WKU VOLLEYBALL ADDS XAVIER TRANSFER NADIA DIEUDONNE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – With the spring semester just around the corner, WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson has announced the addition of sophomore transfer Nadia Dieudonne (pronounced 'Jew-DUH-nay') to the squad. Dieudonne, a setter, played for Xavier the past two seasons and will be immediately eligible to take the court for the Red and White.

"We are thrilled to add Nadia to our 2019 roster," Coach Hudson opened. "She is a terrific kid and an experienced setter. More importantly, however, she is a great all-around volleyball player and a flat out winner. She will impact our program in many different ways and I am excited to get her in the gym with us."

A graduate of Sacred Heart Academy in Louisville, Dieudonne marks the fifth Lady Topper on Hudson's current roster that hails from the Commonwealth.

Last season with the Musketeers, Dieudonne played in all 105 sets while tallying a team-best 540 assists in Xavier's two-setter system. With 204 digs, the sophomore ranked third on the team in the category while adding 26 kills and 13 aces. The team finished with a 10-19 record including an 8-10 mark in league play.

Dieudonne's freshman campaign saw the setter in action across 23 matches for 78 totals frames. She ranked second on the team in assists with 351 and added 159 digs, 11 kills and nine aces.

Across her two seasons at Xavier, Dieudonne recorded 11 double doubles with five as a rookie and six this past campaign.

During her prep career, Dieudonne led her Sacred Heart Academy squad to a 40-4 record in 2016 and a state title. She was selected to the Under Armour All-American Honorable Mention Team along with earning All-State, All-Region and All-Tournament Team recognitions during the 2016 season. In the classroom, Dieudonne was a four-time Academic All-State Team selection as well.

Dieudonne is the daughter of Carl and Marie Dieudonne and has two brothers, Danny and Nathan, and a sister, Kianna. Three of her siblings have played or are currently on collegiate team rosters. The 5'8" offensive facilitator will continue pursuing her degree in finance.

Why she chose WKU: "I chose to come to WKU because I believe both the university and the volleyball program are the perfect fit for me in terms of achieving my personal goals. WKU will allow me to explore my interests beyond the basic degree of finance that I'm pursuing—including journalism, entrepreneurship and fashion merchandising. WKU Volleyball gives me the chance to maximize the remaining time I have to compete in the sport I love, to be around the best coaching, to play with the best teammates and to be among the best athletic support system. I'm grateful for the opportunities that both the coaching staff and the university have provided me and I can't wait to be part of the WKU family!"

USA Volleyball release

HUDSON NAMED TO USA VOLLEYBALL COLLEGIATE NATIONAL TEAM COACHING STAFF

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. – WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson has once again accepted an invitation to join one of USA Volleyball's coaching staffs as Hudson will work with USA Volleyball's Collegiate National Team in Anaheim this summer. USA Volleyball announced the roster and coaching staff on Monday.

"It is an honor to be chosen to work with USA Volleyball again this summer," Hudson shared. "More than anything, it speaks to the level of respect that is held for WKU Volleyball and what our kids have been able to accomplish. I look forward to working alongside some of the top players and coaches in the country and at the same time representing Western Kentucky University."

From June 23-29, the Collegiate National Team squad will train at the American Sports Centers in Anaheim, the official host city for the U.S. Women's and Men's National Volleyball Teams. The program will hold a public Red-Blue scrimmage on June 28 in the vicinity of Anaheim (site and time TBA). CNT team training will coincide with other national team training blocks in Anaheim, giving both players and the staff opportunities to work side-by-side with Team USA.

The CNT-Anaheim staff includes head coach Dan Fisher (University of Pittsburgh), Travis Hudson (Western Kentucky University), Kirsten Bernthal Booth (Creighton University) and Melissa Wolter (University of West Florida). Technical coordinators for the team are Taylor Filzen (University of Dayton) and Jess Aschenbrenner (University of Denver). Rod Wilde will serve as the mentor coach, while Jeff Wanderer has been selected as the team manager.

With 28 collegiate players representing 19 different institutions, Hudson's path has crossed paths with several players on the roster including Valerie Valerian from North Texas as well as two Kansas State returners and Pittsburgh's Kayla Lund.

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

In his 23 seasons on The Hill, Hudson has etched his name in the record books as he has led the Lady Topper volleyball program to a 610-213 record in that span. This past season, he became just the 19th active DI coach to win 600 matches as he was just the 58th coach in DI volleyball history to achieve the feat and the first to do so in Conference USA history. Hudson has led the Red and White to all 11 of their NCAA Tournament appearances including trips to The Dance in seven of the past nine seasons. With Hudson at the helm, WKU Volleyball has claimed 14 regular season conference titles and nine conference tournament championships including 8-of-10 possible crowns since joining Conference USA.

HUDSON ANNOUNCES 2019 WKU VOLLEYBALL SCHEDULE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Four NCAA Tournament teams from a year ago highlight the 2019 WKU Volleyball schedule that features 15 matches inside the confines of Diddle Arena, head coach Travis Hudson and his staff announced Tuesday. The slate includes 29 regular-season matches in addition to the squad's third-straight preseason exhibition with Kentucky, slated for mid-August.

The 2019 WKU Volleyball campaign will begin in Toledo, Ohio with the Rockets' Blue & Gold Tournament on Friday and Saturday, Aug. 30-31. WKU will open the season with a match against Loyola University Chicago on Friday before playing a twinbill against the hosts and North Dakota State on Saturday.

WKU will open its September slate in state at the Louisville Invitational on Sept. 6-7. The Lady Toppers will take on Arizona State to open the weekend before squaring off against the host Cardinals Friday night. Tournament play will conclude on Saturday with a tilt against Tennessee Tech.

Louisville represents one of nine squads on the Red and White's 2019 slate that made a postseason appearance last season. After the August exhibition with Kentucky – a Sweet 16 qualifier last season – the Cardinals mark WKU's first regular-season opponent with postseason experience.

Coach Hudson and company will open their home slate on Tuesday, Sept. 10, with a 6 p.m. CT tilt against Eastern Kentucky. The meeting between the pair of Commonwealth squads will be the first since the sides last met in 1998.

For the second time in as many seasons during the Hudson era, WKU Volleyball will host two non-conference tournaments as the Holiday Inn-University Plaza Invitational and the WKU Volleyball Invitational occupy the third and fourth weekends on the docket. Several high-level programs will visit Diddle Arena as WKU hosts the pair of tournaments including: Bowling Green, Ohio State, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and Samford. All but one of those six squads posted at least 19 wins during their 2018 campaigns.

Between the home tournaments, WKU will make a quick trip down to Belmont for a midweek clash with the Bruins on Sept. 17 in Music City. The Lady Toppers will round out non-conference play a week later when Austin Peay visits The Hill on Sept. 24.

WKU opens the Conference USA portion of its slate on Sunday, Sept. 29 when Southern Miss comes to town. Hudson's squad will close its seven-match homestand the following weekend when Middle Tennessee and Marshall visit Diddle Arena.

From there, the Lady Topper squad will hit the road for seven of its next nine matches with its only home dates coming against UTSA and UTEP in that span. In WKU's final conference road trip, the Red and White will visit North Texas and Rice – the only two squads other than WKU to earn at least a share of the league's regular season title since 2014.

The final weekend of conference play has Louisiana Tech and UAB visiting The Hill for Nov. 14 and Nov. 16 dates with WKU.

The four squads on the slate that appeared in last season's NCAA Tournament are Kentucky, Louisville, Samford and Rice. UofL and UK both picked up at least one win in The Dance while Samford and Rice made first round exits. Five more of the Lady Toppers' 2019 opponents made NIVC appearances including Bowling Green, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and North Texas.
Coming off the program's 19th-straight 20-win season, WKU Volleyball will square off against 27 different teams. Fifteen of those squads turned in winning records during the 2018 campaign while six produced 20-win seasons, including Louisville, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Austin Peay, Florida Atlantic and Rice.

Season tickets for the 2019 WKU Volleyball campaign are on sale now and can be purchased online at WKUTickets.com, by calling 1-800-5-BIGRED or by visiting the WKU Ticket office located inside Diddle Arena during business hours.

ANDERSON NAMED C-USA JIM CASTAÑEDA POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT

DALLAS, Texas – Recent WKU Volleyball graduate Rachel Anderson has been named one of 14 recipients of the 2019 Jim Castañeda Postgraduate Scholarship as announced by the league office on Monday. The Lady Topper middle blocker joins Rachel and Sydney Engle as a recipient of the prestigious honor following a tremendous career under the direction of head coach Travis Hudson.

This is the 11th year that the scholarships have been presented in honor of Dr. Jim Castañeda, who served Rice University for 46 years as an educator, coach and faculty athletics representative before he passed away in November 2008. The conference annually awards the $4,000 postgraduate scholarships to graduates as selected by the C-USA faculty athletics representatives and approved by the Board of Directors.

Anderson earned her undergraduate degree on The Hill this past winter after registering a cumulative 3.37 GPA. With a sport management degree under her belt, Anderson completed her first semester of grad school coursework this past spring.

A native of Sturgis, Mich., Anderson is as decorated on the court as she is off of it. Earning C-USA Commissioner's Honor Roll recognition all four years in the classroom, Anderson was also a three-time All-American during her time on The Hill. She was a three-time All-Conference first team selection in addition to earning the league's tournament MVP nod her sophomore and junior campaigns. This past fall, Anderson was named one of 30 candidates for the Senior CLASS Award.

During her four-year career in the Red and White, Anderson played in every match as the team racked up a 113-21 record. Across 477 sets played, Anderson racked up 1457 kills, 3.05 kills per set, a .377 hitting clip, 347 block assists, 95 solo blocks, 442 total blocks, 0.93 blocks per set and 1760.5 total points. Anderson helped the Lady Toppers to the C-USA regular season and tournament championships each of her first three years with the Red and White.

Anderson is heavily involved in the community, both in Bowling Green, Ky., and back home in Sturgis, Mich. The Lady Topper understands the impact both places have had on her and knows how important it is to reciprocate that support back. Community involvement for Anderson includes a leadership role for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, SAAC representative, WKU Athletics Marketing Street Team and Youth for Christ. Anderson spent last summer interning with Youth for Christ back home. She's also been a speaker at numerous outings – taking advantage of her athletic and spiritual platforms to share her passions with others.

WKU VOLLEYBALL EARNS 13TH-STRAIGHT AVCA TEAM ACADEMIC AWARD

LEXINGTON, Ky. – For the 13th-consecutive season, WKU Volleyball has been recognized as a recipient of the AVCA Team Academic Award for its work in the classroom throughout the 2018-19 school year, the association announced Monday. With a cumulative GPA of 3.46, the Lady Toppers have earned the Team Academic Award for the 17th time since 1999.

The award, which was initiated in the 1992-93 academic year, honors collegiate and high school volleyball teams that displayed excellence in the classroom during the school year by maintaining at least a 3.30 cumulative team grade-point average on a 4.0 scale or a 4.10 cumulative team GPA on a 5.0 scale.

Since the 2000-01 season, the number of recipients has increased every single year but two, while more than doubling the total over the last eight academic years. Since the award's inception in 1993, the amount of award winners has increased from 62 to its current number of 1,125.

WKU SOCCER & VOLLEYBALL TO STREAM 22 HOME CONTESTS THIS FALL

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Soccer and Volleyball announced their home stream schedule for the 2019 season, which includes nine matches at the WKU Soccer Complex and 13 Lady Topper Volleyball contests from E.A. Diddle Arena. The full slate of the spring's home and away games available to stream can be found on the main website's schedule links for SOCCER and VOLLEYBALL.

Thanks to the newly expanded partnership with WKU PBS, Hilltopper fans will be able to watch soccer and volleyball as well as softball and baseball games for free on HSSN's Facebook page, the new streaming home for WKU Athletics this fall. The Voice of Lady Topper Basketball, Brett Williams, will bring fans all of the action for WKU soccer, volleyball and softball contests on HSSN alongside special guests throughout the season.

The first streamed event of the fall will be WKU Soccer's exhibition against Wright State on Friday, Aug. 16, followed by the team's final exhibition against Austin Peay on Sunday, Aug. 18. Four days later, the Lady Toppers' season-opener against Belmont will be available for fans unable to attend in person.

The 2019 season will feature a marquee non-conference home match against SEC foe Ole Miss on Sept. 5 – which will be streamed – as part of seven straight matches at the WKU Soccer Complex, the longest such homestand in program history.

A non-conference tilt against Alabama A&M (Sept. 15) as well as Conference USA matchups against Southern Miss (Sept. 21), Charlotte (Oct. 3), Old Dominion (Oct. 6) and UAB (Oct. 25) round out WKU Soccer's streamed events at home for the 2019 campaign.

All home matches at the WKU Soccer Complex for the 2019 season will be free admission.

Beginning with its home-opener on Sept. 10, WKU Volleyball will have 13 of its 15 matches on The Hill streamed this fall. Five of the Red and White's six home tournament tilts will be streamed including primetime matchups with Ohio State and Tulsa on Sept. 13 and 20, respectively.

All three of WKU Volleyball's midweek home tilts will be available to stream for out-of-town fans with EKU (Sept. 10), Austin Peay (Sept. 24) and Louisiana Tech (Nov. 14) on the docket.

In addition to the Lady Toppers' seven non-conference streams, Conference USA matchups against Southern Miss (Sept. 29), Middle Tennessee (Oct. 4), UTSA (Oct. 20), UTEP (Nov. 1) and UAB (Nov. 16) will all be streamed as well.

With the 2019 campaign just around the corner, volleyball season tickets are available online at WKUSports.com or by calling the WKU Ticket Office at 1-800-5-BIGRED.

Games will also be available on CUSA.tv, Conference USA's home for live events, for fans who elect to subscribe. A CUSA.tv subscription will still include all of the streaming video content from across the league including when the Hilltoppers and Lady Toppers are on the road. The subscription will not be required to watch the events on HSSN.

WKU VOLLEYBALL ADDS WEST FLORIDA TRANSFER LOGAN KAEL

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – As the 2019 season quickly approaches, WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson has announced the addition of defensive specialist Logan Kael to the Lady Topper roster. An incoming junior, Kael joins the Red and White after playing her first two seasons at West Florida, a Division II program in Pensacola.

Most recently, Kael racked up 500 digs across 31 matches and 117 sets in 2018. She added 41 aces from the service line in addition to earning her third Gulf South Conference Defensive Player of the Week nod. As a sophomore, Kael collected Second Team All-Gulf South Conference recognition along with recording her 1,000th career dig on Nov. 10, 2018 in a four-set win over Montevallo.

In her debut season as an Argonaut, Kael racked up the awards as she became the program's first-ever AVCA South Region Freshman of the Year and Gulf South Conference Freshman of the Year. She was honored twice as the league's Defensive Player of the Week and three times as the Freshman of the Week. Kael played in 36 matches and 128 sets as a freshman, leading the team with 535 digs to go along with her 29 aces.

West Florida posted a 55-15 overall record in Kael's two years in Pensacola. In Gulf South action, the Argos went 31-1 winning the regular-season and tournament championships in both 2017 and 2018.

Kael hails from Knoxville, Tenn., where she played a majority of her prep ball at Bearden High School. She capped her high school career by playing her senior season at Maryville High School. As a junior, Kael racked up 882 digs across 117 sets played to go along with 52 aces. Kael notched 417 digs and 93 aces in her 113 sets of action as a senior.

She will continue pursuing her degree in interior design on The Hill.

Why she chose WKU: "I came to WKU because it feels like home and where I was meant to be. As a transfer, I am incredibly grateful for this opportunity to grow and learn from this amazing team and coaches!"

THIRD-ANNUAL VOLLEYBALL 101, SCRIMMAGE & KIDS CLINIC SET FOR SATURDAY, AUG. 17

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – As the 2019 season quickly approaches, WKU Volleyball is excited to invite fans to its third annual Volleyball 101 event on Saturday, August 17, inside Diddle Arena. The outing will open with the Lady Toppers' second inter-squad scrimmage of the preseason open to the public at 11 a.m. CT, before shifting into a youth clinic with the WKU players and assistant coaches while head coach Travis Hudson conducts an educational session in the Paul Just Media Center to break down the game and strategies.

WKU Volleyball 101 is designed to educate fans of all experience levels that would like to learn more about the sport of volleyball. Whether you have never seen a volleyball match before or you want to learn more about the college coaching strategies, this event has something for you.

Action will open at 11 a.m. CT on the Diddle Arena main court with an hour long WKU Volleyball scrimmage. At noon, the Lady Topper players will stay in the gym and share the game they love with young fans in an hour-long youth clinic while everyone else heads over to the media room with Coach Hudson to learn the ins and outs of the sport plus much more.

Parking and event admission is free for everyone. Fans are encouraged to park in Parking Structure 2 (between Diddle Arena and L.T. Smith Stadium).

Fans will be able to purchase WKU Volleyball gear throughout the two-hour event on the main court. Season tickets and Big Red Rascals memberships will also be available to purchase.

Additionally, there will be chances to win season tickets, WKU Volleyball gear and more. Posters and other print pieces will be free to fans at the third annual event as well with autographs being signed at the end.

With the 2019 campaign just around the corner, volleyball season tickets are available online at WKUSports.com or by calling the WKU ticket office at 1-800-5-BIGRED. Season ticket holders will receive 15 general admission tickets with the Flexible Ticket Package that can be used to attend the home games of his or her choice. This plan allows the flexibility to choose which volleyball games the buyer wants to attend and the number of tickets used for each game. Season ticket holders also gain exclusive access to pre-game chalk talks with Hudson, who enters his 25th season at the helm of WKU volleyball.

CERINO, MATTHEWS LAND PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE NODS; WKU PICKED THIRD

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – With the 2019 season just over two weeks away, Conference USA has released its Preseason Coaches Poll and Team with Travis Hudson's squad predicted to finish third this year. Senior Sophia Cerino and sophomore Lauren Matthews earned two of the 12 spots on the league's Preseason All-Conference team.

Defending champion and preseason favorite, Rice, landed a league-high three individuals on the team. Charlotte, Florida Atlantic and Rice all joined the Red and White with a pair of Preseason All-Conference selections.

The last time WKU Volleyball was not tabbed the preseason favorites was the program's first year in Conference USA, 2014, when the team was picked second.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

Cerino returns for her senior campaign on The Hill following a breakout junior season that culminated with her earning Second Team All-Conference honors from the league. Last season from her natural position on the right side, Cerino operated at an offensive clip that exceeded .320. She led the Lady Toppers and Conference USA with 45 service aces on the year while appearing in all 117 sets across 30 matches.

After a slow start to her debut season at WKU due to injury, Matthews wrapped up 2018 with an All-Freshman team nod from C-USA. She appeared in 77 sets across 20 matches after missing nearly a month to start the year. Matthews concluded the season with 196 kills and 60 blocks, posting double-digit kills in eight outings and at least three blocks in 10.

This Saturday, Hudson and company will be hosting their third annual Volleyball 101, scrimmage and kids clinic that is free to attend. An intersquad scrimmage will get underway at 11 a.m. from the main court inside Diddle Arena before Coach Hudson's information session and the kids clinic commence at noon.

WKU's first outing against another team will take place on Wednesday, Aug. 21, when the Lady Toppers head to Lexington to face No. 7 Kentucky in an exhibition from Paul Dunbar High School. The squads' official season opener is Friday, Aug. 30, against Loyola (Chicago) in Toledo, Ohio.

With the 2019 campaign just around the corner, volleyball season tickets are available online at WKUSports.com or by calling the WKU ticket office at 1-800-5-BIGRED. Season ticket holders will receive

WKU VOLLEYBALL HEADED TO LEXINGTON FOR EXHIBITION AGAINST NO. 7 KENTUCKY, BMCF FUNDRAISER

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson and the 2019 Lady Topper squad will face their first competition of the fall on Wednesday in an exhibition against No. 7 Kentucky. First serve from Paul Dunbar High School in Lexington is slated for 5 p.m. CT, between the in-state foes.

This marks the third-straight season the Wildcats and Tops have met in a preseason exhibition with locations altering each year. However, the last time the squads met for a non-preseason match is a night most volleyball fans will never forget. In the second round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, WKU led host No. 6 Kentucky 2-0 in the win-or-go-home match before the Wildcats fought all the way back in a blow-for-blow battle. WKU's Alyssa Cavanaugh put on a show, registering 23 kills and a .405 hitting clip on the outside in what would end up being her final collegiate match.

While the rivalry is stronger than ever between UK and WKU, the amount of respect between the programs far exceeds it.

There's no doubt most fans would pay to see the teams meet again, but the 2019 preseason exhibition will be free admission to anyone on Wednesday – and for good reason.

Since Cavanaugh concluded her decorated career on The Hill, the four-time All-American was diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia – or ALL – on Sept. 5, 2018. Since then, Cavanaugh has completed treatment and had a successful bone marrow transplant donated from none other than her father. At this point, Cavanaugh is in remission but still fighting an uphill battle as she continues to recover.

Kentucky Volleyball has turned the preseason exhibition into a fundraiser for the Bone Marrow & Cancer Foundation. T-shirts will be on sale to help benefit the cause, as well. Donations will be accepted in cash or check forms only.

Both teams will be wearing the same orange warm-up shirts prior to the match – the color associated with ALL – before switching into jerseys for the match.

Eight players return to represent WKU again this season while five student-athletes will be representing the Red and White for the first time. This year's squad was predicted to finish third in the Conference USA Preseason Coaches Poll and had a pair of players selected to the Preseason All-Conference team in Sophia Cerino and Lauren Matthews.

Exhibition play will not strictly adhere to the usual match format. Both teams have agreed to play in a cooperative format so each side's entire bench can gain valuable match setting playing time. To help both programs gain beneficial experience during the preseason meeting, extra sets will potentially be added while scoring may be adjusted as well. Changes will be up to the coaches' discretion and will be relayed to fans and followers as soon as possible via WKU Volleyball's Twitter.

While Wednesday's exhibition will not count towards the all-time meetings between the in-state foes, it will serve as an instrumental training opportunity as both sides gear up for big seasons. Scores from the exhibition will not be made public. Limited stats will be included in the post-match release following the competition.

The squad's official season opener is Friday, Aug. 30, against Loyola (Chicago) in Toledo, Ohio.

With the 2019 campaign just around the corner, volleyball season tickets are available online at WKUSports.com or by calling the WKU ticket office at 1-800-5-BIGRED. Season ticket holders will receive 15 general admission tickets with the Flexible Ticket Package that can be used to attend the home games of his or her choice. This plan allows the flexibility to choose which volleyball games the buyer wants to attend and the number of tickets used for each game. Season ticket holders also gain exclusive access to pre-game chalk talks with Hudson, who enters his 25th season at the helm of WKU volleyball.

Statement from UK head coach, Craig Skinner:
"For someone who has given so much to the sport of volleyball in the state of Kentucky and Western Kentucky University, we hope that this small gesture of ours can go a long way in helping the fight against cancer."

About the Bone Marrow & Cancer Foundation:
The Bone Marrow & Cancer Foundation (BMCF) offers financial assistance and free support services to cancer and transplant patients and their families. The BMCF relies 100% on private donations to provide these vital services. Bone Marrow & Cancer Foundation is the only organization of its kind that does not limit assistance to a specific disease, type of transplant, or age range.

RED & WHITE WRAP UP EXHIBITION AGAINST NO. 7 KENTUCKY

LEXINGTON, Ky. – WKU Volleyball got its first taste of action in the 2019 season with Wednesday night's exhibition against No. 7 Kentucky. After a scheduling conflict in UK's Memorial Coliseum, the sides met at Dunbar High School.

Both Bluegrass programs went deep into their benches to take advantage of the training opportunity. All 12 Lady Toppers in uniform saw action throughout the competition.

Head coaches Travis Hudson and Craig Skinner both jumped on the microphone between sets one and two to talk about the evening's fundraiser for the Bone Marrow & Cancer Foundation. Those speeches can be viewed HERE.

Nearly $4,000 was raised for the BMCF at the event that went far beyond the sport of volleyball.

Back-and-forth action had the Dunbar High School crowd to its feet on several occasions with impressive plays made from both sides. The Wildcats ultimately claimed the outing 3-1. WKU and Kentucky are both poised to make significant noise this season with rosters filled with talent from top to bottom.

WKU will return to the gym for another week of training before hitting the road for its opening tournament in Toledo, Ohio, Aug. 30-21. After playing their first six matches on the road, the Lady Toppers will return to Diddle Arena for their home opener on Sept. 10 when Eastern Kentucky comes to town.

COACH HUDSON ON THE TEAM'S EXHIBITION SHOWING:
"I'm very encouraged. I thought we did some really good things tonight. It's still very individual this early; you're looking to see individually what kids are doing. No one's really had time to gel as a unit yet. What a great opportunity to see who you are playing against a team the quality of Kentucky – they're a legitimate Final Four-contender type team. I thought once we got our feet under us we competed really well."

SOPHIA CERINO ON WHAT THE BMCF FUNDRAISER MEANT:
"This fundraiser means everything. I have so many memories of playing Kentucky with Alyssa up there. This was a huge gesture that Kentucky made towards our program – I'm super appreciative of it – especially being teammates with Alyssa and having played with her. And I know Kentucky knows the level she played at so this is really cool."

PAIGE BRIGGS ON THE SUPPORT FOR ALYSSA CAVANAUGH:

“Being involved in a fundraising event like this was so great and so special. I loved the family-oriented focus of this team. I could see that family environment while I was being recruited and that’s a big reason why I’m here.”

2019 WKU VOLLEYBALL MEDIA DAY

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – With the season-opener of his 25th season as WKU Volleyball's head coach just four days away, Travis Hudson as well as seniors Sophia Cerino and Emma Kowalkowski met with the media Monday morning to preview the 2019 campaign.

COACH HUDSON OPENING STATEMENT:
"I guess everybody's excited this time of year to start their season. Going into my 25th year of this, sometimes the excitement's a little higher or lower than it is in other years and this is a group I'm very excited about. This is a group of players that I'm really excited about. It's been a really enjoyable couple of weeks in two-a-days if that's possible. Watching them get better and come together as a group. By a lot of people's standards, last year was a good year with 20 wins but it didn't feel the same to us. We dealt with a lot injury-wise and other things so we're excited to get back in here and return our program more to what we're used to. We've worked really hard to reestablish our culture and what we're about. I think this group is ready to go out and do some really good things."

For the past 19 seasons, WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 19 seasons, joined by Nebraska, Penn State, Florida and Colorado State. During the last 19-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more matches every season have been led by the same head coach.

For the first time since entering the league prior to the 2014 season, WKU Volleyball was not the league's preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers finished third in the coaches poll behind Rice and Florida Atlantic.

"I can't even tell you how much I like that," Coach Hudson shared when asked if he was looking forward to the team being able to finally embrace an underdog role. "If you look back at the history of our program, this has been an underdog story in a lot of ways. You know, we were 7-26 my first year here and this program was built from scratch. I'll say I think we're ranked where we belong in the preseason poll. I don't think we've been snubbed in any way based on the team that we were a year ago. I like our team and I like our kids and I'll take my chances with the kids in that lockerroom this year."

In total, there are 13 Lady Toppers on Hudson's squad this season – eight returners and five newcomers including a pair of transfers. A pair of returners in Cerino and Lauren Matthews were selected to the C-USA Preseason All-Conference Team.

Nadia Dieudonne (pronounced JEW-duh-nay), was the first new face on the scene, joining the Red and White for the spring semester. The Louisville native is a junior this season after playing her first two season at Xavier.

“I tell you what, that kid’s going to get lost on our team a little bit this year with the weapons we have around her,” continued Hudson. “When that happens, sometimes your setter is your unsung hero. She is a kid that makes everybody better. She puts everybody in better positions; she’s a volleyball player more than she’s just a setter. Nadia is a great defensive player that just has a feel for this game that very few players that I’ve coached have. And she’s a pleaser, she’s constantly talking to me about what she needs to do to put her teammates in better positions. She’s the ultimate giver and while she won’t blow you away with her size and athleticism, people that truly understand our sport are going to see very quickly the impact she has. Nadia doesn’t just talk about competing and winning, she backs it up. If she’s struggling with something you can probably guarantee that she’ll be in the gym working on it the next day.”

Also transferring to The Hill was Logan Kael who joined the squad in August from West Florida. A native of Knoxville, Tenn., Kael is also a junior.

“We have a lot of returning offensive players – even with them being young,” Hudson opened about the team’s strong focus on defense this preseason. “We had the time to train in the offseason with all of them. Most of our offensive players have a good understanding of what they’re trying to do up there. Our offensive system here is not terribly difficult, it’s not exotic, it’s very simple but it takes discipline. If you’re disciplined when you do the things that we do, it’s very difficult to stop us. This system is more different from any I’ve ever put together. Offensively, we have a lot of weapons and a lot of talent. Early in the year, I’m usually a coach that spends a ton of time offensively trying to get ourselves ready and then we catch up defensively. We’ve spent next to no time working on offense this season but we have a lot of talent on that side of the ball and Nadia, as we talked about, holds us together. If we want to be great, it’s going to be about getting people stopped and defending. I think offensively, we’ll stand up to anybody on our schedule.”

Five of the eight returners for WKU are offensive players that accounted for 66.3-percent of the Lady Toppers’ kills a year ago. The lone attacker lost was Rachel Anderson.

Defensively, on the other hand, WKU will see some new faces in the back row with just 51.3-percent of the squads digs coming from returners.

After collecting his 600th career win last season, Hudson is one of just 31 head coaches in all of Division I volleyball returning for their 25th or better season. Even more impressive, Hudson is one of just 11 to spend their entire career at the same school.

SOPHIA CERINO ON HOW DIFFERENT THIS OFFSEASON WAS COMPARED TO OTHERS

“I would say we were really hungry. Emma and I were here in 2017, playing Kentucky in the that Second Round match of the NCAA Tournament, and then with last year ending the way that it did - especially as returners – we know that’s not what it’s usually like and we want to get back to where we were and prove to everyone that we can do it and that last season was not indicative of what this program is about.”

EMMA KOWALKOWSKI ON THE BIGGEST DIFFERENCE IN THE TEAM

“We have a lot of new young players but I think they fit in really well right away for us. As a team, we just gel really well off the court and on it. Everyone, like Sophia was talking about earlier, is hungry; we want to get back to that caliber of team that we were two years ago.”

With the 2019 campaign just around the corner, volleyball season tickets are available online at WKUSports.com or by calling the WKU ticket office at 1-800-5-BIGRED. Season ticket holders will receive 15 general admission tickets with the Flexible Ticket Package that can be used to attend the home games of his or her choice. This plan allows the flexibility to choose which volleyball games the buyer wants to attend and the number of tickets used for each game. Season ticket holders also gain exclusive access to pre-game chalk talks with Hudson, who enters his 25th season at the helm of WKU Volleyball.

TOPS HEAD TO TOLEDO BLUE & GOLD TOURNAMENT TO OPEN 2019 SLATE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson has led the Red and White through a successful preseason for the 25th time as the Lady Toppers are headed for Toledo to open the 2019 campaign. WKU will take the court once on Friday with its season-opener against Loyola-Chicago set for 3:30 p.m. CT from Savage Arena on the University of Toledo's campus. Weekend action will conclude with a pair of contests on Saturday as the Tops will face the hosts at 11 a.m. before closing play against North Dakota State at 3:30 p.m.

WEEKEND SCHEDULE
Friday, Aug. 30 – 3:30 p.m. CT | vs. Loyola-Chicago | Livestats | ESPN+
Saturday, Aug. 31 – 11 a.m. CT | at Toledo | Livestats | ESPN+
Saturday, Aug. 31 – 3:30 p.m. CT | vs. North Dakota State | Livestats | ESPN+

Friday's action will see WKU face off against Loyola, a squad that went 16-14 last season and tied for sixth in the Missouri Valley regular-season standings. The Ramblers return four starters and eight letterwinners from last year's squad while welcoming seven newcomers to the 2019 scene. WKU is 0-2 all-time against Loyola with meetings during the 1992 and 1994 campaigns.

WKU will open Saturday's slate with a tilt with the host Rockets. Toledo went 9-18 a season ago, finishing tied for fifth in the West Division of the MAC. UT returns three starters and seven total letterwinners from last year while welcoming six new faces to the program this season. WKU is 2-2 all-time against the Rockets, claiming the decision in each of the past two meetings, which came during the 2003 and 2006 campaigns. The series dates all the way back to 1988 with WKU owning a 1-1 mark when the sides meet in Glass City.

Weekend play will conclude with a Saturday afternoon meeting between the Tops and North Dakota State. NDSU posted a 9-20 record last season and finished seventh in the Summit League's regular-season standings. The Bison return five starters and their libero from a year ago and 10 letterwinners total while welcoming a trio of newcomers. WKU claimed the lone prior meeting between the squads in a 3-0 neutral-site decision during the 2004 campaign.

Hudson's squad returned five starters from last year's 20-10 campaign and eight letterwinners total. During the offseason, WKU added a pair of transfers and three freshmen that are set for their Lady Topper debuts.

Two of the Lady Toppers' returners were honored by Conference USA earlier this month as Sophia Cerino and Lauren Matthews were both selected to the league's Preseason All-Conference Team. As a unit, WKU was predicted for finish third in C-USA by the league's coaches.

After securing 20 wins last season, Coach Hudson and the WKU program have now posted 19-consecutive 20-win campaigns. The streak is the fifth-best active mark in the nation.

The 2019 season also marks Hudson's 25th at the helm of WKU Volleyball. Hudson is one of just 31 coaches across Division I Volleyball to be leading a team for at least their 25th season. Even more impressively, the WKU veteran is one of just 11 to coach every season at the same school. His .741 career win-percentage figures out to rank second-best of those 11 longstanding coaches as does his 25.4 wins-per-season average.

With the 2019 campaign underway, volleyball season tickets are available online at WKUSports.com or by calling the WKU ticket office at 1-800-5-BIGRED. Season ticket holders will receive 15 general admission tickets with the Flexible Ticket Package that can be used to attend the home games of his or her choice. This plan allows the flexibility to choose which volleyball games the buyer wants to attend and the number of tickets used for each game. Season ticket holders also gain exclusive access to pre-game chalk talks with Coach Hudson.

NOTES

PRESEASON C-USA POLL

For the first time since its inaugural season in the league, WKU Volleyball was not voted the C-USA Preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers were predicted to finish second in 2014 before going on to win both the regular season and C-USA tournament titles.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

Individually, senior rightside Sophia Cerino and sophomore middle Lauren Matthews earned spots on the league's 12-person Preseason All-Conference team. Rice landed a league-high three individuals on the team. Charlotte, Florida Atlantic and Rice all joined the Red and White with a pair of Preseason All-Conference selections.

ANOTHER TOUGH SCHEDULE

After a season filled with highs and lows in 2018, WKU Volleyball is determined to make noise in 2019 and has put together the schedule to do just that.

WKU's 29-match regular season includes three regular season conference champions and two conference tournament champions. Additionally, 15 of WKUs' 2019 opponents notched winning campaigns a year ago.

This year's slate features nine squads that appeared in the 2018 postseason. Kentucky, Louisville, Samford and Rice all appeared in the NCAA Tournament with both of WKU's in-state foes winning at least one game. Bowling Green, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and North Texas all participated in the NIVC.

STRONG AND STEADY

HARLIE BRYANT

HOPE FOR HARLIE

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 13-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then, Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

Harlie is now a Lady Topper. At every home match, she is with the team in the huddle and at introductions while she cheers with her family from the sidelines. The team's secret weapon, she is a constant reminder to the WKU student-athletes and coaching staff to keep fighting no matter what stands in the way.

For more information about Harlie and her journey, visit HOPEFORHARLIE.ORG and follow on Twitter via @HOPEFORHARLIE.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

For more information about FOJ, visit FRIENDSOFJACLYN.ORG.

NOTES

31 head coaches in all of DI volleyball returning for their 25th or better season. Even more impressive, Hudson is one of just 11 to spend their entire career at the same school.

20-WIN SEASONS

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 19 seasons, WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 19 seasons. During the last 19-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

610 AND COUNTING

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

TRAVIS HUDSON: OFF THE COURT

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

Back on the court days later, Hudson returned to direct his 24th year of volleyball from his alma mater.

NEW FACES

Hudson's squad returned five starters from last year's 20-10 campaign and eight letterwinners total. During the offseason, WKU added a pair of transfers and three freshmen that are set for their Lady Topper debuts.

WKU picked up a pair of junior transfers in Nadia Dieudonne and Logan Kael. Dieudonne made her way back to the Bluegrass State after playing two seasons at Xavier. Hailing from Tennessee, Kael headed back north after playing two seasons at West Florida (DII).

Additionally, the Lady Toppers added a trio of talented freshmen in Paige Briggs, Avri Davis and Jennifer Rush. All three are expected to see action for the Red and White on the offensive side of the ball.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

EXCELLENCE IN THE CLASSROOM

Following the 2018-19 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 13th consecutive season as the Lady Toppers finished the campaign with a 3.46 team GPA. The honor marks the 17th time a Lady Topper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

In total, 189 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of eight Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, FIU, Middle Tennessee, Rice, Southern Miss, UTEP and UTSA in addition to the Red and White.

THE LAST FOUR YEARS

Across the last four seasons on The Hill, WKU Volleyball sported a 113-21 record that included six collective Conference USA Championships. The Lady Toppers went 53-5 in C-USA regular season play during that span. In three NCAA Tournament appearances the squad posted a 2-3 record.

BACK IN THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

squad. The CNT training conincided with other national team training blocks, giving Hudson and his group the opportunity to work side-by-by with Team USA.

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

"I BELIEVE IN ALYSSA CAVANAUGH"

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Lady Toppers to 123 wins but her 124th will be her biggest yet.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant and less than six weeks later on March 20 would finally be discharged from the hospital. The family would stay in Cincinnati through May when Alyssa would finally be able to go home.

Cavanaugh continues to recover from the transplant. While the process has had its ups and downs, anyone that knows her knows she's a fighter up for the challenge.

THREE LADY TOPPERS RECORD DOUBLE DOUBLES IN WKU'S FIVE-SET WIN OVER LOYOLA

TOLEDO, Ohio – Four Lady Toppers registered double-digit kills as WKU Volleyball claimed a five-set decision over Loyola to open the 2019 season Friday night in Toledo. Both Paige Briggs and Nadia Dieudonne recorded double doubles in their WKU debuts while Katie Isenbarger added one as well. WKU out-hit the Ramblers by more than .100 while out-digging LU as well.

"Well, that was a good old-fashioned early season struggle," head coach Travis Hudson opened. "We did not play very well in a lot of facets of the game today, but found a way to win. I thought we finally found a rhythm in that fifth set so hopefully that carries over to tomorrow."

Freshman Briggs led WKU in kills with 18 in her collegiate debut to go along with 11 digs. Lauren Matthews (15), Sophia Cerino (12) and Katie Isenbarger (10) all finished in double digits in the category. The last time WKU had four attackers with double-digit kills was Nov. 8, 2018 at UAB.

WKU hit .296 on the match while holding Loyola to a .193 mark. Defensively, Dieudonne led WKU with 20 digs to go along with her 54 assists. She is the first Lady Topper since Jessica Lucas to record a 20-20 double double. Lucas achieved the feat on Sept. 16, 2016. Dieudonne is the 36th Lady Topper to ever achieve the feat and the very first to do so in the month of August.

Isenbarger notched her first-career double double with 10 kills and 10 digs in the five-set contest while leading WKU with a .348 offensive clip. She also led the Tops with three blocks.

Junior-transfer Logan Kael finished her first match as a Lady Topper with 18 digs to go along with two aces. Emma Kowalkowski added 16 digs.

Cerino led the Red and White with three service aces in the match. She also added seven digs in the match – a career high for the senior.

The Lady Toppers led the Ramblers in most additional categories including kills (65-59), blocks (5-3), assists (60-57) and digs (90-76).

WKU Volleyball claimed its first set of action in the 2019 season with a 25-23 victory over Loyola from Savage Arena Friday night. The Lady Topper offense operated at a .242 rate in the frame while holding the Ramblers to a -.050 mark.

Loyola pulled back in set two to even the match with a 25-22 win over the Red and White heading into the long break.

Out of the break, the sides battled back and forth but WKU would ultimately claim the frame in a 26-24 decision for a 2-1 lead in the match.

After a slow start in the fourth set that saw WKU trail 6-0 early, the Lady Toppers pulled all the way back but Loyola would ultimately force a decisive fifth set after a 25-22 win.

In the fifth set, a Paige Briggs kill pushed WKU ahead 5-3 to force a Loyola timeout. The sides would trade the next four points before the Red and White would open up an 8-5 lead and force another timeout. WKU would be the first to double digits at 10-6 before the Ramblers would pull within two on a couple occasions.

BIG PERFORMANCES HELP WKU VOLLEYBALL TO BLUE & GOLD TOURNAMENT CROWN

TOLEDO, Ohio – A pair of Saturday sweeps secured WKU Volleyball the opening weekend crown from Toledo's Blue & Gold Tournament after a five-set win Friday night. Lady Topper freshman Paige Briggs added another double-double performance while Lauren Matthews worked at a scorching .609 clip en route to 17 kills in the tournament finale.

"I'm really happy with the weekend overall," head coach Travis Hudson started. "We improved with each match throughout the weekend and that is what's most important to me at this point, regardless of the outcome."

In her first weekend as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne proved to be a game changer and earned the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament's MVP honor. Fellow newcomer Briggs along with C-USA Preseason All-Conference selection Matthews earned spots on the Blue & Gold All-Tournament Team as well.

Throughout the weekend, the Red and White put up big numbers in nearly every facet of the game. Offensively, the Lady Toppers posted a .320 hitting clip while limiting their opposition to a mere .154 rate. WKU tallied 453 kills led by Briggs' 132. Three different WKU student-athletes tallied 12 aces including Briggs, Sophia Cerino and Katie Isenbarger.

Defensively, Logan Kael (117), Dieudonne (105) and Briggs (102) all racked up triple-digit digs. At the net, Cerino, Isenbarger, Matthews and Avri Davis all recorded double-digit blocks on the weekend.

WKU Volleyball is off to a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with four-straight wins before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

WKU 3, TOLEDO 0

WKU Volleyball picked up its first sweep of the season on Saturday morning with a win over the weekend host, Toledo. For the second-straight match, Briggs led the Red and White in kills, finishing with 11. The freshman added seven digs, four aces and a .333 hitting clip on the outside.

The Lady Toppers won the opening frame in demanding fashion with a 25-13 over the Rockets. Set two would prove to be the closest of the three frames but WKU prevailed in a 25-19 fashion. Following the break, the Red and White claimed their largest margin of victory in a 25-10 decision to close out the sweep.

As a team, WKU operated at a .398 offensive rate while limiting Toledo to a .140 reading. Sophia Cerino led the Lady Topper charge with seven kills on 11 swings for a .545 rate.

Nadia Dieudonne recorded 34 assists, six digs, two kills and an ace. Leading the WKU defense, Logan Kael posted her second double-digit dig outing in as many matches as a Lady Topper.

WKU 3, NORTH DAKOTA STATE 0

In their final match of the weekend, the Lady Toppers opened the first set against North Dakota State evenly splitting the first 12 points. From there, WKU exploded to a first-frame victory after scoring 19 of the next 25 points for a 25-12 win. Katie Isenbarger and Paige Briggs each recorded five kills in the set.

After hitting at a collective .400 clip in set one, WKU added 15 more kills in the next frame. For the second-straight set, the Lady Toppers held the Bison to a sub-.100 attack rate as WKU took a 25-18 decision for a 2-0 lead in the match.

North Dakota State responded out of the long break and pushed WKU the entire set with neither bench leading by more than three in the frame. In the end, the Lady Toppers would hold on for a 25-23 win to secure their second sweep of the day. Hudson's crew would hit .394 in the frame to bring their mark on the match to .295.

Matthews led the Red and White with 17 kills on the match to go along with a scorching .609 hitting percentage.

Briggs recorded the second double-double performance of her debut weekend, notching 15 kills and 16 digs. The freshman operated at a .351 clip.

Dieudonne remained impressive as well, tallying 42 assists and nine digs in the weekend's final match. For the third-straight match, Kael reached double-digit digs. All nine Lady Toppers to see the course recorded at least one dig in the outing.

At the net, Matthews and Cerino led WKU with three blocks apiece. The Red and White finished with 10 in the contest.

Across the weekend, WKU's attack percentage was more than double all three of its opponents after leading NDSU .295-.130.

