receive all-league honors since Alex Yost was named to the All-Sun Belt Conference Team in 2010.

Sargent was the team's top finisher at seven events in the 2017-18 campaign, recording nine top-20s, five top-10s, three top-fives and one victory at the Border Olympics in March. He finished the season with a team-best stroke average of 72.5.

The individual win at the Border Olympics was the third of Sargent's career. He shot a career-low, 12-under 204 to claim victory, the lowest 54-hole score by a Hilltopper since 2009. He was named C-USA Golfer of the Week as a result.

Two weeks before that, Sargent shot a 10-under 206 at the Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate to place third. It was part of a stretch in which he carded six scores of 69 or lower in nine opportunities.

Despite battling a knee injury over the final three tournaments of the season, Sargent tied for 11th at the 2018 Conference USA Championship, the best conference tournament result by a Hilltopper since 2010. His 219 total was also the program's best since 2014.

"With three tournaments to go in our season, Billy Tom was ranked 150 as an individual on GolfStat, easily in the regionals," Hatchett said. "Then he injured his knee falling off a hill hitting a shot and hyper-extended it. He battled so hard the next three events playing with a big knee brace on, not playing up to his high standards, and fell to 200 in the rankings. I am so glad that the selection team got it right. He is well deserving and will do great things in Kissimmee. I am looking forward seeing what he can do against the players in that region."

SARGENT NAMED TOPS' FIRST ALL-CONFERENCE SELECTION SINCE 2010

IRVING, Texas — WKU men's golfer Billy Tom Sargent became the program's first all-conference selection in nearly a decade Wednesday, as the redshirt junior was named to the All-Conference USA Second Team.

Sargent is the first Hilltopper to receive all-league honors since Alex Yost was named to the All-Sun Belt Conference Team in 2010.

The Georgetown, Ky., native was the team's top finisher at seven events in the 2017-18 campaign, recording nine top-20s, five top-10s, three top-fives and one victory at the Border Olympics in March. He finished the season with a team-best stroke average of 72.5.

Two weeks before that, Sargent shot a 10-under 206 at the Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate to place third. It was part of a stretch in which he carded six scores of 69 or lower in nine opportunities.

Despite battling a knee injury over the final three tournaments of the season, Sargent tied for 11th at the 2018 Conference USA Championship, the best conference tournament result by a Hilltopper since 2010. His 219 total was also the program's best since 2014.

This is the first time since 2000 that the Hilltopper and Lady Topper Golf programs have each featured all-conference players in the same season.

SARGENT SET TO COMPETE THIS WEEK IN NCAA REGIONAL

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — Billy Tom Sargent is set this week to become one of a handful of WKU golfers to ever compete in a NCAA Regional.

And although he's carrying the Hilltopper banner in a bigger way, it's simply another opportunity for the redshirt junior to prove himself.

"I've never really been on a stage like Regionals," Sargent said. "I've played in some big amateur tournaments, but Regionals, that's about as big as it gets other than the NCAA Tournament. I just want to learn, have fun and enjoy my time there."

Sargent, a Georgetown, Ky., native, will compete Monday through Wednesday in the Kissimmee (Fla.) Regional, hosted by Central Florida at the Reunion Resort Watson Course. He's just the second Hilltopper ever selected to compete in a NCAA Regional as an individual, following Brent Long in 2008.

WKU's only other NCAA appearance in men's golf came as a team in 2006 after the program won the Sun Belt Conference championship.

"It's one of my lifelong dreams," Sargent said. "I've always wanted to make the NCAA Tournament, and making it to Regional is just one step closer. Going as an individual is nice. I wish the team could've gone, but I've got one more year with the team, so hopefully next year we go as a team."

Sargent was named to the All-Conference USA Second Team this season, making him the first Hilltopper to receive all-league honors since Alex Yost was named to the All-Sun Belt Conference Team in 2010.

Sargent was the team's top finisher at seven events in the 2017-18 campaign, recording nine top-20s, five top-10s, three top-fives and one victory at the Border Olympics in March.

He finished the season with a team-best stroke average of 72.5, which ranks as the program's third-best individual season average since 1980.

The individual win at the Border Olympics was the third of Sargent's career. He shot a career-low, 12-under 204 to claim victory, the lowest 54-hole score by a Hilltopper since 2009. He's one of just six Hilltopper golfers since 1980 to win at least three career tournaments.

"It's nice to see a player who works as hard as he does to get the results and get to play in a tournament that he's been looking forward to and driving toward all year long," WKU head coach Phillip Hatchett said. "To see the way that he's bloomed and blossomed over the last three or four years of being here, it's a testament to the work these guys have put in."

Two weeks before the win at the Border Olympics, Sargent shot a 10-under 206 at the Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate to place third. It was part of a stretch in which he carded six scores of 69 or lower in nine opportunities.

He suffered a hyperextended knee in practice after that but continued to grind, starting with walking about 20 miles over 36 holes in his first outing in a knee brace at the Ryman Hospitality Intercollegiate.

Sargent kept up the fight through the injury and tied for 11th at the 2018 Conference USA Championship, the best conference tournament result by a Hilltopper since 2010. His 219 total was also the program's best since 2014.

His only familiarity with the Reunion Resort Watson Course where he'll participate this week came from playing the course when he was about 12 years old, although he said he has plenty of experience competing in Florida and knows what to expect.

And Hatchett knows what he expects from the standout Hilltopper.

"Mainly I want to see the confidence that if he plays his game, he can compete with anybody," Hatchett said. "Everyone wants to play against the best, and a lot of times the only thing that holds you back is you just haven't done it very often. You don't really have the confidence or know for sure if you can, and when you press and get out of your game plan, that's when you get in trouble. It's just understanding his game is good enough to compete."

First-round results from the NCAA Kissimmee Regional are attached.

SARGENT COMPLETES FIRST ROUND AT NCAA REGIONAL IN KISSIMMEE

KISSIMMEE, Fla. — After a challenging start at the NCAA Kissimmee (Fla.) Regional, WKU golfer Billy Tom Sargent settled in nicely over the final 13 holes of his opening round.

The redshirt junior played at 1 over par across his last 13 holes after starting 5 over through the first five. He finished the day tied for 68th with a 6-over 78 in the first round at the par-72, 7,154-yard Reunion Resort Watson Course.

Sargent, a Georgetown, Ky., native, got a later start than expected to his round with an hour-plus rain delay in the morning, then found himself 5 over through five holes following a triple bogey on No. 2 and two other bogeys.

But he hit his stride from that point forward, recording two birdies with three bogeys across the rest of the day. He carded a 1-over 37 on the back nine.

Sargent is just the second WKU individual to ever compete in a NCAA Regional and the first since Brent Long in 2008. The Hilltoppers' only other NCAA appearance came as a team in 2006.

Sargent, a second-team All-Conference USA selection, is scheduled to tee off at 8:31 a.m. CT Tuesday in the second round.

Second-round results from the NCAA Kissimmee Regional are attached.

SARGENT IMPROVES BY FIVE STROKES IN SECOND ROUND OF KISSIMMEE REGIONAL

KISSIMMEE, Fla. — WKU's Billy Tom Sargent improved by five strokes in Tuesday's second round at the NCAA Kissimmee (Fla.) Regional, firing a 1-over 73 at the Reunion Resort Watson Course.

Sargent, a redshirt junior from Georgetown, Ky., is tied for 65th place with a two-day total of 151 (78-73). He'll tee off in the final round Wednesday morning.

"Today I started solid with a couple of pars and then had a couple of three-putts for bogey that set me back," Sargent said. "I hit the ball well all day, but my putting was terrible. I couldn't figure out the speeds of the greens and the grain was difficult to judge. Overall it was a battle today, and I know what I need to do for tomorrow's round."

Sargent tallied three birdies against four bogeys Tuesday and finished with a 1-under 35 on the back nine. He's played the back nine at even par across the first two rounds.

His second-round 73 ties for the sixth-best, single-round score carded by a Hilltopper in a NCAA Regional, and his 151 total over 36 holes is tied for the fourth-best for a WKU participant.

Tuesday's 73 also tied for the best round of the day among the players competing as individuals in the event.

"BT played very solid from tee to green today but did not have his best putting round," WKU head coach Phillip Hatchett said. "His 1-over 73 finish moved him up three spots but is still not indicative of how he hit the ball. He gave himself some good looks from 10-20 feet but only made a couple. A player who makes a couple early in the round gets the momentum of the round going. Those couple just never fell for him today despite hitting good putts.

"As frustrating as the last two rounds have been for him, his attitude and mannerisms have been totally professional. Looking forward to tomorrow, his last round is typically his best round averaging around 69. Tomorrow is a brand new day, and I wouldn't be surprised to see him take it deep to finish off the season."

SARGENT CONCLUDES TOPS' FIRST NCAA REGIONAL TRIP IN A DECADE

KISSIMMEE, Fla. — WKU golfer Billy Tom Sargent wrapped up a standout season Wednesday with a final-round 76 in the NCAA Kissimmee (Fla.) Regional.

Sargent finished tied for 70th with a three-day, 11-over tally of 227 (78-73-76) at the par-72, 7,154-yard Reunion Resort Watson Course.

In Wednesday's final round, Sargent continued his strong play on the back nine with a birdie on No. 18 to begin the shotgun start. The redshirt junior played the back nine at a combined even par across the three days.

Sargent, a Georgetown, Ky., native, is just the second Hilltopper to ever compete in a NCAA Regional as an individual, and the first since Brent Long in 2008. WKU's only other NCAA appearance came as a team in 2006.

"Today was a rough day as well," Sargent said. "The whole experience was a great learning experience, and it was much-needed. I learned a lot this week that will help me moving forward this summer and next year. I learned a lot of things I need to work on that will help me in the long run. Regionals was a great experience, and I hope to be back next year."

It was the final chapter in a stellar season that earned Sargent a spot on the All-Conference USA Second Team, the first all-league honors for a Hilltopper since 2010.

He was the team's top finisher at seven events, recording nine top-20s, five top-10s, three top-fives and one victory at the Border Olympics – his third career individual win.

He also finished tied for 11th at the 2018 Conference USA Championship, the best conference tournament result by a Hilltopper since 2010.

"The best players in the world have the shortest memories," WKU head coach Phillip Hatchett said. "This one will sting for BT for a while, but the longer you dwell on a poor performance, the longer it will drag you down. BT is a very positive person with a winner's mentality. He will reflect on this tournament and pull all the positives he can from the experience and move on. One tournament never defines a player.

"I am so proud of his accomplishments this year. To think he has one more year as a Hilltopper means he has another year to redeem himself in the NCAA competition and to help us as a team reach our lofty goals. All experiences in this game are valuable – you just have to dig deep into it to pull it out. He is a fighter and a winner. I am proud to have him back on The Hill for another year to continue where he left off."

SARGENT NAMED TO DIVISION I PING ALL-REGION TEAM

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU golfer Billy Tom Sargent has been named to the Division I PING All-Region Midwest Team, as announced Saturday by the Golf Coaches Association of America. Sargent, a redshirt junior from Georgetown, Ky., was one of 25 players selected to receive the honor in the Midwest Region. Six regions were honored overall.

Sargent had a breakthrough season for WKU, becoming just the second Hilltopper ever selected to participate in a NCAA Regional as an individual, and the first since 2008.

He was also named to the All-Conference USA Second Team, making him the first Hilltopper to receive all-league honors since 2010.

Sargent was the team's top finisher at seven events in the 2017-18 campaign, recording nine top-20s, five top-10s, three top-fives and one victory at the Border Olympics – his third career individual win.

He also finished tied for 11th at the 2018 Conference USA Championship, the best conference tournament result by a Hilltopper since 2010.

JOINER NAMED RECIPIENT OF C-USA SPRING SPIRIT OF SERVICE AWARD

IRVING, Texas — WKU women's golf sophomore Mary Joiner has been named one of 14 recipients of the C-USA Spring Spirit of Service Award, as announced by the Conference USA office on Wednesday.

The C-USA Spirit of Service Award is designed to recognize the community service efforts of the league's student-athletes, based upon significant public service, good academic standing and participation in their elected sport. The award is presented three times throughout the season, with Wednesday's honorees representing spring sports: baseball, golf, softball, tennis, and outdoor track and field.

