JONES NAMED C-USA CASTAÑEDA POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT

Micah Jones headshot attached

IRVING, Texas – Former Lady Topper Micah Jones has been named one of 14 recipients of the 2017 Jim Castañeda C-USA Postgraduate Scholarship as announced by the conference office on Tuesday afternoon.

This is the ninth year that the scholarships have been presented in honor of Dr. Jim Castañeda, who served Rice University for 46 years as an educator, coach and faculty athletics representative before he passed away in November 2008. The conference annually awards the $4,000 postgraduate scholarships to graduates as selected by the C-USA faculty athletics representatives and approved by the Board of Directors.

Jones recently concluded one of the more storied careers in Lady Topper Basketball history, becoming the program's all-time leader in games started (132) while tying the school record for total appearances with 137. Manning the point guard spot for much of her time at WKU, Jones dished out 443 assists across five seasons (sixth in school history) while committing just 201 turnovers, good for a career assist-to-turnover ratio of 2.20.

The Greensburg, Ky., native was the NCAA's national leader in assist-to-turnover ratio during her senior campaign, dealing 138 assists and turning the ball over only 37 times for a 3.73 single-season mark.

Jones also became the 38th member of WKU's 1,000-point club as a redshirt senior and finished her career with 1,068 points; she also ranked fourth all-time among Lady Toppers with 194 three-pointers. Following her final season at WKU, Jones was honored by her hometown of Greensburg as Mayor Lisle Cheatham declared May 25 Micah Jones Day in recognition of her accomplishments with the Lady Toppers.

Jones, a three-time CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree, will be attending the graduate physical therapy program at WKU as she continues her studies.

LADY TOPPER BASKETBALL ADDS WEST VIRGINIA TRANSFER BREWER

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Lady Topper Basketball Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard has announced the addition of West Virginia transfer Alexis Brewer, a native of Buffalo, Ky., who will join the Lady Toppers for the 2017-18 season.

"Alexis will be a huge addition to our program. She is a proven winner and has the ability to play multiple positions on the floor," Clark-Heard said of the veteran addition. "She will add more depth for us at the guard position and we are very excited for her to join the Lady Topper Basketball family."

A former teammate of Ivy Brown at LaRue County High School, Brewer played at West Virginia for the first two seasons of her career, shooting better than 38 percent from beyond the arc as both a freshman and a sophomore. In 2016-17, Brewer led the Mountaineers and ranked second among all Big 12 players with a 42.2 percent three-point mark (35-of-83) while pitching in 6.3 points per game as West Virginia reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a 24-11 record.

Brewer appeared in 66 of a possible 70 games while with the Mountaineers and competed in all four NCAA Tournament games in which West Virginia has played in the last two seasons. The guard showed off her passing ability in the opening round against Elon on March 17, dishing out a career-best six assists to lead the Mountaineers to a 75-62 victory. Overall as a sophomore, Brewer's percentage from beyond the arc ranked 10th in West Virginia program history.

Not only a force on the court, Brewer was also recognized for her achievements in the classroom in each of her two seasons at West Virginia. In 2015-16, she was named to the Academic All-Big 12 Rookie Team, and followed that honor with a spot on the Second Team Academic All-Big 12 Team this past season.

In high school, Brewer played her first three seasons at LaRue County before finishing her prep career at Bardstown, serving as a team captain in each of her four seasons. A finalist for Kentucky's Miss Basketball award and a former Region 5 Co-Player of the Year, Brewer was honored as a First Team All-State selection and participated in both the Kentucky-Indiana and Kentucky-Ohio All-Star Games. In total, Brewer finished her high school career with 2,869 points and 963 rebounds in her time at LaRue County and Bardstown.

Brewer played AAU basketball with Kentucky Premier, helping the team to reach the semifinals of the Nike Elite Youth Basketball League Nationals.

Brewer will join a Lady Topper squad that swept both the C-USA regular season and tournament championships and finished with a 27-7 record in 2016-17. Due to NCAA transfer regulations, she must sit out during the 2017-18 campaign before becoming eligible during the 2018-19 season.

WILLIAMS ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT AS LADY TOPPER BASKETBALL PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Barry Williams photo attached, please credit Matt Lunsford if used

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Longtime Lady Topper Basketball play-by-play announcer Barry Williams has announced his retirement after 33 seasons with the program, a tenure that saw WKU reach lofty heights in women's basketball with three Final Four appearances and a national championship game appearance in 1992.

Williams, among the longest-tenured radio announcers in the nation for women's basketball, reached a major milestone in his final season with the program as he called his 1,000th career game in a 96-32 victory over Alabama A&M in the 2016-17 season opener. Prior to WKU's game against Indiana on Nov. 19, Williams was honored in a ceremony recognizing his achievements over the course of his career. Among the highlights of Williams' career are 12 conference tournament championships, 19 NCAA Tournament appearances, the lone 30-win season (2014-15) in either men's or women's basketball in WKU history and Lillie Mason's legendary last-second shot to defeat Texas inside E.A. Diddle Arena in the 1985 NCAA Tournament. In Williams' 33 seasons with the team, the Lady Toppers posted a 755-314 (70.6 percent) overall record on the court.

Overall, the Lady Toppers won 20 or more games in 26 of Williams' 33 seasons, including each of the last five seasons under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard. For the first time in program history, the Lady Toppers have posted three straight 27-win seasons in their three most recent campaigns.

During his time with WKU, Williams interviewed countless Lady Topper legends, including former head coach Paul Sanderford and All-Americans Clemette Haskins, Crystal Kelly, Alexis Govan, Chastity Gooch and Kendall Noble. In total, WKU had 14 players recognized as All-Americans by various organizations during Williams' tenure.

Not only known for his in-game work, Williams was also the longtime host of WKU's weekly coach's show throughout the season hosted by local establishments in Bowling Green and the surrounding area. A nationwide search under the direction of Chris Bloomfield, General Manager of Hilltopper IMG Sports Marketing, will begin immediately for Williams' replacement on the sidelines.

NOBLE REPEATS AS C-USA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL SCHOLAR-ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

Kendall Noble headshot attached

IRVING, Texas – Former Lady Topper Kendall Noble has been named the C-USA Women's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year as announced by the conference office on Friday afternoon, repeating as the recipient of the honor after also claiming the award in 2015-16.

C-USA Scholar-Athlete of the Year awards are presented to the top student-athletes in each conference-sponsored sport, determined by a vote of the league's 14 Faculty Athletics Representatives. The award is based on academic achievement (GPA), athletic achievement and service. Award recipients were selected from C-USA's full-time and affiliate institutions in 19 sports (combining indoor and outdoor track and field).

Noble completed her WKU career in style with a sweep of the C-USA regular season and tournament championships to end the 2016-17 season. The Hazard, Ky., native was the only Division I player in the nation to average 16 points, six rebounds, five assists and 2.5 steals per game this season and became just the fifth player in program history to earn All-Conference honors four times, joining Lady Topper legends Clemette Haskins, Lillie Mason, Kami Thomas and Crystal Kelly.

Noble stands as the only Lady Topper Basketball player who currently ranks in the top 10 in WKU's record book in all five major statistical categories. The newly-minted professional finished her career with 1,888 points (fifth), 881 rebounds (eighth), 613 assists (second) and 84 blocks (10th) and became WKU's all-time record holder with 358 steals. Noble also holds the WKU career record for minutes played (4,474) and ranks third in games played (135) and fourth in games started (123).

In addition to her prowess on the court, Noble became just the third Academic All-American in Lady Topper Basketball history and the first selection in 35 years as she earned Third Team honors in 2015-16. Noble was also a 2016-17 candidate for the Senior CLASS Award recognizing a player's talents on the court, in the classroom and in the community at large.

In May, Noble signed her first professional contract with the Chemnitz Chemcats of the Damen Basketball Bundesliga in Germany and will join former Lady Topper Alexis Govan (Boa Viagem, Portugal) as professional players in Europe.

CLARK-HEARD, USA BASKETBALL U23s WIN INAUGURAL FOUR NATIONS TOURNAMENT

Michelle Clark-Heard action shot attached (please credit USA Basketball where used)

TOKYO, Japan – Lady Topper Basketball Head Coach and United States U23 National Team assistant coach Michelle Clark-Heard claimed her first championship at the international level on Tuesday morning, assisting the United States to a 103-71 victory over host Japan in the decisive game of the inaugural Four Nations Tournament.

The win pushed Clark-Heard's career record in competitive matchups at the international level to 7-1; in 2015, Clark-Heard was an assistant at the Pan American Games and helped the United States to a silver medal finish. With the U23 National Team in Japan, she and Princeton coach Courtney Banghart served as assistants under Louisville coach Jeff Walz.

Asia Durr (12.7), Kelsey Mitchell (11.0) and Sabrina Ionescu (10.3) each averaged double figures in scoring for the United States. Mercedes Russell was the team's leading rebounder at 6.3 boards per game, and Mitchell and Jordin Canada each dished out four assists per outing for the Americans. In its three games in the Four Nations Tournament, the United States posted an average margin of victory of 32 points, including a 46-point win (107-61) in its second game against Canada. The United States also defeated Australia, 78-60, in its opening game on Aug. 12.

The 2017 Four Nations Tournament provided meaningful competition and development opportunities. The United States' participation in the tournament was intended to help further develop the USA Basketball athlete pipeline and to help prepare athletes for possible future participation in the USA Basketball Women's National Team pool.

In five seasons as the head coach at WKU, Clark-Heard has led the Lady Toppers to three conference tournament championships and NCAA appearances and a 130-39 (.769) overall record. For the first time in program history, WKU has had three consecutive 27-win seasons over the last three years, including a school-record 30 victories during the 2014-15 campaign. Since joining C-USA prior to that season, Clark-Heard and the Lady Toppers own a 47-7 (.870) overall mark in conference play and have dropped no more than three games in C-USA play in a single season.

The Lady Toppers are coming off a 27-7 season in 2016-17 that saw them sweep both the C-USA regular season and tournament championships. WKU squared off against Ohio State in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament in Lexington, Ky., and nearly pulled off the upset over the fifth-seeded Buckeyes, falling in a tight 70-63 decision. WKU returns two of its top three scorers (Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown) for the 2017-18 campaign as it looks to continue its strong run of success under Clark-Heard.

LADY TOPPER BASKETBALL RELEASES FULL 2017-18 SCHEDULE

2017-18 PDF Schedule Attached

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU Lady Topper Basketball has released its complete 2017-18 schedule as announced by Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard on Thursday afternoon, a slate that features 12 regular-season dates inside E.A. Diddle Arena and marquee matchups against opponents like Notre Dame, Indiana, Missouri and either Iowa or Quinnipiac.

"I'm excited about this year's schedule. We have some really good non-conference challenges on the road this season. Our first four games will be against top-25 caliber teams: Missouri, Iowa or Quinnipiac, Notre Dame and Indiana. We're very appreciative of Notre Dame coming to play us here in Diddle Arena. I think our fans will fill the stands and create that special atmosphere that Diddle has. Our players will be very excited for that game," Clark-Heard said.

The Lady Toppers return two of their top three scorers (Tashia Brown and Ivy Brown) from their 2016-17 campaign that saw the team sweep both the regular season and C-USA tournament championships. WKU posted a 27-7 record, its third consecutive season with at least 27 victories, and squared off against Ohio State in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament in Lexington, Ky., nearly toppling the Buckeyes in a tight 70-63 decision. Over the last three seasons, WKU has 84 total wins, the most by any C-USA team in a three-year span in conference history.

In addition to Tashia and Ivy Brown, the Lady Toppers also return junior Sidnee Bopp, who posted one of the finest postseason performances in recent memory for WKU, and sophomore Whitney Creech, who became WKU's first C-USA Freshman of the Week honoree since the 2014-15 season last year. Six newcomers will also be immediately eligible for WKU, including freshmen Terri Smith, Nichel Tampa and Sherry Porter.

WKU will kick off its 2017-18 campaign with an exhibition against Union inside Diddle Arena on Thursday, Nov. 2, and will begin the regular season one week later in a tournament hosted by Iowa. The Lady Toppers will battle Missouri in their opener on Friday, Nov. 10, before squaring off against the winner of Iowa and Quinnipiac on Nov. 11. Quinnipiac reached the Sweet 16 in the 2017 NCAA Tournament as a No. 12 seed, defeating Marquette and Miami (FL) before falling against eventual national champion South Carolina.

The Lady Toppers will open their regular season home schedule in style as they host perennial powerhouse Notre Dame on Tuesday, Nov. 14. The Fighting Irish have reached the Sweet 16 in eight consecutive seasons and have finished as the national runners-up four times over that span; with Notre Dame likely being ranked for the battle against WKU, it will mark the third consecutive season that the Lady Toppers have hosted a ranked opponent inside Diddle Arena. In 2015-16, WKU knocked off then-No. 16 Louisville in a 71-69 upset, and last season the Lady Toppers captured an 85-74 victory over then-No. 23 Indiana early in the season; with those wins, WKU has defeated a ranked opponent in back-to-back years for the first time since the 1996-97 and 1997-98 seasons.

"We're super excited about hosting Notre Dame here. Year in and year out Notre Dame is at the top of the polls, competing for championships and sending players to the WNBA. We're so thankful they were willing to come to play us in Bowling Green. This will give our players an opportunity to compete against one of the most tradition-rich programs in the country," Clark-Heard said. "They've won a national championship, been to seven Final Fours and had 19 All-Americans. They will be super strong this season, returning four of five starters from a team that went 33-4 last year. I just had an opportunity to coach Arike Ogunbowale on Team USA. She'll be a junior for Notre Dame this year and averaged just under 16 points per game last season. This will be a big challenge for us, but most importantly it'll be a great opportunity for us to see where we stand against the very best."

Following that marquee home matchup, WKU will go back on the road for the second half of its home-and-home series at Indiana on Friday, Nov. 17, before traveling to Atlanta for Georgia State's in-season tournament. The Lady Toppers are set to battle Mercer (Friday, Nov. 24) and the host Panthers (Nov. 26) at the event; under Clark-Heard, WKU has won at least one in-season tournament in four of her five seasons at the helm of the program.

WKU will briefly return home for a date against Evansville inside Diddle Arena on Thursday, Nov. 30, before taking a break for exams. Coming out of that time off, the Lady Toppers will face Southern Illinois on the road on Sunday, Dec. 10, before a quick turnaround against Mississippi Valley State in Diddle on Tuesday, Dec. 12.

The Lady Toppers will round out their non-conference schedule with a third in-season tournament in West Palm Beach, Fla., taking on Stetson and Toledo on Dec. 16 and 17, respectively. WKU will remain on the road following that tournament to face Ball State in Muncie, Ind., on Thursday, Dec. 21, and will conclude non-conference play inside Diddle Arena on Friday, Dec. 29, against Lee University.

To begin C-USA play, WKU will battle archrival Middle Tennessee on Thursday, Jan. 4, inside Diddle Arena. One of the top rivalries in C-USA, the Lady Toppers claimed their first regular season sweep of the Blue Raiders since 2004 last season and own three straight victories over Middle Tennessee at home dating back to the 2015 season. The rivalry will be renewed in Murfreesboro, Tenn., on Thursday, Feb. 15, as the Lady Toppers seek back-to-back road wins in the series for the first time since 1993.

“All of the C-USA opponents are tough games, and this year won’t be any different. We’ll start conference play at home against Middle Tennessee and Southern Miss. We’ll need our fans for all of the conference games; his will obviously be Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown’s last season. I know our fans are looking forward to coming to see two young ladies who have meant so much to this program,” Clark-Heard said.

WKU will continue its opening three-game homestand in C-USA play against Southern Miss (Jan. 6) and FIU (Jan. 11), and will open road conference play on Jan. 13 at UAB.

In home battles during conference play, WKU will welcome UTSA (Jan. 18), Florida Atlantic (Feb. 3), Old Dominion (Feb. 8), Marshall (Feb. 17) and Charlotte (Feb. 23) to Diddle Arena, and will go on the road to square off against Marshall (Jan. 21), North Texas (Jan. 26), Louisiana Tech (Jan. 28), Rice (Feb. 10), Southern Miss (March 1) and UTEP (March 3).

The 2018 C-USA Tournament will be hosted at The Ford Center at The Star in Frisco, Texas, marking the first time since WKU has been a member of the league that the tournament will not be held in Birmingham, Ala. Since joining C-USA prior to the 2014-15 season, WKU has claimed two of the three conference tournament titles, including last year’s 67-56 win over Southern Miss inside Legacy Arena to seal the 12th conference tournament championship in school history.

Season ticket renewals will be available in the upcoming weeks while individuals wishing to make new season ticket purchases to see the Lady Toppers are encouraged to call the Ticket Office at 1-800-5-BIG-RED to inquire about ticket opportunities.

CLARK-HEARD NAMED COURT COACH FOR USA BASKETBALL FALL TRAINING CAMP

Michelle Clark-Heard USA headshot attached (please credit USA Basketball if used)

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. – Lady Topper Basketball Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard has been named a court coach for the USA Basketball senior national team's fall training camp that runs Sept. 30-Oct. 2 in Santa Barbara, Calif., her third stint with USA Basketball. The court coaches were selected by the USA Basketball Women's National Team Steering Committee under the direction of chairwoman Carol Callan. Clark-Heard is set to join Louisville head coach Jeff Walz, Sue Semrau of Florida State and George Washington's Jennifer Rizzotti in the role. Clark-Heard previously served as an assistant under Walz at Louisville and also with the United States U23 National Team earlier this month in the inaugural Four Nations Tournament in Japan; in that event, the United States posted a perfect 3-0 record en route to claiming the championship with an average margin of victory of 32 points.

In her first assignment with USA Basketball, Clark-Heard served as an assistant with the 2015 Pan American Games squad that claimed the silver medal, giving her a 7-1 record as an assistant coach in competitive games at the international level.

The camp will be utilized to help identify athletes for future USA National Team events, including the 2018 USA World Cup Team, and will mark the United States' first training camp under new head coach Dawn Staley. Staley was named the senior national team's head coach in March just before claiming her first national championship as the head coach at South Carolina.

Approximately 30 athletes are expected to attend the camp, and the list of participants will be announced at a later date. Athletes competing in the WNBA Finals will not be available to participate. The United States will tip off training at Noon (CT) daily, with sessions held at Westmont College on Sept. 30 and Oct. 1. On Oct. 2, the USA National Team's practice will be held at the University of California, Santa Barbara Recreation Center's Robertson Gymnasium.

"These four coaches bring a wealth of talent," said Staley, who has served as an assistant coach for a pair of USA Olympic and World Cup teams. "I've worked with Jeff with the U18s and U19s, and Jen and I worked together in Rio. I haven't really worked with Michelle or Sue, but they both have been extremely successful at their programs and nothing makes me think they're not going to be successful in helping me out in training camp."

In five seasons as the head coach at WKU, Clark-Heard has led the Lady Toppers to three conference tournament championships and NCAA appearances and a 130-39 (.769) overall record. For the first time in program history, WKU has had three consecutive 27-win seasons over the last three years, including a school-record 30 victories during the 2014-15 campaign. Since joining C-USA prior to that season, Clark-Heard and the Lady Toppers own a 47-7 (.870) overall mark in conference play and have dropped no more than three games in C-USA play in a single season.

JEVIN REDMAN NAMED LADY TOPPER BASKETBALL PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Jevin Redman Headshot Attached

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Following a nationwide search for the next Lady Topper Basketball play-by-play announcer, Hilltopper IMG Sports Marketing General Manager Chris Bloomfield has announced that recent Southern Indiana graduate Jevin Redman will fill the position beginning in the 2017-18 season.

“We are excited to have Jevin join the Hilltopper IMG Sports Network team. He has a diverse background having called games at the high school, minor league and collegiate level,” Bloomfield said of the new hire. “I know Lady Topper fans will enjoy listening to Jevin this season.”

Redman, who graduated from the University of Southern Indiana in April 2017, served as the play-by-play announcer for men's and women's basketball as well as baseball for the Screaming Eagles for all four years of his collegiate career. In addition to his collegiate experience, Redman has also served as the No. 2 radio broadcaster for the Louisville Bats, a Triple-A affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds, and as the Director of Broadcasting and play-by-play announcer for the Evansville Otters, a member of the independent Frontier League in minor league baseball.

Despite having just graduated from college, Redman has already received a host of honors throughout his broadcasting career. Last November, he was named the top play-by-play broadcaster in the state of Indiana by the Indiana Broadcasters Association, and he has also been ranked 16th among all college broadcasters across the United States as part of the Sportscasters Talent Agency of America Jim Nantz competition.

Outside of his play-by-play work, Redman also served as the Sports Director for WSWI, the Southern Indiana student-run radio station. With WSWI, his duties included coordinating sportscasts and broadcasts schedules, managing students covering campus sports and acting as the travel coordinator for broadcasting events on the road.

“The Lady Topper Basketball program expresses a winning culture with a passionate fan base and I am thrilled to get to be a small part of it,” Redman said of his new position. “I am looking forward to relaying the excitement over the airwaves this coming basketball season.”

Redman joins a Lady Topper team that has won a C-USA record 84 games over the last three seasons and made a pair of trips to the NCAA Tournament after capturing two C-USA tournament championships over that same span. The new play-by-play man is slated to make his regular season debut for the Lady Toppers on Nov. 10 in Iowa City, Iowa, as WKU takes on Missouri in the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge.

LADY TOPPERS WELCOME FANS FOR TIP-OFF LUNCHEON TUESDAY, OCT. 17

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Season ticket holders and fans of the WKU women's basketball program are encouraged to attend the annual Lady Topper Tip-Off Luncheon on Tuesday, Oct. 17, inside the Jack and Jackie Harbaugh Club on the second floor of Houchens Industries-L.T. Smith Stadium.

Attendance for the event is $20 and all attendees are asked to pay in advance. Those interested in attending should RSVP by Oct. 13 to Peggy Jones by phone at (270) 745-2133 or by e-mail at peggy.jones@wku.edu.

The luncheon is scheduled to begin at 11:00 a.m. and will run through 1:00 p.m. on Tuesday afternoon. Those attending should park in Parking Structure #2 located next to the football stadium.

The Lady Toppers, who claimed their third conference tournament title in five seasons under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard in 2016-17, are in the midst of one of the most successful eras in program history. WKU has won 130 games over the last five seasons and 84 in the last three seasons, a record for the most wins in a three-year span by any C-USA team in the conference's history.

The 2017-18 season will see WKU matched up against challenging opponents, including a Nov. 14 home date against perennial power Notre Dame inside E.A. Diddle Arena. The Lady Toppers will also battle Power 5 opponents Missouri and Indiana on the road and will compete in three in-season tournaments, including the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge to open the season, Georgia State's Thanksgiving Tournament and the West Palm Invitational in mid-December.

Both the men's and women's basketball teams will be in action on Friday, Oct. 13 for the annual Hilltopper Hysteria event inside E.A. Diddle Arena. Presented by local McDonald's, Hilltopper Hysteria will feature individual player and coach introductions for both teams, scrimmages, a shooting stars challenge and entertainment from the WKU Spirit Squad. Parking and admission are free for the annual event.

Season tickets for the Lady Toppers are on sale now through the WKU Ticket Office, and season ticket renewals have been mailed. For more information, call the ticket office at 1-800-5-BIG RED or 745-5222 locally.

IVY BROWN SELECTED TO 2017-18 PRESEASON ALL-C-USA TEAM

Ivy Brown Headshot Attached

IRVING, Texas – Senior forward Ivy Brown has been named to the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA Team in a vote by the league's head coaches as announced by the conference office on Monday morning.

With the honor, Brown has picked up preseason accolades for the first time in her career, following a junior season that saw her named a First Team All-C-USA pick after averaging 13.1 points and 8.2 rebounds a game for the Lady Toppers. In 2016-17, Brown recorded eight double-doubles, including an outburst of 21 points and a career-best 17 boards against College of Charleston on Dec. 18. Brown is also the lone returning C-USA player to rank in the top 15 of the league in both scoring and rebounding during the 2016-17 season.

The former Miss Kentucky Basketball enters the 2017-18 season with 950 career points and is seeking to become the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club during her senior campaign. On the defensive side of the ball, Brown has already moved into the top 10 on WKU's all-time blocked shots list, sitting in ninth place with 100 career blocks; of those 100 blocks, 89 have come over the last two seasons.

Last season, Brown was a force inside the paint offensively, knocking down 53.9 percent (165-of-306) of her field goal attempts, good for the fifth-best mark among all C-USA players. The Hodgenville, Ky., native also enjoyed the third-best free-throw shooting season in program history, converting 85.7 percent (78-of-91) of her attempts from the charity stripe, a tally that ranked behind only Middle Tennessee's Ty Petty among C-USA individuals last season.

Pairing with fellow senior Tashia Brown, Brown will be seeking to maintain the success of Lady Topper Basketball under Michelle Clark-Heard. Over Brown's three seasons, the Lady Toppers have posted an 84-19 record (.816); the 84 victories for WKU are the most in a three-season span by any team in C-USA's history. The Lady Toppers have also captured a pair of C-USA Tournament championships, including the 2017 crown after a 67-56 win over Southern Miss on March 11, and have advanced to the NCAA Tournament twice, narrowly falling to perennial powerhouses Texas and Ohio State by a combined nine points.