NEXT TIME OUT

WKU Volleyball will get back to work this week before heading up the road to Louisville for next weekend's UofL-hosted outing. Along with the Cardinals and Lady Toppers, Arizona State and Tennessee Tech will also be at the event.

BRIGGS, DIEUDONNE EARN C-USA WEEKLY HONORS FOLLOWING DEBUT WEEKEND

DALLAS – Following a stellar debut weekend on The Hill, WKU Volleyball's Paige Briggs and Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) have been recognized by Conference USA for their impressive performances. Briggs was tabbed the league's Freshman of the Week while Dieudonne earned Setter of the Week recognition.

With the help of the pair of newcomers, the Lady Toppers are off to a 3-0 start and won the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament title over the weekend.

In her first match with the Red and White, Dieudonne delivered a 20-20 double-double showing with 54 assists and 20 digs. Her performance marked the first of the sort since Jessica Lucas achieved the feat on Sept. 16, 2016.

Playing in all 11 weekend sets, Dieudonne finished with 130 assists and 35 digs to average a double double in her first three matches of the season. The junior transfer averaged 11.82 assists per set to go along with a 3.18 digs per set reading. The Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament MVP posted a .412 attack percentage of her own and facilitated the WKU offense to a collective .320 clip.

A true freshman, Briggs made her impact felt immediately over the weekend. The Ortonville, Mich., native posted double-digit kills in all three weekend victories while recording two double-double performances. A Toledo Blue & Gold All-Tournament Team selection as well, Briggs delivered 44 weekend kills, 34 digs, four aces, three assists and two blocks to go along with her scorching .336 hitting clip from the outside. At the service line, Briggs was solid, notching a .920 service rate while owning a .963 serve-receive mark.

Briggs averaged 4.00 kills per set to go along with her 3.09 digs per set while playing all six rotations for the Lady Toppers.

WKU Volleyball will be back in action this Friday and Saturday as the team heads up the road to Louisville. Weekend play will open on Friday for the Red and White with matches against Arizona State (9:30 a.m.) and the host Cardinals (6:30 p.m.). The Lady Toppers will conclude the outing on Saturday with a contest against Tennessee Tech at 12:30 p.m.

WKU HEADED TO LOUISVILLE FOR FLEUR DE LIS TOURNAMENT

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – With the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament title under its belt, undefeated WKU Volleyball is headed to the Louisville-hosted Fleur De Lis Tournament this weekend in Louisville. WKU will open weekend play Friday morning with a 9:30 a.m. CT tilt against Arizona State before closing Friday action against the host Cardinals at 6:30 p.m. Travis Hudson and company will conclude play with a 12:30 p.m. tilt against Tennessee Tech on Saturday.

WEEKEND SCHEDULE
Friday, Sept. 6 – 9:30 a.m. CT | vs. Arizona State | Livestats
Friday, Sept. 6 – 6:30 p.m. CT | at No. 24 Louisville | Livestats | ACC Network Extra
Saturday, Sept. 7 – 13:30 p.m. CT | vs. Tennessee Tech | Livestats

Friday's morning action will see WKU face off against Arizona State, a squad that went 14-18 last season and finished 11th in the Pac-12 Conference regular-season standings with a 5-15 reading. The Sun Devils return six starters and nine letterwinners from last year's squad while welcoming nine newcomers to the 2019 scene. WKU is 1-0 all-time against ASU with a five-set win during the 2008 campaign. Arizona State opened the 2019 season with a 3-0 mark, grabbing four-set victories over Houston and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi and a five-set win over LSU.

WKU will close Friday's slate with a showdown with No. 24 Louisville from L&N Federal Credit Union Arena. The Cardinals return three starters and seven letterwinners from last year's 22-9 campaign. Louisville finished 14-4 in ACC play to tie for third in the league standings before advancing to the Second Round of the 2018 NCAA Tournament. UofL is off to a 2-1 start on this year's campaign, grabbing wins over Texas A&M and Dayton after dropping the season opener to Florida. WKU trails Louisville 16-0 in the all-time series – dropping a four-set decision most recently in 2017.

Weekend play will conclude with a midday contest against Tennessee Tech on Saturday. TTU is still in search of its first victory of the 2019 campaign after suffering losses to Northern Arizona, Oakland and Michigan over opening weekend. The Golden Eagles return eight players from last year's 11-19 campaign while welcoming eight newcomers. Tennessee Tech went 5-11 in OVC action a year ago, finishing ninth in the regular-season standings.

WKU is off to a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with a 4-0 mark before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

After securing 20 wins last season, Coach Hudson and the WKU program have now posted 19-consecutive 20-win campaigns. The streak is the fifth-best active mark in the nation.

The 2019 season also marks Hudson's 25th at the helm of WKU Volleyball. Hudson is one of just 31 coaches across Division I Volleyball to be leading a team for at least their 25th season. Even more impressively, the WKU veteran is one of just 11 to coach every season at the same school. His .741 career win-percentage figures out to rank second-best of those 11 longstanding coaches as does his 25.4 wins-per-season average.

With the 2019 campaign underway, volleyball season tickets are available online at WKUSports.com or by calling the WKU ticket office at 1-800-5-BIGRED. Season ticket holders will receive 15 general admission tickets with the Flexible Ticket Package that can be used to attend the home games of his or her choice. This plan allows the flexibility to choose which volleyball games the buyer wants to attend and the number of tickets used for each game. Season ticket holders also gain exclusive access to pre-game chalk talks with Hudson, who enters his 25th season at the helm of WKU volleyball.

COMING OUT HOT

WKU Volleyball opened the 2019 campaign at the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament where the Red and White went a perfect 3-0 to win the season-opening event. While in Glass City, the Tops downed Loyola (3-2), Toledo (3-0) and North Dakota State (3-0).

In her first weekend as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) earned the Blue & Gold Tournament's MVP honor. Fellow newcomer Paige Briggs along with Preseason All-Conference selection Lauren Matthews also earned spots on the All-Tournament Team.

WKU is off to a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with four-straight wins before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

20-20 VISION

In her very first match as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay), record WKU's first 20-20 double-double outing since Sept. 16, 2016. The Xavier transfer tallied 54 assists and 20 digs to become the 36th WKU Volleyball player to achieve the feat and the first-ever to do so in the month of August.

PRESEASON C-USA POLL

For the first time since its inaugural season in the league, WKU Volleyball was not voted the C-USA Preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers were predicted to finish second in 2014 before going on to win both the regular season and C-USA tournament titles.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

Individually, senior rightside Sophia Cerino and sophomore middle Lauren Matthews earned spots on the league's 12-person Preseason All-Conference team. Rice landed a league-high three individuals on the team. Charlotte, Florida Atlantic and Rice all

HARLIE BRYANT

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 13-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then, Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

Harlie is now a Lady Topper. At every home match, she is with the team in the huddle and at introductions while she cheers with her family from the sidelines. The team's secret weapon, she is a constant reminder to the WKU student-athletes and coaching staff to keep fighting no matter what stands in the way.

For more information about Harlie and her journey, visit HOPEFORHARLIE.ORG and follow on Twitter via @HOPEFORHARLIE.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

For more information about FOJ, visit FRIENDSOFJACLYN.ORG.

joined the Red and White with a pair of Preseason All-Conference selections.

ANOTHER TOUGH SCHEDULE

After a season filled with highs and lows in 2018, WKU Volleyball is determined to make noise in 2019 and has put together the schedule to do just that.

WKU's 29-match regular season includes three regular season conference champions and two conference tournament champions. Additionally, 15 of WKUs' 2019 opponents notched winning campaigns a year ago.

This year's slate features nine squads that appeared in the 2018 postseason. Kentucky, Louisville, Samford and Rice all appeared in the NCAA Tournament with both of WKU's in-state foes winning at least one game. Bowling Green, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and North Texas all participated in the NIVC.

STRONG AND STEADY

Less than 18 months removed from his heart attack, Travis Hudson returns for his 25th season at the helm of the WKU Volleyball program. After collecting his 600th career win last season, Hudson is one of just 31 head coaches in all of DI volleyball returning for their 25th or better season. Even more impressive, Hudson is one of just 11 to spend their entire career at the same school.

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .741 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 19 seasons (2000-18), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 19 seasons. During the last 19-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

613 AND COUNTING

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

TRAVIS HUDSON: OFF THE COURT

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

Back on the court days later, Hudson returned to direct his 24th year of volleyball from his alma mater.

NEW FACES

Hudson's squad returned five starters from last year's 20-10 campaign and eight letterwinners total. During the offseason, WKU added a pair of transfers and three freshmen that are set for their Lady Topper debuts.

WKU picked up a pair of junior transfers in Nadia Dieudonne and Logan Kael. Dieudonne made her way back to the Bluegrass State after playing two seasons at Xavier. Hailing from Tennessee, Kael headed back north after playing two seasons at West Florida (DII).

Additionally, the Lady Toppers added a trio of talented freshmen in Paige Briggs, Avri Davis and Jennifer Rush. All three are expected to see action for the Red and White on the offensive side of the ball.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

EXCELLENCE IN THE CLASSROOM

Following the 2018-19 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 13th consecutive season as the Lady Toppers finished the campaign with a 3.46 team GPA. The honor marks the 17th time a Lady Topper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

In total, 189 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of eight Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, FIU, Middle Tennessee, Rice, Southern Miss, UTEP and UTSA in addition to the Red and White.

THE LAST FOUR YEARS

Across the last four seasons (2015-18) on The Hill, WKU Volleyball sported a 113-21 record that included six collective Conference USA Championships. The Lady Toppers went 53-5 in C-USA regular season play during

BACK IN THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

"I BELIEVE IN ALYSSA CAVANAUGH"

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Lady Toppers to 123 wins but her 124th will be her biggest yet.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant and less than six weeks later on March 20 would finally be discharged from the hospital. The family would stay in Cincinnati through May when Alyssa would finally be able to go home.

Cavanaugh continues to recover from the transplant. While the process has had its ups and downs, anyone that knows her knows she's a fighter up for the challenge.

WKU TOPS ARIZONA STATE; FALLS TO NO. 24 LOUISVILLE TO SPLIT DAY

LOUISVILLE, Ky. – With a four-set win over Arizona State, WKU Volleyball pushed its record to a perfect 4-0 before suffering its first loss of the season to weekend host, No. 24 Louisville Friday night. Nadia Dieudonne and Paige Briggs would each record a double double on the day while Lauren Matthews led the squad in kills (25) and blocks (12).

"Today was a disappointing day from an execution standpoint, but we can't fault our kids' effort," head coach Travis Hudson shared. "They are playing very hard, we just have to execute at a higher level and that is my job to get that done. I love this group of kids and they will continue to get better and better."

The last time WKU played two Power Five teams in the same day was Aug. 31, 2013, when the Lady Toppers also split the day's decisions. WKU has met two Power Five squads on the same day a total of five times in program history, splitting the day four times and sweeping the day once (2012).

WKU 3, ARIZONA STATE 1

WKU Volleyball handed Arizona State its first loss of the season to open weekend play from the Fleur de Lis Tournament hosted by Louisville. The Sun Devils are now 3-1 on the young campaign while the Lady Toppers are out to a 4-0 start.

After a slow start to open their first frame of action in Louisville, WKU Volleyball fell 25-21 to Arizona State despite several attempts at a late rally. The Red and White trailed by as much as 19-13 before pulling all the way back within two at 23-21. Sophia Cerino tallied four of WKU's 12 kills as the team worked at a .132 clip.

Nadia Dieudonne neared double-double territory after just one set with eight assists and eight digs before breaking into double digits in both categories in the second frame. The Louisville native would finish with her second double double of the season, posting 39 assists and 17 digs.

Trailing 18-10 in the second set after Arizona State grabbed the next point out of WKU's second called timeout of the frame, the Lady Toppers went on an eight-point run to knot the set at 20-20. Arizona State's final lead of the frame came at 21-20 before the Red and White rattled off five quick points to steal the set. Finishing with a 15-4 run, Kayland Jackson led the Tops with four kills during that stretch. As a team, WKU tallied three blocks during the run while Cerino added three aces.

Arizona State opened the third set with a quick 5-1 lead before the Red and White evened things up at 5-5. However, ASU would once again jump out to a big lead, taking an 18-9 lead before the Lady Toppers would piece together an 8-1 run to pull back within two at 19-17. Following a Sun Devil timeout, Dieudonne delivered her fifth kill of the match and three points later the set was even at 20-20. Another kill by Dieudonne and a couple by Paige Briggs along with an ace by Logan Kael helped the Tops secure the third set after posting an 18-7 run to close it.

With a 2-1 lead in the contest, set four saw the Red and White reach double-digits first for the first time of the match. Soon after, WKU owned a 13-8 advantage following back-to-back kills from Cerino and Katie Isenbarger to force an ASU timeout. With Cerino back serving, WKU pushed ahead to a 17-11 lead after the senior's eighth ace of the match. The fourth set would ultimately be the largest margin of victory in the match as WKU claimed in 25-18 to open the weekend in Louisville 1-0.

Three Lady Toppers finished with double-digit kills as Lauren Matthews struck for 12 while Cerino and Jackson each added 11. WKU finished with 54 kills as a team while working at a .230 offensive clip and limiting Arizona State to a .189 rate.

WKU's defense was led by Kael's 18 digs, marking the second time the junior transfer has led the squad. Dieudonne (17) and Briggs (10) both also hit double-digits in the category.

From the service line, WKU tallied nine aces with eight coming off the hand of Cerino – the third-most all-time in a single match by a Lady Topper.

At the net, WKU out-blocked Arizona State 11-5 for the Tops' first double-digit effort of the season. Matthews led the charge with eight – a new career high for the sophomore.

MATCH NOTES:

- WKU Volleyball is now 2-0 all-time against Arizona State and 3-6 all-time against Pac-12 programs (3-3 in last six meetings).
- The Lady Toppers improved to 4-0 to start the season for the ninth time under Travis Hudson. WKU has won a regular-season or tournament championship all eight previous seasons with such a start.
- Nadia Dieudonne recorded her second double-double showing of the season with 39 assists and 17 digs.
- Sophia Cerino registered eight service aces – one shy of the WKU single-match record shared by Cindy Hudson (1991) and Beaven Hill (2000). Cerino ties Teresa Harrison and Michelle Mingus for third-most after the pair each recorded eight aces at EKU on Sept. 4, 1990.

NO. 24 LOUISVILLE 3, WKU 1

After top-25 ranked Louisville scored the opening point of Friday night's meeting, WKU would explode out to a 13-6 lead. UofL would chip away at its deficit using an 8-0 run to eventually take a 20-15 lead. The hosts would give WKU a taste of its own medicine and complete the comeback, winning the opening frame 25-18.

WKU trailed in set two, 16-10 but would slowly chip away at the Cardinal lead. After a 5-0 run, the Lady Toppers gained the lead at 19-18 before a Louisville timeout. The sides would trade points before the Red and White closed it out with a 25-22 victory. WKU would post a 15-6 run to close the frame and even the match at 1-1.

Out of the break, WKU and Louisville worked back and forth but ultimately the Lady Toppers would reach double digits first. Louisville would push ahead to a 21-16 lead before WKU clawed back to pull within three and force a UofL timeout. Back-to-back kills by Matthews would pull WKU within one at 23-22 to force Louisville's second stoppage but the Cardinals would claim the next two points to grab the third-set decision.

In the final set of the day, Louisville was the first to double digits with a 10-6 lead and would jump ahead to an 18-10 advantage. The Cardinals would end up holding on for the 25-15 fourth-set win to claim the decision.

With the WKU loss and Louisville win, both teams would leave the gym with 4-1 records. A defensive battle throughout, WKU's offense was held to a .093 clip while keeping the Cardinals at bay with a .210 rate. The Lady Toppers out-blocked Louisville 12-9.

Katie Isenbarger led WKU with three solo stuffs and four block assists while Sophia Cerino recorded six block assists as well.

Offensively, Matthews led the Tops with a .500 attack rate. The sophomore deposited 13 kills on 22 swings. Paige Briggs added 11 kills and 10 digs for her third double-double showing of the season.

In total, the match saw 19 ties and seven lead changes. The lone set without a lead change was the fourth frame.

MATCH NOTES:

- WKU is now 0-17 all-time against Louisville. The Lady Toppers have dropped each of the last five decisions in four sets.
- Freshman Paige Briggs recorded her team-best third double double of the season.
- Logan Kael led WKU in digs for the third match this season, recording 14. The junior transfer was perfect for WKU in serve-receive with zero errors.
- WKU Volleyball is now 11-10 against Power Five opponents (including both of Friday's decisions) since joining Conference USA.

NEXT TIME OUT:

WKU Volleyball will be back in action Saturday afternoon to close out weekend play in Louisville. The Lady Toppers' finale in the Fleur de Lis Tournament against Tennessee Tech is set for a 12:30 p.m. CT first serve.

WKU SWEEPS TENNESSEE TECH; MATTHEWS NAMED TO ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

LOUISVILLE, Ky. – WKU Volleyball closed out its weekend up the road in Louisville with a sweep of Tennessee Tech to finish the Fleur de Lis Tournament 2-1. Lauren Matthews was named to the All-Tournament Team after racking up 34 kills, 17 blocks and a .356 hitting clip.

"We have a lot of work to do moving forward, but I'm looking forward to it with this group," head coach Travis Hudson shared. "I'm proud of our weekend overall and looking forward to being back in Diddle Arena."

WKU got out to a hot start against Tennessee Tech to open Saturday's Fleur de Lis finale and never looked back. The Lady Toppers jumped ahead 8-3 early on four kills, three blocks and an ace. From there, the Tops exploded out to a 17-9 advantage before the Golden Eagles called for a timeout trailing 20-11. WKU would close the frame on a 5-1 run with Jennifer Rush capping the set with a kill.

Tennessee Tech came out in set two, going blow for blow with the Red and White. WKU would be the first to double digits with the slimmest of margins at 10-9. Both sides would continue to trade points until Hudson's squad went up 17-15 on a Sophia Cerino kill. The Tops would push ahead for a 22-17 advantage after another Matthews strike and Ashley Hood's ace. Avri Davis would put the finishing touch on the second-set victory for the Tops with a kill to close the set at 25-19.

Third set action saw WKU surge out to a 7-1 lead before Tennessee Tech started to claw its way back in. The Red and White would be the first to double digits at 10-7 as Davis struck for her seventh kill of the match. Play would continue to go back and forth with WKU taking a 16-13 lead. Tennessee Tech worked all the way back to tie the match and even take a 23-22 lead. From there, Matthews took over with three-straight kills to seal the sweep for the Lady Toppers.

Matthews racked up five blocks to go along with nine kills and a .438 hitting clip in the three-set match against the Golden Eagles.

Nadia Dieudonne facilitated the WKU offense to a .303 clip with 35 assists and 10 digs, posting her third double-double showing of the season.

Logan Kael joined her fellow transfer with double-digit digs on the match with 10 as well.

The Lady Topper defense limited Tennessee Tech to a .065 rate and just 26 kills. The last time WKU limited an opponent to a sub .100 hitting clip was against East Tennessee State (.067) on Sept. 14, 2018.

NEXT TIME OUT:

WKU Volleyball will open its home slate on Tuesday against Eastern Kentucky. First serve from E.A. Diddle Arena is slated for 6 p.m. CT. The match will open a week of four home contests for the Red and White.

STRONG WEEKEND EARNS CERINO C-USA'S DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK NOD

DALLAS – WKU Volleyball senior Sophia Cerino has been recognized by Conference USA as the Defensive Player of the Week, the league office announced Monday afternoon. The Brentwood, Tenn., native helped the Lady Topper squad to a 2-1 weekend against a tough Fleur de Lis Tournament field hosted by No. 24 Louisville over the weekend.

Across the tournament, Cerino tallied 23 kills, 11 blocks, 10 aces, six digs and five assists, doing a little bit of everything for the Red and White.

Eight of Cerino's 10 weekend aces came against a tough Arizona State squad. The lefty's jump serve dismantled the Sun Devils' offense, holding the Pac-12 program to just a .167 offensive clip. During Cerino's dominant showing against ASU, the senior took WKU on numerous scoring runs, including one of nine-straight serves, keeping the Sun Devils out of their offensive system. She would end up tossing up 29 serves across her eight trips back to the service line in the Power Five win. In addition to her impressive serving against ASU, Cerino would add three blocks and 11 kills as well, leading WKU with 21 points in the contest.

With eight aces against Arizona State, Cerino tied for third on WKU's single-match aces list. She finished one shy of the record, which is shared by Cindy Hudson (1991) and Beaven Hill (2000). Cerino ties Teresa Harrison and Michelle Mingus for third-most after the pair each recorded eight aces at EKU on Sept. 4, 1990.

In WKU's second match of the day on Saturday, Cerino would match her career-high blocking output with six against No. 24 Louisville.

As a junior, Cerino claimed her first and only previous C-USA weekly recognition with an Offensive Player of the Week nod on Sept. 17. The senior is the third different Lady Topper to earn a weekly award from Conference USA in two weeks of awards in 2019.

WKU Volleyball is in action against Tuesday evening for its Diddle Arena opener as Eastern Kentucky comes to town. First serve against the Colonels is slated for 6 p.m. CT.

TOPS WELCOME EASTERN KENTUCKY TO THE HILL FOR HOME OPENER

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – After jumping out to a 5-1 start across its first two weekends, WKU Volleyball will finally host its 2019 home-opener on Tuesday as Eastern Kentucky comes to town. First serve between the in-state squads is slated for 6 p.m. CT as the sides meet for the first time since 1998.

Eastern Kentucky is off to a 3-3 start on the young 2019 campaign. After posting a 1-2 record during its opening weekend, EKU went 2-1 at its most recent outing in Asheville, N.C., this past weekend. The Colonels return nine letterwinners from last season's 5-23 squad. Additionally, EKU returns five of its starters.

WKU leads the all-time series against Eastern Kentucky 8-7. The Lady Toppers have claimed the last three meetings, including the most recent contest in 1998 when the Tops swept the Colonels in Bowling Green. The series dates all the way back to 1984. Since Hudson's tenure began in 1995, WKU is 3-1 against Eastern Kentucky.

The Red and White are coming off of a 2-1 weekend against a tough Fleur de Lis Tournament field. Action from Louisville saw WKU take down Arizona State in four sets before falling to the 24th-ranked Cardinals by the same margin.

Through two weeks of Conference USA weekly awards, WKU Volleyball has already seen three Lady Toppers recognized with three different honors, displaying just how versatile Travis Hudson's 2019 squad is. Most recently, Sophia Cerino was recognized as the league's Defensive Player of the Week after Nadia Dieudonne and Paige Briggs were tabbed Setter and Freshman of the Week, respectively.

WKU Volleyball will be home on The Hill for 11 of its next 12 matches with both the Holiday Inn University Plaza Hotel Invite and WKU Invitational on the docket.

With the 2019 campaign underway, volleyball season tickets are available online at WKUSports.com or by calling the WKU ticket office at 1-800-5-BIGRED. Season ticket holders will receive 15 general admission tickets with the Flexible Ticket Package that can be used to attend the home games of his or her choice. This plan allows the flexibility to choose which volleyball games the buyer wants to attend and the number of tickets used for each game. Season ticket holders also gain exclusive access to pre-game chalk talks with Hudson, who enters his 25th season at the helm of WKU volleyball.

TOUGH SERVING

In WKU Volleyball's four-set win over Arizona State, senior Sophia Cerino sliced up the Sun Devils' serve-receive, striking for eight aces in the match. The mark ties her for the third-most ever recorded in a single match.

During Cerino's dominant showing against ASU, the senior took WKU on numerous scoring runs, including one of nine-straight serves, keeping the Sun Devils out of their offensive system. She would end up tossing up 29 serves across her eight trips back to the service line in the Power Five win.

4-0 START

With the squad's win over Arizona State to open second-weekend play, the Lady Toppers improved to 4-0 to start the season for the ninth time under Travis Hudson. WKU has won a regular-season or tournament championship all eight previous seasons with such a start.

POWER FIVE WINS

Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU Volleyball is now 11-10 against Power Five opponents.

WKU Volleyball is now 2-0 all-time against Arizona State and 3-6 all-time against Pac-12 programs (3-3 in last six meetings).

Additionally, on the first day of Louisville's Fleur de Lis Tournament, WKU faced off against Arizona State and No. 24 Louisville, marking the first time since 2013 that the Red and White faced two Power Five opponents in the same day. WKU has met two Power Five squads on the same day a total of five times in program history, splitting the day four times and sweeping the day once (2012).

COMING OUT HOT

WKU Volleyball opened the 2019 campaign at the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament where the Red and White went a perfect 3-0 to win the season-opening event. While in Glass City, the Tops downed Loyola (3-2), Toledo (3-0) and North Dakota State (3-0).

In her first weekend as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) earned the Blue & Gold Tournament's MVP honor. Fellow newcomer Paige Briggs along with Preseason All-Conference selection Lauren Matthews also earned spots on the All-Tournament Team.

WKU is off to a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with four-straight wins before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

In her very first match as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay), record WKU's first 20-20 double-double outing since Sept. 16, 2016. The Xavier transfer tallied 54 assists and 20 digs to become the 36th WKU Volleyball player to achieve the feat and the first-ever to do so in the month of August.

PRESEASON C-USA POLL

For the first time since its inaugural season in the league, WKU Volleyball was not voted the C-USA Preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers were predicted to finish second in 2014 before going on to win both the regular season and C-USA tournament titles.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 13-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then, Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

Harlie is now a Lady Topper. At every home match, she is with the team in the huddle and at introductions while she cheers with her family from the sidelines. The team's secret weapon, she is a constant reminder to the WKU student-athletes and coaching staff to keep fighting no matter what stands in the way.

For more information about Harlie and her journey, visit HOPEFORHARLIE.ORG and follow on Twitter via @HOPEFORHARLIE.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

For more information about FOJ, visit FRIENDSOFJACLYN.ORG.

NOTES

Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

ANOTHER TOUGH SCHEDULE

After a season filled with highs and lows in 2018, WKU Volleyball is determined to make noise in 2019 and has put together the schedule to do just that.

WKU's 29-match regular season includes three regular season conference champions and two conference tournament champions. Additionally, 15 of WKUs' 2019 opponents notched winning campaigns a year ago.

This year's slate features nine squads that appeared in the 2018 postseason. Kentucky, Louisville, Samford and Rice all appeared in the NCAA Tournament with both of WKU's in-state foes winning at least one game. Bowling Green, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and North Texas all participated in the NIVC.

STRONG AND STEADY

Less than 18 months removed from his heart attack, Travis Hudson returns for his 25th season at the helm of the WKU Volleyball program. After collecting his 600th career win last season, Hudson is one of just 31 head coaches in all of DI volleyball returning for their 25th or better season. Even more impressive, Hudson is one of just 11 to spend their entire career at the same school.

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .741 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 19 seasons (2000-18), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 19 seasons. During the last 19-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

615 AND COUNTING

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

TRAVIS HUDSON: OFF THE COURT

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

Back on the court days later, Hudson returned to direct his 24th year of volleyball from his alma mater.

NEW FACES

Hudson's squad returned five starters from last year's 20-10 campaign and eight letterwinners total. During the offseason, WKU added a pair of transfers and three freshmen that are set for their Lady Topper debuts.

WKU picked up a pair of junior transfers in Nadia Dieudonne and Logan Kael. Dieudonne made her way back to the Bluegrass State after playing two seasons at Xavier. Hailing from Tennessee, Kael headed back north after playing two seasons at West Florida (DII).

Additionally, the Lady Toppers added a trio of talented freshmen in Paige Briggs, Avri Davis and Jennifer Rush. All three are expected to see action for the Red and White on the offensive side of the ball.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

After the second weekend of play in 2019, Cerino earned her second career weekly award from Conference USA, being recognized as the league's Defensive Player of the Week.

EXCELLENCE IN THE CLASSROOM

Following the 2018-19 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 13th consecutive season as the Lady Toppers finished the campaign with a 3.46 team GPA. The honor marks the 17th time a Lady Topper team has earned the recognition since

THE LAST FOUR YEARS

Across the last four seasons (2015-18) on The Hill, WKU Volleyball sported a 113-21 record that included six collective Conference USA Championships. The Lady Toppers went 53-5 in C-USA regular season play during that span. In three NCAA Tournament appearances the squad posted a 2-3 record.

BACK IN THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

"I BELIEVE IN ALYSSA CAVANAUGH"

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Lady Toppers to 123 wins but her 124th will be her biggest yet.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant and less than six weeks later on March 20 would finally be discharged from the hospital. The family would stay in Cincinnati through May when Alyssa would finally be able to go home.

Cavanaugh continues to recover from the transplant. While the process has had its ups and downs, anyone that knows her knows she's a fighter up for the challenge.

MATTHEWS' BIG NIGHT LEADS TOPS TO HOME-OPENING SWEEP OF EKU

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball sophomore Lauren Matthews put on a show in E.A. Diddle Arena in the Lady Toppers' home-opening sweep over Eastern Kentucky. Matthews, along with freshman Paige Briggs, led the Red and White with 12 kills each while WKU worked at a scorching .362 offensive clip while holding the Colonels to a .131 mark.

"It's been a great start so far," head coach Travis Hudson shared following the victory. "But it's been a great start because I love how our kids approach it every day. Wins and losses aren't going to tell the whole story. In terms of what we're capable of this season, I think this upcoming weekend will be a real barometer of where we are. There's nothing that can happen with our team right now that's going to disappoint me for long. I may be disappointed in the short term, but I know what we've got in that locker room in terms of talent and work ethic and all of those things."

With the victory in their first match on The Hill, WKU Volleyball improved to 6-1 on the young season while recording its fourth sweep. EKU fell to 3-4 with the setback.

With a hitting percentage of .800, Matthews tied for fourth in WKU's single-match ranks. Alyssa Cavanaugh owns the record at .818, set in WKU's home-opener back in 2017.

WKU wasted no time getting out ahead, jumping out to a 12-4 lead in the opening frame. The Lady Toppers would continue their offensive tear to a 22-9 advantage before claiming the 25-13 decision. As a group, WKU racked up 19 kills on 29 attacks for a scorching .552 rating. Briggs notched five kills on seven swings in the frame while adding seven digs.

Action in set two opened the same way as WKU jumped out to a 6-1 lead. Matthews eighth kill of the match pushed the Tops' advantage to 11-5. From there, WKU surged to a 25-14 second-set victory for a 2-0 lead heading into the break. WKU accounted for three of its five blocks in set two, with Matthews getting her hand on each of them. WKU tallied four aces in the frame, including a pair by sophomore Ashley Hood.

Out of the break, EKU held the Tops to their lowest attack rating of the night at just a .219 clip, but WKU still registered 13 kills in the 25-18 win. WKU was the first to double-digits in the frame with a 10-7 lead before pulling ahead to a 20-13 advantage. Briggs added four kills in the final frame while Katie Isenbarger delivered two of her three aces on the night in the set.

"We talked as a team and focused on us and doing our job better, and I think that worked out," Briggs said of the team's victory. "Everyone did their jobs and we came away with the win."

WKU's .362 hitting clip is the squad's best mark since hitting .398 against Toledo in the second match of the season.

In addition to her 12 kills and team-best 15 digs, Briggs added a pair of service aces. The double-double was her fourth performance of the seven-match season. The Ortonville, Mich., native also worked at a .455 hitting percentage – a new career high.

"Paige Briggs is one of those real special talents that we've ever brought here," Hudson added. "She's going to have her ups and downs, but you see what she's capable of - she can do a lot of things. She plays fantastic defense as well as being a good offensive player. We're sure glad to have her and she's going to have a bright future."

Nadia Dieudonne shared setting duties with Taylor Bebout in the contest. Dieudonne posted 27 assists and three digs to go along with four kills. Bebout tallied four assists and a dig during her time on the court.

HUDSON ON BEING HOME IN DIDDLE ARENA:
"It's good to be home, and we're going to be home for a while. We have 11 out of 12 here in the friendly confines of Diddle Arena, and we've been pretty good in this place. It's nice to sleep in our own beds and one of the things it gives us the benefit of is a little bit extra practice time. Because now instead of Thursday being a travel day, Thursday we can squeeze another practice in. And with a young team, those things are vitally important - in fact, they might be the most important thing of all."

NEXT TIME OUT:
Hilltopper fans won't have to wait long to see WKU Volleyball back in Diddle Arena as the team will be home on The Hill for 10 of its next 11 matches beginning with this weekend's Holiday Inn University Plaza Hotel Invitational. More information for that two-day event can be found here.

RED AND WHITE CONTINUE HOMESTAND WITH HOLIDAY INN - UNIVERSITY PLAZA INVITE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball is off to a fast 6-1 start on the young 2019 campaign following a sweep of Eastern Kentucky in its home opener on Tuesday. The Lady Toppers have now turned their sights to this weekend's Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite, the first of back-to-back weekend tournaments hosted on The Hill. Making the trip to WKU this weekend are Bowling Green State, Ohio State and Tulane.

COMPLETE WEEKEND SCHEDULE

*Saturday, Sept. 14 – 4 p.m. CT | Bowling Green vs. Ohio State | Livestats
Saturday, Sept. 14 – 6 p.m. CT | vs. Tulane | Livestats | Stream

Off to a 6-1 start to the 2019 campaign, WKU Volleyball will play in the friendly confines of E.A. Diddle Arena for 10 of its next 11 matches with a lone midweek match at Belmont as the outlier.

Up first for the Red and White this weekend will be the Falcons from Bowling Green State. BGSU is off to a 5-2 start to the season and currently rides a four-match win streak. The Falcons won their home-opening tournament last weekend with victories over Charlotte, Butler and Cleveland State before downing Oakland in a five-set midweek clash. Saturday's match will mark the first time that WKU and Bowling Green meet on the volleyball court.

In Saturday night's primetime match, the Lady Toppers will face off against their third Power Five foe of the season as Ohio State visits Diddle Arena for the second time. After the Buckeyes won the meetings in 2012 and 2013 in four and five sets, WKU swept the 25th-ranked Big Ten squad on its home court during the 2017 campaign. Ohio State is off to a 3-3 start on the 2019 season with wins over Lehigh, VCU and Duquesne while suffering setbacks to Texas Tech, No. 10 Pitt and Green Bay.

The Lady Toppers will close weekend action with a Saturday night showdown with Tulane, who enters the weekend with a 6-2 record. The Green Wave swept through its opening weekend in the DoubleTree Classic from Lafayette, La. Since then, the squad has fallen to Southeastern Louisiana and Ole Miss while topping Missouri State, Houston Baptist and New Orleans. WKU has crossed paths with Tulane once before back during the 1986 season when the Green Wave claimed the 2-0 decision.

Through two weeks of Conference USA weekly awards, WKU Volleyball has already seen three Lady Toppers recognized with three different honors, displaying just how versatile Travis Hudson's 2019 squad is. Most recently, Sophia Cerino was recognized as the league's Defensive Player of the Week after Nadia Dieudonne and Paige Briggs were tabbed Setter and Freshman of the Week, respectively.

After securing 20 wins last season, Coach Hudson and the WKU program have now posted 19-consecutive 20-win campaigns. The streak is the fifth-best active mark in the nation.

The 2019 season also marks Hudson's 25th at the helm of WKU Volleyball. Hudson is one of just 31 coaches across Division I Volleyball to be leading a team for at least their 25th season. Even more impressively, the WKU veteran is one of just 11 to coach every season at the same school. His .741 career win-percentage entering the season figures out to rank second-best of those 11 longstanding coaches as does his 25.4 wins-per-season average.

With the 2019 campaign underway, volleyball season tickets are available online at WKUSports.com or by calling the WKU ticket office at 1-800-5-BIGRED. Season ticket holders will receive 15 general admission tickets with the Flexible Ticket Package that can be used to attend the home games of his or her choice. This plan allows the flexibility to choose which volleyball games the buyer wants to attend and the number of tickets used for each game. Season ticket holders also gain exclusive access to pre-game chalk talks with Hudson, who enters his 25th season at the helm of WKU volleyball.

NOTES

TOUGH SERVING

In WKU Volleyball's four-set win over Arizona State, senior Sophia Cerino sliced up the Sun Devils' serve-receive, striking for eight aces in the match. The mark ties her for the third-most ever recorded in a single match.

During Cerino's dominant showing against ASU, the senior took WKU on numerous scoring runs, including one of nine-straight serves, keeping the Sun Devils out of their offensive system. She would end up tossing up 29 serves across her eight trips back to the service line in the Power Five win.

4-0 START

With the squad's win over Arizona State to open second-weekend play, the Lady Toppers improved to 4-0 to start the season for the ninth time under Travis Hudson. WKU has won a regular-season or tournament championship all eight previous seasons with such a start.

POWER FIVE WINS

Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU Volleyball is now 11-10 against Power Five opponents.

WKU Volleyball is now 2-0 all-time against Arizona State and 3-6 all-time against Pac-12 programs (3-3 in last six meetings).

Additionally, on the first day of Louisville's Fleur de Lis Tournament, WKU faced off against Arizona State and No. 24 Louisville, marking the first time since 2013 that the Red and White faced two Power Five opponents in the same day. WKU has met two Power Five squads on the same day a total of five times in program history, splitting the day four times and sweeping the day once (2012).

COMING OUT HOT

WKU Volleyball opened the 2019 campaign at the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament where the Red and White went a perfect 3-0 to win the season-opening event. While in Glass City, the Tops downed Loyola (3-2), Toledo (3-0) and North Dakota State (3-0).

In her first weekend as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) earned the Blue & Gold Tournament's MVP honor. Fellow newcomer Paige Briggs along with Preseason All-Conference selection Lauren Matthews also earned spots on the All-Tournament Team.

WKU is off to a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with four-straight wins

HARLIE BRYANT

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 13-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then, Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

Harlie is now a Lady Topper. At every home match, she is with the team in the huddle and at introductions while she cheers with her family from the sidelines. The team's secret weapon, she is a constant reminder to the WKU student-athletes and coaching staff to keep fighting no matter what stands in the way.

For more information about Harlie and her journey, visit HOPEFORHARLIE.ORG and follow on Twitter via @HOPEFORHARLIE.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

For more information about FOJ, visit FRIENDSOFJACLYN.ORG.

NOTES

before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

20-20 VISION

In her very first match as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay), record WKU's first 20-20 double-double outing since Sept. 16, 2016. The Xavier transfer tallied 54 assists and 20 digs to become the 36th WKU Volleyball player to achieve the feat and the first-ever to do so in the month of August.

PRESEASON C-USA POLL

For the first time since its inaugural season in the league, WKU Volleyball was not voted the C-USA Preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers were predicted to finish second in 2014 before going on to win both the regular season and C-USA tournament titles.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

Individually, senior rightside Sophia Cerino and sophomore middle Lauren Matthews earned spots on the league's 12-person Preseason All-Conference team. Rice landed a league-high three individuals on the team. Charlotte, Florida Atlantic and Rice all joined the Red and White with a pair of Preseason All-Conference selections.

ANOTHER TOUGH SCHEDULE

After a season filled with highs and lows in 2018, WKU Volleyball is determined to make noise in 2019 and has put together the schedule to do just that.

WKU's 29-match regular season includes three regular season conference champions and two conference tournament champions. Additionally, 15 of WKUs' 2019 opponents notched winning campaigns a year ago.

This year's slate features nine squads that appeared in the 2018 postseason. Kentucky, Louisville, Samford and Rice all appeared in the NCAA Tournament with both of WKU's in-state foes winning at least one game. Bowling Green, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and North Texas all participated in the NIVC.

STRONG AND STEADY

Less than 18 months removed from his heart attack, Travis Hudson returns for his 25th season at the helm of the WKU Volleyball program. After collecting his 600th career win last season, Hudson is one of just 31 head coaches in all of DI volleyball returning for their 25th or better season. Even more impressive, Hudson is one of just 11 to spend their entire career at the same school.

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .741 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 19 seasons (2000-18), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 19 seasons. During the last 19-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

616 AND COUNTING

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

TRAVIS HUDSON: OFF THE COURT

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

Back on the court days later, Hudson returned to direct his 24th year of volleyball from his alma mater.

NEW FACES

Hudson's squad returned five starters from last year's 20-10 campaign and eight letterwinners total. During the offseason, WKU added a pair of transfers and three freshmen that are set for their Lady Topper debuts.

WKU picked up a pair of junior transfers in Nadia Dieudonne and Logan Kael. Dieudonne made her way back to the Bluegrass State after playing two seasons at Xavier. Hailing from Tennessee, Kael headed back north after playing two seasons at West Florida (DII).

Additionally, the Lady Toppers added a trio of talented freshmen in Paige Briggs, Avri Davis and Jennifer Rush. All three are expected to see action for the Red and White on the offensive side of the ball.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

After the second weekend of play in 2019, Cerino earned her second career weekly award from Conference USA, being recognized as the league's Defensive Player of the Week.

Following the 2018-19 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 13th consecutive season as the Lady Toppers finished the campaign with a 3.46 team GPA. The honor marks the 17th time a Lady Topper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

In total, 189 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of eight Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, FIU, Middle Tennessee, Rice, Southern Miss, UTEP and UTSA in addition to the Red and White.

THE LAST FOUR YEARS

Across the last four seasons (2015-18) on The Hill, WKU Volleyball sported a 113-21 record that included six collective Conference USA Championships. The Lady Toppers went 53-5 in C-USA regular season play during that span. In three NCAA Tournament appearances the squad posted a 2-3 record.

BACK IN THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

"I BELIEVE IN ALYSSA CAVANAUGH"

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Lady Toppers to 123 wins but her 124th will be her biggest yet.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant and less than six weeks later on March 20 would finally be discharged from the hospital. The family would stay in Cincinnati through May when Alyssa would finally be able to go home.

Cavanaugh continues to recover from the transplant. While the process has had its ups and downs, anyone that knows her knows she's a fighter up for the challenge.

TOPS SWEEP BGSU, OHIO STATE TO OPEN HOME TOURNAMENT

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball picked up its fifth and sixth sweeps of the season with victories over Bowling Green and Ohio State to open action in the Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite on Friday. With the Red and White's win over Ohio State, the squad picked up its 12th Power Five win across the last six seasons and improved to 2-1 in such outings this year.

"This was really a hard-fought match," Head Coach Travis Hudson opened following WKU's sweep of Ohio State. "We didn't do a lot of things well, but we were steady and we did handle the ball really, really well. Lauren Matthews is just playing really well right now for us. I love this team and I have a lot of faith in us. Even when we lost that lead late in the third set, I had faith that we'd pull this off. I have a lot of faith in this team and what we have the ability to do and it was certainly a lot of fun to watch them compete tonight."

With the wins, WKU is now 8-1 on the season, claiming its last four decisions in straight-sets. Bowling Green moved to 5-3 with the loss while Ohio State fell to 3-5 with a pair of setbacks on the day.

Across WKU's two outings, Lauren Matthews racked up 27 kills and a .396 hitting clip to go along with six blocks for 31 points. As a team, WKU worked at a .242 offensive clip while holding its opponents to a .159 rate.

WKU 3, BOWLING GREEN 0

WKU opened Friday's action with a three-set win over Bowling Green. The opening frame was the tone setter for the Red and White as the squad took the lead by a score of 25-22. The team racked up 22 total kills, at a .326 clip led by 21 assists from Nadia Dieudonne.

Second-set action saw WKU take control as they took a 22-15 lead with the help Paige Briggs and Lauren Matthews, each finishing with 12 kills. Play went back and forth with neither team taking more than a three-point advantage until WKU pushed ahead to an 18-14 lead. A few points later, Logan Kael pushed the Lady Topper advantage to a handful with an ace. BGSU pulled back within 23-21 but kills by Sophia Cerino and Kayland Jackson helped seal the 25-22 victory.

Following the break, the Falcons hung tight, owning a lead as late as 14-13 over the hosts. WKU pulled away with Cerino at the service line for five-straight points to open up an 18-14 advantage. The Tops would lead the rest of the way en route to a 25-21 set three win, capped off by a Cerino and Lauren Matthews block assist.

Matthews and Paige Briggs led WKU with a team-high 12 kills each. Briggs added 14 digs for her fifth double-double performance of the season. Jackson added nine kills on a .500 hitting clip while Cerino chipped in eight more kills to go along with five aces.

Nadia Dieudonne notched 43 assists as WKU found the floor for 47 kills on a .248 hitting percentage in the match.