Joiner, a Franklin, Ky., native, competed in all 11 events for the Lady Toppers as a sophomore and led the team with a stroke average of 73.9, the best single-season average in program history. She was named to the All-Conference USA First Team and was picked as C-USA Golfer of the Week three times in a five-week span in the spring.

Joiner finished the season with nine top-25 performances, five top-10s and four top-fives, including individual victories at the Spring Break Shootout and the ECU Colonel Classic. She now has a program-record four individual wins in just two college seasons and has recorded five of the top seven 54-hole scores in program history.

She was also honored by the conference for her achievements in the classroom as a member of the C-USA All-Academic Team for women's golf. Joiner was one of 41 WKU student-athletes named to the C-USA Commissioner's Academic Medalist list and was previously named to the C-USA Commissioner's Honor Roll. She has a cumulative GPA of 3.88 and is majoring in finance. Joiner is a member of WKU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and also participates in community service initiatives throughout the year as part of the "Hilltoppers with Heart" program. This season, Joiner participated in National Girls and Women in Sports Day and in Dance Big Red, a 12-hour fundraiser to support Norton's Children's Hospital.

FOUR LADY TOPPERS NAMED WGCA ALL-AMERICAN SCHOLARS

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — Four members of the WKU Lady Topper Golf team were honored for their academic achievement Tuesday as Women's Golf Coaches Association All-American Scholars.

WKU's Georgina Blackman, Megan Clarke, Mary Joiner and Katie Story were all honored by the WGCA, which requires that honorees meet a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.50 and compete in at least 50 percent of the school's regularly scheduled competitive rounds.

Blackman, an outgoing senior from Essex, England, graduated this spring with a 3.52 overall GPA while majoring in corporate and organizational communication and a minor in sales. She became the first Lady Topper to ever receive all-conference honors in each of her four seasons on The Hill. In addition to her second-team honor this season and her first-team selection last year, Blackman was also named to the All-C-USA Third Team as a sophomore and freshman.

Clarke, a rising sophomore from Heckmondwike, England, finished her freshman season with a 3.90 GPA while seeking a major in psychology.

Clarke competed in all 11 events for WKU in her debut season and recorded her best finish with a tie for 11th at the Conference USA Championships.

Joiner, a rising junior from Franklin, Ky., boasts a 3.88 GPA while majoring in finance. She was named to the C-USA All-Academic Team this season and is also a member of WKU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

Joiner competed in all 11 events for the Lady Toppers as a sophomore and led the team with a stroke average of 73.9, the best single-season average in program history. She was named to the All-Conference USA First Team and was picked as C-USA Golfer of the Week three times in a five-week span in the spring. Her season included two individual victories, and she now has a program-record four individual wins in just two college seasons.

Story, an outgoing senior from Dickson, Tenn., graduated this spring with a 3.56 GPA while majoring in exercise science.

She competed in all 11 tournaments for the Lady Toppers as a senior, recording six top-20 showings and two top-five performances.

CHAN METTS NAMED NEW HEAD COACH OF HILLTOPPER GOLF PROGRAM

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Todd Stewart announced Monday the hiring of Chan Metts as the next head coach of the WKU Hilltopper Golf program.

Metts comes to The Hill following two highly successful seasons as an assistant coach at Georgia Southern, during which he was heavily involved in tournaments, travel, recruiting, practices, schedules and workouts.

The 34-year-old Dublin, Ga., native takes over for former WKU coach Phillip Hatchett, who passed away in June. Hatchett had led the Hilltopper program since 2010.

"When we initiated our search, it was imperative we find someone to carry on the outstanding legacy of Phillip Hatchett," Stewart said. "This required hiring an individual that was an excellent coach and mentor to players as well as having a proven record of professional development on and off the golf course. We have found that person in Chan Metts. Chan met all of our criteria and his unique and successful experiences within the sport of golf and beyond have positioned him well for this opportunity. I commend Associate Athletics Director Jim Clark, our Men's Golf Sport Administrator, for his exemplary efforts in organizing and spearheading a detailed and thorough search. Numerous candidates were vetted, and we felt Chan was the perfect individual to lead us moving forward. We are excited about the future of our program under his direction."

Said Metts: "I am extremely excited to join the Western Kentucky University family. I would like to thank Todd Stewart and Jim Clark for believing in me and giving me this opportunity to become the next head golf coach at WKU. Being a head coach has been a goal of mine, and it is truly special to have this opportunity at this point in my career. The athletic staff at WKU has been extremely welcoming throughout the entire process, and I look forward to embracing and becoming a part of Hilltopper Nation. Culture is a huge part of every successful athletic program, and WKU's athletic department and golf program have that. I look forward to continuing the great tradition and standards that Coach Hatchett set in this program. I think a great program is built on recruiting and hard work, and those are two things we will focus on. We will work harder than ever to ensure we make Hilltopper Nation proud on and off the course.

"I would also like to thank Carter Collins for allowing me the opportunity to work under him at Georgia Southern University. I learned so much from him and the great players I was surrounded by in that program. I would also like to thank Tom Kleinlein and Larry Mays at Georgia Southern for allowing me the opportunity to begin my coaching career."

Metts' two seasons on staff at Georgia Southern coincided with a period of tremendous success for the Eagles, a program that has made 13 NCAA Regional appearances since 2001.

Georgia Southern competed in the 2017 NCAA Regionals in Metts' first season on staff and twice finished second in the Sun Belt Conference Championships in his tenure.

During Metts' two seasons with the program, six Eagles earned all-conference honors, while Steven Fisk and Jake Storey were each named Sun Belt Player of the Year.

"I am very proud and excited for Coach Metts and his wife, Whitney, to begin this chapter of their life," Georgia Southern head coach Carter Collins said. "I believe Coach Metts will run the Western Kentucky Golf program with integrity, competitiveness and determination. He is not only a great coach but a great person, and I am excited for Western Kentucky and the current student-athletes that will have a chance to work with him. Coach Metts had a large part in our success during his tenure at Georgia Southern, and I am confident he will continue to build the program at Western Kentucky in the right direction."

Prior to arriving at Georgia Southern, Metts spent the 2015-16 campaign as a graduate assistant for the men's and women's golf teams at the University of Sioux Falls in South Dakota.

That followed a seven-year stint working outside of the sport as a juvenile probation officer.

While serving in this position, Metts continued to compete as an amateur throughout Georgia.

In 2014, he won the Bob "Boo" White Invitational at the Lavidia Country Club in Savannah and took third in the Savannah City Tournament. He qualified for the Georgia State Mid-Am

Tournament at the Marietta Country Club in Kennesaw in 2015, where he finished tied for 33rd.

As a collegiate player, Metts walked on the Georgia College and State University men's golf team in 2005 and earned a scholarship in his senior year. As a junior, Metts played in five tournaments, tying for 20th at the conference tournament and seventh at the regional. On the back of his top-10 region finish, Metts nearly led the Bobcats to a national tournament appearance, missing a bid by one stroke.

Metts and his wife, Whitney, have been married for nine years.

Metts inherits a WKU squad that returns all but one player and brings back every player who competed at the 2018 Conference USA Championship, which the Hilltoppers finished with their best conference tournament round since 2008.

Rising senior golfer Billy Tom Sargent also became the second Hilltopper to ever compete in a NCAA Regional as an individual, and the first since Brent Long in 2008.

HILLTOPPERS TRAVEL TO INDIANA FOR FIRST TOURNEY UNDER METTS

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The WKU Hilltopper Golf program will play with heavy hearts this season as it begins a new era with its first tournament of the season.

The Hilltoppers open the season under first-year head coach Chan Metts this weekend at Indiana's Fuzzy Zoeller Invitational in Henryville, Ind.

Metts takes over for former head coach Phillip Hatchett, who passed away in June. Hatchett had led the program since 2010.

"It's been a good transition over the first couple of weeks," said Metts, who was hired as WKU's new head coach in August. "Coach Hatchett left some big shoes to fill, and at this point, I'm just trying to do my best to make sure I'm carrying on his legacy in the right way. He's got a great bunch of kids that I'm able to coach here and a lot of high-character guys, and I want to make sure I carry on that tradition."

WKU will be one of 13 teams competing Saturday and Sunday at the par-72, 7,174-yard Champions Pointe Golf Club. Teams will play 36 holes Saturday with an 8 a.m. CT shotgun start, with the final 18 holes played Sunday with tee times starting at 7:30 a.m.

Because of the quick turnaround from the start of school and the transition for Metts, the Hilltoppers were only able to squeeze in three qualifying rounds before heading to Indiana.

Because of that, Metts said the tournament will be a valuable chance for him to evaluate and learn more about his players and their make-up on the course.

"Typically, I'd like to shoot for somewhere around six (qualifying rounds), so it's been a quick learning curve for me to try and see what we're kind of working with," Metts said. "The biggest thing I want to get out of this first tournament is watching the guys compete and trying to learn as much about each individual's game as I can. I want to figure out what makes each player tick, and that gives me an idea of how I can best help each player."

Representing WKU this weekend will be redshirt senior Billy Tom Sargent, redshirt junior Linus Lo, junior Tom Bevington, redshirt freshman Dawson McDaniel and freshman Dominic Brett Kelly.

Sargent is coming off a junior campaign in which he became the second Hilltopper to ever compete in a NCAA Regional as an individual, and the first since 2008.

McDaniels and Brett Kelly will be participating in their first college tournaments.

All of the WKU players will compete this year with a "P4C" patch on their golf bags. It stands for "Play 4 Coach," a constant reminder of their drive to make their late Coach Hatchett proud.

"Qualifying was really competitive, which was good to see," Sargent said. "You don't want guys getting in real easy. You want it to be as competitive as possible. We're always thinking about Coach (Hatchett) and playing for him, so hopefully this fall and spring we can play well."

MCDANIEL, SARGENT LEAD TOPS IN FIRST ACTION AT INDIANA

HENRYVILLE, Ind. — Play was suspended for rain before the completion of two full rounds Saturday at the Fuzzy Zoeller Invitational, with the WKU Hilltopper Golf team tied for fourth through one full round.

The Hilltoppers fired a 3-over 291 in the opening round of the Indiana-hosted event at the par-72, 7,174-yard Champions Pointe Golf Club. Southern Illinois leads the field with a 13-under 275 in the first round.

Teams will resume play at 7:30 a.m. CT Sunday in the halted second round, and play will be continuous into the third round.

Redshirt senior Billy Tom Sargent and redshirt freshman Dawson McDaniel paced WKU in the opening round with a pair of even-par 72s. They're each tied for 18th individually.

McDaniel was making his college tournament debut, as was true freshman Dominic Brett Kelly, who carded a 1-over 73 in his first action and is tied for 25th.

Redshirt junior Linus Lo shot a 2-over 74, tying him for 36th, while junior Tom Bevington finished with a 5-over 77.

TOPS FINISH FUZZY ZOELLER INVITATIONAL WITH BEST ROUND IN 10 YEARS

HENRYVILLE, Ind. — Adversity struck early in the day Sunday for the WKU Hilltopper Golf team, but it ended with the program's best single round in more than 10 years in the first event under new coach Chan Metts. The Hilltoppers carded an 11-under 277 as a team in the final round of Indiana's Fuzzy Zoeller Invitational, their best round since also shooting a 277 at the Wyoming Cowboy Classic in the spring of 2008.

WKU recorded scores of 68-69-70-70 in the closing round. The 277 was the best team score of the day and two strokes off the best team score of the entire tournament. The Hilltoppers were also one of just two teams in the field to record a round with all four counting players under par.

"I'm very proud of the team," Metts said. "They showed a lot of grit and toughness today. We played our best round of the tournament in the toughest conditions. Also, I'm very proud of how the new guys played this week. We will certainly take a few things away from this event that we can hopefully improve on and build on."

Play was halted because of rain in the second round Saturday at the par-72, 7,174-yard Champions Pointe Golf Club and resumed Sunday morning. The Hilltoppers shot a 294 as a group in that segmented round before catching fire later in the third round.

WKU finished fourth in the 13-team field with an 862 (291-294-277) total. Southern Illinois won the title at 836.

Redshirt freshman Dawson McDaniel – playing in his first college tournament – paced the Hilltoppers with a 213 (72-72-69) total, tying him for 12th individually. The Bowling Green native tied for the third-best showing on par 3s (2-under) across the tournament.