WKU is set to open the 2017-18 season with an exhibition matchup against Union (Tenn.) inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Nov. 2; the Lady Toppers will then go on the road to open the regular season, squaring off against Missouri in the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge in Iowa City, Iowa, on Nov. 10 before battling either Iowa or Quinnipiac on Nov. 11.

The Lady Toppers will open their regular season home schedule on Tuesday, Nov. 14, against seven-time NCAA Final Four participant Notre Dame, in what could potentially be WKU's first matchup against a top-five opponent since taking on then-No. 4 Louisville on Nov. 27, 2013.

TASHIA BROWN EARNS SPOT ON 2017-18 PRESEASON ALL-C-USA TEAM

Tashia Brown Headshot Attached

IRVING, Texas – Senior forward Tashia Brown has been named to the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA Team in a vote by the league's head coaches as announced by the conference office on Tuesday morning, joining fellow Lady Topper Ivy Brown on the prestigious list.

Brown has now picked up Preseason All-C-USA accolades in each of the last two seasons. The dynamic scoring forward was a First Team All-C-USA selection in 2015-16 and followed up that performance with Second Team honors last season; WKU has also now had a pair of Preseason All-C-USA selections in back-to-back seasons after Brown and Kendall Noble earned the honor prior to last season.

The Lake Park, Ga., native enters the 2017-18 season with 1,331 career points, a number that already ranks 21st in program history, and also appears set to break into the top 10 in school history in field goals made, needing 114 made shots from the floor this season to accomplish that feat. Last season, Brown was the Lady Toppers' second-leading scorer at 13.4 points per game while also pulling down a career-best 4.1 rebounds per contest.

Over the past two seasons, Brown has come up big in critical situations for the Lady Toppers. In 2015-16, she tallied a pair of 30-point games: the first saw her score a career-best 34 points in an overtime win at Old Dominion, and the second came in the second round of the WNIT as Brown tallied 32 points inside E.A. Diddle Arena against UT Martin. This past season, Brown again shined in big moments, earning a spot on the NCAA Weekly Starting Five and C-USA Player of the Week accolades after scoring a season-high 28 points in WKU's upset win over then-No. 23 Indiana. The senior also scored 25 points in the Lady Toppers' win at Middle Tennessee, snapping WKU's 13-year drought on the road in Murfreesboro. Brown capped her season with a spot on the C-USA All-Tournament Team, averaging 16.7 points per game en route to helping WKU to its second C-USA Tournament crown in three seasons.

Pairing with fellow senior Ivy Brown, Brown will be seeking to maintain the success of Lady Topper Basketball under Michelle Clark-Heard. Over Brown's three seasons, the Lady Toppers have posted an 84-19 record (.816); the 84 victories for WKU are the most in a three-season span by any team in C-USA's history. The Lady Toppers have also captured a pair of C-USA Tournament championships, including the 2017 crown after a 67-56 win over Southern Miss on March 11, and have advanced to the NCAA Tournament twice, narrowly falling to perennial powerhouses Texas and Ohio State by a combined nine points.

WKU is set to open the 2017-18 season with an exhibition matchup against Union (Tenn.) inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Nov. 2; the Lady Toppers will then go on the road to open the regular season, squaring off against Missouri in the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge in Iowa City, Iowa, on Nov. 10 before battling either Iowa or Quinnipiac on Nov. 11.

The Lady Toppers will open their regular season home schedule on Tuesday, Nov. 14, against seven-time NCAA Final Four participant Notre Dame, in what could potentially be WKU's first matchup against a top-five opponent since taking on then-No. 4 Louisville on Nov. 27, 2013.

WKU TABBED SECOND IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

IRVING, Texas – Lady Topper Basketball has been picked second in the annual Preseason C-USA Coaches' Poll as announced by the league office on Friday afternoon, picking up eight first-place votes to sit just behind Middle Tennessee at the top of the standings.

WKU's eight first-place votes were a league high, topping the six received by the Blue Raiders. Now in their fourth year as members of C-USA, the Lady Toppers have never been picked lower than third in the preseason poll and have been chosen in the top two in three of the four campaigns.

Over the last three seasons, the Lady Toppers have posted an 84-19 record (.816); the 84 victories for WKU are the most in a three-season span by any team in C-USA's history. The Lady Toppers have also captured a pair of C-USA Tournament championships, including the 2017 crown after a 67-56 win over Southern Miss on March 11, and have advanced to the NCAA Tournament twice, narrowly falling to perennial powerhouses Texas and Ohio State by a combined nine points.

In conference play, WKU posted its first undefeated home record (9-0) since the 2007-08 season inside E.A. Diddle Arena last season. Since joining C-USA, the Lady Toppers own a 47-7 mark (.870) against conference opponents during the regular season and have won 15 or more C-USA matchups in each of their three seasons. In addition, for the first time in program history, the Lady Toppers have put together three consecutive 27-win seasons, including the second 30-win season in school history in 2014-15.

WKU is set to open the 2017-18 season with an exhibition matchup against Union (Tenn.) inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Nov. 2; the Lady Toppers will then go on the road to open the regular season, squaring off against Missouri in the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge in Iowa City, Iowa, on Nov. 10 before battling either Iowa or Quinnipiac on Nov. 11.

The Lady Toppers will open their regular season home schedule on Tuesday, Nov. 14, against seven-time NCAA Final Four participant Notre Dame, in what could potentially be WKU's first matchup against a top-five opponent since taking on then-No. 4 Louisville on Nov. 27, 2013.

Season and single-game tickets are now on sale through the WKU Ticket Office online at WKUTickets.com or by phone at 1-800-5-BIGRED or 745-5222 locally.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Lady Topper Basketball head coach Michelle Clark-Heard, senior forwards Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown and sophomore guard Whitney Creech represented WKU in its annual on-campus Media Day on Friday afternoon inside E.A. Diddle Arena's Paul Just Media Center.

"Every day we show some more progress. I love this group and love this team, but we are young. We come in some days and look better than others," Clark-Heard said in her interview on Friday. "I think right now, that's expected, especially for a team that has a lot of new faces. Overall it's been good, it's been a great progression."

The Lady Toppers will be guided by Clark-Heard in her sixth season with the program. The former WKU standout player has guided the team to 130 victories since taking the reins prior to the 2012-13 season, the most among C-USA programs. In addition, the Lady Toppers have reached the postseason following all five campaigns, including a trip to the NCAA Tournament in Lexington, Ky., in 2016-17. Under Clark-Heard, the Lady Toppers have been picked no lower than third in the annual preseason C-USA coaches' poll, including a second-place prediction this season.

Led by preseason All-C-USA selections Tashia and Ivy Brown, the Lady Toppers will look to continue building on one of the most successful eras in program history in 2017-18. Over the last three seasons, WKU has posted an impressive 84-19 (.816) record and has captured 27 or more victories in three consecutive seasons for the first time in program history.

WKU will open its 2017-18 campaign next Thursday evening, Nov. 2, at 7 p.m. as the Lady Toppers host Union (Tenn.) in an exhibition matchup inside E.A. Diddle Arena. The team will then open the regular season on the road at the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge on Nov. 10 and Nov. 11, squaring off against Missouri and either Iowa or Quinnipiac. For WKU's regular season home opener on Nov. 14, the Lady Toppers will welcome perennial powerhouse Notre Dame to Diddle Arena.

"I am so grateful and thankful to Coach Muffett [McGraw] because there are a lot of teams that won't come here and play us. I set out every year to try to get the best here for our fans, our community and for the game of women's basketball," Clark-Heard said. "I hope on November 14 that people really understand that this place should be packed. Notre Dame has been to five out of the last seven Final Fours and Muffett is a Hall of Fame coach. I've had the luxury of coaching a couple of her players with USA Basketball, and it is an honor. We are excited about the challenge to be able to bring them here to Diddle Arena."

Lady Topper Basketball holds a rich tradition as one of the traditional powerhouses in women's college basketball. Ranked 10th in NCAA history with 960 victories, WKU has collected more wins in its 53-year history than perennially strong programs such as Notre Dame, North Carolina, Maryland and Baylor. In 2017-18, WKU will seek to return to the NCAA Tournament for the 20th time in school history and collect the program's first tournament victory since the 1999-00 campaign.

Season and single-game tickets are now on sale through the WKU Ticket Office online at WKUTickets.com or by phone at 1-800-5-BIGRED or 745-5222 locally.

WKU Lady Topper Basketball Media Day
October 27, 2017
Interview Transcripts

Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard

On the progress of the team this offseason...

"Every day we show some more progress. I love this group and love this team, but we are young. We come in some days and look better than others. I think right now, that's expected, especially for a team that has a lot of new faces. Overall it's been good, it's been a great progression."

On Raneem Elgedawy...

"We're just really excited that she is here and a part of the program. Her skill set is really, really good. We're working now for her to get stronger, but she understands the game and is going to bring a positive punch for Ivy [Brown] and Tashia [Brown] and give them that experience because she has played overseas."

On the impact that the freshman class will have...

"I think it's possible that one of our freshmen might be in the starting lineup before we start the season. I think that's a good thing. That's something that, as a coach, you want every single day: for someone to step up and be able to challenge the returners so that we can get better. Right now, Sherry Porter is playing very well and comes in every day and competes at a high level, so I'm so proud of her, Nichel [Tampa] and Terri [Smith]. The freshmen are doing really well."

On Tashia and Ivy's roles as seniors...

"I think she and Ivy both understand that they are our one-two punch. We're the only team that has two players on the preseason all-conference team. As a staff, we will figure out what we need Tashia to do. We need her to be able to score and do all of the other things that she's been doing. A lot of focus will be on Tashia and Ivy, and we've talked to a lot of our young players about that. Tashia and Ivy both are two of the most humble players that I have ever been around, and they will do whatever it takes for this team to win."

On hosting Notre Dame on November 14...

"I am so grateful and thankful to Coach Muffett [McGraw] because there are a lot of teams that won't come here and play us. I set out every year to try to get the best here for our fans, our community and for the game of women's basketball. I hope on November 14 that people really understand that this place should be packed. Notre Dame has been to five out of the last seven Final Fours and Muffett is a Hall of Fame coach. I've had the luxury of coaching a couple of her players with USA Basketball, and it is an honor. We are excited about the challenge to be able to bring them here to Diddle Arena."

On having Greg Collins as associate head coach...

"Any time you get a head coaching job, you have to have someone beside you that you trust. Greg has been here with me the whole time, from the beginning where we didn't know what would happen that first season to where we're at now. He is one of the most selfless individuals that I've been around and he loves the game, loves the girls and loves this university."

Senior Forward Ivy Brown

On having a young team in 2017-18...

"It will be different, but we work every day to help prepare the young players for game-like situations. We give them advice when we can and let them know that it's okay to mess up. We've been there, we've been through it, and we try to encourage them as much as possible."

On hosting Notre Dame...

"It will be awesome. Hopefully we have a big crowd come out and support us with a great atmosphere. To be the best, you have to play the best, so you want to play as many of those teams as possible just to show everybody else what you're made of."

On Sidnee Bopp's progression...

"We just want to see her continue what she started for us last year. She was incredible at the end of the regular season and into the C-USA and NCAA Tournaments. We want her to continue to have confidence and to shoot the ball the way that she did, that will be important for us."

Senior Forward Tashia Brown

On WKU's "third option" behind herself and Ivy...

"I think that's a good thing because you never know who is going to step up for us. We have different people like Whitney [Creech] and a freshman, Sherry [Porter], who has been very good and very aggressive in practice. Sidnee can shoot the ball really well. We have a lot of different people and I think any of them can step up on any night."

On the experience of senior year...

"It's bittersweet. We've been here three years and we have won a lot. We want to continue the success that we've had, and this has definitely been a time to remember for us."

On finding distributors to replace Kendall Noble and Micah Jones...

"I wouldn't really say that this year is different, we have other people that can step up like Sidnee and Whitney who can take over that role of getting assists, so that will help a lot with moving the ball around."

Sophomore Guard Whitney Creech

On stepping into a bigger role...

"Last year Kendall and Micah mostly had the role of distributing the ball, so this year Sidnee and I have had to step up and work on that in practice: facilitating ball movement and helping other players get open shots."

On being one of the top teams in C-USA...

"I think we always get everyone's best game in conference play. When someone else gives you their best, it's going to make the best come out of you as well, so I think games like that always make you better."

On how she has improved this offseason...

"I think this year has been an easier adjustment than last year; coming from high school to play at this level was difficult. With last year under my belt and one year of experience, I think it's going to help me improve as a player."

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Coming off a season in which it captured the C-USA regular season and tournament titles, WKU will open its 2017-18 campaign on Thursday evening at 7 p.m. inside E.A. Diddle Arena as the Lady Toppers welcome Union (Tenn.) for an exhibition tilt.

Under Michelle Clark-Heard, the Lady Toppers have won each of their last six exhibition contests by an average of 43.7 points, including a 47-point win over Young Harris College last season. WKU has won all six open exhibitions since the 2012-13 season by more than 30 points.

The Lady Toppers return their one-two punch of Preseason All-C-USA selections Tashia and Ivy Brown, along with C-USA All-Tournament Team choice Sidnee Bopp, Kayla Smith, Dee Givens, Malaka Frank and Whitney Creech.

Union, located in Jackson, Tenn., is led by longtime head coach Mark Campbell, who is entering his 19th season with the program. Last season, the Lady Bulldogs posted a 17-12 overall record and a 12-10 mark in Gulf South Conference play at the Division II level. In 2016-17, Bria Gaines led Union with 13.9 points and 7.4 rebounds, and the Lady Bulldogs also return double-digit scorers in Jada Smith (13.5) and Jada Perkins (10.5).

Following Thursday's game, WKU will open its regular season on Friday, Nov. 10, against No. 16 Missouri in the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge in Iowa City, Iowa.

EXHIBITION

WKU (0-0, 0-0 C-USA) vs. Union (Tenn.) (0-0, 0-0 Gulf South)

November 2, 2017 | 7:00 p.m. (CT)

Bowling Green, Ky. | E.A. Diddle Arena (7,326)

QUICK SHOTS

- WKU has won 33 consecutive exhibition games and owns a perfect 6-0 mark in the contests under Michelle Clark-Heard. Last season, the Lady Toppers defeated Young Harris College, 98-51, inside Diddle Arena.

- Tashia and Ivy Brown were selected as members of the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA Team, making WKU the only school with two different players selected. Both are coming off strong seasons that saw Ivy earn First Team All-C-USA honors, while Tashia was named to the All-C-USA Second Team in 2016-17.

- WKU was picked second in the Preseason C-USA Coaches' Poll with eight first-place votes. The Lady Toppers have been selected in the top three in all four seasons as a member of the league.

- Michelle Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

- Already 21st in program history with 1,331 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season. To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 432 points during her final season on The Hill.

- Over its first three seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 47-7 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted a 16-2 record last season.

- Preseason All-C-USA pick Ivy Brown returns as one of the top post players in the conference after averaging 13.1 points and 8.2 rebounds per game with eight double-doubles last season. Among all returning C-USA players, Brown is the lone individual who ranked in the top 15 in the league in both scoring (15th) and rebounding (fourth) last season.

- The breakout star of the 2017 C-USA Tournament, junior Sidnee Bopp exploded onto the scene by making 20 three-pointers over WKU's final five games in 2016-17, nearly doubling her entire career output up to that point. Bopp finished as C-USA's leader in three-point percentage (.442) last season, a number that was also the fifth-best single-season mark in WKU history.

- WKU put together 14-1 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted a 63-11 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13. The Lady Toppers currently sport a 13-game winning streak inside Diddle Arena dating back to their 85-74 win over then-No. 23 Indiana on Nov. 19 last season.

WKU KICKS OFF 2017-18 SEASON WITH THURSDAY NIGHT EXHIBITION VS. UNION

Coming off a season in which it captured the C-USA regular season and tournament titles, WKU will open its 2017-18 campaign on Thursday evening at 7 p.m. inside E.A. Diddle Arena as the Lady Toppers welcome Union (Tenn.) for an exhibition tilt.

Under Michelle Clark-Heard, the Lady Toppers have won each of their last six exhibition contests by an average of 43.7 points, including a 47-point win over Young Harris College last season. WKU has won all six open exhibitions since the 2012-13 season by more than 30 points.

The Lady Toppers return their one-two punch of Preseason All-C-USA selections Tashia and Ivy Brown, along with C-USA All-Tournament Team choice Sidnee Bopp, Kayla Smith, Dee Givens, Malaka Frank and Whitney Creech.

Union is led by longtime head coach Mark Campbell, who is entering his 19th season with the program. Last season, the Lady Bulldogs posted a 17-12 overall record and a 12-10 mark in Gulf South Conference play at the Division II level. In 2016-17, Bria Gaines led Union with 13.9 points and 7.4 rebounds, and the Lady Bulldogs also return double-digit scorers in Jada Smith (13.5) and Jada Perkins (10.5).

Following Thursday's game, WKU will open its regular season on Friday, Nov. 10, against No. 16 Missouri in the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge in Iowa City, Iowa.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

► Tashia and Ivy Brown were selected as members of the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA Team, making WKU the only school with two different players selected. Both are coming off strong seasons that saw Ivy earn First Team All-C-USA honors, while Tashia was named to the All-C-USA Second Team in 2016-17.

► WKU was picked second in the Preseason C-USA Coaches' Poll with eight first-place votes. The Lady Toppers have been selected in the top three in all four seasons as a member of the league.

► WKU has won 33 consecutive exhibition games and owns a perfect 6-0 mark in the contests under Michelle Clark-Heard. Last season, the Lady Toppers defeated Young Harris College, 98-51, inside Diddle Arena.

GAME NOTES

MIXING NEWCOMERS WITH VETS

WKU is set to unveil a new-look roster in 2017-18, mixing five eligible newcomers with seven returners. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown are set to lead the roster this season, with C-USA All-Tournament pick Sidnee Bopp, Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Malaka Frank and Kayla Smith also back for the Lady Toppers.

Newcomers Raneem Elgedawy, Terri Smith, Nichel Tampa, Sherry Porter and Elizabeth Anderson will also be seeking to make their marks during their debut seasons on The Hill.

NEW VOICE OF THE LADY TOPPERS

Legendary WKU play-by-play announcer Barry Williams announced his retirement during the offseason after calling more than 1,000 games for the Lady Toppers.

Jevin Redman, a recent graduate of the University of Southern Indiana with an already well-decorated play-by-play career, is set to make his regular season debut with WKU on Nov. 10.

KEEPING THE STREAK(S) GOING

WKU has won 20 or more games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that the Lady Toppers have had such a streak since 2004-05 to 2007-08.

In addition to that stretch, the Lady Toppers have accomplished the impressive feat of winning 27 or more games in each of the last three seasons, marking the first time that that has been done in the storied history of the program.

WKU has also posted four consecutive seasons with a winning streak of 10 or more games. The Lady Toppers are one of just eight programs in the nation with a 10-game winning streak in each of the last three seasons, joining perennial title contenders such as UConn, Maryland,

Notre Dame and Baylor.

CLARK-HEARD AT 130 WINS AND COUNTING

Michelle Clark-Heard has made an incredible impact on the Lady Toppers since taking over the program in 2012-13, amassing a 130-39 record over the last five seasons.

Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

By winning her 100th game in 2015-16, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

WKU PICKED SECOND IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After capturing the C-USA regular season and tournament titles last season, WKU has been picked second in the annual preseason coaches' poll. Despite garnering more first-place votes (eight) than Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers earned the runner-up spot and have been picked in the top three in each of their four C-USA campaigns.

BROWN, BROWN TABBED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE BY COACHES

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown have been selected to the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA team as selected by the league's coaches.

Both were honored as All-C-USA selections following the season in 2016-17, with Ivy garnering First Team honors and Tashia picked up Second Team accolades. Tashia Brown was also chosen to the 2016-17 Preseason All-C-USA Team and earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

Last season, the duo combined for 26.5 points and 12.3 rebounds per game, serving as two of WKU's "Big Three" alongside Kendall Noble. In 2017-18, the Browns appear poised to become one of the top one-two punches among all C-USA players.

FOURTH YEAR IN CONFERENCE USA

Over its first three seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 47-7 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted a 16-2 record last season.

THAT 80s SHOW

WKU broke the 80-point barrier nine times in 2016-17 and has scored 80 or more points on at least seven occasions per season since Michelle Clark-Heard assumed control of the program in 2012-13.

By winning eight of its nine contests in which it hit 80 points this season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 47-1 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together 14-1 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted a 63-11 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers currently sport a 13-game winning streak inside Diddle Arena dating back to their 85-74 win over then-No. 23 Indiana on Nov. 19 last season.

TOUGH UNDER PRESSURE

Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, the Lady Toppers have played 26 contests that have been decided by three or fewer points. In such games, WKU has posted an 18-8 record overall.

In the same vein, the Lady Toppers have been very tough closers down the stretch as well, recording a 119-11 record when leading or tied with five minutes remaining in games since 2012-13.

ONE OF A KIND

Preseason All-C-USA pick Ivy Brown returns as one of the top post players in the conference after averaging 13.1 points and 8.2 rebounds per game with eight double-doubles last season.

Among all returning C-USA players, Brown is the lone individual who ranked

JOINING THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown are poised to be two of the top C-USA players in 2017-18. Tashia has already entered WKU's 1,000-point club and ranks 21st in school history in scoring, while Ivy sits just 50 points shy of becoming the 39th member of the club.

in the top 15 in the league in both scoring (15th) and rebounding (fourth) last season.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Already 21st in program history with 1,331 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season.

To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 432 points during her final season on The Hill; as a sophomore, the Lake Park, Ga., native totaled 579 points before adding 456 more last season.

BOPP IT

The breakout star of the 2017 C-USA Tournament, junior Sidnee Bopp exploded onto the scene by making 20 three-pointers over WKU's final five games in 2016-17, nearly doubling her entire career output up to that point.

Bopp finished as C-USA's leader in three-point percentage (.442) last season, a number that was also the fifth-best single-season mark in WKU history.

LOOKING AHEAD

Following their exhibition tilt against Union, WKU will open the regular season on the road in the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge, squaring off against Missouri and either Iowa or Quinnipiac on Nov. 10 and 11.

The Lady Toppers will then return home on Nov. 14 at 7 p.m. for one of the biggest home games in recent memory, welcoming perennial powerhouse Notre Dame to E.A. Diddle Arena for a Tuesday night battle.

WKU LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, Sweet 16 appearances, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

MICHELLE CLARK-HEARD
Sixth Season

“What Michelle Clark-Heard has done is instilled pride back in Western Kentucky... Now with Michelle Clark-Heard, with the passion and pride she has, because she was a player at Western Kentucky, she is bringing that back to Bowling Green.”

-ESPN Analyst Carolyn Peck

Michelle Clark-Heard has quickly shaped the Western Kentucky University Lady Topper Basketball program back into a national name, putting the Lady Toppers back on the national map. In just three seasons at WKU as head coach, Clark-Heard has reached two NCAA Tournaments, won two conference tournament championships and a regular season conference title while posting 76 wins, the most in a coaches first three seasons in WKU women's basketball or men's basketball history.

Clark-Heard's third season directing her alma mater in 2014-15 was one of the best the storied program has seen. She led the Lady Toppers to a 30-5 record, posting a Conference USA record 30 wins in the program's first season as a league member.

The season began with the Lady Toppers making huge waves early by reaching the finals of the Preseason Women's NIT with wins at Colorado and over eventual American East Conference champion Albany before a loss on the road at Mississippi State. WKU also posted non-conference wins over Hofstra, Tulane and Ole Miss.

The Lady Toppers made an immediate impact in Conference USA, posting a 16-2 record to tie the league mark for league wins in a season, including eight wins on the road, to secure the program's first regular season league title as a Conference USA member and 11th in program history. In early January, she led the Lady Toppers to the Associated Press Top 25 Rankings for the first time since the 1997-98 season. She also became just the 10th coach in NCAA history to lead their alma mater into the Associated Press Top 25 rankings as both a player and coach when the Lady Toppers were ranked for two weeks in January 2015.

The Lady Toppers then won three games in three days by a combined eight points to secure a tournament title at the Conference USA Championships in Birmingham, Ala.

Following the season, Clark-Heard was recognized for her outstanding accomplishments, earning Conference USA Coach of the Year and 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I Regional Coach of the Year honors. Her selection as a WBCA Regional Coach of the Year also made her a finalist for the Pat Summitt Trophy, awarded annually to the 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year.

Her success at WKU has also helped her land new opportunities in the USA Basketball ranks. Clark-Heard was named an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Pan American Women's Basketball Team, joining head coach Lisa Bluder of the University of Iowa and fellow assistant coach Scott Rueck of Oregon State University on the 2015 staff.

In Toronto, Clark-Heard helped lead the United States to a silver medal in her international assistant coaching debut, falling just short in the gold medal game against the host Canadians.

In 2013-14, Clark-Heard helped WKU win its final seven regular season games before reeling off three straight in New Orleans, La. in March 2014 to win the Sun Belt Conference Championships with a 61-60 win over Arkansas State after WKU faced a 14-point deficit in the second half. The season

also saw WKU defeat Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic after facing a 16-point deficit in the second half.

The season was capped by a 87-74 loss to fifth-ranked Baylor in Waco, Texas in the opening round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament, ending the longest NCAA Tournament appearance drought in program history.