WKU 3, OHIO STATE 0

WKU's second win of the day came over the Big Ten's Ohio State Buckeyes after a slow start that saw the Tops in a 9-5 hole early to OSU. WKU would score four-straight points to be the first to double digits and seven of the next eight tallies to take a 12-10 lead. The Lady Toppers pushed ahead to a 23-19 lead but the Buckeyes hung around and knotted the frame back up to force a WKU timeout. Out of the stoppage, Matthews found the floor for a kill before an Ohio State attack error gave WKU the 25-23 win.

The Lady Toppers ran out to a quick 9-4 lead in set two and never looked back, leading by as many as eight points on numerous occasions including 22-14. The Buckeyes would string together a few points and pull within four at 24-20 before a service error gave WKU the 25-20 win and 2-0 lead in the match.

Out of the long break, WKU would be the first to double digits again with a 12-9 lead. The frame saw both benches string together handfuls of points at a time resulting in nine ties and five lead changes throughout. WKU owned a 22-20 lead before three-straight OSU points put the visitors up 23-22. The sides would then trade kills, giving Ohio State set point at 24-23. From there, Matthews fired off back-to-back kills before Briggs sent everyone home with the match-deciding kill.

Matthews led the way for WKU again with 15 kills and a .414 hitting percentage. Jackson added eight more strikes while working at a .357 clip. Dieudonne would tally 31 assists and eight digs. Logan Kael led the squad in digs with nine after a 12-dig outing in the early contest.

WKU out-blocked the Buckeyes 8-3 in the contest. Katie Isenbarger racked up two solo blocks to go along with a pair of block assists.

As a team, WKU worked at a .236 offensive clip while holding Ohio State to a .127 rate.

WKU has now swept Ohio State in back-to-back meetings to even the series at 2-2. The Lady Toppers visited Columbus, Ohio, during the 2017 campaign and swept No. 25 Ohio State for the program's first-ever sweep of a top-25 ranked team.

HUDSON ON POWER FIVE WINS:
"I think we're that good; I think we're playing at that level every year. We're recruiting against Power Five teams year in and year out. The kids in our lockerroom had chances to play at Power Five schools but came here. Western Kentucky Volleyball has been a perennial Top-40 volleyball team over the last 10 years. We think we belong in these matches and our kids enjoy the opportunity to show out."

NEXT TIME OUT:
WKU will close out weekend play on Saturday with a 6 p.m. CT, showdown with Tulane. The Green Wave played once on Friday, taking down Ohio State in four sets.

MATTHEWS NAMED MVP AFTER TOPS WIN HOLIDAY INN - UNIVERSITY PLAZA INVITE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball extended its win streak to five-straight matches after going undefeated in its Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite this weekend, which concluded with the Lady Toppers claiming a four-set decision over Tulane. Lauren Matthews was named the Tournament MVP and Logan Kael joined her on the All-Tournament Team.

"We know Tulane is one of the better defensive teams in the country," head coach Travis Hudson opened. "We knew it was going to be that kind of defensive game. Jim Barnes is one of the best tacticians in-game that I've ever coached against – they make a lot of adjustments in game to take things away from you. We knew we were going to have to continue to make adjustments as we moved along. We did that and did just enough to find a way to win this thing."

With the win over Tulane, a finalist in last season's NIVC, the Red and White now sit at 9-1 on the 2019 campaign. Following a 2-1 weekend during their visit on The Hill, the Green Wave moved to 8-3 overall.

"What a weekend for our team," Hudson continued. "This was a high-quality tournament and these were three high quality wins on our resumé."

WKU scored the first two points of the night before Tulane battled back and knotted the score after the first six points. From there, Paige Briggs found the floor for a kill to send Sophia Cerino back to the service line. Cerino would spend the next eight points as WKU jumped out to an 11-4 lead and never looked back. The Tops would lead by as many as 11 points at 21-10 before ultimately claiming the opening frame 25-16 over the Green Wave.

Tulane responded by jumping out to a 9-3 lead in the second frame before WKU battled back to pull within two at 13-11 on a block assist from Kayland Jackson and Lauren Matthews. A Cerino kill would make the score 14-12 before the lefty headed back to the service line and put the next five balls into play giving the Lady Toppers a 16-14 advantage. The Green Wave battled back and the sides would be tied at 21-21 before another Cerino kill would put WKU up for good. WKU scored four of the last five points to claim the 25-22 set two win.

Out of the break, Tulane jumped out to a quick 13-8 lead before WKU pulled within three at 15-12. From there, the Green Wave made another push to open up an 18-12 advantage and force a Lady Topper timeout. The benches traded the next four points before WKU strung together three-straight tallies to work back within three but Tulane would end up claiming the only set off the Red and White of the weekend with a 25-20 decision.

In the fourth and final frame, WKU would get out to a 10-8 lead before the Green Wave once again battled back and grabbed a 16-14 advantage. The Tulane lead wouldn't last long however, as Cerino once again served up a succession of tallies to work WKU out to a 20-16 lead. Following a timeout, Tulane pulled back within two but the Lady Toppers would once again score four of the last five points to secure the 25-20 match-clinching victory.

Paige Briggs notched her sixth double-double of the season and second of the weekend with a 10-kill, 19-dig showing. The freshman added three blocks and a pair of assists.

Matthews led WKU with 14 kills and a .256 hitting percentage in addition to a match-high eight blocks including a pair of solo stuffs.

Nadia Dieudonne facilitated the Lady Topper offense to a .215 rate with 41 assists to go along with nine digs, five kills and two blocks.

WKU out-hit the Green Wave .215 - .120 while out-digging the visitors 60-60.

Kael racked up 17 digs for her eighth double-digit dig output of the season.

Cerino was a difference maker for the Tops from the service line, putting 27 balls into play across the four-set match. The senior struck for four aces in addition to adding nine kills and a .250 hitting clip.

The WKU squad has now won two of the three tournaments it has competed in after claiming the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament crown on opening weekend.

LOGAN KAEL ON PLAYING IN DIDDLE ARENA:
"Oh my gosh, Diddle Arena is awesome! I literally want to tear up every time I come in here. It's really awesome to play in this atmosphere and just be a part of this team."

NEXT TIME OUT:
WKU will close out weekend play on Saturday with a 6 p.m. CT, showdown with Tulane. The Green Wave played once on Friday, taking down Ohio State in four sets.

BRIGGS, MATTHEWS COLLECT CONFERENCE USA WEEKLY HONORS

DALLAS – WKU Volleyball's Paige Briggs and Lauren Matthews have been recognized by Conference USA as the Freshman of the Week and Co-Offensive Player of the Week, respectively, the league office announced Monday afternoon. The power tandem helped the Lady Topper squad to a perfect 4-0 week against Eastern Kentucky and a stout Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite field.

Briggs collects her second Freshman of the Week nod from the conference in three weeks on The Hill. The rookie racked up 39 kills across WKU's 13 sets of action to go along with 54 digs to lead the Red and White over the four-match span. Briggs added three more double-double performances to bring her season total up to six.

The Ortonville, Mich., native was perfect is serve-receive in 77 targets across the week. As a six-rotation player, Briggs averaged 3.00 kills per set and 4.15 digs per set to lead the Red and White in digs. Led by a 19-dig showing against Tulane, Briggs registered three outings with at least 14 digs across the week while hitting double digits three times in kills as well.

Earning her first weekly award of the 2019 campaign with the Co-Offensive Player of the Week nod, Matthews now owns two C-USA weekly honors after earning the league's Freshman of the Week laurel last season.

Matthews opened the week with one of the biggest outings of her career – recording an .800 hitting percentage with 12 kills on 15 errorless swings in WKU's home-opening sweep of Eastern Kentucky. Her single-match hitting clip tied for fourth-best on the program's all-time list.

Matthews would stay hot through the weekend, adding three more outings with at least 12 kills to help WKU to its second weekend tournament crown of the season.

She racked up 53 kills and 18 blocks across the week while averaging 4.08 kills per set, 1.38 blocks per set and 5.00 points per set to go along with her .402 hitting percentage. Matthews led WKU in kills all four matches, including 15 in the Lady Toppers' sweep of Ohio State for the squad's second Power Five win of the season. The Indianapolis native ripped through the Buckeye defense, working at a .414 offensive clip while adding a trio of blocks as well. She closed the weekend by racking up 14 kills over Tulane, a squad that entered the weekend ranked 13th in the nation in opponent hitting percentage, with Matthews hitting more than .100 points better than that average. She added a season-high eight blocks in the four-set victory over the Green Wave.

WKU's trio of weekend opponents – Bowling Green (116), Ohio State (93) and Tulane (52) – all ranked within the top-125 of the most recent NCAA RPI, making the duo's showing even more impressive. BGSU and Tulane both competed in the 2018 NIVC with the Green Wave advancing all the way to the championship match. Bowling Green is also the two-time defending Mid-American Conference regular-season champion.

Through three weeks of weekly awards, WKU Volleyball has collected five accolades with four different players earning recognition.

WKU Volleyball is in action against Tuesday evening with a tilt at Belmont on the slate. First serve against the Bruins is slated for 5 p.m. CT, from the Curb Event Center. Following the midweek match in Music City, the Lady Toppers will be home on The Hill for their next eight contests.

WKU VOLLEYBALL RECEIVES VOTES IN LATEST AVCA COACHES POLL

LEXINGTON, Ky. – After picking up its second Power Five win of the season and winning the Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite against a stacked tournament field, WKU Volleyball is now receiving votes in the latest American Volleyball Coaches Association Poll.

The Lady Toppers rank 36th overall in the poll, joining [RV] Rice (31st) from Conference USA. WKU is receiving nine votes in the poll while the Owls own 21.

WKU Volleyball has now received votes in nine-consecutive seasons in the AVCA Coaches Poll, dating back to the 2011 campaign. Last season, 2018, marked the lone season in that span that the Red and White never broke into the top-25 ranks.

With a 9-1 record entering the fourth week of the 2019 season, WKU's lone loss came to No. 24 Louisville on the Cardinals' home court. In the most recent RPI (2018 Final), UofL came in at 34th. Most notably, the Lady Toppers have added wins against No. 52 Tulane, No. 82 Arizona State, No. 93 Ohio State and No. 116 Bowling Green.

[RV] WKU VOLLEYBALL HEADED TO BELMONT FOR MIDWEEK ACTION

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – With five-straight wins under its belt, WKU Volleyball will head back on the road for a midweek match down at Belmont Tuesday evening. First serve between the Lady Toppers (9-1) and Bruins (1-10) is slated for 5 p.m. CT, from the Curb Event Center. Action will be streamed on ESPN+.

FOLLOWING INFORMATION
Tuesday, Sept. 17 – 5 p.m. CT | at Belmont | Livestats | ESPN+

Eastern Kentucky is off to a 1-10 start on the 2019 campaign. The Bruins lone win came in a sweep of Alabama A&M on Sept. 3. Belmont returns four starters from last year's 5-23 squad along with nine letterwinners.

WKU leads the all-time series against Belmont 20-0, sweeping the last five meetings. The Lady Toppers have claimed all nine meetings to take place in Nashville. The series dates back to 1997, with all 20 prior meetings occurring during head coach Travis Hudson's tenure.

The Red and White are coming off of their second weekend tournament title in the first three weeks of the season. Last week, WKU went 4-0 after dropping one lone set across victories over Eastern Kentucky, Bowling Green, Ohio State and Tulane.

Through three weeks of Conference USA weekly awards, WKU Volleyball has already seen four Lady Toppers recognized with four different honors, displaying just how versatile Travis Hudson's 2019 squad is. Most recently, Lauren Matthews and Paige Briggs were recognized as the league's Co-Offensive Player of the Week and Freshman of the Week, respectively.

WKU Volleyball is in the midst of a 12-match stretch that features 11 home contests. Following Tuesday's meeting at Belmont, the Lady Toppers will not play another away match until Oct. 11

With the 2019 campaign underway, volleyball season tickets are available online at WKUSports.com or by calling the WKU ticket office at 1-800-5-BIGRED. Season ticket holders will receive 15 general admission tickets with the Flexible Ticket Package that can be used to attend the home games of his or her choice. This plan allows the flexibility to choose which volleyball games the buyer wants to attend and the number of tickets used for each game. Season ticket holders also gain exclusive access to pre-game chalk talks with Hudson, who enters his 25th season at the helm of WKU volleyball.

NOTES

RECEIVING VOTES
After picking up its second Power Five win of the season and winning the Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite against a stacked tournament field, WKU Volleyball is now receiving votes in the latest American Volleyball Coaches Association Poll.

The Lady Toppers rank 36th overall in the poll, joining [RV] Rice (31st) from Conference USA. WKU is receiving nine votes in the poll while the Owls own 21.

WKU Volleyball has now received votes in nine-consecutive seasons in the AVCA Coaches Poll, dating back to the 2011 campaign. Last season, 2018, marked the lone season in that span that the Red and White never broke into the top-25 ranks.

TOUGH SERVING
In WKU Volleyball's four-set win over Arizona State, senior Sophia Cerino sliced up the Sun Devils' serve-receive, striking for eight aces in the match. The mark ties her for the third-most ever recorded in a single match.

During Cerino's dominant showing against ASU, the senior took WKU on numerous scoring runs, including one of nine-straight serves, keeping the Sun Devils out of their offensive system. She would end up tossing up 29 serves across her eight trips back to the service line in the Power Five win.

TOURNAMENT WINS
Through three weeks of play, WKU Volleyball has won a pair of tournament crowns after a pair of 3-0 showings in the Toledo Blue & Gold Invite and the Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite. The first weekend, the Tops downed Loyola - Chicago, Toledo and North Dakota State before taking care of Bowling Green, Ohio State and Tulane during the third weekend.

4-0 START
With the squad's win over Arizona State to open second-weekend play, the Lady Toppers improved to 4-0 to start the season for the ninth time under Travis Hudson. WKU has won a regular-season or tournament championship all eight previous seasons with such a start.

POWER FIVE WINS
Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU Volleyball is now 12-10 against Power Five opponents.

WKU Volleyball is now 2-0 all-time against Arizona State and 3-6 all-time against Pac-12 programs (3-3 in last six meetings).

Additionally, on the first day of Louisville's Fleur de Lis Tournament, WKU faced off against Arizona State and No. 24 Louisville, marking the first time since 2013 that the Red and White faced two Power Five opponents in the same day. WKU has met two Power Five squads on the same day a total of five times in program history, splitting the day four times and sweeping the day once (2012).

Most recently, WKU downed Ohio State out of the Big Ten in a 3-0 sweep on Friday night of the Lady Toppers' Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite. The Red and White swept the Buckeyes in the second-straight meeting, taking a decision on each team's home court.

COMING OUT HOT
WKU Volleyball opened the 2019 campaign at the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament where the Red and White went a perfect 3-0 to win the season-opening event. While in Glass City, the Tops downed Loyola (3-2), Toledo (3-0) and North Dakota State (3-0).

In her first weekend as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) earned the Blue & Gold Tournament's MVP honor. Fellow newcomer Paige Briggs along with Preseason All-Conference selection Lauren Matthews also earned spots on the All-Tournament Team.

WKU is off to a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with four-straight wins before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

HARLIE BRYANT

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 13-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then, Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

Harlie is now a Lady Topper. At every home match, she is with the team in the huddle and at introductions while she cheers with her family from the sidelines. The team's secret weapon, she is a constant reminder to the WKU student-athletes and coaching staff to keep fighting no matter what stands in the way.

For more information about Harlie and her journey, visit HOPEFORHARLIE.ORG and follow on Twitter via @HOPEFORHARLIE.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

For more information about FOJ, visit FRIENDSOFJACLYN.ORG.

NOTES

20-20 VISION

In her very first match as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay), record WKU's first 20-20 double-double outing since Sept. 16, 2016. The Xavier transfer tallied 54 assists and 20 digs to become the 36th WKU Volleyball player to achieve the feat and the first-ever to do so in the month of August.

PRESEASON C-USA POLL

For the first time since its inaugural season in the league, WKU Volleyball was not voted the C-USA Preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers were predicted to finish second in 2014 before going on to win both the regular season and C-USA tournament titles.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

Individually, senior rightside Sophia Cerino and sophomore middle Lauren Matthews earned spots on the league's 12-person Preseason All-Conference team. Rice landed a league-high three individuals on the team. Charlotte, Florida Atlantic and Rice all joined the Red and White with a pair of Preseason All-Conference selections.

ANOTHER TOUGH SCHEDULE

After a season filled with highs and lows in 2018, WKU Volleyball is determined to make noise in 2019 and has put together the schedule to do just that.

WKU's 29-match regular season includes three regular season conference champions and two conference tournament champions. Additionally, 15 of WKUs' 2019 opponents notched winning campaigns a year ago.

This year's slate features nine squads that appeared in the 2018 postseason. Kentucky, Louisville, Samford and Rice all appeared in the NCAA Tournament with both of WKU's in-state foes winning at least one game. Bowling Green, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and North Texas all participated in the NIVC.

STRONG AND STEADY

Less than 18 months removed from his heart attack, Travis Hudson returns for his 25th season at the helm of the WKU Volleyball program. After collecting his 600th career win last season, Hudson is one of just 31 head coaches in all of DI volleyball returning for their 25th or better season. Even more impressive, Hudson is one of just 11 to spend their entire career at the same school.

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .741 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 19 seasons (2000-18), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 19 seasons. During the last 19-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

619 AND COUNTING

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

TRAVIS HUDSON: OFF THE COURT

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

Back on the court days later, Hudson returned to direct his 24th year of volleyball from his alma mater.

NEW FACES

Hudson's squad returned five starters from last year's 20-10 campaign and eight letterwinners total. During the offseason, WKU added a pair of transfers and three freshmen that are set for their Lady Topper debuts.

WKU picked up a pair of junior transfers in Nadia Dieudonne and Logan Kael. Dieudonne made her way back to the Bluegrass State after playing two seasons at Xavier. Hailing from Tennessee, Kael headed back north after playing two seasons at West Florida (DII).

Additionally, the Lady Toppers added a trio of talented freshmen in Paige Briggs, Avri Davis and Jennifer Rush. All three are expected to see action for the Red and White on the offensive side of the ball.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

After the second weekend of play in 2019, Cerino earned her second career weekly award from Conference USA, being recognized as the league's Defensive Player of the Week.

NOTES

Following the 2018-19 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 13th consecutive season as the Lady Toppers finished the campaign with a 3.46 team GPA. The honor marks the 17th time a Lady Topper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

In total, 189 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of eight Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, FIU, Middle Tennessee, Rice, Southern Miss, UTEP and UTSA in addition to the Red and White.

THE LAST FOUR YEARS

Across the last four seasons (2015-18) on The Hill, WKU Volleyball sported a 113-21 record that included six collective Conference USA Championships. The Lady Toppers went 53-5 in C-USA regular season play during that span. In three NCAA Tournament appearances the squad posted a 2-3 record.

BACK IN THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

"I BELIEVE IN ALYSSA CAVANAUGH"

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Lady Toppers to 123 wins but her 124th will be her biggest yet.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant and less than six weeks later on March 20 would finally be discharged from the hospital. The family would stay in Cincinnati through May when Alyssa would finally be able to go home.

Cavanaugh continues to recover from the transplant. While the process has had its ups and downs, anyone that knows her knows she's a fighter up for the challenge.

SCORCHING OFFENSE LEADS WKU TO SIXTH-STRAIGHT WIN

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – WKU Volleyball won its sixth-straight match with a 3-0 sweep of Belmont in Nashville on Tuesday night. Freshman Paige Briggs scorched the stat sheet with 15 kills and a .519 hitting clip while Logan Kael led the WKU defense with 17 digs as the Lady Toppers held Belmont to a .155 hitting percentage on the night.

"We were a little bit flat early on, I wasn't really pleased with how we played in the first set but we settled in and got a little more sound assignment wise as the match went on," head coach Travis Hudson shared. "We had the opportunity to get a lot of people in there and get playing time and continue to build for the future. Overall, it was a really good night."

WKU now leads the all-time series with Belmont 21-0, sweeping the last six outings. The Red and White now sit at 10-1 on the season while Belmont dropped to 1-11 overall. With the sweep, WKU has now won seven three-set matches on the year.

After a slow start to the opening set, WKU Volleyball would claim the first frame 25-22. As a team, WKU operated at a .275 offensive rate while Belmont recorded its best offensive set with a .256 clip. Belmont would score the set's first two points before the lone lead change came on a Katie Isenbarger kill at 3-2. From there, the sides would end up tied just three times as WKU took a 1-0 lead in the match.

WKU came out firing in the second set, opening up a quick 6-2 lead and never looked back. The Lady Toppers would work all the way out to a 23-9 advantage on an Ashley Hood ace before the Bruins would make it into double digits. Hood went on a five-serve run for the Red and White before WKU claimed the 25-11 set two victory. WKU's offense operated at a .379 rate while the Lady Topper defense held Belmont to a .029 rate.

Out of the break, WKU ran a highly-efficient offense, operating above .700 for much of the frame before settling for a .542 with 15 kills on 24 swings. The Lady Toppers led 18-9 before the hosts would break into double digits and win a few points back. WKU would finally close out the 25-18 victory with a block assist from Sophia Cerino and Lauren Matthews, bringing Matthews' total to five on the night.

Briggs led WKU in kills for the fifth time this season, reaching double-digits in the category eight times. The Ortonville, Mich., native added eight digs and two aces. Briggs' .519 hitting percentage is the best of her debut season.

"Paige really kept it simple tonight and took what was there," Hudson continued. "She moved the ball around well and did some good things. She's capable of doing those things on a nightly basis so we're always excited to see this kind of performance out of her."

Matthews added nine kills and a .467 hitting rate while Kayland Jackson notched six and Cerino tallied five of her own. As a team, WKU worked at a .376 offensive rate with eight different Lady Toppers registering a kill.

Kael's 17 digs led 10 Lady Toppers in the dig column as WKU out-dug Belmont 44-38.

Nadia Dieudonne tallied 36 assists, leading WKU to a .452 kill percentage. The junior added five digs, two kills and two blocks in the victory.

Hallie Shelton tallied a season-best three aces as WKU registered seven across the match. Briggs added a pair while Hood and Cerino each chipped in one.

NEXT TIME OUT:
The Red and White will return to The Hill for its next seven matches with the WKU Volleyball Invitational up next. Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and Samford are all slated to visit Diddle Arena for the two-day event.

"We've got another really challenging weekend coming up," stated Hudson. "Three teams that can really play are coming in but we've always been really good playing in Diddle Arena so we're excited to get back there and are up for the challenge."

[RV] TOPS SET TO OPEN SEVEN-MATCH HOMESTAND WITH WKU VOLLEYBALL INVITE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – After receiving votes in an AVCA Coaches Poll for the ninth-consecutive season, WKU Volleyball returns home to The Hill for its next seven matches. This weekend, the Lady Toppers will host the WKU Volleyball Invite and welcome Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and Samford to Diddle Arena for the two-day event.

COMPLETE WEEKEND SCHEDULE

Saturday, Sept. 14 – 5 p.m. CT | vs. Samford | Livestats

Up first for the Red and White this weekend will be the Norse from Northern Kentucky. NKU is off to a 5-4 start to the season and is coming off an upset of [RV] Cincinnati in its most recent outing. The Norse went 2-1 in their first two tournaments of the year before a 1-2 showing most recently. Friday's match will mark the first time that WKU and Northern Kentucky meet on the volleyball court.

In Friday night's primetime match, the Lady Toppers will face off against their second American Athletic Conference foe of the season as Tulsa visits Diddle Arena for the first time. After the Hurricane won the meetings in 1985 and 1988 in three sets, WKU swept the squad in the most recent meeting that took place in 1991. Tulsa is off to a 6-4 start on the 2019 season and has crossed paths with three Conference USA teams already, dropping four-set decisions to North Texas and UTSA while winning by the same margin over Louisiana Tech.

The Lady Toppers will close weekend action with a Saturday night showdown with Samford, who enters the weekend with a 6-1 record. After dropping their opening contests of the season, Samford has rattled of six victories, including a five-set upset of No. 24 Arizona on opening weekend.

All three weekend opponents appeared in either the NCAA Tournament or NIVC event last season. Samford earned the SoCon's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament while Northern Kentucky and Tulsa each participated in the NIVC.

Through three weeks of Conference USA weekly awards, WKU Volleyball has already seen four Lady Toppers recognized with five different honors, displaying just how versatile Travis Hudson's 2019 squad is. Most recently, Lauren Matthews brought in Co-Offensive Player of the Week recognition while Paige Briggs picked up her second Freshman of the Week honor. In the second week of awards, Sophia

Cerino was recognized as the league's Defensive Player of the Week after Nadia Dieudonne and Briggs were tabbed Setter and Freshman of the Week, respectively.

Off to a 10-1 start to the 2019 campaign, WKU Volleyball will play in the friendly confines of E.A. Diddle Arena for four additional matches following this weekend's slate. The Tops won't be on the road again until an Oct. 11 outing at Florida Atlantic.

After securing 20 wins last season, Coach Hudson and the WKU program have now posted 19-consecutive 20-win campaigns. The streak is the fifth-best active mark in the nation.

The 2019 season also marks Hudson's 25th at the helm of WKU Volleyball. Hudson is one of just 31 coaches across Division I Volleyball to be leading a team for at least their 25th season. Even more impressively, the WKU veteran is one of just 11 to coach every season at the same school. His .741 career win-percentage entering the season figures out to rank second-best of those 11 longstanding coaches as does his 25.4 wins-per-season average.

With the 2019 campaign underway, volleyball season tickets are available online at WKUSports.com or by calling the WKU ticket office at 1-800-5-BIGRED. Season ticket holders will receive 15 general admission tickets with the Flexible Ticket Package that can be used to attend the home games of his or her choice. This plan allows the flexibility to choose which volleyball games the buyer wants to attend and the number of tickets used for each game. Season ticket holders also gain exclusive access to pre-game chalk talks with Hudson, who enters his 25th season at the helm of WKU volleyball.

NOTES

RECEIVING VOTES
After picking up its second Power Five win of the season and winning the Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite against a stacked tournament field, WKU Volleyball is now receiving votes in the latest American Volleyball Coaches Association Poll.

The Lady Toppers rank 36th overall in the poll, joining [RV] Rice (31st) from Conference USA. WKU is receiving nine votes in the poll while the Owls own 21.

WKU Volleyball has now received votes in nine-consecutive seasons in the AVCA Coaches Poll, dating back to the 2011 campaign. Last season, 2018, marked the lone season in that span that the Red and White never broke into the top-25 ranks.

TOUGH SERVING
In WKU Volleyball's four-set win over Arizona State, senior Sophia Cerino sliced up the Sun Devils' serve-receive, striking for eight aces in the match. The mark ties her for the third-most ever recorded in a single match.

During Cerino's dominant showing against ASU, the senior took WKU on numerous scoring runs, including one of nine-straight serves, keeping the Sun Devils out of their offensive system. She would end up tossing up 29 serves across her eight trips back to the service line in the Power Five win.

TOURNAMENT WINS
Through three weeks of play, WKU Volleyball has won a pair of tournament crowns after a pair of 3-0 showings in the Toledo Blue & Gold Invite and the Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite. The first weekend, the Tops downed Loyola - Chicago, Toledo and North Dakota State before taking care of Bowling Green, Ohio State and Tulane during the third weekend.

4-0 START
With the squad's win over Arizona State to open second-weekend play, the Lady Toppers improved to 4-0 to start the season for the ninth time under Travis Hudson. WKU has won a regular-season or tournament championship all eight previous seasons with such a start.

POWER FIVE WINS
Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU Volleyball is now 12-10 against Power Five opponents.

WKU Volleyball is now 2-0 all-time against Arizona

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 13-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then, Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

Harlie is now a Lady Topper. At every home match, she is with the team in the huddle and at introductions while she cheers with her family from the sidelines. The team's secret weapon, she is a constant reminder to the WKU student-athletes and coaching staff to keep fighting no matter what stands in the way.

For more information about Harlie and her journey, visit HOPEFORHARLIE.ORG and follow on Twitter via @HOPEFORHARLIE.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

For more information about FOJ, visit FRIENDSOFJACLYN.ORG.

NOTES

State and 3-6 all-time against Pac-12 programs (3-3 in last six meetings).

Additionally, on the first day of Louisville's Fleur de Lis Tournament, WKU faced off against Arizona State and No. 24 Louisville, marking the first time since 2013 that the Red and White faced two Power Five opponents in the same day. WKU has met two Power Five squads on the same day a total of five times in program history, splitting the day four times and sweeping the day once (2012).

Most recently, WKU downed Ohio State out of the Big Ten in a 3-0 sweep on Friday night of the Lady Toppers' Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite. The Red and White swept the Buckeyes in the second-straight meeting, taking a decision on each team's home court.

COMING OUT HOT

WKU Volleyball opened the 2019 campaign at the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament where the Red and White went a perfect 3-0 to win the season-opening event. While in Glass City, the Tops downed Loyola (3-2), Toledo (3-0) and North Dakota State (3-0).

In her first weekend as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) earned the Blue & Gold Tournament's MVP honor. Fellow newcomer Paige Briggs along with Preseason All-Conference selection Lauren Matthews also earned spots on the All-Tournament Team.

WKU is off to a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with four-straight wins before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

In her very first match as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay), record WKU's first 20-20 double-double outing since Sept. 16, 2016. The Xavier transfer tallied 54 assists and 20 digs to become the 36th WKU Volleyball player to achieve the feat and the first-ever to do so in the month of August.

PRESEASON C-USA POLL

For the first time since its inaugural season in the league, WKU Volleyball was not voted the C-USA Preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers were predicted to finish second in 2014 before going on to win both the regular season and C-USA tournament titles.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

Individually, senior rightside Sophia Cerino and sophomore middle Lauren Matthews earned spots on the league's 12-person Preseason All-Conference team. Rice landed a league-high three individuals on the team. Charlotte, Florida Atlantic and Rice all joined the Red and White with a pair of Preseason All-Conference selections.

ANOTHER TOUGH SCHEDULE

After a season filled with highs and lows in 2018, WKU Volleyball is determined to make noise in 2019 and has put together the schedule to do just that.

WKU's 29-match regular season includes three regular season conference champions and two conference tournament champions. Additionally, 15 of WKUs' 2019 opponents notched winning campaigns a year ago.

This year's slate features nine squads that appeared in the 2018 postseason. Kentucky, Louisville, Samford and Rice all appeared in the NCAA Tournament with both of WKU's in-state foes winning at least one game. Bowling Green, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and North Texas all participated in the NIVC.

STRONG AND STEADY

Less than 18 months removed from his heart attack, Travis Hudson returns for his 25th season at the helm of the WKU Volleyball program. After collecting his 600th career win last season, Hudson is one of just 31 head coaches in all of DI volleyball returning for their 25th or better season. Even more impressive, Hudson is one of just 11 to spend their entire career at the same school.

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .741 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 19 seasons (2000-18), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 19 seasons. During the last 19-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

620 AND COUNTING

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

Back on the court days later, Hudson returned to direct his 24th year of volleyball from his alma mater.

NOTES

Hudson's squad returned five starters from last year's 20-10 campaign and eight letterwinners total. During the offseason, WKU added a pair of transfers and three freshmen that are set for their Lady Topper debuts.

WKU picked up a pair of junior transfers in Nadia Dieudonne and Logan Kael. Dieudonne made her way back to the Bluegrass State after playing two seasons at Xavier. Hailing from Tennessee, Kael headed back north after playing two seasons at West Florida (DII).

Additionally, the Lady Toppers added a trio of talented freshmen in Paige Briggs, Avri Davis and Jennifer Rush. All three are expected to see action for the Red and White on the offensive side of the ball.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

After the second weekend of play in 2019, Cerino earned her second career weekly award from Conference USA, being recognized as the league's Defensive Player of the Week.

Following the 2018-19 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 13th consecutive season as the Lady Toppers finished the campaign with a 3.46 team GPA. The honor marks the 17th time a Lady Topper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

In total, 189 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of eight Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, FIU, Middle Tennessee, Rice, Southern Miss, UTEP and UTSA in addition to the Red and White.

THE LAST FOUR YEARS

Across the last four seasons (2015-18) on The Hill, WKU Volleyball sported a 113-21 record that included six collective Conference USA Championships. The Lady Toppers went 53-5 in C-USA regular season play during that span. In three NCAA Tournament appearances the squad posted a 2-3 record.

BACK IN THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

"I BELIEVE IN ALYSSA CAVANAUGH"

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Lady Toppers to 123 wins but her 124th will be her biggest yet.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant and less than six weeks later on March 20 would finally be discharged from the hospital. The family would stay in Cincinnati through May when Alyssa would finally be able to go home.

WKU VOLLEYBALL CELEBRATES 900TH ALL-TIME WIN WITH TWO FRIDAY VICTORIES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball celebrated the 900th all-time win in program history after a pair of Friday wins to open its weekend tournament on The Hill. The Lady Toppers opened the day with a hard-fought five-set victory over Northern Kentucky before sweeping Tulsa in the primetime matchup.

"Tonight our offense was a lot better," head coach Travis Hudson opened in Friday night's interview. "We've been defending at a pretty high level and that continued tonight. We were who I want us to be offensively tonight; we were balanced. Lauren really had to carry a big load for us this morning and I don't want to be that team but it's who we had to be earlier today."

Lauren Matthews scorched the statsheet for the Red and White on the day, racking up 30 kills at a .421 offensive clip while notching 10 blocks as well. Paige Briggs registered a team-high 36 digs as the WKU defense limited the opposing offenses to a .145 hitting percentage on the day.

Sophia Cerino continued to prove why she's one of the NCAA's best from behind the service line as the senior combined for 12 aces between the two victories. She entered the weekend ranked fifth in the country in total aces and continues to climb.

"I take a lot of pride in my serve and getting opponents stopped and just being as aggressive as I can be," Cerino shared. I feel like that's such an honor, it's so cool to be up there in the NCAA rankings."

WKU Volleyball now sits at 12-1 on the season and has stretched its winning streak to eight-straight matches. Northern Kentucky sits at 5-5 while Tulsa moved to 7-5 overall.

WKU 3, NORTHERN KENTUCKY 2

After dropping just its third opening frame of the season, WKU Volleyball would bounce back and ultimately claim a five-set victory over Northern Kentucky to open weekend action from Diddle Arena.

Matthews struck for a career-high 22 kills – the first 20-kill outing by a Lady Topper this season – while hitting at a .415 clip. The sophomore added a team-high six blocks in the win.

Setter Nadia Dieudonne came just one kill shy of a triple double, as she racked up nine kills, 45 assists and 17 digs. The junior facilitated the WKU offense to a .180 clip with 63 kills on 189 attacks. WKU's attack was at its best during crunch time as the Lady Toppers hit a match-high .312 in the decisive fifth set.

Freshman Paige Briggs registered her seventh double-double performance of the season, tallying 16 kills and 23 digs. Her 23-dig effort was a season-best and her eighth double-digit dig outing of the year.

Sophia Cerino registered five aces in the outing, marking her third match of the season with such. She also added eight kills, six digs, three blocks and two assists.

NKU went up 1-0 in the match after a 25-22 first-set victory. The Norse limited the WKU attack to a mere .083 reading. The Lady Toppers recorded 21 digs in the frame led by five apiece from Dieudonne and Emma Kowalkowski.

WKU would even the match at 1-1 after a 25-18 set two victory. The Lady Toppers would lead wire to wire after Matthews opened the scoring with her first of seven kills in the frame.

Out of the break, a Kayland Jackson kill put WKU on the board first before NKU would strike right back for the first of five ties in the set. Tied at 9-9, the Norse would be the first to double digits with a service ace before WKU would rattle off five-straight points for a 14-10 lead it would not relinquish.

Not done, Northern Kentucky outlasted WKU in a 27-25 fourth-set decision for force the Lady Toppers into their second five-set outing of the season. The fourth set saw 11 ties and four lead changes. WKU trailed 24-21 and was able to avoid three-straight set points and even the match at 24-24. NKU and WKU would alternate kills the next three points before the Norse would take the frame on a block assist.

Heading to a fifth set for just the second time on the season, WKU opened up a quick 3-0 lead and never looked back. NKU pulled with hone at 6-5 before the Lady Toppers scored five of the next six points for an 11-6 lead. After Dieudonne registered her ninth kill of the match, the Tops would force an NKU hitting error for the final tally in the 15-9 set five decision.

“This is a great group; they really stay composed,” Hudson shared of the team’s showing in the fifth set. “As long as they’re doing that, we just want to be aggressive. You don’t want to be conservative in those and I thought we did a good job of letting it fly.”

WKU 3, TULSA 0

After a slow start to the morning match, WKU wasted no time jumping out to a sizeable lead over Tulsa Friday night. Serving first for the Lady Toppers was Cerino, who would rattle off three aces to put WKU ahead 4-2 – a lead the squad would never relinquish. The Red and White would push ahead to a 13-4 lead before working all the way out to a 23-12 advantage. WKU would claim the opening frame 25-16 after hitting .320 as a team and holding the Hurricane to a .000 rate. Cerino would finish with four aces in the opening set alone.

WKU would again work out to a quick lead at 10-4 before pushing all the way out to another double-digit lead at 21-10. The hosts would claim a 25-15 second-set victory off Briggs’ fifth kill of the night. The WKU offense operated at a .407 attack rate, helping the team to a 73-percent sideout rate.

The Lady Toppers saved their best for last, coming out of the intermission and jumping out to yet another 10-4 lead. Tulsa would use both its timeouts by the time WKU took a 13-5 advantage and the Tops would open up another double-digit lead. Cerino’s sixth kill of the match would be the final tally in the 25-13 third-set victory. The Lady Toppers racked up 17 kills on a .361 hitting clip in the frame while working at an 85-percent sideout rating.

In total, the match saw just three ties and two lead changes.

Kayland Jackson led WKU with nine kills on a .615 hitting clip while Matthews and Briggs were right behind her with eight kills each. Katie Isenbarger added seven while working at a .462 offensive mark.

As a team, WKU hit .364 in the match with 41 kills against just nine errors on 88 swings. Tulsa was held to 24 kills, 13 errors and 76 attacks for a .145 rate.

Dieudonne collected 32 assists, three kills, two digs and a block as the main offensive facilitator.

Briggs (13) and Logan Kael (10) each recorded double-digit digs while Hallie Shelton added seven. Shelton also recorded a pair of aces while Cerino led the Tops in the category with seven.

Matthews finished with a team-best four blocks.

COACH HUDSON ON THE IMPORTANCE OF THE TULSA WIN:
"This is a big win. A lot of people were talking about Tulsa prior to the year being an at-large type team, just like Tulane. Obviously you hope to win a conference championship, but if you don't and your name is in the room with a bunch of other names like Tulsa, then having the head-to-head result is really nice to have. Much respect to both of those programs; they're both really good with really good players and are coaches really well. We're fortunate to get two quality wins and continue to move forward."

HUDSON ON 900 ALL-TIME WINS:
"Anytime you hit a milestone like this one, it makes me flip back through the rolodex of all the great kids I've had the opportunity to coach and what they've meant to this program. This is truly a program that was built by the players and players of the past continue to have their fingerprints all over the success we have today. It's something we're very proud of and certainly embrace the opportunity to celebrate."

SOPHIA CERINO ON 900 ALL-TIME WINS:
"It's so cool. Just to be a part of a culture like we have and being used to having 20-win seasons. It's really cool, we definitely have something special here and it's really amazing to be a part of it."

NEXT TIME OUT:
WKU will wrap up weekend action on Saturday with a 5 p.m. CT tilt with Samford. With a win, the Lady Toppers would win their third of four early season tournaments before heading into conference action next weekend.

MATTHEWS' RECORD NIGHT LEADS TOPS TO THIRD TOURNAMENT WIN

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – With a 3-0 sweep of Samford on Saturday night, the Red and White extended their win streak to nine matches as the Lady Toppers claimed the WKU Volleyball Invite title. Lauren Matthews took home WKU Volleyball Invite MVP honors while Sophia Cerino also collected All-Tournament Team recognition for the Red and White. Matthews also set WKU's single-match hitting percentage record at .882 in the victory.

"I said back in week one that I just want us to continue to get better and I haven't been caught up in wins and losses or winning tournaments," head coach Travis Hudson opened. "This team is far from a finished project. For me, I'd rather lose and get better than win and backtrack a bit. I think we've been winning and getting better though, which is the best of both worlds."

On the weekend, Matthews finished with a blistering .527 attack percentage with 45 total kills and 13 blocks for a 1.18 blocks per set average. The sophomore had just six errant attacks all weekend.

"It's obvious that Lauren is a pretty spectacular athlete," Hudson said of the sophomore tournament MVP. "I've seen a lot of spectacular athletes that never turned into great volleyball players though. The thing that I'm so proud of with Lauren though, is that she's gotten so much better since she arrived here. Every day this spring, we grinded; and there were some days where she didn't look like a very good player but it's why she is one now. She's vulnerable and wants to get better and wants to work on the things she's not good at while listening and being coachable. Those things combined with her athleticism allowed her to turn into a pretty special player."

Cerino was a game-changer for the Red and White from the service line, racking up 18 aces in the 11 weekend sets for a stellar 1.64 aces per set average. On the week, Cerino tossed up 64 serves, helping WKU keep control and put up a run every time she went to the line. The senior notched six in WKU's sweep of Samford.

"I don't know if I've ever seen someone impact a match from the service line as much as Sophia can," Hudson shared. "We're such a good defensive team that I feel like if we can get a three- or four-point cushion on people that we're in pretty good shape because we don't give up points very much. All weekend, Sophia gave us that opportunity by going back and serving us out to good leads early on and so like you hope seniors do, she impacts us in a lot of ways and she certainly did that this weekend."

The Lady Toppers claimed their third early season tournament crown with the WKU Volleyball Invite championship on Saturday. The Red and White also won its opening-weekend outing at Toledo and last weekend's Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite.

With just one non-conference matchup remaining, Hudson's crew sits at 13-1 and a perfect 7-0 in matches in Diddle Arena.

Samford jumped out to a quick 3-0 lead in the opening frame but a solo block and two kills from quickly shifted momentum back to the hosts. The teams continued to battle back and forth before the Lady Toppers finally pulled away for good after a Paige Briggs' kill gave WKU a 16-14 lead. The Red and White would score the frame's final four points for the 25-18 decision. Seven of Matthews' 15 kills came in the opening frame while she added a pair of blocks as well.

While WKU began the second set with a 9-5 advantage, but the Bulldogs refused to quit. Samford strung together a 6-0 run to take an 11-9 lead. The visitors maintained a lead or tie until Matthews' 10th kill of the evening set the Lady Tops in motion. WKU would then use an 8-1 run to force two Samford timeouts and extend its lead to 22-17. The Lady Toppers would force a couple late Samford errors to claim the second set 25-22.

After a back-and-forth start to the final set, the Red and White went on a 7-1 run that led to a 14-7 advantage and never looked back. Samford would use its final timeout trailing 18-9 before the sides split the final 14 points of the match evenly as WKU won the 25-16 decision.

The WKU offense operated at a blazing .356 clip against the Bulldogs with seven different Lady Toppers registering a kill in the victory. Matthews led everyone with 18 kills and her school-record .882 hitting clip while Briggs reached double digits with 10 strikes of her own. Katie Isenbarger, Sophia Cerino and Avri Davis each added four kills apiece.

Matthews notched seven kills in the first frame, three in the second and five in the third for 15 kills on 17 swings. Her .882 attack percentage surpassed Alyssa Cavanaugh's previous single-match record of .818, set in 2017.

Nadia Dieudonne recorded her fifth double-double of the season and second of the weekend with 30 assists and 13 digs in the win. The junior also added three blocks, a kill and an ace.

Logan Kael finished with nine digs while Briggs added eight and Emma Kowalkowski chipped in seven.

NEXT TIME OUT:
WKU will conclude its regular-season non-conference slate on Tuesday as Austin Peay visits The Hill. First serve from Diddle Arena is scheduled to go up at 6 p.m. CT, as the Lady Toppers continue their seven-match homestand.

BRIGGS, DIEUDONNE COLLECT MORE CONFERENCE USA WEEKLY HONORS

DALLAS – WKU Volleyball's Paige Briggs and Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) have been recognized by Conference USA as the Freshman of the Week and Setter of the Week, respectively, the league office announced Monday afternoon. The power tandem helped the Lady Topper squad to a second-straight perfect 4-0 week against Belmont and a tough WKU Volleyball Invite field.

Briggs collects her third Freshman of the Week nod from the conference in four weeks on The Hill. The rookie racked up 49 kills across WKU's 14 sets of action to go along with 52 digs to lead the Red and White over the four-match span. Briggs added another double-double performance to bring her season total up to seven.

