SEVERAL ATHLETES WITH WKU TIES LOOKING TO QUALIFY FOR THE 2016 RIO OLYMPICS

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – A total of nine track and field athletes with WKU ties are looking to qualify for the 2016 Rio Summer Olympics over the coming days.

The list of 2016 Rio Olympic hopefuls with WKU ties include:

Gavin Smellie (Canada): 100 meters, 200 meters

Michille Finn (Ireland): 3000 Steeplechase

Karleigh Parker (Canada): Pole Vault

Emmanuel Dasor (Ghana): 200 meters, 400 meters

Jessica Ramsey (USA): Shot put, Hammer Throw

Lexia Robinson (Jamaica): Hammer Throw

Shadrack Kipchirchir (USA): 5000 meters and 10,000 meters

Raigo Toompuu (Estonia): Shot Put

Kristo Galeta (Estonia): Shot Put

“I wish each one of these athletes much success in their Olympic bid,” WKU track and field head coach Erik Jenkins said. “They have all contributed to the storied history of our program here at WKU. Most people don’t understand the commitment and sacrifice it takes to even earn the chance to compete for an Olympic spot. They are the best of the best!”

Distance athlete Shadrack Kipchirchir earned a spot on the Olympic roster Saturday, July 2, after finishing in second place in the 10,000 meter event. Kipchirchir starred for the WKU track and field program during his first two seasons of eligibility in 2010 and 2011 before completing his collegiate career at Oklahoma State University.

The USA Track and Field Olympic Trials are set to continue this evening from 5:30-7 p.m. CT and will be televised on NBCSN and streamed via NBC Sports.

DASOR QUALIFIES FOR THE 2016 RIO SUMMER OLYMPICS

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Rising WKU track and field senior Emmanuel Dasor qualified Friday to compete in the 200 meter dash at the 2016 Rio Summer Olympics

Dasor, who will represent his native Ghana, qualified for Rio after he posted a personal-best time of 20.49 seconds at the Soga-Nana Memorial meet in Cape Coast, Ghana.

“Emmanuel becomes the second person this year that has been a part of the WKU track and field program to qualify for the 2016 Rio Olympics,” WKU head coach Erik Jenkins said. “This tremendous feat caps a great year for him as he’s worked hard all season and has stayed focused on our goals.”

The 2016 Rio Olympic nod caps an extremely productive 2016 season for Dasor.

On the national level, Dasor competed in three NCAA Championship finals, earning First-Team All-American honors in both the indoor 400 meter and outdoor 4x100 meter relay while he added Second-Team All-American honors in the indoor 200 event. Additionally, the sprinter qualified for the 2016 World Indoor Championship and was part of multiple Conference USA finals.

“I’m so proud of him and ecstatic about his opportunity to represent himself, Ghana and WKU in Rio,” Jenkins continued.

Dasor is set to join Shandrack Kipchirchir, who competed for the Hilltoppers in 2010 and 2011, in Rio next month. Kipchirchir will represent the United States in the 10,000 meter event after producing a qualifying effort last week.

The two are set to join a group of 16 former WKU athletes that have competed at an Olympic Games, ten of those athletes have come from the Hilltopper track and field program.

The 2016 Rio Olympic Games is set to open on Friday, August 5, in Rio, Brazil, and will last through Sunday, August 21.

HILLTOPPERS SET FOR 2016 RIO OLYMPICS

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - WKU track and field will be represented at the 2016 Rio Summer Olympics by rising senior Emmanuel Dasor and former Lady Topper Michelle Finn (2009-12) as track and field events began today and last through Sunday, August 21. Dasor will represent his native land of Ghana in the 200 meter dash while Finn will don Irish colors and compete in the women's 3,000 meter steeplechase.

Dasor qualified for Rio after he posted a personal-best time of 20.49 seconds in the 200 meter dash at the Soga-Nana Memorial meet in Cape Coast, Ghana, in early July. Following his time in Rio, the Hilltopper will return to campus for his senior year.

Shadrack Kipchirchir, a Hilltopper from 2010-11 before completing his collegiate career at Oklahoma State, will wear the Red, White and Blue of the USA in the 10,000 meter event at the 2016 Rio Games.

The 2016 Rio Olympic Games opened on Friday, August 5, and last through Sunday, August 21. Track and Field events begin Friday with the men's discus throw qualifications and will conclude on the final day of the Games with the men's marathon competition.

2016 WKU CROSS COUNTRY SCHEDULE RELEASED

Schedule | PDF Schedule

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Cross Country head coach Erik Jenkins and his staff have announced the 2016 slate for the Hilltoppers. Three of WKU's first four races will take place in Tennessee while the other will require just a short trip to Louisville. Both the Hilltoppers and Lady Hilltoppers will travel to all of the scheduled events.