The run to the tournament helped WKU secure a 24-9 record and finish with 20-wins for the second straight season. Her consecutive 20-win seasons to begin her time at WKU marked the first time in Sun Belt Conference history that a team had won 20 games in back-to-back years following a season in which it had won less than 10 games.

Her success in 2013-14 followed a massive improvement on the floor in 2012-13.

In her first year as a Division One coach in 2012-13, Clark-Heard helped WKU to a 13-win improvement over the 2011-12 season output. It was the largest in Sun Belt Conference history as WKU turned a 9-21 mark into a 22-11 record. WKU's eight win improvement in conference play from five wins to 13 wins was tied for the largest in league history. The Lady Toppers also became the first team in Sun Belt Conference history to win 20 games in the season following a year in which the team won less than 10 games earlier this season.

Her first season at WKU also showcased her ability to develop players. The duo of Chastity Gooch and Alexis Govan averaged a combined 12.7 ppg in 2011-12 but posted 36.5 per outing in 2012-13. The duo combined for 1,203 points after posting 381 last season. The team also saw major improvement in nearly all statistical categories, including improving free throw shooting by over 11 percent to .739, the third highest mark in school history.

Clark-Heard spent five years as an assistant coach to Jeff Walz at Louisville. During her time with the program, the Cardinals made three Sweet 16 appearances and made their first Final Four appearance, finishing as the National Runner-Up in 2009. A roster she helped build also reached the Final Four in 2013 after beating No. 1 Baylor and national power Tennessee in the regional semifinals and finals. Clark-Heard was instrumental in bringing in the No. 12 recruiting class in 2008, then followed with three consecutive Top 10 classes in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The 2010 recruiting class was the highest ranked class in school history, ranked fifth in the nation.

Among the most notable players Clark-Heard coached at Louisville was overall number one pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, Angel McCoughtry and overall number eight pick in the 2013 WNBA Draft, Shoni Shimmel. Overall, she coached five players at Louisville that went on to be drafted in the WNBA Draft.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Clark-Heard spent two seasons as the head coach at Kentucky State, taking the reigns of the program in June 2005. She took over a program that had won just one game during the 2004-05 season. In her first season she led the Thorobrettes to a 5-23 record, four of the wins were against Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opponents. Her team was picked to finish 11th

in the SIAC but ended the season in ninth place. In her second season at KSU, she guided the Thorobrettes to an impressive 19-9 record, finishing tied for fourth place in the SIAC. Clark-Heard earned SIAC Coach-of-the-Year honors after the impressive turnaround. Her 2006-07 Thorobrettes were the second most improved team in NCAA Division II women's basketball during the 2006-07 season.

Before being named head coach at Kentucky State, Clark-Heard spent three seasons at Cincinnati as an assistant and four years at Nebraska in the same role. The Bearcats advanced to postseason play in two of her three seasons there while she helped Nebraska reach the NCAA Tournament twice during her time with the team. She was also responsible for helping sign McDonald's All-American Janice Bright for the Cornhuskers in 2001 while coaching alongside current Louisville coach Jeff Walz and under former WKU coach Paul Sanderford.

A four-year letterwinner on the Hill (1987-90), Clark-Heard was part of four NCAA Tournament teams during her Lady Topper career. She also helped guide the Lady Toppers to a pair of Sun Belt Conference Tournament championships (1988 and 1989) and two conference regular-season titles (1989 and 1990). She played in 118 games during her four years in the Hill, scoring 790 points and pulling down 615 rebounds. WKU amassed 89 victories during her four years in uniform, winning 70 percent of the games over that span and putting together three 20-win seasons.

Upon graduation from WKU, she spent eight years working within a recreational setting, five in Bowling Green and three with the Louisville Metro Parks Department. While in Louisville, she also served as head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at DuPont Manual High School for the 1994-95 seasons and played professionally with the Kentucky Marauders of the Women's Basketball Association in 1994-95.

The Louisville native earned Kentucky High School State Player of the Year honors in 1986 while playing at Atherton High School and was inducted into the Atherton Hall of Fame in 2003.

She was married on August 16, 2003 to Luther Heard.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – WKU connected on 23 of its 31 shots (74.2 percent) in the second half and tallied 88 points over the final three quarters as the Lady Toppers picked up a 101-58 exhibition victory over Union (Tenn.) inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Thursday evening.

WKU's win was its 34th consecutive victory in exhibition play as well as its seventh win in such games under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have won each of those seven games by 32 or more points, including Thursday night's 43-point win.

Senior Ivy Brown had a double-double at halftime and finished with a game-high 26 points and 12 rebounds, and freshman Raneem Elgedawy, making her debut on The Hill, notched a double-double as well with 20 points and a game-high 14 boards. As a team, WKU outrebounded the Lady Bulldogs by a 45-21 margin and allowed only five offensive rebounds on the night. Elgedawy and fellow freshman Sherry Porter drew the start in their first official action with WKU.

Sophomore Whitney Creech turned in a strong all-around performance with 13 points, six rebounds and seven assists across 31 minutes of action, and Tashia Brown (12) and Dee Givens (11) rounded out the WKU group in double figures for scoring.

For Union, Chelsey Shumpert totaled 26 points and was joined in double figures by Jada Perkins with 11 points. The Lady Bulldogs were held to just 23-of-58 shooting (39.7 percent) on the night by a stout Lady Topper defense, which also forced 21 turnovers.

WKU scored the first six points of the night but could not find separation over the opening 10 minutes of the game. The early lead grew to as many as eight points on two occasions, but each time Union was able to pull its way back into the game; Shumpert's three-pointer with 1:18 to play cut the advantage to just five points, and the Lady Toppers carried a 13-7 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Leading 33-23 with 2:54 to play before the halftime break, WKU closed out the first half on a 6-0 run to take a 39-25 lead into the locker room. Ivy Brown scored a pair of layups off feeds from Tashia Brown and Creech to key the run, and Tashia Brown's pullup jumper with nine seconds remaining gave the Lady Toppers their largest lead of the night to that point.

WKU continued to build on its lead coming out of the break, going up by 20 points for the first time on Creech's layup at the 7:52 mark early in the third quarter. Union twice trimmed the deficit back under 20 points over the next three minutes, but the Lady Toppers did not allow the Lady Bulldogs to come any closer than 18 points over that span.

Holding a 58-36 lead with 3:17 left in the quarter, the Lady Toppers closed out the third period on a 12-2 run to seize control of the matchup. Four different Lady Toppers scored during the stretch, buoyed by four points from Elgedawy and a three-pointer from freshman Terri Smith, and Elgedawy's turn-around layup at the buzzer off a long pass from Creech put WKU ahead, 70-38, entering the final quarter.

Over the final 10 minutes, Union would get no closer than the initial 32-point deficit that it faced. WKU scored the first five points of the frame and saw its lead grow to as many as 46 points two times, first on a layup by Elgedawy with two minutes remaining and again on Creech's jumper with 1:26 on the clock that pushed WKU over the century mark.

Following its exhibition victory on Thursday, WKU will kick off the 2017-18 regular season on Friday, Nov. 10, at 2:30 p.m. in Iowa City, Iowa, as the Lady Toppers compete in the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge.

WKU will first meet No. 16/16 Missouri in its Friday matchup before battling either the host Iowa or 2016-17 Sweet Sixteen participant Quinnipiac in its second game on Saturday, Nov. 11.

Postgame Quotes – WKU vs. Union (Tenn.) – November 2, 2017

Sophomore Guard Whitney Creech

On the outlook of the game...

"I think this was a good way just to kind of see where we're at as a team. It was good to see all of to see all of the other people step up and knock down shots and play defense... Playing with the same group we built a lot of chemistry and we kind of figured out how to play with each other and how each person plays and to give them the ball in the spots where they can be successful."

Freshman Guard Sherry Porter

On what they learned from the exhibition game...

"I think we got everything that we expected. Like we said, we've got a long way to go and we've just got to trust Coach and trust the process and just keep playing."

On adapting to collegiate basketball...

"I think it's the pace of the game because college ball is a lot quicker than high school. So it's just doing everything Coach Heard is telling me to do and going out there and executing all the game plans."

Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard

On Raneem Elgedawy...

"I told you, Raneem is pretty special. The game, she has a very high (basketball) IQ and she plays really hard as you see. I think the more she continues to keep getting comfortable, I think she'll get better and better and that's what we're really excited about."

On the upcoming games...

"We'll really be able to break film down and see more of the stuff we need to work on for the rest of this week before we get to Missouri."

CLARK-HEARD, LADY TOPPERS INK TRIO OF EARLY SIGNEES

Photos of Akira Levy, Elysa Wesolek and Kallie Searcy Attached

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Lady Topper Basketball Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard has announced the signing of a trio of student-athletes on Wednesday evening, with Akira Levy, Elysa Wesolek and Kallie Searcy joining the Lady Toppers as the first members of the Class of 2022.

“I am extremely excited to introduce our newest class of Lady Toppers to Lady Topper Nation!” Clark-Heard said of the newest Lady Toppers. “First and foremost, the most impressive thing about our newest Lady Toppers is that they are winners. Combined, they have won five state championships, have seven state championship game appearances and own countless region and district championships. I truly believe that Akira, Elysa and Kallie will continue our winning tradition and excite our fans. We are excited for all that they will achieve during their senior years and the added championships they will bring to The Hill next fall!”

A diverse class of one guard (Levy), one forward (Wesolek) and one center (Searcy), the trio is set to help fill the shoes of Tashia Brown and Ivy Brown following their graduation in May 2018. The three will join a highly successful program that has posted a 130-39 record over the last five seasons since Clark-Heard was named head coach; the Lady Toppers have also captured 84 wins over the last three seasons, the most by any team over a three-year span in C-USA history.

2017-18 WKU Lady Topper Basketball Early Signees

Akira Levy, 5-8, Cookeville, Tenn. (Upperman High School)

Elysa Wesolek, 6-1, Charleston, S.C. (Northwood Academy)

Kallie Searcy, 6-3, Brentwood, Tenn. (Brentwood Academy)

Akira Levy

Levy heads north to join the Lady Toppers following a decorated career at both the high school and club level, garnering national recognition for her dynamic play as a floor general at the point guard position. Ranked 66th overall and 18th among point guards in the ESPN Hoopgurlz recruiting rankings, Levy is a very well-rounded player capable of both distributing the ball as well as creating her own shot. As a junior in 2016-17, she averaged 21.5 points, 3.9 rebounds and 6.3 assists per game while shooting 55 percent from the floor, putting her diverse skillset on display night in and night out for Upperman. As a result of her strong performance across the board last season, Levy was crowned TSSAA Miss Basketball at the AA level, becoming the second statewide Miss Basketball award winner to join the Lady Toppers under Clark-Heard. Ivy Brown was named Miss Kentucky Basketball as a senior in 2013-14 and has since developed into a First Team All-C-USA forward for WKU.

The TSSAA AA record-holder for points in a quarter with 20, Levy also received a glowing profile from the Collegiate Girls Basketball Report, ranking 63rd overall and 15th among point guards across the entire nation. As with many Lady Topper recruits, Levy has been a consistent winner at the high school level, culminating in the 2017 TSSAA AA State Championship that saw her earn recognition as the state tournament's most valuable player.

Adding to her long list of accolades, Levy was also named the Region 4 Tournament MVP, the District 8 Tournament MVP and the Upper Cumberland Player of the Year during her junior season. As she begins her career with the Lady Toppers in the 2018-19 season, Levy appears poised to become yet another strong guard under Clark-Heard, joining the likes of Lady Topper legends Kendall Noble and Micah Jones as she begins her journey on The Hill.

Clark-Heard on Levy...

“Akira is a dynamic point guard that has the ability to score but also passes the ball extremely well. I am looking forward to Akira’s energy and personality electrifying our fans and elevating the play of those around her. She will allow us to speed up the tempo of our high-scoring offense even more and I know she will thrive in our system. Akira has played at a high level at both Upperman High School for coach Dana McWilliams and on the Nike EYBL circuit with the Tennessee Flight.”

Elysa Wesolek

Wesolek is set to join the Lady Toppers from Northwood Academy in Charleston, S.C., and will become the first letterwinner in program history from the state of South Carolina.

Receiving strong marks across the board from ESPN Hoopgurlz (89), Collegiate Girls Basketball Report (19+) and All Star Girls Report (91), Wesolek brings the ability to play in multiple spots on the floor to the Lady Toppers, whether playing as a post while battling for baskets and rebounds inside the paint or scoring from the perimeter with her ability to shoot the ball.

A two-time SCISA All-State selection and the 2017 SCISA State Player of the Year, Wesolek led Northwood Academy with 13.1 points and 8.4 rebounds per game while also shooting a stellar 58 percent from the floor. The incoming freshman was also named the SCISA Tournament MVP after leading Northwood to its third consecutive SCISA 3A state championship.

Like Levy, Wesolek has been a proven winner at the high school level with her three state championships and at the club level while playing for the SC 76ers. Standing at 6’1”, she will help to ease the departures of Ivy and Tashia Brown during her freshman campaign.

Clark-Heard on Wesolek...

“Elysa is a versatile forward that can score in a variety of ways. She fits perfectly into our offensive system and stretches the floor with her ability to score from both the paint and the perimeter. Elysa has experienced a great deal of success at the high school level and I am excited that she is bringing that championship mentality to WKU.”

Kallie Searcy

A member of the Brentwood Academy squad that reached the state championship game at the TSSAA Division II Class AA level in 2017, Searcy will bring an immediate boost in size to the Lady Toppers when she joins the program in the fall of 2018. At 6’3”, Searcy will combine with Arame Niang and Raneem Elgedawy to give WKU a towering presence inside against opponets.

Over the last two seasons, Searcy has helped to lead Brentwood Academy to a 52-12 (.813) overall record and averaged 4.8 points and 4.2 rebounds per game as a junior this past season. A strong force inside the paint, Searcy has received strong grades from both the All Star Girls Report (91) and Collegiate Girls Basketball Report (18-) entering her final high school season.

As a future Lady Topper, Searcy will bring size on both ends of the court and a strong defensive-minded presence underneath the basket. With the Lady Toppers losing a pair of forwards to graduation, Searcy’s size will be counted on to make an immediate impact on The Hill.

Clark-Heard on Searcy...

“Kallie has been a part of one of the most successful high school programs in Nashville, playing at Brentwood Academy for head coach Rhonda Brown. Kallie will give us needed size at the forward and center positions and added toughness on the defensive end.”

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - WKU is set to kick off the 2017-18 regular season with two bouts this weekend at the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge, taking on No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday at 2:30 p.m. before battling either Iowa or RV/RV Quinnipiac on Saturday at either 2 p.m. or 4:30 p.m.

Under Michelle Clark-Heard, the Lady Toppers have knocked off a ranked opponent in each of the last two seasons (No. 16 Louisville in 2015-16 and No. 23 Indiana last season) and will have a chance to extend that streak to three straight years on Friday afternoon.

The Lady Toppers return their one-two punch of Preseason All-C-USA selections Tashia and Ivy Brown, along with C-USA All-Tournament Team choice Sidnee Bopp, Kayla Smith, Dee Givens, Malaka Frank and Whitney Creech.

Missouri is led by Head Coach Robin Pingeton and posted a 22-11 record in 2016-17, reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers are led by Sophie Cunningham, who tallied 17.5 points, 5.3 rebounds and 3.4 assists per game last season and also returns a second double-digit scorer in Cierra Porter (13.2). Porter was also the team's leading rebounder last season, pulling down 8.1 boards per outing.

Following the Hawkeye Challenge, WKU will return home on Tuesday at 7 p.m. to battle perennial powerhouse No. 6/5 Notre Dame inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

QUICK SHOTS

- WKU owns a 44-10 (.815) record in season openers during the modern era of the program and has posted a 4-1 record in season openers under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard. Last season, WKU defeated Alabama A&M, 96-32, inside E.A. Diddle Arena.
- WKU will be looking to knock off a ranked team for the third consecutive season on Friday afternoon against No. 16/16 Missouri. In 2015-16, WKU defeated No. 16 Louisville and followed that with a win over No. 23 Indiana last season.
- Tashia and Ivy Brown were selected as members of the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA Team, making WKU the only school with two different players selected. Both are coming off strong seasons that saw Ivy earn First Team All-C-USA honors, while Tashia was named to the All-C-USA Second Team in 2016-17.
- WKU was picked second in the Preseason C-USA Coaches' Poll with eight first-place votes. The Lady Toppers have been selected in the top three in all four seasons as a member of the league.
- Michelle Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

- Already 21st in program history with 1,331 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season. To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 432 points during her final season on The Hill.

- Over its first three seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 47-7 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted a 16-2 record last season.

- Preseason All-C-USA pick Ivy Brown returns as one of the top post players in the conference after averaging 13.1 points and 8.2 rebounds per game with eight double-doubles last season. Among all returning C-USA players, Brown is the lone individual who ranked in the top 15 in the league in both scoring (15th) and rebounding (fourth) last season.

- The breakout star of the 2017 C-USA Tournament, junior Sidnee Bopp exploded onto the scene by making 20 three-pointers over WKU's final five games in 2016-17, nearly doubling her entire career output up to that point. Bopp finished as C-USA's leader in three-point percentage (.442) last season, a number that was also the fifth-best single-season mark in WKU history.

- Jevin Redman, a recent graduate of the University of Southern Indiana with an already well-decorated play-by-play career, is set to make his regular season debut with WKU on Friday afternoon as the new Voice of the Lady Toppers.

WKU KICKS OFF 2017-18 SEASON WITH THURSDAY NIGHT EXHIBITION VS. UNION

WKU is set to kick off the 2017-18 regular season with two bouts this weekend at the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge, taking on No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday at 2:30 p.m. before battling either Iowa or RV/RV Quinnipiac on Saturday at either 2 p.m. or 4:30 p.m.

Under Michelle Clark-Heard, the Lady Toppers have knocked off a ranked opponent in each of the last two seasons (No. 16 Louisville in 2015-16 and No. 23 Indiana last season) and will have a chance to extend that streak to three straight years on Friday afternoon.

The Lady Toppers return their one-two punch of Preseason All-C-USA selections Tashia and Ivy Brown, along with C-USA All-Tournament Team choice Sidnee Bopp, Kayla Smith, Dee Givens, Malaka Frank and Whitney Creech.

Missouri is led by Head Coach Robin Pingeton and posted a 22-11 record in 2016-17, reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers are led by Sophie Cunningham, who tallied 17.5 points, 5.3 rebounds and 3.4 assists per game last season and also returns a second double-digit scorer in Cierra Porter (13.2). Porter was also the team's leading rebounder last season, pulling down 8.1 boards per outing.

Following the Hawkeye Challenge, WKU will return home on Tuesday at 7 p.m. to battle perennial powerhouse No. 6/5 Notre Dame inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

► Tashia and Ivy Brown were selected as members of the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA Team, making WKU the only school with two different players selected. Both are coming off strong seasons that saw Ivy earn First Team All-C-USA honors, while Tashia was named to the All-C-USA Second Team in 2016-17.

► WKU was picked second in the Preseason C-USA Coaches' Poll with eight first-place votes. The Lady Toppers have been selected in the top three in all four seasons as a member of the league.

► WKU owns a 44-10 (.815) record in season openers during the modern era of the program and has posted a 4-1 record in season openers under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard. Last season, WKU defeated Alabama A&M, 96-32, inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

MIXING NEWCOMERS WITH VETS

WKU is set to unveil a new-look roster in 2017-18, mixing five eligible newcomers with seven returners. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown are set to lead the roster this season, with C-USA All-Tournament pick Sidnee Bopp, Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Malaka Frank and Kayla Smith also back for the Lady Toppers.

Newcomers Raneem Elgedawy, Terri Smith, Nichel Tampa, Sherry Porter and Elizabeth Anderson will also be seeking to make their marks during their debut seasons on The Hill.

NEW VOICE OF THE LADY TOPPERS

Legendary WKU play-by-play announcer Barry Williams announced his retirement during the offseason after calling more than 1,000 games for the Lady Toppers.

Jevin Redman, a recent graduate of the University of Southern Indiana with an already well-decorated play-by-play career, is set to make his regular season debut with WKU on Friday afternoon.

KEEPING THE STREAK(S) GOING

WKU has won 20 or more games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that the Lady Toppers have had such a streak since 2004-05 to 2007-08.

In addition to that stretch, the Lady Toppers have accomplished the impressive feat of winning 27 or more games in each of the last three seasons, marking the first time that that has been done in the storied history of the program.

WKU has also posted four consecutive seasons with a winning streak of 10 or more games. The Lady Toppers are one of just eight programs in the nation with a 10-game winning streak in each of the last three seasons, joining perennial title contenders such as UConn, Maryland,

Notre Dame and Baylor.

CLARK-HEARD AT 130 WINS AND COUNTING

Michelle Clark-Heard has made an incredible impact on the Lady Toppers since taking over the program in 2012-13, amassing a 130-39 record over the last five seasons.

Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

By winning her 100th game in 2015-16, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

WKU PICKED SECOND IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After capturing the C-USA regular season and tournament titles last season, WKU has been picked second in the annual preseason coaches' poll. Despite garnering more first-place votes (eight) than Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers earned the runner-up spot and have been picked in the top three in each of their four C-USA campaigns.

BROWN, BROWN TABBED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE BY COACHES

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown have been selected to the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA team as selected by the league's coaches.

Both were honored as All-C-USA selections following the season in 2016-17, with Ivy garnering First Team honors and Tashia picked up Second Team accolades. Tashia Brown was also chosen to the 2016-17 Preseason All-C-USA Team and earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

Last season, the duo combined for 26.5 points and 12.3 rebounds per game, serving as two of WKU's "Big Three" alongside Kendall Noble. In 2017-18, the Browns appear poised to become one of the top one-two punches among all C-USA players.

THAT 80S SHOW

WKU broke the 80-point barrier nine times in 2016-17 and has scored 80 or more points on at least seven occasions per season since Michelle Clark-Heard assumed control of the program in 2012-13.

By winning eight of its nine contests in which it hit 80 points this season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 47-1 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together 14-1 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted a 63-11 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers currently sport a 13-game winning streak inside Diddle Arena dating back to their 85-74 win over then-No. 23 Indiana on Nov. 19 last season.

TOUGH UNDER PRESSURE

Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, the Lady Toppers have played 26 contests that have been decided by three or fewer points. In such games, WKU has posted an 18-8 record overall.

In the same vein, the Lady Toppers have been very tough closers down the stretch as well, recording a 119-11 record when leading or tied with five minutes remaining in games since 2012-13.

ONE OF A KIND

Preseason All-C-USA pick Ivy Brown returns as one of the top post players in the conference after averaging 13.1 points and 8.2 rebounds per game with eight double-doubles last season.

Among all returning C-USA players, Brown is the lone individual who ranked

JOINING THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown are poised to be two of the top C-USA players in 2017-18. Tashia has already entered WKU's 1,000-point club and ranks 21st in school history in scoring, while Ivy sits just 50 points shy of becoming the 39th member of the club.

in the top 15 in the league in both scoring (15th) and rebounding (fourth) last season.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Already 21st in program history with 1,331 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season.

To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 432 points during her final season on The Hill; as a sophomore, the Lake Park, Ga., native totaled 579 points before adding 456 more last season.

BOPP IT

The breakout star of the 2017 C-USA Tournament, junior Sidnee Bopp exploded onto the scene by making 20 three-pointers over WKU's final five games in 2016-17, nearly doubling her entire career output up to that point.

Bopp finished as C-USA's leader in three-point percentage (.442) last season, a number that was also the fifth-best single-season mark in WKU history.

LOOKING AHEAD

Following this weekend's season-opening pair of games in Iowa, the Lady Toppers will return home for one of the biggest games in recent memory inside Diddle Arena, hosting No. 6/5 Notre Dame at 7 p.m. on Tuesday evening.

The Fighting Irish will be the highest-ranked opponent that the Lady Toppers have hosted since No. 4 Louisville on Nov. 27, 2013. Tuesday's meeting will mark the 25th time that a top-10 opponent has visited Diddle Arena.

WKU LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, Sweet 16 appearances, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

HC

MICHELLE CLARK-HEARD
Sixth Season

“What Michelle Clark-Heard has done is instilled pride back in Western Kentucky... Now with Michelle Clark-Heard, with the passion and pride she has, because she was a player at Western Kentucky, she is bringing that back to Bowling Green.”

-ESPN Analyst Carolyn Peck

Michelle Clark-Heard has quickly shaped the Western Kentucky University Lady Topper Basketball program back into a national name, putting the Lady Toppers back on the national map. In just three seasons at WKU as head coach, Clark-Heard has reached two NCAA Tournaments, won two conference tournament championships and a regular season conference title while posting 76 wins, the most in a coaches first three seasons in WKU women's basketball or men's basketball history.

Clark-Heard's third season directing her alma mater in 2014-15 was one of the best the storied program has seen. She led the Lady Toppers to a 30-5 record, posting a Conference USA record 30 wins in the program's first season as a league member.

The season began with the Lady Toppers making huge waves early by reaching the finals of the Preseason Women's NIT with wins at Colorado and over eventual American East Conference champion Albany before a loss on the road at Mississippi State. WKU also posted non-conference wins over Hofstra, Tulane and Ole Miss.