The Ortonville, Mich., native was nearly perfect is serve-receive in 59 targets across the week, making just one error. As a six-rotation player, Briggs averaged 3.50 kills per set and 3.71 digs per set to lead the Red and White in digs. Led by a career-high 23-dig showing against Northern Kentucky, Briggs registered a pair of outings with at least 13 digs across the week while hitting double digits three times in kills as well.

Earning her second weekly award of the 2019 campaign with the Setter of the Week nod, Dieudonne now owns half the league's awards in the category this season.

The junior transfer tallied 143 assists as WKU dropped just two sets across the entire week. Dieudonne owned a 10.21 assists per set rate across the four matches. In WKU's five-set victory over Northern Kentucky to open weekend play, Dieudonne came just one kill shy of a triple double as she filled the statsheet with 45 assists, 17 digs, nine kills, an ace and a .600 hitting percentage. The Louisville native added her second double double of the weekend in WKU's three-set sweep of Samford, an NCAA Tournament team a year ago. Dieudonne averaged 1.07 kills per set, 10.21 assists per set, 2.64 digs per set and 1.43 points per set as WKU extended its win streak to nine.

With 41-percent of her sets finding the floor for kills by her teammates, Dieudonne led the Lady Topper squad to a .289 hitting clip on the week, including three outings of .350+. Dieudonne facilitated her teammate Lauren Matthews to a single-match program record .882 hitting percentage in Saturday night's sweep of Samford. Matthews would finish with 15 kills on 17 errorless swings.

Through four weeks of weekly awards, WKU Volleyball has collected seven accolades with four different players earning recognition.

WKU Volleyball is in action against Tuesday evening with a tilt against Austin Peay on the slate to close non-conference play. First serve against the Lady Govs is slated for 6 p.m. CT, from E.A. Diddle Arena. Following the midweek match, WKU will continue its homestand as Southern Miss comes to town to open league play on Sunday.

[RV] TOPS WRAP UP NON-CONFERENCE SLATE WITH VISIT FROM AUSTIN PEAY

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Fresh off winning the WKU Volleyball Invitational and riding a nine-match win streak, the Lady Toppers will cap off their non-conference schedule with a Tuesday night match against Austin Peay. First serve between the Lady Toppers and Governors is set for 6 p.m. CT, at E.A. Diddle Arena. The match will be streamed on Facebook by HSSN.

Austin Peay enters Tuesday's tilt with a deceptive 2-11 record after crossing paths with six Power Five programs. One of the Govs wins on the year came in a four-set victory over Texas Tech while the other came in a five-set battle against Missouri State. In the all-time series, WKU leads Austin Peay by a 31-12 reading but will look to avenge last season's five-set loss in Clarksville.

With a 13-1 overall record entering its non-conference finale, WKU Volleyball owns the third-best winning percentage in the country, behind only California and Baylor – the two remaining unbeaten teams. WKU's start is the fourth-best in program history behind only an 18-1 opening in 2005, a 17-1 start in 2011 and a 16-1 reading in 2004.

For the second-consecutive week, WKU Volleyball is receiving votes in the AVCA Coaches Poll. After entering the poll at 36th with nine votes, the Lady Toppers have moved up to 31st while receiving 19 tallies. Head coach Travis Hudson's program has now been ranked or receiving votes in nine-consecutive seasons.

Following an 18-ace weekend, Sophia Cerino nearly doubled her season output and is now the NCAA leader in both aces and aces per set. The senior owns 42 aces on the season for a 0.86 aces per set rate. The lefty has been lethal from the service line for the Red and White, owning three-straight matches with five or more aces to bring her season total to five such outings.

Through four weeks of Conference USA weekly awards, WKU Volleyball has already seen four Lady Toppers recognized with seven honors, displaying just how versatile Travis Hudson's 2019 squad is. Most recently, Nadia Dieudonne and Paige Briggs were recognized as the league's Setter of the Week and Freshman of the Week, respectively.

WKU Volleyball is in the midst of a 12-match stretch that features 11 home contests. Following Tuesday's tilt with Austin Peay, the Lady Toppers will remain home on The Hill for three more matches.

With the 2019 campaign underway, volleyball season tickets are available online at WKUSports.com or by calling the WKU ticket office at 1-800-5-BIGRED. Season ticket holders will receive 15 general admission tickets with the Flexible Ticket Package that can be used to attend the home games of his or her choice. This plan allows the flexibility to choose which volleyball games the buyer wants to attend and the number of tickets used for each game. Season ticket holders also gain exclusive access to pre-game chalk talks with Hudson, who enters his 25th season at the helm of WKU volleyball.

RECEIVING VOTES
After picking up its second Power Five win of the season and winning the Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite against a stacked tournament field, WKU Volleyball received votes in the Week 3 American Volleyball Coaches Association Poll.

The Lady Toppers entered the rankings at 36th overall in the poll, joining [RV] Rice (31st) from Conference USA. WKU received nine votes in the poll while the Owls posted 21.

In the most recent poll, WKU moved up and now sits as 31st overall with 19 votes. Rice broke into the Top-25 and sits at 22nd.

WKU Volleyball has now received votes in nine-consecutive seasons in the AVCA Coaches Poll, dating back to the 2011 campaign. Last season, 2018, marked the lone season in that span that the Red and White never broke into the top-25 ranks.

TOUGH SERVING
In WKU Volleyball's four-set win over Arizona State, senior Sophia Cerino sliced up the Sun Devils' serve-receive, striking for eight aces in the match. The mark ties her for the third-most ever recorded in a single match.

During Cerino's dominant showing against ASU, the senior took WKU on numerous scoring runs, including one of nine-straight serves, keeping the Sun Devils out of their offensive system. She would end up tossing up 29 serves across her eight trips back to the service line in the Power Five win.

NATIONAL LEADER
Following an 18-ace weekend at the WKU Volleyball Invite, senior Sophia Cerino jumped from fifth to first in the NCAA rankings and now leads the country in aces and aces per set. With 42 aces through the first four weeks of the year, the Brentwood, Tenn., native owns a 0.86 aces per set average. She's tallied five or more aces in five matches this year including each of her last three outings.

TOURNAMENT WINS
Through four weeks of play, WKU Volleyball has won three tournament crowns after a trio of 3-0 showings in the Toledo Blue & Gold Invite, the Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite and WKU Volleyball Invite. The first weekend, the Tops downed Loyola - Chicago, Toledo and North Dakota State before taking care of Bowling Green, Ohio State and Tulane during the third weekend. Most recently, WKU downed Northern Kentucky in a five-set win before sweeping Tulsa and Samford to close the weekend.

POWER FIVE WINS
Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU Volleyball is now 12-10 against Power Five opponents.

WKU Volleyball is now 2-0 all-time against Arizona State and 3-6 all-time against Pac-12 programs (3-3 in last six meetings).

Additionally, on the first day of Louisville's Fleur de Lis Tournament, WKU faced off against Arizona State and No. 24 Louisville, marking the first time since 2013 that the Red and White faced two Power Five opponents in the same day. WKU has met two Power Five squads on the same day a total of five times in program history, splitting the day four times and sweeping the day once (2012).

Most recently, WKU downed Ohio State out of the Big Ten in a 3-0 sweep on Friday night of the Lady Toppers' Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite. The Red and White swept the Buckeyes in the second-straight meeting, taking a decision on each team's home court.

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 19 seasons (2000-18), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active

HARLIE BRYANT

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 13-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then, Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

Harlie is now a Lady Topper. At every home match, she is with the team in the huddle and at introductions while she cheers with her family from the sidelines. The team's secret weapon, she is a constant reminder to the WKU student-athletes and coaching staff to keep fighting no matter what stands in the way.

For more information about Harlie and her journey, visit HOPEFORHARLIE.ORG and follow on Twitter via @HOPEFORHARLIE.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

streak of at least 19 seasons. During the last 19-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

WKU Volleyball opened the 2019 campaign at the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament where the Red and White went a perfect 3-0 to win the season-opening event. While in Glass City, the Tops downed Loyola (3-2), Toledo (3-0) and North Dakota State (3-0).

In her first weekend as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) earned the Blue & Gold Tournament's MVP honor. Fellow newcomer Paige Briggs along with Preseason All-Conference selection Lauren Matthews also earned spots on the All-Tournament Team.

WKU is off to a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with four-straight wins before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

HOT START

With the squad's win over Arizona State to open second-weekend play, the Lady Toppers improved to 4-0 to start the season for the ninth time under Travis Hudson. WKU has won a regular-season or tournament championship all eight previous seasons with such a start.

Since then, the Lady Toppers have jumped out to a 13-1 start, which ranks as the fourth-best start in program history. Pages have to be turned back to 2011 to find a better start, which saw the team open the year with a 17-1 record. In 2005, Hudson's crew opened with an 18-1 mark before losing its second match after opening 2004 with a 16-1 reading.

In her very first match as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay), record WKU's first 20-20 double-double outing since Sept. 16, 2016. The Xavier transfer tallied 54 assists and 20 digs to become the 36th WKU Volleyball player to achieve the feat and the first-ever to do so in the month of August.

PRESEASON C-USA POLL

For the first time since its inaugural season in the league, WKU Volleyball was not voted the C-USA Preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers were predicted to finish second in 2014 before going on to win both the regular season and C-USA tournament titles.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

Individually, senior rightside Sophia Cerino and sophomore middle Lauren Matthews earned spots on the league's 12-person Preseason All-Conference team. Rice landed a league-high three individuals on the team. Charlotte, Florida Atlantic and Rice all joined the Red and White with a pair of Preseason All-Conference selections.

ANOTHER TOUGH SCHEDULE

After a season filled with highs and lows in 2018, WKU Volleyball is determined to make noise in 2019 and has put together the schedule to do just that.

WKU's 29-match regular season includes three regular season conference champions and two conference tournament champions. Additionally, 15 of WKUs' 2019 opponents notched winning campaigns a year ago.

This year's slate features nine squads that appeared in the 2018 postseason. Kentucky, Louisville, Samford and Rice all appeared in the NCAA Tournament with both of WKU's in-state foes winning at least one game. Bowling Green, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and North Texas all participated in the NIVC.

STRONG AND STEADY

Less than 18 months removed from his heart attack, Travis Hudson returns for his 25th season at the helm of the WKU Volleyball program. After collecting his 600th career win last season, Hudson is one of just 31 head coaches in all of DI volleyball returning for their 25th or better season. Even more impressive, Hudson is one of just 11 to spend their entire career at the same school.

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .741 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

Back on the court days later, Hudson returned to direct his 24th year of volleyball from his alma mater.

Hudson's squad returned five starters from last year's

20-10 campaign and eight letterwinners total. During the offseason, WKU added a pair of transfers and three freshmen that are set for their Lady Topper debuts.

WKU picked up a pair of junior transfers in Nadia Dieudonne and Logan Kael. Dieudonne made her way back to the Bluegrass State after playing two seasons at Xavier. Hailing from Tennessee, Kael headed back north after playing two seasons at West Florida (DII).

Additionally, the Lady Toppers added a trio of talented freshmen in Paige Briggs, Avri Davis and Jennifer Rush. All three are expected to see action for the Red and White on the offensive side of the ball.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

After the second weekend of play in 2019, Cerino earned her second career weekly award from Conference USA, being recognized as the league's Defensive Player of the Week.

Following the 2018-19 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 13th consecutive season as the Lady Toppers finished the campaign with a 3.46 team GPA. The honor marks the 17th time a Lady Topper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

In total, 189 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of eight Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, FIU, Middle Tennessee, Rice, Southern Miss, UTEP and UTSA in addition to the Red and White.

THE LAST FOUR YEARS

Across the last four seasons (2015-18) on The Hill, WKU Volleyball sported a 113-21 record that included six collective Conference USA Championships. The Lady Toppers went 53-5 in C-USA regular season play during that span. In three NCAA Tournament appearances the squad posted a 2-3 record.

BACK IN THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

"I BELIEVE IN ALYSSA CAVANAUGH"

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Lady Toppers to 123 wins but her 124th will be her biggest yet.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant and less than six weeks later on March 20 would finally be discharged from the hospital. The family would stay in Cincinnati through May when Alyssa would finally be able to go home.

Cavanaugh continues to recover from the transplant. While the process has had its ups and downs, anyone that knows her knows she's a fighter up for the challenge.

TOPS PUSH WIN STREAK TO DOUBLE DIGITS WITH SWEEP OF AUSTIN PEAY

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball pushed its win streak to double-digits with its 10th sweep of the season in Tuesday night's victory over Austin Peay. The Lady Toppers conclude non-conference play with a 14-1 record and remain unbeaten in Diddle Arena with a perfect 8-0 reading.

"I wasn't really happy with the opening set tonight," head coach Travis Hudson opened. "I told our team at a timeout, I felt like we were scoring all the points, all of ours and most of theirs. A lot of unforced errors early on and missed assignments, things like that, which is not something I want us to be. I thought we cleaned that up a lot as the match went on. Certainly, played much better in the second set. I think the thing that sticks out to me that is the biggest bright spot is when we were struggling in that first set, it was Katie Isenbarger who really stepped forward and made some plays for us. We were waiting on that, we need her, and she's certainly capable, and tonight she stepped up and made plays."

After back-and-forth play in the first set saw the sides stay even to a 19-19 mark, WKU made a final surge to score six of the last eight points to claim the frame 25-21. Austin Peay and WKU registered nine ties and five lead changes in the opening set with the final flip coming out of a Lady Topper timeout that saw them trailing 18-16. Briggs tallied back-to-back kills out of the stoppage for two of her seven strikes in the frame. As a team, WKU operated at a .382 offensive clip with 17 kills while holding APSU to 13 kills and a .265 hitting percentage.

Set two saw WKU jump out to a quick 6-0 lead off the serve of Katie Isenbarger and the team never looked back. The Red and White would lead by as many as 17 points in the frame with a 23-6 advantage following a Sophia Cerino kill. A block by Matthews would claim the lopsided 25-7 second set victory.

"That is how clean we can play when we put all the phases together," Hudson shared. "We served it really well, we played good offense in that set, and we defended at a high level. That's what we did against Tulsa. When we play all three phases at a high level, we are pretty tough to beat, and the challenge is getting this young team there, and getting them to understand the importance of being that focused at all times."

The last time WKU held a team to single digits in a set was the first round of the 2017 Conference USA Tournament over Charlotte. WKU claimed the fourth and final set by a 25-6 decision.

Out of the break, Austin Peay came back firing and stayed even with the Tops out to an 8-8 tie, with ties at every point along the way. From there though, Cerino recorded back-to-back aces to open a string of six-straight serves as WKU took a lead and never looked back. The Lady Toppers would work out to an 18-9 advantage before the Govs would finally enter double digits. WKU would close the frame with consecutive kills by Isenbarger, Hallie Shelton and Matthews for the 25-15 decision.

With a total of four aces on the night, the NCAA service ace leader, Cerino, would extend her streak of 4+ aces in a match out to four. She's registered at least one ace in six-consecutive matches and 11-of-15 total contests this season.

Logan Kael added three more of WKU's 10 aces on the evening to go along with six digs.

Briggs and Matthews led WKU with 11 kills each and hit a combined .600 on the night with just one error. Briggs collected her eighth double-double outing of the season with a match-high 13 digs as well. Matthews would finish with four solo blocks on the night.

Leading WKU in blocks would be Cerino and Isenbarger, who teamed up for five block assists in the match.

Isenbarger finished with seven kills on a .333 attack clip while Kayland Jackson added six and Cerino chipped in five.

HUDSON ON CONFERENCE PLAY:
"Everything gets taken up a notch. Our scouting reports will be a little more in depth, everybody will know each other a little bit better, and every match has a little bit more importance. I think we were picked third in the preseason, so were going into this with a little bit of a chip on our shoulder, but this league is very good this year. Rice is playing at an unbelievable level and very much deserves to be in the top 25 right now. We just want to continue to build. Phase 1 of the season is over now, non-conference, and I couldn't be much happier than I am to be 14-1. Now it's about getting back in the gym. I think I am as excited to have good quality practice time over the next few weeks as anything else because were young and we have a lot of things we have to continue to get better at."

SOPHIA CERINO ON BEING THE NCAA ACES LEADER:
"It's kind of surreal. Never in my wildest dreams would I have guessed that this would happen. Throughout my career, going from my freshman year, sophomore year, all the way up to my senior year. I have always loved my top spin serve, and I have always tried to have been competitive with it, but never would I have ever imagined I'd be here, so it is such an honor, and I am really excited to continue to keep that up."

NEXT TIME OUT:
With its non-conference slate concluded, WKU turns its attention to C-USA action as Southern Miss visits The Hill on Sunday for a noon CT tilt.

WKU OPENS LEAGUE PLAY WITH SOUTHERN MISS ON THE HILL

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Fresh off closing its non-conference slate with a 14-1 record, the Lady Toppers will open up Conference USA action this Sunday as Southern Miss visits The Hill. First serve between the Lady Toppers and Golden Eagles is set for noon CT, at E.A. Diddle Arena. The match will be streamed on Facebook by HSSN.

Southern Miss made a Friday night stop in Huntington, W.Va., on Friday before heading to The Hill for Sunday's rematch of the 2018 C-USA Tournament First Round matchup. The Golden Eagles are still searching for their first victory of the 2019 campaign, winning just two sets en route to a 0-13 record including a sweep at Marshall. USM won a set off Tulane – the squads' lone common opponent – and one off Seattle in the season opener.

Last November, Southern Miss ended WKU's season with a five-set win in the opening round of the C-USA Tournament from Huntington, W.Va. After the Red and White claimed the first two sets, USM came back to win the final three.

In the all-time series, WKU leads 6-2, including wins in all five regular-season meetings. The programs met for the first time in 1988, when USM claimed the initial contest – a five-set decision. WKU is 3-0 when facing the Golden Eagles in E.A. Diddle Arena.

With a 14-1 overall record entering conference play, WKU Volleyball owns the third-best winning percentage in the country, behind only California and Baylor – the two remaining unbeaten teams. WKU's start is the fourth-best in program history behind only an 18-1 opening in 2005, a 17-1 start in 2011 and a 16-1 reading in 2004.

For the second-consecutive week, WKU Volleyball is receiving votes in the AVCA Coaches Poll. After entering the poll at 36th with nine votes, the Lady Toppers have moved up to 31st while receiving 19 tallies. Head coach Travis Hudson's program has now been ranked or receiving votes in nine-consecutive seasons.

Following an 18-ace weekend and four more aces Tuesday night against Austin Peay, Sophia Cerino nearly doubled her season output and is now the NCAA leader in both aces and aces per set. The senior owns 46 aces on the season for a 0.88 aces per set rate. The lefty has been lethal from the service line for the Red and White, owning four-straight matches with four or more aces to bring her season total to seven such outings.

Through four weeks of Conference USA weekly awards, WKU Volleyball has already seen four Lady Toppers recognized with seven honors, displaying just how versatile Travis Hudson's 2019 squad is. Most recently, Nadia Dieudonne and Paige Briggs were recognized as the league's Setter of the Week and Freshman of the Week, respectively.

WKU Volleyball is in the midst of a 12-match stretch that features 11 home contests. Following Sunday's tilt with Southern Miss, the Lady Toppers will remain home on The Hill for two more matches next weekend.

With the 2019 campaign underway, volleyball season tickets are available online at WKUSports.com or by calling the WKU ticket office at 1-800-5-BIGRED. Season ticket holders will receive 15 general admission tickets with the Flexible Ticket Package that can be used to attend the home games of his or her choice. This plan allows the flexibility to choose which volleyball games the buyer wants to attend and the number of tickets used for each game. Season ticket holders also gain exclusive access to pre-game chalk talks with Hudson, who enters his 25th season at the helm of WKU volleyball.

NOTES

After picking up its second Power Five win of the season and winning the Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite against a stacked tournament field, WKU Volleyball received votes in the Week 3 American Volleyball Coaches Association Poll.

The Lady Toppers entered the rankings at 36th overall in the poll, joining [RV] Rice (31st) from Conference USA. WKU received nine votes in the poll while the Owls posted 21.

In the most recent poll, WKU moved up and now sits as 31st overall with 19 votes. Rice broke into the Top-25 and sits at 22nd.

WKU Volleyball has now received votes in 10-consecutive seasons in the AVCA Coaches Poll, dating back to the 2011 campaign. Last season, 2018, marked the lone season in that span that the Red and White never broke into the top-25 ranks.

TOURNAMENT WINS
Through four weeks of play, WKU Volleyball has won three tournament crowns after a trio of 3-0 showings in the Toledo Blue & Gold Invite, the Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite and WKU Volleyball Invite. The first weekend, the Tops downed Loyola - Chicago, Toledo and North Dakota State before taking care of Bowling Green, Ohio State and Tulane during the third weekend. Most recently, WKU downed Northern Kentucky in a five-set win before sweeping Tulsa and Samford to close the weekend.

NATIONAL LEADER
Following an 18-ace weekend at the WKU Volleyball Invite, senior Sophia Cerino jumped from fifth to first in the NCAA rankings and to lead the country in aces and aces per set. With four more aces in Tuesday's match with Austin Peay, Cerino remains at the top of the ranks. Her 46 aces through the first four weeks of the year put Cerino at a 0.88 aces per set average. She's tallied four or more aces in seven matches this year including each of her last four outings.

POWER FIVE WINS
Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU Volleyball is now 12-10 against Power Five opponents.

WKU Volleyball is now 2-0 all-time against Arizona State and 3-6 all-time against Pac-12 programs (3-3 in last six meetings).

Additionally, on the first day of Louisville's Fleur de Lis Tournament, WKU faced off against Arizona State and No. 24 Louisville, marking the first time since 2013 that the Red and White faced two Power Five opponents in the same day. WKU has met two Power Five squads on the same day a total of five times in program history, splitting the day four times and sweeping the day once (2012).

Most recently, WKU downed Ohio State out of the Big Ten in a 3-0 sweep on Friday night of the Lady Toppers' Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite. The Red and White swept the Buckeyes in the second-straight meeting, taking a decision on each team's home court.

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 19 seasons (2000-18), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 19 seasons. During the last 19-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

IT'S LONELY AT THE TOP
WKU Volleyball leads the country in numerous categories including sweeps and wins as squad's enter conference play. WKU is the lone team in the nation with double digit sweeps and its 14 total wins are the most as well. The Red and White's 10-straight wins ranks second entering the weekend.

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 13-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then, Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

Harlie is now a Lady Topper. At every home match, she is with the team in the huddle and at introductions while she cheers with her family from the sidelines. The team's secret weapon, she is a constant reminder to the WKU student-athletes and coaching staff to keep fighting no matter what stands in the way.

For more information about Harlie and her journey, visit HOPEFORHARLIE.ORG and follow on Twitter via @HOPEFORHARLIE.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

NOTES

In WKU Volleyball's four-set win over Arizona State, senior Sophia Cerino sliced up the Sun Devils' serve-receive, striking for eight aces in the match. The mark ties her for the third-most ever recorded in a single match.

During Cerino's dominant showing against ASU, the senior took WKU on numerous scoring runs, including one of nine-straight serves, keeping the Sun Devils out of their offensive system. She would end up tossing up 29 serves across her eight trips back to the service line in the Power Five win.

COMING OUT HOT

WKU Volleyball opened the 2019 campaign at the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament where the Red and White went a perfect 3-0 to win the season-opening event. While in Glass City, the Tops downed Loyola (3-2), Toledo (3-0) and North Dakota State (3-0).

In her first weekend as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) earned the Blue & Gold Tournament's MVP honor. Fellow newcomer Paige Briggs along with Preseason All-Conference selection Lauren Matthews also earned spots on the All-Tournament Team.

WKU is off to a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with four-straight wins before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

HOT START

With the squad's win over Arizona State to open second-weekend play, the Lady Toppers improved to 4-0 to start the season for the ninth time under Travis Hudson. WKU has won a regular-season or tournament championship all eight previous seasons with such a start.

Since then, the Lady Toppers have jumped out to a 14-1 start, which ranks as the fourth-best start in program history. Pages have to be turned back to 2011 to find a better start, which saw the team open the year with a 17-1 record. In 2005, Hudson's crew opened with an 18-1 mark before losing its second match after opening 2004 with a 16-1 reading.

In her very first match as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay), record WKU's first 20-20 double-double outing since Sept. 16, 2016. The Xavier transfer tallied 54 assists and 20 digs to become the 36th WKU Volleyball player to achieve the feat and the first-ever to do so in the month of August.

PRESEASON C-USA POLL

For the first time since its inaugural season in the league, WKU Volleyball was not voted the C-USA Preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers were predicted to finish second in 2014 before going on to win both the regular season and C-USA tournament titles.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

Individually, senior rightside Sophia Cerino and sophomore middle Lauren Matthews earned spots on the league's 12-person Preseason All-Conference team. Rice landed a league-high three individuals on the team. Charlotte, Florida Atlantic and Rice all joined the Red and White with a pair of Preseason All-Conference selections.

ANOTHER TOUGH SCHEDULE

After a season filled with highs and lows in 2018, WKU Volleyball is determined to make noise in 2019 and has put together the schedule to do just that.

WKU's 29-match regular season includes three regular season conference champions and two conference tournament champions. Additionally, 15 of WKUs' 2019 opponents notched winning campaigns a year ago.

This year's slate features nine squads that appeared in the 2018 postseason. Kentucky, Louisville, Samford and Rice all appeared in the NCAA Tournament with both of WKU's in-state foes winning at least one game. Bowling Green, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and North Texas all participated in the NIVC.

STRONG AND STEADY

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .741 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but

Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

NEW FACES

Hudson's squad returned five starters from last year's 20-10 campaign and eight letterwinners total. During the offseason, WKU added a pair of transfers and three freshmen that are set for their Lady Topper debuts.

WKU picked up a pair of junior transfers in Nadia Dieudonne and Logan Kael. Dieudonne made her way back to the Bluegrass State after playing two seasons at Xavier. Hailing from Tennessee, Kael headed back north after playing two seasons at West Florida (DII).

Additionally, the Lady Toppers added a trio of talented freshmen in Paige Briggs, Avri Davis and Jennifer Rush. All three are expected to see action for the Red and White on the offensive side of the ball.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

After the second weekend of play in 2019, Cerino earned her second career weekly award from Conference USA, being recognized as the league's Defensive Player of the Week.

Following the 2018-19 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 13th consecutive season as the Lady Toppers finished the campaign with a 3.46 team GPA. The honor marks the 17th time a Lady Topper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

In total, 189 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of eight Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, FIU, Middle Tennessee, Rice, Southern Miss, UTEP and UTSA in addition to the Red and White.

THE LAST FOUR YEARS

Across the last four seasons (2015-18) on The Hill, WKU Volleyball sported a 113-21 record that included six collective Conference USA Championships. The Lady Toppers went 53-5 in C-USA regular season play during that span. In three NCAA Tournament appearances the squad posted a 2-3 record.

BACK IN THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

"I BELIEVE IN ALYSSA CAVANAUGH"

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Lady Toppers to 123 wins but her 124th will be her biggest yet.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

WKU VOLLEYBALL OPENS LEAGUE PLAY WITH SWEEP OF GOLDEN EAGLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball extended its win streak to 11-consecutive matches with a sweep of Southern Miss to open Conference USA action on Sunday from E.A. Diddle Arena. Lauren Matthews delivered a match-high 15 kills on .636 hitting clip while Kayland Jackson joined her in double digits with 10. Defensively, five different Lady Toppers tallied at least eight digs in the Tops' 11th sweep of the season.

"We have a chance to be really good and we are approaching it," head coach Travis Hudson opened. "Today was a big step backwards, but a big step backwards with a win is kind of what you hope your step backwards to be, but we have to be better. A week from now we'll have to be way better than we are. We have our rival Middle Tennessee coming in on Friday and a really hot, really good Marshall team coming Sunday, so we have a week to be better and we will be."

With the win, WKU Volleyball improves to 15-1 on the season and 1-0 in Conference USA action. Southern Miss drops to 0-14 with an 0-2 league rating. WKU's 11 sweeps this season are an NCAA best.

In the opening frame, Southern Miss was the first to double digits by the slimmest of margins before the Lady Toppers scored five of the next six points for a 14-11 advantage. The Golden Eagles fought back and knotted the set at 16-16 before pushing ahead to a 22-21 lead late in the frame. Following a WKU timeout, Sophia Cerino found the floor for a kill before Matthews tallied two and Jackson closed the set with a kill of her own as the Tops scored four of the final five points. In the 25-23 win, WKU worked at a match-low .289 offensive rate as Matthews tallied seven of the squad's 17 kills in the set.

Southern Miss held tough in set two, again hitting double digits first to force an early WKU timeout. From there, the Red and White tallied six of the next seven points to take a lead they would not relinquish en route to a 25-18 decision. With things starting to click for the Lady Toppers, WKU worked at a .375 hitting clip while registering four of its seven blocks on the day in the second set.

WKU turned in its best set in the final frame of the day after opening up at 15-9 lead and never looking back. The Lady Toppers claimed the match with a 25-17 third-set win while hitting a collective .448. Sixteen of the squad's 29 attacks found the floor for a kill while Southern Miss was held to just nine kills in the set.

Collectively, WKU's offense registered a .358 hitting percentage while the squad held Southern Miss to a .194 clip.

Nadia Dieudonne posted 37 assists and eight digs to go along with three kills, two block assists and a .429 attack rate while facilitating the Lady Topper offense from start to finish.

Logan Kael was the lone WKU defender to record double digit digs, posting 10. Four more Lady Toppers including Dieudonne, Paige Briggs, Emma Kowalkowski and Hallie Shelton each added eight digs as WKU out-dug USM 49-43.

Kael and Shelton each registered a pair of aces as well while Ashley Hood chipped in one.

Katie Isenbarger and Matthews led WKU's block with three apiece.

In total, the match saw 20 ties and 10 lead changes before the Lady Toppers came out victorious in the three-set decision.

NEXT TIME OUT:
WKU continues its homestand next weekend as Middle Tennessee visits for a Friday night showdown before Marshall comes to town on Sunday.

DIEUDONNE COLLECTS THIRD C-USA SETTER OF THE WEEK NOD

DALLAS – For the second-consecutive week and third time this season, WKU Volleyball setter Nadia Dieudonne has been named the Conference USA Setter of the Week, the league office announced Monday afternoon. The junior transfer averaged 11.67 assists per set across the Lady Toppers' 2-0 week as the squad extended its win streak to 11-straight.

Dieudonne facilitated the Red and White's offense to a collective .378 hitting percentage across a pair of sweeps during the fifth week of the season. With two more sweeps, WKU is up to an NCAA-best 11 three-set wins on the season.

On Tuesday evening, the Tops concluded their non-conference slate with a 3-0 win over Austin Peay as Dieudonne led the Lady Toppers to a .400 hitting percentage – the first time the team hit .400 or above this season. The Louisville, Ky., native notched 33 assists as 49.3-percent of her sets found the floor for kills by her teammates.

Dieudonne would add 37 assists in WKU's C-USA-opening sweep of Southern Miss on Sunday as 45.1-percent of her sets went down for kills with the Tops recording a .358 hitting clip. Dieudonne would go on to add 11 digs and three kills along with a pair of blocks. Her two blocks against the Golden Eagles marked her sixth multi-block outing of the season. She would also go errorless from the service line, resulting in numerous scoring runs for the Tops.

Earning her third weekly award of the 2019 campaign with the Setter of the Week nod, Dieudonne now owns three of the five awards in the category this season. Through five weeks of weekly awards, WKU Volleyball has collected eight accolades with four different players earning recognition.

Head coach Travis Hudson and company are in action on The Hill again this weekend with a pair of C-USA foes coming to town. Friday night, Middle Tennessee will visit for the first contest in a home-and-home series. First serve against the Blue Raiders (6-9) is slated for 6 p.m. CT. On Sunday, Marshall (11-4) will come to town for a noon CT matchup.

[RV] WKU VOLLEYBALL TO HOST MIDDLE TENNESSEE & MARSHALL

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Entering the weekend with a 15-1 record, WKU Volleyball will look to add to its 11-match win streak as the squad hosts two more conference opponents in Middle Tennessee and Marshall this weekend. The Lady Toppers are now 9-0 in Diddle Arena and lead the nation with 11 sweeps. WKU continues to receive votes in the AVCA Coaches Poll, jumping three spots to No. 28, while also holding the second-best winning percentage in the country, behind No.1 Baylor, the lone unbeaten team.

WKU's 15-1 record is the fourth-best start in program history, behind an 18-1 opening in 2005, a 17-1 start in 2011, and a 16-1 reading in 2004. The Tops look to continue to add to this historic record with two more conference matches this weekend.

First serve for Friday night's rivalry match against MTSU goes up at 6 p.m. CT and will be live-streamed on Facebook via HSSN.

The Blue Raiders sit at 6-9 on the season and 0-2 in C-USA play. The Tops outlasted the Blue Raiders both times during the 2018 campaign winning 3-0, and 3-1, respectively. WKU leads the all-time series with a record of 47-16. The Tops are running on a 12-match win streak over Middle Tennessee and look to continue that on Friday.

An 11-4 Marshall team comes to The Hill on Sunday to face-off against the Lady Tops at noon CT. The Thundering Herd sits at 2-0 in C-USA standings with wins against Southern Miss. and FIU. WKU holds a 12-2 record when going head-to-head against Marshall and looks to continue its win streak of eight matches. Last season, the Red and White took home a road win against Marshall, 3-1.

WKU has claimed eight Conference USA Player of the Week awards over the five weeks of distribution. Junior transfer setter, Nadia Dieudonne has collected three, freshman outside hitter, Paige Briggs owns three, sophomore middle hitter, Lauren Matthews was awarded one, and senior right-side hitter, Sophia Cerino has also earned one.

As WKU concludes its long home stretch, the squad will be on the road for seven of the next nine matches.

WIN STREAK GROWS TO 12 AS [RV] WKU DOWNS MTSU, 3-1

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Lauren Matthews and Paige Briggs combined for 33 kills and a .556 hitting percentage to lead WKU Volleyball past Middle Tennessee in four sets Friday night from Diddle Arena. With the win, the Lady Toppers' win streak extended to 12-straight matches as the squad improved to 10-0 when playing on The Hill this season.

"We've been pretty erratic lately; up and down with some pretty good stretches and really poor stretches," head coach Travis Hudson shared. "We've been struggling out of the gate in that first set for the last few matches and we played much better then tonight but then let our foot off the gas in set two. I just hope this team is learning every time we take the court."

WKU's 16-1 start ties the 2019 squad with the third best start in program history. The Red and White are now 2-0 in Conference USA matchups as well.

MTSU fell to 6-10 on the season and 0-2 in league play with the loss.

First-set action from The Hill saw just one tie and one lead change as WKU took a 2-1 lead after MTSU struck first and the Tops never looked back. Middle Tennessee called for timeouts trailing 7-2 and 13-7 but WKU would cruise to a 25-15 win as Matthews found the floor on five of her six swings and WKU hit .435 as a team while holding the Blue Raiders to just eight kills in the frame.

Middle Tennessee would respond in the second set, leading wire to wire en route to a 25-19 victory. WKU was held to a .130 hitting clip while Matthews added four more kills in the set.

Out of the break, the sides battled back and forth before the Red and White went on a 5-1 run to open up a 17-13 advantage. The Blue Raiders would not pull back within three the rest of the set as WKU closed the frame out on a 6-1 run for the 25-17 victory and a 2-1 lead in the match.

In the fourth and final set of the night, there were zero ties and zero lead changes after Avri Davis and Matthews teamed up for their second of three block assists together to give the Tops a lead they would not relinquish. Matthews would follow with a kill before Sophia Cerino added her fourth ace of the night and a Nadia Dieudonne kill would make it 4-0 in favor of WKU. The Lady Toppers pushed all the way out to an 11-1 advantage before MTSU managed to score another point. WKU would go on to open up a 20-9 cushion before the Blue Raiders broke into double digits. WKU closed the match with a 5-1 push to secure the program's 13th-consecutive win over Middle Tennessee.

As a team, WKU hit .297 while holding Middle Tennessee to a .143 clip. The Lady Toppers rattled off 50 kills while limiting MTSU to just 36, including two in the final frame. Defensively, the Tops racked up 48 digs, led by Emma Kowalkowski's 10 – marking the first time the senior led the team in the category this season.

WKU registered nine blocks on the night with seven block assists coming from Matthews. Cerino would record the lone solo stuff in the match along with one block assist while Davis and Briggs would add three each.

The Lady Toppers were lethal from the service line with five different players registering an ace on the night as the squad recorded nine. Cerino bettered MTSU's mark of three on the night with four herself to bring her season total to 50 just 17 matches in. The senior currently sits in eighth on the career aces list with 147 and ninth on the single-season charts.

Matthews notched 21 kills on 30 swings for a .633 hitting percentage to mark the fifth time this season she hit .600 or better. The sophomore added a match-best seven blocks along with a trio of digs.

Briggs joined Matthews in double digits with 12 kills on 24 attacks for a .458 clip while adding six digs and three blocks.

Dieudonne racked up 38 assists, five digs, two kills and a block assist. Cerino would add a career-high four assists along with nine kills, six digs and pair of blocks.

NEXT TIME OUT:
WKU closes out its month-long homestand on Sunday as a hot Marshall team visits The Hill. Both teams enter the noon match with an unblemished reading in Conference USA play and 12-4 overall record.

[RV] WKU SWEEPS MARSHALL FOR 13TH-CONSECUTIVE WIN

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball continued its tear on Sunday, sweeping the visiting Thundering Herd to extend the Tops' win streak to 13th-consecutive matches on the season. The victory also marked WKU's NCAA-best 12th sweep of the season.

"We really talked about just kind of returning to who we are, playing with energy, and having fun playing the game, doing all those kinds of things," head coach Travis Hudson shared following the win. "It really showed today. We played with great energy throughout the match, but we also executed at a really high level. We have won a lot of matches this year being carried by two or three separate phases of the game, and today we were truly clicking on all cylinders. We played really well in every phase of the game, and it showed in the result."

WKU's 17-1 record matches the second-best start in program history, which came during the 2011 campaign. The only season with more wins before the squad's second loss was 2005, when WKU opened the year 18-1.

"They've been that special to coach to me all year, just because they're so much fun," Hudson said of how special of a team the 2019 squad has turned out to be. "They just keep learning and growing and getting better. The record is a bi-product, it didn't really dawn on me until you said it, but we're a hard team to beat. We're vulnerable in some areas, but we do a lot of things well, and so when we're at the top of our game, it is going to take a really good team to beat us. We have some of those coming up on our schedule, and we know the challenge is going to be great, but it sure is enjoyable everyday with them."

The Lady Toppers are now 3-0 in Conference USA play and ended the Thundering Herd's five-match win streak. Marshall fell to 12-5 on the season and 3-1 in league play with the loss.

First-set action from The Hill saw zero ties or lead changes as WKU took a 7-0 lead and never looked back. Marshall called for a timeout trailing 7-0 but WKU would cruise to a 25-13 win as Lauren Matthews found the floor on six of her eight swings and WKU hit .286 as a team while holding the Thundering Herd to just four kills and a -.143 hitting clip in the frame.

Set two would be more of the same, but saw two ties and two lead changes all occurring within the first seven points of the frame. Marshall cut the lead to 14-10, but that was as close as it would get as WKU responded with a 7-1 run to push the score out to 21-11. The Lady Tops would take the set 25-14 for a 2-0 set lead. Matthews added five kills on eight attempts and WKU hit a blistering .619 as a team.

Out of the break, the sides battled back and forth before the Red and White went on a 10-2 run to open up a 13-5 advantage. The Thundering Herd would not pull back within five the rest of the set as WKU closed the frame out to win the match 25-18 and secure another 3-0 sweep.

As a team, WKU hit .378 while holding Marshall to a .057 clip. This marks the second time during the 2019 campaign that the Red and White has held an opponent to a hitting percentage below .100. The first victim was Tennessee Tech on Sept. 7.

Matthews racked up 17 kills on 28 errorless swings from the middle for a .607 hitting percentage. The sophomore has now operated above a .600 offensive efficiency in all three C-USA matchups and in six matches on the season. Briggs joined her in double digits with 10 on a .364 clip to go along with her 10 digs to mark her ninth double-double outing of the season.

The Lady Toppers rattled off 47 kills while limiting Marshall to just 23, including a mere four in the first frame. Defensively, the Tops racked up 45 digs, led by Briggs' 10. Logan Kael and Hallie Shelton each added nine while Emma Kowalkowski recorded seven digs.

WKU out-blocked the Thundering Herd – C-USA's top blocking squad entering the match – by a 6-4 margin. Katie Isenbarger led everyone with four blocks to bring her career total to 101 total stuffs. Nadia Dieudonne added a trio of blocks while Matthews posted two more.

From the service line, WKU saw five different players register an ace as the squad tallied seven. Briggs and Ashley Hood recorded two each, while the Tops' defensive effort allowed Marshall just one on the day.

PAIGE BRIGGS' KICK KILL: VIDEO
"Twenty-five years in and I have never seen that before," added Hudson. "Paige kicked the first contact, so she had a kick dig, and then Logan Kael, it hit off her thigh, so she had a thigh assist, and then it was still low to the ground, and just reactionarily, Paige kicks it over the net for the kill, and so it really kind of signified it was our day. A lot of things went well for us today, and that certainly was a fun play."

NEXT TIME OUT:
After a month of playing in Diddle Arena while racking up a perfect 11-0 record at home, WKU Volleyball will hit the road for its next three matches. Next weekend, WKU will visit the Sunshine State, opening the trip at Florida Atlantic Friday before heading down the road to FIU for a Sunday tilt.

MATTHEWS EARNS SECOND C-USA OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK NOD

DALLAS – For the second time this season, sophomore middle hitter, Lauren Matthews took home the Conference USA Offensive Player of the Week award. Matthews' out-of-this-world play during week six helped WKU Volleyball extend its win streak to 13-straight matches as the Tops downed Middle Tennessee and Marshall.

The Indianapolis native racked up 38 kills on a scorching .621 hitting percentage as WKU pushed its C-USA record to a perfect 3-0 mark. As if 5.43 kills per set wasn't enough, she also added 1.29 blocks per set for 6.14 points per set, helping the Lady Toppers improve to 17-1 on the season.

Embracing the 100 Miles of Hate rivalry on Friday night, Matthews' registered 21 kills on 30 swings for a .633 hitting clip to go along with seven block assists. She then followed that up with a 17-kill performance on 28 errorless swings for a .607 hitting percentage in Sunday's sweep of Marshall. With back-to-back .600+ hitting percentage outings over the weekend, Matthews now owns six .600+ showings on the 2019 campaign.

WKU Volleyball has now seen a Lady Topper earn recognition from Conference USA all six weeks of distribution in 2019 and is the only team to do so. The Red and White's versatility is clear as WKU is also the only team to earn each of the four awards. The Tops now own nine weekly awards through the six weeks of laurels.

WKU will play seven of its next nine matches on the road, returning to Diddle Arena on Sunday, Oct. 20 against UTSA. Until then, the Lady Toppers will go on the road to Florida Atlantic and FIU this upcoming weekend.

[RV] WKU HEADS TO FLORIDA FOR ROAD MATCHUPS AT FAU, FIU

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – After being home for 11 of its last 12 matches, WKU Volleyball will head to Florida for a road series against Florida Atlantic and FIU. Last weekend, the Red and White extended two streaks: 13 consecutive wins, as well as an 11-0 home record this season. WKU also still leads the NCAA with the most wins, sitting at a 17-1 record, and 12 sweeps as the third weekend of Conference USA action begins.

FOLLOWING INFORMATION
Friday, Oct. 11 – 6 p.m. CT | at Florida Atlantic| Livestats | CUSA.tv
Sunday, Oct. 13 – Noon CT | at FIU | Livestats

WKU's 17-1 record matches the second-best start in program history, behind only an 18-1 opening in 2005. The team's 17-1 start matched the 2011 team's mark.

Florida Atlantic sits at 8-6 on the season, taking on some formidable opponents, including a five-set win over TCU. The Owls are 2-1 in C-USA and look to build upon their home win streak of 21, the second-longest in the NCAA. The Tops lead 23-0 when going head-to-head with FAU in the all-time series. Last season, the Lady Toppers claimed a 3-1 decision over the Owls in Bowling Green. First serve on Friday goes up at 6 p.m. CT from Boca Raton.