"I'm more than excited with how we played this week," McDaniel said. "I think overall we had a great attitude with the nasty conditions, and that made all the difference in how we were able to finish strong. Personally, I couldn't be happier with my play, and Coach Metts and my teammates encouraged me and kept me calm with all the nerves that come in tournament play. We have a lot of momentum right now as a team, and I know with every swing we will honor Coach Hatchett."

After slipping a bit with a 76 in the second round, redshirt senior Billy Tom Sargent roared back with a 4-under 68 in the final round. He tied for 18th with a three-round total of 216 (72-76-68) and tied for third in total birdies (13) in the tournament.

Redshirt junior Linus Lo also found the top 25 with a 218 (74-74-70) total. Junior Tom Bevington was one shot back and tied for 27th at 219 (77-72-70). Both players carded their best three-round scores since the 2016-17 campaign.

Freshman Dominic Brett Kelly finished with a 231 tally (73-78-80) in his first college outing.

WKU quickly returns to action this weekend in the Louisville Cardinal Challenge, which runs Friday through Sunday.

TOPS PROUD OF RESILIENCY HEADING INTO LOUISVILLE CARDINALS CHALLENGE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — After a disappointing second round last weekend at the Fuzzy Zoeller Invitational, the WKU Hilltopper Golf team faced brutal conditions in Sunday's final round.

That didn't slow down the Hilltoppers, who shot an 11-under 277 in the final round for their best single team round in more than 10 years.

It was that conclusion to the opening event under first-year coach Chan Metts that has WKU optimistic heading into this weekend's Louisville Cardinals Challenge.

"We fought back," redshirt freshman Dawson McDaniel said. "That second round, we were kind of falling apart. But we fought back and did what we were supposed to do, and I think that shows us what we can do. When we put three rounds together just like that, we're going to win some tournaments."

WKU faces a talented 16-team field this week in Louisville, including six teams ranked in the top 50 of last season's final Golfstat rankings.

Teams will play 18 holes each day Friday through Sunday at the par-72, 7,101-yard University of Louisville Golf Club in Simpsonville, Ky.

The Hilltoppers will use their same lineup as last week, featuring McDaniel, redshirt senior Billy Tom Sargent, redshirt junior Linus Lo, junior Tom Bevington and freshman Dominic Brett Kelly. Sophomore Chase Landrum will join the team as an individual.

McDaniel paced WKU individually at the Fuzzy Zoeller Invitational, tying for 12th with a 3-under total of 213 in his first college event.

The Bowling Green native redshirted his first season on The Hill in 2017-18, which was a tough pill for him to swallow at first until he began to develop.

"I didn't really want to at the time, but now looking back, I'm more than happy that I actually got to,"

McDaniel said. "I grew more mentally, physically and spiritually, and now the results are showing with how much work I put into it and how much people helped me along the way."

McDaniel was one of three Hilltoppers, along with Sargent and Lo, to finish in the top 25 last week at Indiana. WKU caught fire in the final round with four scores of 70 or better. The team's 277 tally was the second-best score of the entire tournament and the best for a Hilltopper squad since also shooting a 277 at the Wyoming Cowboy Classic in the spring of 2008.

"It was really nice to be able to get out there and create a starting point for this team," Metts said. "Every team, year to year, even if you don't lose any players, it's going to be different. I think now we kind of have that starting point. Looking back, you wish the first and second rounds could've been a little better, but I think some of the positives we're going to take away is that we played our best golf in the worst conditions.

"That last round was unbelievable, being able to put everybody put it together at the same time. I think that shows us what we're going to be capable of going forward, but we can't hang our hat on that result."

FRESHMAN BRETTKELLY LEADS TOPS TO ANOTHER 277 ROUND IN LOUISVILLE

SIMPSONVILLE, Ky. — After registering its best round in more than 10 years, the WKU Hilltopper Golf team matched the feat just five days later.

Three Hilltoppers broke 70 on Friday as WKU fired a 7-under 277 in the opening round of the Louisville Cardinals Challenge.

WKU is tied for fourth in a 16-team field that features six programs rated in the top 50 of last season's final Golfstat rankings.

The second round is scheduled for Saturday at the par-71, 7,101-yard University of Louisville Golf Club in Simpsonville, Ky.

The Hilltoppers' sizzling 277 comes on the heels of an 11-under 277 to conclude play last weekend in Indiana's Fuzzy Zoeller Invitational. Before that effort, WKU had not shot 277 or better since spring 2008.

True freshman Dominic BrettKelly led the squad Friday with a 4-under 67 in his second college tournament. He's tied for 11th individually following a round that included seven birdies.

Redshirt junior Linus Lo was one stroke back in a tie for 13th with a 3-under 68. Lo registered four birdies and an eagle.

Redshirt senior Billy Tom Sargent is tied for 16th with a 2-under 69, and sophomore Chase Landrum — competing as an individual — shot a 1-under 70 to sit in a tie for 32nd.

Redshirt freshman Dawson McDaniel also counted toward WKU's team tally with a 2-over 73.

Duke, which finished last season ranked No. 17 in the country, leads the team standings after carding a 257 team total. The Blue Devils' Alex Smalley flirted with the NCAA record for lowest score with a 10-under 61 to lead the individual race.

OPPORTUNITY EXISTS FOR LADY TOPS ENTERING FIRST TOURNEY IN MOBILE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — With the graduation of former leaders comes new opportunity for the WKU Lady Topper Golf team.

The Lady Toppers will have a sort of passing of the torch in their 2018-19 season, which begins this weekend at South Alabama's USA Intercollegiate.

WKU says goodbye this year to graduated seniors Georgina Blackman and Katie Story, who were standouts for the program for four and three years, respectively.

"They're going to be sorely missed, but it gives the younger ones an opportunity to step up and get some playing time, for sure," WKU head coach Adam Gary said. "Hard work pays off. They just have to dig in. The opportunity is there, so you just have to prepare for it so that when that opportunity comes, you're ready."

WKU will be one of 16 teams competing this weekend at the par-72, 6,002-yard RTJ Magnolia Grove-Crossings Course in Mobile, Ala.

Teams will play one round each day Saturday through Monday, with the Lady Toppers first teeing off at 8 a.m. CT Saturday.

Juniors Mary Joiner, Bailey Tyree and Abigail Smee, along with sophomore Megan Clarke and freshman Lizzie Loy, will represent WKU in Mobile. Sophomore Caroline Cavin will compete as an individual.

Joiner continues to build on one of the best careers in program history – with two seasons to go. Her 73.9 stroke average in 2017-18 was the best in team history, and her four career individual titles are already a program record.

Gary said Joiner has picked up right where she left off in qualifying. The Franklin, Ky., native finished second last year at the USA Intercollegiate.

"Normally I don't play that well in qualifying, but this year I've scored a lot better," Joiner said.

"That gives me confidence moving forward, but at the end of the day what matters is how you do in tournaments. I just have to keep a good mindset and try to limit mistakes. That's what I really worked on all summer – play easier, more boring golf instead of trying to scramble for a bogey or par."

WKU will certainly miss the steady play of Blackman and Story. Blackman was the first four-year all-league player in program history, and she won the England women's amateur championship in July.

But their absence simply means it's time for the next player to step up.

Smee and Tyree combined for three top-10s and six top-25s last season, while Clarke had four top-25s on her own, including an 11th-place finish in the Conference USA Championship.

"It's definitely weird this year having no seniors, so now me, Bailey and Mary as juniors are the older ones," Smee said. "It's just being there for everyone. We're trying to take that senior role if anyone needs help, and just all looking out for each other."

Second-round results of Louisville Cardinals Challenge are attached.

BRETTKELLY, LO PACE HILLTOPPERS ON SECOND DAY OF LOUISVILLE EVENT

SIMPSONVILLE, Ky. — WKU true freshman Dominic BrettKelly hung within the top 15 on Saturday, as he and redshirt junior Linus Lo each shot 1-over 72s to pace the WKU Hilltopper Golf team in the second round at the Louisville Cardinals Challenge.

BrettKelly, competing in his second college tournament, is tied for 13th individually with a 139 (67-72) total at the par-71, 7,101-yard University of Louisville Golf Club.

Lo is one shot back of BrettKelly and tied for 21st with a 140 (68-72) tally.

The Hilltoppers are tied for eighth in the 16-team field, which features six top-50 programs, with a two-day total of 571. They're nine strokes out of fifth.

Redshirt senior Billy Tom Sargent is tied for 57th with a two-day total of 145 (69-76). Redshirt freshman Dawson McDaniel shot an 82 in second round, while junior Tom Bevington improved by nine strokes from the first day with a 3-over 74.

Sophomore Chase Landrum, competing as an individual, shot a 1-over 72 on Saturday and is tied for 30th at 142 (70-72).

No. 17 Duke continues to lead the team standings with a 534 total.

The tournament concludes Sunday with the final round, which begins at 7:30 a.m. CT.

TYREE LEADS LADY TOPPERS ON FIRST DAY IN MOBILE

MOBILE, Ala. — WKU junior Bailey Tyree fired a career-low 69 on Saturday, tying her for second individually through one round of South Alabama's USA Intercollegiate.

Tyree recorded five birdies in the opening round at the par-72, 6,002-yard RTJ Magnolia Grove-Crossings Course. She's just one stroke behind the individual leader, Stetson's Hanna Kiefer.

WKU juniors Mary Joiner and Abigail Smee are also in the top 20 after recording a 1-under 71 and even-par 72, respectively. Smee's 72 tied her career low.

The Lady Toppers are in sixth place with a 290 team tally, but they're just two strokes out of third place and eight shots behind first-place California Baptist (282).

The second round is scheduled to take place Sunday, with the final round to follow Monday.

WKU played steady golf Saturday, placing fourth in the field with 63 total pars.

Sophomore Megan Clarke (78) and freshman Lizzie Loy (80) rounded out the Lady Toppers' scoring in the first round. Sophomore Caroline Cavin shot a 78 competing as an individual.

Second-round results for the USA Intercollegiate and Mary Joiner headshot are attached.

JOINER, LADY TOPPERS IN TITLE CONTENTION AT USA INTERCOLLEGIATE

MOBILE, Ala. — Junior Mary Joiner and the WKU Lady Topper Golf team are back in the championship chase with a series of career and program lows in their first event of the season. Joiner is just three strokes back of the individual lead with one round to play at South Alabama's USA Intercollegiate, while the Lady Toppers are just four strokes out of first place in the team standings.

WKU put together its second straight score of 290 on Sunday for a program-record total of 580 at the par-72, 6,002-yard RTJ Magnolia Grove-Crossings Course.

The Lady Toppers are tied with Tulane and Lamar for third place, while South Florida is within striking distance in first at 576.

Meanwhile, Joiner is tied for second individually with a career-low, two-round total of 139 (71-68), while ties the program record for 36 holes. She's three shots back of Stetson's Hanna Kiefer (136).

The Franklin, Ky., native Joiner shot a 4-under 68 on Sunday, which ties for the third-lowest round ever by a Lady Topper. She's tied for the tournament lead with nine total birdies, including seven in Sunday's second round.

Joiner finished second in the USA Intercollegiate last season and is pursuing her fifth career individual title. Her four previous wins are already a program record.

WKU juniors Bailey Tyree and Abigail Smee are also in the top 20 individually following the best 36-hole showings of their careers. Tyree is tied for 10th with a career-low 143 (69-74) total, while Smee is tied for 18th with a career-low 145 (72-73).

Sophomore Megan Clarke enters the final round at 153 (78-75), while freshman Lizzie Loy is at 161 (80-81). Sophomore Caroline Cavin has a 154 (78-76) mark competing as an individual.

Monday's final round is scheduled to begin at 8 a.m. CT.

LO'S CAREER-LOW TOURNEY SCORE LEADS TOPS IN LOUISVILLE

SIMPSONVILLE, Ky. — Redshirt junior Linus Lo led the way for the WKU Hilltopper Golf team Sunday, finishing in a tie for 15th place at the Louisville Cardinals Challenge.

Lo shot an even-par 71 in the final round at the par-71, 7,101-yard University of Louisville Golf Club to finish with a career-low 211 (68-72-71) total.

As a team, WKU tied for seventh with a three-day total of 859 (277-294-288) – less than five strokes from being one of the program's top-10 tallies in the last 30-plus years.

No. 17 Duke claimed the team championship with a 37-under 815. The 16-team field features six programs in the Golfstat Top 50.