The Lady Toppers made an immediate impact in Conference USA, posting a 16-2 record to tie the league mark for league wins in a season, including eight wins on the road, to secure the program's first regular season league title as a Conference USA member and 11th in program history. In early January, she led the Lady Toppers to the Associated Press Top 25 Rankings for the first time since the 1997-98 season. She also became just the 10th coach in NCAA history to lead their alma mater into the Associated Press Top 25 rankings as both a player and coach when the Lady Toppers were ranked for two weeks in January 2015.

The Lady Toppers then won three games in three days by a combined eight points to secure a tournament title at the Conference USA Championships in Birmingham, Ala.

Following the season, Clark-Heard was recognized for her outstanding accomplishments, earning Conference USA Coach of the Year and 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I Regional Coach of the Year honors. Her selection as a WBCA Regional Coach of the Year also made her a finalist for the Pat Summitt Trophy, awarded annually to the 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year.

Her success at WKU has also helped her land new opportunities in the USA Basketball ranks. Clark-Heard was named an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Pan American Women's Basketball Team, joining head coach Lisa Bluder of the University of Iowa and fellow assistant coach Scott Rueck of Oregon State University on the 2015 staff.

In Toronto, Clark-Heard helped lead the United States to a silver medal in her international assistant coaching debut, falling just short in the gold medal game against the host Canadians.

In 2013-14, Clark-Heard helped WKU win its final seven regular season games before reeling off three straight in New Orleans, La. in March 2014 to win the Sun Belt Conference Championships with a 61-60 win over Arkansas State after WKU faced a 14-point deficit in the second half. The season

also saw WKU defeat Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic after facing a 16-point deficit in the second half.

The season was capped by a 87-74 loss to fifth-ranked Baylor in Waco, Texas in the opening round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament, ending the longest NCAA Tournament appearance drought in program history.

The run to the tournament helped WKU secure a 24-9 record and finish with 20-wins for the second straight season. Her consecutive 20-win seasons to begin her time at WKU marked the first time in Sun Belt Conference history that a team had won 20 games in back-to-back years following a season in which it had won less than 10 games.

Her success in 2013-14 followed a massive improvement on the floor in 2012-13.

In her first year as a Division One coach in 2012-13, Clark-Heard helped WKU to a 13-win improvement over the 2011-12 season output. It was the largest in Sun Belt Conference history as WKU turned a 9-21 mark into a 22-11 record. WKU's eight win improvement in conference play from five wins to 13 wins was tied for the largest in league history. The Lady Toppers also became the first team in Sun Belt Conference history to win 20 games in the season following a year in which the team won less than 10 games earlier this season.

Her first season at WKU also showcased her ability to develop players. The duo of Chastity Gooch and Alexis Govan averaged a combined 12.7 ppg in 2011-12 but posted 36.5 per outing in 2012-13. The duo combined for 1,203 points after posting 381 last season. The team also saw major improvement in nearly all statistical categories, including improving free throw shooting by over 11 percent to .739, the third highest mark in school history.

Clark-Heard spent five years as an assistant coach to Jeff Walz at Louisville. During her time with the program, the Cardinals made three Sweet 16 appearances and made their first Final Four appearance, finishing as the National Runner-Up in 2009. A roster she helped build also reached the Final Four in 2013 after beating No. 1 Baylor and national power Tennessee in the regional semifinals and finals. Clark-Heard was instrumental in bringing in the No. 12 recruiting class in 2008, then followed with three consecutive Top 10 classes in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The 2010 recruiting class was the highest ranked class in school history, ranked fifth in the nation.

Among the most notable players Clark-Heard coached at Louisville was overall number one pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, Angel McCoughtry and overall number eight pick in the 2013 WNBA Draft, Shoni Shimmel. Overall, she coached five players at Louisville that went on to be drafted in the WNBA Draft.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Clark-Heard spent two seasons as the head coach at Kentucky State, taking the reigns of the program in June 2005. She took over a program that had won just one game during the 2004-05 season. In her first season she led the Thorobrettes to a 5-23 record, four of the wins were against Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opponents. Her team was picked to finish 11th

in the SIAC but ended the season in ninth place. In her second season at KSU, she guided the Thorobrettes to an impressive 19-9 record, finishing tied for fourth place in the SIAC. Clark-Heard earned SIAC Coach-of-the-Year honors after the impressive turnaround. Her 2006-07 Thorobrettes were the second most improved team in NCAA Division II women's basketball during the 2006-07 season.

Before being named head coach at Kentucky State, Clark-Heard spent three seasons at Cincinnati as an assistant and four years at Nebraska in the same role. The Bearcats advanced to postseason play in two of her three seasons there while she helped Nebraska reach the NCAA Tournament twice during her time with the team. She was also responsible for helping sign McDonald's All-American Janice Bright for the Cornhuskers in 2001 while coaching alongside current Louisville coach Jeff Walz and under former WKU coach Paul Sanderford.

A four-year letterwinner on the Hill (1987-90), Clark-Heard was part of four NCAA Tournament teams during her Lady Topper career. She also helped guide the Lady Toppers to a pair of Sun Belt Conference Tournament championships (1988 and 1989) and two conference regular-season titles (1989 and 1990). She played in 118 games during her four years in the Hill, scoring 790 points and pulling down 615 rebounds. WKU amassed 89 victories during her four years in uniform, winning 70 percent of the games over that span and putting together three 20-win seasons.

Upon graduation from WKU, she spent eight years working within a recreational setting, five in Bowling Green and three with the Louisville Metro Parks Department. While in Louisville, she also served as head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at DuPont Manual High School for the 1994-95 seasons and played professionally with the Kentucky Marauders of the Women's Basketball Association in 1994-95.

The Louisville native earned Kentucky High School State Player of the Year honors in 1986 while playing at Atherton High School and was inducted into the Atherton Hall of Fame in 2003.

She was married on August 16, 2003 to Luther Heard.

WKU OPENS 2017-18 SEASON WITH UPSET OF NO. 16/16 MISSOURI, 79-76

PDF Box Score and Postgame Notes Attached

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) - Tashia Brown scored 13 of WKU's 18 points in the fourth quarter and finished with 30 as the Lady Toppers opened the season with a 79-76 upset of No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon at the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The Tigers took their last lead at 66-65 with 3:35 to play on two free throws by Sophie Cunningham, but Brown quickly responded with a three-pointer. Cunningham tied the game at 70 with a layup with 2:04 to go and Sidnee Bopp answered that with a 3-pointer. Brown scored the last six points for WKU in the final minute, including a contested pull-up jumper with 17.5 seconds to play and two free throws with 1.1 to go.

Dee Givens added 20 points for the Lady Toppers, who outscored Missouri 27-17 in the second quarter to lead 45-35 at the half. It is the third-straight season that WKU has knocked off a Top 25 team.

WKU will now face the winner of other Iowa or Quinnipiac on Saturday afternoon. If Quinnipiac wins, the Lady Toppers will play at 2 p.m., and WKU will take the court at 4:30 p.m. if the Hawkeyes are victorious.

WKU Lady Toppers vs. No. 16/16 Missouri Tigers

Postgame Notes

November 10, 2017 – 2017 Hawkeye Challenge

Carver-Hawkeye Arena; Iowa City, Iowa

FINAL SCORE: WKU 79, No. 16/16 Missouri 76

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU begins the 2017-18 season with a 1-0 record, while No. 16 Missouri falls to 0-1.
- With the victory, WKU improves to 45-10 during the modern era of the program in season openers; in season openers played away from E.A. Diddle Arena, the Lady Toppers now hold a 9-8 overall record.
  - Under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard, WKU is 5-1 in season openers.
- WKU and Missouri were meeting for just the second time in program history, and the series is now split 1-1 between the two sides.
  - Missouri won the only other meeting between the two, 86-76, on Dec. 4, 1999.
- Under Clark-Heard, WKU now owns a 3-6 record against ranked opponents dating back to the beginning of her tenure in 2012-13.
  - The Lady Toppers knocked off a ranked team in both 2015-16 (Louisville) and 2016-17 (Indiana), and with Friday's win, now have a streak of three straight seasons with a win over a ranked team for the first time since 1990-91 through 1992-93.

Team Notes

- WKU started Whitney Creech, Dee Givens, Tashia Brown, Ivy Brown and Raneem Elgedawy for the first time together on Friday afternoon.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: Trailing 20-18 with 9:40 remaining in the second quarter, WKU used an 8-0 run to seize the lead and carry that advantage into the locker room. Dee Givens keyed the run with six points and a pair of Ivy Brown free throws gave the Lady Toppers a 26-20 edge over the Tigers at the 7:03 mark.
- WKU held a 45-35 lead at the halftime break.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: Trailing 66-65 with 3:35 to play, Tashia Brown took over the game, scoring 11 of WKU's final 14 points, including a pair of free throws with 1.1 seconds remaining, to ice away the 79-76 victory.
- As a team, WKU shot 43.3 percent (26-of-60) from the floor, including an 8-of-14 (57.1 percent) mark in an explosive second quarter that saw the Lady Toppers score 27 points.
- Three-point shooting was key for the Lady Toppers on Friday afternoon, knocking down eight of their 19 chances (42.1 percent) from beyond the arc.
- WKU capitalized on its forced turnovers, scoring 22 points off 19 Missouri turnovers.
- Free-throw shooting also proved to be a major difference between the two sides: Missouri converted just 68.4 percent (13-of-19) of its opportunities, while WKU knocked down 19 of its 22 (86.4 percent) chances from the charity stripe.

Individual Notes

- Tashia Brown took over the game down the stretch for the Lady Toppers, scoring 16 of her game-high 30 points in the second half.
  - Brown notched 11 of WKU's final 14 points over the last 3:35 of the game.
  - The 30-point outing was the third of Brown's career and her first since scoring 32 against UT Martin on March 21, 2016.
- Dee Givens, Whitney Creech and Raneem Elgedawy all earned their first collegiate starts for the Lady Toppers.
- Givens tallied a career-high 20 points against the Tigers, 18 of which came in the first half of play.
- The 50 combined points from Brown and Givens were the most in a single game by a Lady Topper duo since Brown (34) and Kendall Noble (22) combined for 56 points at Old Dominion on Feb. 18, 2016.
- Sidnee Bopp continued her strong run from the end of last season, knocking down three three-pointers and finishing with nine points on the day.

WKU DROPS OVERTIME SHOOTOUT AT IOWA, 104-97, IN HAWKEYE CHALLENGE TITLE GAME

PDF Box Score and Postgame Notes Attached

IOWA CITY, Iowa – Senior Ivy Brown had a career-high 31 points on 12-of-16 shooting and the Lady Toppers led for much of the afternoon, but WKU fell 104-97 in overtime against Iowa in the title game of the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge on Saturday afternoon inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Brown was named to the All-Tournament Team after her career-best performance that also included six three-pointers; she was joined on the All-Tournament Team by fellow senior Tashia Brown, who added 16 points after tallying 30 in WKU's 79-76 win over No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon.

Joining the Browns in double figures were Dee Givens (16), Sidnee Bopp (14) and Whitney Creech (12). Bopp continued her strong run from the end of the 2016-17 season, knocking down four three-pointers on Saturday, while Givens' 16 points came after a career-best 20 against Missouri.

WKU connected on a school-record 14 three-pointers against the Hawkeyes, finishing with a 14-of-26 (53.8 percent) mark from beyond the arc. Overall, the Lady Toppers shot 39-of-83 (47.0 percent) from the field, while the Hawkeyes knocked down 50 percent (35-of-70) of their opportunities from the floor. Megan Gustafson had a double-double of 35 points and 17 rebounds for the Hawkeyes and was named Tournament MVP following her performance. Four other Hawkeyes also joined her in double figures: Tania Davis (16), Kathleen Doyle (15), Makenzie Meyer (12) and Alexis Sevillian (11). The Hawkeyes converted 23 of their 25 chances (92 percent) from the free throw line on the afternoon.

WKU jumped ahead early on a pair of inside shots from Creech and Raneem Elgedawy, and the Lady Topper lead grew to as many as six points on two occasions midway through the first quarter, the first on a Tashia Brown jumper with 6:03 on the clock and again 30 seconds later on a three-pointer from Ivy Brown at the top of the circle to create early separation from the Hawkeyes.

Iowa gradually whittled away at the deficit over the final five minutes of the opening quarter, tying the game at 19-19 after Amanda Ollinger split a pair of free throws with 2:08 to play. WKU answered almost immediately with a three-pointer from Bopp, and the Lady Toppers maintained that lead through the end of the opening frame, carrying a 24-21 lead after the first 10 minutes.

That lead grew to as many as seven points, 30-23, after two early three-pointers from Bopp and Givens in the second quarter, but the Hawkeyes fired back with eight unanswered points over the next three minutes to take their first lead since the beginning of the game, 31-30. Three different Hawkeyes scored during the run, led by a pair of layups from Doyle, to take the lead with 5:38 on the clock.

Ivy Brown finally halted the run with yet another shot from beyond the arc just under 30 seconds later, and WKU would not allow Iowa back in front through the halftime break. Though the Hawkeyes managed to tie the game twice over the final five minutes of the half, WKU responded each time, including a three-pointer from Ivy Brown with just four seconds left that sent the Lady Toppers into the locker room with a 46-43 edge.

Three ties highlighted the first three minutes of the third quarter, and Iowa took a 54-53 lead at the 7:06 mark after a pair of free throws from Doyle. The Lady Toppers answered back with a 9-0 run spanning just over two minutes, with four Lady Toppers finding the basket to push the WKU lead back to 62-54. Bopp connected on another long three-pointer, and Givens capped the run with a layup with 4:56 on the clock.

Iowa again battled back into the game before the close of the frame, cutting its deficit to just three points, 73-70, on Gustafson's jumper with 46 seconds to play.

Both sides exchanged big runs to begin the fourth quarter; WKU pushed its lead to 10 points, 85-75, after a 10-3 run, but Iowa responded with 13 straight points to take an 88-85 lead with 3:41 to play. Ivy

Brown's three-pointer tied the game back up 20 seconds later, and Gustafson's free throws with 35 seconds to play forced the ninth tie of the game at 93-93. Bopp had a chance at a game-winner at the buzzer, but her off-balance three-pointer hit the iron and bounced out to send the teams into overtime. Sevillian's three-pointer to open the overtime frame gave the Hawkeyes a 96-93 lead, and the Lady Toppers were unable to retake the lead down the stretch as Iowa claimed the 104-97 victory. WKU will be back in action for an important clash with No. 6/5 Notre Dame inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. The Lady Toppers will be hosting Notre Dame for the first time in program history, and the Fighting Irish will be the highest-ranked opponent that has visited Diddle Arena since No. 4 Louisville on Nov. 27, 2013.

WKU Lady Toppers at Iowa Hawkeyes

Postgame Notes

November 11, 2017 – 2017 Hawkeye Challenge

Carver-Hawkeye Arena; Iowa City, Iowa

FINAL SCORE: Iowa 104, WKU 97 (OT)

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU falls to 1-1 after the opening weekend of the 2017-18 season, while Iowa improves to 2-0.
- WKU's 97 points were the third-most scored by the Lady Toppers under Michelle Clark-Heard; WKU scored 98 points twice against Troy (Jan. 30, 2013) and Mississippi (Dec. 4, 2014) for its highest point total.
- WKU's 14 made three-pointers set a new school record, breaking the previous mark of 13 against Lamar (Jan. 20, 1996), Middle Tennessee (March 11, 2003) and Alabama A&M (Nov. 11, 2016).
- WKU played its ninth overtime contest under Michelle Clark-Heard; the Lady Toppers own a 6-3 record in games that have gone into extra time.
- Saturday's meeting was the seventh all-time between the Lady Toppers and the Hawkeyes, with Iowa now holding a slim 4-3 edge in the series.

Team Notes

- WKU started Whitney Creech, Dee Givens, Tashia Brown, Ivy Brown and Raneem Elgedawy for the second straight game on Saturday afternoon with the lineup falling to 1-1.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: Leading 22-21 with 28 seconds remaining in the opening quarter, WKU used an 8-2 run spanning the next three minutes to build a 30-23 edge, its largest of the night to that point. A pair of three-pointers from Sidnee Bopp and Dee Givens to open the second quarter keyed the run for the Lady Toppers.
- WKU held a 46-43 lead at the halftime break.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: Holding a 75-72 lead with 9:40 on the clock in the fourth quarter, WKU scored 10 of the next 13 points to build its largest lead of the night. Four different Lady Toppers scored during the stretch, including a three-pointer from Givens to cap the run and give the Lady Toppers an 85-75 edge.
- As a team, WKU knocked down 39 of its 83 shots (47.0 percent) on the afternoon, including a strong 14-of-26 (53.8 percent) mark from beyond the arc.
- WKU forced 16 Hawkeye turnovers and converted them into 15 points.
- The Lady Toppers had 10 steals, bringing their season total to 22 through only two games.

Individual Notes

- Ivy Brown had a career day for the Lady Toppers, scoring a career-high 31 points on 12-of-16 shooting.
  - The Preseason All-C-USA pick knocked down six of her nine three-point attempts, setting a new career high for made three-pointers.
  - Brown also added six rebounds, two assists and a steal on Saturday afternoon.
- Tashia Brown continued her strong start to the season, following her 30-point performance on Friday with 16 points, six rebounds and four assists against the Hawkeyes.
  - Brown also added three steals and has nine takeaways through two games.
- Dee Givens tallied 16 points on 6-of-12 shooting and a pair of blocks.
- Sidnee Bopp carried over her strong finish to the 2016-17 season, knocking down four of her six shots from beyond the arc and finishing with 14 points.
  - Over her last seven games dating back to last season, Bopp has hit 27 three-pointers.
- Whitney Creech rounded out the Lady Topper quintet in double figures, scoring 12 points with three assists and a pair of rebounds.
- Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown were both named to the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge All-Tournament Team.

TASHIA BROWN EARNS C-USA, COLLEGE SPORTS MADNESS WEEKLY AWARDS

Tashia Brown Headshot Attached

IRVING, Texas – Senior forward Tashia Brown has been named the C-USA Player of the Week by both the conference office and College Sports Madness and has also been selected as the latter's High-Major Player of the Week as announced by the organizations on Monday afternoon.

Brown turned in a strong start to the 2017-18 season at this weekend's Hawkeye Challenge in Iowa City, Iowa, averaging 23 points as the Lady Toppers split a pair of games against then-No. 16/16 Missouri and Iowa. WKU picked up its third victory over a ranked team in as many seasons on Friday afternoon as it took down the Tigers, 79-76, and then fell in a tight overtime shootout, 104-97, against the host Hawkeyes on Saturday.

The Player of the Week honor from the league office is the second of Brown's career. The senior previously collected the honor on Nov. 21, 2016, after scoring 28 points in WKU's upset victory over then-No. 23 Indiana inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

On Friday against Missouri, Brown collected her third career 30-point game and first since March 21, 2016, finishing with 30 points to key WKU's upset against the Tigers. Trailing 66-65 with 3:35 to play, Brown nearly single-handedly took over the game, scoring 11 of WKU's final 14 points, including a pair of free throws with one second on the clock to ice the game. Much of her damage against the Tigers came from the free throw line, where Brown finished 10-for-11 on the day, and the senior also collected a career-high six steals.

Against Iowa on Saturday, Brown played 42 minutes and logged 16 more points along with six rebounds, four assists and three steals. Through the opening weekend of play, Brown leads all C-USA players with her 23 points per game; she also moved into 19th place on WKU's all-time scoring list with 1,377 points, passing Pam Hart and Dominique Duck over the weekend.

Brown and the Lady Toppers will be back in action on Tuesday evening inside Diddle Arena as WKU welcomes perennial powerhouse No. 6/5 Notre Dame at 7 p.m. The Fighting Irish are the highest-ranked opponent to visit Diddle Arena since then-No. 4 Louisville on Nov. 27, 2013.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - WKU will welcome its highest-ranked foe since 2013 into E.A. Diddle Arena on Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. as No. 6/5 Notre Dame makes the trip south to take on the Lady Toppers, just the second time any Fighting Irish athletic team has made the trip to Bowling Green.

In its last time out, WKU finished as the runner-up in the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge last weekend, defeating No. 16 Missouri, 79-76, before falling against the host Hawkeyes in a 104-97 overtime shootout. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown each earned All-Tournament Team recognition following the event.

Tashia Brown (23 points per game) is one of four Lady Toppers averaging double figures through two games, joined by Ivy Brown (18.5), Dee Givens (18.0) and Sidnee Bopp (11.5). As a team, WKU is averaging 88 points through its first two outings.

Notre Dame earned a 121-65 win over Mount St. Mary's in its only game of the season to date. Arike Ogunbowale led the way with 21 points, while Nebraska transfer Jessica Shepard and Marina Mabrey each chipped in 18 points apiece. The Fighting Irish have reached five of the last seven Final Fours and have won both the regular season and conference tournament titles in all four of their years as a member of the ACC.

WKU will return to the road following Tuesday night's matchup, traveling to Bloomington, Ind., to battle the Hoosiers on Friday evening at 6 p.m. (CT).

GAME #3 – RV/NR WKU VS. NO. 6/5 NOTRE DAME

RV/NR WKU (1-1, 0-0 C-USA) vs. No. 6/5 Notre Dame (1-0, 0-0 Atlantic Coast)

November 14, 2017 | 7:00 p.m. (CT)

Bowling Green, Ky. | E.A. Diddle Arena (7,326)

QUICK SHOTS

- Tashia Brown was named the C-USA Player of the Week on Nov. 13 after averaging 23 points per game in WKU's two games at the Hawkeye Challenge. Brown almost single-handedly took over the game late against Missouri, scoring 11 of WKU's final 14 points to key the upset of the then-No. 16 Tigers.
- Tuesday's game doubles as the 35th Annual BB&T Classic game for the Lady Toppers. Previously a multi-team invitational prior to becoming a single game in 1992-93, WKU owns a 34-8 all-time record in BB&T Classic games inside E.A. Diddle Arena.
- For the third consecutive year, WKU earned a victory over an AP-ranked opponent by taking down No. 16 Missouri, 79-76, on Nov. 10 in the Hawkeye Challenge. With the victory, WKU secured its first streak of three seasons with at least one ranked victory since 1990-91 through 1992-93, a span that saw the Lady Toppers reach three NCAA Tournaments and make a Final Four appearance.
- Under Michelle Clark-Heard, WKU owns a 3-6 record against AP-ranked opponents with wins over Louisville (2015-16), Indiana (2016-17) and Missouri (2017-18).
- WKU owns C-USA's top-scoring offense through the first weekend of play, averaging 88 points per game through its first two outings, nearly 10 points more than Rice's 78.5 points per game. WKU's 88 points per game ranks 11th in the nation among schools that have already played multiple games and is the top scoring offense among teams in the state of Kentucky.
- WKU has started a true freshman at least one time in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first two games this season.
- In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 32-6 and have not suffered consecutive losses in the same season since Nov. 23 and 25, 2014 (at Mississippi State and Louisville).

- Michelle Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

- Already 19th in program history with 1,377 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season. To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 386 more points during her final season on The Hill.

- The breakout star of the 2017 C-USA Tournament, junior Sidnee Bopp has continued her momentum into the 2017-18 season, knocking down six three-pointers across WKU's first two games of the season. Dating back to the final five games of 2016-17, Bopp has connected on 27 three-pointers over her last seven games, just shy of four makes from beyond the arc per contest.

- Notre Dame's trip to Bowling Green is just the second time that WKU has hosted the Fighting Irish in any sport. In 1926, WKU's baseball team, at the time coached by the legendary E.A. Diddle, hosted Notre Dame and fell in a close 6-2 battle.

WKU WELCOMES NO. 6/5 NOTRE DAME TO DIDDLE ARENA TUESDAY EVENING

WKU will welcome its highest-ranked foe since 2013 into E.A. Diddle Arena on Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. as No. 6/5 Notre Dame makes the trip south to take on the Lady Toppers, just the second time any Fighting Irish athletic team has made the trip to Bowling Green.

In its last time out, WKU finished as the runner-up in the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge last weekend, defeating No. 16 Missouri before falling against the host Hawkeyes. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown each earned All-Tournament Team recognition following the event.

Tashia Brown (23 points per game) is one of three Lady Toppers averaging double figures through two games, joined by Ivy Brown (18.5), Dee Givens (18.0) and Sidnee Bopp (11.5). As a team, WKU is averaging 88 points through its first two outings.

Notre Dame earned a 121-65 win over Mount St. Mary's in its only game of the season to date. Arike Ogunbowale led the way with 21 points, while Nebraska transfer Jessica Shepard and Marina Mabrey each chipped in 18 points apiece. The Fighting Irish have reached five of the last seven Final Fours and have won both the regular season and conference tournament titles in all four of their years as a member of the ACC.

WKU will return to the road following Tuesday night's matchup, traveling to Bloomington, Ind., to battle the Hoosiers on Friday evening at 6 p.m. (CT).

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

► Tashia Brown was named the C-USA Player of the Week on Nov. 13 after averaging 23 points per game in WKU's two games at the Hawkeye Challenge. Brown almost single-handedly took over the game late against Missouri, scoring 11 of WKU's final 14 points to key the upset of the then-No. 16 Tigers.

► Tuesday's game doubles as the 35th Annual BB&T Classic game for the Lady Toppers. Previously a multi-team invitational prior to becoming a single game in 1992-93, WKU owns a 34-8 all-time record in BB&T Classic games inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

► Notre Dame's trip to Bowling Green is just the second time that WKU has hosted the Fighting Irish in any sport. In 1926, WKU's baseball team, at the time coached by the legendary E.A. Diddle, hosted Notre Dame and fell in a close 6-2 battle.