FIU enters the weekend at 8-6 overall as well, while owning a 1-2 record in C-USA play. The Panthers' two losses in league play came to Florida Atlantic and Marshall, each in four sets. FIU also owns a notable streak, sitting at 10th in the NCAA with 13-consecutive wins on its home floor. The Lady Tops lead the all-time series 35-8 and claimed a thrilling five-set victory over the Panthers in Diddle Arena during the 2018 season. Sunday's first serve is slated for noon CT in Miami.

For four-straight weeks, WKU has received votes in the AVCA Coaches Poll. The squad now sits at No. 26, only one spot away from breaking into the top 25 for the first time since the 2017 campaign.

The Tops have collected a total of nine C-USA Player of the Week awards, standing as the sole team to win an award every week, as well as the only team to win at least one of each award. Four different student-athletes have accounted for the nine accolades while Lauren Matthews earning recognition as Offensive Player of the Week most recently.

In the first RPI of the 2019 campaign, WKU came in at No. 30 and already owns nine wins over teams in the top 100. Florida Atlantic posted an initial RPI of 80 while FIU came in at No. 179.

Looking ahead, WKU will play its third-straight match on the road Friday, Oct. 18 as the squad heads south to Middle Tennessee for the sides' second meeting of the season. The Lady Toppers will return to The Hill on Sunday to host UTSA, another top-100 RPI team.

WKU VOLLEYBALL MATCHES PROGRAM'S BEST START WITH 18-1 RECORD

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – After dropping the opening set for just the fourth time this season, [RV] WKU Volleyball responded with victories in three-straight frames to claim a 3-1 win and snap Florida Atlantic's 21-match home win streak. With the win, not only did the Lady Toppers end the nation's second-longest home win streak, but they also match the best start in program history with an 18-1 record.

"I am really proud of our kids," head coach Travis Hudson opened. "There is a reason why Florida Atlantic had a home win streak of over 20 matches. They are a very talented, well-coached team."

With the four-set victory, WKU extended its win streak to 14-straight matches while adding its NCAA-best 18th win. The Tops are now 4-0 in Conference USA action. Florida Atlantic dropped to 8-7 overall and 2-2 in league play with the loss.

The 2005 WKU squad was the only other team in program history to open a season with an 18-1 record. That Hudson-coached unit would finish with a 31-3 record including a perfect 12-0 Sun Belt mark before making the program's second-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

After trailing by four points on numerous occasions to open play for FAU Arena, WKU Volleyball took its first lead of the match at 16-15. Florida Atlantic bounced right back and would work ahead to a 24-21 lead before WKU fended off a pair of set points before the Owls ultimately took a 1-0 lead in the match. Paige Briggs tallied five of WKU's 15 kills in the frame as the Tops worked at a .282 offensive clip.

WKU has lost the opening set in just four matches this season but has gone on to win all but one of those contests after tonight's result.

Down in a match after the first set for just the fourth time this season, WKU trailed early again in the second frame. The Lady Toppers faced an 8-4 deficit before turning the tables and going on a 6-0 run for a 10-8 lead. The Red and White would push ahead to an 18-11 advantage and never looked back, claiming the second set 25-17 to even the match at 1-1.

Out of the break, WKU jumped out to an early lead as a Nadia Dieudonne ace gave the Tops a 7-3 lead and forced an Owl timeout. WKU would push into double digits first with a 10-6 margin before racing out to a 15-9 lead to force the hosts to use their second stoppage. Florida Atlantic would battle all the way back to knot the frame at 23-23. From there, Briggs delivered her 11th kill of the night before Lauren Matthews and Kayland Jackson teamed up for a block to shut the door on the 25-23 victory.

Up 2-1 in the match, the Red and White kept their foot on the gas in the final set and ran ahead to an 11-4 lead. Florida Atlantic wouldn't go away and pulled back within two at 16-14. The Tops would extend their lead as the frame came to a close and ultimately took set four 25-19.

The WKU offense delivered a balanced attack, working at a .315 combined clip. Briggs posted a match-high 17 kills on .282 hitting along with 12 digs for her 10th double double of the season. Matthews was right behind her with 15 kills on .333 hitting to accompany her five blocks.

Kayland Jackson added nine kills with a .333 attack rate along with three blocks.

“I thought KJ really stepped up and made some big plays for us tonight,” Hudson added.

Sophia Cerino added seven kills while working at an errorless .538 hitting clip and Katie Isenbarger chipped in six more kills.

Dieudonne facilitated the Hilltopper offense and notched 46 assists along with four digs, four kills, a block and an ace on the night.

Logan Kael joined Briggs with double-digit digs, tallying 11 for her 13th double-digit dig showing of the season. Emma Kowalkowski added eight digs as the Red and White out-dug FAU 51-44.

Florida Atlantic (RPI 80) marks WKU Volleyball’s 10th top-100 RPI win of the season and is WKU’s second-straight win of such after sweeping Marshall, who ranked 76th.

NEXT TIME OUT:
WKU will continue its road trip on Sunday with a noon CT match at FIU. The Panthers entered the weekend owning the 10th-best home winning streak in the nation at 13. The match will not be available to stream due to a scheduling overlap.

[RV] TOPS WIN 15TH STRAIGHT, SECURE BEST START IN PROGRAM HISTORY

MIAMI – WKU Volleyball won its 15th-straight match Sunday at FIU while not only snapping another home-win streak but also securing the best start in program history at 19-1 with the sweep. The Lady Toppers claimed their 13th sweep of the season, another NCAA best, taking down the Panthers 25-12, 25-18 and 26-24 from FIU Arena.

"This was a tough road trip for sure," head coach Travis Hudson opened. "We faced two quality teams and logged a lot of miles traveled. I thought we came with great energy today and were able to set the tone early in the match. I'm proud of our effort."

With their NCAA-best 19th win of the season, the Lady Toppers also maintain the second-best win percentage in the nation behind only undefeated No. 1 Baylor. WKU has also pushed its Conference USA record to a perfect 5-0 mark. Entering the match, FIU owned a share of the sixth-longest home win streak in the country at 14 matches before the Red and White secured another sweep. The Panthers are now 9-7 on the season and 2-3 in C-USA action.

WKU's 15-match win streak matches the sixth-longest streak in program history.

WKU cruised to its 25-12 first-set win, jumping out to a 9-3 lead and never looking back. The Tops pushed ahead to a 16-7 advantage before closing the frame on a 9-5 run. WKU operated at a .364 hitting clip while holding FIU to a -.125 rate. Kayland Jackson found the floor for kills on all five of her swings in the set.

FIU owned a slim early lead on the Tops but Sophia Cerino would strike for her first of two aces on the day to halt a Panther run. WKU would ultimately push ahead to a 17-10 lead before claiming the frame 25-18.

Cerino's multi-ace match brings her season total to 53, a mark that continues to lead NCAA Volleyball. With 53 aces, Cerino ranks eighth on the Lady Toppers' single-season list. Her 150 career aces move Cerino into fifth on WKU's all-time list.

Through two sets, WKU's defense held the Panthers to a .000 hitting percentage allowing just 14 kills while FIU committed 14 errors.

Out of the break, WKU was the first to double digits with a 10-7 lead but FIU would go on a four-point run to turn the tables. The Panthers would lead most of the remainder of the set, pushing ahead to a 19-17 lead. At that point, Lauren Matthews rotated back in for WKU and after a Lady Topper error, fired off back-to-back kills to bring the Tops back within one. FIU tallied the next two points to push its lead back to three before Matthews took over. The sophomore rattled off two more kills before teaming up with Nadia Dieudonne for a block assist to tie the frame at 22-22. After an FIU timeout and kill, Matthews and Dieudonne teamed up for another block. The sides would trade points before an FIU error and block assist from Cerino and Katie Isenbarger secured the 26-24 set-three victory.

Matthews led WKU with a match-high 14 kills – seven of which came in the third frame – while hitting at a .419 clip on the day. The Indianapolis native also racked up four blocks with two in the final set.

Paige Briggs joined Matthews in double digits with 10 kills to go along with seven digs, an ace and a block assist while working at a .250 clip.

Jackson and Cerino would both finish with seven kills each while Isenbarger added four along with four blocks. The Tops would finish with nine blocks on the day.

As a team, WKU worked at a .283 offensive clip while holding FIU to a mere .063 rate. The Panthers are the third team the Lady Toppers have held below a .100 hitting percentage this season. Dieudonne tallied 38 assists along with five digs and two blocks in the win.

Logan Kael led WKU with nine digs while Hallie Shelton posted eight.

NEXT TIME OUT:
WKU will close its three-match road trip at Middle Tennessee on Friday, Oct. 18 before returning home for its final home match of October on Sunday as UTSA comes to town.

KAEL AND MATTHEWS EARN C-USA RECOGNITION

DALLAS – Two Lady Toppers collected Conference USA Player of the Week honors for their contributions in WKU Volleyball's two-win weekend in the Sunshine State. Lauren Matthews earned Co-Offensive Player of the Week recognition while Logan Kael was tabbed the league's Defensive Player of the Week.

Matthews was recognized after dominating the road trip with a pair of 14+ kill matches. She helped the Lady Topper squad end the second-longest home win streak in the country while at Florida Atlantic, as WKU became the first team in 22 matches to leave the arena with a victory. In addition to her 15 kills on .333 hitting in the four-set win in Boca Raton, Matthews registered five blocks, including two solo stuffs, as the Lady Toppers handled the team they were picked to finish behind in the Preseason Coaches Poll back in August.

After a slow start in Miami, the sophomore turned it on when the Tops needed her most. With WKU trailing 19-16 in set three as FIU looked to avoid a sweep, Matthews rotated back into the match and delivered five kills and two blocks -during that rotation - to secure WKU's NCAA-best 13th sweep of the season. The Indianapolis native racked 29 total kills on .377 hitting clip while tallying nine blocks for a 4.14 kills per set, 1.29 blocks per set, and an overall 4.93 points per set mark.

Junior libero Kael, brought home her first individual award of the 2019 season as she was named C-USA Defensive Player of the Week. The Knoxville, Tenn. native was nearly flawless as she anchored the Lady Topper defense to help secure WKU Volleyball's best start in program history at 19-1. In addition to her 20 digs, Kael was perfect in serve-receive across 29 receptions and delivered a 96.8-percent rating from the service line for the Tops. Thanks to Kael's efforts on defense, WKU held its third opponent of the season to a sub .100 hitting percentage on the match, as FIU was stifled to a mere .063 hitting clip in the Tops. With Kael in the back row, WKU put an end to FAU's home win streak that stood at second-longest in the NCAA, as well as terminating FIU's sixth-longest home win streak in the country.

With this week's awards from Matthews and Kael, WKU has now collected 11 awards through the first seven weeks of distribution. The Lady Toppers are the only team in the league that has earned an award each week and is also the lone squad to have players recognized for each of the four awards.

Stellar performances from both Matthews and Kael helped lead the Lady Toppers to an NCAA-best 19th win with the pair of week seven wins. With 15-straight victories, WKU has also matched the sixth-longest win streak in program history. Standing at 19-1, the Red & White also now own the best start in WKU Volleyball history.

The squad will travel to Middle Tennessee on Friday for the second installment of the rivalry with first serve slated for 6 p.m. CT. On Sunday, the Tops resume play in Diddle Arena against the Roadrunners of UTSA for one of just four home matches remaining.

NO. 24 WKU SECURES 20TH-STRAIGHT 20-WIN SEASON WITH SWEEP AT MTSU

MURFREESBORO, TENN. – WKU Volleyball locked down its 20th-straight 20-win season with Friday night's sweep at Middle Tennessee. The Lady Toppers are the first team in the NCAA to achieve 20 wins in 2019 while also leading the country in sweeps with 14.

"Not our cleanest but we did a lot of good things. It's hard to come into your rival's place on a Friday night and play well but I thought we settled as the match went along…You can't complain when you come on the road and win in three so we'll take it."

WKU's win in Murfreesboro pushed the Tops to 20-1 overall on the season and 6-0 in Conference USA play. The Red and White have now won 16-straight matches, another mark that leads the nation. Middle Tennessee dropped to 7-13 on the season and 1-5 in C-USA.

After back-and-forth play to open the match, WKU would reel off a string including 13-of-14 points to push ahead to a double-digit advantage. WKU closed the frame with three aces, 11 kills and a .333 hitting percentage after securing the opening frame by a 25-15 decision.

Set two saw the sides even at 9-9 before WKU broke into double digits first and take an 11-9 lead. From there, Middle Tennessee worked ahead to a 15-14 lead, forcing a Lady Topper timeout. Out of the break, WKU reciprocated a four-point run to take an 18-15 lead and closed of the frame for a 25-19 second-set win. Through two sets, Lauren Matthews led the match with seven kills while Kayland Jackson posted five.

Out of the break, the Red and White jumped out to a 10-6 lead and would push that to a 14-9 margin by the time MTSU had called both of its timeouts. Avri Davis and Lauren Matthews would team up for a jaw-dropping block at the net to give WKU a 19-10 lead before the team would close the match with the 25-14 set three victory.

WKU has now won 14-consecutive matches over the Blue Raiders and now leads the all-time series 49-16.

WKU Volleyball continues to build upon the best start in program history with its 20-1 record. With 20 wins, the Lady Topper program also becomes just the fifth team in the NCAA with an active 20-win season streak at 20 seasons or better. Joining WKU on that list are Nebraska (44), Penn State (42), Florida (28) and Colorado State (24).

"Twenty wins, 20-straight years; I have trouble getting my mind around it," Hudson shared. "I only coached five years before then and two of those were a 7-26 year and 9-22 year so we've come an awful long way. It's great that it's alumni weekend on The Hill this weekend because this program has always been about all the players that and have worn the jersey and to accomplish something like that that's been over a 20-year span is pretty special."

NEXT TIME OUT:
WKU returns home to The Hill for its next match as UTSA visits Bowling Green on Sunday. First serve from Diddle Arena is scheduled for noon CT and a WKU Football ticket from Saturday's homecoming game against Charlotte will earn fans free admission to Sunday's match.

NO. 24 TOPS SWEEP UTSA ON WKU VOLLEYBALL ALUMNI DAY

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball continued its tear through the 2019 season with its NCAA-best 16th sweep of the year as the Lady Toppers downed UTSA in straight sets to improve to 21-1 on the season and remain perfect in Conference USA action. Lauren Matthews and Paige Briggs peppered the Roadrunners' side of the court, combining for 23 kills and a .417 hitting clip. UTSA became the fourth team of the season that the WKU defense would hold to a sub-.100 hitting percent.

"I'm really, really pleased with how we performed today," head coach Travis Hudson opened. "We had a lot of respect for UTSA, coming in, they were in the top-65 of the RPI this week. We know they can play, they have a history and tradition of winning volleyball. We knew we were going to have to be ready to play today and certainly I think our kids were."

WKU improved to 21-1 to add upon the best start in Lady Topper Volleyball history with its 17th-straight win. The Tops are now 7-0 at the halfway point in league play.

The day opened with WKU striking first and then working all the way out to a 15-4 advantage. After both UTSA timeouts, the Lady Toppers to push their advantage out to a 20-7 margin before the Roadrunners would eventually break into double digits. The Red and White worked at a .379 offensive clip while limiting UTSA to a .030 mark in the 25-10 first set win. Matthews had five kills on five swings in the frame while Briggs added four more strikes.

Set two was much of the same as the Red and White broke out to a 12-3 advantage with UTSA using both of its stoppages by that point as well. The Tops would again own a 20-7 advantage before taking a 2-0 lead in the match with a 25-13 victory. WKU racked up five of its 10 blocks in the second frame led by Matthews' three.

In the final set of the day, UTSA came back firing and would be the first to double digits with a 12-10 lead, forcing the Tops to use a timeout. Out of the break, WKU scored four of the next five points to force a UTSA stoppage. From there, WKU would be the first to 20 by the slimmest of margins. UTSA pulled within two at 23-21 but Briggs would find the floor for her 10th kill of the match before the sides traded points for the final 25-22 margin.

Matthews led WKU in kills with 13 while working at a .522 rate and adding three blocks. Briggs notched another double-digit kill effort as well with 10 to go along with a .320 hitting percentage, five blocks, five digs, an ace and an assist.

Kayland Jackson operated at a .467 hitting clip and struck for eight kills.

The WKU defense held strong against the Roadrunners and tallied 43 digs while holding the second-place UTSA squad to a .083 hitting percentage on the match. Logan Kael notched nine digs while Emma Kowalkowski added eight. Every Lady Topper that saw the court tallied at least one dig.

Hallie Shelton led WKU in aces with a season-best four on the day as the Tops finished with seven in total.

Nadia Dieudonne facilitated the Red and White's offense to a .323 mark while registering 31 assists along with five digs.

HUDSON ON ALUMNI DAY:

"It meant a lot to me and I've talked to our team a lot about having pride in that jersey today and every day. There are a lot of people sitting in the stands that wore those same letters across their chest. WKU is a unique place in women's volleyball; so many alumni go back to their school and there's a stranger coaching their team. Here, all of these people come back and I know them and their families. They are like family to me. This is a day that always means a little bit more to me as a coach because I want our alumni to walk back out of here feeling very prideful in what the program looks like and is now, and certainly this is a year they can be proud of."

KOWALKOWSKI ON THE TEAM'S DEFENSE:
"We just fly around; whether it's floor defense or blocking. You have to have an aggressive mentality on defense, whether you're a blocker just going to grab a ball in the air or a defender going to lay out for the ball. Our serving, another phase of defense, has been rock solid back there as well."

NEXT TIME OUT:
The Lady Toppers will hit the road again, taking a trip to UAB and Charlotte next weekend. Friday's first serve from Birmingham, Ala. Is slated for 7 p.m. CT while the Tops will take the court in Charlotte, N.C. at noon.

BRIGGS AND DIEUDONNE RECOGNIZED WITH C-USA ACCOLADES FOR FOURTH TIME

DALLAS – WKU Volleyball's Nadia Dieudonne and Paige Briggs have each been recognized for the fourth time this season as the Conference USA Setter of the Week and Freshman of the Week, respectively, the league office announced Monday. The duo's week eight contributions helped the No. 24-ranked Lady Toppers to their 17th-straight win while pushing the best start in program history out to 21-1.

Dieudonne did a bit of everything for WKU across the weekend as the Tops climbed to 7-0 in Conference USA action with a pair of sweeps over Middle Tennessee and UTSA. Friday night, the junior transfer delivered a 25-assist, nine-dig, four-kill effort while facilitating the WKU offense to a season-best .442 hitting clip down in Murfreesboro, Tenn. Two days later, Dieudonne recorded 31 assists, five digs, a block, a kill and an ace as WKU swept then third-place UTSA from Diddle Arena. The Louisville, Ky., native led the WKU offense to another scorcher on Sunday as the Tops recorded a .323 hitting percentage. Nearly 44 percent of her sets in the match would end up being WKU kills after 49 percent went down Friday. Dieudonne finished the week with a 9.33 assists per set rate, 2.33 digs per set mark and 1.25 points per set reading, showing her versatility for the Red and White.

Briggs continued her rookie season tear through week eight for the Lady Toppers. She delivered a nine-kill, six-dig, two -ace, two-assist outing at MTSU Friday night, doing a bit of everything for the Tops. She turned around and put on a double-digit kill showing in WKU's second sweep of the weekend and NCAA-best 15th on the year. Briggs would finish with 10 kills on 25 swings for a .320 clip while adding five digs and a career-high five blocks including a pair of solo stuffs. The freshman finished with 3.17 kills per set, 1.83 digs per set, 0.83 blocks per set and 4.25 points per set as WKU continues to dominate. The Ortonville, Mich., native finished with a .304 hitting clip across WKU's pair of big wins while finding the floor for 19 kills along the way.

With this week's awards from Dieudonne and Briggs, WKU has now collected 13 awards through the first eight weeks of distribution. The Lady Toppers are the only team in the league that has earned an award each week and is also the lone squad to have players recognized for each of the four awards.

Stellar performances from both Dieudonne and Briggs helped lead the Lady Toppers to an NCAA-best 21st win with the pair of week eight victories. With 17-straight victories, WKU has also matched the fifth-longest win streak in program history.

The squad will hit the road this coming weekend with visits to UAB and Charlotte on Friday and Sunday, respectively.

WEEKEND TRIP TO UAB, CHARLOTTE ON DECK FOR NO. 23 WKU VOLLEYBALL

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball will take the nation's longest winning streak of 17-consecutive matches on the road this weekend with a pair of Conference USA matchups on the schedule this weekend. Sitting at a perfect 7-0 midway through its league slate, No. 23-ranked WKU will visit UAB and Charlotte while looking to improve upon its 21-1 record.

FOLLOWING INFORMATION
Sunday, Oct. 27 – Noon CT | at Charlotte | CUSA.tv | Livestats

WKU's 21-1 record marks the best start in program history. Twenty-one wins is the most across the NCAA to date as the squad locked up the 20th-straight 20-win season under head coach Travis Hudson. The Lady Toppers are one of five programs with an active streak of such, joined by Nebraska (44), Penn State (42), Florida (28) and Colorado State (24).

Friday evening's 7 p.m. CT match in Birmingham, Ala., will be the first of two meetings between WKU and UAB this season. The Blazers enter the weekend with an 11-8 overall record including a 3-3 mark in C-USA play. Both sides have also faced Samford in non-conference play, a match WKU swept while UAB fell in four sets. In league action, the Blazers swept FIU, topped Middle Tennessee in four sets and fell to UTSA in straight sets. UAB leads the all-time series 23-10 but WKU has claimed nine of the last 10 decisions after split results against the Blazers last season.

Following Friday's match in Alabama, WKU will begin its trek up to Charlotte to take on the 49ers. Charlotte owns a 13-11 reading on the season with a 2-5 record in conference play. Common opponents in non-conference play between WKU and UNCC include Eastern Kentucky and Bowling Green – a pair of squads the Tops swept – while the 49ers split results against the two. In league play, Charlotte swept Southern Miss, downed MTSU in four sets, and fell to North Texas, Florida Atlantic, FIU, Marshall and UTSA. WKU leads the all-time series 13-3 and has claimed the last 10 decisions.

The Tops have collected a total of 13 C-USA Player of the Week awards, standing as the sole team to win an award every week, as well as the only team to win at least one of each award. Five different student-athletes have accounted for the 13 accolades with Nadia Dieudonne earning recognition as Co-Setter of the Week and Paige Briggs being selected as the Freshman of the Week most recently.

In the third RPI of the 2019 campaign, WKU moved to No. 31 and already owns 10 wins over teams in the top 100.

WKU will return home next weekend for one of its three remaining home matches. UTEP will come to town on Nov. 1 for a 6 p.m. CT tilt on The Hill. WKU will enter the match with the seventh-longest home win streak in the NCAA at 14 matches including a perfect 12-0 mark inside Diddle Arena this season.

SEASON-BEST HITTING PERCENTAGE LEADS NO. 23 WKU TO SWEEP AT UAB

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – No. 23 WKU Volleyball took the show on the road and swept UAB in Birmingham Friday night to open the second half of the Tops' Conference USA slate. The Lady Toppers continue to add on to the best start in program history and are out to a 22-1 record on the season after the squad posted a season-best .458 hitting percentage in Birmingham. WKU also held its fourth-straight opponent to a sub-.100 hitting clip as the Blazers posted a .043 mark.

"We were very good tonight in all phases of the game," head coach Travis Hudson shared. "Our serving really set the tone of the match and had UAB out of sync. I'm very proud of our effort."

WKU's 22-1 record equates to a .957 winning percentage and is the top mark in all of NCAA Volleyball. The Red and White remained perfect in league play and own an 8-0 record in such matches this season. UAB falls to 11-9 overall and 3-4 in C-USA play with tonight's setback.

Additionally, tonight's sweep of the Blazers adds WKU's 16th three-set win of the season – the top mark in the NCAA.

After UAB jumped out to a 7-3 lead in the opening set, WKU fired back with an 8-1 run to take the lead and never look back. The Red and White racked up six blocks in the frame en route to the 25-12 victory after scoring 22 of the final 27 points. WKU hit .500 as a team while holding UAB to a -.062 clip.

Set two saw WKU keep its foot on the gas while holding the hosts to an even .000 hitting clip. The Lady Toppers pushed out to a 10-3 advantage and cruised to a 25-16 second set victory. WKU added a trio of service aces in the frame along with four more blocks to bring its match total to 10 through the first to sets.

UAB returned out of the break and led early in the final frame. The Blazers would own an advantage until the 8-7 point before an attack error tied the match and a Sophia Cerino kill gave the Tops a lead they would not relinquish the remainder of the set. WKU pushed ahead to a 19-13 advantage forcing the Blazers to use their final timeout of the set and from there, the Tops would close out the 25-15 third-set victory.

The WKU offense scorched the floor of Bartow Arena with a collective .458 hitting percentage on the night, marking the 13th match of .300 or better as a team on the season. While facilitating the Hilltopper offense, Nadia Dieudonne finished with 28 assists on the night to go along with five digs, two kills, a block and an ace.

Defensively, the Lady Toppers stayed just as hot, holding their fourth-straight and fifth of the last six opponents to a hitting percentage below .100. WKU out-dug the Blazers 34-21 in addition to out-blocking the hosts 10-2.

WKU has now held six opponents to a double-digit attack rate. Friday's match from Birmingham also marks back-to-back double-digit block efforts and the team's fifth such outing of the season.

Individually, Lauren Matthews racked up 14 kills on 17 swings for a stellar .765 hitting percentage for her seventh match of .600 or better of her sophomore campaign. Matthews added four blocks and a dig.

Paige Briggs tallied eight kills on a .389 attack rate to go along with seven digs, two blocks and an ace.

Sophia Cerino posted six kills on 12 swings for a .417 clip while adding three blocks and two more aces. The senior is up to 55 aces on the season, moving her into seventh on WKU's single-season list.

Ashley Hood and Hallie Shelton each added a pair of aces as well.

Katie Isenbarger led the squad in blocks for the 10th time this season, racking up five. The sophomore now owns three outings with five or more blocks this year.

Logan Kael led WKU with 12 digs, marking the 10th time the junior transfer has led the team in the category this season.

NEXT TIME OUT:
WKU Volleyball will continue its weekend travels to Charlotte, N.C., where the squad will take on the 49ers on Sunday. First serve is slated for noon CT.

NO. 23 WKU WINS 19TH-STRAIGHT WITH SWEEP AT CHARLOTTE

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – WKU Volleyball notched its second sweep of the weekend and 17th of the season with Sunday's three-set victory at Charlotte. The 23rd-ranked Lady Toppers saw a trio of players record double-digit kills en route to the victory. Nadia Dieudonne matched the 2019 NCAA three-set match record with 49 assists in the win as WKU is now 23-1 overall and has won its last 19 matches.

"I didn't feel like we were very locked in today which is tough on the back end of a C-USA road trip," head coach Travis Hudson shared. "We found a way to grind out the win though. Charlotte is always a tough, well-coached opponent and today was no different. We're glad to get the win."

Along with its 23-1 record, the Red and White are off to the best start in program history and continue to add to it. WKU is now 9-0 in Conference USA matches as well. Charlotte fell to 13-12 overall and 2-6 in league play with the loss.

WKU struck first to open the match but Charlotte would be the first to double digits by the slimmest of margins. The sides would trade points to an 11-11 tie before WKU used a 5-0 run to force a 49er timeout. WKU pushed out to a 21-13 advantage before the Tops closed it out with a 25-17 first-set victory.

Set two action saw the sides even out to a 4-4 tie before WKU ran off four-straight points. A Charlotte attack error gave the Lady Toppers a 10-5 advantage but the 49ers would respond and knot the set at 14-14. From there, WKU would score the next four points to create separation. Paige Briggs' 12th kill of the day secure the 25-20 set two win and gave the Tops a 2-0 lead in the match.

Through two frames, Briggs tallied 12 kills and 10 digs to secure her 11th double-double outing of the season.

Out of the break, the sides played the closest set of the day. Charlotte led early before WKU responded to be the first to double digits at 10-8. The 49ers stuck around as WKU snuck closer to securing the sweep but WKU would ultimately claim the set 25-20.

Lauren Matthews and Briggs each finished with 15 kills while Kayland Jackson added 12. Sophia Cerino added eight more strikes in addition to a pair of service aces, bringing her season total to 57.

Logan Kael matched her season-best 18 digs while Briggs (12) and Emma Kowalkowski (11) joined her in double digits. WKU out-dug the 49ers 63-44 while limiting the hosts to a .189 hitting clip.

The WKU offense worked at a .315 clip led by a .407 rate from Matthews. Over the final two sets, the sophomore 12 kills against just one error.

Nadia Dieudonne facilitated the Hilltopper offense to its 14th match of hitting at a .300 or better clip. The junior transfer racked up 49 helpers – matching the most in a three-set match across the NCAA this season. She added seven digs and a block in the win.

NEXT TIME OUT:
WKU Volleyball will return home this coming weekend for one of its three remaining home matches. UTEP will visit town for a Friday night contest with the first serve scheduled for 6 p.m. CT. There will not be a pre-match Chalk Talk with Coach Hudson for the match.

BRIGGS AND DIEUDONNE REPEAT AS C-USA AWARD WINNERS

DALLAS – WKU Volleyball's Nadia Dieudonne and Paige Briggs have each been recognized for the fifth time this season as the Conference USA Setter of the Week and Freshman of the Week, respectively, for the second-straight week the league office announced Monday. The duo's week nine contributions helped the No. 23-ranked Lady Toppers to their 19th-straight win while pushing the best start in program history out to 23-1.

Nadia Dieudonne delivered one of her best weeks yet with her pair of week nine performances as WKU continued to add upon the best start in program history at 23-1. In Friday night's sweep at UAB, Dieudonne and the Lady Topper offense connected for kills on 52.8 percent of the junior transfer's sets as the team registered a season-best hitting percentage at .458. Dieudonne followed that up with a 49-assist performance in WKU's sweep at Charlotte. Her 49 assists tied for the most across the NCAA in a three-set match this season as WKU operated at a .315 clip on the match. The Louisville, Ky., native added 12 digs, three kills, two blocks and an ace on the weekend. Dieudonne averaged 12.83 assists per set along with 2.00 digs per set as WKU pushed its sets-won streak to 18.

Paige Briggs continues to shine for WKU Volleyball match after match. Thanks to her week nine play, the Lady Toppers have added onto the program's best-ever start at 23-1 while leading the nation in wins (23), sweeps (17), win streak (19). Briggs delivered an eight-kill, seven-dig outing at UAB Friday night, doing a bit of everything for the Tops. She turned around and put on a double-digit kill showing in WKU's second sweep of the weekend, which came at Charlotte. Briggs would finish with 15 kills on 36 swings for a .333 clip while adding 12 digs for her 11th double double of the season. The freshman finished with 3.83 kills per set, 3.17 digs per set, 0.33 blocks per set and 4.17 points per set as WKU continues to dominant. Briggs finished with a .352 hitting clip across WKU's pair of big wins while finding the floor for 23 kills along the way.

With this week's awards from Dieudonne and Briggs, WKU has now collected 15 awards through the first nine weeks of distribution. The Lady Toppers are the only team in the league that has earned an award each week and is also the lone squad to have players recognized for each of the four awards.

Stellar performances from both Dieudonne and Briggs helped lead the Lady Toppers to an NCAA-best 23rd win with the pair of week nine sweeps. With 19-straight victories, WKU has also matched the fourth-longest win streak in program history.

The squad will return home for one of its three remaining matches Friday as UTEP comes to town for the 6 p.m. CT tilt.

NO. 23 WKU RETURNS TO DIDDLE ARENA TO HOST UTEP FRIDAY

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball will return to The Hill for one of its three remaining home matches Friday night while putting the nation's longest winning streak of 19-consecutive matches on the line. Sitting at a perfect 9-0 just over midway through its league slate, No. 23-ranked WKU will play host to UTEP while looking to improve upon its 23-1 record and perfect 12-0 mark inside Diddle Arena.

Friday, Oct. 31 – 6 p.m. CT | vs. UTEP | Livestats | Facebook Live

Admission to Friday night's match will be free as the team celebrates its annual Hope For Harlie night with a combined fundraiser for the Hope For Harlie and Friends of Jaclyn Foundations. The team encourages fans to consider donating to the fundraiser by heading to goto.ps/Hope4Harlie18.

WKU's 23-1 record marks the best start in program history. Twenty-three wins is the most across the NCAA to date as the squad locked up the 20th-straight 20-win season under head coach Travis Hudson with a 3-0 sweep at Middle Tennessee on Oct. 18. The Lady Toppers are one of five programs with an active streak of such, joined by Nebraska (44), Penn State (42), Florida (28) and Colorado State (25).

Additionally, after ending both Florida Atlantic and FIU's home win streaks that each ranked in the top-10 of NCAA Volleyball, WKU's 14-match streak will now be put to the test. That unbeaten stretch ranks as the seventh-longest active streak across the country.

Friday evening's 6 p.m. CT match on The Hill marks the lone regular-season meeting between the C-USA squads. The Miners enter the weekend with a 10-11 overall record including a 3-5 mark in C-USA play. Both sides have faced Tulane in non-conference play, a match WKU won in four sets while UTEP was swept. In league action, the Miners picked up wins over Louisiana Tech (3-0), FIU (3-1) and Marshall (3-0). WKU leads the all-time series 23-10 but WKU has claimed nine of the last 10 decisions after split results against the Blazers last season. WKU leads the all-time series 8-0.

The Tops have collected a total of 15 C-USA Player of the Week awards, standing as the sole team to win an award every week, as well as the only team to win at least one of each award. Five different student-athletes have accounted for the 15 accolades with Nadia Dieudonne earning recognition as Setter of the Week and Paige Briggs being selected as the Freshman of the Week back-to-back weeks most recently.

In the fourth RPI of the 2019 campaign, WKU moved to its highest spot yet at No. 28 and already owns 11 wins over teams in – or that have been in - the top 100.

Next weekend, WKU will hit the road for the final time of the regular season with the much-anticipated North Texas-Rice road trip. The Red and White will play in Denton Friday night before traveling to Houston for a top-25 battle with Rice.

THE HERD

RECEIVING VOTES

After picking up its second Power Five win of the season and winning the Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite against a stacked tournament field, WKU Volleyball received votes in the Week 3 American Volleyball Coaches Association Poll.

The Lady Toppers entered the rankings at 36th overall in the poll, joining [RV] Rice (31st) from Conference USA. WKU received nine votes in the poll while the Owls posted 21.

In the next poll, WKU moved up and now sits as 31st overall with 19 votes. Rice broke into the Top-25 and sits at 22nd. Most recently, the Red and White rose to 28th while Rice moved up one spot to 21st.

WKU Volleyball has now received votes in 10-consecutive seasons in the AVCA Coaches Poll, dating back to the 2011 campaign. Last season, 2018, marked the lone season in that span that the Red and White never broke into the top-25 ranks.

TOURNAMENT WINS

Over the course of the first month of the season, WKU Volleyball won three tournament crowns after a trio of 3-0 showings in the Toledo Blue & Gold Invite, the Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite and WKU Volleyball Invite. The first weekend, the Tops downed Loyola - Chicago, Toledo and North Dakota State before taking care of Bowling Green, Ohio State and Tulane during the third weekend. Most recently, WKU downed Northern Kentucky in a five-set win before sweeping Tulsa and Samford to close the weekend.

NATIONAL LEADER

Following an 18-ace weekend at the WKU Volleyball Invite, senior Sophia Cerino jumped from fifth to first in the NCAA rankings and to lead the country in aces and aces per set. Over a week later, Cerino remains at the top of the ranks. Her 46 aces through the first five weeks of the year put Cerino at a 0.84 aces per set average. She's tallied four or more aces in seven matches this year.

POWER FIVE WINS

Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU Volleyball is now 12-10 against Power Five opponents.

WKU Volleyball is now 2-0 all-time against Arizona State and 3-6 all-time against Pac-12 programs (3-3 in last six meetings).

Additionally, on the first day of Louisville's Fleur de Lis Tournament, WKU faced off against Arizona State and No. 24 Louisville, marking the first time since 2013 that the Red and White faced two Power Five opponents in the same day. WKU has met two Power Five squads on the same day a total of five times in program history, splitting the day four times and sweeping the day once (2012).

Most recently, WKU downed Ohio State out of the Big Ten in a 3-0 sweep on Friday night of the Lady Toppers' Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite. The Red and White swept the Buckeyes in the second-straight meeting, taking a decision on each team's home court.

HARLIE BRYANT

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 13-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then, Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 19 seasons (2000-18), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 19 seasons. During the last 19-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

IT'S LONELY AT THE TOP

WKU Volleyball leads the country in numerous categories including sweeps and wins. WKU is one of three team's in the nation with double digit sweeps and its 15 total wins are tied for the most (with Milwaukee) as well. The Red and White's 11-straight wins ranks second entering the weekend.

TOUGH SERVING

In WKU Volleyball's four-set win over Arizona State, Cerino sliced up the Sun Devils' serve-receive, striking for eight aces in the match. The mark ties her for the third-most ever recorded in a single match.

During Cerino's dominant showing against ASU, the senior took WKU on numerous scoring runs, including one of nine-straight serves, keeping the Sun Devils out of their offensive system. She tossed up 29 serves across her eight trips to the line in the Power Five win.

COMING OUT HOT

WKU Volleyball opened the 2019 campaign at the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament where the Red and White went a perfect 3-0 to win the season-opening event. While in Glass City, the Tops downed Loyola (3-2), Toledo (3-0) and North Dakota State (3-0).

In her first weekend as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) earned the Blue & Gold Tournament's MVP honor. Fellow newcomer Paige Briggs along with Preseason All-Conference selection Lauren Matthews also earned spots on the All-Tournament Team.

WKU began the year with a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with four-straight wins before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

HOT START

With the squad's win over Arizona State to open second-weekend play, the Lady Toppers improved to 4-0 to start the season for the ninth time under Travis Hudson. WKU has won a regular-season or tournament championship all eight previous seasons with such a start.

Since then, the Lady Toppers have jumped out to a 15-1 start, which ranks as the fourth-best start in program history. Pages have to be turned back to 2011 to find a better start, which saw the team open the year with a 17-1 record. In 2005, Hudson's crew opened with an 18-1 mark before losing its second match after opening 2004 with a 16-1 reading.

In her very first match as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay), record WKU's first 20-20 double-double outing since Sept. 16, 2016. The Xavier transfer tallied 54 assists and 20 digs to become the 36th WKU Volleyball player to achieve the feat and the first-ever to do so in the month of August.

PRESEASON C-USA POLL

For the first time since its inaugural season in the league, WKU Volleyball was not voted the C-USA Preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers were predicted to finish second in 2014 before going on to win both the regular season and C-USA tournament titles.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

Individually, senior rightside Sophia Cerino and sophomore middle Lauren Matthews earned spots on the league's 12-person Preseason All-Conference team. Rice landed a league-high three individuals on the team. Charlotte, Florida Atlantic and Rice all joined the Red and White with a pair of Preseason All-Conference selections.

ANOTHER TOUGH SCHEDULE

After a season filled with highs and lows in 2018, WKU Volleyball is determined to make noise in 2019 and has put together the schedule to do just that.

WKU's 29-match regular season includes three regular season conference champions and two conference tournament champions. Additionally, 15 of WKUs' 2019 opponents notched winning campaigns a year ago.

This year's slate features nine squads that appeared in the 2018 postseason. Kentucky, Louisville, Samford and Rice all appeared in the NCAA Tournament with both of WKU's in-state foes winning at least one game. Bowling Green, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and North Texas all participated in the NIVC.

STRONG AND STEADY

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .741 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

Back on the court days later, Hudson returned to direct his 24th year of volleyball from his alma mater.

NEW FACES

Hudson's squad returned five starters from last year's 20-10 campaign and eight letterwinners total. During the offseason, WKU added a pair of transfers and three freshmen that are set for their Lady Topper debuts.

WKU picked up a pair of junior transfers in Nadia Dieudonne and Logan Kael. Dieudonne made her way back to the Bluegrass State after playing two seasons at Xavier. Hailing from Tennessee, Kael headed back north after playing two seasons at West Florida (DII).

Additionally, the Lady Toppers added a trio of talented freshmen in Paige Briggs, Avri Davis and Jennifer Rush. All three are expected to see action for the Red and White on the offensive side of the ball.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

After the second weekend of play in 2019, Cerino earned her second career weekly award from Conference USA, being recognized as the league's Defensive Player of the Week.

Following the 2018-19 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 13th consecutive season as the Lady Toppers finished the campaign with a 3.46 team GPA. The honor marks the 17th time a Lady Topper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

In total, 189 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of eight Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, FIU, Middle Tennessee, Rice, Southern Miss, UTEP and UTSA in addition to the Red and White.

THE LAST FOUR YEARS

Across the last four seasons (2015-18) on The Hill, WKU Volleyball sported a 113-21 record that included six collective Conference USA Championships. The Lady Toppers went 53-5 in C-USA regular season play during that span. In three NCAA Tournament appearances the squad posted a 2-3 record.

BACK IN THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

"I BELIEVE IN ALYSSA CAVANAUGH"

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Lady Toppers to 123 wins but her 124th will be her biggest yet.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant and less than six weeks later on March 20 would finally be discharged from the hospital. The family would stay in Cincinnati through May when Alyssa would finally be able to go home.

Cavanaugh continues to recover from the transplant. While the process has had its ups and downs, anyone that knows her knows she's a fighter up for the challenge.

NOTES

RECEIVING VOTES

After picking up its second Power Five win of the season and winning the Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite against a stacked tournament field, WKU Volleyball received votes in the Week 3 American Volleyball Coaches Association Poll.

The Lady Toppers entered the rankings at 36th overall in the poll, joining [RV] Rice (31st) from Conference USA. WKU received nine votes in the poll while the Owls posted 21.

Since then, WKU has moved all the way up to 26th in the poll while Rice has held steady at No. 21 the last two weeks.

WKU Volleyball has now received votes in 10-consecutive seasons in the AVCA Coaches Poll, dating back to the 2011 campaign. Last season, 2018, marked the lone season in that span that the Red and White never broke into the top-25 ranks.

TOURNAMENT WINS

Over the course of the first month of the season, WKU Volleyball won three tournament crowns after a trio of 3-0 showings in the Toledo Blue & Gold Invite, the Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite and WKU Volleyball Invite. The first weekend, the Tops downed Loyola - Chicago, Toledo and North Dakota State before taking care of Bowling Green, Ohio State and Tulane during the third weekend. Most recently, WKU downed Northern Kentucky in a five-set win before sweeping Tulsa and Samford to close the weekend.

NATIONAL LEADER

Following an 18-ace weekend at the WKU Volleyball Invite, senior Sophia Cerino jumped from fifth to first in the NCAA rankings and to lead the country in aces and aces per set. Over two weeks later, Cerino remains at the top of the ranks. Her 51 aces through the first six weeks of the year put Cerino at a 0.82 aces per set average. She's tallied four or more aces in eight matches this year.

POWER FIVE WINS

Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU Volleyball is now 12-10 against Power Five opponents.

WKU Volleyball is now 2-0 all-time against Arizona State and 3-6 all-time against Pac-12 programs (3-3 in last six meetings).

Additionally, on the first day of Louisville's Fleur de Lis Tournament, WKU faced off against Arizona State and No. 24 Louisville, marking the first time since 2013 that the Red and White faced two Power Five opponents in the same day. WKU has met two Power Five squads on the same day a total of five times in program history, splitting the day four times and sweeping the day once (2012).

Most recently, WKU downed Ohio State out of the Big Ten in a 3-0 sweep on Friday night of the Lady Toppers' Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite. The Red and White swept the Buckeyes in the second-straight meeting, taking a decision on each team's home court.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

1st — Cerino's 51 aces lead the NCAA

9 — Consecutive seasons receiving votes in AVCA

9 — C-USA Players of the Week after six weeks of awards

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 13-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then, Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

Harlie is now a Lady Topper. At every home match, she is with the team in the huddle and at introductions while she cheers with her family from the sidelines. The team's secret weapon, she is a constant reminder to the WKU student-athletes and coaching staff to keep fighting no matter what stands in the way.

For more information about Harlie and her journey, visit HOPEFORHARLIE.ORG and follow on Twitter via @HOPEFORHARLIE.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

For more information about FOJ, visit FRIENDSOFJACLYN.ORG.

NOTES

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 19 seasons (2000-18), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 19 seasons. During the last 19-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

IT'S LONELY AT THE TOP

WKU Volleyball leads the country in numerous categories including sweeps and wins. WKU is one of eight teams in the nation with double digit sweeps and its 17 total wins are tied for the most (with Milwaukee) as well. Additionally, WKU and Towson are tied the most sweeps across the country with 12 each. The Red and White's 13-straight wins ranks third entering the weekend.