"It's always exciting to start racing again," shared head coach Erik Jenkins. "We look forward to this season and racing close to home in some very good regional meets."

The 2016 season will commence at the Golden Eagle Invitational on Saturday, Sept. 3, in Cookeville, Tennessee. Next, on September 17, the Hilltoppers will head south to Nashville for the Commodore Classic.

WKU will open October competition in Kentucky at the Greater Louisville Classic on Oct. 1 before returning to Tennessee for the Front Runner Invitational in Chattanooga on Oct. 15.

The Conference USA Championships will be hosted by Charlotte this season on Saturday, Oct. 29, in Charlotte, North Carolina. Last season, WKU hosted the C-USA Championship for the first time where the Lady Toppers secured a third place team finish while the men ranked ninth.

NCAA Southeast Regional action will be held in Charlottesville, Virginia, again this season. The competition will take place on Friday, Nov. 11. At last year's event, the Lady Toppers brought home an 11th place finish.

The NCAA Championship will be held in Terre Haute, Indiana, to conclude the 2016 cross country season. Action is slated for Saturday, Nov. 19, from the Wabash Valley Family Sports Center and will be hosted by Indiana State.

HILLTOPPERS HEADED SOUTH TO OPEN 2016 CAMPAIGN

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Cross country season on The Hill is almost here as the Hilltopper teams are well into their preparations for this weekend's Golden Eagle Invitational hosted by Tennessee Tech in Cookeville, Tennessee. Action from the Ironwood Golf Course is slated to commence at 9 a.m. CT for the men on the 6K course, followed by the women's 5K race at 9:45 a.m.

WKU will be joined by teams from Purdue, Florida A&M, Alabama State, Alabama A&M along with the hosts, Tennessee Tech.

Coming off of a third-place team finish at the 2015 Conference USA Cross Country Championship, the Lady Toppers will look to Lindsey Hinken for leadership following a junior campaign that saw her rank in the Top 25 on four occasions, including the NCAA Southeast Regional Championships. Hinken earned All-Conference honors for her fourth place individual finish at last year's C-USA Championship and was also named to the league's All-Academic team for her efforts in the classroom.

On the men's side, Endalow Takele and Julien Cuyeu return for the 2016 campaign coming off of personal-best performances at the NCAA Southeast Regional Championships to conclude last season. Takele earned Second-Team All-Conference recognition for his 13th-place finish.

Meet results will be available here following the conclusion of Saturday's races. WKU Cross Country will be back in action on Saturday, Sept. 17, at the Commodore Classic in Nashville, Tennessee.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – For the first time of the 2016 campaign, WKU Cross Country is headed for competition in a state other than Kentucky or Tennessee as the Conference USA Championships will be hosted in Concord, North Carolina, by Charlotte on Saturday.

The women's 5K race is slated to begin at 8 a.m. CT with the men running at 9 a.m. CT, from the Frank Liske Park in Concord. Men's action will take place on the 8K course. Course maps can be viewed here. Thirteen Conference USA schools will be represented at the weekend outing as Old Dominion does not field a cross country program. Additionally on the men's side, Southern Miss and UAB do not sport teams.

At the 2015 championships, the WKU men finished ninth with 234 points as UTEP won the title with 19. On the women's side, Rice took home the title with 48 points while the Lady Toppers finished third with 96.

BRAINARD EARNS SPOT ON C-USA ALL-ACADEMIC TEAM

C-USA release attached.

Headshot of Brainard attached.

IRVING, Texas – After competing in every WKU Cross Country meet this season, Alexa Brainard has been named to the Conference USA All-Academic Team, the league office announced Thursday. The WKU junior is one of just six C-USA women to earn the honor.

Entering her junior campaign, Brainard carried a 3.90 GPA while studying public health with a pre-physical therapy concentration. This is the first honor of the sort for Brainard, a Collierville, Tennessee, native. She also competes for the Lady Topper indoor and outdoor track teams.

This season, Brainard competed in all four meets for the Lady Toppers and was the second runner in Red and White to cross the finish line at each meet. Her top finish came at the Golden Eagle 5K to open the season, where she finished 23rd with a mark of 21:17.2. Brainard's quickest finish came at the Conference USA Championships, when she ran a 5K time of 19:23.0, a new personal best.