MIXING NEWCOMERS WITH VETS

WKU is set to unveil a new-look roster in 2017-18, mixing five eligible newcomers with seven returners. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown are set to lead the roster this season, with C-USA All-Tournament pick Sidnee Bopp, Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Malaka Frank and Kayla Smith also back for the Lady Toppers.

Newcomers Raneem Elgedawy, Terri Smith, Nichel Tampa, Sherry Porter and Elizabeth Anderson will also be seeking to make their marks during their debut seasons on The Hill.

NEW VOICE OF THE LADY TOPPERS

Legendary WKU play-by-play announcer Barry Williams announced his retirement during the offseason after calling more than 1,000 games for the Lady Toppers.

Jevin Redman, a recent graduate of the University of Southern Indiana with an already well-decorated play-by-play career, made his regular season debut in WKU's upset of then-No. 16 Missouri.

KEEPING THE STREAK(S) GOING

WKU has won 20 or more games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that the Lady Toppers have had such a streak since 2004-05 to 2007-08.

In addition to that stretch, the Lady Toppers have accomplished the impressive feat of winning 27 or more games in each of the last three seasons, marking the first time that that has been done in the storied history of the program.

WKU has also posted four consecutive seasons with a winning streak of 10 or more games. The Lady Toppers are one of just eight programs in the nation with a 10-game winning streak in each of the last three seasons, joining perennial title contenders such as UConn, Maryland,

Notre Dame and Baylor.

CLARK-HEARD AT 130 WINS AND COUNTING

Michelle Clark-Heard has made an incredible impact on the Lady Toppers since taking over the program in 2012-13, amassing a 130-39 record over her first five seasons.

Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

By winning her 100th game in 2015-16, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

WKU PICKED SECOND IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After capturing the C-USA regular season and tournament titles last season, WKU has been picked second in the annual preseason coaches' poll. Despite garnering more first-place votes (eight) than Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers earned the runner-up spot and have been picked in the top three in each of their four C-USA campaigns.

BROWN, BROWN TABBED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE BY COACHES

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown have been selected to the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA team as selected by the league's coaches.

Both were honored as All-C-USA selections following the season in 2016-17, with Ivy garnering First Team honors and Tashia picked up Second Team accolades. Tashia Brown was also chosen to the 2016-17 Preseason All-C-USA Team and earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

Last season, the duo combined for 26.5 points and 12.3 rebounds per game, serving as two of WKU's "Big Three" alongside Kendall Noble. In 2017-18, the Browns appear poised to become one of the top one-two punches among all C-USA players.

2017-18 C-USA PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE TEAM

FOURTH YEAR IN CONFERENCE USA

Over its first three seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 47-7 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted a 16-2 record last season.

THAT 80S SHOW

WKU broke the 80-point barrier nine times in 2016-17 and has scored 80 or more points on at least seven occasions per season since Michelle Clark-Heard assumed control of the program in 2012-13.

By winning eight of its nine contests in which it hit 80 points last season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 48-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together 14-1 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted a 63-11 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers currently sport a 13-game winning streak inside Diddle Arena dating back to their 85-74 win over then-No. 23 Indiana on Nov. 19 last season.

TOUGH UNDER PRESSURE

Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, the Lady Toppers have played 27 contests that have been decided by three or fewer points. In such games, WKU has posted a 19-8 record overall.

In the same vein, the Lady Toppers have been very tough closers down the stretch as well, recording a 120-12 record when leading or tied with five minutes remaining in games since 2012-13.

ONE OF A KIND

Preseason All-C-USA pick Ivy Brown returns as one of the top post players in the conference after averaging 13.1 points and 8.2 rebounds per game with

JOINING THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown are poised to be two of the top C-USA players in 2017-18. Tashia has already entered WKU's 1,000-point club and ranks 21st in school history in scoring, while Ivy sits just 13 points shy of becoming the 39th member of the club.

eight double-doubles last season.

Among all returning C-USA players, Brown is the lone individual who ranked in the top 15 in the league in both scoring (15th) and rebounding (fourth) last season.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Already 19th in program history with 1,377 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season.

To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 386 more points during her final season on The Hill; as a sophomore, the Lake Park, Ga., native totaled 579 points before adding 456 more last season.

BOPP IT

The breakout star of the 2017 C-USA Tournament, junior Sidnee Bopp has continued her momentum into the 2017-18 season, knocking down six three-pointers across WKU's first two games of the season.

Dating back to the final five games of 2016-17, Bopp has connected on 27 three-pointers over her last seven games, just shy of four makes from beyond the arc per contest.

STRONG AFTER LOSSES

In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 32-6 and have not suffered consecutive losses since Nov. 23 and 25, 2014 (at Mississippi State and Louisville).

WKU LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, Sweet 16 appearances, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

FAST STARTS FOR FRESHMEN

WKU has started a true freshman at least one time in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first two games this season.

TOPS ON TOP OF RANKED TEAMS

For the third consecutive year, WKU earned a victory over an AP-ranked opponent by taking down No. 16 Missouri, 79-76, on Nov. 10 in the Hawkeye Challenge.

With the victory, WKU secured its first streak of three seasons with at least one ranked victory since 1990-91 through 1992-93, a span that saw the Lady Toppers reach three NCAA Tournaments and make a Final Four appearance.

EXPLOSIVE OFFENSE

WKU owns C-USA's top-scoring offense through the first weekend of play, averaging 88 points per game through its first two outings, nearly 10 points more than Rice's 78.5 points per game.

WKU's 88 points per game ranks 11th in the nation among schools that have already played multiple games and is the top scoring offense among teams in the state of Kentucky.

LOOKING AHEAD

Following Tuesday night's battle against Notre Dame, the Lady Toppers will return to action on Friday at 6 p.m. (CT) as they head north to battle Indiana inside Assembly Hall in Bloomington, Ind.

Friday's trip will be the return game of a home-and-home series with the Hoosiers. Last season, WKU picked up an 85-74 victory over Indiana inside Diddle Arena. The Lady Toppers were led by 28 points from Tashia Brown, whose performance earned her C-USA Player of the Week honors and a spot on the NCAA Weekly Starting Five.

MICHELLE CLARK-HEARD
Sixth Season

“What Michelle Clark-Heard has done is instilled pride back in Western Kentucky... Now with Michelle Clark-Heard, with the passion and pride she has, because she was a player at Western Kentucky, she is bringing that back to Bowling Green.”

-ESPN Analyst Carolyn Peck

Michelle Clark-Heard has quickly shaped the Western Kentucky University Lady Topper Basketball program back into a national name, putting the Lady Toppers back on the national map. In just three seasons at WKU as head coach, Clark-Heard has reached two NCAA Tournaments, won two conference tournament championships and a regular season conference title while posting 76 wins, the most in a coaches first three seasons in WKU women's basketball or men's basketball history.

Clark-Heard's third season directing her alma mater in 2014-15 was one of the best the storied program has seen. She led the Lady Toppers to a 30-5 record, posting a Conference USA record 30 wins in the program's first season as a league member.

The season began with the Lady Toppers making huge waves early by reaching the finals of the Preseason Women's NIT with wins at Colorado and over eventual American East Conference champion Albany before a loss on the road at Mississippi State. WKU also posted non-conference wins over Hofstra, Tulane and Ole Miss.

The Lady Toppers made an immediate impact in Conference USA, posting a 16-2 record to tie the league mark for league wins in a season, including eight wins on the road, to secure the program's first regular season league title as a Conference USA member and 11th in program history. In early January, she led the Lady Toppers to the Associated Press Top 25 Rankings for the first time since the 1997-98 season. She also became just the 10th coach in NCAA history to lead their alma mater into the Associated Press Top 25 rankings as both a player and coach when the Lady Toppers were ranked for two weeks in January 2015.

The Lady Toppers then won three games in three days by a combined eight points to secure a tournament title at the Conference USA Championships in Birmingham, Ala.

Following the season, Clark-Heard was recognized for her outstanding accomplishments, earning Conference USA Coach of the Year and 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I Regional Coach of the Year honors. Her selection as a WBCA Regional Coach of the Year also made her a finalist for the Pat Summitt Trophy, awarded annually to the 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year.

Her success at WKU has also helped her land new opportunities in the USA Basketball ranks. Clark-Heard was named an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Pan American Women's Basketball Team, joining head coach Lisa Bluder of the University of Iowa and fellow assistant coach Scott Rueck of Oregon State University on the 2015 staff.

In Toronto, Clark-Heard helped lead the United States to a silver medal in her international assistant coaching debut, falling just short in the gold medal game against the host Canadians.

In 2013-14, Clark-Heard helped WKU win its final seven regular season games before reeling off three straight in New Orleans, La. in March 2014 to win the Sun Belt Conference Championships with a 61-60 win over Arkansas State after WKU faced a 14-point deficit in the second half. The season

also saw WKU defeat Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic after facing a 16-point deficit in the second half.

The season was capped by a 87-74 loss to fifth-ranked Baylor in Waco, Texas in the opening round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament, ending the longest NCAA Tournament appearance drought in program history.

The run to the tournament helped WKU secure a 24-9 record and finish with 20-wins for the second straight season. Her consecutive 20-win seasons to begin her time at WKU marked the first time in Sun Belt Conference history that a team had won 20 games in back-to-back years following a season in which it had won less than 10 games.

Her success in 2013-14 followed a massive improvement on the floor in 2012-13.

In her first year as a Division One coach in 2012-13, Clark-Heard helped WKU to a 13-win improvement over the 2011-12 season output. It was the largest in Sun Belt Conference history as WKU turned a 9-21 mark into a 22-11 record. WKU's eight win improvement in conference play from five wins to 13 wins was tied for the largest in league history. The Lady Toppers also became the first team in Sun Belt Conference history to win 20 games in the season following a year in which the team won less than 10 games earlier this season.

Her first season at WKU also showcased her ability to develop players. The duo of Chastity Gooch and Alexis Govan averaged a combined 12.7 ppg in 2011-12 but posted 36.5 per outing in 2012-13. The duo combined for 1,203 points after posting 381 last season. The team also saw major improvement in nearly all statistical categories, including improving free throw shooting by over 11 percent to .739, the third highest mark in school history.

Clark-Heard spent five years as an assistant coach to Jeff Walz at Louisville. During her time with the program, the Cardinals made three Sweet 16 appearances and made their first Final Four appearance, finishing as the National Runner-Up in 2009. A roster she helped build also reached the Final Four in 2013 after beating No. 1 Baylor and national power Tennessee in the regional semifinals and finals. Clark-Heard was instrumental in bringing in the No. 12 recruiting class in 2008, then followed with three consecutive Top 10 classes in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The 2010 recruiting class was the highest ranked class in school history, ranked fifth in the nation.

Among the most notable players Clark-Heard coached at Louisville was overall number one pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, Angel McCoughtry and overall number eight pick in the 2013 WNBA Draft, Shoni Shimmel. Overall, she coached five players at Louisville that went on to be drafted in the WNBA Draft.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Clark-Heard spent two seasons as the head coach at Kentucky State, taking the reigns of the program in June 2005. She took over a program that had won just one game during the 2004-05 season. In her first season she led the Thorobrettes to a 5-23 record, four of the wins were against Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opponents. Her team was picked to finish 11th

in the SIAC but ended the season in ninth place. In her second season at KSU, she guided the Thorobrettes to an impressive 19-9 record, finishing tied for fourth place in the SIAC. Clark-Heard earned SIAC Coach-of-the-Year honors after the impressive turnaround. Her 2006-07 Thorobrettes were the second most improved team in NCAA Division II women's basketball during the 2006-07 season.

Before being named head coach at Kentucky State, Clark-Heard spent three seasons at Cincinnati as an assistant and four years at Nebraska in the same role. The Bearcats advanced to postseason play in two of her three seasons there while she helped Nebraska reach the NCAA Tournament twice during her time with the team. She was also responsible for helping sign McDonald's All-American Janice Bright for the Cornhuskers in 2001 while coaching alongside current Louisville coach Jeff Walz and under former WKU coach Paul Sanderford.

A four-year letterwinner on the Hill (1987-90), Clark-Heard was part of four NCAA Tournament teams during her Lady Topper career. She also helped guide the Lady Toppers to a pair of Sun Belt Conference Tournament championships (1988 and 1989) and two conference regular-season titles (1989 and 1990). She played in 118 games during her four years in the Hill, scoring 790 points and pulling down 615 rebounds. WKU amassed 89 victories during her four years in uniform, winning 70 percent of the games over that span and putting together three 20-win seasons.

Upon graduation from WKU, she spent eight years working within a recreational setting, five in Bowling Green and three with the Louisville Metro Parks Department. While in Louisville, she also served as head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at DuPont Manual High School for the 1994-95 seasons and played professionally with the Kentucky Marauders of the Women's Basketball Association in 1994-95.

The Louisville native earned Kentucky High School State Player of the Year honors in 1986 while playing at Atherton High School and was inducted into the Atherton Hall of Fame in 2003.

She was married on August 16, 2003 to Luther Heard.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) - Jessica Shepard helped Notre Dame pass its first road test of the season. She had 19 points and 12 rebounds and the No. 6/5 Irish beat WKU 78-65 on Tuesday evening inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

The Fighting Irish (2-0) powered past a Lady Toppers team that received votes in this week's AP poll. WKU (1-2) beat then-No. 16 Missouri, then took Iowa to overtime on the road last weekend.

"I think just coming into the game we knew it was going to be a tough game," Shepard said. "We knew we had to come out with a certain level of intensity."

Notre Dame flexed its frontcourt muscle, outscoring the Lady Toppers 50-32 in the paint. The Irish went to Shepard early and often, allowing her to work against WKU's front line.

Shepard transferred to Notre Dame this past summer from Nebraska and was granted an NCAA waiver Nov. 1 for immediate eligibility. The 6-foot-4 forward averaged 18.6 points and 9.8 rebounds last year as a sophomore at Nebraska.

"We started the game really trying to find her inside and we were pretty successful," Irish coach Muffet McGraw said. "We just need to find someone on our team that can get her the ball -- huge difference with her."

Arike Ogunbowale and Mikayla Vaughn scored 21 and 17 points for the four-time defending Atlantic Coast Conference champs. Notre Dame led 37-28 at halftime and then held steady in the second half, stretching the lead to as wide a margin as 73-59 after WKU got as close as 57-51 early in the fourth quarter.

Tashia Brown scored 25 points for the Lady Toppers, but was just 6-for-25 from the field. Fellow WKU senior Ivy Brown, who came in averaging 18.5 points per game, scored just two points in 35 minutes of play Tuesday and eventually fouled out.

"This is what it was about when we made the schedule to see where we're at as a program and it showed us a lot today and showed us a lot in these past three games, we're getting close," WKU head coach Michelle Clark-Heard said. "We've just got to continue to keep building and bringing players and that's our most important thing."

Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard

On tonight's atmosphere...

"Incredible. When we stood up to do the national anthem, and you look around and there weren't hardly any seats that you could see, it's pretty cool. I was really happy for our players to be able to be in that type of atmosphere and that's what I hoped for as a coach. Before the game, I thanked Muffet (McGraw) for coming here and playing us on our home floor because a lot of people won't do it. I'm just really grateful and I think it was a great atmosphere. I think our kids played hard and I'm just sorry we couldn't figure out how to win."

On these tough first three games...

"This is what it was about when we made this schedule, to see where we're at as a program. It showed us a lot today, it showed us a lot in these past three games. I think we're getting close, we've just got to keep building and keep bringing in players and that's our most important thing."

On what Notre Dame HC Muffet McGraw said to her after the game...

“She told me I have a heck of a team. She said that our defense was incredible and that it was an awesome atmosphere.”

On the opportunity tonight gave to the program...

“I’m just excited that I had the opportunity to coach against Coach McGraw and coach in this atmosphere. I just want to thank everyone again, everyone who came out, because it meant a lot to our program. Just being thankful, thanks to everyone here (in Diddle) that did everything they could to get people into seats. It was awesome.”

Tashia Brown

On tonight’s crowd...

“It was fun. It was good to have all the fans out here come out and support us. We couldn’t get the win for them and that’s what we really wanted but I’m just glad they came out and supported us. We’ve never been in an atmosphere like that and it was just unbelievable.”

Whitney Creech

On what the team has learned over the past three games...

“This is the No. 6 team in the country. We didn’t shoot the ball very well and we made some mistakes, but we were still in the game the whole time, so I think that’s something we can take from it. Hey, even when we’re not playing well, we can still compete and still be in games and have the chance to win... I think we’ve learned that we have a lot of people that can step up. Through these three games, we’ve had different people score a lot of points for us, get rebounds, do the little things. I think we’ve learned this team is pretty good right now and we have a lot of fight in us. No matter who we’re playing we’re going to go out there and give our best effort.”

RV/NR WKU Lady Toppers vs. No. 6/5 Notre Dame Fighting Irish

Postgame Notes

November 14, 2017 – 35th Annual BB&T Classic

E.A. Diddle Arena; Bowling Green, Ky.

FINAL SCORE: No. 6/5 Notre Dame 78, RV/NR WKU 65

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU falls to 1-2 on the season, while Notre Dame improves to 2-0 following Tuesday night's victory.
- The attendance of 5,061 was the largest non-Education Day crowd inside E.A. Diddle Arena since the Lady Toppers hosted Louisiana Tech in front of a crowd of 5,563 on Nov. 19, 2005.
- WKU met the Fighting Irish for just the second time in program history on Tuesday. Notre Dame owns a 2-0 lead in the all-time series after also winning the only other meeting, 78-59, on Nov. 13, 2007.
- The Lady Toppers fell in back-to-back games in the same season for the first time since Nov. 23 and 25, 2014. Under Michelle Clark-Heard, WKU now owns a 32-7 record in games immediately following a loss.
- Tuesday night's game doubled as the 35th Annual BB&T Classic. Previously a multi-team invitational before becoming a single-game event in 1992-93, the Lady Toppers now hold a 34-9 all-time record in the event.
- Following Tuesday's setback, WKU now owns a 3-7 record against ranked teams under Michelle Clark-Heard, with wins over Louisville (2015-16), Indiana (2016-17) and Missouri (2017-18).

Team Notes

- WKU started Whitney Creech, Dee Givens, Tashia Brown, Ivy Brown and Raneem Elgedawy for the third straight game on Saturday afternoon with the lineup falling to 1-2.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: Trailing 15-8 with 5:27 remaining in the first quarter, WKU fired off six straight points over the next five minutes to cut Notre Dame's lead to just one point, 15-14. Tashia Brown scored four points to key the run, and Raneem Elgedawy punctuated the stretch with a layup with 46 seconds left on the clock.
- The Fighting Irish led the Lady Toppers 37-28 at halftime.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: After Notre Dame opened a 10-point, 38-28 lead just 90 seconds into the third quarter, WKU used a three-minute run and outscored the Fighting Irish 10-3 over that span to cut the deficit to just three points. Four different Lady Toppers scored during the run, capped by a pullup jumper from Tashia Brown that left Notre Dame leading, 41-38, with 5:50 on the clock.
- WKU led the battle on the offensive glass despite a big size advantage for Notre Dame, notching 25 offensive rebounds to just 22 for the Fighting Irish.
- The Lady Toppers forced 18 Notre Dame turnovers and created 13 points off those chances. As a team, WKU committed only 11 turnovers on the night.
- WKU finished 18-of-20 (90.0 percent) from the free throw line, the Lady Toppers' first time hitting that percentage in a game since Dec. 30, 2016, against Florida Atlantic.

Individual Notes

- Tashia Brown continued her strong early start to the season, finishing with 25 points and 10 rebounds and going a career-best 13-of-14 from the free throw line.
  - Tuesday's double-double was the second of Brown's career and first since Nov. 11, 2016, against Alabama A&M.
  - Brown's 25 attempted field goals are tied for the sixth-most in a single game in school history and the most since Chastity Gooch at Austin Peay on Dec. 16, 2014.
- Whitney Creech matched her career-high mark with 17 points and also added five rebounds and two assists.
- Raneem Elgedawy fell just shy of a double-double with 12 points and eight rebounds.
- Ivy Brown hauled in nine rebounds on the night, six on the offensive glass.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - WKU will round out its whirlwind first week of the regular season with a road trip to Bloomington, Ind., to face Indiana inside Assembly Hall on Friday evening at 6 p.m. (CT), the Lady Toppers' fourth game over the last seven days.

In its last time out, WKU took No. 6/5 Notre Dame to the brink inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Tuesday evening, falling 78-65 against the Fighting Irish. Just a 3-point game midway through the third quarter, WKU nearly sprung the upset in front of 5,061 fans, the largest inside Diddle for a non-Education Day game in 12 years.

Tashia Brown (23.7 points per game) is one of four Lady Toppers averaging double figures through three games, joined by Dee Givens (13.3), Ivy Brown (13.0) and Whitney Creech (11.7).

Indiana enters Friday's bout with a 2-0 record and wins over Arkansas State and Southern to open the season. Tyra Buss leads the Hoosiers at 25.5 points per game and has dished out a team-best 16 assists, and both Amanda Cahill (13 points, 11 rebounds) and Kym Royster (12 points, 10.5 rebounds) are averaging double-doubles for Indiana. As a team, the Hoosiers are averaging just over 50 rebounds per game through their first two outings.

WKU will remain on the road for the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic, facing Mercer (Friday, Nov. 24) and Georgia State (Sunday, Nov. 26) in Atlanta next weekend.

GAME #4 – RV/NR WKU AT RV/RV INDIANA

RV/NR WKU (1-2, 0-0 C-USA) at RV/RV Indiana (2-0, 0-0 Big Ten)

November 17, 2017 | 6:00 p.m. (CT)

Bloomington, Ind. | Assembly Hall (17,472)

QUICK SHOTS

- Tashia Brown was named the C-USA Player of the Week on Nov. 13 after averaging 23 points per game in WKU's two games at the Hawkeye Challenge. Brown almost single-handedly took over the game late against Missouri, scoring 11 of WKU's final 14 points to key the upset of the then-No. 16 Tigers.

- For the third consecutive year, WKU earned a victory over a ranked opponent by taking down No. 16 Missouri, 79-76, on Nov. 10 in the Hawkeye Challenge. With the victory, WKU secured its first streak of three seasons with at least one ranked victory since 1990-91 through 1992-93, a span that saw the Lady Toppers reach three NCAA Tournaments and make a Final Four appearance.

- Under Michelle Clark-Heard, WKU owns a 3-7 record against ranked opponents with wins over Louisville (2015-16), Indiana (2016-17) and Missouri (2017-18).
- Last season, the Lady Toppers picked up an 85-74 win over then-No. 23 Indiana inside E.A. Diddle Arena behind 28 points from Tashia Brown. Brown scored 15 of her points in the fourth quarter to secure the upset for WKU
- WKU owns C-USA's second-highest scoring offense through the first week of play, averaging 80.3 points per game through its first three outings. WKU's 80.3 points per game ranks at the top in C-USA among teams that have only faced Division I opponents this season, and the Lady Toppers tallied 97 points against Iowa, the third-most in a single game under Michelle Clark-Heard.
- Ivy Brown enters Friday's matchup needing only 11 points to become the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. Of the 38 current members, five (Kendall Noble, Chastity Gooch, Alexis Govan, Tashia Brown and Micah Jones) have joined under Michelle Clark-Heard.
- WKU has started a true freshman at least one time in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first three games this season.
- WKU owns an impressive record under Clark-Heard when breaking the 80-point barrier. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 48-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.
- In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 32-7 and suffered their first consecutive losses in the same season in nearly three years against Iowa and Notre Dame.
- Michelle Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.
- Already 17th in program history with 1,402 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season. To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 361 more points during her final season on The Hill.
- The breakout star of the 2017 C-USA Tournament, junior Sidnee Bopp has continued her momentum into the 2017-18 season, knocking down seven three-pointers across WKU's first three games of the season. Dating back to the final five games of 2016-17, Bopp has connected on 28 three-pointers over her last seven games, just shy of four makes from beyond the arc per contest.

WKU FACES INDIANA FRIDAY NIGHT IN FOURTH GAME IN SEVEN DAYS

WKU will round out its whirlwind first week of the regular season with a road trip to Bloomington, Ind., to face Indiana inside Assembly Hall on Friday evening at 6 p.m. (CT), the Lady Toppers' fourth game over the last seven days.

In its last time out, WKU took No. 6/5 Notre Dame to the brink inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Tuesday evening, falling 78-65 against the Fighting Irish. Just a 3-point game midway through the third quarter, WKU nearly sprung the upset in front of 5,061 fans, the largest inside Diddle for a non-Education Day game in 12 years.

Tashia Brown (23.7 points per game) is one of four Lady Toppers averaging double figures through three games, joined by Dee Givens (13.3), Ivy Brown (13.0) and Whitney Creech (11.7).

Indiana enters Friday's bout with a 2-0 record and wins over Arkansas State and Southern to open the season. Tyra Buss leads the Hoosiers at 25.5 points per game and has dished out a team-best 16 assists, and both Amanda Cahill (13 points, 11 rebounds) and Kym Royster (12 points, 10.5 rebounds) are averaging double-doubles for Indiana. As a team, the Hoosiers are averaging just over 50 rebounds per game through their first two outings.