TOUGH SERVING

In WKU Volleyball's four-set win over Arizona State, Cerino sliced up the Sun Devils' serve-receive, striking for eight aces in the match. The mark ties her for the third-most ever recorded in a single match.

During Cerino's dominant showing against ASU, the senior took WKU on numerous scoring runs, including one of nine-straight serves, keeping the Sun Devils out of their offensive system. She tossed up 29 serves across her eight trips to the line in the Power Five win.

COMING OUT HOT

WKU Volleyball opened the 2019 campaign at the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament where the Red and White went a perfect 3-0 to win the season-opening event. While in Glass City, the Tops downed Loyola (3-2), Toledo (3-0) and North Dakota State (3-0).

In her first weekend as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) earned the Blue & Gold Tournament's MVP honor. Fellow newcomer Paige Briggs along with Preseason All-Conference selection Lauren Matthews also earned spots on the All-Tournament Team.

WKU began the year with a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with four-straight wins before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

HOT START

With the squad's win over Arizona State to open second-weekend play, the Lady Toppers improved to 4-0 to start the season for the ninth time under Travis Hudson. WKU has won a regular-season or tournament championship all eight previous seasons with such a start.

Since then, the Lady Toppers have jumped out to a 17-1 start, which ties the second-best start in program history. Pages have to be turned back to 2011 to find a better start, which saw the team open the year with a 17-1 record. In 2005, Hudson's crew opened with an 18-1 mark before losing its second match.

In her very first match as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay), record WKU's first 20-20 double-double outing since Sept. 16, 2016. The Xavier transfer tallied 54 assists and 20 digs to become the 36th WKU Volleyball player to achieve the feat and the first-ever to do so in the month of August.

PRESEASON C-USA POLL

For the first time since its inaugural season in the league, WKU Volleyball was not voted the C-USA Preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers were predicted to finish second in 2014 before going on to win both the regular season and C-USA tournament titles.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

Individually, senior rightside Sophia Cerino and sophomore middle Lauren Matthews earned spots on the league's 12-person Preseason All-Conference team. Rice landed a league-high three individuals on the team. Charlotte, Florida Atlantic and Rice all joined the Red and White with a pair of Preseason All-Conference selections.

ANOTHER TOUGH SCHEDULE

After a season filled with highs and lows in 2018, WKU Volleyball is determined to make noise in 2019 and has put together the schedule to do just that.

WKU's 29-match regular season includes three regular season conference champions and two conference tournament champions. Additionally, 15 of WKUs' 2019 opponents notched winning campaigns a year ago.

This year's slate features nine squads that appeared in the 2018 postseason. Kentucky, Louisville, Samford and Rice all appeared in the NCAA Tournament with both of WKU's in-state foes winning at least one game. Bowling Green, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and North Texas all participated in the NIVC.

STRONG AND STEADY

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .741 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

Back on the court days later, Hudson returned to direct his 24th year of volleyball from his alma mater.

NEW FACES

Hudson's squad returned five starters from last year's 20-10 campaign and eight letterwinners total. During the offseason, WKU added a pair of transfers and three freshmen that are set for their Lady Topper debuts.

WKU picked up a pair of junior transfers in Nadia Dieudonne and Logan Kael. Dieudonne made her way back to the Bluegrass State after playing two seasons at Xavier. Hailing from Tennessee, Kael headed back north after playing two seasons at West Florida (DII).

Additionally, the Lady Toppers added a trio of talented freshmen in Paige Briggs, Avri Davis and Jennifer Rush. All three are expected to see action for the Red and White on the offensive side of the ball.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

After the second weekend of play in 2019, Cerino earned her second career weekly award from Conference USA, being recognized as the league's Defensive Player of the Week.

Following the 2018-19 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 13th consecutive season as the Lady Toppers finished the campaign with a 3.46 team GPA. The honor marks the 17th time a Lady Topper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

In total, 189 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of eight Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, FIU, Middle Tennessee, Rice, Southern Miss, UTEP and UTSA in addition to the Red and White.

THE LAST FOUR YEARS

Across the last four seasons (2015-18) on The Hill, WKU Volleyball sported a 113-21 record that included six collective Conference USA Championships. The Lady Toppers went 53-5 in C-USA regular season play during that span. In three NCAA Tournament appearances the squad posted a 2-3 record.

BACK IN THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

"I BELIEVE IN ALYSSA CAVANAUGH"

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Lady Toppers to 123 wins but her 124th will be her biggest yet.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant and less than six weeks later on March 20 would finally be discharged from the hospital. The family would stay in Cincinnati through May when Alyssa would finally be able to go home.

Cavanaugh continues to recover from the transplant. While the process has had its ups and downs, anyone that knows her knows she's a fighter up for the challenge.

TOP-25 DEBUT

After four weeks of receiving votes, WKU Volleyball finally broke into the AVCA Week 7 Coaches Poll, announced on Monday, Oct. 14. The Lady Toppers debuted in the poll at No. 24 after pushing their winning streak to 15 and climbing to 19-1 overall. A week later, the Tops moved up to No. 23 after becoming the nation's first 20-win team of the season. WKU has now appeared in the top 25 eight of the last nine seasons.

RECEIVING VOTES

After picking up its second Power Five win of the season and winning the Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite against a stacked tournament field, WKU Volleyball received votes in the Week 3 American Volleyball Coaches Association Poll. The Lady Toppers entered the rankings at 36th overall in the poll, joining [RV] Rice (31st) from Conference USA. WKU received nine votes in the poll while the Owls posted 21. In its fourth week of receiving votes, WKU moved all the way up to 26th in the poll while Rice held steady in the top-25 ranks.

WKU Volleyball has now received votes in 10-consecutive seasons in the AVCA Coaches Poll, dating back to the 2011 campaign. Last season, 2018, marked the lone season in that span that the Red and White never broke into the top-25 ranks.

TOURNAMENT WINS

Over the course of the first month of the season, WKU Volleyball won three tournament crowns after a trio of 3-0 showings in the Toledo Blue & Gold Invite, the Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite and WKU Volleyball Invite. The first weekend, the Tops downed Loyola - Chicago, Toledo and North Dakota State before taking care of Bowling Green, Ohio State and Tulane during the third weekend. Most recently, WKU downed Northern Kentucky in a five-set win before sweeping Tulsa and Samford to close the weekend.

NATIONAL LEADER

Following an 18-ace weekend at the WKU Volleyball Invite, senior Sophia Cerino jumped from fifth to first in the NCAA rankings and to lead the country in aces and aces per set. Over four weeks later, Cerino remains at the top of the ranks. Her 53 aces through the first eight weeks of the year put Cerino at a 0.71 aces per set average. She's tallied four or more aces in eight matches this year.

POWER FIVE WINS

Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU Volleyball is now 12-10 against Power Five opponents.

WKU Volleyball is now 2-0 all-time against Arizona State and 3-6 all-time against Pac-12 programs (3-3 in last six meetings).

Additionally, on the first day of Louisville's Fleur de Lis Tournament, WKU faced off against Arizona State and No. 24 Louisville, marking the first time since 2013 that the Red and White faced two Power Five opponents in the same day. WKU has met two Power Five squads on the same day a total of five times in program history, splitting the day four times and sweeping the day once (2012).

Most recently, WKU downed Ohio State out of the Big Ten in a 3-0 sweep on Friday night of the Lady

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 13-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then, Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

NOTES

Toppers' Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite. The Red and White swept the Buckeyes in the second-straight meeting, taking a decision on each team's home court.

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 20 seasons (2000-19), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 20 seasons. During the last 20-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

IT'S LONELY AT THE TOP

WKU Volleyball leads the NCAA in numerous categories including sweeps and wins. WKU is one of two teams in the nation with 15 sweeps and its 21 total wins are the most as well. The Red and White's 17-straight wins leads the nation entering the weekend.

TOUGH SERVING

In WKU Volleyball's four-set win over Arizona State, Cerino sliced up the Sun Devils' serve-receive, striking for eight aces in the match. The mark ties her for the third-most ever recorded in a single match.

During Cerino's dominant showing against ASU, the senior took WKU on numerous scoring runs, including one of nine-straight serves, keeping the Sun Devils out of their offensive system. She tossed up 29 serves across her eight trips to the line in the Power Five win.

COMING OUT HOT

WKU Volleyball opened the 2019 campaign at the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament where the Red and White went a perfect 3-0 to win the season-opening event. While in Glass City, the Tops downed Loyola (3-2), Toledo (3-0) and North Dakota State (3-0).

In her first weekend as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) earned the Blue & Gold Tournament's MVP honor. Fellow newcomer Paige Briggs along with Preseason All-Conference selection Lauren Matthews also earned spots on the All-Tournament Team.

WKU began the year with a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with four-straight wins before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

HOT START

With the squad's win over Arizona State to open second-weekend play, the Lady Toppers improved to 4-0 to start the season for the ninth time under Travis Hudson. WKU has won a regular-season or tournament championship all eight previous seasons with such a start.

Since then, the Lady Toppers have jumped out to a 21-1 start, which is the best start in program history. Pages have to be turned back to 2005 to find the second-best start, which saw the team open the year with an 18-1 record.

In her very first match as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay), record WKU's first 20-20 double-double outing since Sept. 16, 2016. The Xavier transfer tallied 54 assists and 20 digs to become the 36th WKU Volleyball player to achieve the feat and the first-ever to do so in the month of August.

PRESEASON C-USA POLL

For the first time since its inaugural season in the league, WKU Volleyball was not voted the C-USA Preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers were predicted to finish second in 2014 before going on to win both the regular season and C-USA tournament titles.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

ANOTHER TOUGH SCHEDULE

After a season filled with highs and lows in 2018, WKU Volleyball is determined to make noise in 2019 and has put together the schedule to do just that.

WKU's 29-match regular season includes three regular season conference champions and two conference tournament champions. Additionally, 15 of WKUs' 2019 opponents notched winning campaigns a year ago.

This year's slate features nine squads that appeared in the 2018 postseason. Kentucky, Louisville, Samford and Rice all appeared in the NCAA Tournament with both of WKU's in-state foes winning at least one game. Bowling Green, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and North Texas all participated in the NIVC.

STRONG AND STEADY

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .741 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

TRAVIS HUDSON: OFF THE COURT

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

Back on the court days later, Hudson returned to direct his 24th year of volleyball from his alma mater.

NEW FACES

Hudson's squad returned five starters from last year's 20-10 campaign and eight letterwinners total. During the offseason, WKU added a pair of transfers and three freshmen that are set for their Lady Topper debuts.

WKU picked up a pair of junior transfers in Nadia Dieudonne and Logan Kael. Dieudonne made her way back to the Bluegrass State after playing two seasons at Xavier. Hailing from Tennessee, Kael headed back north after playing two seasons at West Florida (DII).

Additionally, the Lady Toppers added a trio of talented freshmen in Paige Briggs, Avri Davis and Jennifer Rush. All three are expected to see action for the Red and White on the offensive side of the ball.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

After the second weekend of play in 2019, Cerino earned her second career weekly award from Conference USA, being recognized as the league's Defensive Player of the Week.

Following the 2018-19 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 13th consecutive season as the Lady Toppers finished the campaign with a 3.46 team GPA. The honor marks the 17th time a Lady Topper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

In total, 189 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of eight Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, FIU, Middle Tennessee, Rice, Southern Miss, UTEP and UTSA in addition to the Red and White.

THE LAST FOUR YEARS

Across the last four seasons (2015-18) on The Hill, WKU Volleyball sported a 113-21 record that included six collective Conference USA Championships. The Lady Toppers went 53-5 in C-USA regular season play during that span. In three NCAA Tournament appearances the squad posted a 2-3 record.

BACK IN THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

"I BELIEVE IN ALYSSA CAVANAUGH"

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Lady Toppers to 123 wins but her 124th will be her biggest yet.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant and less than six weeks later on March 20 would finally be discharged from the hospital. The family would stay in Cincinnati through May when Alyssa would finally be able to go home.

Cavanaugh continues to recover from the transplant. While the process has had its ups and downs, anyone that knows her knows she's a fighter up for the challenge.

TOP-25 DEBUT

After four weeks of receiving votes, WKU Volleyball finally broke into the AVCA Week 7 Coaches Poll, announced on Monday, Oct. 14. The Lady Toppers debuted in the poll at No. 24 after pushing their winning streak to 15 and climbing to 19-1 overall. A week later, the Tops moved up to No. 23 after becoming the nation's first 20-win team of the season. The Oct. 28 Poll kept the Tops at No. 23, marking the team's third-straight week of being ranked. WKU has now appeared in the top 25 eight of the last nine seasons.

RECEIVING VOTES

After picking up its second Power Five win of the season and winning the Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite against a stacked tournament field, WKU Volleyball received votes in the Week 3 American Volleyball Coaches Association Poll. The Lady Toppers entered the rankings at 36th overall in the poll, joining [RV] Rice (31st) from Conference USA. WKU received nine votes in the poll while the Owls posted 21. In its fourth week of receiving votes, WKU moved all the way up to 26th in the poll while Rice held steady in the top-25 ranks.

WKU Volleyball has now received votes in 10-consecutive seasons in the AVCA Coaches Poll, dating back to the 2011 campaign. Last season, 2018, marked the lone season in that span that the Red and White never broke into the top-25 ranks.

TOURNAMENT WINS

Over the course of the first month of the season, WKU Volleyball won three tournament crowns after a trio of 3-0 showings in the Toledo Blue & Gold Invite, the Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite and WKU Volleyball Invite. The first weekend, the Tops downed Loyola - Chicago, Toledo and North Dakota State before taking care of Bowling Green, Ohio State and Tulane during the third weekend. Most recently, WKU downed Northern Kentucky in a five-set win before sweeping Tulsa and Samford to close the weekend.

NATIONAL LEADERS

Following an 18-ace weekend at the WKU Volleyball Invite, senior Sophia Cerino jumped from fifth to first in the NCAA rankings and to lead the country in aces and aces per set. Over five weeks later, Cerino remains at the top of the ranks. Her 57 aces through the first nine weeks of the year put Cerino at a 0.70 aces per set average. She's tallied four or more aces in eight matches this year.

Lauren Matthews joined her teammate at the top of the NCAA Volleyball stats as the sophomore middle hitter leads the country in hitting percentage at .459. That mark currently sits .001 above the WKU single season record set by Paige Wessel in 2013.

POWER FIVE WINS

Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU Volleyball is now 12-10 against Power Five opponents.

WKU Volleyball is now 2-0 all-time against Arizona State and 3-6 all-time against Pac-12 programs (3-3 in last six meetings).

Additionally, on the first day of Louisville's Fleur de Lis Tournament, WKU faced off against Arizona State and No. 24 Louisville, marking the first time since 2013 that the Red and White faced two Power Five opponents in the same day. WKU has met two Power Five squads on the same day a total of five times in program history, splitting the day four times and sweeping the day once (2012).

Most recently, WKU downed Ohio State out of the Big Ten in a 3-0 sweep on Friday night of the Lady Toppers' Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite. The Red and White swept the Buckeyes in the second-straight meeting, taking a decision on each team's home court.

HARLIE BRYANT

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 13-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then, Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

Harlie is now a Lady Topper. At every home match, she is with the team in the huddle and at introductions while she cheers with her family from the sidelines. The team's secret weapon, she is a constant reminder to the WKU student-athletes and coaching staff to keep fighting no matter what stands in the way.

For more information about Harlie and her journey, visit HOPEFORHARLIE.ORG and follow on Twitter via @HOPEFORHARLIE.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

For more information about FOJ, visit FRIENDSOFJACLYN.ORG.

NOTES

For the past 20 seasons (2000-19), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 20 seasons. During the last 20-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

IT'S LONELY AT THE TOP

WKU Volleyball leads the NCAA in numerous categories including sweeps and wins. WKU is the only team in the nation with 17 sweeps and its 23 total wins are the most as well. The Red and White's 19-straight wins leads the nation entering the weekend.

TOUGH SERVING

In WKU Volleyball's four-set win over Arizona State, Cerino sliced up the Sun Devils' serve-receive, striking for eight aces in the match. The mark ties her for the third-most ever recorded in a single match.

During Cerino's dominant showing against ASU, the senior took WKU on numerous scoring runs, including one of nine-straight serves, keeping the Sun Devils out of their offensive system. She tossed up 29 serves across her eight trips to the line in the Power Five win.

COMING OUT HOT

WKU Volleyball opened the 2019 campaign at the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament where the Red and White went a perfect 3-0 to win the season-opening event. While in Glass City, the Tops downed Loyola (3-2), Toledo (3-0) and North Dakota State (3-0).

In her first weekend as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) earned the Blue & Gold Tournament's MVP honor. Fellow newcomer Paige Briggs along with Preseason All-Conference selection Lauren Matthews also earned spots on the All-Tournament Team.

WKU began the year with a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with four-straight wins before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

HOT START

With the squad's win over Arizona State to open second-weekend play, the Lady Toppers improved to 4-0 to start the season for the ninth time under Travis Hudson. WKU has won a regular-season or tournament championship all eight previous seasons with such a start.

Since then, the Lady Toppers have jumped out to a 21-1 start, which is the best start in program history. Pages have to be turned back to 2005 to find the second-best start, which saw the team open the year with an 18-1 record.

In her very first match as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay), record WKU's first 20-20 double-double outing since Sept. 16, 2016. The Xavier transfer tallied 54 assists and 20 digs to become the 36th WKU Volleyball player to achieve the feat and the first-ever to do so in the month of August.

PRESEASON C-USA POLL

For the first time since its inaugural season in the league, WKU Volleyball was not voted the C-USA Preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers were predicted to finish second in 2014 before going on to win both the regular season and C-USA tournament titles.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

ANOTHER TOUGH SCHEDULE

After a season filled with highs and lows in 2018, WKU Volleyball is determined to make noise in 2019 and has put together the schedule to do just that.

WKU's 29-match regular season includes three regular season conference champions and two conference tournament champions. Additionally, 15 of WKUs' 2019 opponents notched winning campaigns a year ago.

This year's slate features nine squads that appeared in the 2018 postseason. Kentucky, Louisville, Samford and Rice all appeared in the NCAA Tournament with both of WKU's in-state foes winning at least one game. Bowling Green, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and North Texas all participated in the NIVC.

STRONG AND STEADY

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .741 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

TRAVIS HUDSON: OFF THE COURT

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

Back on the court days later, Hudson returned to direct his 24th year of volleyball from his alma mater.

NEW FACES

Hudson's squad returned five starters from last year's 20-10 campaign and eight letterwinners total. During the offseason, WKU added a pair of transfers and three freshmen that are set for their Lady Topper debuts.

WKU picked up a pair of junior transfers in Nadia Dieudonne and Logan Kael. Dieudonne made her way back to the Bluegrass State after playing two seasons at Xavier. Hailing from Tennessee, Kael headed back north after playing two seasons at West Florida (DII).

Additionally, the Lady Toppers added a trio of talented freshmen in Paige Briggs, Avri Davis and Jennifer Rush. All three are expected to see action for the Red and White on the offensive side of the ball.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

After the second weekend of play in 2019, Cerino earned her second career weekly award from Conference USA, being recognized as the league's Defensive Player of the Week.

Following the 2018-19 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 13th consecutive season as the Lady Toppers finished the campaign with a 3.46 team GPA. The honor marks the 17th time a Lady Topper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

In total, 189 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of eight Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, FIU, Middle Tennessee, Rice, Southern Miss, UTEP and UTSA in addition to the Red and White.

THE LAST FOUR YEARS

Across the last four seasons (2015-18) on The Hill, WKU Volleyball sported a 113-21 record that included six collective Conference USA Championships. The Lady Toppers went 53-5 in C-USA regular season play during that span. In three NCAA Tournament appearances the squad posted a 2-3 record.

BACK IN THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

"I BELIEVE IN ALYSSA CAVANAUGH"

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Lady Toppers to 123 wins but her 124th will be her biggest yet.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant and less than six weeks later on March 20 would finally be discharged from the hospital. The family would stay in Cincinnati through May when Alyssa would finally be able to go home.

Cavanaugh continues to recover from the transplant. While the process has had its ups and downs, anyone that knows her knows she's a fighter up for the challenge.

NO. 23-RANKED TOPS WIN 20TH-STRAIGHT MATCH, SWEEP UTEP FRIDAY NIGHT

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball added to its dominant 2019 season with the squad's NCAA-best 18th sweep of the season Friday night over UTEP. With the win, the No. 23 Lady Toppers secured their 20th-straight victory while pushing their sets-won streak out to 21 for the first time since 2017. WKU's high-powered offense operated at a .397 hitting clip while Paige Briggs and Lauren Matthews contributed double-digit kills.

"Obviously, we're on a pretty good winning streak right now, and so to me it's about staying sharp and being our best as the season winds down," head coach Travis Hudson shared. "I'm not sure that is where we are, but you know we did some good things. I thought our first contact was really good tonight. I thought we served it well and I thought we passed it well. I think that kept us kind of in control off the match."

With the victory, the Red and White are now 24-1 on the season and remain unbeaten in Conference USA action with a 10-0 record. WKU now leads the all-time series 9-0 over the Miners as UTEP falls to 10-12 overall and 3-6 in C-USA play.

WKU jumped out to an early lead in the opening frame and never looked back. The squad finished with 14 kills and a .407 hitting percentage along with three blocks. Opening up an 11-3 lead, WKU would keep that cushion until the end of the 25-13 first set victory. UTEP called its final timeout trailing 21-12 and scored the first point out of the break but it was all Tops after that with four-straight points.

Set two went back-and-forth until 14-14, when WKU would go on to score five-straight points to create separation. The Lady Toppers ultimately pulled away, using a 7-1 run to make the score 21-15. From there, the sides split the final eight points as WKU claimed the set 25-19 for a 2-0 lead in the match.

Out of the break, UTEP kept close early on, but a four-point run out to a 10-6 lead gave WKU a lead it would not relinquish. Soon after, an 8-2 run to give the Tops an eight-point lead at 19-11. WKU would go on to close out the sweep with a 25-17 set-three victory.

Briggs and Matthews finished with double-digit kills on the night as Briggs totaled 11 and Matthews posted 10. With a .533 hitting percentage, Matthews recorded her 11th match of the season with a hitting mark above .500. Sophia Cerino added six more kills on a .444 clip.

Collectively, WKU tallied with a 35 total kills on 68 attempts for a .397 hitting percentage while holding UTEP to a .167 rate.

WKU would see five different Lady Toppers record aces as the team finished with eight on the night. Briggs, Katie Isenbarger and Hallie Shelton all notched two.

Nadia Dieudonne dished out 29 assists to go along with a team-high six digs in addition to three kills and an ace.

At the net, WKU out-blocked UTEP 7-5. Matthews tallied five total stuffs including all three of WKU's solo blocks.

HUDSON ON THE HOPE FOR HARLIE FUNDRAISER NIGHT TURNOUT:
"It is the best, I told you it was a great crowd, I hope one of the reasons it was a great crowd is because people wanted to come out and give to that little girl and celebrate HER because she's a really special part of our program, and hopefully she felt a lot of love around her tonight on her night. We'll certainly do it as long as we can keep tricking her to come into Diddle Arena."

NEXT TIME OUT:
With its lone match of the weekend wrapped up, WKU Volleyball turns its focus to its final road trip of the regular season. The Lady Toppers will head out for North Texas (Friday) and No. 18 Rice (Sunday) for one of the most anticipated road trips of the season.

"We have a bunch of competitors in our locker room," Hudson added. "It is hard to not look forward to those matches, but as a coach those are the two that are least concerning to me, and I know our teams as competitors will be ready to play for those, but they're two really difficult tests for us on the road, and we're going to have to play very well to get a win at either place. North Texas at North Texas is one of the hardest places to play in this league, and obviously Rice is having a pretty special year, so I think it is good for us. I don't think next weekend can go bad, if that makes sense to you. Obviously if we win, we'll feel good about it, but you know if we lose I think it's a really test going into the conference tournament time. We find out where we can be exposed a little bit, and have a couple weeks to still make it better, so even though it is a big weekend per se in terms of standings and all that, it is one that I am very much looking forward to."

TOUGH ROAD TRIP AHEAD FOR NO. 22 WKU IN TEXAS

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – No. 22 WKU Volleyball is headed for the Lone Star State to visit North Texas and No. 17 Rice in a pair of Conference USA matchups this weekend. The Lady Toppers will open action at North Texas Friday night before heading to Houston for Sunday's match with the Owls. Sunday's top-25 showdown will be streamed on CUSA.tv.

FOLLOWING INFORMATION
Friday, Nov. 8 – 6 p.m. CT | at North Texas | Livestats | No stream
Sunday, Nov. 10 – 1 p.m. CT | at No. 22 Rice | Livestats | CUSA.tv

Continuing to add to the best start in program history, the Lady Toppers are off to a 24-1 start on the 2019 campaign including a perfect 10-0 reading in C-USA matches. WKU leads the nation in numerous categories including wins (24), win percentage (.960) and sweeps (18). The Lady Toppers are one of five programs with an active streak of such, joined by Nebraska (44), Penn State (42), Florida (28) and Colorado State (25).

Earlier this season, WKU visited Florida and ended a pair of the nation's longest home winning streaks at Florida Atlantic and FIU. This weekend, the team will have the chance to end Rice's 20th-match streak, which currently ranks as the third longest mark in the country.

WKU's first stop of the road swing will be in Denton, Texas, to take on the current third-place standing Mean Green. North Texas owns a 15-8 overall record on the season and has recorded a 9-2 mark in league play with losses to Rice and Middle Tennessee. The Red and White own a 20-3 all-time record against the Mean Green. North Texas downed the Lady Toppers in the most recent contest, a 3-0 sweep from Bowling Green last season.

On Sunday, WKU will turn its focus to No. 17 Rice. The Owls are off to a 21-1 start and are the other unbeaten team remaining in Conference USA with a 10-0 mark as well. Rice will face off against Florida Atlantic before the Tops visit on Sunday. The Lady Toppers own a 5-3 all-time record against the Owls but Rice claimed a four-set decision last season in Bowling Green. Sunday's match will mark the first time WKU has been ranked in the top-25 and faced a conference foe that has also been ranked.

Both matches will be the Senior Night for WKU's weekend opponents.

Also at stake this weekend for the Lady Toppers is the squad's 20-match win streak and 21-straight sets won stretch.

WKU will return to Diddle Arena next Thursday and Saturday to close out the regular season with visits from Louisiana Tech and UAB.

ALL-AROUND EFFORT LEADS NO. 22 WKU PAST NORTH TEXAS, 3-1

DENTON, Texas – WKU Volleyball turned in a four-set win Friday night at North Texas to extend its winning streak to 21-straight matches. Paige Briggs delivered a 21-kill, 11-dig performance while Lauren Matthews racked up 19 kills and seven blocks as the No. 22-ranked Lady Toppers improved to 25-1 overall and 11-0 in Conference USA.

"I really saw some grit out of our team tonight," head coach Travis Hudson opened. "North Texas responded in the second set as we knew they would. Andrew is such a good coach; they're constantly making adjustments that we had to keep track of. Our kids continued to grind. In that fourth set, we separated ourselves by a lot of different kids making plays which was awesome to see."

With the victory, WKU spoiled North Texas' Senior Night. The Mean Green are now 15-9 overall and 9-3 in C-USA play.

In the opening frame, WKU was the first to double digits at 10-8 but UNT responded with three-straight points before a Nadia Dieudonne kill knotted the score at 11-11. From there, North Texas found the floor for a kill but a Lauren Matthews solo block would open up a 10-0 run for WKU. The Mean Green finally ended the streak to make the score 22-13, but WKU pushed ahead to the final 25-16 margin of victory. The Lady Toppers worked at a .364 hitting clip in the frame while racking up 14 digs defensively and holding North Texas to a .097 attack rate.

North Texas evened the match with a 25-23 set-two win. WKU held just one lead in the frame, coming at 3-2. The frame saw seven ties with the final knot coming at 22-22 with Lauren Matthews' ninth kill of the night. WKU operated at a .412 hitting percentage in the frame.

With North Texas' second-set win, WKU's 22-straight sets won streak came to a close.

Following the break, WKU struck for the first point of the third frame and never looked back. Sophia Cerino added her second ace of the match and the Tops would push out to a 13-1 lead before North Texas would score again. WKU cruised out to a 17-3 advantage before ultimately claiming the set 25-11.

The Mean Green scored the opening point of the fourth frame and would push all the way out to a 9-5 lead. From there, WKU responded with a 5-0 run to take a lead it would not relinquish en route to a 25-19 set four win. The Lady Toppers worked at a .286 offensive clip in the final frame.

As a team, WKU worked at a .394 hitting clip on the match, racking up 60 kills against just 10 error on the night. Briggs tallied 21 of those kills while hitting .476 to go along with 11 digs for her 12th double-double showing of the season. Matthews wasn't far off with 19 kills and worked at a .516 rate on the night while adding seven blocks.

Kayland Jackson added seven kills and a .429 hitting clip while Sophia Cerino added six.

Nadia Dieudonne racked up 50 assists to go along with nine digs, four blocks and three kills in the win.

From the service line, WKU racked up seven aces including three each from Cerino and Hallie Shelton. Ashley Hood struck for an ace as well.

Defensively, WKU saw four Lady Toppers finish with double-digit digs led by senior Emma Kowalkowski's 15. Shelton added 13, Logan Kael had 12 and Briggs posted 11. North Texas was limited to a .169 hitting percentage on the night.

NEXT TIME OUT:
WKU will play its final regular-season road match on Sunday at No. 17 Rice. First serve from Houston, Texas is slated for 1 p.m. CT.

NO. 22 WKU BATTLES TO FIVE-SET WIN AT NO. 17 RICE

HOUSTON – No. 22 WKU Volleyball battled to a five-set upset at No. 17 Rice on Sunday, extending the Lady Toppers' win streak to 22-straight matches. In a match that saw 38 ties and 13 lead changes, WKU prevailed as four Lady Toppers turned in double-digit kill performances and three players recorded double-digit digs.

"When we were up 2-0, I walked in our huddle and said 'I fully anticipate this going five,'" head coach Travis Hudson shared. "You know what Rice is, you know they're so talented. Seeing them in person, they're even better than I thought they were. They're so talented and they play such good defense and they're so well coached. We knew it was going to be a battle. I'm just really proud of our young team for just hanging in there. [Rice] really turned the momentum in sets three and four. I thought we came out in set five, and we weren't more aggressive than them, we just met them in terms of aggressiveness and it was anybody's match heading into that last set."

With the five-set victory, WKU improved to 26-1 overall and 12-0 in Conference USA play. Sunday's win in Houston snapped Rice's 20-match home win streak, which ranked as the third-longest mark in the nation. WKU has now ended three of the NCAA's top-10 longest home win streaks.

No. 17 Rice moved to 22-2 with the loss and is now 11-1 in league play. The Lady Toppers' win snapped the Owls 13-match win streak.

"I think when everybody looked at this matchup and saw it coming; it was fitting that it went five, it was fitting that it was 16-14," Hudson said of the five-set battle. "If we play them 10 times, we're probably going to each win five of them. It's two very good teams. But, our young kids just have a specialness about them. They're not going to back down. Even in sets three and four when Rice put it to us pretty good, we didn't stop playing, Rice just really raised their level. So, I think it was a great showcase for Conference USA volleyball, and I hope that both of us can put that on display again as we move forward into December."

Rice scored the first point of the day but WKU would be the first to double digits breaking a 9-9 tie in the opening frame. WKU worked out to a 16-13 lead to force the hosts to call a timeout before Rice knotted the score at 17-17. From there, the Lady Toppers would push ahead to a 20-18 advantage and force the Owls' second timeout. The Red and White finished strong, taking the opening frame 25-20, after scoring six of the final eight points.

In set two, Rice was the first into double digits with a two point lead before the Owls pushed their advantage to three at 13-10. At that point, WKU used a 4-0 run to take the lead. The Tops forced a Rice timeout at 17-15 and the Owls would knot the match back up at 17-17 and again at 20-20. From there, Cerino struck for her eighth kill of the day before a Rice attack error gave WKU the 22-20 lead. Following the Owls' second timeout, Cerino struck for another ace as WKU would close the set on a 3-1 run for the 25-21 victory.

Out of the break, Rice would win its first set of the day with a 25-19 third-frame victory. WKU called for timeouts trailing 9-6 and 13-8 before the Owls pushed all the way out to a 17-9 advantage. The Red and White battled back and pulled within five at 19-14 and fought off a pair of set points before the Owls would claim the frame.

In the first set that did not see any ties or lead changes, Rice would lead wire to wire in the fourth frame. The Owls would ultimately claim the set 25-18 on .410 hitting in the frame.

Fifth-set action from the Tudor Fieldhouse did not disappoint. After Matthews struck for the Tops' first three points and a 3-2 WKU lead, Rice battled back and owned an 8-5 advantage when the teams switched sides. From there, the sides traded points before WKU went on a 3-0 run to knot the match at 9-9 and force a Rice timeout. The Owls called their second timeout trailing 12-11 and responded with back-to-back points out of the break forcing an immediate WKU stoppage. At that point, WKU scored four of the final five points with two kills from Briggs and a match-ending strike from Cerino for the 16-14 final margin.

HUDSON ON THE SPREAD OUT ATTACK:
"That's what we've been fighting for all year is to be a complete team. There's been nights when maybe Lauren Matthews has carried us or Paige [Briggs] has carried us, but you don't get to an elite level with one or two players. Tonight, it was different kids at different times, and we needed every bit of it."

TOPPER NOTES:

- First time meeting a fellow ranked conference opponent in program history as Rice ranked 17th and WKU was 22nd. The Owls are the second top-25 ranked team WKU has faced this season after suffering a 3-1 loss at No. 24 Louisville on Sept. 6.
- Sunday's win over No. 17 Rice was WKU's first win over a top-25 team since Sept. 15, 2017 at No. 25 Ohio State. WKU is now 7-17 all-time playing against ranked opponents.
- WKU is now 6-3 all-time against Rice.
- WKU is now 3-0 in five-set matches this season.
- Nadia Dieudonne registered her sixth double double of the season with 60 assists and 16 digs. She added five kills, four blocks and an ace.
- Lauren Matthews finished with 17 kills on .314 (17-6-35) hitting including five kills in the fifth set. She added six blocks and a dig.
- Sophia Cerino tallied a season-high 16 kills on .424 hitting to go along with three blocks, three digs and three aces.
- Paige Briggs tallied 11 kills and 10 digs for her 13th double double of the season.
- Kayland Jackson was WKU's fourth hitter in double digits with 10 kills.
- Logan Kael racked up a season-high 22 digs to lead three Tops into double digits in the category. Dieudonne finished with 16 and Briggs added 10.

NEXT TIME OUT:
WKU returns home to close out the regular-season with Louisiana Tech and UAB visiting The Hill this week. The Lady Toppers will take on the Lady Techsters Thursday night in Diddle Arena before hosting Senior Day on Saturday when UAB comes to town.

BRIGGS, DIEUDONNE & MATTHEWS REEL IN C-USA AWARDS

DALLAS – Following its toughest road trip of the season, No. 19 WKU Volleyball saw a trio of Lady Toppers recognized by Conference USA for their performances that helped the squad to a perfect 2-0 weekend in Texas. Lauren Matthews was tabbed Co-Offensive Player of the Week while Nadia Dieudonne and Paige Briggs collected Setter and Freshman of the Week nods, respectively.

Over the weekend, WKU faced the tall task of visiting the first and third place teams in the conference standings not to mention both matches marking senior nights for the Lady Toppers' opponents. Friday night, the Tops earned a four-set win over the Mean Green in front of a packed North Texas Volleyball Center. On Sunday, then No. 22 WKU visited No. 17 Rice for the first top-25 matchup against a conference opponent in program history, returning home to Bowling Green as the lone unbeaten team in Conference USA play after knocking off the Owls.

With those victories, WKU has now won an NCAA-best 26 matches and has grown its win streak to 22-consecutive contests – the second longest stretch in the country. The Lady Toppers are now 26-1 on the season and a perfect 12-0 in C-USA play.

Matthews operated at the next level even by her standards as WKU Volleyball took down third-place North Texas and fellow first-place standing Rice on their home courts across Week 11. Matthews delivered a 19-kill, six-block effort as WKU spoiled North Texas' Senior Night with a 3-1 victory. The sophomore worked at a scorching .516 clip to boost her NCAA-best hitting percentage. On Sunday, WKU got the final say in a battle of top-25 conference opponents and when it all came down to the fifth set, Lauren Matthews delivered. The Indianapolis, Ind., native tallied five kills and a block assist in the fifth set alone to bring her stat line to 17 kills, six blocks and a .314 hitting clip on the day. Across the weekend, Matthews averaged 4.00 kills per set and 1.33 blocks per. She averaged a .409 hitting clip in WKU's wins over two of the league's best squads.

Dieudonne guided No. 22 WKU to a pair of weekend victories in enemy territory as the Tops downed North Texas and No. 17 Rice. The junior transfer setter facilitated the offense to a .311 clip. Dieudonne delivered 50 assists with 48.1 percent of her sets finding the floor for kills in Friday's four-set win at North Texas. On Sunday, the Louisville, Ky., native found another gear and registered 60 assists and 16 digs for her sixth double double of the season. As if that wasn't enough, Dieudonne racked up four blocks in each of the victories and added eight kills and a .412 hitting clip as well. Across the weekend, the junior averaged 12.22 assists per set, 2.78 digs per set, 0.89 blocks per set and 0.89 kills per set.

Briggs proved she's among the best outside hitters in Conference USA with a pair of outstanding Week 11 performances. Friday night in Denton, Briggs' put on a show with 21 kills on .476 hitting to go along with 11 digs. On Sunday, the rookie would turn in another double-double effort with 11 kills and 10 digs to bring her season total to 13. Briggs operated at a .304 hitting clip while playing every point in WKU's pair of wins. In WKU's upset of No. 17 Rice, Briggs was perfect both in serve-receive and from the service line, helping the Tops snap Rice's 20-match home win streak, which was the third longest stretch in the nation. Briggs averaged 3.56 kills per set, 2.33 digs per set and 3.72 points per set.

With this week's awards, WKU has now collected 18 awards through the first 11 weeks of distribution. Matthews now owns four Offensive Player of the Week nods while Briggs and Dieudonne have each collected six Freshman and Setter of the Week accolades, respectively. Eighteen weekly awards are a new season-high for WKU since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 volleyball campaign, surpassing the previous record of 16 set back in 2017.

WKU will look to clinch at least a share of the C-USA regular season title Thursday night in Diddle Arena as Louisiana Tech comes to town for a 6 p.m. CT tilt. On Saturday, WKU will celebrate its seniors prior to the noon CT first serve. Two wins in the final week of the regular season will clinch the C-USA regular-season title outright for the Lady Toppers.

SHANNON KECK JOINS WKU VOLLEYBALL ON NATIONAL SIGNING DAY

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson has announced the signing of prep standout Shannon Keck, who inked her National Letter of Intent to play for the Lady Toppers on The Hill next fall. A middle hitter from Newark, Ohio, Keck will add even more depth to the lethal WKU offense.

SHANNON KECK // NEWARK, OHIO // NEWARK CATHOLIC H.S. // MIDDLE HITTER

Shannon Keck, a native of Newark, Ohio, played her high school career at Newark Catholic, leading the Green Wave to four-straight league championships. Most recently in 2019, Keck led her squad to an appearance in the OHSAA State Semifinals after Newark Catholic locked up a regional championship.

In her senior campaign, Keck was tabbed the Division IV Player of the Year after the Green Wave won their first district title since 2015 and first in Division IV since 2014. For the second-consecutive season, Keck was tabbed first-team All-District after earning second-team recognition as a sophomore. The WKU signee was also a three-time first-team All-LCL selection. Additionally, Keck earned All-Tournament Team status at the Golden Spike Toledo event three-straight seasons to close her prep career.

As a senior, Keck registered 227 kills while operating at a .346 hitting percentage. Defensively, she tallied 101 blocks to go along with 122 digs across 71 sets played.

Across her career, Keck racked up 773 kills and a .294 hitting clip. She posted 202 solo blocks and 359 total stuffs to go along with 75 aces.

Keck also competed for Newark Catholic's basketball team, earning honorable mention All-District status.

Why she chose WKU – "I chose WKU because it felt different to me; the campus is beautiful and the many academic opportunities are very promising, especially for someone like me who is unsure of their major. Every person I met was very genuine and welcoming, never once did I feel like I didn't belong. For those reasons - and many more - I chose to further my education at Western Kentucky University."

Hudson on Keck – "Shannon brings some much-needed physicality to the team's size. She's a big kid, a big middle that's still fairly inexperienced. I think her best days are ahead of her still; we have a pretty good track record here of developing high-level middle hitters and I certainly think she has the skillset to turn into one of those. Shannon's size and athleticism stood out to us during recruiting but what really impacted us was Shannon Keck the person when we met her. She's a really terrific kid and she'll be a great teammate. Shannon's super coachable and just one of those kids that you know you're going to be glad you have in your gym every day."

NO. 19 WKU LOOKS TO SECURE C-USA REGULAR-SEASON CROWN IN FINAL WEEK

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – No. 19 WKU Volleyball will return to Diddle Arena to close the regular season with two matches on The Hill this weekend as Louisiana Tech and UAB come to town. One win will clinch at least a share of the Conference USA regular season title while two will secure the trophy outright for the Lady Toppers. Thursday and Saturday's matches will both be streamed for free on Facebook Live by HSSN but head coach Travis Hudson has challenged Hilltopper Nation to come out to the contests if at all possible.

"I really want to put a challenge out to Hilltopper Nation," shared Hudson. "These kids have been through a lot in the last 18 months. We dealt with a season last year where we had to overcome so many things and then getting dropped in the first round of the tournament. For them to reestablish who we are and put together the season they have, they deserve to feel the support behind them. I'm challenging you to be in Diddle Arena Thursday night and Saturday. I'm a WKU Basketball fan too, and I've been in Diddle Arena and seen all those seats filled so I know there are enough people that wear the red and white that know their way to Diddle Arena. I've been in this community for a long time and I'm telling you that if you're appreciative, come watch these kids play in their last two matches at home this season. Let them feel the support and love of this great fan base. They've gone out and put their heads down and worked and put a product out there that we all can be very proud of."

Hudson's squad continues to build upon the best start in program history with a 26-1 record. The team hasn't lost a match since Sept. 6 at No. 24 Louisville. In its second go around with a ranked team, the Tops took down No. 17 Rice on its home court in Houston this past Sunday. The contest marked the first-ever meeting between two ranked Conference USA teams. With Sunday's five-set win over the Owls, WKU owns the only unbeaten mark in C-USA with a perfect 12-0 reading.

This week, the Red and White will have the chance to wrap up a perfect season inside Diddle Arena as well, entering the matches with a 13-0 record at home this season. WKU's 15-match home win streak is the seventh longest active stretch in NCAA Volleyball.

Coming to The Hill this weekend are Louisiana Tech and UAB. WKU will face off with the Lady Techsters for the lone meeting this season on Thursday at 6 p.m. CT. LA Tech is 13-13 overall and 3-9 in league play. Tech has picked up its C-USA victories over Southern Miss, FIU and UAB – all in four sets.

Following Saturday's Senior Day ceremony, WKU will host UAB for the second meeting between the sides this season. First serve of the regular-season finale is slated for noon CT. UAB sits at 12-13 on the year and 4-8 in conference play. The Blazers have picked up wins against Middle Tennessee, UTEP, FIU and Southern Miss in league play this season. When the Tops visited Birmingham, Ala., on Oct. 25, WKU left with a 3-0 sweep.

WKU leads the all-time series against Louisiana Tech 13-7, claiming each of the last eight matchups. UAB leads the all-time series against the Lady Toppers 23-11 but WKU has won nine of the last 10 meetings.

Seniors Sophia Cerino and Emma Kowalkowski will be recognized in a pre-match ceremony on Saturday as their impressive careers are honored in front of the home crowd one last time. Both student-athletes have been impactful since their first matches on The Hill back in 2016. Cerino and Kowalkowski have helped WKU to four collective C-USA championships and have the chance to add another one in Diddle Arena this week.