Joining Brainard on the women's All-Academic Team are runners from four different institutions. Kacie Kaufman from Louisiana Tech, Susannah Lynch out of North Texas, Abigail Cartwright and Katie Jensen from Rice and Dana Dillistone from Southern Miss all earned honors as well. In total, 12 student athletes were honored as Taylor Hayes (Marshall), William Shaffer (Marshall), Sampson Laari (Middle Tennessee), James Coleman (North Texas), Antony Kosgei (UTEP) and John von Dohlen (UTSA) earned honors on the men's side.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – For the third time of their careers, WKU Cross Country’s Endalow Takele and Lindsey Hinken will be competing at the NCAA Southeast Regional. The 2016 event is being hosted by the University of Virginia at Panorama Farms in Earlysville, Virginia.

On the women’s side, the start gun is slated for 10 a.m. CT. A map of the 6K course can be viewed here. Hinken will be one of 301 runners at the 2016 NCAA Southeast Regional. Additionally, WKU is one of 38 programs to be represented in the competitor field.

In her two previous NCAA regional appearances, Hinken most recently in 2015 finished 22nd with a time of 21:31.20, and secured a 54th place finish during the 2012 competition (21:53.60).

The men’s 10K race is schedule to begin at 11 a.m. CT. A course map can be seen here. On the men’s side, Takele is one of 278 entries in the race. WKU is one of 36 cross country programs represented in the 2016 NCAA Men’s Southeast Regional.

Takele also competed in the 2015 event, earning a new personal-best time of 31:02.3 to finish just outside of the top 50. A year prior, Takele finished with a mark of 33:05.4 to take 143rd in the field. The Southeast Regional is one of nine NCAA Regional sites across the country in 2016. A total of 31 teams will qualify for next weekend's NCAA Championships in Terre Haute, Indiana. Automatic qualification will be given to the top two teams at each of the nine regionals. The remaining 13 slots will be filled in an at-large selection process. Individually, 38 additional athletes will be added to the NCAA Championships field and the top four runners at each regional not on a qualifying team will be automatically selected.

IRVING, Texas – Conference USA's commitment to excellence on the field and in the classroom continues to show as 12 student-athletes have been named to the 2016 C-USA InTouch Credit Union Men's and Women's Cross Country All-Academic Teams. Nine schools are represented on the list, headlined by a duo of student-athletes from Marshall on the men's side and a pair of honorees from Rice on the women's team.

Teammates Tony Hayes and William Shaffer represent Marshall on this year's men's squad. Hayes, a repeat winner from last season, maintains a 3.92 GPA in biology and has been named to Marshall's Dean's List all six semesters he has completed. This season, Hayes set a personal best in the 8K at the Joe Piane Notre Dame Invitational and finished third for the Herd at High Point University's VertCross Invitational. Shaffer has been named to the C-USA Honor Roll his freshman, sophomore and junior years and boasts a 3.88 GPA in civil engineering. The senior posted his top 5K finish of the year at the Morehead State Eagle Opener, finishing 11th.

Representing the 26th-ranked Middle Tennessee men's team is junior Sampson Laari. A 2016 First Team All-Conference honoree, Laari has led the Blue Raiders to their best season in program history. The junior ran a personal best in the Greater Louisville Classic 8K, placing 11th against some of the toughest runners in the nation. Laari, a liberal studies major, holds down a 3.74 GPA and will run in the NCAA South Regionals this Friday.

North Texas senior James Coleman sports a 3.69 GPA as a psychology major. Earlier this season, Coleman placed second at the Baylor Twilight Invitational with a time of 12:15.5. The Melbourne, Australia, native is a three-time member of the C-USA Commissioner's Honor Roll.

Antony Kosgei, a back-to-back First Team All-Conference honoree, represents the 15th-ranked UTEP men's squad on the all-academic squad. The sophomore from Eldoret, Kenya, has finished every collegiate meet in the top 10, highlighted by a 10th-place finish at the 2016 NCAA Pre Nationals. Kosgei maintains a 3.73 GPA as an environmental science major and will lead the C-USA Champion Miners in the NCAA Mountain Regionals this Friday in Logan, Utah.

Rounding out the men's squad is UTSA junior John von Dohlen. The Goliad, Texas, native earned a C-USA Academic Medal last season and is a two-time member of the C-USA

Commissioner's Honor Roll. The marketing major placed 27th at the Aggie Opener in his best finish of the 2016 season and maintains a 3.94 GPA.