WKU will remain on the road for the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic, facing Mercer (Friday, Nov. 24) and Georgia State (Sunday, Nov. 26) in Atlanta next weekend.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

► Tashia Brown was named the C-USA Player of the Week on Nov. 13 after averaging 23 points per game in WKU's two games at the Hawkeye Challenge. Brown almost single-handedly took over the game late against Missouri, scoring 11 of WKU's final 14 points to key the upset of the then-No. 16 Tigers.

► Last season, the Lady Toppers picked up an 85-74 win over then-No. 23 Indiana inside E.A. Diddle Arena behind 28 points from Tashia Brown. Brown scored 15 of her points in the fourth quarter to secure the upset for WKU.

► Ivy Brown enters Friday's matchup needing only 11 points to become the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. Of the 38 current members, five (Kendall Noble, Chastity Gooch, Alexis Govan, Tashia Brown and Micah Jones) have joined under Michelle Clark-Heard.

MIXING NEWCOMERS WITH VETS

WKU is set to unveil a new-look roster in 2017-18, mixing five eligible newcomers with seven returners. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown are set to lead the roster this season, with C-USA All-Tournament pick Sidnee Bopp, Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Malaka Frank and Kayla Smith also back for the Lady Toppers.

Newcomers Raneem Elgedawy, Terri Smith, Nichel Tampa, Sherry Porter and Elizabeth Anderson will also be seeking to make their marks during their debut seasons on The Hill.

NEW VOICE OF THE LADY TOPPERS

Legendary WKU play-by-play announcer Barry Williams announced his retirement during the offseason after calling more than 1,000 games for the Lady Toppers.

Jevin Redman, a recent graduate of the University of Southern Indiana with an already well-decorated play-by-play career, made his regular season debut in WKU's upset of then-No. 16 Missouri.

KEEPING THE STREAK(S) GOING

WKU has won 20 or more games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that the Lady Toppers have had such a streak since 2004-05 to 2007-08.

In addition to that stretch, the Lady Toppers have accomplished the impressive feat of winning 27 or more games in each of the last three seasons, marking the first time that that has been done in the storied history of the program.

WKU has also posted four consecutive seasons with a winning streak of 10 or more games. The Lady Toppers are one of just eight programs in the nation with a 10-game winning streak in each of the last three seasons, joining perennial title contenders such as UConn, Maryland,

Notre Dame and Baylor.

CLARK-HEARD AT 130 WINS AND COUNTING

Michelle Clark-Heard has made an incredible impact on the Lady Toppers since taking over the program in 2012-13, amassing a 130-39 record over her first five seasons.

Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

By winning her 100th game in 2015-16, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

WKU PICKED SECOND IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After capturing the C-USA regular season and tournament titles last season, WKU has been picked second in the annual preseason coaches' poll. Despite garnering more first-place votes (eight) than Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers earned the runner-up spot and have been picked in the top three in each of their four C-USA campaigns.

BROWN, BROWN TABBED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE BY COACHES

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown have been selected to the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA team as selected by the league's coaches.

Both were honored as All-C-USA selections following the season in 2016-17, with Ivy garnering First Team honors and Tashia picked up Second Team accolades. Tashia Brown was also chosen to the 2016-17 Preseason All-C-USA Team and earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

Last season, the duo combined for 26.5 points and 12.3 rebounds per game, serving as two of WKU's "Big Three" alongside Kendall Noble. In 2017-18, the Browns appear poised to become one of the top one-two punches among all C-USA players.

2017-18 C-USA PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE TEAM

THAT 80S SHOW

WKU broke the 80-point barrier nine times in 2016-17 and has scored 80 or more points on at least seven occasions per season since Michelle Clark-Heard assumed control of the program in 2012-13.

By winning eight of its nine contests in which it hit 80 points last season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 48-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together 14-1 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted a 63-12 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers had their 13-game winning streak inside Diddle Arena snapped in the loss to Notre Dame on Nov. 14. That streak was tied for the sixth-longest in program history and was WKU's longest since the 2015-16 season.

TOUGH UNDER PRESSURE

Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, the Lady Toppers have played 27 contests that have been decided by three or fewer points. In such games, WKU has posted a 19-8 record overall.

In the same vein, the Lady Toppers have been very tough closers down the stretch as well, recording a 120-12 record when leading or tied with five minutes remaining in games since 2012-13.

ONE OF A KIND

Preseason All-C-USA pick Ivy Brown returns as one of the top post players in the conference after averaging 13.1

JOINING THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown are poised to be two of the top C-USA players in 2017-18. Tashia has already entered WKU's 1,000-point club and ranks 17th in school history in scoring, while Ivy sits just 11 points shy of becoming the 39th member of the club.

points and 8.2 rebounds per game with eight double-doubles last season.

Among all returning C-USA players, Brown is the lone individual who ranked in the top 15 in the league in both scoring (15th) and rebounding (fourth) last season.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Already 17th in program history with 1,402 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season.

To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 361 more points during her final season on The Hill; as a sophomore, the Lake Park, Ga., native totaled 579 points before adding 456 more last season.

BOPP IT

The breakout star of the 2017 C-USA Tournament, junior Sidnee Bopp has continued her momentum into the 2017-18 season, knocking down seven three-pointers across WKU's first three games of the season.

Dating back to the final five games of 2016-17, Bopp has connected on 28 three-pointers over her last eight games, just shy of four makes from beyond the arc per contest.

STRONG AFTER LOSSES

In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 32-7; WKU suffered its first consecutive losses in the same season in nearly three years against Iowa and Notre Dame.

WKU LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, Sweet 16 appearances, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

FAST STARTS FOR FRESHMEN

WKU has started a true freshman at least one time in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first three games this season.

TOPS ON TOP OF RANKED TEAMS

For the third consecutive year, WKU earned a victory over a ranked opponent by taking down No. 16 Missouri, 79-76, on Nov. 10 in the Hawkeye Challenge.

With the victory, WKU secured its first streak of three seasons with at least one ranked victory since 1990-91 through 1992-93, a span that saw the Lady Toppers reach three NCAA Tournaments and make a Final Four appearance.

EXPLOSIVE OFFENSE

WKU owns C-USA's second-highest scoring offense through the first week of play, averaging 80.3 points per game through its first three outings.

WKU's 80.3 points per game ranks at the top in C-USA among teams that have only faced Division I opponents this season, and the Lady Toppers tallied 97 points against Iowa, the third-most in a single game under Michelle Clark-Heard.

LOOKING AHEAD

Following Friday night's battle inside Assembly Hall, the Lady Toppers will be off for a week before taking the court at the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic next Friday and Sunday.

On Friday at 5 p.m. (CT), WKU is set to face a Mercer team that won 25 games in 2016-17. The Lady Toppers will then square off against former Sun Belt foe Georgia State on Sunday afternoon at 1 p.m. (CT). The two played just one season together in the Sun Belt, with WKU winning both meetings against the Panthers in 2013-14.

HC

MICHELLE CLARK-HEARD
Sixth Season

“What Michelle Clark-Heard has done is instilled pride back in Western Kentucky... Now with Michelle Clark-Heard, with the passion and pride she has, because she was a player at Western Kentucky, she is bringing that back to Bowling Green.”

-ESPN Analyst Carolyn Peck

Michelle Clark-Heard has quickly shaped the Western Kentucky University Lady Topper Basketball program back into a national name, putting the Lady Toppers back on the national map. In just three seasons at WKU as head coach, Clark-Heard has reached two NCAA Tournaments, won two conference tournament championships and a regular season conference title while posting 76 wins, the most in a coaches first three seasons in WKU women's basketball or men's basketball history.

Clark-Heard's third season directing her alma mater in 2014-15 was one of the best the storied program has seen. She led the Lady Toppers to a 30-5 record, posting a Conference USA record 30 wins in the program's first season as a league member.

The season began with the Lady Toppers making huge waves early by reaching the finals of the Preseason Women's NIT with wins at Colorado and over eventual American East Conference champion Albany before a loss on the road at Mississippi State. WKU also posted non-conference wins over Hofstra, Tulane and Ole Miss.

The Lady Toppers made an immediate impact in Conference USA, posting a 16-2 record to tie the league mark for league wins in a season, including eight wins on the road, to secure the program's first regular season league title as a Conference USA member and 11th in program history. In early January, she led the Lady Toppers to the Associated Press Top 25 Rankings for the first time since the 1997-98 season. She also became just the 10th coach in NCAA history to lead their alma mater into the Associated Press Top 25 rankings as both a player and coach when the Lady Toppers were ranked for two weeks in January 2015.

The Lady Toppers then won three games in three days by a combined eight points to secure a tournament title at the Conference USA Championships in Birmingham, Ala.

Following the season, Clark-Heard was recognized for her outstanding accomplishments, earning Conference USA Coach of the Year and 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I Regional Coach of the Year honors. Her selection as a WBCA Regional Coach of the Year also made her a finalist for the Pat Summitt Trophy, awarded annually to the 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year.

Her success at WKU has also helped her land new opportunities in the USA Basketball ranks. Clark-Heard was named an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Pan American Women's Basketball Team, joining head coach Lisa Bluder of the University of Iowa and fellow assistant coach Scott Rueck of Oregon State University on the 2015 staff.

In Toronto, Clark-Heard helped lead the United States to a silver medal in her international assistant coaching debut, falling just short in the gold medal game against the host Canadians.

In 2013-14, Clark-Heard helped WKU win its final seven regular season games before reeling off three straight in New Orleans, La. in March 2014 to win the Sun Belt Conference Championships with a 61-60 win over Arkansas State after WKU faced a 14-point deficit in the second half. The season

also saw WKU defeat Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic after facing a 16-point deficit in the second half.

The season was capped by a 87-74 loss to fifth-ranked Baylor in Waco, Texas in the opening round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament, ending the longest NCAA Tournament appearance drought in program history.

The run to the tournament helped WKU secure a 24-9 record and finish with 20-wins for the second straight season. Her consecutive 20-win seasons to begin her time at WKU marked the first time in Sun Belt Conference history that a team had won 20 games in back-to-back years following a season in which it had won less than 10 games.

Her success in 2013-14 followed a massive improvement on the floor in 2012-13.

In her first year as a Division One coach in 2012-13, Clark-Heard helped WKU to a 13-win improvement over the 2011-12 season output. It was the largest in Sun Belt Conference history as WKU turned a 9-21 mark into a 22-11 record. WKU's eight win improvement in conference play from five wins to 13 wins was tied for the largest in league history. The Lady Toppers also became the first team in Sun Belt Conference history to win 20 games in the season following a year in which the team won less than 10 games earlier this season.

Her first season at WKU also showcased her ability to develop players. The duo of Chastity Gooch and Alexis Govan averaged a combined 12.7 ppg in 2011-12 but posted 36.5 per outing in 2012-13. The duo combined for 1,203 points after posting 381 last season. The team also saw major improvement in nearly all statistical categories, including improving free throw shooting by over 11 percent to .739, the third highest mark in school history.

Clark-Heard spent five years as an assistant coach to Jeff Walz at Louisville. During her time with the program, the Cardinals made three Sweet 16 appearances and made their first Final Four appearance, finishing as the National Runner-Up in 2009. A roster she helped build also reached the Final Four in 2013 after beating No. 1 Baylor and national power Tennessee in the regional semifinals and finals. Clark-Heard was instrumental in bringing in the No. 12 recruiting class in 2008, then followed with three consecutive Top 10 classes in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The 2010 recruiting class was the highest ranked class in school history, ranked fifth in the nation.

Among the most notable players Clark-Heard coached at Louisville was overall number one pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, Angel McCoughtry and overall number eight pick in the 2013 WNBA Draft, Shoni Shimmel. Overall, she coached five players at Louisville that went on to be drafted in the WNBA Draft.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Clark-Heard spent two seasons as the head coach at Kentucky State, taking the reigns of the program in June 2005. She took over a program that had won just one game during the 2004-05 season. In her first season she led the Thorobrettes to a 5-23 record, four of the wins were against Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opponents. Her team was picked to finish 11th

in the SIAC but ended the season in ninth place. In her second season at KSU, she guided the Thorobrettes to an impressive 19-9 record, finishing tied for fourth place in the SIAC. Clark-Heard earned SIAC Coach-of-the-Year honors after the impressive turnaround. Her 2006-07 Thorobrettes were the second most improved team in NCAA Division II women's basketball during the 2006-07 season.

Before being named head coach at Kentucky State, Clark-Heard spent three seasons at Cincinnati as an assistant and four years at Nebraska in the same role. The Bearcats advanced to postseason play in two of her three seasons there while she helped Nebraska reach the NCAA Tournament twice during her time with the team. She was also responsible for helping sign McDonald's All-American Janice Bright for the Cornhuskers in 2001 while coaching alongside current Louisville coach Jeff Walz and under former WKU coach Paul Sanderford.

A four-year letterwinner on the Hill (1987-90), Clark-Heard was part of four NCAA Tournament teams during her Lady Topper career. She also helped guide the Lady Toppers to a pair of Sun Belt Conference Tournament championships (1988 and 1989) and two conference regular-season titles (1989 and 1990). She played in 118 games during her four years in the Hill, scoring 790 points and pulling down 615 rebounds. WKU amassed 89 victories during her four years in uniform, winning 70 percent of the games over that span and putting together three 20-win seasons.

Upon graduation from WKU, she spent eight years working within a recreational setting, five in Bowling Green and three with the Louisville Metro Parks Department. While in Louisville, she also served as head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at DuPont Manual High School for the 1994-95 seasons and played professionally with the Kentucky Marauders of the Women's Basketball Association in 1994-95.

The Louisville native earned Kentucky High School State Player of the Year honors in 1986 while playing at Atherton High School and was inducted into the Atherton Hall of Fame in 2003.

She was married on August 16, 2003 to Luther Heard.

WKU DROPS HARD-FOUGHT 73-71 DECISION AT INDIANA

PDF Box Score Attached, Postgame Notes to Follow

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. – Sophomore Whitney Creech scored a career-best 25 points on 10-of-16 shooting and WKU erased a 15-point third-quarter deficit, but fell just short, 73-71, against Indiana inside Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall on Friday evening.

Creech scored 11 of her 25 points in the fourth quarter and spurred WKU's strong comeback attempt. The Jenkins, Ky., native followed up her 17-point performance against Notre Dame on Tuesday with another career-best performance on Friday; she finished with multiple three-pointers for the first time in her career, knocking down two of her three chances on the night.

Tashia Brown joined Creech in double figures with 14 points. Both Ivy Brown (nine points, 11 rebounds) and Raneem Elgedawy (seven points, nine rebounds) fell just shy of double-doubles.

As a team, WKU finished 28-of-61 (45.9 percent) from the floor and held Indiana to 42.2 percent (27-of-64) shooting. Both sides had 32 points in the paint, but Indiana held a 26-8 edge in second-chance points on the night.

Both sides battled back and forth for much of the first quarter, with neither side able to gain more than a four-point lead. The Hoosiers led by four on two different occasions, but the Lady Toppers closed out the first frame on an 8-0 run to seize control of the game after 10 minutes. Ivy Brown kick-started the run with a layup at the 1:58 mark, and three-pointers from Whitney Creech and Dee Givens paced WKU to a 24-19 edge at the end of the quarter.

WKU's quarter-ending run continued early in the second frame, finally ending with a 12-0 run for the Lady Toppers. Indiana's Keyanna Warthen halted the run with a three-pointer with 7:52 on the clock, but Tashia Brown answered with three consecutive pullup jumpers to build WKU's largest lead of the night to that point, 34-22.

Indiana cut the lead back to single digits with four straight points over the next two minutes, spurred by a layup from Royster and a pair of free throws by Cahill. Tashia Brown briefly rebuilt a 10-point edge on a fast-break layup with 1:38 to play, giving WKU a 36-26 lead.

The Hoosiers closed the first half with five unanswered points over the final 90 seconds, sending the two sides into the locker room with WKU holding a 36-31 advantage.

Indiana's Buss opened the third quarter with a three-pointer on the Hoosiers' first possession, but Creech immediately answered with a jumper to rebuild a four-point edge for the Lady Toppers. The Hoosiers responded with a 9-0 run over the next two minutes to retake a 43-38 lead at the 7:13 mark. Bendu Yeane keyed the run with four points, and Royster capped the stretch with a layup to give the Hoosiers a five-point edge.

Indiana's lead grew to as many as 15 points with 1:25 to play in the quarter, but the Lady Toppers netted the final four points of the frame to cut the deficit to 60-49 entering the final quarter.

Three points from Elgedawy and a layup from Creech slashed the Hoosiers' lead to just five points, 62-57, with 7:16 to play in the fourth quarter. WKU continued to gradually chip away at the deficit, closing to within two points, 66-64, on another layup from Creech just three minutes later.

WKU completely erased the 15-point hole and surged into the lead with just over two minutes to play, taking a 71-68 lead after a steal from Sherry Porter that set up a pullup jumper from Creech. On Indiana's next possession, however, Buss knocked down a three-pointer from the corner to again tie the game at 71-71.

Looking to win in regulation or force overtime, the Lady Toppers were unable to stop Buss as she drove into the lane on Indiana's final offensive possession. Creech had a look at a long three-pointer as time expired, but her chance hit the backboard and rimmed out as WKU fell just short, 73-71.

WKU will return to action next Friday and Sunday at the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic in Atlanta, Ga. The Lady Toppers will first battle Mercer, a team that won 25 games in 2016-17, on Friday at 5 p.m. (CT), before squaring off against former Sun Belt rival Georgia State on Sunday at 1 p.m. (CT). WKU and Georgia State were briefly members of the Sun Belt together for one year, with WKU winning both conference matchups between the two sides in 2013-14.

RV/NR WKU Lady Toppers at RV/RV Indiana Hoosiers

Postgame Notes

November 17, 2017

Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall; Bloomington, Ind.

FINAL SCORE: RV/RV Indiana 73, RV/NR WKU 71

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU falls to 1-3 on the season, while Indiana improves to 3-0 following Tuesday night's victory.
- WKU still holds a 5-3 edge in the all-time series against the Hoosiers, but dropped to 1-2 in games played in Bloomington.
- NEXT UP: WKU will return to action next Friday and Sunday at the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic in Atlanta, Ga. The Lady Toppers will first battle Mercer, a team that won 25 games in 2016-17, on Friday at 5 p.m. (CT), before squaring off against former Sun Belt rival Georgia State on Sunday at 1 p.m. (CT). WKU and Georgia State were briefly members of the Sun Belt together for one year, with WKU winning both conference matchups between the two sides in 2013-14.

Team Notes

- WKU started Whitney Creech, Dee Givens, Tashia Brown, Ivy Brown and Raneem Elgedawy for the fourth straight game on Saturday afternoon with the lineup falling to 1-3.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: Trailing 19-16 with 2:09 to play in the first quarter, WKU fired off a 12-0 run that spanned into the second quarter. Three-pointers from Whitney Creech and Dee Givens keyed the run, which was punctuated by Tashia Brown's jumper at the 8:15 mark of the second quarter to give WKU a 28-16 lead.
- WKU held a 36-31 lead over the Hoosiers at the halftime break.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: Down 62-52 with 9:13 remaining in the fourth quarter, the Lady Toppers rallied to take the lead, 71-68, after a 19-6 charge against the Hoosiers. Whitney Creech tallied eight points during the run, and Raneem Elgedawy added five more points for the Lady Toppers.
- WKU shot 45.9 percent (28-of-61) from the field, 5-of-14 (35.7 percent) from three-point range and 62.5 percent (10-of-16) from the free throw line.
- The Lady Toppers held Indiana to just 5-of-23 (21.7 percent) shooting from beyond the arc.
- WKU overcame a 15-point deficit midway through the third quarter.
- The Lady Toppers led the way with 11 fast-break points compared to just two for Indiana.

Individual Notes

- Whitney Creech turned in a starring performance against the Hoosiers, scoring a career-best 25 points on 10-of-16 shooting on the night.
  - Creech's 25 points gives WKU a 25-point scorer in each of its first four games of the season, joining Tashia Brown (30 against Missouri and 25 against Notre Dame) and Ivy Brown (31 against Iowa).
  - Creech also knocked down multiple three-pointers for just the second time in her career, going 2-of-3 from beyond the arc.
- Raneem Elgedawy fell just shy of a double-double with seven points and nine rebounds.
- Tashia Brown continued her strong start to the season with 14 points on the night.
- Ivy Brown was just one point short of a double-double with nine points and a season-best 11 rebounds.
  - Brown now sits just two points shy of becoming the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club.

ELGEDAWY PICKS UP C-USA FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONORS

IRVING, Texas – Raneem Elgedawy has been named the C-USA Freshman of the Week as announced by the league office Monday afternoon after averaging 9.5 points and 8.5 rebounds in two meetings with Power Five opponents Notre Dame and Indiana last week.

The honor is the first of Elgedawy's young career on The Hill and is WKU's first Freshman of the Week selection since Whitney Creech earned the honor on Dec. 19, 2016. Elgedawy and Creech are the lone Lady Toppers to be named C-USA Freshman of the Week since Tashia Brown accomplished the feat three times during the 2014-15 campaign.

Against perennial national championship contender Notre Dame inside E.A. Diddle Arena last Tuesday, Elgedawy was matched up against All-American level post players in Jessica Shepard and Jackie Young. The Alexandria, Egypt, native rose to the occasion, however, tallying a season-best 12 points to go along with eight rebounds against the Fighting Irish while shooting 5-of-9 (.556) from the floor.

On Friday, the freshman continued her strong week in front of more than 3,000 fans on the road at Indiana, scoring seven points and pulling down a season-high nine rebounds as WKU nearly pulled off a 15-point comeback against the Hoosiers. Elgedawy also turned in a strong all-around statline, notching three assists, two blocks and a steal to round out a strong performance in just her fourth regular season game with the Lady Toppers.

For the season, Elgedawy is averaging 7.3 points and 6.3 rebounds in 26.5 minutes per game and has drawn the start in each of her first four collegiate contests.

Elgedawy and the Lady Toppers will return to action twice this week as WKU competes in the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic in Atlanta on Friday and Sunday. The Lady Toppers will battle Mercer, a team that won 25 games in 2016-17, at 5 p.m. (CT) on Friday evening before taking on the host and former Sun Belt rival Georgia State on Sunday afternoon at 1 p.m. (CT).

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - After a week-long break after playing its first four games in seven days, WKU will head to Atlanta to battle Mercer and Georgia State in the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic on Friday evening at 5 p.m. (CT) and Sunday afternoon at 1 p.m. (CT).

In its last time out, WKU rallied from a 15-point third-quarter deficit behind a career-best 25 points from Whitney Creech, but fell just short, 73-71, at Indiana as the Hoosiers knocked down the game-winning shot with less than three seconds to play. All four of WKU's opponents are currently either ranked or receiving votes.

Tashia Brown (21.3 points per game) is one of four Lady Toppers averaging double figures through four games, joined by Whitney Creech (15.0), Ivy Brown (12.0) and Dee Givens (11.5).

Mercer (3-1) is led by 18.8 points per game from Kahlia Lawrence and six boards per outing from Amanda Thompson. Georgia State (0-3) has squared off against three Power 5 opponents in Florida, Mississippi State and Georgia Tech. The Panthers, former Sun Belt rivals of WKU, are led by Jada Lewis' 15.5 points per game and Shay Fluker's 8.5 rebounds per game. WKU's Friday battle against Mercer will be the first meeting between the two sides.

Following this weekend's tournament, WKU will be back in action inside E.A. Diddle Arena against Evansville on Thursday, Nov. 30, at 7 p.m. for its second home game of the season.

GAME #6 – RV/NR WKU AT GEORGIA STATE

RV/NR WKU (1-3, 0-0 C-USA) at Georgia State (0-3, 0-0 Sun Belt)

November 26, 2017 | 1:00 p.m. (CT)

Atlanta, Ga. | GSU Sports Arena (3,854)

QUICK SHOTS

- Raneem Elgedawy was named the C-USA Freshman of the Week on Nov. 20 after strong performances against Power 5 opponents Notre Dame and Indiana. The Egyptian native averaged 9.5 points and 8.5 rebounds against top competition and also added three assists, two blocks and two steals.

- Tashia Brown, Kayla Smith and Nichel Tampa will be playing in the state of Georgia for the first time in their careers. WKU has not traveled to Georgia since defeating Georgia State, 79-63, on March 8, 2014.
- Ivy Brown enters the weekend needing only two points to become the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. Of the 38 current members, five (Kendall Noble, Chastity Gooch, Alexis Govan, Tashia Brown and Micah Jones) have joined under Michelle Clark-Heard.
- With two weekly awards (Tashia Brown's Player of the Week on Nov. 13 and Raneem Elgedawy's Freshman of the Week on Nov. 20) this season, WKU has already matched its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.
- With its near-miss of a 15-point comeback at Indiana, WKU continued a strong trend under Michelle Clark-Heard of being able to rally from large deficits. Since the beginning of the 2015-16 season, WKU owns 10 victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.
- Already tied for 16th in program history with 1,416 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season. To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 347 more points during her final season on The Hill.
- For the third consecutive year, WKU earned a victory over a ranked opponent by taking down No. 16 Missouri, 79-76, on Nov. 10 in the Hawkeye Challenge. With the victory, WKU secured its first streak of three seasons with at least one ranked victory since 1990-91 through 1992-93, a span that saw the Lady Toppers reach three NCAA Tournaments and make a Final Four appearance.
- Under Michelle Clark-Heard, WKU owns a 3-7 record against ranked opponents with wins over Louisville (2015-16), Indiana (2016-17) and Missouri (2017-18).
- WKU has started a true freshman at least one time in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first four games this season.
- WKU owns an impressive record under Clark-Heard when breaking the 80-point barrier. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 48-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.
- In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 32-8 and suffered their first consecutive losses in the same season in nearly three years against Iowa and Notre Dame.
- Michelle Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.
- The breakout star of the 2017 C-USA Tournament, junior Sidnee Bopp has continued her momentum into the 2017-18 season, knocking down seven three-pointers across WKU's first four games of the season. Dating back to the final five games of 2016-17, Bopp has connected on 28 three-pointers over her last nine games, just over three makes from beyond the arc per contest.