"I'm very pleased with how the team competed this week," WKU head coach Chan Metts said.

"This event was very similar to what a Regional field will look like in May. We had an opportunity to play head-to-head against some of the best teams in the country this weekend, and played well against them.

"We will certainly take a few things away from this event that we can improve. Last week we had one really good round. This week we put together two of three. Hopefully moving forward we will start to piece together three rounds."

Freshman Dominic Brett Kelly tied for 27th with a 214 (67-72-75) total, while redshirt freshman Billy Tom Sargent tied for 38th at 216 (69-76-71).

Redshirt freshman Dawson McDaniel and junior Tom Bevington each finished with 229 tallies.

After opening the tournament with an 83, Bevington continued to improve over each round and concluded the event Sunday with a 1-over 72.

Sophomore Chase Landrum tied for 47th competing as an individual at 217 (70-72-75).

WKU has another quick turnaround before its next event, which will be Cincinnati's Bearcat Invitational on Sept. 24-25.

JOINER WINS FIFTH CAREER TITLE AT USA INTERCOLLEGIATE

MOBILE, Ala. — Another year, another title for Mary Joiner.

The WKU junior broke the Lady Topper Golf program record for 54-hole score Monday, surging to a four-stroke individual victory in the team's season opener at South Alabama's USA Intercollegiate.

The individual title is the fifth in the career of Joiner, who already held the program record. She claimed another record by finishing the tournament with a three-day total of 208 (71-68-69), three shots better than Ellinor Haag's previous WKU benchmark of 211 set in 2014.

Joiner owns five of the top six 54-hole scores in Lady Topper history.

"It feels so good to get the win this week," Joiner said. "I played really solid and have a lot of positives to take away, but still a few things to improve on. I'm so proud of this team and can't wait to see all the things we can do this season."

The Franklin, Ky., native Joiner came into the final day at the par-72, 6,002-yard RTJ Magnolia Grove-Crossings Course tied for second individually and three shots back of Stetson's Hanna Kiefer.

Joiner quickly took sole possession of the lead in the early holes of Monday's final round, then had to fight to the finish to hold off California Baptist's Erica Wang.

As Wang took a few steps back in the final holes, Joiner kept pushing forward, birdieing her last hole for good measure to finish the event at 8-under – four shots ahead of Wang. Joiner and Wang shared the tournament lead for total birdies with 14 apiece.

"Mary is one of the best competitors I've ever seen," WKU head coach Adam Gary said. "When she's in contention, she knows how to finish it. I think the record books are going to be totally rewritten when she's done. I'm super proud of her, as well as Bailey (Tyree) and Abbie (Smee) with record performances."

Joiner's victory took center stage, but it was just part of what was a record-breaking outing for the Lady Toppers as a whole.

WKU placed third in the team standings with an 868 (290-290-288) total, which shattered the previous 54-hole program record by 10 strokes. Monday's 288 final round ties for the second-best single round in program history.

Juniors Bailey Tyree (69-74-72) and Abigail Smee (72-73-70) each tied for 11th individually with their best performances to date, turning in a pair of career-low 215s.