CERINO BREAKS SINGLE-SEASON ACES RECORD; NO. 19 WKU CLINCHES SHARE OF REGULAR-SEASON TITLE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – In front of one of the best crowds the program has ever seen inside Diddle Arena, No. 19 WKU Volleyball clinched at least a share of the 2019 Conference USA regular-season championship with Thursday night's sweep of Louisiana Tech. Sophia Cerino added even more to celebrate as she racked up six aces to break the program's single-season aces record (64) and now owns 69 on the season.

"I'm really, really proud of our kids," head coach Travis Hudson opened. "First of all, thank you to the WKU fanbase, what a great atmosphere for volleyball in Diddle Arena. It's awesome for our players to play in that environment but it really does mean a lot more to me as a head coach. It's what I dreamt of when I took this program over 25 years ago is that Diddle Arena could look like that and feel like that for the game of women's volleyball and these kids are certainly deserving and I'm so appreciative and I hope they come back and bring a friend on Saturday as we try to win this championship outright."

With their 23rd-straight victory, WKU has now matched the second-longest win streak in program history. The Tops now sit at 27-1 overall and remain a perfect 13-0 in Conference USA play.

Louisiana Tech is now 13-14 on the season and 3-10 in league play.

Set one saw the Lady Toppers take a commanding early lead, not giving an inch to Louisiana Tech through the entire set following two early ties. With the Lady Techsters within two at 17-15, WKU locked down the frame with a 7-0 run on the serve of Cerino. In the middle of that run, the lefty recorded her 64th ace of the season to tie the previous single season record set by Cindy Bradley in 1991.

The second set saw three ties and a lead change that occurred on the third point of the frame – an ace by Cerino to break the record. She would follow that up with another one and would finish with four strikes in the second set alone. Louisiana Tech tied the frame back up at 10-10 and 12-12, but a Hallie Shelton service run would push the Tops to a 21-13 advantage. While the Lady Techsters hung around, WKU would ultimately take a 2-0 lead in the match following a block assist from Kayland Jackson and Katie Isenbarger.

"To be honest with you, I didn't even know that was on the line tonight or even possible tonight," Cerino said of the record. "So sitting on the bench and having that announced, I was kinda like shocked like 'whoa', like I didn't even know, but really cool feeling you know, just kind of going through and being able to accomplish that is really something amazing and I never could of dreamed of accomplishing that, coming in this season or to Western in general, but just really excited and that's a really cool milestone so I'm really grateful."

Third-set action featured 11 ties and four lead changes with LA Tech getting out to a 3-0 scoring run early. Neither side owned a lead larger than three until late in the set. Louisiana Tech's final lead came after an ace for a 17-16 advantage. From there, Jackson found the floor for a kill to tie it before Lauren Matthews followed suit for the Hilltopper lead. Out of a Louisiana Tech timeout, Cerino continued to serve for a 5-0 WKU run, giving the hosts a 21-17 lead with her sixth ace of the evening. The Red and White would hold on to claim the frame 25-21 after the Lady Techsters pulled within one at 22-21.

"We were ready to play and we're never really doubting ourselves out there," Dieudonne added. "The game might have its up and downs, obviously, but we're always a team that's ready to bounce back no matter what."

Paige Briggs delivered her 14th double-double performance of the season with 12 kills and 12 digs. She worked at a .400 hitting clip on the night.

Matthews led WKU in kills with 14 on .429 hitting to go along with four blocks. Jackson added eight kills while Cerino chipped in six.

Nadia Dieudonne racked up 36 assists as the Tops worked at a collective .292 hitting clip on the night. The junior setter added six digs, three kills and a block assist.

Jackson and Isenbarger each added a pair of block assists to account for WKU's six blocks on the night.

NEXT TIME OUT:
WKU Volleyball will celebrate its seniors in Saturday's pre-match celebration before first serve goes up against UAB at noon CT. A win on Saturday would secure the Conference USA regular-season championship outright for the Lady Toppers.

SENIOR DAY SWEEP CLINCHES OUTRIGHT REGULAR-SEASON CROWN FOR NO. 19 WKU

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – No. 19 WKU Volleyball sent its seniors out on top in potentially their last-ever match inside Diddle Arena as the squad swept UAB to clinch the Conference USA outright regular-season championship. The Lady Toppers conclude the regular season with a 28-1 overall record and a perfect 14-0 mark in C-USA.

"What a great day, what a great day in Diddle Arena," head coach Travis Hudson shared. "Again, thank you to our fan base for coming out and making it a special environment for our kids. Just so many wonderful things today, sending these two seniors off the right way, winning a championship, finishing undefeated in Diddle Arena for the year. There are not enough words to tell you how proud I am of these two kids and their teammates. It only has a small bit to do with what they've done on the court. They've won because of everything they've done off the court and I'm just really, really proud that they're having this moment."

With its perfect 14-0 record throughout the regular season, WKU posted the fifth undefeated conference regular season record in program history. Two of those perfect records have come in the Conference USA era with the second season being the 2016 campaign. Only one other team in league history had posted an unbeaten regular season prior – Louisville went 13-0 in 2004.

UAB concluded the 2019 campaign with a 12-15 overall record and a 4-10 mark in C-USA.

The Blazers came ready to battle in their final match of the season and ultimately forced 17 ties and 10 lead changes in WKU's NCAA-best 20th sweep of the season. UAB owned a lead at some point in each of the three sets, but a stout defensive effort by the Lady Toppers secured the program's 16th all-time regular season title.

WKU's defense delivered one of its best showings of the season, holding UAB to a .000 hitting clip on the day – the lowest mark a Lady Topper opponent has been held to this season.

Three Lady Toppers finished with double-digit digs including Paige Briggs (13), Logan Kael (11) and Nadia Dieudonne (10). As a unit, WKU out-dug UAB by a 53-38 margin while doubling up the Blazers in blocks, 10-5. Katie Isenbarger matched her career-high with seven stuffs on the day. Sophia Cerino added four, Briggs owned three and Dieudonne and Lauren Matthews each had two.

Dieudonne posted her seventh double double of the season with 24 assists and 10 digs.

Matthews led the Hilltopper offense with 11 kills on .429 hitting. Kayland Jackson added six kills while working at a .385 clip. WKU was limited to a .205 offensive clip on the day by the Blazers.

From the service line, Cerino added four more aces to bring her regular-season total to 73 and her senior week total to 10.

“I don’t know if you’ve seen me at all but I’m holding back tears because I’m just so grateful,” Cerino shared. “Emotions are running high today for me with just a lot of gratitude. I’m super thankful for this team, for this program, for Western, for Hilltopper nation, for everything that this place is about and for everything this program and this team is about. I’m trying to hold back tears but I’m just super grateful to be a part of it all and that’s just kind of coming together today for me emotionally, so I just love it here.”

Fellow senior Emma Kowalkowski registered six digs and numerous top-10 worthy saves and now sits just 11 digs shy of 1,000 on her career.

“I think I’m most proud of our comeback from last year,” Kowalkowski added. “Sophia and I, as well as the entire team, put a lot of work in back in the spring and offseason, trying to go back to our culture and who we are as a team and I’m really proud of us, personally, and of the entire team for regaining that status.”

NEXT TIME OUT:
With the regular season concluded, WKU Volleyball turns its sights to the Conference USA Tournament. Action is slated for Friday-Saturday, Nov. 22-24 from Houston, Texas. WKU will be the No. 1 seed at the Rice-hosted event.

HUDSON ON THE SENIORS:
“One of the things that I love about this match, Senior Day, there’s no way around it, there’s a lot of emotion involved. You start reflecting on everything they’ve been through, these two kids walked in the doors just high school kids, wondering who they were and wondering a lot of things. To watch them grow and develop and certainly the champions on the court they are but even the young women they are off the court is what keeps me doing this. I enjoy these days, I enjoy winning championships but it’s not my favorite part of my job.”

Match 6: Match #3 Winner vs. Match #4 Winner (ESPN+) 2:30 PM

Sunday, November 8 – Final
Match 7: Match #5 Winner vs. Match #6 Winner (ESPN+) 12 PM

WKU is set to take on No. 8 seed Middle Tennessee in the third meeting between the sides this season. WKU won both prior meetings. The Blue Raiders are making their first appearance in the C-USA Tournament since 2013. First serve of the opening act of the postseason tournament is slated for noon CT from Rice's Tudor Fieldhouse.

Since joining Conference USA, WKU has now won the regular season championship in five of six seasons. The 2019 postseason event will mark the third time that the squad has owned the top seed for the C-USA Championships.

All four previous seasons that WKU has won a regular-season C-USA title, the squad has also gone on to claim the league's automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament. From 2014-17, the Lady Toppers earned four-straight berths into the Big Dance.

Current WKU seniors Sophia Cerino and Emma Kowalkowski won the first C-USA Tournament championship of their careers at Rice during the 2016 campaign.

Head coach Travis Hudson has now led his last 22 squads to a conference tournament appearance. Over his 25 seasons as the leader of WKU Volleyball, Hudson has led 23 squads to a postseason appearance. All nine of the program's conference tournament championships have come under Hudson.

BRIGGS EARNS SEVENTH C-USA FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONOR

DALLAS – For the seventh time this season, WKU Volleyball's Paige Briggs has been selected as the Conference USA Freshman of the Week. The Ortonville, Mich., native collected seven of the possible 12 awards of the season as WKU finished with 19 accolades throughout the 2019 campaign.

In the last week, No. 19 WKU Volleyball swept its final two matches of the regular season to finish C-USA play a perfect 14-0 and secure the outright regular season championship. With three-set sweeps over Louisiana Tech and UAB in front of an incredible Diddle Arena crowd, the Lady Toppers added their NCAA-best 19th and 20th sweeps of the season.

With those victories, WKU has now won an NCAA-best 28 matches and has grown its win streak to 24-consecutive contests – the second longest stretch in the country and program history.

Briggs delivered another solid weekend for the Lady Toppers as she posted her 14th double double off the season Thursday night to help WKU knock off a feisty Louisiana Tech squad. The rookie tallied 12 kills and 12 digs before following that up with a 13-dig outing in Saturday's finale against UAB. Briggs struck for 25 weekend digs and 15 combined kills while operating at a .279 clip. In serve-receive, the rookie turned in a 92-percent success rate. Briggs averaged 4.17 digs per set, 2.83 points per set, 2.50 kills per set and 0.50 blocks per set as WKU closed the regular season with a record of 28-1.

With this week's award, WKU finished with 19 awards through the 12 weeks of distribution. Briggs is tied with Rice's Nicole Lennon for the most awards of any sort this season at seven. Nadia Dieudonne finished with six Setter of the Week nods while Lauren Matthews added four Offensive Player of the Week accolades. Sophia Cerino and Logan Kael each brought in a Defensive Player of the Week honor as well.

Nineteen weekly awards are a new season-high for WKU since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 volleyball campaign, surpassing the previous record of 16 set back in 2017.

CERINO EARNS SECOND SELECTION TO C-USA VOLLEYBALL ALL-ACADEMIC TEAM

DALLAS – WKU Volleyball senior Sophia Cerino has earned a spot on the Conference USA Volleyball All-Academic Team for the second time in as many seasons the league office announced Tuesday. The Brentwood, Tenn., native owns a 3.96 GPA while majoring in interior design and fashion merchandising on The Hill.

Cerino is the lone Lady Topper on the list of 11 student-athletes to be recognized but extends WKU's streak to six-straight seasons of seeing a player recognized. Cerino joins Rachel Engle and Jessica Lucas as the trio of WKU representatives to earn a spot on the team multiple seasons in Conference USA. In the program's six seasons in the league, WKU Volleyball has seen eight student-athletes land on the 11-person All-Academic Team.

Honorees were selected based on a combination of their academic and athletic achievements.

The NCAA leader in aces and aces per set in addition to WKU's single-season record holder, Cerino works just as hard in the classroom as she does on the court. The lefty has racked up the academic accolades including three-straight years of earning a spot on the Conference USA Commissioner's Academic Medal list in addition to six-consecutive semesters on WKU's President's List. Cerino's efforts in the classroom have helped WKU Volleyball to three AVCA Team Academic Awards during her time on The Hill as well.

Cerino has started every match for the Red and White this season while racking up 191 kills, 82 digs, 73 aces, 66 blocks and a .240 hitting percentage. Her 73 aces rank 19th on the NCAA's modern-scoring era single-season record list. The senior was a C-USA Preseason All-Conference selection in addition to earning a C-USA Defensive Player of the Week nod as well as being recognized to the WKU Invite All-Tournament Team.

FOUR LADY TOPPERS EARN ALL-CONFERENCE RECOGNITION

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – No. 19 WKU Volleyball saw four Lady Toppers earn All-Conference recognition including three first team selections, Conference USA announced Wednesday. Paige Briggs, Nadia Dieudonne and Lauren Matthews each collected first team recognition while Sophia Cerino landed on the second team for the second-straight season. Briggs also earned a spot on the league's All-Freshman Team.

WKU led Conference USA with three first team honorees while its four total All-Conference nods rank second behind Rice's five. The last time the Lady Topper program earned three first team All-Conference selections was 2017. In six seasons in C-USA, WKU has had a trio of first team nods five times. Across those six seasons, WKU has seen 24 total All-Conference recognitions with 15 being first team.

Collecting two awards, Briggs made an immediate impact for WKU Volleyball and Conference USA took notice. The Ortonville, Mich., native racked up 14 double-double outings across the regular season while being tabbed the C-USA Freshman of the Week seven times. Briggs started all 99 sets for the Tops this season as a six-rotation player and racked up 326 kills and 305 digs across the season while working at a .290 hitting clip. In C-USA matches only, the rookie operated at a .312 hitting clip with 156 kills and 124 digs.

In her first season on The Hill, Dieudonne earned the first All-Conference nod of her collegiate career in the form of a first team selection from Conference USA. The junior setter earned six C-USA Setter of the Week honors while facilitating the Lady Toppers to a collective .299 hitting percentage on the season. Dieudonne registered 1,085 assists through the regular season along with 230 digs, 81 kills and 36 block assists – all of which are career highs for the junior. The Louisville, Ky., native averaged 10.96 assists per set overall and climbs to 11.28 per set in Conference USA matches. Dieudonne posted seven double-double performances during the regular season for the Lady Toppers.

After an All-Freshman Team nod last season, Matthews earned First Team All-Conference status in 2019. The Indianapolis, Ind., native leads Conference USA, and ranks second all of NCAA Volleyball with a .454 hitting percentage this season. In league matches, Matthews worked at a scorching .483 mark. The sophomore posted 399 kills throughout the regular season with 205 coming in C-USA matches. Matthews has also been a force to be reckoned with at the net defensively, tallying 119 blocks for a 1.20 blocks per set average this season. She owns 32 solo blocks and 87 block assists. Matthews was named the C-USA Offensive Player of the Week on four occasions during the regular season after earning a spot on the league's Preseason All-Conference Team back in August.

For the second-straight day, Cerino collected postseason honors from Conference USA after earning a spot on the league's All-Academic Team. The Brentwood, Tenn., native earned Second Team All-Conference recognition and All-Academic Team honors for the second-straight season. The NCAA Volleyball aces and aces per set leader, Cerino has been lethal from the service line striking for 73 aces through the regular season. The senior already owns WKU's single-season ace record and currently sits third on the career list. Cerino has worked at a .240 overall hitting clip this season which improves to a .286 mark in C-USA only matches. She tallied 191 kills through the regular season to go along with 66 blocks. Over the course of the season, Cerino was recognized as a C-USA Preseason All-Conference selection, the league's Defensive Player of the Week (Sept. 9) and a WKU Invite All-Tournament Team honoree.

WKU Volleyball spent the final six weeks of the regular season ranked in the AVCA Coaches Poll after receiving votes for four weeks. The Lady Toppers posted the best regular season win percentage in program history with a 28-1 record (.966) – leading the nation in both wins and win percentage – as well as sweeps with 20. Entering the postseason, WKU rides a 24-match win streak that dates back to its loss at No. 24 Louisville on Sept. 6. The Lady Toppers claimed the C-USA regular season championship for the fifth time in six seasons in the league, posting a perfect 14-0 record.

TOP-SEEDED WKU VOLLEYBALL HEADED FOR C-USA TOURNAMENT IN HOUSTON

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Three and a half months ago, WKU Volleyball was picked to finish third in the 2019 Conference USA Preseason Coaches Poll, collecting just one first place vote. Since then, the nationally-ranked Lady Topper squad has lost just one match while posting the best regular season in program history with a record of 28-1. Additionally, the Red and White went a perfect 14-0 to earn the program's fifth regular season title since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign. Up next for No. 19 WKU is the C-USA Tournament hosted by No. 21 Rice in Houston, Texas, from Nov. 22-24.

2019 C-USA TOURNAMENT SEEDS
No. 1 – No. 19 WKU (28-1; 14-0 C-USA)
No. 2 – No. 21 Rice (24-2; 13-1)
No. 3 – North Texas (16-10; 10-4)
No. 4 – Marshall (18-9; 9-5)
No. 5 – Florida Atlantic (15-10; 9-5)
No. 6 – UTSA (15-12; 8-6)
No. 7 – UTEP (13-14; 6-8)
No. 8 – Middle Tennessee (13-16; 6-8)

WKU will open postseason action with a familiar opponent in No. 8 seeded Middle Tennessee. The Lady Toppers and Blue Raiders met twice in the regular season with a home-and-home series. WKU claimed the matchup in Bowling Green in four sets before picking up one of its NCAA-best 20 sweeps on the return trip to Murfreesboro, Tenn. Middle Tennessee is making its first C-USA Tournament appearance since 2013, the last time a tournament was held without WKU involved. MTSU posted a 13-16 overall record across the season including a 6-8 record in league play.

If WKU is able to take down the Blue Raiders for a third time this year, the Lady Toppers would face the winner of fourth-seeded Marshall (18-9; 9-5 C-USA) and fifth-seeded Florida Atlantic (15-10; 9-5 C-USA). The Tops swept the Thundering Herd inside Diddle Arena after visiting Boca Raton, Fla., and snapping FAU's 21-match home win streak – the second-longest streak in the NCAA – with a four-set victory.

With a semifinal win, WKU would be back in the C-USA Tournament Championship match for the fifth time since joining C-USA. The Lady Toppers have met Rice twice (2014 & 2016), UTSA (2015) and North Texas (2017) in the championship match since joining the league.

On the other side of the bracket, second-seeded Rice (24-2; 13-1 C-USA) is set to take on UTEP (13-14; 6-8 C-USA) while No. 3 North Texas (16-10; 10-4 C-USA) will take on No. 6 UTSA (15-12; 8-6 C-USA).

WKU VOLLEYBALL HAULS IN COACH, FRESHMAN, PLAYER & SETTER OF THE YEAR AWARDS

DALLAS – Awards continue to roll in for WKU Volleyball as the squad collected four of Conference USA's six superlative honors for the 2019 season. The Lady Toppers' trio of first team All-Conference selections all went on to earn individual awards as Paige Briggs was selected as the Freshman of the Year, Nadia Dieudonne earned Setter of the Year recognition and Lauren Matthews brought home Player of the Year honors. Leading the program to one of its best seasons yet, Travis Hudson was voted as the league's Coach of the Year.

WKU is the first team in Conference USA history to win four superlative awards in the same season.

The mastermind behind the No. 19-ranked Lady Topper squad, Hudson, collected the C-USA Coach of the Year award for the third time in six years in the league. He now owns eight conference Coach of the Year laurels across his 25 seasons at the helm. After the team was predicted to finish third in the league's preseason poll, Hudson led WKU to a 28-1 regular season record and perfect 14-0 record in C-USA contests as the Tops won their fifth championship in six years.

Two of the three WKU student-athletes to earn superlative awards are in their first season as a Lady Topper.

Briggs, Conference USA's 2019 Freshman of the Year, made an immediate impact for the Lady Toppers and made her presence felt on the conference scene as well, claiming three of the first four Freshman of the Week accolades. She went on to finish the season even stronger, winning four of the final five honors. The Ortonville, Mich., native posted 14 double-double performances across the season, including one at both No. 17 Rice and No. 24 Louisville. Briggs started all 99 sets for the Tops this season as a six-rotation player and racked up 326 kills and 305 digs across the season while working at a .290 hitting clip. In C-USA matches only, the rookie operated at a .312 hitting clip with 156 kills and 124 digs.

Also in her first season as a Lady Topper, junior setter Dieudonne was named the C-USA Setter of the Year. Before her first team All-Conference honor a day prior, the Louisville, Ky., native had not earned a collegiate postseason honor. Dieudonne racked up eight double doubles for WKU including the rare 20-20 feat in her first-ever match as a Lady Topper. Throughout the regular season, the offensive facilitator earned half of C-USA's Setter of the Week awards with six honors. Dieudonne led the squad to a collective .299 hitting percentage on the season, which ranks third in all of NCAA. Dieudonne registered 1,085 assists through the regular season along with 230 digs, 81 kills and 36 block assists – all of which are career highs for the junior. The Louisville, Ky., native averaged 10.96 assists per set overall and climbs to 11.28 per set in Conference USA matches.

In just her second season on The Hill, Matthews was selected as the Conference USA Player of the Year. The Indianapolis, Ind., native spent nearly a month leading all of NCAA Volleyball in hitting percentage and ranks second with a .454 clip entering the postseason. Throughout the course of the season, Matthews earned four of the league's Offensive Player of the Week honors in addition to setting WKU's single-match hitting percentage record at .882. In league matches, Matthews worked at a scorching .483 mark. The sophomore posted 399 kills throughout the regular season with 205 coming in C-USA matches. Matthews has also been a force to be reckoned with at the net defensively, tallying 119 blocks for a 1.20 blocks per set average this season. She owns 32 solo blocks (10th on WKU's single season list) and 87 block assists.

Briggs is the third freshman in WKU history to earn C-USA Freshman of the Year honors, joining Alyssa Cavanaugh (2014) and Rachel Anderson (2015). Dieudonne collects the fourth C-USA Setter of the Year honor for the Tops, joining Jessica Lucas – a three-time honoree (2015, '16, '17). Matthews marks the second Lady Topper to earn C-USA's Player of the Year nod, and the third overall selection as Cavanaugh won the award in both 2016 and '17. The 2019 awards mark the third time in program history that WKU has had both the Player of the Year and Setter of the Year in the same season.

WKU Volleyball spent the final six weeks of the regular season ranked in the AVCA Coaches Poll after receiving votes for four weeks. The Lady Toppers posted the best regular season win percentage in program history with a 28-1 record (.966) – leading the nation in both wins and win percentage – as well as sweeps with 20. Entering the postseason, WKU rides a 24-match win streak that dates back to its loss at No. 24 Louisville on Sept. 6. The Lady Toppers claimed the C-USA regular season championship for the fifth time in six seasons in the league, posting a perfect 14-0 record.

TOPS USE SEASON-BEST HITTING CLIP TO SWEEP BLUE RAIDERS IN TOURNAMENT OPENER

HOUSTON – No. 19 WKU Volleyball matched the longest win streak in program history as Friday's Conference USA Tournament sweep of Middle Tennessee extended the Lady Toppers' stretch to 25-consecutive matches. The top-seeded Red and White operated at a season-best .486 hitting percentage to take down the Blue Raiders for the third time this season.

"This was a really complete effort by our team," head coach Travis Hudson opened. "In the first round of the tournament, there's always jitters and that level of excitement and with us being such a young team, you don't know what you're going to get. There was a calm to our lockerroom before the match, and at that point I didn't know if it was flat or locked in and certainly it appears it was locked in because we played really, really well today."

With Friday afternoon's victory, WKU improves to 29-1 on the 2019 campaign. The squad continues to lead the NCAA in victories (29), win percentage (.967) and sweeps (21).

"I think we came in ready to be challenged," Nadia Dieudonne shared. "Being the first seed, we're really expecting for everyone to play their best against us."

Eighth-seeded Middle Tennessee made its first postseason appearance since the 2013 campaign – the last season prior to WKU joining Conference USA. The Blue Raiders closed the season with a 13-17 overall record.

"A big part of our offensive success today is this kid sitting to the right of me (Dieudonne)," Hudson continued. "Nadia is one of the best setters in the country in my opinion. We're third in the nation in hitting percentage and she has her hands all over that. There are a lot of pieces that make that work; our first contact was really good, we have a lot of great ballhandlers. We had great balance as well, if you look at the statsheet, we were getting production from everywhere and those are three very critical components to playing offense at a high level and that's what we did today."

WKU opened tournament action from Tudor Fieldhouse with a quick 5-0 lead thanks to a Lauren Matthews kill and the serving of Sophia Cerino. From there, WKU was the first to double digits with a 10-5 lead. The Lady Toppers worked ahead to a 17-12 advantage and would score eight of the final 10 points in the set for a final 25-14 margin of victory in the opening frame. WKU operated at a .556 hitting clip in the first set.

After the Blue Raiders opened the second frame with a 3-1 lead, WKU scored eight of the next nine points for a 9-5 lead and never looked back. Middle Tennessee pulled back with four at 17-13 but a Blue Raider service error followed by a Logan Kael run, pushed WKU out to a double-digit advantage at 24-13. Two points later, a Katie Isenbarger kill gave WKU anther 25-14 victory for a 2-0 lead in the match.

Out of the break, Matthews put WKU on the board first with a kill but Middle Tennessee would work out to a 9-7 lead. At that point, the Lady Toppers went on an 8-0 run, which extended to 11-1 to turn the tables and take a 18-10 lead in the final frame. During the Hallie Shelton serving run, the Lady Toppers notched seven kills and a block. Following MTSU's final timeout at 18-10, the Blue Raiders tallied a kill but WKU kept its foot on the gas for a 25-15 third-set win.

TOPPER NOTES:

- WKU is now 50-16 all-time against Middle Tennessee and 3-0 against the Blue Raiders this season.
- Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, the Lady Toppers are now 13-1 in the league's postseason tournament.
- The Lady Toppers have now won 25-straight matches with today's win over Middle Tennessee – matching the program record for consecutive victories. WKU's 2012 squad set the record at 25 matches.
- WKU operated at a season-best .486 hitting percentage with 42 kills against just six attacks on 74 swings. The Lady Toppers have now hit .400 or better on three occasions this season.
- Five WKU players worked at a .571 rate or better in the win, including: Matthews (.588), Briggs (.571), Cerino (.571), Isenbarger (.714) and Dieudonne (.667).
- Paige Briggs led the way for WKU with 14 kills on .571 hitting. The rookie added two blocks, an ace and an assist.
- Lauren Matthews struck for double-digit kills for the 17th-straight match, tallying 10.
- Emma Kowalkowski led the Lady Toppers with 10 digs and is just one shy of 1,000 on her career. The senior added a season-high three assists.
- Nadia Dieudonne racked up 30 assists, four digs, four kills and a .667 (4-0-6) attack rate.
- Sophia Cerino added two more aces and now owns 75 on the season. That mark puts the senior in a tie for 16th most in the NCAA in the current scoring format (2008-present).

BALANCED ATTACK LEADS TOPS TO CHAMPIONSHIP, SCHOOL RECORD 26TH-STRAIGHT WIN

HOUSTON – WKU Volleyball secured itself a spot in the 2019 Conference USA Tournament Championship with sweeps on back-to-back days after Saturday's NCAA-best 22nd three-set win from Tudor Fieldhouse. The 19th-ranked Lady Toppers picked up their 30th win of the season with a 25-20, 25-20, 25-18 win over fifth-seeded Florida Atlantic.

"I'm really, really proud of the effort we put out there today," head coach Travis Hudson opened. "Florida Atlantic is such a talented offensive team. From an offensive standpoint, they gave us more problems during the regular season than anybody else on our schedule and they were tough again today. It wasn't until that third set that they cooled off a bit. This was a real display of why we've had the year that we've had; we showed we can win in a lot of ways. We were really good offensively and served the ball really well as well and I'm really happy to be back in the championship."

With Saturday's win – and fourth-consecutive sweep – WKU Volleyball secured the 11th 30-win season in program history and ninth under Hudson. WKU has put up 30 or more wins in seven of the last nine seasons. WKU is now 30-1 on the season while Florida Atlantic closes the season with a 16-11 record.

The regular-season meeting between WKU and Florida Atlantic was an offensive shootout, but a solid defensive effort saw the Lady Toppers hold FAU to a .167 hitting clip in its first tournament semifinal match since 2005.

"This a team that has been a little bit strange to coach," Hudson continued "They walk through this team like a bunch of veterans even though we're a really young team. We haven't had a talk a ton about preparation or keeping themselves ready. These kids are competitors and they've enjoyed the challenge of being ready every day."

WKU's offense turned in another scorching effort, posting a .419 clip to work above a .400 rate for back-to-back days.

After a Florida Atlantic service error put WKU on the board first in Saturday's semifinal match, Sophia Cerino struck for her first ace against the Owls this season. FAU owned a slim 5-4 lead before WKU scored three-straight and seven of the next eight for an 11-6 lead it would not relinquish. The Lady Toppers pushed ahead to a 23-15 advantage before Florida Atlantic battled back within four at 23-19. Kills by Kayland Jackson and Lauren Matthews would seal the 25-20 opening-frame victory for the Tops.

Florida Atlantic struck for the opening point of the second set but WKU responded with a 5-0 run capped by another Cerino ace. The Lady Toppers pushed ahead to a 12-8 advantage before the Owls pulled back within one on a trio of occasions following a timeout. Up 18-17, WKU scored seven of the frame's final 10 points to post another 25-20 win and take a 2-0 lead in the match.

Out of the break, Florida Atlantic struck for the opening point again before Cerino put the Tops on the board with a kill. From there, the sides traded points to a 6-6 tie before a Paige Briggs kill gave WKU a 7-6 advantage and the lead for good. The Owls called their first timeout trailing 13-9 and after seeing its lead slim to one at 14-13, WKU used a 3-0 run to push out to a 17-13 lead and force a second FAU stop. Florida Atlantic slimmed its deficit to two one last time at 17-15 before the Red and White took a 20-15 lead. Matthews and Cerino teamed up for a block assist to secure the 25-18 third-set victory.

Nadia Dieudonne racked up 39 assists in the sweep to go along with five digs, two blocks and a kill while facilitating the WKU offense to its fourth .400+ offensive mark this season.

"Yesterday was not my best day so today I really wanted to come out and make an impact for my team," Kayland Jackson shared. "Nadia [Dieudonne] was doing a fantastic job of setting the ball and moving it around. We were really flying around, making good digs to get her in a good position so that's just a whole team effort."

WKU will face the winner of second-seeded Rice and sixth-seeded UTSA in the C-USA Tournament Championship. First serve will go up at noon CT from Tudor Fieldhouse on Sunday.

TOPPER NOTES:

- WKU is now 25-0 all-time against Florida Atlantic and 2-0 against the Owls this season. The Lady Toppers and Florida Atlantic have met twice in C-USA Tournament play with WKU sweeping both decisions.
- Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, the Lady Toppers are now 14-1 in the league's postseason tournament.
- With a 30-1 overall record, WKU Volleyball secured the 11th 30-win season in program history and ninth under Travis Hudson. The Lady Toppers have won 30 or more matches in seven of the last nine seasons.
- The Lady Toppers have now won a program-record 26-straight matches with today's win over Florida Atlantic – surpassing the 2012 squad's previous mark of 25 matches.
- As a team, WKU operated at a .419 hitting clip with five hitters working at a .300 attack rate or better. Kayland Jackson (.533, 10 kills), Lauren Matthews (.522, 14 kills), Sophia Cerino (.462, seven kills), Katie Isenbarger (.400, five kills) and Paige Briggs (.312, seven kills) delivered the balanced WKU attack.
- Sophia Cerino added two more aces and now owns 77 on the season. She already owns the program's single-season record and sits in third on WKU's career list, two aces shy of tying Melissa Starck for second at 176. Her 77 aces on the season put the senior in a tie for 15th most in the NCAA in the current scoring format (2008-present).
- With her first dig of the match, senior Emma Kowalkowski secured the 1,000th dig of her career. She is the 16th Lady Topper in program history to achieve the milestone.
- Lauren Matthews led WKU with double-digit kills for the 18th-straight match, recording a team-high 14 while operating at a .522 clip. The sophomore added five blocks – two solo. Matthews' 34 solo blocks are tied for seventh on WKU's single-season list.

ALL-AROUND EFFORT LEADS NO. 19 WKU TO C-USA TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONSHIP WIN

HOUSTON – No. 19 WKU Volleyball saw five different Lady Toppers record double-digit kills while four players registered double-digit digs in one of the squad's best all-around effort of the season en route to the 2019 Conference USA Tournament Championship win at No. 21 Rice on Sunday.

"This was another unbelievable match against Rice; what a showcase for Conference USA," head coach Travis Hudson opened. "I wonder if we play them 10 times, if we wouldn't end up in a fifth set every time. Our kids went out there and made plays at the end to get us over the top. This was two terrific teams going at it with neither one backing down."

Lauren Matthews hit .541 across the three-day outing and brought home C-USA Tournament MVP honors for her efforts. Nadia Dieudonne, Sophia Cerino and Paige Briggs all joined Matthews on the All-Tournament Team. The 2019 recognition was a career first for all four Lady Toppers.

"Every single one of them earned that recognition," Hudson said of the four All-Tournament honorees. "What I like is that they all do things beyond what shows up offensively. Lauren Matthews is leading the NCAA in hitting percentage, but I thought her impact in this match came from blocking and certainly ending the match with a block."

WKU sits at 31-1 with its 27th-consecutive win while Rice owns a 26-3 record with two losses to the Tops.

"In January this squad decided they wanted to be special. Every step along the way, they've bought into what we're doing and being a part of our culture," Hudson stated. "This is special because it's all been earned. It's special because we've fought together and it produced a pretty amazing season."

The Lady Toppers went out and delivered an all-around championship effort. Offensively, the Red and White worked at a .306 hitting clip while holding Rice to a .230 mark.

"We knew coming in that this game was going to be a challenge," Lauren Matthews shared. "We knew we'd need to stay the course, do what we were told, go through our progressions and just stay locked in during the game."
Championship play opened with a 4-0 Rice run before WKU rallied right back with a 5-0 run of its own. The Owls were the first to reach double digits with a 10-8 advantage but the Lady Toppers would push out to a 15-13 lead and the media timeout and led the rest of the way to a 25-17 first-set win. In the opening frame, WKU operated at a .357 hitting percentage while holding Rice to a .028 clip. The Lady Toppers racked up six blocks and three aces in the opening set alone.

After WKU scored the opening point of the second set on a Sophia Cerino kill, Rice worked out to a lead and never looked back en route to a 25-18 win to even the match at 1-1. The Owls were the first to double digits, sparking the first Lady Topper called timeout of the tournament. WKU made a late push to force a Rice timeout at 22-18 but the Owls closed the set on a 3-0 run. The Red and White were limited to a .121 hitting mark in the frame while Rice operated at a .269 rate.

Rice's second-set win, ended a stretch of 14-consecutive sets won by WKU, dating back to the last time the sides met.

Trailing 15-14 at the third-set media timeout, WKU would tie the score up out of the stop. Rice worked ahead and was the first to 20 and the Lady Toppers called a timeout trailing 22-20. Out of the break, Briggs struck for a pair of kills and an ace to help the Tops tie the score at 23-23 and force a Rice timeout. After fending off three Owl set points, WKU prevailed in a 29-27 thriller to take a 2-1 lead in the match. The frame saw 22 ties and 10 lead changes while the WKU offense racked up 25 kills.

Set four was just as suspenseful, with 12 ties and four lead changes. After Rice pulled within one at 21-20, WKU scored three of the next four points for a 24-21 lead. It was all Owls from there, though, as the hosts closed the set on a 5-0 run to force a decisive fifth set.

Needing another fifth set to decide a winner between the league's top two teams, WKU recorded back-to-back kills after Rice struck first and never trailed again. The Owls knotted the match at 4-4 before a Briggs' kill sent WKU on a 3-0 run to force a Rice timeout. The Lady Toppers owned an 8-5 lead at the switch, the same lead Rice owned in the regular-season matchup. The Owls kept the margin at three as WKU pushed ahead to a 9-6 lead. A Dieudonne kill followed by a Rice attack error gave the Tops a 12-7 lead to force Rice's final timeout. Out of the break WKU pushed to a 13-9 advantage before Matthews registered a kill to set up match point and a block to secure the championship.

"I think we were pretty relaxed in that final set," Matthews added. "We knew we just needed to stay locked in and stay playing together and keep doing what we were doing because both teams were playing great."

WKU Volleyball will learn its NCAA Tournament fate during the selection show on Dec. 1 at 7:30 p.m. CT. The show will air on ESPNU.

TOPPER NOTES:

- WKU is now 7-3 all-time against Rice and 2-0 against the Owls this season. The Lady Toppers and Rice have met three times in C-USA Tournament play – all in the championship match – with WKU claiming all three decisions.
- Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, the Lady Toppers are now 15-1 in the league's postseason tournament.
- WKU Volleyball has now won five of six possible regular season and tournament championships since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign.
- With a 31-1 overall record, WKU Volleyball secured the 11th 30-win season in program history and ninth under Travis Hudson. The Lady Toppers have won 30 or more matches in seven of the last nine seasons.
- The Lady Toppers are now 2-1 against top-25 ranked teams this season, with both wins coming over Rice.

- WKU has now won a program-record 27-straight matches with today's win over No. 21 Rice – after surpassing the 2012 squad's previous mark of 25 matches yesterday.
- Sophia Cerino added four more aces and now owns 81 on the season. She already owns the program's single-season record and sits in second on WKU's career list, two aces past Melissa Starck for second at 176. Her 81 aces on the season put the senior in a tie for 10th most in the NCAA in the current scoring format (2008-present).
- Lauren Matthews led WKU with double-digit kills for the 19th-straight match, recording a team-high 21 kills.
- Five different Lady Toppers registered double-digit kills with Matthews leading the way at 21. Sophia Cerino (12), Paige Briggs (11), Katie Isenbarger (11) and Kayland Jackson (10) all joined in the effort. The Championship match was the first time in 2019 that five different Lady Toppers recorded double-digit kills
- Additionally, four Lady Toppers recorded double digit digs led by Nadia Dieudonne's 15. Logan Kael (13), Paige Briggs (11) and Emma Kowalkowski (11).
- Paige Briggs tallied her 15th double double outing of the season with 11 kills and 11 digs.
- Nadia Dieudonne racked up a career-best 61 assists and 15 digs for her eighth double double of the season.

NCAA VOLLEYBALL SELECTION SHOW WATCH PARTY ANNOUNCED

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – After securing its fifth automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament since joining Conference USA six years ago, WKU Volleyball is excited to announce that this year's NCAA Selection Show Watch party will take place at Roosters (247 Three Springs Road) on Sunday, Dec. 1. Fans are welcome to join the team for the 7:30 p.m. CT show on ESPNU from the Bowling Green establishment.

A limited number of WKU Volleyball NCAA Tournament posters will be available on site in addition to 2019 team promotional items and championship trophies.

Seats will be limited so fans are encouraged to arrive early to secure a table.

With three wins last weekend, Travis Hudson and company have posted their fifth 30-win campaign over the last six seasons, now owning a 31-1 mark on the season. The Red and White finished with the most wins at home since 2017 as well, going 15-0 inside Diddle Arena. The unblemished mark is the sixth time in WKU Volleyball history that a team has finished undefeated at home for an entire season.

WKU Volleyball has now advanced to the NCAA Tournament eight of the past 10 seasons. In total, Hudson has led the program to 12 appearances in The Dance, 10 by automatic bids.

First and second round play of the 2019 NCAA Tournament will take place either Thursday and Friday, Dec. 5 and 6, or Friday and Saturday, Dec. 6 and 7. In total, 16 non-predetermined campuses will host the opening rounds of The Dance before the field narrows to just four hosts the following week. The NCAA Semifinals and Finals will take place in Pittsburgh, Pa., on Thursday, Dec. 19, and Saturday, Dec. 21.

TOP-25 DEBUT

After four weeks of receiving votes, WKU Volleyball finally broke into the AVCA Week 7 Coaches Poll, announced on Monday, Oct. 14. The Lady Toppers debuted in the poll at No. 24 after pushing their winning streak to 15 and climbing to 19-1 overall. A week later, the Tops moved up to No. 23 after becoming the nation's first 20-win team of the season. The Oct. 28 Poll kept the Tops at No. 23, marking the team's third-straight week of being ranked. After another win, WKU climbed to No. 22 in the most recent poll. WKU has now appeared in the top 25 eight of the last nine seasons.

LONE STAR STATE SHOWDOWN

WKU heads south for its toughest road trip of the season in a battle of the top three teams in Conference USA. Friday night, the Tops will return to the North Texas Volleyball Center and look to avenge the program's 2017 five-set loss there. Sunday, No. 22 WKU and No. 17 Rice will meet in Houston for the team's first time playing a top-25 ranked conference foe.

RECEIVING VOTES

After picking up its second Power Five win of the season and winning the Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite against a stacked tournament field, WKU Volleyball received votes in the Week 3 American Volleyball Coaches Association Poll. The Lady Toppers entered the rankings at 36th overall in the poll, joining [RV] Rice (31st) from Conference USA. WKU received nine votes in the poll while the Owls posted 21. In its fourth week of receiving votes, WKU moved all the way up to 26th in the poll while Rice held steady in the top-25 ranks.

WKU Volleyball has now received votes in 10-consecutive seasons in the AVCA Coaches Poll, dating back to the 2011 campaign. Last season, 2018, marked the lone season in that span that the Red and White never broke into the top-25 ranks.

TOURNAMENT WINS

Over the course of the first month of the season, WKU Volleyball won three tournament crowns after a trio of 3-0 showings in the Toledo Blue & Gold Invite, the Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite and WKU Volleyball Invite. The first weekend, the Tops downed Loyola - Chicago, Toledo and North Dakota State before taking care of Bowling Green, Ohio State and Tulane during the third weekend. Most recently, WKU downed Northern Kentucky in a five-set win before sweeping Tulsa and Samford to close the weekend.

NATIONAL LEADERS

Following an 18-ace weekend at the WKU Volleyball Invite, senior Sophia Cerino jumped from fifth to first in the NCAA rankings and to lead the country in aces and aces per set. Over six weeks later, Cerino remains at the top of the ranks. Her 57 aces through the first 10 weeks of the year put Cerino at a 0.70 aces per set average. She's tallied four or more aces in eight matches this year.

Lauren Matthews joined her teammate at the top of the NCAA Volleyball stats as the sophomore middle hitter leads the country in hitting percentage at .461. That mark currently sits .003 above the WKU single season record set by Paige Wessel in 2013.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

1st — Cerino's 0.70 aces/set lead the NCAA

1st — Matthews' .461 hitting % leads the NCAA

15 — C-USA Players of the Week after 10 weeks of awards

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 13-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then, Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

Harlie is now a Lady Topper. At every home match, she is with the team in the huddle and at introductions while she cheers with her family from the sidelines. The team's secret weapon, she is a constant reminder to the WKU student-athletes and coaching staff to keep fighting no matter what stands in the way.

For more information about Harlie and her journey, visit HOPEFORHARLIE.ORG and follow on Twitter via @HOPEFORHARLIE.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

POWER FIVE WINS

Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU Volleyball is now 12-10 against Power Five opponents.

WKU Volleyball is now 2-0 all-time against Arizona State and 3-6 all-time against Pac-12 programs (3-3 in last six meetings).

Additionally, on the first day of Louisville's Fleur de Lis Tournament, WKU faced off against Arizona State and No. 24 Louisville, marking the first time since 2013 that the Red and White faced two Power Five opponents in the same day. WKU has met two Power Five squads on the same day a total of five times in program history, splitting the day four times and sweeping the day once (2012).

Most recently, WKU downed Ohio State out of the Big Ten in a 3-0 sweep on Friday night of the Lady Toppers' Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite. The Red and White swept the Buckeyes in the second-straight meeting, taking a decision on each team's home court.

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 20 seasons (2000-19), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 20 seasons. During the last 20-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

IT'S LONELY AT THE TOP

WKU Volleyball leads the NCAA in numerous categories including sweeps and wins. WKU is tied for the most sweeps in the nation with 18 and its 43 total wins are tied for the most as well. The Red and White's 20-straight wins is the second-longest active streak.

TOUGH SERVING

In WKU Volleyball's four-set win over Arizona State, Cerino sliced up the Sun Devils' serve-receive, striking for eight aces in the match. The mark ties her for the third-most ever recorded in a single match.

During Cerino's dominant showing against ASU, the senior took WKU on numerous scoring runs, including one of nine-straight serves, keeping the Sun Devils out of their offensive system. She tossed up 29 serves across her eight trips to the line in the Power Five win.