LADY TOPPERS HEAD SOUTH FOR GEORGIA STATE THANKSGIVING CLASSIC

After a week-long break after playing its first four games in seven days, WKU will head to Atlanta to battle Mercer and Georgia State in the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic on Friday evening and Sunday afternoon.

In its last time out, WKU rallied from a 15-point third-quarter deficit behind a career-best 25 points from Whitney Creech, but fell just short, 73-71, at Indiana as the Hoosiers knocked down the game-winning shot with less than three seconds to play. All four of WKU's opponents are currently either ranked or receiving votes.

Tashia Brown (21.3 points per game) is one of four Lady Toppers averaging double figures through four games, joined by Whitney Creech (15.0), Ivy Brown (12.0) and Dee Givens (11.5).

Mercer (3-1) is led by 18.8 points per game from Kahlia Lawrence and six boards per outing from Amanda Thompson. Georgia State (0-3) has squared off against three Power 5 opponents in Florida, Mississippi State and Georgia Tech. The Panthers, former Sun Belt rivals of WKU, are led by Jada Lewis' 15.5 points per game and Shay Fluker's 8.5 rebounds per game. WKU's Friday battle against Mercer will be the first meeting between the two sides.

Following this weekend's tournament, WKU will be back in action inside E.A. Diddle Arena against Evansville on Thursday, Nov. 30, at 7 p.m. for its second home game of the season.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

- ▶ Raneem Elgedawy was named the C-USA Freshman of the Week on Nov. 20 after strong performances against Power 5 opponents Notre Dame and Indiana. The Egyptian native averaged 9.5 points and 8.5 rebounds against top competition and also added three assists, two blocks and two steals.
- ▶ Tashia Brown, Kayla Smith and Nichel Tampa will be playing in the state of Georgia for the first time in their careers. WKU has not traveled to Georgia since defeating Georgia State, 79-63, on March 8, 2014.
- ▶ Ivy Brown enters Friday's matchup needing only two points to become the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. Of the 38 current members, five (Kendall Noble, Chastity Gooch, Alexis Govan, Tashia Brown and Micah Jones) have joined under Michelle Clark-Heard.

MIXING NEWCOMERS WITH VETS

WKU is set to unveil a new-look roster in 2017-18, mixing five eligible newcomers with seven returners. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown are set to lead the roster this season, with C-USA All-Tournament pick Sidnee Bopp, Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Malaka Frank and Kayla Smith also back for the Lady Toppers.

Newcomers Raneem Elgedawy, Terri Smith, Nichel Tampa, Sherry Porter and Elizabeth Anderson will also be seeking to make their marks during their debut seasons on The Hill.

NEW VOICE OF THE LADY TOPPERS

Legendary WKU play-by-play announcer Barry Williams announced his retirement during the offseason after calling more than 1,000 games for the Lady Toppers.

Jevin Redman, a recent graduate of the University of Southern Indiana with an already well-decorated play-by-play career, made his regular season debut in WKU's upset of then-No. 16 Missouri.

KEEPING THE STREAK(S) GOING

WKU has won 20 or more games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that the Lady Toppers have had such a streak since 2004-05 to 2007-08.

In addition to that stretch, the Lady Toppers have accomplished the impressive feat of winning 27 or more games in each of the last three seasons, marking the first time that that has been done in the storied history of the program.

WKU has also posted four consecutive seasons with a winning streak of 10 or more games. The Lady Toppers are one of just eight programs in the nation with a 10-game winning streak in each of the last three seasons, joining perennial title contenders such as UConn, Maryland,

Notre Dame and Baylor.

CLARK-HEARD AT 130 WINS AND COUNTING

Michelle Clark-Heard has made an incredible impact on the Lady Toppers since taking over the program in 2012-13, amassing a 130-39 record over her first five seasons.

Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

By winning her 100th game in 2015-16, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

WKU PICKED SECOND IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After capturing the C-USA regular season and tournament titles last season, WKU has been picked second in the annual preseason coaches' poll. Despite garnering more first-place votes (eight) than Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers earned the runner-up spot and have been picked in the top three in each of their four C-USA campaigns.

BROWN, BROWN TABBED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE BY COACHES

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown have been selected to the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA team as selected by the league's coaches.

Both were honored as All-C-USA selections following the season in 2016-17, with Ivy garnering First Team honors and Tashia picked up Second Team accolades. Tashia Brown was also chosen to the 2016-17 Preseason All-C-USA Team and earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

Last season, the duo combined for 26.5 points and 12.3 rebounds per game, serving as two of WKU's "Big Three" alongside Kendall Noble. In 2017-18, the Browns appear poised to become one of the top one-two punches among all C-USA players.

THAT 80S SHOW

WKU broke the 80-point barrier nine times in 2016-17 and has scored 80 or more points on at least seven occasions per season since Michelle Clark-Heard assumed control of the program in 2012-13.

By winning eight of its nine contests in which it hit 80 points last season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 48-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together 14-1 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted a 63-12 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers had their 13-game winning streak inside Diddle Arena snapped in the loss to Notre Dame on Nov. 14. That streak was tied for the sixth-longest in program history and was WKU's longest since the 2015-16 season.

TOUGH UNDER PRESSURE

Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, the Lady Toppers have played 27 contests that have been decided by three or fewer points. In such games, WKU has posted a 19-9 record overall.

In the same vein, the Lady Toppers have been very tough closers down the stretch as well, recording a 120-12 record when leading or tied with five minutes remaining in games since 2012-13.

ONE OF A KIND

Preseason All-C-USA pick Ivy Brown returns as one of the top post players in the conference after averaging 13.1

JOINING THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown are poised to be two of the top C-USA players in 2017-18. Tashia has already entered WKU's 1,000-point club and is tied for 16th in school history in scoring, while Ivy sits just two points shy of becoming the 39th member of the club.

points and 8.2 rebounds per game with eight double-doubles last season.

Among all returning C-USA players, Brown is the lone individual who ranked in the top 15 in the league in both scoring (15th) and rebounding (fourth) last season.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Already tied for 16th in program history with 1,416 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season.

To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 347 more points during her final season on The Hill; as a sophomore, the Lake Park, Ga., native totaled 579 points before adding 456 more last season.

BOPP IT

The breakout star of the 2017 C-USA Tournament, junior Sidnee Bopp has continued her momentum into the 2017-18 season, knocking down seven three-pointers across WKU's first four games of the season.

Dating back to the final five games of 2016-17, Bopp has connected on 28 three-pointers over her last nine games, just over three makes from beyond the arc per contest.

STRONG AFTER LOSSES

In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 32-8; WKU suffered its first consecutive losses in the same season in nearly three years against Iowa and Notre Dame.

WKU LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, Sweet 16 appearances, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

GAME NOTES

FAST STARTS FOR FRESHMEN

WKU has started a true freshman at least one time in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first four games this season.

TOPS ON TOP OF RANKED TEAMS

For the third consecutive year, WKU earned a victory over a ranked opponent by taking down No. 16 Missouri, 79-76, on Nov. 10 in the Hawkeye Challenge.

With the victory, WKU secured its first streak of three seasons with at least one ranked victory since 1990-91 through 1992-93, a span that saw the Lady Toppers reach three NCAA Tournaments and make a Final Four appearance.

GEORGIA HOMECOMINGS

Tashia Brown, Kayla Smith and Nichel Tampa will have the chance to play in their home state against Mercer and Georgia State during this weekend's tournament.

The Lady Toppers have not traveled to the state of Georgia in more than three years; its last trip was its final regular season game as a member of the Sun Belt, defeating the Panthers, 79-63, on March 8, 2014.

BRINGING HOME THE AWARDS

On Nov. 20, both Raneem Elgedawy and Whitney Creech were honored by the C-USA conference office for their strong efforts against Notre Dame and Indiana the previous week.

Elgedawy was named Freshman of the Week, WKU's first recipient of that award since Creech on Dec. 19, 2016, and Creech was named to the Weekly Honor Roll as the player who finished runner-up in the Player of the Week voting.

With two weekly awards this season, WKU has already matched its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

COMEBACK QUEENS

With its near-miss of a 15-point comeback at Indiana, WKU continued a strong trend under Michelle Clark-Heard of being able to rally from large deficits.

Since the beginning of the 2015-16 season, WKU owns 10 victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.

LOOKING AHEAD

Following Friday and Sunday's bouts, WKU will return to E.A. Diddle Arena for a matchup against Evansville next Thursday at 7 p.m.

Last season, the Purple Aces posted a 14-17 record and an 8-10 mark in Missouri Valley Conference play. The two sides have met nine times in program history with WKU holding an 8-1 edge, including a 75-56 win in the most recent meeting on Nov. 16, 2007.

MICHELLE CLARK-HEARD
Sixth Season

“What Michelle Clark-Heard has done is instilled pride back in Western Kentucky... Now with Michelle Clark-Heard, with the passion and pride she has, because she was a player at Western Kentucky, she is bringing that back to Bowling Green.”

-ESPN Analyst Carolyn Peck

Michelle Clark-Heard has quickly shaped the Western Kentucky University Lady Topper Basketball program back into a national name, putting the Lady Toppers back on the national map. In just three seasons at WKU as head coach, Clark-Heard has reached two NCAA Tournaments, won two conference tournament championships and a regular season conference title while posting 76 wins, the most in a coaches first three seasons in WKU women's basketball or men's basketball history.

Clark-Heard's third season directing her alma mater in 2014-15 was one of the best the storied program has seen. She led the Lady Toppers to a 30-5 record, posting a Conference USA record 30 wins in the program's first season as a league member.

The season began with the Lady Toppers making huge waves early by reaching the finals of the Preseason Women's NIT with wins at Colorado and over eventual American East Conference champion Albany before a loss on the road at Mississippi State. WKU also posted non-conference wins over Hofstra, Tulane and Ole Miss.

The Lady Toppers made an immediate impact in Conference USA, posting a 16-2 record to tie the league mark for league wins in a season, including eight wins on the road, to secure the program's first regular season league title as a Conference USA member and 11th in program history. In early January, she led the Lady Toppers to the Associated Press Top 25 Rankings for the first time since the 1997-98 season. She also became just the 10th coach in NCAA history to lead their alma mater into the Associated Press Top 25 rankings as both a player and coach when the Lady Toppers were ranked for two weeks in January 2015.

The Lady Toppers then won three games in three days by a combined eight points to secure a tournament title at the Conference USA Championships in Birmingham, Ala.

Following the season, Clark-Heard was recognized for her outstanding accomplishments, earning Conference USA Coach of the Year and 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I Regional Coach of the Year honors. Her selection as a WBCA Regional Coach of the Year also made her a finalist for the Pat Summitt Trophy, awarded annually to the 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year.

Her success at WKU has also helped her land new opportunities in the USA Basketball ranks. Clark-Heard was named an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Pan American Women's Basketball Team, joining head coach Lisa Bluder of the University of Iowa and fellow assistant coach Scott Rueck of Oregon State University on the 2015 staff.

In Toronto, Clark-Heard helped lead the United States to a silver medal in her international assistant coaching debut, falling just short in the gold medal game against the host Canadians.

In 2013-14, Clark-Heard helped WKU win its final seven regular season games before reeling off three straight in New Orleans, La. in March 2014 to win the Sun Belt Conference Championships with a 61-60 win over Arkansas State after WKU faced a 14-point deficit in the second half. The season

also saw WKU defeat Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic after facing a 16-point deficit in the second half.

The season was capped by a 87-74 loss to fifth-ranked Baylor in Waco, Texas in the opening round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament, ending the longest NCAA Tournament appearance drought in program history.

The run to the tournament helped WKU secure a 24-9 record and finish with 20-wins for the second straight season. Her consecutive 20-win seasons to begin her time at WKU marked the first time in Sun Belt Conference history that a team had won 20 games in back-to-back years following a season in which it had won less than 10 games.

Her success in 2013-14 followed a massive improvement on the floor in 2012-13.

In her first year as a Division One coach in 2012-13, Clark-Heard helped WKU to a 13-win improvement over the 2011-12 season output. It was the largest in Sun Belt Conference history as WKU turned a 9-21 mark into a 22-11 record. WKU's eight win improvement in conference play from five wins to 13 wins was tied for the largest in league history. The Lady Toppers also became the first team in Sun Belt Conference history to win 20 games in the season following a year in which the team won less than 10 games earlier this season.

Her first season at WKU also showcased her ability to develop players. The duo of Chastity Gooch and Alexis Govan averaged a combined 12.7 ppg in 2011-12 but posted 36.5 per outing in 2012-13. The duo combined for 1,203 points after posting 381 last season. The team also saw major improvement in nearly all statistical categories, including improving free throw shooting by over 11 percent to .739, the third highest mark in school history.

Clark-Heard spent five years as an assistant coach to Jeff Walz at Louisville. During her time with the program, the Cardinals made three Sweet 16 appearances and made their first Final Four appearance, finishing as the National Runner-Up in 2009. A roster she helped build also reached the Final Four in 2013 after beating No. 1 Baylor and national power Tennessee in the regional semifinals and finals. Clark-Heard was instrumental in bringing in the No. 12 recruiting class in 2008, then followed with three consecutive Top 10 classes in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The 2010 recruiting class was the highest ranked class in school history, ranked fifth in the nation.

Among the most notable players Clark-Heard coached at Louisville was overall number one pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, Angel McCoughtry and overall number eight pick in the 2013 WNBA Draft, Shoni Shimmel. Overall, she coached five players at Louisville that went on to be drafted in the WNBA Draft.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Clark-Heard spent two seasons as the head coach at Kentucky State, taking the reigns of the program in June 2005. She took over a program that had won just one game during the 2004-05 season. In her first season she led the Thorobrettes to a 5-23 record, four of the wins were against Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opponents. Her team was picked to finish 11th

in the SIAC but ended the season in ninth place. In her second season at KSU, she guided the Thorobrettes to an impressive 19-9 record, finishing tied for fourth place in the SIAC. Clark-Heard earned SIAC Coach-of-the-Year honors after the impressive turnaround. Her 2006-07 Thorobrettes were the second most improved team in NCAA Division II women's basketball during the 2006-07 season.

Before being named head coach at Kentucky State, Clark-Heard spent three seasons at Cincinnati as an assistant and four years at Nebraska in the same role. The Bearcats advanced to postseason play in two of her three seasons there while she helped Nebraska reach the NCAA Tournament twice during her time with the team. She was also responsible for helping sign McDonald's All-American Janice Bright for the Cornhuskers in 2001 while coaching alongside current Louisville coach Jeff Walz and under former WKU coach Paul Sanderford.

A four-year letterwinner on the Hill (1987-90), Clark-Heard was part of four NCAA Tournament teams during her Lady Topper career. She also helped guide the Lady Toppers to a pair of Sun Belt Conference Tournament championships (1988 and 1989) and two conference regular-season titles (1989 and 1990). She played in 118 games during her four years in the Hill, scoring 790 points and pulling down 615 rebounds. WKU amassed 89 victories during her four years in uniform, winning 70 percent of the games over that span and putting together three 20-win seasons.

Upon graduation from WKU, she spent eight years working within a recreational setting, five in Bowling Green and three with the Louisville Metro Parks Department. While in Louisville, she also served as head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at DuPont Manual High School for the 1994-95 seasons and played professionally with the Kentucky Marauders of the Women's Basketball Association in 1994-95.

The Louisville native earned Kentucky High School State Player of the Year honors in 1986 while playing at Atherton High School and was inducted into the Atherton Hall of Fame in 2003.

She was married on August 16, 2003 to Luther Heard.

GAME NOTES

GAME #1

WKU 79, No. 16/16 Missouri 76

Nov. 10, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) - Tashia Brown scored 13 of WKU's 18 points in the fourth quarter and finished with 30 as the Lady Toppers opened the season with a 79-76 upset of No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon at the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The Tigers took their last lead at 66-65 with 3:35 to play on two free throws by Sophie Cunningham, but Brown quickly responded with a three-pointer. Cunningham tied the game at 70 with a layup with 2:04 to go and Sidnee Bopp answered that with a 3-pointer.

Brown scored the last six points for WKU in the final minute, including a contested pull-up jumper with 17.5 seconds to play and two free throws with 1.1 to go.

Dee Givens added 20 points for the Lady Toppers, who outscored Missouri 27-17 in the second quarter to lead 45-35 at the half. It is the third-straight season that WKU has knocked off a Top 25 team, the longest such streak for the Lady Toppers since 1990-91 through 1992-93.

Iowa 104, WKU 97 (OT)

Nov. 11, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa - Senior Ivy Brown had a career-high 31 points on 12-of-16 shooting and the Lady Toppers led for much of the afternoon, but WKU fell 104-97 in overtime against Iowa in the title game of the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge on Saturday afternoon inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Brown was named to the All-Tournament Team after her career-best performance that also included six three-pointers; she was joined on the All-Tournament Team by fellow senior Tashia Brown, who added 16 points after tallying 30 in WKU's 79-76 win over No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon.

WKU connected on a school-record 14 three-pointers against the Hawkeyes, finishing with a 14-of-26 (53.8 percent) mark from beyond the arc.

Both sides exchanged big runs to begin the fourth quarter; WKU pushed its lead to 10 points, 85-75, after a 10-3 run, but Iowa responded with 13 straight points to take an 88-85 lead with 3:41 to play. Ivy Brown's three-pointer tied the game back up 20 seconds later, and Gustafson's free throws with 35 seconds to play forced the ninth tie of the game at 93-93.

Sevillian's three-pointer to open the overtime frame gave the Hawkeyes a 96-93 lead, and the Lady Toppers were unable to retake the lead down the stretch as Iowa claimed the 104-97 victory.

GAME #3

No. 6/5 Notre Dame 78, RV/- WKU 65

Nov. 14, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) - Jessica Shepard helped Notre Dame pass its first road test of the season. She had 19 points and 12 rebounds and the No. 6/5 Irish beat WKU 78-65 on Tuesday evening inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

Arike Ogunbowale and Mikayla Vaughn scored 21 and 17 points for the four-time defending Atlantic Coast Conference champs. Notre Dame led 37-28 at halftime and then held steady in the second half, stretching the lead to as wide a margin as 73-59 after WKU got as close as 57-51 early in the fourth quarter.

Tashia Brown scored 25 points for the Lady Toppers, but was just 6-for-25 from the field. Fellow WKU senior Ivy Brown, who came in averaging 18.5 points per game, scored just two points in 35 minutes of play Tuesday and eventually fouled out.

"This is what it was about when we made the schedule to see where we're at as a program and it showed us a lot today and showed us a lot in these past three games, we're getting close," WKU head coach Michelle Clark-Heard said. "We've just got to continue to keep building and bringing players and that's our most important thing."

GAME #4

RV/RV Indiana 73, RV/- WKU 71

Nov. 17, 2017 - Bloomington, Ind. - Assembly Hall

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Sophomore Whitney Creech scored a career-best 25 points on 10-of-16 shooting and WKU erased a 15-point third-quarter deficit, but fell just short, 73-71, against Indiana inside Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall on Friday evening.

Creech scored 11 of her 25 points in the fourth quarter and spurred WKU's strong comeback attempt. The Jenkins, Ky., native followed up her 17-point performance against Notre Dame on Tuesday with another career-best performance on Friday; she finished with multiple three-pointers for the second time in her career, knocking down two of her three chances on the night.

WKU completely erased the 15-point hole and surged into the lead with just over two minutes to play, taking a 71-68 lead after a steal from Sherry Porter that set up a pullup jumper from Creech. On Indiana's next possession, however, Buss knocked down a three-pointer from the corner to again tie the game at 71-71.

Looking to win in regulation or force overtime, the Lady Toppers were unable to stop Buss as she drove into the lane on Indiana's final offensive possession. Creech had a look at a long three-pointer as time expired, but her chance hit the backboard and rimmed out as WKU fell just short, 73-71.

WKU RALLIES PAST MERCER, 67-62, IN HARD-FOUGHT WIN FRIDAY NIGHT

PDF Box Score Attached, Postgame Notes to Follow

ATLANTA – Facing its first deficit of the night with just over 90 seconds remaining, WKU rallied to score 10 of the game's final 12 points to earn a 67-62 victory over Mercer on Friday evening in the 2017 Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic inside the GSU Sports Arena.

All 10 of WKU's points during the final stretch came from the free throw line, and Sherry Porter, making her first collegiate start, secured the victory with two free throws with only five seconds remaining in the game.

Tashia Brown and Ivy Brown led WKU with 21 points apiece; Ivy Brown's first basket of the night also pushed her over the 1,000-point mark for her WKU career, making her the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. Ivy Brown also secured her first double-double of the season with a game-high 14 rebounds.

Whitney Creech rounded out the WKU trio in double figures with 10 points and knocked down two of her three shots from beyond the arc on the night.

As a team, WKU finished 29-of-35 (82.9 percent) from the free throw line, scoring nearly half of its points from the charity stripe while Mercer was held to just four free throw attempts.

For Mercer, KeKe Calloway led the way with 23 points on 7-of-15 shooting from deep. She was joined in double figures by Kahlia Lawrence (18) and Sydni Means (11), while Amanda Thompson added a team-high 11 rebounds.

WKU opened the game by scoring the first 13 points of the night over the opening eight minutes. Ivy Brown scored seven points during the early stretch for the Lady Toppers, including a jumper at the 8:33 mark that pushed her over the 1,000-point mark for her career. WKU built a 13-0 lead before Mercer was finally able to get on the board on a jumper from Lawrence with 1:55 remaining in the quarter.

Holding a 15-4 lead entering the second quarter, WKU saw its advantage slip to just four points after the first three minutes of the frame. Mercer used an 11-4 run over that span, spurred by six points from Lawrence, to close the gap to 19-15 with 7:01 on the clock.

Both sides responded with stretches of four unanswered points over the next three and a half minutes, but WKU was able to create separation with a 6-0 run spanning 90 seconds. Tashia Brown knocked down a three-pointer to key the run, and both Ivy Brown and Nichel Tampa converted a pair of free throws to give the Lady Toppers a 29-19 edge.

Another three-pointer, Tashia Brown's second of the night to that point, gave WKU a 36-27 lead entering the locker room for halftime.

WKU's lead grew to as many as 15 early in the third quarter on the strength of back-to-back three-pointers from Creech on the Lady Toppers' first two possessions of the frame. Raneem Elgedawy's layup with 8:20 on the clock put the Lady Toppers up 44-29, their largest lead of the evening.

Seven straight points from Mercer trimmed WKU's lead back to just eight points, 44-36, after a fast-break layup from Alex Williams. WKU immediately answered with four unanswered points of its own, though, rebuilding the double-digit lead with 5:30 to play in the third quarter.

Over the final five minutes of the frame, Mercer used a 12-4 run to slash WKU's advantage to just four points, 52-48, heading into the final 10 minutes of play. Calloway scored eight points during the run for the Bears, including knocking down a pair of three-pointers, to erase WKU's double-digit lead.

Jumpers on two straight possessions from Tashia Brown and Creech to open the fourth quarter pushed WKU's lead back to eight points, 56-48, but the Bears responded with a 10-1 run spanning the next seven minutes to grab a 60-57 lead over the Lady Toppers. Calloway again knocked down two shots from beyond the arc to pace the stretch that left WKU facing its first deficit of the night with just over 90 seconds to play.

Despite facing that deficit, however, WKU stepped up and scored 10 of the game's final 12 points to secure the victory. All 10 of WKU's points in the final 1:43 of the game came from the free throw line; Kayla Smith's pair of shots with 1:05 remaining put the Lady Toppers back in front, and another pair of shots from the charity stripe by Porter with just five seconds remaining iced the 67-62 victory.

WKU will close out the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic on Sunday afternoon at 1 p.m. (CT) as the Lady Toppers take on the host Panthers. The two sides were previously members of the Sun Belt together for one season in 2013-14, and WKU claimed both meetings against Georgia State, including a 79-63 win in Atlanta in the last meeting on March 8, 2014.

RV/NR WKU Lady Toppers vs. Mercer Bears

Postgame Notes

November 24, 2017

GSU Sports Arena; Atlanta, Ga. – 2017 Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic

FINAL SCORE: RV/NR WKU 67, Mercer 62

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU improves to 2-3 on the season, while Mercer drops to 3-2 on the 2017-18 season after Friday's defeat.
- Friday's meeting was the first in program history against the Bears, with the Lady Toppers now holding a 1-0 lead in the series.
  - Friday also marked WKU's first trip to the state of Georgia since the 2013-14 season as a member of the Sun Belt.
- NEXT UP: WKU will close out the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic on Sunday afternoon at 1 p.m. (CT) as the Lady Toppers take on the host Panthers. The two sides were previously members of the Sun Belt together for one season in 2013-14, and WKU claimed both meetings against Georgia State, including a 79-63 win in Atlanta in the last meeting on March 8, 2014.