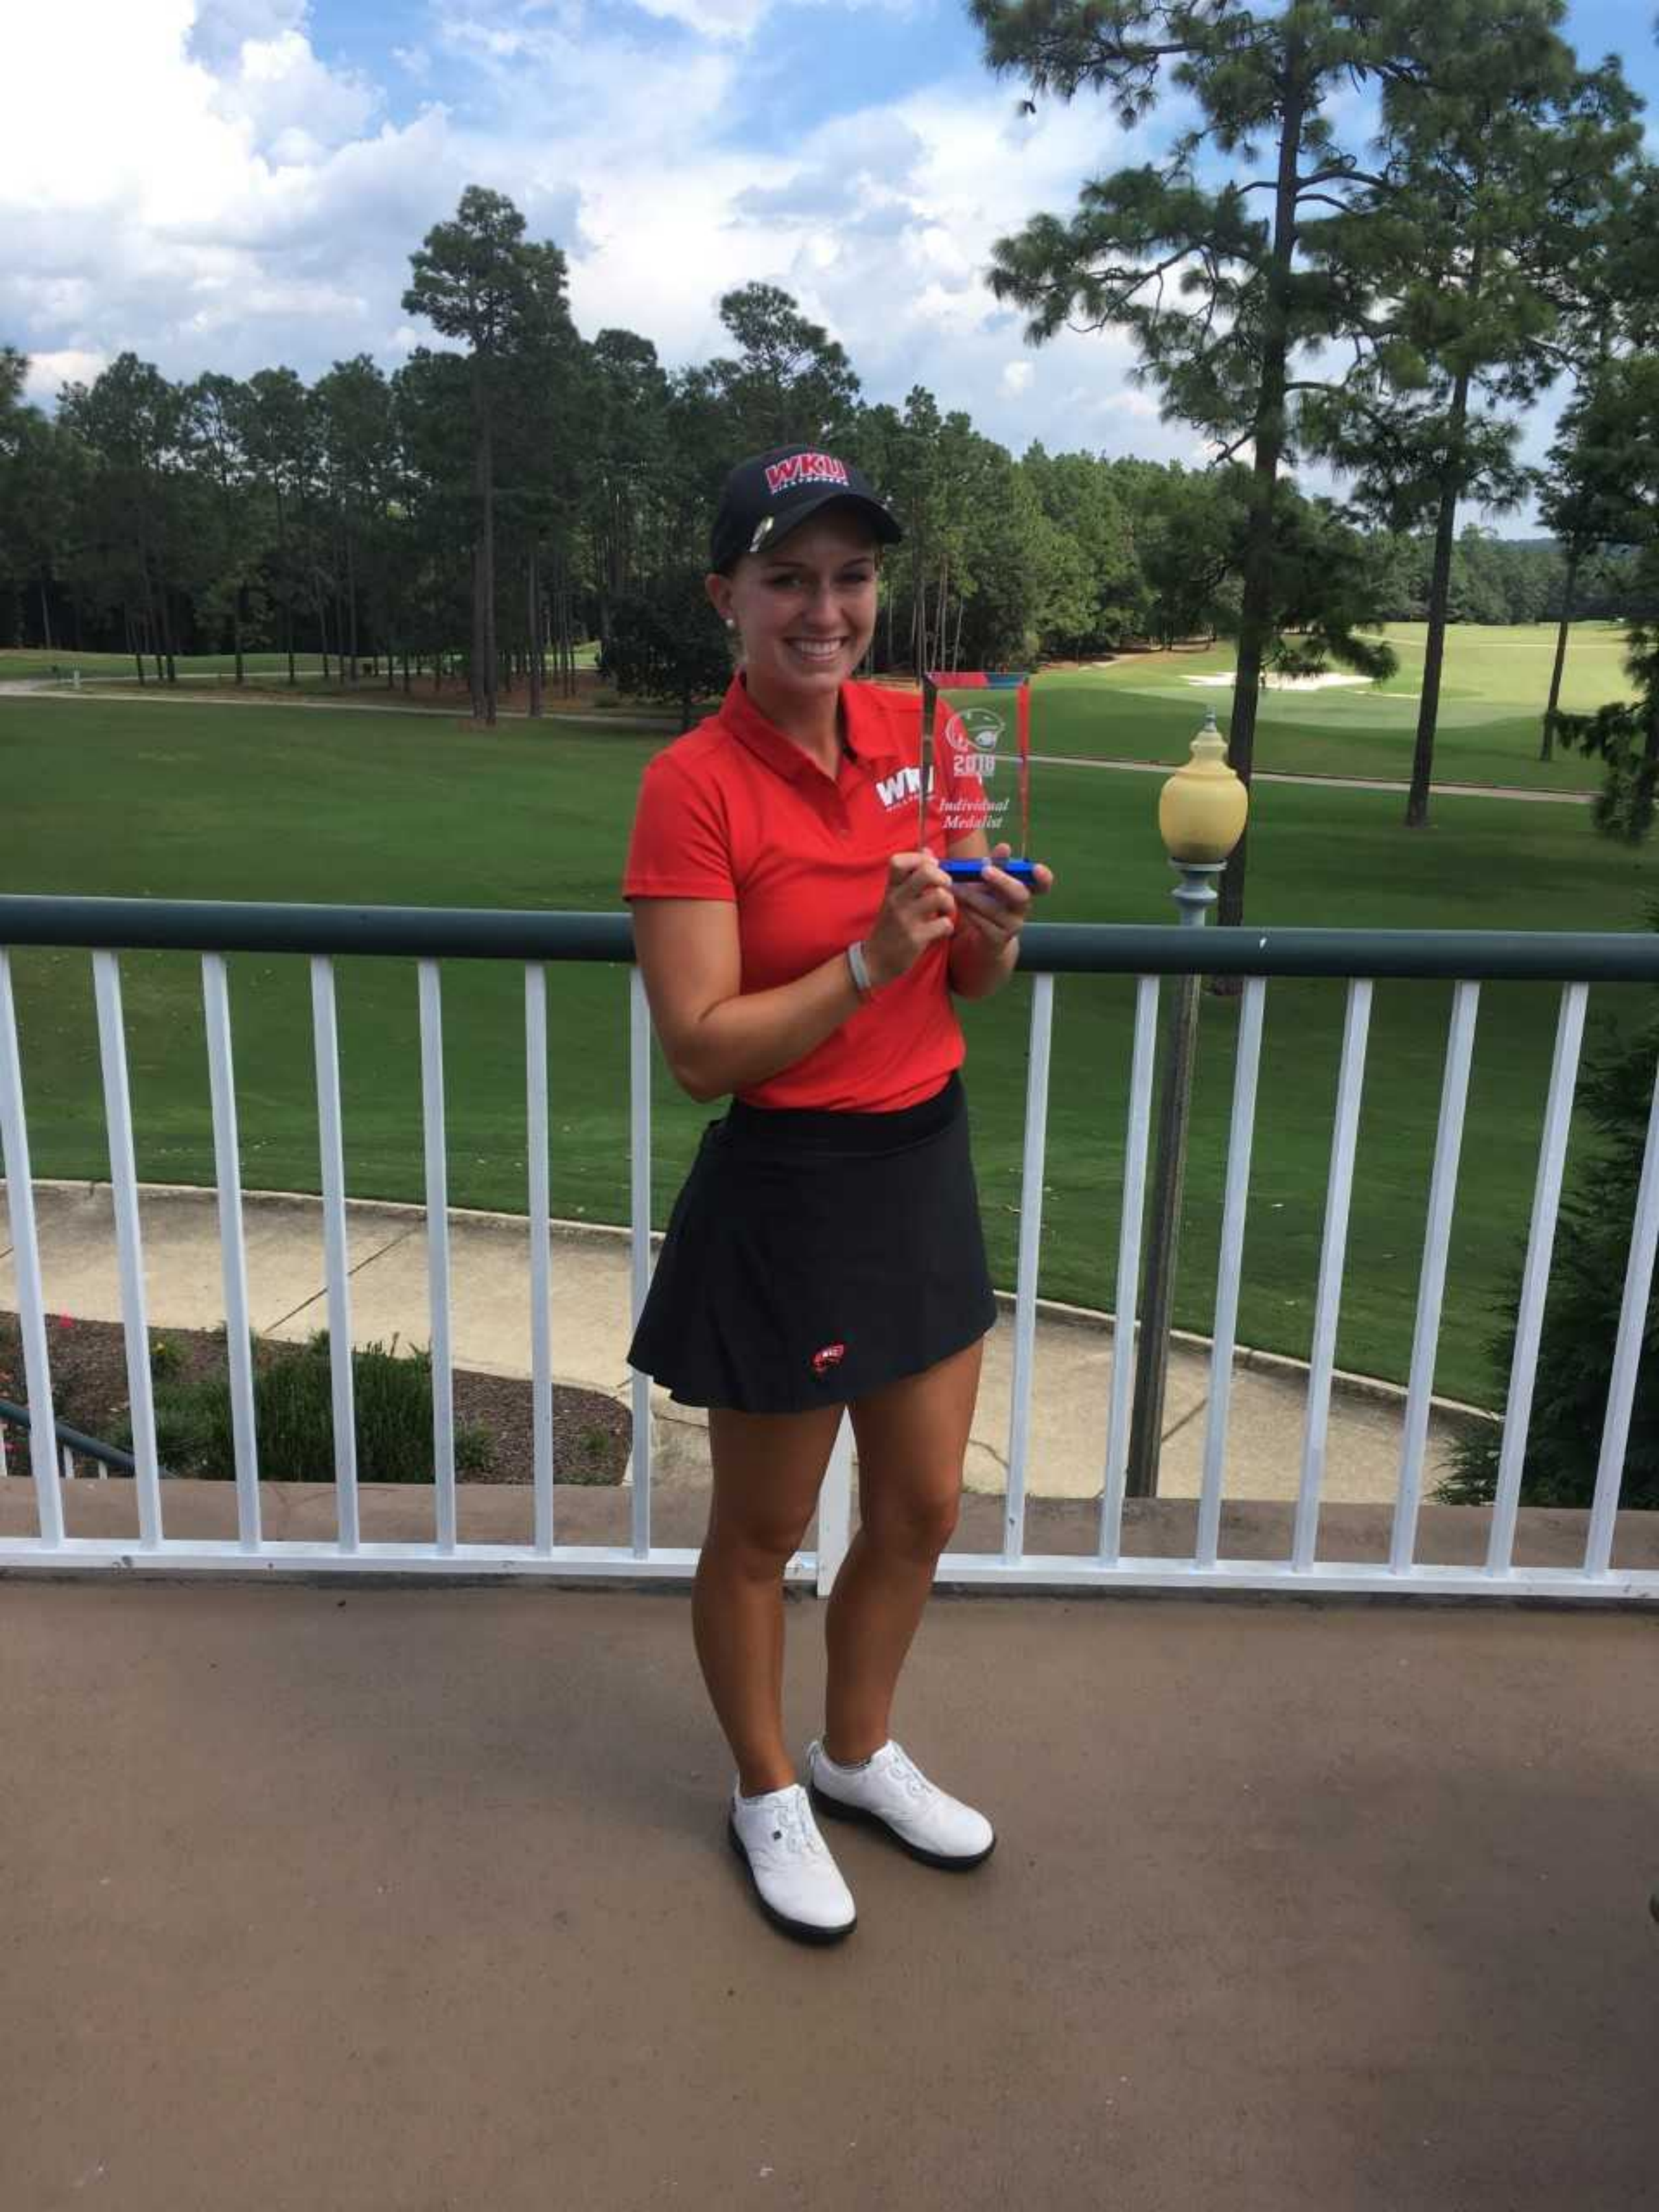

It was Tyree's best effort by seven strokes and Smee's best by 14. Smee's 2-under 70 on Monday was the best round of her career.

Sophomore Megan Clarke finished with a 230 (78-75-77) total, while freshman Lizzie Loy ended at 238 (80-81-77) in her first career outing. Sophomore Caroline Cavin shot a 234 (78-76-80) as an individual.

The Lady Toppers return to action quickly at the Boston College Intercollegiate on Sept. 24-25 in Canton, Mass.

JOINER EARNS SIXTH CAREER C-USA GOLFER OF THE WEEK AWARD

IRVING, Texas — Following the best 54-hole performance in program history, WKU Lady Topper junior golfer Mary Joiner was named Conference USA Women's Co-Golfer of the Week on Wednesday.

This is the sixth C-USA weekly honor of Joiner's career. She won three in a five-week span last spring as a sophomore. Dating back to last season, Joiner has won four of the last seven Golfer of the Week awards.

The Franklin, Ky., native claimed her latest prize by notching a four-shot individual win in WKU's season opener at South Alabama's USA Intercollegiate.

The individual title was the fifth in the career of Joiner, who already held the program record. She claimed another record by finishing the tournament with a three-day total of 208 (71-68-69), three shots better than Ellinor Haag's previous WKU benchmark of 211 set in 2014.

Joiner owns five of the top six 54-hole scores in Lady Topper history.

She came into the final day of the tournament three shots back, but quickly surged ahead for an early lead. She shared the tournament lead with 14 total birdies.

Joiner helped the Lady Toppers finish third as a team and record an 868 total, which shattered the previous 54-hole program record by 10 strokes.

WKU returns to action next week at the Boston College Intercollegiate in Canton, Mass.

SIX GOLFERS IN COMPETITION FOR TOPS AT BEARCAT INVITATIONAL

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Golf will have the opportunity to put an extra player into competition this week at Cincinnati's Bearcat Invitational.

The event, which takes place Monday and Tuesday at the par-71, 7,150-yard Coldstream Country Club, allows teams to play six golfers instead of the usual five, while still counting the best four scores.

WKU is one of 11 programs participating in the tournament. Of those other 10 teams, five finished last season in the Golfstat top 75.

Teams will play 36 holes Monday beginning with a 7:45 a.m. CT shotgun start, followed by Tuesday's final round with tee times starting at 7:45 a.m.

The six golfers representing the Hilltoppers will be redshirt senior Billy Tom Sargent, senior Stuart Easton, redshirt junior Linus Lo, junior Tom Bevington, sophomore Crimson Callahan and redshirt freshman Dawson McDaniel.

Easton is making his season debut after returning to the U.S. following a stint representing his native Scotland in international competition. He had the second-best stroke average on the team last season.

WKU is coming off a tie for seventh in the Louisville Cardinals Challenge, which featured six top-50 programs. The Tops shot a three-day total of 859 (277-294-288) — less than five strokes from being one of the program's top-10 tallies in the last 30-plus years.

"I felt like the team played very good over the three days," Lo said. "The last day got really tough because it got really windy, but everyone stayed very patient. That's what matters."

Lo led WKU with a career-low 211 total in Louisville and is pacing the Hilltoppers through two events with a stroke average of 71.5.

However, all six golfers who've competed for WKU so far this season have notched a round of 70 or better, including four with a round of 69 or better.

"I feel like the team has really good potential," Lo said. "We've just got to be able to play a little more consistent. Once we get there, we'll start winning a lot of tournaments."

LADY TOPPERS HEAD NORTH FOR BOSTON COLLEGE INTERCOLLEGIATE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — Coming off the best 54-hole team performance in program history, the WKU Lady Topper Golf squad heads into its second tournament of the fall this week at the Boston College Intercollegiate.

The Lady Toppers will be one of 17 programs competing Monday and Tuesday at the par-72, 6,137-yard Blue Hills Country Club in Canton, Mass.

Teams will play 36 holes Monday beginning with a 7:45 a.m. CT shotgun start, while the final round begins at 7 a.m. Tuesday with tee times.

WKU had a record-breaking outing in its first tournament of the year last week at the USA Intercollegiate. The Lady Toppers shot an 868 team total, breaking the previous program record for 54 holes by 10 strokes.

Junior Mary Joiner claimed her fifth career win – extending her program record – while she and fellow juniors Bailey Tyree and Abigail Smee also shot the lowest three-round totals of their careers.

Joiner finished the tournament at 8 under par, and Tyree and Smee each shot 1 under.

“We did really good for the first tournament,” Tyree said. “I was really pleased with how we did, because normally it’s very hard for us to shoot an even-par round, but everybody played really well.”

Joiner was named Conference USA Co-Golfer of the Week on Wednesday for her victory, which required a comeback after entering the final day three shots behind the leader.

Joiner shot a program-record 208 for the tournament, including a 69 on the final day, and tied for the lead in the field with 14 total birdies.

“Obviously couldn’t have asked for a better start to the year,” Joiner said. “The team played really solid. Bailey and Abbie played really well, so I was happy for them. And I was just excited to get a win. I wasn’t really expecting it, but it feels really good and I’m looking forward to seeing what we can do in Boston this week.”

Joiner, Tyree and Smee will once again be joined by WKU sophomore Megan Clarke and freshman Lizzie Loy in the lineup this week in Boston.

LADY TOPS TIED FOR LEAD WITH ONE ROUND TO PLAY IN BOSTON

CANTON, Mass. — WKU Lady Topper Golf is in the driver's seat heading into Tuesday's final round of the Boston College Intercollegiate.

The Lady Toppers finished Monday's first two rounds with a 36-hole tally of 607 (298-309), tied for the team lead with host Boston College. They're also second in the field with 21 total birdies.

The field is extremely tight, with just seven strokes separating the top six teams. The final round is scheduled to begin at 8:15 a.m. CT Tuesday at the par-72, 6,137-yard Blue Hills Country Club.

Three Lady Toppers are in the top 15 individually, led by junior Mary Joiner, who's tied for seventh with a 150 (72-78) total. She's also tied for the tournament lead with six total birdies.

Sophomore Megan Clarke is one shot back at 151 (75-76) and tied for 12th, while freshman Lizzie Loy is tied for 15th at 152 (73-79). Loy's first-round 73 and her 36-hole 152 are the best of her young career.

Juniors Bailey Tyree (79-77) and Abigail Smee (78-78) are both tied for 34th with 156 totals.

College of Charleston's Jodee Tindal leads the field with an even-par 144.

TOPS' OUTING AT BEARCAT INVITATIONAL CANCELED DUE TO HEAVY RAIN

CINCINNATI, Ohio — With heavy rain falling in Cincinnati on Monday and more in the forecast, WKU Hilltopper Golf's third outing of the season at the Bearcat Invitational has been canceled. Play was halted after just a few holes Monday, with the decision made shortly after to end the tournament.

Six golfers were representing WKU in team competition: Redshirt senior Billy Tom Sargent, senior Stuart Easton, redshirt junior Linus Lo, junior Tom Bevington, sophomore Crimson Callahan and redshirt freshman Dawson McDaniel.

The Hilltoppers return to action at Georgia State's Autotrader Collegiate Classic on Oct. 15-16 in Duluth, Ga.

LADY TOPS WIN BOSTON COLLEGE INTERCOLLEGIATE AS JOINER CLAIMS SIXTH CAREER TITLE

CANTON, Mass. — Mary Joiner is 2-for-2 this season in thrilling comebacks, and 2-for-2 in titles.

This time she brought her team along for the ride.

The junior Joiner stormed back from a six-shot deficit to start the final round at the Boston College Intercollegiate, earning co-medalist honors in a tie for first. Her effort also helped the Lady Toppers win the team title in the 16-squad field.

Because of ongoing rain at the course, no playoff was used to determine an outright individual champion.

"I'm super excited with how the team did this week," Joiner said. "The conditions were tough today, but we gave it all we had and were able to get it done."

Joiner's victory is the sixth of her career and her second in as many weeks to start the 2018-19 season, after also coming back from a three-shot deficit to win South Alabama's USA Intercollegiate last week. No other Lady Topper on record has more than two career titles.

The Franklin, Ky., native will also move onto the all-time NCAA list for most career wins. Coming into the season, only 81 other women's golfers on record had at least six career victories.

The win seemed improbable heading into Tuesday's final round at the par-72, 6,137-yard Blue Hills Country Club. Joiner was six strokes behind College of Charleston's Jodee Tindal entering the day, but found herself tied for the lead through 12 holes.

Her 2-under 70 in the final round tied for the best score of the entire tournament as she finished with a 220 (72-78-70) tally. Joiner also finished the tournament tied for the lead with 10 total birdies and paced the field in par-5 scoring, while the Lady Toppers led the tourney with 33 team birdies.

"I was disappointed with my second round, but glad I could come back out and shoot a good round today to bring it back," Joiner said.

WKU's team championship is the sixth in coach Adam Gary's five seasons at the helm. Gary's six titles are the second-most for a Lady Topper coach, and he's the only coach in program history to win a tournament in each of his/her first five seasons with the reins.

The team lead volleyed back and forth throughout the day Tuesday, with the Lady Toppers ultimately finishing at 911 (298-309-304) – three strokes ahead of host Boston College and four ahead of College of Charleston, which made a late push for the trophy.

Behind Joiner, WKU sophomore Megan Clarke tied for 17th individually with a 229 (75-76-78) total. Freshman Lizzie Loy earned a top-20 finish in her second career tournament, tying for 19th at 230 (73-79-78).

Juniors Bailey Tyree (79-77-79) and Abigail Smee (78-78-78) each tied for 33rd at 234.

WKU is back in action at Kentucky's Betty Lou Evans Invitational on Oct. 5-7 in Lexington, Ky.

JOINER WINS SECOND STRAIGHT C-USA GOLFER OF THE WEEK AWARD

IRVING, Texas — The hardware just keeps coming for Mary Joiner.

After winning her second tournament in as many tries to start the season, the WKU junior was again named Conference USA Women's Golfer of the Week on Wednesday.