Leading the women's side are a pair of Rice Owls in Abigail Cartwright and Katie Jensen. Cartwright garnered two C-USA Female Athlete of the Week awards this season, and placed first overall in the Rice Invitational and the Texas A&M Invite. The Dallas, Texas, native boasts a 3.86 GPA as a civil engineering major. Jensen holds down a 3.79 GPA in chemical engineering and has been named to the C-USA All-Academic Team three-straight years. The senior posted three top-five finishes this season, while adding a sixth-place finish at the C-USA Championships, helping secure a team victory for the Owls. Both Jensen and Roper will lead the Owls into the NCAA South Central Regional Championships this Friday in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Representing Louisiana Tech on the women's side is sophomore Kacie Kaufman, who was LA Tech's top finisher in all four meets she competed in this season. The Loveland, Colorado, native is a C-USA Commissioner's Academic Medal recipient and maintains a 4.0 GPA as a communications major.

Susannah Lynch of North Texas was named to the all-academic squad and also holds a 4.0 GPA in psychology. The sophomore finished fourth overall at the C-USA Championships and earned first team All-Conference accolades for her performance. Lynch will look to lead the Mean Green to a strong showing in the NCAA South Central Regional Championships this Friday.

Southern Miss' Dana Dillistone boasts a 3.97 GPA in biochemistry and led the Golden Eagles to two team championships this season (Warhawk Invitational and LSU Invitational). The senior has earned three C-USA Academic Medals and was honored as a 2016 C-USA Female Athlete of the Week in week one of the 2016 season.

Wrapping up the women's unit is WKU's Alexa Brainard. The junior competed in all three fall events for the Lady Toppers while holding down a 3.90 GPA in public health (pre-physical therapy). A Collierville, Tennessee, product, Brainard wrapped up her strong season by leading the Lady Toppers to a top-10 finish at the C-USA Championships.

HINKEN CLOSSES CROSS COUNTRY CAREER AT NCAA SOUTHEAST REGIONAL

PDF of final results attached.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. – WKU Cross Country senior Lindsey Hinken closed out the 2016 campaign with an 84th place finish at the NCAA Southeast Regional hosted by the University of Virginia at Panorama Farms in Charlottesville, Virginia.

Hinken ran as an individual in the 6K race and clocked a time of 22:15.1 to finish 84th. The women's field included 227 participants representing 38 different institutions.

"The NCAA Southeast Regional Cross Country meet is an extremely competitive meet," said WKU head coach Erik Jenkins. "The region has multiple top-25 nationally ranked teams and some of the best individual competitors in the NCAA. Lindsey concluded her senior season in cross country today as one of the top runners in WKU history. She did a good job today and I am excited about her possibilities in track."

Taking home the women's team title was NC State with 53 points at the event followed by Louisville in second (163), Kentucky in third (164), Furman taking fourth (168) and Wake Forest (186) rounding out the top five.

NC State also claimed the title on the men's side with 90 points. Host Virginia claimed second place (105), narrowly edging out Furman which finished third (106). Eastern Kentucky claimed the fourth spot (117) and Kentucky (150) rounded out the top five.

This marked the third NCAA Southeast Regional run of Hinken's career at WKU. In her two previous NCAA regional appearances, Hinken finished 22nd with a time of 21:31.20 in 2015, and secured a 54th place finish during the 2012 competition (21:53.60).

The Southeast Regional is one of nine NCAA Regional sites across the country in 2016. A total of 31 teams qualified for next weekend's NCAA Championships in Terre Haute, Indiana. Automatic qualification will be given to the top two teams at each of the nine regionals. The remaining 13 slots will be filled in an at-large selection process. Individually, 38 additional athletes will be added to the NCAA Championships field and the top four runners at each regional not on a qualifying team will be automatically selected.

WKU TRACK & FIELD RELEASES 2016-17 INDOOR, OUTDOOR SCHEDULES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Track and Field head coach Erik Jenkins has announced the indoor and outdoor schedules for the 2016-17 season on Monday. The upcoming slate features the Hilltoppers staying close to home in indoor action and testing the waters during the outdoor season with a challenging schedule.

“Our schedule is highlighted by some of the best invitationals and relay meets in the country,” Jenkins said. “It has been organized to provide our student-athletes with opportunities to compete against the nation’s elite and at outstanding facilities. We are excited to get the season underway.”

To open the indoor campaign, the Hilltoppers will head to Nashville, Tennessee, on Saturday, Dec. 3. They will also make four more trips to Tennessee with Vanderbilt invites scattered through January and February.

In January, WKU will head to the state of Indiana twice to take on Big Ten opposition in Purdue (10-11) and Indiana (27-28) at a pair of invitationals.

Conference USA’s Indoor Championships will be hosted by UAB again in 2017 and will take place on Feb. 18-19. WKU will look to repeat as champions on the men’s side and the Lady Toppers are looking to improve upon last season’s second place finish.