COMING OUT HOT

In her first weekend as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) earned the Blue & Gold Tournament's MVP honor. Fellow newcomer Paige Briggs along with Preseason All-Conference selection Lauren Matthews also earned spots on the All-Tournament Team.

WKU began the year with a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with four-straight wins before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

HOT START

With the squad's win over Arizona State to open second-weekend play, the Lady Toppers improved to 4-0 to start the season for the ninth time under Travis Hudson. WKU has won a regular-season or tournament championship all eight previous seasons with such a start.

Since then, the Lady Toppers have jumped out to a 24-1 start, which is the best start in program history. Pages have to be turned back to 2005 to find the second-best start, which saw the team open the year with an 18-1 record.

In her very first match as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay), record WKU's first 20-20 double-double outing since Sept. 16, 2016. The Xavier transfer tallied 54 assists and 20 digs to become the 36th WKU Volleyball player to achieve the feat and the first-ever to do so in the month of August.

PRESEASON C-USA POLL

For the first time since its inaugural season in the league, WKU Volleyball was not voted the C-USA Preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers were predicted to finish second in 2014 before going on to win both the regular season and C-USA tournament titles.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

ANOTHER TOUGH SCHEDULE

After a season filled with highs and lows in 2018, WKU Volleyball is determined to make noise in 2019 and has put together the schedule to do just that.

WKU's 29-match regular season includes three regular season conference champions and two conference tournament champions. Additionally, 15 of WKUs' 2019 opponents notched winning campaigns in 2018.

This year's slate features nine squads that appeared in the 2018 postseason. Kentucky, Louisville, Samford and Rice all appeared in the NCAA Tournament with both of WKU's in-state foes winning at least one game. Bowling Green, Tulane, Northern Kentucky, Tulsa and North Texas all participated in the NIVC.

STRONG AND STEADY

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .741 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

Back on the court days later, Hudson returned to direct his 24th year of volleyball from his alma mater.

NEW FACES

Hudson's squad returned five starters from last year's 20-10 campaign and eight letterwinners total. During the offseason, WKU added a pair of transfers and three freshmen that are set for their Lady Topper debuts.

WKU picked up a pair of junior transfers in Nadia Dieudonne and Logan Kael. Dieudonne made her way back to the Bluegrass State after playing two seasons at Xavier. Hailing from Tennessee, Kael headed back north after playing two seasons at West Florida (DII).

Additionally, the Lady Toppers added a trio of talented freshmen in Paige Briggs, Avri Davis and Jennifer Rush. All three are expected to see action for the Red and White on the offensive side of the ball.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

After the second weekend of play in 2019, Cerino earned her second career weekly award from Conference USA, being recognized as the league's Defensive Player of the Week.

Following the 2018-19 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 13th consecutive season as the Lady Toppers finished the campaign with a 3.46 team GPA. The honor marks the 17th time a Lady Topper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

In total, 189 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of eight Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, FIU, Middle Tennessee, Rice, Southern Miss, UTEP and UTSA in addition to the Red and White.

THE LAST FOUR YEARS

Across the last four seasons (2015-18) on The Hill, WKU Volleyball sported a 113-21 record that included six collective Conference USA Championships. The Lady Toppers went 53-5 in C-USA regular season play during that span. In three NCAA Tournament appearances the squad posted a 2-3 record.

BACK IN THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

"I BELIEVE IN ALYSSA CAVANAUGH"

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Lady Toppers to 123 wins but her 124th will be her biggest yet.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant and less than six weeks later on March 20 would finally be discharged from the hospital. The family would stay in Cincinnati through May when Alyssa would finally be able to go home.

Cavanaugh continues to recover from the transplant. While the process has had its ups and downs, anyone that knows her knows she's a fighter up for the challenge.

NOTES

SHOWDOWN IN HOUSTON

In the first-ever meeting between a pair of top-25 teams in Conference USA history, No. 22 WKU came out on top of No. 17 in a five-set battle from Tudor Fieldhouse. After WKU took a 2-0 lead in the match, Rice battled back to force a decisive fifth set. Despite the Lady Toppers trailing 9-6, WKU battled back and claimed the set 16-14. The match marked the second time in program history that WKU faced off against a ranked conference opponent.

TOP-25 RANKINGS

After four weeks of receiving votes, WKU Volleyball finally broke into the AVCA Week 7 Coaches Poll, announced on Monday, Oct. 14. The Lady Toppers debuted in the poll at No. 24 after pushing their winning streak to 15 and climbing to 19-1 overall. A week later, the Tops moved up to No. 23 after becoming the nation's first 20-win team of the season. The Oct. 28 Poll kept the Tops at No. 23, marking the team's third-straight week of being ranked. After another win, WKU climbed to No. 22 before earning the No. 19 slot following the Nov. 10 win at No. 17 Rice. WKU has now appeared in the top 25 eight of the last nine seasons.

ALL-TIME VS. RANKED TEAMS

Following the Nov. 10 win at No. 17 Rice, WKU is now 1-1 on the 2019 season against top-25 opposition. The squad's lone loss came to No. 24 Louisville on Sept. 6. WKU is now 8-18 all-time when facing a top-25 squad including a 7-10 mark since the beginning of the 2012 campaign.

RECEIVING VOTES

After picking up its second Power Five win of the season and winning the Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite against a stacked tournament field, WKU Volleyball received votes in the Week 3 American Volleyball Coaches Association Poll. The Lady Toppers entered the rankings at 36th overall in the poll, joining [RV] Rice (31st) from Conference USA. WKU received nine votes in the poll while the Owls posted 21. In its fourth week of receiving votes, WKU moved all the way up to 26th in the poll while Rice held steady in the top-25 ranks.

WKU Volleyball has now received votes in 10-consecutive seasons in the AVCA Coaches Poll, dating back to the 2011 campaign. Last season, 2018, marked the lone season in that span that the Red and White never broke into the top-25 ranks.

TOURNAMENT WINS

Over the course of the first month of the season, WKU Volleyball won three tournament crowns after a trio of 3-0 showings in the Toledo Blue & Gold Invite, the Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite and WKU Volleyball Invite. The first weekend, the Tops downed Loyola - Chicago, Toledo and North Dakota State before taking care of Bowling Green, Ohio State and Tulane during the third weekend. Most recently, WKU downed Northern Kentucky in a five-set win before sweeping Tulsa and Samford to close the weekend.

NATIONAL LEADERS

Following an 18-ace weekend at the WKU Volleyball Invite, senior Sophia Cerino jumped from fifth to first in the NCAA rankings and to lead the country in aces and aces per set. Over seven weeks later, Cerino remains at the top of the ranks. Her 63 aces through the first 11 weeks of the year put Cerino at a 0.68 aces per set average. She's tallied four or more aces in eight matches this year.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

1st — Matthews' .456 hitting % leads the NCAA

18 — C-USA Players of the Week after 11 weeks of awards

26 — Total wins leads the NCAA

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 13-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then, Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

Harlie is now a Lady Topper. At every home match, she is with the team in the huddle and at introductions while she cheers with her family from the sidelines. The team's secret weapon, she is a constant reminder to the WKU student-athletes and coaching staff to keep fighting no matter what stands in the way.

For more information about Harlie and her journey, visit HOPEFORHARLIE.ORG and follow on Twitter via @HOPEFORHARLIE.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

POWER FIVE WINS

Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU Volleyball is now 12-10 against Power Five opponents.

WKU Volleyball is now 2-0 all-time against Arizona State and 3-6 all-time against Pac-12 programs (3-3 in last six meetings).

Additionally, on the first day of Louisville's Fleur de Lis Tournament, WKU faced off against Arizona State and No. 24 Louisville, marking the first time since 2013 that the Red and White faced two Power Five opponents in the same day. WKU has met two Power Five squads on the same day a total of five times in program history, splitting the day four times and sweeping the day once (2012).

Most recently, WKU downed Ohio State out of the Big Ten in a 3-0 sweep on Friday night of the Lady Toppers' Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite. The Red and White swept the Buckeyes in the second-straight meeting, taking a decision on each team's home court.

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 20 seasons (2000-19), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 20 seasons. During the last 20-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

IT'S LONELY AT THE TOP

WKU Volleyball leads the NCAA in numerous categories including sweeps and wins. WKU is tied for the most sweeps in the nation with 18 and its 26 total wins are tied for the most as well. The Red and White's 22-straight wins is the second-longest active streak.

TOUGH SERVING

In WKU Volleyball's four-set win over Arizona State, Cerino sliced up the Sun Devils' serve-receive, striking for eight aces in the match. The mark ties her for the third-most ever recorded in a single match.

During Cerino's dominant showing against ASU, the senior took WKU on numerous scoring runs, including one of nine-straight serves, keeping the Sun Devils out of their offensive system. She tossed up 29 serves across her eight trips to the line in the Power Five win.

COMING OUT HOT

WKU Volleyball opened the 2019 campaign at the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament where the Red and White went a perfect 3-0 to win the season-opening event. While in Glass City, the Tops downed Loyola (3-2), Toledo (3-0) and North Dakota State (3-0).

In her first weekend as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) earned the Blue & Gold Tournament's MVP honor. Fellow newcomer Paige Briggs along with Preseason All-Conference selection Lauren Matthews also earned spots on the All-Tournament Team.

WKU began the year with a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with four-straight wins before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

HOT START

With the squad's win over Arizona State to open second-weekend play, the Lady Toppers improved to 4-0 to start the season for the ninth time under Travis Hudson. WKU has won a regular-season or tournament championship all eight previous seasons with such a start.

Since then, the Lady Toppers have jumped out to a 26-1 start, which is the best start in program history. Pages have to be turned back to 2005 to find the second-best start, which saw the team open the year with an 18-1 record.

In her very first match as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay), record WKU's first 20-20 double-double outing since Sept. 16, 2016. The Xavier transfer tallied 54 assists and 20 digs to become the 36th WKU Volleyball player to achieve the feat and the first-ever to do so in the month of August.

PRESEASON C-USA POLL

For the first time since its inaugural season in the league, WKU Volleyball was not voted the C-USA Preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers were predicted to finish second in 2014 before going on to win both the regular season and C-USA tournament titles.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

STRONG AND STEADY

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .741 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

TRAVIS HUDSON: OFF THE COURT

with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

After the second weekend of play in 2019, Cerino earned her second career weekly award from Conference USA, being recognized as the league's Defensive PotW.

Following the 2018-19 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 13th consecutive season as the Lady Toppers finished the campaign with a 3.46 team GPA. The honor marks the 17th time a Lady Topper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

In total, 189 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of eight Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, FIU, Middle Tennessee, Rice, Southern Miss, UTEP and UTSA in addition to the Red and White.

BACK IN THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

"I BELIEVE IN ALYSSA CAVANAUGH"

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Lady Toppers to 123 wins but her 124th will be her biggest yet.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant and less than six weeks later on March 20 would finally be discharged from the hospital. The family would stay in Cincinnati through May when Alyssa would finally be able to go home.

C-USA 2019 CHAMPIONSHIP VOLLEYBALL HOUSTON 25

REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONSHIP

After being picked to finish third in the Preseason Coaches Poll while collecting one lone first place vote, WKU Volleyball had a bone to pick with the league - so the Lady Toppers went out and beat all of them en route to a perfect 14-0 regular season record and championship. With that title, the Red and White have collected the regular season championship five of their six seasons in Conference USA. WKU is the fifth team in C-USA to post an unbeaten conference record and fifth in program history to do so as well.

SHOWDOWN IN HOUSTON

In the first-ever meeting between a pair of top-25 teams in Conference USA history, No. 22 WKU came out on top of No. 17 in a five-set battle from Tudor Fieldhouse. After WKU took a 2-0 lead in the match, Rice battled back to force a decisive fifth set. Despite the Lady Toppers trailing 9-6, WKU battled back and claimed the set 16-14. The match marked the second time in program history that WKU faced off against a ranked conference opponent.

TOP-25 RANKINGS

After four weeks of receiving votes, WKU Volleyball finally broke into the AVCA Week 7 Coaches Poll, announced on Monday, Oct. 14. The Lady Toppers debuted in the poll at No. 24 after pushing their winning streak to 15 and climbing to 19-1 overall. A week later, the Tops moved up to No. 23 after becoming the nation's first 20-win team of the season. The Oct. 28 Poll kept the Tops at No. 23, marking the team's third-straight week of being ranked. After another win, WKU climbed to No. 22 before earning the No. 19 slot following the Nov. 10 win at No. 17 Rice. WKU has now appeared in the top 25 eight of the last nine seasons.

ALL-TIME VS. RANKED TEAMS

Following the Nov. 10 win at No. 17 Rice, WKU is now 1-1 on the 2019 season against top-25 opposition. The squad's lone loss came to No. 24 Louisville on Sept. 6. WKU is now 8-18 all-time when facing a top-25 squad including a 7-10 mark since the beginning of the 2012 campaign.

RECEIVING VOTES

After picking up its second Power Five win of the season and winning the Holiday Inn – University Plaza Invite against a stacked tournament field, WKU Volleyball received votes in the Week 3 American Volleyball Coaches Association Poll. The Lady Toppers entered the rankings at 36th overall in the poll, joining [RV] Rice (31st) from Conference USA. WKU received nine votes in the poll while the Owls posted 21. In its fourth week of receiving votes, WKU moved all the way up to 26th in the poll while Rice held steady in the top-25 ranks.

WKU Volleyball has now received votes in 10-consecutive seasons in the AVCA Coaches Poll, dating back to the 2011 campaign. Last season, 2018, marked the lone season in that span that the Red and White never broke into the top-25 ranks.

TOURNAMENT WINS

Over the course of the first month of the season, WKU Volleyball won three tournament crowns after a trio of 3-0 showings in the Toledo Blue & Gold Invite, the Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite and WKU Volleyball Invite. The first weekend, the Tops downed Loyola - Chicago, Toledo and North Dakota State before taking care of Bowling Green, Ohio State and Tulane during the third weekend. Most recently, WKU downed Northern Kentucky in a five-

HARLIE BRYANT

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 13-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then, Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

set win before sweeping Tulsa and Samford to close the weekend.

NATIONAL LEADERS
Following an 18-ace weekend at the WKU Volleyball Invite, senior Sophia Cerino jumped from fifth to first in the NCAA rankings and to lead the country in aces and aces per set. Over eight weeks later, Cerino remains at the top of the ranks. Her 73 aces through the first 12 weeks of the year put Cerino at a 0.75 aces per set average. She's tallied four or more aces in 10 matches this year.

Lauren Matthews joined her teammate at the top of the NCAA Volleyball stats as the sophomore middle hitter has led the country in hitting percentage for multiple weeks and currently ranks second at .454.

POWER FIVE WINS
Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU Volleyball is now 12-10 against Power Five opponents.

WKU Volleyball is now 2-0 all-time against Arizona State and 3-6 all-time against Pac-12 programs (3-3 in last six meetings).

Additionally, on the first day of Louisville's Fleur de Lis Tournament, WKU faced off against Arizona State and No. 24 Louisville, marking the first time since 2013 that the Red and White faced two Power Five opponents in the same day. WKU has met two Power Five squads on the same day a total of five times in program history, splitting the day four times and sweeping the day once (2012).

Most recently, WKU downed Ohio State out of the Big Ten in a 3-0 sweep on Friday night of the Lady Toppers' Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite. The Red and White swept the Buckeyes in the second-straight meeting, taking a decision on each team's home court.

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 20 seasons (2000-19), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 20 seasons. During the last 20-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

IT'S LONELY AT THE TOP
WKU Volleyball leads the NCAA in numerous categories including sweeps and wins. WKU is tied for the most sweeps in the nation with 20 and its 28 total wins are tied for the most as well. The Red and White's 24-straight wins is the second-longest active streak.

TOUGH SERVING
In WKU Volleyball's four-set win over Arizona State, Cerino sliced up the Sun Devils' serve-receive, striking for eight aces in the match. The mark ties her for the third-most ever recorded in a single match.

During Cerino's dominant showing against ASU, the senior took WKU on numerous scoring runs, including one of nine-straight serves, keeping the Sun Devils out of their offensive system. She tossed up 29 serves across her eight trips to the line in the Power Five win.

COMING OUT HOT
WKU Volleyball opened the 2019 campaign at the Toledo Blue & Gold Tournament where the Red and White went a perfect 3-0 to win the season-opening event. While in Glass City, the Tops downed Loyola (3-2), Toledo (3-0) and North Dakota State (3-0).

In her first weekend as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay) earned the Blue & Gold Tournament's MVP honor. Fellow newcomer Paige Briggs along with Preseason All-Conference selection Lauren Matthews also earned spots on the All-Tournament Team.

WKU began the year with a 3-0 start for the first time since 2017 when the team opened with four-straight wins before dropping a decision. In total, the Lady Topper program has begun a season 3-0 10 times under Hudson.

HOT START
With the squad's win over Arizona State to open second-weekend play, the Lady Toppers improved to 4-0 to start the season for the ninth time under Travis Hudson. WKU has won a regular-season or tournament championship all nine seasons with such a start including the 2019 campaign.

Since then, the Lady Toppers have jumped out to a 28-1 record, which is the best start in program history. Pages have to be turned back to 2005 to find the second-best start, which saw the team open the year with an 18-1 record.

20-20 VISION
In her very first match as a Lady Topper, Nadia Dieudonne (jew-duh-nay), record WKU's first 20-20 double-double outing since Sept. 16, 2016. The Xavier transfer tallied 54 assists and 20 digs to become the 36th WKU Volleyball player to achieve the feat and the first-ever to do so in the month of August.

PRESEASON C-USA POLL
For the first time since its inaugural season in the league, WKU Volleyball was not voted the C-USA Preseason favorite. The Lady Toppers were predicted to finish second in 2014 before going on to win both the regular season and C-USA tournament titles.

Rice landed 11 first place votes in the voting while Florida Atlantic and the Tops each collected one. Behind C-USA Tournament-host Rice was Florida Atlantic sitting in second followed by WKU. North Texas, UTSA, FIU, Charlotte and Southern Miss rounded out the predicted postseason field. UAB, Marshall, UTEP, Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech concluded the preseason ranking, respectively.

STRONG AND STEADY

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .741 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

638 AND COUNTING
With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured

his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

TRAVIS HUDSON: OFF THE COURT

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

After the second weekend of play in 2019, Cerino earned her second career weekly award from Conference USA, being recognized as the league's Defensive PotW.

Following the 2018-19 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 13th consecutive season as the Lady Toppers finished the campaign with a 3.46 team GPA. The honor marks the 17th time a Lady Topper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

In total, 189 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of eight Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, FIU, Middle Tennessee, Rice, Southern Miss, UTEP and UTSA in addition to the Red and White.

BACK IN THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

Back in the summer of 2017, Hudson began his involvement with the USA Volleyball pipeline as he was an assistant coach to the USA Women's Junior National Training Team. That same summer, Rachel Anderson worked with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team – Minneapolis program. She was the first student-athlete from WKU Volleyball to earn a spot on the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

"I BELIEVE IN ALYSSA CAVANAUGH"

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Lady Toppers to 123 wins but her 124th will be her biggest yet.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant and less than six weeks later on March 20 would finally be discharged from the hospital. The family would stay in Cincinnati through May when Alyssa would finally be able to go home.

Cavanaugh continues to recover from the transplant. While the process has had its ups and downs, anyone that knows her knows she's a fighter up for the challenge.

WKU VOLLEYBALL EARNS NO. 15 SEED, HOSTING NCAA TOURNAMENT FOR FIRST TIME

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – For the first time in WKU Volleyball history, the Lady Toppers will be hosting the NCAA Tournament First and Second Rounds. With a 31-1 record along with the Conference USA regular season and tournament championships, the Red and White locked up the program's 10th automatic – and 12th overall – bid to the NCAA Tournament.

SCHEDULE:
First Round
Thursday, Dec. 5 – 5 p.m. | Samford vs. Louisville
Thursday, Dec. 5 – 7 p.m. | No. 19 WKU vs. Kennesaw State

Second Round
Friday, Dec. 6 – 7 p.m. | First Round winners

Joining the host Lady Toppers on The Hill this Thursday and Friday, Dec. 5 and 6, are Kennesaw State, Louisville and Samford. No. 19 WKU will face Kennesaw State on Thursday following the First Round match featuring Louisville and Samford prior. Thursday's winner will face off inside Diddle Arena Friday night for a spot in the Sweet 16.

In 2019, WKU Volleyball is making its fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last six seasons and eighth in the last 10. Riding the second-longest active win streak in the NCAA at 27, the Lady Toppers will face off against Kennesaw State, who earn the ASUN's automatic bid. Kennesaw State owns a 22-8 record on the season including a 13-3 mark in league play.

Louisville owns a 19-9 overall record including a 12-6 mark in ACC play. The Cardinals earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and mark the Lady Toppers' only loss on the 2019 season. Louisville is set to face Samford ahead of the Lady Toppers' match. The Bulldogs earned the automatic bid out of the Southern Conference after winning the league's tournament. Samford has a 24-5 record with a 15-1 mark in league action.

Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU has secured five of the possible six automatic bids into the NCAA Tournament while also winning the regular-season championship each of those seasons.

Also for the fifth time in the last six seasons, WKU has notched 30 or more victories. The program now owns 11 total seasons of 30+ wins with 10 coming under Travis Hudson.

No. 21 Rice also earned a spot in the field of 64, making Conference USA a multi-bid league for the first time since 2009 when Rice and Tulane both appeared.

WKU marks the sixth occurrence of a C-USA squad hosting the First and Second Rounds of the NCAA Tournament and the first to do so since Louisville did so in 2001. The Cardinals also hosted the Regional Semifinals during the 2004 campaign.

First and second round play of the 2019 NCAA Tournament will take place either Thursday and Friday, Dec. 5 and 6, or Friday and Saturday, Dec. 6 and 7. In total, 16 campuses will host the opening rounds of The Dance before the field narrows to just four non-predetermined hosts the following week. The NCAA Semifinals and Finals will take place in Pittsburgh, Pa., on Thursday, Dec. 19, and Saturday, Dec. 21.

TOPS PUNCH TICKET TO NCAA SECOND ROUND IN FRONT OF RECORD DIDDLE ARENA CROWD

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball battled its way to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in program history with a 3-0 sweep over Kennesaw State in front of a record crowd of 4,514 inside Diddle Arena Thursday night. The Lady Toppers won their second NCAA Tournament match in the last three seasons and have swept all four of their wins in The Dance.

"Two comments: first, how about Kennesaw State? What a gutty, tough, well-coached team," WKU head coach Travis Hudson opened. "I knew that's what we were getting, that's who they are when you watch them. They competed all night and I knew what we were in for. So first, just unbelievable respect and credit to them and their program; and then secondly, to all the people in Hilltopper Nation who came out tonight, I've dreamt of what I saw out there for 25 years. There's no way I will ever be able to show my gratitude to the Bowling Green community for letting this guy who's been here for 25 years walk out of that tunnel into that. And for that, I will forever be grateful."

With Thursday night's victory, WKU is now 32-1 on the season, riding a 28-match win streak. The Tops added their NCAA-best 23rd sweep.

Kennesaw State closed the 2019 campaign with a 22-9 overall record after earning the Atlantic Sun's automatic bid, marking the program's second appearance in the last three seasons.

"They [Kennesaw State] were playing like a team that thought they belonged and wanted to advance in this thing, and that's exactly who I thought they were all along," Hudson added. "They're a champion – they're a conference champion. They're a program that wins at the highest level. They came hard tonight. I thought they played fantastically well."

"They're not a team that rolls over and that's what we pride ourselves on as a team," Katie Isenbarger added. "That's what we strive to be as a team and be tough to play against that never rolls over and that's exactly what Kennesaw State showed tonight."

WKU opened NCAA Tournament action as the first to double-digits with a 10-8 lead. Kennesaw State pulled within one on the next point but Lauren Matthews' fourth kill of the night gave the Tops an 11-9 lead, sparking a 4-0 run for a 14-9 lead. Paige Briggs' first kill of the night sent the teams to the media timeout with WKU ahead 15-11. Both sides were even at 20 before a Kennesaw State service error followed by a Sophia Cerino and Katie Isenbarger block assist gave the Tops a two-point lead at 22-20. After a KSU timeout, the Owls tied it up before the Lady Toppers registered three of the final four points for a 25-23 first set win.

Set two saw Kennesaw State and WKU tied at 6-6 before a 4-0 KSU run gave the Owls a 10-6 lead and forced an early Lady Topper timeout. From there, WKU battled right back and took its first lead since the opening point at 13-12 and pushed it to 14-12 before Kennesaw State tied it right back up. A KSU service error followed by Sophia Cerino's 82nd ace of the season gave WKU another two-point advantage before Kennesaw State battled back for a 19-17 lead. From there, the Red and White tallied eight of the final nine points, including a 5-0 run to end the frame, for a 25-20 second-set win and 2-0 lead in the match.

Out of the break, the squads continued to square off and after WKU struck first for the third-straight set, Kennesaw State again jumped out to an early lead at 6-4. Briggs struck for a kill to brings the Tops within one before delivering a service ace to knot the score. WKU would tally the next two points for a two-point advantage before KSU pulled back within one at 8-7. After three-point runs for both sides and back-and-forth action, WKU pushed out to a 16-12 lead. Still not done, Kennesaw State battled back again and tied the match at 23-23 for the 18th and final tie of the match. A KSU service error set WKU up for match point and the Tops sent everyone home with another Cerino and Isenbarger block assist for the 25-23 win.

WKU worked above its season average hitting percentage, operating at a .357 clip. All four Lady Toppers that tallied double-digit attacks owned an attack rate of .316 or better.

Defensively, the Lady Toppers limited Kennesaw State to a .206 hitting clip, below its season average of .242. WKU out-blocked the Owls 10-4 as well. Isenbarger racked up a career-high eight blocks on the night while Cerino matched her career best with six. Logan Kael led the Tops in digs with 10 for her 21st double-digit dig outing of the season.

Briggs led WKU with 11 kills on 29 errorless swings for a .379 clip to go along with six digs. Lauren Matthews and Kayland Jackson each added nine kills. Jackson operated at a career-best .750 hitting percentage. Cerino added seven more kills.

Nadia Dieudonne tallied 31 assists and four digs while facilitating the WKU offense to its 20th match hitting .300 or better on the season.

WKU's previous attendance record was set on its Senior Day with a crowd of 1,385, which reset the record from the previous match that totaled 1,209.

"I am still in shock," Cerino said of the Diddle Arena atmosphere. "Walking out and seeing that, I think we all just stood out there and took a second and had to look around and be like, 'Wow, this is pretty cool to be able to play in this environment and play in front of Hilltopper Nation.' Thank you to everybody that came out – it means the world to us. The support that this community has given us has been amazing, and I can't ask for anything better for the NCAA Tournament. We put out a challenge for people to come out, and they accepted it and blew us away."

KENNESAW STATE HEAD COACH KEITH SCHUNZEL ON DIDDLE ARENA ATMOSPHERE:
"The atmosphere was great and credit to WKU. To be honest, if the atmosphere hadn't been as good, I don't know if we would've been as excited. When you get to this point you want there to be people. We had heard talking to Travis (Hudson) yesterday that there were a couple thousand tickets sold, and he was saying they were expecting three or four (thousand), and I said "good, I hope it is more than that". That is great for volleyball, that is great for just the overall game and the intensity of it. You know you can see with what Johnny (Madeline Johnson) and Lo (Lauren Chastang) just said that our kids kind of wanted that. Again, if people thought we were going to come in here in front of a big crowd and be intimidated they have no idea what we're about, and they just don't know what we're doing. Really happy with our group and bummed at the same time because I thought we could've gotten that to more than 3, but we didn't and we have to live with that."

WKU SETS ANOTHER ATTENDANCE RECORD IN NCAA SECOND ROUND LOSS TO LOUISVILLE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball's historic run came to an end in front of a program-record 5,023 fans that filled Diddle Arena to attend the first-ever NCAA Tournament matches held on The Hill. The Lady Toppers took the opening frame and then had Diddle Arena booming after a fourth-set comeback that forced the match to go the distance. Louisville would ultimately claim the five-set victory in an absolute battle between the in-state foes.

"Look, a very worthy volleyball match to send someone to the Sweet 16 and you know Louisville, so much credit to their kids and their coaches," head coach Travis Hudson opened. "I mean to come into this environment and you know for us to get it to a fifth set and for them to play the way they did, as composed and as well as they did in that fifth set, this tournament is about finding out who's playing the best volleyball in the country and tonight in that fifth set, especially was the University of Louisville and so that's what I told our kids, I mean that's what this tournament is about and when somebody outplays you it's their time to move on and your time to bow out and there will be 63 teams who go through the same process over the next couple weeks and tonight was our turn."

The No. 15 national seed in the 2019 NCAA Tournament, WKU closed a season filled with program firsts with a 32-2 record to secure the team's best-ever season winning percentage of .941. The Lady Toppers achieved 30 wins for the eighth time in the last 10 seasons.

"I think this year has been extremely important to a lot of people here and I think it kind of showed what we're capable of and it's really exciting to see what we're going to do next year," junior setter Nadia Dieudonne shared. "It was really fun playing in front of everyone tonight and it will be exciting to play in front of them again next year."

Louisville advanced to the Sweet 16 for the fifth time since 2005 and is now 21-9 on the season. The Cardinals will head to Austin, Texas next weekend to face off against No. 2 seed Texas.

The two-day combined attendance for the WKU site came in at 9,537.

"It was amazing, thank you so much Hilltopper nation," Katie Isenbarger said of the Diddle Arena crowds. "I cannot believe that. Every couple of minutes we were all like 'just look around at how many people are cheering' and we're so grateful for Hilltopper nation."

Lauren Matthews struck for her first of 17 kills on the night for the opening point of the Second Round matchup. A Sophia Cerino ace – her 83rd of the season – brought a raucous Diddle Arena crowd to its feet for the first of many times in the evening. WKU would then work out to a 10-6 advantage and would send the sides to the media timeout with a 15-14 lead. Louisville battled back to take its lone lead in the frame at 16-15, but the Tops responded for an 18-16 advantage. WKU pushed ahead to a 20-17 lead to force a UofL timeout and closed things out for a 25-21 first set win.

WKU racked up 18 kills in the set while operating at a .371 hitting clip and holding Louisville to a .200 rate.

In set two, the Tops worked out to a 12-7 advantage before Louisville produced an 11-0 run for an 18-12 lead it would not relinquish. WKU pulled back within three at 18-15 before the Cardinals took a 23-17 lead. After fighting off several set points, the Tops would fall 25-21 in the second set as Louisville evened the match at 1-1.

Following the break, WKU opened up an 11-5 lead after a Hudson challenge reversed a call. Louisville surged back and pulled within one at 14-13, but a Cardinal service error sent the teams to the media break with WKU ahead 15-13. UofL was the first to 20, breaking a tie and pushed the margin to 23-21 after winning a long rally. The Tops avoided a set point before Louisville took a 2-1 lead in the match with a 25-22 third-set win.

After a back-and-forth battle early on in the fourth set, Louisville took a 15-10 lead. A 3-0 pulled WKU within 16-14 before the Tops strung together an 8-0 run to take a 22-18 lead. With Hilltopper Nation's energy guiding them, WKU would close the set on a dominant 11-3 run for a 25-21 fourth-set win to force the match to go the distance.

It would be all Cardinals in the fifth set as the Tops called for timeouts trailing 6-1 and 9-2, but a collective .667 UofL attack rate in the frame secured Louisville a spot in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16.

Dieudonne delivered her ninth double double of the season, racking up 50 assists and 12 digs. She would facilitate the Hilltopper offense to a .162 clip.

Paige Briggs led WKU with 19 kills on 49 swings to go along with eight digs. Matthews also worked well into double digits in the kill column, recording 17 in addition to five blocks.

Logan Kael registered a match-high 21 digs with Hallie Shelton (12) and Dieudonne (12) joining her in double figures. Kael also tallied three aces.

WKU and Louisville finished even in kills (58) and aces (6) while each recording 62 and 64 digs, respectively.

WKU SWEEPS AVCA SOUTH REGION SUPERLATIVES; HUDSON & TRIO OF TOPS HONORED

LEXINGTON, Ky. – WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson and a trio of WKU Volleyball student-athletes have racked up six combined All-Region honors from the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA). Hudson was named the AVCA's South Region Coach of the Year while Lauren Matthews and Paige Briggs were voted the Region Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year, respectively. Briggs, Matthews and Nadia Dieudonne were all named to the AVCA's South All-Region Team.

"What a really nice ending to a really special season," Hudson opened. "Paige [Briggs], Nadia [Dieudonne] and Lauren [Matthews] are certainly deserving with the seasons they put up. I think this is another statement to the overall accomplishments of this group from top to bottom and I'm really proud to see our program recognized at this level."

WKU Volleyball is just the fourth team to sweep all three All-Region superlatives. Kentucky accomplished the feat in 2017 while BYU and Minnesota did so in 2018.

"The firsts just seem to keep coming with this group," Hudson shared of the superlative sweep. "I will just reiterate what I've said many times, the success of this group has not been accidental. They worked incredibly hard and purposeful in becoming who they've become, both Paige and Lauren as individuals, as well as our team as a whole. They make me proud to be the head coach of such a together, hard-working group of kids."

The mastermind behind the 2019 Lady Topper squad, Hudson collected the AVCA South Region Coach of the Year for the sixth time of his career. After earning C-USA's Coach of the Year nod as well, he now owns eight conference Coach of the Year laurels across his 25 seasons at the helm. After the team was predicted to finish third in the league's preseason poll, Hudson led WKU to a 28-1 regular season record and perfect 14-0 record in C-USA contests as the Tops won their fifth championship in six years. WKU would close the year with a .941 winning percentage, the best in program history.

On Selection Show Sunday, Hudson and his squad learned that the program would host its first-ever NCAA Tournament matches, earning the No. 15 national seed. A few days later, the Tops saw Hilltopper Nation fill Diddle Arena with record crowds back-to-back nights.

"I've said it many times and I'll say it again, I'm just so appreciative to our players for the ride that they took me on this year," Hudson said of his Region Coach of the Year award. "I can sit back and recognize what an unbelievable accomplishment this season was on so many levels but when that many good things happen across the board, it's certainly a testament to each and every kid in that lockerroom as well as every coach and person on our staff and I just happen to be the point person of all of that. It's something that I hope that everyone throughout our program takes a lot of pride in because that's certainly how it got accomplished."

Hudson's 2019 team was also his first unit that did not contain an All-American since the 2009 campaign.

Conference USA's four superlative winners as well, Briggs (Freshman), Dieudonne (Setter), Matthews (Player) and Hudson (Coach) add Regional honors the AVCA announced Tuesday. The trio of Lady Toppers also each earned First Team All-Conference from C-USA.

An Ortonville, Mich., native, Briggs made an immediate impact for the Lady Toppers and made her presence felt on the conference scene as well, claiming three of the first four Freshman of the Week accolades. She went on to finish the season even stronger, winning four of the final five honors. The Ortonville, Mich., native posted 14 double-double performances across the season, including one at both No. 17 Rice and No. 24 Louisville. Briggs started all 118 sets for the Tops this season as a six-rotation player and racked up 388 kills and 344 digs across the season while working at a .281 hitting clip. WKU's third-ever AVCA South Region Freshman of the Year, Briggs also earned a spot on C-USA's All-Tournament Team.

Also in her first season as a Lady Topper, junior setter Dieudonne added more hardware to her career season with All-Region honors. Before her All-Conference and C-USA Setter of the Year nods, the Louisville, Ky., native had not earned a collegiate postseason laurel. Dieudonne racked up nine double doubles for WKU including the rare 20-20 feat in her first-ever match as a Lady Topper. Throughout the regular season, the offensive facilitator earned half of C-USA's Setter of the Week awards with six honors. Dieudonne led the squad to a collective .301 hitting percentage on the season, which ranks second in all of NCAA. Dieudonne registered 1,296 assists along with 270 digs, 95 kills and 41 block assists – all of which are career highs for the junior. The Louisville, Ky., native averaged 10.98 assists per set overall which climbs to 11.28 per set in Conference USA matches.

In just her second season on The Hill, Matthews was selected as both the AVCA South Region Player of the Year and Conference USA Player of the Year. The Indianapolis, Ind., native spent nearly two months leading all of NCAA Volleyball in hitting percentage and ranks first with a .448 clip, which ranks second on WKUs' single-season list. Throughout the course of the season, Matthews earned four of the league's Offensive Player of the Week honors in addition to setting WKU's single-match hitting percentage record at .882. In league matches, Matthews worked at a scorching .483 mark. The sophomore finished with 470 kills with 205 coming in C-USA matches. Matthews has also been a force to be reckoned with at the net defensively, tallying 139 blocks for a 1.18 blocks per set average this season. She owns 36 solo blocks (fifth on WKU's single season list) and 103 block assists (eighth on WKU's single season list).

Matthews joins Alyssa Cavanaugh as the only Lady Toppers to earn Region Player of the Year recognition.

WKU Volleyball has now seen a Lady Topper earn AVCA All-Region recognition each of the last 10 seasons. All three of this year's honorees are collecting their first AVCA postseason honors and bring WKU's program total to 35 with 30 First Team selections.

HUDSON ROUNDS OUT RECRUITING CLASS WITH ADDITION OF SAM CANNER

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson has announced the addition of prep standout Sam Canner to the Lady Toppers' incoming class. A middle hitter from Lore City, Ohio, Canner will add even more depth to the lethal WKU offense. Canner joins fellow fall signee Shannon Keck as the newest additions to the Lady Topper program that has now produced 20 consecutive 20-win seasons.

SAM CANNER // PIEDMONT, OHIO // BUCKEYE TRAIL H.S. // MIDDLE HITTER

Sam Canner, a native of Piedmont, Ohio, played her high school career at Buckeye Trail, leading the Warriors to a 17-7 record along with the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference Class 3A championship as a senior. Canner was named first-team All-Ohio along with her OVAC Class 3A and District 12 Player of the Year honors. She was also recognized as the Inter-Valley Conference Player of the Year.

With 1,281 career kills, Canner leaves Buckeye Trail as the career kills leader which ranked 60th nationally. The middle hitter racked up 497 kills in her final prep season – the top mark in Division III in Ohio and the third-most of all high school divisions in the state.

Playing her club ball with the East Ohio Force squad, the 6-1 middle was a three-time First Team nod for both the OVAC and District 12. A Third Team All-Ohio honoree as a sophomore and Second Team All-Ohio selection as a junior, Canner also spent time playing on the right side.

Sam is the daughter of Tammy and Brian Geiser, and Craig Canner.

Why she chose WKU – "I chose WKU because it just felt right; it already feels like my home away from home. The coaches and players are all amazing people with great personality and ambition and I'm so happy to officially be a part of the family!"

Hudson on Canner – "In this class, we knew we needed to get a little bigger; we're a super athletic team but we're not the biggest team in the country. Sam is a really physical athlete and she's an interesting story. She's been a basketball kid most of her life and volleyball is something she's still fairly new to. She reminds me a lot of Tiffany Elmore who played here (2008-11), who was a terrific middle for us that also had a basketball background and turned herself into a great middle hitter here. We recruited Sam through our camps and she just really blew us away with some of her natural gifts. She's a hardworking kid from a great family that I think has a super bright future in our offense."

MATTHEWS TABBED AVCA HONORABLE MENTION ALL-AMERICAN

LEXINGTON, Ky. – WKU Volleyball sophomore Lauren Matthews continues to reel in accolades as the Indianapolis, Ind., native has earned American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Honorable Mention All-American status. After earning Player of the Year honors from the AVCA's South Region and Conference USA, Matthews is the ninth different Lady Topper to earn All-American honors in WKU Volleyball history – all coming under head coach Travis Hudson.

“The season that Lauren Matthews put together was unmatched in Division I Volleyball,” Hudson shared. “More than the numbers she put up, I am most proud of the growth that she has shown over the last 12 months. The success she had on the court is a direct result of the hard work she put in with nobody watching on a daily basis in the practice gym. I’m so proud of her.”

Since WKU Volleyball’s first-ever All-American accolades were collected by Megan Argabright and Caron Blotch in 2005, the program has had just four seasons without a returning All-American on the roster including the 2009, ’10, ’14 and ’19 campaigns. By season’s end, a Lady Topper player would earn All-American status in three of those four years with Matthews’ most recent recognition.

In just her second season on The Hill, Matthews was selected as both the AVCA South Region Player of the Year and Conference USA Player of the Year. The Indianapolis, Ind., native spent more than two months leading all of NCAA Volleyball in hitting percentage and ranks first with a .448 clip, which sits second on WKUs’ single-season list. Throughout the course of the season, Matthews earned four of the league's Offensive Player of the Week honors in addition to setting WKU's single-match hitting percentage record at .882.

In league matches, Matthews worked at a scorching .483 mark. The sophomore finished with 470 kills with 205 coming in C-USA matches. Matthews has also been a force to be reckoned with at the net defensively, tallying 139 blocks for a 1.18 blocks per set average this season. She owns 36 solo blocks (fifth on WKU's single season list) and 103 block assists (eighth on WKU’s single season list).

After earning C-USA’s Player of the Year honor, Matthews also collected C-USA Tournament MVP recognition after an outstanding showing in Houston.

This season, Matthews and the Lady Toppers posted an overall record of 32-2 to earn the program’s best-ever winning percentage at .941. The Tops ran the table in league play with a perfect 14-0 record after being picked third in the preseason and ultimately claiming both the regular season and tournament championships. WKU has now won 10 of the possible 12 championships since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign.

In her debut season on The Hill, Matthews’ missed nearly a month of action due to an injury. She landed on the league’s All-Freshman Team and was named the C-USA Freshman of the Week once.

Matthews’ All-American honor marks the 22nd in program history awarded by the AVCA, with nine different Lady Toppers combining for the mark. Of the nine different All-Americans, Matthews is the fifth to earn the honor as a freshman or sophomore.

In the NCAA Tournament…

- The Lady Toppers are making the program's 12th NCAA Tournament appearance in 2019
  - o 10 automatic bids; 2 at-large selections
- WKU Volleyball is 3-11 all-time in the NCAA Tournament
  - o Advanced to the Second Round in 2012, 2015 & 2017
- The 2019 automatic bid marks five NCAA Tournament appearances in the last six season
- Seniors Sophia Cerino and Emma Kowalkowski will make their third appearance in the NCAA Tournament
- All of WKU Volleyball's NCAA Tournament appearances have come under Travis Hudson
- Eighth NCAA Tournament appearance in the past 10 seasons
- WKU has never hosted matches in the NCAA Tournament

C-USA NCAA Tournament History…

- Last time a C-USA team hosted NCAA Tournament matches was Louisville in 2004 (Regional Semifinal matches)
- C-USA teams have hosted First & Second round matches on five occasions:
  - o 2001, 1998, 1996, 1995 – Louisville
  - o 1996 – USF
- Furthest a C-USA team has advanced in the NCAA Tournament is the Regional Semifinals (Louisville 3 times)
- The last time two teams out of C-USA went Dancing was 2009 (Rice & Tulane)

Standing out in 2019…

- WKU Volleyball pieced together a 27-match win streak:
  - o Last loss was Sept. 6 at No. 24 Louisville
  - o Second longest active streak in NCAA Division I (1st: Colorado State, one match longer)
  - o Longest in school history (previous record, 25)
  - o Second longest in C-USA history (1st: 30, Tulsa-2010)
- Best winning percentage in NCAA Division I
  - o No. 1 WKU - .969 (31-1)
  - o No. 1 Stephen F. Austin - .969 (31-1)
  - o No. 3 Colorado State & Pittsburgh - .967 (29-1)
- WKU and Stephen F. Austin are the only Division I programs with 30 or more wins
- The Lady Topper Volleyball program is the winningest team in the nation since 2015:
  - o WKU – 174 wins
  - o BYU – 173
  - o Nebraska – 172
  - o Stanford & Penn State - 171
- For the 10th-consecutive season, WKU received votes in the AVCA Coaches Poll
- For the eighth time in the last 10 seasons, WKU appeared in the AVCA Top-25 rankings
- WKU Volleyball has now won eight of its last nine regular-season conference championships,
- The Tops have claimed at least a share of all but two possible titles since joining the C-USA six seasons ago: 5 C-USA regular season crowns (2 shared), 5 C-USA Tournament championships
- Fifth 30-win season in the last six years by the Lady Toppers (11th overall, 10 under Hudson)
- Since joining Conference USA, WKU Volleyball is 82-6 in league play and 173-27 overall
- WKU leads the nation in sweeps this year with 22 to date