This is the seventh C-USA weekly honor of Joiner's career and her second straight to open the 2018-19 season. Dating back to last season, Joiner has won five of the last nine Golfer of the Week awards.

She's now tied for the second-most total weekly awards in C-USA women's golf history, and just two behind the record of nine set by East Carolina's Abby Bools.

Joiner shared co-medalist honors at the Boston College Intercollegiate on Tuesday for her sixth career individual title – a WKU and C-USA record. After starting the final round six shots back, she pulled into a tie for the lead by the 12th hole. No playoff was used to determine an outright winner because of ongoing rain at the course.

The Franklin, Ky., native finished with a 220 (72-78-70) total in adverse weather. Her 2-under 70 on the final day was tied for the best round of the entire tournament, and she also tied for the tournament lead in total birdies and paced the field in par-5 scoring.

Joiner's efforts helped WKU win the team title by three strokes over host Boston College, giving the Lady Toppers at least one championship in each of the last five seasons.

WKU is back in action at Kentucky's Betty Lou Evans Invitational on Oct. 5-7 in Lexington, Ky.

LADY TOPS TO COMPETE AT KENTUCKY'S BETTIE LOU EVANS INVITATIONAL

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — Coming off a team win in Boston and two straight individual victories by junior Mary Joiner, WKU Lady Topper Golf returns to action this weekend at Kentucky's Bettie Lou Evans Invitational.

The Lady Toppers will take all seven golfers on the roster to the 12-team event at the par-72, 6,221-yard Big Blue Course at the University Club in Lexington, KY. This is the 29th season for the tournament.

Joiner, juniors Abigail Smee and Bailey Tyree, and freshmen Lizzie Loy and Caroline Waldrop will represent WKU in team competition. Sophomores Megan Clarke and Caroline Cavin will participate as individuals.

Teams will play 18 holes each day Friday through Sunday. Friday's first round is slated to begin at 8 a.m. CT.

"University of Kentucky is going to have a strong field – Notre Dame, Penn State – we've got some in-state schools in Eastern (Kentucky) and us," WKU head coach Adam Gary said. "Middle Tennessee, so we've got a Conference USA school as well. It'll be nice to step up the competition a little bit, obviously to play a team like Kentucky at their home course is going to be tough, but weather's looking good and everybody seems to be coming into form, so I feel like we're going to carry our momentum over into this tournament this weekend."

WKU has plenty of momentum after winning the team title at the Boston College Intercollegiate last week – the sixth team championship in Gary's five seasons at the helm.

In addition to Joiner's co-medalist performance, the Lady Toppers also got top-20 finishes from Clarke and Loy, who was competing in her second college event.

"Last week at Boston, the conditions were obviously pretty tough because it was windy and cold and rainy," Loy said. "But I thought over the three rounds, as a team I thought we played pretty great. We all played pretty consistent and for me, a top-20 finish in my second tournament was pretty exciting because coming off of the first one it was definitely an adjustment. ... But I was pretty proud of us and I hope we continue to turn corners and continue to do well for the team."

Joiner has picked up the win in both of WKU's tournaments so far this season, giving her six individual career victories – a Lady Topper and Conference USA record.

For the second straight event, Joiner came from behind for the win, this time charging back from a six-stroke deficit to start the day to share the individual title.

"In the past couple years, I've played all right, but I've really been able to limit more mistakes this year," Joiner said. "A lot less stumbles, a lot less dumb bogeys. Now if I make a couple bogeys in a round, it's all right because I can bounce back with a couple more birdies too, so I feel like I'm playing more consistent, and I hope that continues going forward."

Joiner has now moved onto the all-time NCAA list for most career wins. Coming into the season, only 81 other women's golfers on record had at least six career victories.

"If you want to relate it to other sports, it's almost like she wants the ball," Gary said. "She wants to take the last shot. She's not afraid of the situation. If she's near the lead, she's going to do whatever she needs to do to win. If someone beats her, they did just that, they beat her – she's not going to beat herself."

TYREE PACES LADY TOPS ON FIRST DAY OF KENTUCKY TOURNAMENT

LEXINGTON, Ky. — WKU Lady Topper Golf junior Bailey Tyree fired a 1-under 71 on Friday in the first round of Kentucky's Bettie Lou Evans Invitational, tying her for fifth individually with two days to go.

The Lady Toppers are tied for fourth as a team after carding a 296 total at the par-72, 6,221-yard Big Blue Course at UK's University Club.

Kentucky leads the standings with a 280 on its home course. Only five shots separate WKU from second-place Notre Dame at 291.

Behind Tyree, fellow WKU junior Abigail Smee is tied for 16th with a 1-over 73, while freshman Lizzie Loy is tied for 27th with a 3-over 75.

Junior Mary Joiner and freshman Caroline Waldrop each turned in 77s on the opening day. Sophomores Caroline Cavin and Megan Clarke shot an 80 and 81, respectively, while participating as individuals.

The second round is scheduled to begin at 8 a.m. CT Saturday, with the final round to follow Sunday.

JOINER MOVES INTO TOP 20 AT BETTIE LOU EVANS INVITATIONAL

LEXINGTON, Ky. — WKU Lady Topper Golf junior Mary Joiner improved by seven strokes Saturday in the second round of Kentucky's Bettie Lou Evans Invitational, positioning herself in the top 20 heading into the final day.

Joiner shot a 2-under 70 in the second round at the par-72, 6,221-yard Big Blue Course at UK's University Club. That gave her a two-day total of 147 (77-70) and ties her for 18th individually, moving up 23 spots from the first round.

The Lady Toppers are tied for sixth as a team with a 594 (296-298) tally. Host Kentucky leads the field at 566.

Freshman Lizzie Loy (75-74) and juniors Abigail Smee (73-76) and Bailey Tyree (71-78) are all tied for 26th with 149 totals. That's a career-best 36-hole total for Loy.

Freshman Caroline Waldrop is tied for 50th at 155 (77-78) in her first college tournament.

Sophomores Megan Clarke and Caroline Cavin have totals of 161 and 172, respectively, while competing as individuals.

Sunday's final round will begin at 8 a.m. CT Sunday.

JOINER, TYREE FINISH IN TOP 25 AT BETTIE LOU EVANS INVITATIONAL

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Mary Joiner shot another 2-under 70 on Sunday in the final round of Kentucky's Bettie Lou Evans Invitational, finishing tied for 11th to lead WKU Lady Topper Golf. After carding a 77 in the opening round, the junior Joiner wrapped up the tournament with a pair of 70s for a 217 total.

Kentucky's Leonie Bettel won the individual crown at 205, while the Wildcats also took the team title with an 858 tally. WKU tied for eighth as a team at 884.

Junior Bailey Tyree also had a top-25 finish for the Lady Toppers, tying for 22nd at 220 (71-78-71). Freshman Lizzie Loy tied for 31st with a career-low 223 (75-74-74), while junior Abigail Smee was one shot back in a tie for 33rd at 224 (73-76-75).

Freshman Caroline Waldrop withdrew in the final round due to injury.

Sophomores Megan Clarke and Caroline Cavin each shot their best round of the tournament Sunday. Clarke shot a 237 total, capped with a 76, while Cavin improved by 19 shots from Saturday with a 1-over 73, finishing out a 245 total.

The Lady Toppers return to the course at Louisville's Cardinal Cup on Oct. 20-21 in Simpsonville, Ky.

HILLTOPPERS BACK IN ACTION IN GEORGIA AFTER LONG HIATUS

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — It will have been almost exactly a month since WKU Hilltopper Golf completed a tournament round when the team tees off this week in Georgia State's Autotrader Collegiate Classic.

After getting rained out at an event in Cincinnati, the Hilltoppers return to the course in competition for the first time since completing the Louisville Cardinals Challenge on Sept. 16. "I felt like we were carrying good momentum into the Cincinnati event, so it was disappointing to have that event rained out," WKU head coach Chan Metts said. "When you are playing well you always want to compete so you can carry over that confidence and momentum into the next event. With the big break since Cincinnati, we have been trying to make sure we are competing in practice and having the guys under the gun as much as possible."

Redshirt senior Billy Tom Sargent, senior Stuart Easton, junior Tom Bevington, sophomore Crimson Callahan and redshirt freshman Dawson McDaniel will represent the Hilltoppers in team competition this week at the par-72, 6,706-yard Berkeley Hills Country Club in Duluth, Ga. Redshirt junior Linus Lo will participate as an individual.

The 12 competing teams will play 36 holes Monday, starting at 7:30 a.m. CT with a shotgun start, before completing the final round Tuesday.

While the course is a new one for the Hilltoppers, it's familiar to the first-year coach Metts — a Georgia native, former collegiate player in the state and former assistant coach at Georgia Southern.

"We're going out a day early in order to get a little extra work in," Metts said. "Berkeley Hills has Bermuda greens, and we have been lucky enough to get on at Indian Hills Country Club (in Bowling Green), which has new Bermuda greens, over the last two weeks to help speed up that transition for us."

In WKU's last full event in Louisville, the Hilltoppers tied for seventh in a field that featured six top-50 programs. The Tops shot a three-day total of 859 (277-294-288) — less than five strokes from being one of the program's top-10 tallies in the last 30-plus years.

All six golfers who've competed for WKU so far this season have notched a round of 70 or better, including four with a round of 69 or better.

BEVINGTON'S CAREER DAY LEADS HILLTOPPERS AT GEORGIA STATE

DULUTH, Ga. — Junior Tom Bevington fired a career-low 67 in the second round Monday at the Autotrader Collegiate Classic, leading WKU Hilltopper Golf heading into the final day.

Bevington is tied for 17th individually with a two-round tally of 140 (73-67) accumulated Monday at the par-72, 6,706-yard Berkeley Hills Country Club. The 140 is also a new 36-hole career best for the St. Albans, England, native.

Bevington's second-round 67, which ties for the best score by a Hilltopper this season, included three birdies, one eagle and no bogeys. He's tied for second in the field with 28 total pars.

The Hilltoppers have a 5-under team total of 571 (287-284), but are ninth in the stout 12-team field. Georgia Southern, where first-year WKU head coach Chan Metts was an assistant the last two seasons, leads the standings with a 29-under 547 mark.

WKU redshirt senior Billy Tom Sargent (70-71) and redshirt junior Linus Lo (73-68) are both one stroke behind Bevington and tied for 20th with 3-under 141 totals.

That second-round 68 tied the career low for 18 holes for Lo, who's competing as an individual. Senior Stuart Easton is tied for 29th at 143 (70-73), and sophomore Crimson Callahan is tied for 47th at 147 (74-73). Redshirt freshman Dawson McDaniel sits at 153 (77-76).

Tuesday's final round is scheduled to begin at 7:05 a.m. CT with tee times.

SARGENT, HILLTOPPERS FINISH UNDER PAR AT GEORGIA STATE TOURNEY

DULUTH, Ga. — WKU Hilltopper Golf's Billy Tom Sargent shot his third straight round under par Tuesday at Georgia State's Autotrader Collegiate Classic, finishing tied for 17th.

The redshirt senior Sargent led the Hilltoppers with a 4-under 212 (70-71-71) tally, one shot ahead of junior Tom Bevington, who tied for 19th at 213 (73-67-73).

Bevington's 213 was the lowest 54-hole score of his career.

WKU finished tied for ninth as a team with an 862 (287-284-291), but recorded its second tournament under par in three attempts. The Hilltoppers had two such outings all last season.

"We played well at times, but had trouble sustaining consistent play this week," WKU head coach Chan Metts said. "When you can't extend good momentum like that it makes finishing out rounds difficult. We did make some progress this week, and hopefully found some things to build on going into our last event of the fall at Kennesaw."

Georgia Southern won the team title with a 35-under 829 mark, while the Eagles' Steven Fisk was the individual medalist with a three-round total of 199.

WKU redshirt junior Linus Lo tied for 27th while competing as an individual with a 215 (73-68-74) total, and senior Stuart Easton tied for 31st at 217 (70-73-74).

Sophomore Crimson Callahan and redshirt freshman Dawson McDaniel finished at 223 and 226, respectively.

The Hilltoppers finish their fall competition at Kennesaw State's Pinetree Intercollegiate on Oct. 22-23 in Kennesaw, Ga.