The NCAA Indoor Championships are set for March 10-11 in College Station, Texas, hosted by Texas A&M.

Coach Jenkins also plans to announce two more outings to the indoor slate on the first and last weekends in February.

Just two weeks after the indoor championships, the outdoor season begins with WKU hitting the road for two straight weeks competing in the Vanderbilt Black & Gold Invite (March 24-25) followed by the Florida Relays (March 31 – April 1).

The following week, WKU will host its annual Hilltopper Relays at the Charles M. Reuter Track and Field Complex on April 7-8. A schedule of the events for WKU’s lone home meet of the season will be available from [WKUSports.com]WKUSports.com.

Both WKU squads will return to action with the Mt. SAC Relays (April 14-15), Austin Peay Invitational (April 14), Louisville Invite (April 29) and the Memphis Invitational (April 28-29), sending split squads to each.

New invites on deck for the Red and White will be deep in SEC territory with the War Eagle Invitational (April 21-22), Georgia Tech Invitational (April 21-22), Kentucky Relays (May 5) and the Ole Miss Open (May 6).

Conference USA’s Outdoor Championships, hosted by UTEP, are set for May 11-14 in El Paso, Texas. The Hilltoppers will look to garner the outdoor crown on the men’s side again in 2017 and the Lady Toppers are looking to do the same after their third place finish in 2016.

The NCAA East Preliminaries will be just down the road in Lexington from May 25-27, followed by the NCAA Outdoor Championships from June 7-10 hosted by Oregon in Eugene.

HILLTOPPERS OPEN INDOOR SEASON AT VANDERBILT OPENER

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Track and Field will get its 2016 indoor season underway this weekend as the Hilltoppers head to Nashville, Tennessee, for the Vanderbilt Opener. The Erik Jenkins-coached squad has opened the past four indoor campaigns in Music City. Saturday's meet will be held inside the Multi-purpose Facility on the Vanderbilt campus.

In its first two seasons in Conference USA, the WKU men have secured just as many Conference USA Indoor Track and Field championships and will look to carry the hot streak into the 2016 season. On the women's side, the Lady Toppers have brought home runner-up finishes from the same event the past two campaigns.

Between both the men and women, the Hilltoppers brought home five first place victories and a slew of personal bests from last season's opener.

Joining Vanderbilt and WKU at the meet are fellow local squads from Louisville, Memphis, Belmont, Tennessee State, Middle Tennessee, Murray State, Austin Peay, Lipscomb, Trevecca Nazarene and Tennessee Tech.

Admission to the event is $5 per person. Field events are scheduled to begin at 10:30 a.m. CT while running events are set to start at 1 p.m. CT.

HILLTOPPERS BRING FOUR TITLES HOME FROM VANDERBILT INDOOR OPENER

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – With Saturday's Vanderbilt Indoor Opener in the books, the 2016-17 indoor track and field season is officially underway for the WKU Hilltoppers. Head coach Erik Jenkins and company made the quick trip south to Nashville and returned to The Hill with four event titles and a meet record. The competition was held at the Multipurpose Facility on Vanderbilt's campus.

Ventavius Sears led the way for the Hilltoppers, claiming a pair of the titles on his own. Sears' first victory came in the 400-meter race when he turned in a time of 48.07. Sears won both his section and the event by just five-hundredths of a second. The junior's second title of the day came in the long jump pit where his second attempt claimed the title with a distance of 7.48 meters.

Claiming the third title on the men's side was Julius Morris, who repeated as the Vanderbilt Indoor Opener 60-meter champion with a mark of 6.84 seconds. Emmanuel Dasor was just behind his fellow Hilltopper to take second place in the event with a reading of 6.87 seconds. Both athletes ran in the fourth section and were just two of the four competitors with sub-7.0 second times.

On the Lady Toppers' side, Jenessa Jackson secured the weight throw title with a heave of 19.40 meters, a new personal best for the senior. The mark also surpassed the meet's previous record by nearly two meters. Additionally, Jackson claimed runner-up status in the shotput ring, tossing for a distance of 14.36 meters on her final attempt.

WKU saw five Lady Toppers finish in the top 10 of the 400-meter competition, including Ariel Terrell (second, 56.52), Peli Alzola (fifth, 57.54), Kaila Smith (seventh, 57.69), Khadijah Valentine (eighth, 57.72) and Jadzia Beasley (10th, 58.45).

Sandra Akachukwa finished with runner-up honors in high jump, clearing a height of 1.65 meters on her third and final attempt.

WKU track and field will continue its indoor campaign in the new year as the team heads into Big Ten country in West Lafayette, Indiana, for the Purdue Invite on Jan. 7.