LADY TOPS HEAD FOR LOUISVILLE WITH HIGHEST RANKING IN PROGRAM HISTORY

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — For the first time in program history, WKU Lady Topper Golf sits inside the Golfstat Top 100 as it prepares to compete this weekend in Louisville's Cardinal Cup.

The Lady Toppers debuted in the first rankings of the season at No. 88, the first time the team has ever been inside the top 100.

"That's been a goal of mine since day one," WKU head coach Adam Gary said. "When I started we were ranked 181st in the country, so to get into the top 100 is a big accomplishment, and that's something that didn't just happen this year. It's come from the last four years of players and team members that have all come to progress us to where we are now. But I think that's encouraging to our team because they are actually seeing some results and seeing some of the hard work pay off, which I think is great, and then we have another tough week coming up with University of Louisville to test our games a little bit more."

WKU will certainly be tested this week in the 14-team field at the par-72, 6,303-yard UofL Golf Club in Simpsonville, Ky.

The Lady Toppers are just one of 10 programs in the Golfstat Top 100 that will be competing in the event.

Teams will play 36 holes Saturday starting at 8:15 a.m. CT, with the final round set for Sunday.

"This is probably the strongest field we are going to play this year," Gary said. "We're probably middle to bottom third of the field right now, ranking wise, even though we moved up quite a bit. That's how you get better – you have to play with the best to improve yourself, so I think we are looking forward to the challenge this weekend."

Juniors Mary Joiner, Bailey Tyree and Abigail Smee will represent the Lady Toppers at Louisville along with sophomore Megan Clarke and freshman Lizzie Loy.

WKU was last in action against another strong field at Kentucky's Bettie Lou Evans Invitational, where Joiner led the way in a tie for 11th individually.

JOINER LEADS LADY TOPS IN HALTED SECOND ROUND IN LOUISVILLE

SIMPSONVILLE, Ky. — A frost delay halted play in the second round of Louisville's Cardinal Cup on Saturday, but WKU's Mary Joiner will be in the top 10 individually when play resumes Sunday.

The junior Joiner shot a 1-over 73 in the first round at the par-72, 6,303-yard UofL Golf Club and is 4 over with two holes to go in her second round, currently tying her for 10th. She's fifth in the field in par-4 scoring.

Play is scheduled to continue in the second round at 10:15 a.m. CT Sunday, with the final round to immediately follow.

The Lady Toppers shot a 306 in the first round and will be in 10th place as a team when play resumes. Illinois leads the field, which features 10 teams in the Golfstat Top 100, including WKU.

Junior Bailey Tyree and freshman Lizzie Loy both shot 77s in the first round. Tyree is now tied for 31st in the second round, while Loy is tied for 56th.

Junior Abigail Smee and sophomore Megan Clarke opened with a 79 and 82, respectively. Illinois' Tristyn Nowlin leads the individual standings at 3 under.

JOINER FINDS TOP-15 FINISH AGAIN AT LOUISVILLE CARDINAL CUP

SIMPSONVILLE, Ky. — WKU's Mary Joiner earned her fourth top-15 finish in as many tries this season Sunday, leading the Lady Topper Golf team at Louisville's Cardinal Cup.

Joiner tied for 15th with a 223 (73-76-74) total at the par-72, 6,303-yard UofL Golf Club. So far this season, the junior has two victories, an 11th-place finish and this week's 15th-place performance.

The Lady Toppers finished ninth as a team at 933 (306-320-307) in the field that featured 10 Golfstat Top 100 programs.

Junior Bailey Tyree tied for 40th with a 233 (77-79-77) total, while sophomore Megan Clarke (239) shot her best score of the season Sunday with a final-round 74.

Freshman Lizzie Loy and junior Abigail Smee finished at 241 and 251, respectively.

Illinois won both the team title at 863 and the individual medalist honors with Tristyn Nowlin's 210.

HILLTOPPERS SET TO WRAP FALL SEASON AT PINETREE INTERCOLLEGIATE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Golf heads into its final event of the fall season this week at Kennesaw State's Pinetree Intercollegiate looking to seize some momentum. The Hilltoppers tied for ninth last week at Georgia State, although they did record their second tournament under par in three attempts this season. WKU had two such outings all last year. WKU is one of 11 teams competing at the par-72, 7,108-yard Pinetree Country Club in Kennesaw, Ga. Teams will play 36 holes Monday starting at 7 a.m. CT, with the final round slated for Tuesday.

"We didn't get the finish we wanted at Georgia State, but we know what we need to improve from last week's event," WKU head coach Chan Metts said. "Going into Kennesaw State's event at Pinetree Country Club, we should be more prepared because we just went through the transition to Bermuda greens. This course will play very similar to that course. The last event of the fall is always important because we want to carry as much momentum as possible in the offseason."

Redshirt senior Billy Tom Sargent, senior Stuart Easton, redshirt junior Linus Lo, junior Tom Bevington and sophomore Crimson Callahan will represent WKU in the final event of the fall. Sargent led the Hilltoppers at Georgia State with three straight rounds under par, tying for 17th. Bevington was one shot back in a tie for 19th with a 213 total, the lowest 54-hole score of his career.

TOPS, EASTON LEAD PINETREE INTERCOLLEGIATE AS WKU FIRES BEST ROUND IN 12 YEARS

KENNESAW, Ga. — In just his second tournament this season, WKU's Stuart Easton found his groove. That powered his team to its best round in 12 years.

The Hilltopper Golf senior fired a career-low, 7-under 65 in the second round at Kennesaw State's Pinetree Intercollegiate, helping him hold the outright lead with an 8-under 136 total (71-65) with one round to play.

WKU also holds the team lead with a 570 total, including a 12-under 276 in the second round. That's the program's best single round since the Tops also shot a 276 at the Wyoming Cowboy Classic in 2006.

"I think everyone on the team is feeling really good," Easton said. "I think the second round was our best round to par of the season, and that's always really good to keep improving and see some red numbers up on the board. A lot of the guys are playing some really good stuff, and we're relishing the challenge tomorrow. It's always great going to bed with the team lead, so we just need to keep doing what we're doing, make some birdies tomorrow and hopefully get across the line."

Easton has a three-stroke lead on Kennesaw State's Wyatt Larkin heading into the final round at the par-72, 7,108-yard Pinetree Country Club. He'll be eyeing his first college victory in the final round, which begins at 7 a.m. CT Tuesday with tee times.

The senior leads the tournament with 11 total birdies, while the Hilltoppers lead the field with 38 total birdies. Easton had seven of those birdies in his brilliant second round, putting them with an eagle and two bogeys.

"I'm delighted with my day's play," said Easton, who missed the first two tournaments of the season while representing his native Scotland in international competition. "I've played well before here in the past, and I just wanted to keep having fun on the golf course. The course sat well to me and I've been playing good, so I just wanted to get some momentum going early. There's a lot of golf left to be played and a lot of good players in the field, so I need to go out there and control what I can control, and if I play as well as I know I can, maybe we can return home with two trophies tomorrow."

His second-round 65 ties for the fourth-best round by a Hilltopper since 1980, and it's the best score by a WKU player since Billy Tom Sargent also shot 65 in 2016. Easton's 136 total is also his career best for 36 holes.

His teammates were just as strong with four finishing the day in the top 25.

The redshirt senior Sargent is in seventh place with a 143 (73-70) tally, and redshirt junior Linus Lo is tied for eighth at 144 (75-69).

Sophomore Crimson Callahan is tied for 21st at 147 (75-72), and junior Tom Bevington is tied for 39th at 151 (76-75). Callahan is tied for ninth in the field with nine total birdies.

"I'm just very proud of the team and how they handled adversity today," WKU head coach Chan Metts said. "We began in very difficult conditions and got off to a poor start, but we stayed patient and fought back one shot at a time. To come back and play the last 27 of those 36 holes like we did just speaks to trusting the process and not pressing at the wrong time.

“Now we have a fun opportunity tomorrow, but need to make sure we go into tomorrow’s round without any expectations and stay committed to our process.”

SARGENT WINS FOURTH CAREER TITLE IN PLAYOFF AT KENNESAW STATE

KENNESAW, Ga. — On the first playoff hole Tuesday, WKU's Billy Tom Sargent almost hit his tee shot out of bounds.

But there was no stopping the Hilltopper Golf redshirt senior on this day.

Sargent stormed to victory at Kennesaw State's Pinetree Intercollegiate with a 7-under 65, then claimed outright individual medalist honors by salvaging par on the opening playoff hole after the wayward tee shot.

The win is the fourth career victory for Sargent, who dedicated it to former WKU coach Phillip Hatchett after his passing in June.

"I went to the playoff and hit the worst tee shot of the tournament," Sargent said. "I had 230 yards into the green and hit a low hook 4 iron to the right side of the green and two-putted for par. I'm always playing for Coach (Hatchett) and I know he was there with me today in the playoff. We all miss him, but we'll always be playing for Coach."

Sargent's four wins tied for the second-most by a Hilltopper since 1980, and they're the most since Brent Long won five tournaments from 2005-08. He's won at least one tournament each of the last three seasons.

The Georgetown, Ky., native entered the day in seventh place and behind senior teammate Stuart Easton, who led the field after two rounds and eventually placed third Tuesday.

Sargent finished the tournament with a season-low 208 (73-70-65) total. His final round included seven birdies, an eagle and two bogeys.

"Yesterday I putted really well which helped me stay in the hunt," Sargent said. "My irons and wedges weren't great yesterday, but I putted really well. Today I just had the mindset of playing solid and sticking to my game plan which I felt really comfortable with."

WKU entered Tuesday with the team lead as well after carding a second-round 276, its best score in 12 years, but settled for third place with an 863 (294-276-293) mark. The Hilltoppers were just six strokes behind champion Wisconsin and one behind host Kennesaw State (No. 50 in nation).

Easton tied his career-best finish in third place with a 210 (71-65-74), just one shot off his career low. Redshirt junior Linus Lo tied for 16th at 220 (75-69-76).

Sophomore Crimson Callahan tied for 38th at 228 (75-72-81), and junior Tom Bevington was one shot back at 229 (76-75-78).

"I think we battled some nerves early on, but that's the nature of our game," WKU head coach Chan Metts said. "The most important thing to do is to understand we played very well in order to put ourselves in the position to battle those nerves. We also have to make sure we learned a lot from what happened today and make sure we use that in our preparation for next time we are in this position."

The Kennesaw State event concluded a fall season for WKU that was shortened to four tournaments because of having one outing canceled by heavy rain.

The Hilltoppers registered eight top-20 individual finishes this fall and finished under par in three of four events. They finished under par in just two events all last season.

The team also registered three rounds of 277 or better after previously failing to reach that mark since 2008. WKU will return to the course at South Alabama's Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate on Feb. 11-12 in Mobile, Ala.

"Overall I'm very pleased with our fall," Metts said. "It has been a learning process for the team and myself as we had a transition to make on the fly. The guys have handled that task extremely well and I am proud of the maturity they showed. We certainly have some things we know we need to improve on heading into the spring, but there are plenty of positives for us to focus on. We will be a hungry team in the spring."

SARGENT NAMED C-USA CO-GOLFER OF THE WEEK AFTER PLAYOFF WIN

IRVING, Texas — On the heels of winning his fourth career title in a playoff, WKU Hilltopper Golf's Billy Tom Sargent has been named Conference USA Men's Co-Golfer of the Week, the league announced Wednesday.

This is the fourth career weekly award and the first of the season for Sargent, who last claimed the honor after winning Houston's Border Olympics in March.

Sargent was in seventh place entering the final round this week at Kennesaw State's Pinetree Intercollegiate, but made a huge push late with a 7-under 65 over the final 18 holes – a round that included seven birdies, an eagle and two bogeys.

He went to a playoff with Wisconsin's No. 1 golfer for the individual championship, and things almost looked grim from the start when his tee shot nearly went out of bounds. The Georgetown, Ky., native was able to salvage par, which was good enough to claim the crown. Sargent's four career wins are tied for the second-most by a Hilltopper since 1980, and they're the most since Brent Long won five tournaments from 2005-08. He's won at least one tournament each of the last three seasons.

Sargent's 65 is tied for the fourth-best round by a WKU men's golfer since 1980.

As a team, WKU finished third – six strokes behind champion Wisconsin and one shot behind the host, 50th-ranked Kennesaw State.

The event concluded the Hilltoppers' fall season. They return to the course at South Alabama's Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate on Feb. 11-12 in Mobile, Ala.

LADY TOPS FINISH FALL SEASON AT LITTLE ROCK WOMEN'S GOLF CLASSIC

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — With two top-three team finishes, a team championship and two individual victories to its credit already this year, WKU Lady Topper Golf wraps up the fall season this coming week at the Little Rock Women's Golf Classic.

WKU will be one of 17 programs competing Sunday through Tuesday at the par-72, 6,076-yard Diamante Country Club in Hot Springs Village, Ark.

"We're looking forward to ending the season in a new location this year," WKU head coach Adam Gary said. "I've heard great things about the course and the event. I'm proud of how hard the team has worked this fall, and we're hoping to carry our solid play over into this last event."

Juniors Mary Joiner, Bailey Tyree and Abigail Smee, sophomore Megan Clarke and freshman Lizzie Loy will represent the Lady Toppers this week.

Teams will play 18 holes each day, starting at 8:30 a.m. CT Sunday with tee times.

The Lady Toppers most recently finished ninth as a team in what could be the most difficult field they face all year at Louisville's Cardinal Cup. WKU was one of 10 Golfstat Top 100 programs in the field at the time.

Joiner led the Lady Toppers in that event with her fourth top-15 finish in as many events this season.

CLARKE'S SEASON-LOW 72 LEADS LADY TOPS ON DAY ONE AT LITTLE ROCK

HOT SPRINGS VILLAGE, Ark. — WKU Lady Topper Golf sophomore Megan Clarke shot a season-low 72 on Sunday to open play at the Little Rock Golf Classic, tying her for fourth with two rounds to play.

Clarke tallied four birdies – tied for the second-most in the field – with two double bogeys to register her even-par 72 at the 6,076-yard Diamante Country Club. She's just two strokes behind UTEP's Lily Downs for the individual lead.

The Heckmondwike, England, native also leads the field in par-5 scoring at 4 under.

The Lady Toppers rank 10th out of 17 teams through one round with a 308 total.

WKU junior Mary Joiner and freshman Lizzie Loy are both tied for 41st following a pair of 78s on Sunday. Juniors Abigail Smee and Bailey Tyree shot an 80 and 81, respectively.

Monday's second round is slated to begin at 9 a.m. CT, with the final round to follow Tuesday.

CLARKE CLAIMS FIRST CAREER INDIVIDUAL TITLE AT LITTLE ROCK GOLF CLASSIC

HOT SPRINGS VILLAGE, Ark. — Megan Clarke helped the WKU Lady Topper Golf Team accomplish some history Tuesday.

The sophomore seized the individual title at the Little Rock Golf Classic, earning the victory by two strokes with a 4-under 212 (72-67-73) tally.

This is the first time in program history that multiple golfers have won tournaments in the same season. Junior Mary Joiner won the first two events of the fall.

This is also Clarke's first career victory. Her previous best finish was a tie for 11th at the 2018 Conference USA Championship.

"I really enjoyed the tournament, and I'm so happy to get my first college win," Clarke said. "After not playing my best in a couple tournaments, my game feels good and I played solid all week. I'm really proud of the team and can't wait for the spring semester."

Clarke came into Tuesday's final round at the par-72, 6,076-yard Diamante Country Club in second place, one shot behind Missouri State's Rachel Johnson.

Johnson shot a 4-over 76 on the final day, while Clarke's 1-over 73 was good enough to notch the win. The Heckmondwike, England, native led the tournament field in total birdies (12) and par-5 scoring (7 under).

The Lady Toppers started the day tied for the team lead, but the team's No. 1 golfer Joiner was forced to withdraw before the final round due to illness she'd fought throughout the event.

WKU ultimately finished fourth at 904 (308-289-307), seven strokes behind champion Central Arkansas.

Junior Bailey Tyree tied for 23rd with a three-round total of 229 (81-72-76), while junior Abigail Smee tied for 44th at 234 (80-79-75). Freshman Lizzie Loy totaled a 238 (78-77-83) sum.

This is the final event of a successful fall campaign for the WKU.

The Lady Toppers earned three top-five team finishes, including a victory at the Boston College Intercollegiate, and took the individual title in 3 of 5 events. The team also recorded 11 top-25 individual finishes throughout the semester.

"I'm so proud of Megan to get her first win in the last event of the season," WKU head coach Adam Gary said.

"She played some incredibly steady golf this week. It was unfortunate for the team that Mary was sick, but some things are out of your control. All in all, we had a good fall season and look forward to progressing this winter to be ready for the spring."

WKU returns to action in the spring at Jacksonville's Amelia Island Collegiate on Feb. 18-19 in Fernandina Beach, Fla.

CLARKE EARNS C-USA GOLFER OF THE WEEK AWARD AFTER LITTLE ROCK WIN

IRVING, Texas — After winning her first career tournament, WKU Lady Topper Golf's Megan Clarke was named Conference USA Women's Golfer of the Week on Wednesday.

The sophomore Clarke took medalist honors Tuesday at the Little Rock Golf Classic with a career-low, 4-under 212 (72-67-73) total.

This is her first career C-USA weekly honor and WKU's third of the fall. Junior Mary Joiner won back-to-back Golfer of the Week awards to open the season.

Clarke came into Tuesday's final round one shot back of the lead but took control with a 1-over 73. She led the tournament field in total birdies (12) and par-5 scoring (7 under).

The Heckmondwike, England, native's second-round 67 tied for the second-lowest round in program history, and she set new career lows for 18, 36 and 54 holes. Her previous best finish was a tie for 11th at the 2018 Conference USA Championship.

Clarke's efforts helped WKU finish fourth as a team in the tournament despite Joiner being forced to withdraw due to illness.

The Lady Toppers return to the course in the spring at Jacksonville's Amelia Island Collegiate on Feb. 18-19 in Fernandina Beach, Fla.

LADY TOPS ADD STANDOUT ILLINOIS GOLFER ARNOLD TO SIGNING CLASS

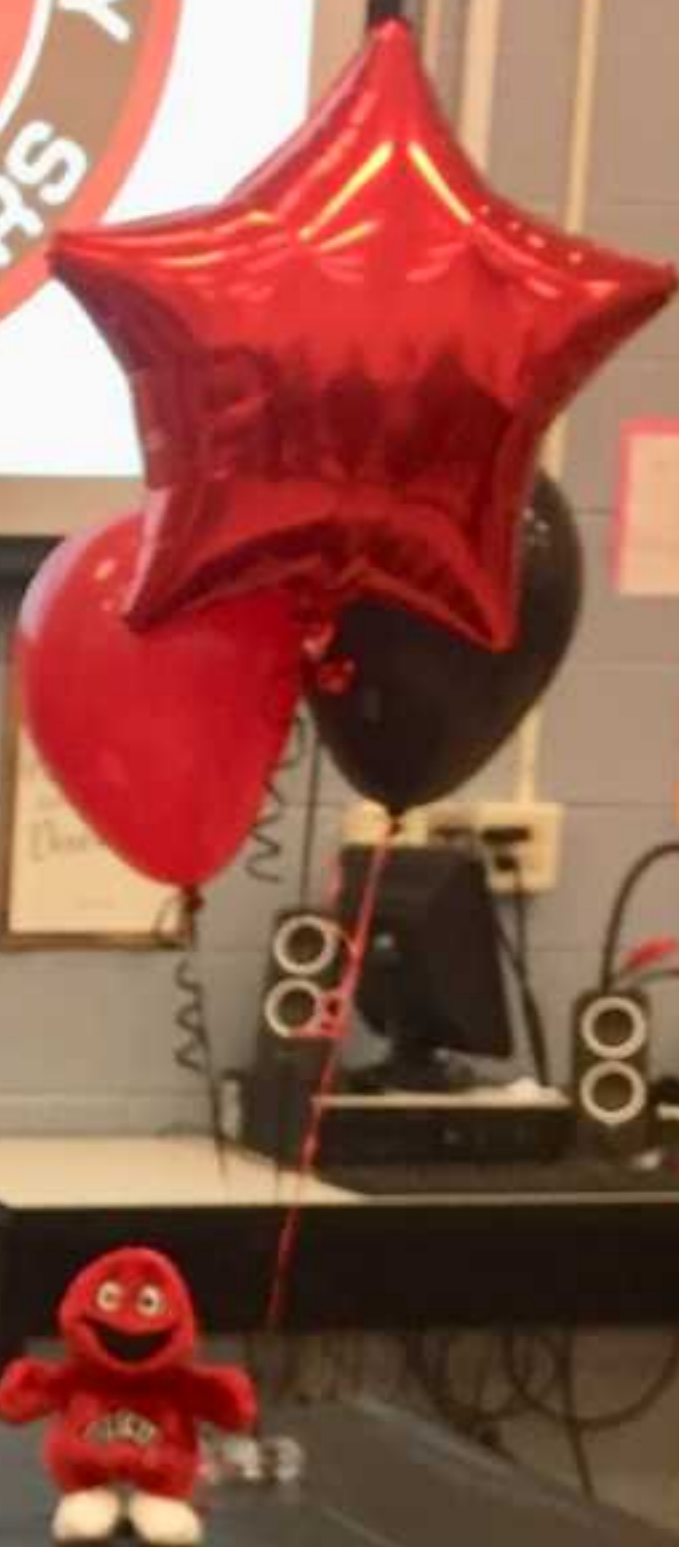

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Lady Topper Golf head coach Adam Gary announced Thursday the signing of Sarah Arnold (St. Charles, Ill.) to a national letter of intent in the 2018-19 signing class.

"Sarah brings a lot of power and athleticism to the team," Gary said. "Her work ethic and passion for the game will be a major contribution. I'm excited to see her game develop here on The Hill."

Arnold finished sixth individually in the 2018 IHSA II state tournament as her St. Charles North High School team won the state title. She was named both all-state and all-conference, and was also voted Kane County Athlete of the Week during the season.

Some of her tournament victories include the HJGT at TPC Deere Run, MAJGT Girls Championship, MAJGT Golf Club of Illinois Classic and HJGT Chicago Junior Shootout. Arnold carries a stroke average of 76.7 on the junior golf scoreboard.

LADY TOPPERS SIGN ENGLISH GOLFER STEVENSON TO LETTER OF INTENT

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Lady Topper Golf head coach Adam Gary announced Thursday the signing of Alex Stevenson (Durham, England) to a national letter of intent in the 2018-19 signing class.

“Alex follows a line of successful English players here at WKU,” WKU head coach Adam Gary said. “She will bring valuable international tournament experience to the team. We are so excited to have her join us next year.”

Stevenson has captained the golf team at Durham Sixth Form Centre school.

In recent months, she’s competed in the English Girls Open Amateur Stroke Play Championship, the English Women’s Amateur Championship and the Scottish Girls Open Championship.

She previously won the Scottish Girls U16’s Open and finished 13th in the English Girls U16 Open. She’s the Beamish Golf Club champion and holds the course record with a 4-under 67, and she’s been the Durham County Schools U16 Girls Champion five years running.

Stevenson has also won the Durham County Ladies Championship and the Northern England U16 Girls Open.

The Lady Toppers currently have two England natives on their roster in sophomore Megan Clarke and junior Abigail Smee.

England-born Georgina Blackman, who graduated in 2018, was one of the most successful golfers in program history and won the England Women’s Amateur in July.

METTS SIGNS STANDOUT JUNIOR-COLLEGE TRANSFER CALEB O'TOOLE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Golf head coach Chan Metts announced Friday the signing of Caleb O'Toole (Pinson, Ala.) to a national letter of intent in the 2018-19 signing class. O'Toole comes to The Hill as a junior-college transfer from Central Alabama Community College in Alexander City, Ala. He'll have two years of eligibility remaining.

"Caleb is a hard worker and very competitive, which are two important characteristics that will allow him to make an immediate impact on our program," Metts said. "All of his hard work in the classroom and on the course have culminated in a great career at Central Alabama that we look forward to continuing here on 'The Hill.'"

O'Toole was a NJCAA All American Honorable Mention selection at Central Alabama CC, which is currently ranked eighth in the country in NJCAA by Golfstat.

He has three NJCAA victories, including a District 4 championship win, as well as four top-fives. He had a 14th-place finish at the NJCAA D1 National Championship and was the 18th-ranked NJCAA player as a freshman.

O'Toole has also excelled in the classroom as a NJCAA Academic All American.