Team Notes

- WKU started Whitney Creech, Sherry Porter, Tashia Brown, Ivy Brown and Raneem Elgedawy for the first time on Friday, with the lineup coming away with the victory in its debut.
  - The Lady Toppers switched its starting lineup for the first time this season.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: WKU opened the game on a 13-0 run spanning the first eight minutes of the game. Ivy Brown scored seven points during the stretch for the Lady Toppers, who held Mercer off the board until the 1:55 mark of the first quarter.
- WKU held a 36-27 lead over Mercer at the halftime break.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: Trailing the Bears 60-57 with 1:43 to play, WKU scored 10 of the game's final 12 points with all 10 coming from the free throw line. Ivy Brown scored four points and Tashia Brown, Kayla Smith and Sherry Porter each knocked down two free throws to seal the win.
- WKU shot 17-of-45 (37.8 percent) from the field, 4-of-11 (36.4 percent) from three-point range and 29-of-35 (82.9 percent) from the free throw line.
- WKU's 29 free throws made were its most in a single game since going 31-of-36 against Dayton on March 17, 2016, in the first round of the WNIT.
- For the first time this season, WKU won the rebounding battle, outperforming the Bears on the glass by a 43-31 margin.

Individual Notes

- Ivy Brown became the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club with the first basket of the night and finished with her first double-double of the season with 21 points and 14 rebounds.
  - Brown's double-double was the 19th of her career. She is just one double-double short of becoming the 12th player in school history with 20 points-rebounds double-doubles.
- Tashia Brown added 21 points and has scored 20+ points in three of WKU's five games this season.
- Kayla Smith and Elizabeth Anderson made their season debuts for the Lady Toppers, and Sherry Porter earned her first collegiate start for the Lady Toppers.
- Nichel Tampa scored her first points on The Hill on a pair of free throws.

WKU WINS GEORGIA STATE THANKSGIVING CLASSIC, DEFEATS PANTHERS 74-63

PDF Box Score Attached, Postgame Notes to Follow

ATLANTA – Trailing by seven points midway through the third quarter, WKU forced 16 second-half turnovers against Georgia State and rallied past the Panthers to win the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic, 74-63, on Sunday afternoon inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown was named Tournament MVP after her 27-point performance on Sunday, 20 of which came in the second half. Ivy Brown joined her on the All-Tournament Team after registering her second straight double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds, and Dee Givens rounded out the WKU (3-3) trio in double figures with 11 points. The in-season tournament victory was the fifth in six seasons under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard.

WKU forced a season-best 27 turnovers against the Panthers (1-4) and scored 27 points off those turnovers; the Lady Toppers also won the second-chance battle against Georgia State, outscoring them by a 20-13 margin after holding a 17-11 edge on the offensive glass.

Kierra Henry led Georgia State with 15 points and was joined in double figures by Shay Fluker (14) and Madison Newby (12). Despite shooting 51.1 percent (23-of-45) from the floor, the Panthers were unable to hold off WKU's strong second-half charge.

WKU jumped out to an early lead over the Panthers on the strength of four early points from Ivy Brown. Givens kicked off the game with a three-pointer just 16 seconds in, and the Lady Toppers maintained their early lead until Henry's three-point play with 8:15 on the clock knotted the game at 7-7.

Henry's three-point play sparked an 8-0 run for the Panthers over the next minute. Newby scored the final five points of the run for Georgia State, who emerged with an early 12-7 lead before Givens halted the stretch with a three-pointer with 7:13 remaining.

Neither side could gain much separation over the next six minutes, but another 6-0 run by Georgia State put the Panthers ahead, 24-18, with just 12 seconds to play in the quarter. Tashia Brown trimmed that deficit to four points with a pair of free throws just before the end of the frame.

Georgia State built a five-point lead on two occasions during the second quarter, but each time WKU was able to battle back. Facing a 32-27 hole with 2:34 on the clock, WKU fired off six straight points to take its first lead since early in the game. Tashia Brown knocked down a mid-range jumper to start the run, and four points from Ivy Brown gave the Lady Toppers a narrow 33-32 edge.

Still leading by one point, 35-34, WKU was held scoreless over the final minute of the quarter as Georgia State scored the final four points of the half to carry a 38-35 lead into the halftime break.

The Panthers took their largest lead of the night, seven points, on three different occasions early in the third quarter, the final time coming after Newby's fast-break layup gave Georgia State a 46-39 edge with 6:08 to play. From that point, however, WKU answered with eight straight points, including four straight from Whitney Creech to cap the stretch and give the Lady Toppers their first lead, 46-45, since early in the contest.

WKU's lead grew to as many as four points with just over 90 seconds remaining, but a three-point play from Georgia State's Henry left the Lady Toppers clinging to a 52-51 lead heading into the final 10 minutes of play.

Over the last quarter, WKU would not ever relinquish its lead as the Lady Toppers forced 10 Panther turnovers and created 11 points off those takeaways, allowing WKU to claim the 74-63 victory for its first true road win of the season.

Following their championship on Sunday afternoon, the Lady Toppers will return to action on Thursday evening at 7 p.m. inside E.A. Diddle Arena as WKU hosts Evansville. WKU holds an 8-1 edge in the all-time series against the Purple Aces, but the two sides have not met since a 75-56 WKU victory on Nov. 16, 2007, in Bowling Green.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Fresh off its championship at the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic, WKU will return to E.A. Diddle Arena for the first time in 16 days as the Lady Toppers host regional foe Evansville on Thursday evening at 7 p.m.

In its last time out, WKU won a pair of tight decisions against Mercer and Georgia State to capture its fifth in-season tournament crown in the last six seasons at the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic. The Lady Toppers rallied from second-half deficits in each game, including trailing Mercer with just over 90 seconds remaining, to build their first winning streak of the year.

Tashia Brown (22.2 points per game) leads all C-USA players in scoring, and Ivy Brown notched back-to-back double-doubles against the Bears and Panthers in Atlanta.

Evansville (2-2) enters Thursday's matchup with a trio of players in double figures: Hannah Noe (16.8), Brooke Dossett (15.5) and Kerri Gasper (12.3). Kelsi Scott is the team's leading rebounder at a 6.5 per game clip, and Dossett, Gasper and Macie Lively have each dished out 15 assists apiece to lead the Purple Aces.

Following Thursday's game, WKU will take a week-long break for exams before returning to the court at Southern Illinois on Sunday, Dec. 10, at 2 p.m.

GAME #7 – WKU VS. EVANSVILLE

WKU (3-3, 0-0 C-USA) vs. Evansville (2-2, 0-0 Missouri Valley)

November 30, 2017 | 7:00 p.m. (CT)

Bowling Green, Ky. | E.A. Diddle Arena (7,326)

QUICK SHOTS

- With her first basket against Mercer last Friday, Ivy Brown became the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. The former Kentucky Miss Basketball also became just the 12th player in program history to record 20 career points-rebounds double-doubles by notching one against both Mercer and Georgia State.

- Tashia Brown leads C-USA and ranks 20th in the nation with her 22.2 points per game. At the GSU Thanksgiving Classic, Brown averaged 14.5 points in the second half alone and scored 20 of her 27 points against Georgia State in the second half.

- WKU is currently shooting 93-of-118 (.788) from the free throw line this season, with only one player shooting below 80 percent among those who have attempted at least one free throw. The Lady Toppers'

93 made free throws are the third-most among C-USA teams, and their 78.8 percent success rate tops the 14-member league.

- With two weekly awards (Tashia Brown's Player of the Week on Nov. 13 and Raneem Elgedawy's Freshman of the Week on Nov. 20) this season, WKU has already matched its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

- With its come-from-behind win at Georgia State, WKU continued a strong trend under Michelle Clark-Heard of being able to rally from large deficits. Since the beginning of the 2015-16 season, WKU owns 11 victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.

- Already 14th in program history with 1,464 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season. To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 299 more points during her final season on The Hill.

- With a win on Thursday evening, WKU would continue an impressive run under Michelle Clark-Heard in games played prior to January 1. The Lady Toppers are 52-16 (.765) in such games since the beginning of the 2012-13 campaign.

- WKU has been very strong at collecting its own misses this season and has tallied nearly as many offensive rebounds as those on the defensive end. The Lady Toppers have pulled down a league-leading 15.5 offensive boards per game, and Ivy Brown leads all C-USA players with 4.2 offensive rebounds per game.

- WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first six games this season.

- WKU owns an impressive record under Clark-Heard when breaking the 80-point barrier. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 48-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

- In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 33-8 and suffered their first consecutive losses in the same season in nearly three years against Iowa and Notre Dame.

- Through six games, Ivy Brown is approaching the top 10 in program history in total rebounds, needing just 104 more boards to break into that group. The Hodgenville, Ky., native also ranks ninth in school history with 109 blocks and her 79.4 percent mark from the free throw line for her career is eighth among all Lady Toppers who have made at least 200 free throws.

WKU HOSTS EVANSVILLE THURSDAY EVENING IN LAST BOUT BEFORE EXAM WEEK

Fresh off its championship at the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic, WKU will return to E.A. Diddle Arena for the first time in 16 days as the Lady Toppers host regional foe Evansville on Thursday evening at 7 p.m.

In its last time out, WKU won a pair of tight decisions against Mercer and Georgia State to capture its fifth in-season tournament crown in the last six seasons at the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic. The Lady Toppers rallied from second-half deficits in each game, including trailing Mercer with just over 90 seconds remaining, to build their first winning streak of the year.

Tashia Brown (22.2 points per game) leads all C-USA players in scoring, and Ivy Brown notched back-to-back double-doubles against the Bears and Panthers in Atlanta.

Evansville (2-2) enters Thursday's matchup with a trio of players in double figures: Hannah Noe (16.8), Brooke Dossett (15.5) and Kerri Gasper (12.3). Kelsi Scott is the team's leading rebounder at a 6.5 per game clip, and Dossett, Gasper and Macie Lively have each dished out 15 assists apiece to lead the Purple Aces.

Following Thursday's game, WKU will take a week-long break for exams before returning to the court at Southern Illinois on Sunday, Dec. 10, at 2 p.m.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

► With her first basket against Mercer last Friday, Ivy Brown became the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. The former Kentucky Miss Basketball also became just the 12th player in program history to record 20 career points-rebounds double-doubles by notching one against both Mercer and Georgia State.

► Tashia Brown leads C-USA and ranks 20th in the nation with her 22.2 points per game. At the GSU Thanksgiving Classic, Brown averaged 14.5 points in the second half alone and scored 20 of her 27 points against Georgia State in the second half.

► With a win on Thursday evening, WKU will continue an impressive run under Michelle Clark-Heard in games played prior to January 1. The Lady Toppers are 52-16 (.765) in such games since the beginning of the 2012-13 campaign.

GAME NOTES

MIXING NEWCOMERS WITH VETS

WKU is set to unveil a new-look roster in 2017-18, mixing five eligible newcomers with seven returners. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown are set to lead the roster this season, with C-USA All-Tournament pick Sidnee Bopp, Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Malaka Frank and Kayla Smith also back for the Lady Toppers.

Newcomers Raneem Elgedawy, Terri Smith, Nichel Tampa, Sherry Porter and Elizabeth Anderson will also be seeking to make their marks during their debut seasons on The Hill.

NEW VOICE OF THE LADY TOPPERS

Legendary WKU play-by-play announcer Barry Williams announced his retirement during the offseason after calling more than 1,000 games for the Lady Toppers.

Jevin Redman, a recent graduate of the University of Southern Indiana with an already well-decorated play-by-play career, made his regular season debut in WKU's upset of then-No. 16 Missouri.

KEEPING THE STREAK(S) GOING

WKU has won 20 or more games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that the Lady Toppers have had such a streak since 2004-05 to 2007-08.

In addition to that stretch, the Lady Toppers have accomplished the impressive feat of winning 27 or more games in each of the last three seasons, marking the first time that that has been done in the storied history of the program.

WKU has also posted four consecutive seasons with a winning streak of 10 or more games. The Lady Toppers are one of just eight programs in the nation with a 10-game winning streak in each of the last three seasons, joining perennial title contenders such as UConn, Maryland,

Notre Dame and Baylor.

CLARK-HEARD AT 130 WINS AND COUNTING

Michelle Clark-Heard has made an incredible impact on the Lady Toppers since taking over the program in 2012-13, amassing a 130-39 record over her first five seasons.

Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

By winning her 100th game in 2015-16, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

WKU PICKED SECOND IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After capturing the C-USA regular season and tournament titles last season, WKU has been picked second in the annual preseason coaches' poll. Despite garnering more first-place votes (eight) than Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers earned the runner-up spot and have been picked in the top three in each of their four C-USA campaigns.

BROWN, BROWN TABBED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE BY COACHES

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown have been selected to the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA team as selected by the league's coaches.

Both were honored as All-C-USA selections following the season in 2016-17, with Ivy garnering First Team honors and Tashia picked up Second Team accolades. Tashia Brown was also chosen to the 2016-17 Preseason All-C-USA Team and earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

Last season, the duo combined for 26.5 points and 12.3 rebounds per game, serving as two of WKU's "Big Three" alongside Kendall Noble. In 2017-18, the Browns appear poised to become one of the top one-two punches among all C-USA players.

FOURTH YEAR IN CONFERENCE USA

Over its first three seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 47-7 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted a 16-2 record last season.

THAT 80S SHOW

WKU broke the 80-point barrier nine times in 2016-17 and has scored 80 or more points on at least seven occasions per season since Michelle Clark-Heard assumed control of the program in 2012-13.

By winning eight of its nine contests in which it hit 80 points last season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 48-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together 14-1 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted a 63-12 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers had their 13-game winning streak inside Diddle Arena snapped in the loss to Notre Dame on Nov. 14. That streak was tied for the sixth-longest in program history and was WKU's longest since the 2015-16 season.

TOUGH UNDER PRESSURE

Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, the Lady Toppers have played 27 contests that have been decided by three or fewer points. In such games, WKU has posted a 19-9 record overall.

In the same vein, the Lady Toppers have been very tough closers down the stretch as well, recording a 122-12 record when leading or tied with five minutes remaining in games since 2012-13.

ONE OF A KIND

Preseason All-C-USA pick Ivy Brown returns as one of the top post players in the conference after averaging 13.1

JOINING THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown are poised to be two of the top C-USA players in 2017-18. Both are now members of WKU's 1,000-point club, with Tashia currently 14th in school history in scoring, and Ivy ranking 39th in the WKU record book.

points and 8.2 rebounds per game with eight double-doubles last season.

Among all returning C-USA players, Brown is the lone individual who ranked in the top 15 in the league in both scoring (15th) and rebounding (fourth) last season.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Already 14th in program history with 1,464 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season.

To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 299 more points during her final season on The Hill; as a sophomore, the Lake Park, Ga., native totaled 579 points before adding 456 more last season.

STRONG AFTER LOSSES

In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 33-8; WKU suffered its first consecutive losses in the same season in nearly three years against Iowa and Notre Dame.

FAST STARTS FOR FRESHMEN

WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first six games this season.

WKU LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, Sweet 16 appearances, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

GAME NOTES

TOPS ON TOP OF RANKED TEAMS

For the third consecutive year, WKU earned a victory over a ranked opponent by taking down No. 16 Missouri, 79-76, on Nov. 10 in the Hawkeye Challenge.

With the victory, WKU secured its first streak of three seasons with at least one ranked victory since 1990-91 through 1992-93, a span that saw the Lady Toppers reach three NCAA Tournaments and make a Final Four appearance.

BRINGING HOME THE AWARDS

On Nov. 20, both Raneem Elgedawy and Whitney Creech were honored by the C-USA conference office for their strong efforts against Notre Dame and Indiana the previous week.

Elgedawy was named Freshman of the Week, WKU's first recipient of that award since Creech on Dec. 19, 2016, and Creech was named to the Weekly Honor Roll as the player who finished runner-up in the Player of the Week voting.

With two weekly awards this season, WKU has already matched its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

Through WKU's first six games this season, Tashia Brown is averaging 22.2 points per game, a mark that leads all individual players in C-USA and ranks 20th among all Division I players in the nation.

Brown's current scoring rate is by far her career best for a single season and tops her 2016-17 rate by nearly nine points per game.

FEELING CHARITABLE

WKU is currently shooting 93-of-118 (.788) from the free throw line this season, with only one player shooting below 80 percent among those who have attempted at least one free throw.

The Lady Toppers' 93 made free throws are the third-most among C-USA teams, and their 78.8 percent success rate tops the 14-member league.

COMEBACK QUEENS

With its come-from-behind win at Georgia State, WKU continued a strong trend under Michelle Clark-Heard of being able to rally from large deficits.

Since the beginning of the 2015-16 season, WKU owns 11 victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.

CRASHING THE OFFENSIVE GLASS

WKU has been very strong at collecting its own misses this season and has tallied nearly as many offensive rebounds as those on the defensive end.

The Lady Toppers have pulled down a league-leading 15.5 offensive boards per game, and Ivy Brown leads all C-USA players with 4.2 offensive rebounds per game.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE TROUBLE

With back-to-back double-doubles against Mercer and Georgia State, Ivy Brown became only the 12th player in program history to record 20 career points-rebounds double-doubles.

Brown joins former teammates Chastity Gooch (43) and Kendall Noble (20) as players who have reached that milestone.

RECORD BOOK WATCH

Through six games, Ivy Brown is approaching the top 10 in program history in total rebounds, needing just 104 more boards to break into that group. The Hodgenville, Ky., native also ranks ninth in school history with 109 blocks and her 79.4 percent mark from the free throw line for her career is eighth among all Lady Toppers who have made at least 200 free throws.

Tashia Brown is also on pace to finish among the top 10 in school history for field goals made and attempted, minutes played and free throws made.

LOOKING AHEAD

WKU will enjoy a long break following Thursday's matchup against Evansville as the Lady Toppers will be off next week for exams.

The Lady Toppers will return to action on Sunday, Dec. 10, at 2 p.m. as WKU travels to Carbondale, Ill., to face Southern Illinois for the 14th time in program history. WKU leads the Salukis 7-6 in the all-time series, but the two have not met since an 88-71 WKU win on Nov. 23, 2007.

MICHELLE CLARK-HEARD
Sixth Season

“What Michelle Clark-Heard has done is instilled pride back in Western Kentucky... Now with Michelle Clark-Heard, with the passion and pride she has, because she was a player at Western Kentucky, she is bringing that back to Bowling Green.”

-ESPN Analyst Carolyn Peck

Michelle Clark-Heard has quickly shaped the Western Kentucky University Lady Topper Basketball program back into a national name, putting the Lady Toppers back on the national map. In just three seasons at WKU as head coach, Clark-Heard has reached two NCAA Tournaments, won two conference tournament championships and a regular season conference title while posting 76 wins, the most in a coaches first three seasons in WKU women's basketball or men's basketball history.

Clark-Heard's third season directing her alma mater in 2014-15 was one of the best the storied program has seen. She led the Lady Toppers to a 30-5 record, posting a Conference USA record 30 wins in the program's first season as a league member.

The season began with the Lady Toppers making huge waves early by reaching the finals of the Preseason Women's NIT with wins at Colorado and over eventual American East Conference champion Albany before a loss on the road at Mississippi State. WKU also posted non-conference wins over Hofstra, Tulane and Ole Miss.

The Lady Toppers made an immediate impact in Conference USA, posting a 16-2 record to tie the league mark for league wins in a season, including eight wins on the road, to secure the program's first regular season league title as a Conference USA member and 11th in program history. In early January, she led the Lady Toppers to the Associated Press Top 25 Rankings for the first time since the 1997-98 season. She also became just the 10th coach in NCAA history to lead their alma mater into the Associated Press Top 25 rankings as both a player and coach when the Lady Toppers were ranked for two weeks in January 2015.

The Lady Toppers then won three games in three days by a combined eight points to secure a tournament title at the Conference USA Championships in Birmingham, Ala.

Following the season, Clark-Heard was recognized for her outstanding accomplishments, earning Conference USA Coach of the Year and 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I Regional Coach of the Year honors. Her selection as a WBCA Regional Coach of the Year also made her a finalist for the Pat Summitt Trophy, awarded annually to the 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year.

Her success at WKU has also helped her land new opportunities in the USA Basketball ranks. Clark-Heard was named an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Pan American Women's Basketball Team, joining head coach Lisa Bluder of the University of Iowa and fellow assistant coach Scott Rueck of Oregon State University on the 2015 staff.

In Toronto, Clark-Heard helped lead the United States to a silver medal in her international assistant coaching debut, falling just short in the gold medal game against the host Canadians.

In 2013-14, Clark-Heard helped WKU win its final seven regular season games before reeling off three straight in New Orleans, La. in March 2014 to win the Sun Belt Conference Championships with a 61-60 win over Arkansas State after WKU faced a 14-point deficit in the second half. The season

also saw WKU defeat Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic after facing a 16-point deficit in the second half.

The season was capped by a 87-74 loss to fifth-ranked Baylor in Waco, Texas in the opening round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament, ending the longest NCAA Tournament appearance drought in program history.

The run to the tournament helped WKU secure a 24-9 record and finish with 20-wins for the second straight season. Her consecutive 20-win seasons to begin her time at WKU marked the first time in Sun Belt Conference history that a team had won 20 games in back-to-back years following a season in which it had won less than 10 games.

Her success in 2013-14 followed a massive improvement on the floor in 2012-13.

In her first year as a Division One coach in 2012-13, Clark-Heard helped WKU to a 13-win improvement over the 2011-12 season output. It was the largest in Sun Belt Conference history as WKU turned a 9-21 mark into a 22-11 record. WKU's eight win improvement in conference play from five wins to 13 wins was tied for the largest in league history. The Lady Toppers also became the first team in Sun Belt Conference history to win 20 games in the season following a year in which the team won less than 10 games earlier this season.

Her first season at WKU also showcased her ability to develop players. The duo of Chastity Gooch and Alexis Govan averaged a combined 12.7 ppg in 2011-12 but posted 36.5 per outing in 2012-13. The duo combined for 1,203 points after posting 381 last season. The team also saw major improvement in nearly all statistical categories, including improving free throw shooting by over 11 percent to .739, the third highest mark in school history.

Clark-Heard spent five years as an assistant coach to Jeff Walz at Louisville. During her time with the program, the Cardinals made three Sweet 16 appearances and made their first Final Four appearance, finishing as the National Runner-Up in 2009. A roster she helped build also reached the Final Four in 2013 after beating No. 1 Baylor and national power Tennessee in the regional semifinals and finals. Clark-Heard was instrumental in bringing in the No. 12 recruiting class in 2008, then followed with three consecutive Top 10 classes in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The 2010 recruiting class was the highest ranked class in school history, ranked fifth in the nation.

Among the most notable players Clark-Heard coached at Louisville was overall number one pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, Angel McCoughtry and overall number eight pick in the 2013 WNBA Draft, Shoni Shimmel. Overall, she coached five players at Louisville that went on to be drafted in the WNBA Draft.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Clark-Heard spent two seasons as the head coach at Kentucky State, taking the reigns of the program in June 2005. She took over a program that had won just one game during the 2004-05 season. In her first season she led the Thorobrettes to a 5-23 record, four of the wins were against Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opponents. Her team was picked to finish 11th

in the SIAC but ended the season in ninth place. In her second season at KSU, she guided the Thorobrettes to an impressive 19-9 record, finishing tied for fourth place in the SIAC. Clark-Heard earned SIAC Coach-of-the-Year honors after the impressive turnaround. Her 2006-07 Thorobrettes were the second most improved team in NCAA Division II women's basketball during the 2006-07 season.

Before being named head coach at Kentucky State, Clark-Heard spent three seasons at Cincinnati as an assistant and four years at Nebraska in the same role. The Bearcats advanced to postseason play in two of her three seasons there while she helped Nebraska reach the NCAA Tournament twice during her time with the team. She was also responsible for helping sign McDonald's All-American Janice Bright for the Cornhuskers in 2001 while coaching alongside current Louisville coach Jeff Walz and under former WKU coach Paul Sanderford.

A four-year letterwinner on the Hill (1987-90), Clark-Heard was part of four NCAA Tournament teams during her Lady Topper career. She also helped guide the Lady Toppers to a pair of Sun Belt Conference Tournament championships (1988 and 1989) and two conference regular-season titles (1989 and 1990). She played in 118 games during her four years in the Hill, scoring 790 points and pulling down 615 rebounds. WKU amassed 89 victories during her four years in uniform, winning 70 percent of the games over that span and putting together three 20-win seasons.

Upon graduation from WKU, she spent eight years working within a recreational setting, five in Bowling Green and three with the Louisville Metro Parks Department. While in Louisville, she also served as head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at DuPont Manual High School for the 1994-95 seasons and played professionally with the Kentucky Marauders of the Women's Basketball Association in 1994-95.

The Louisville native earned Kentucky High School State Player of the Year honors in 1986 while playing at Atherton High School and was inducted into the Atherton Hall of Fame in 2003.

She was married on August 16, 2003 to Luther Heard.

GAME NOTES

GAME #1

WKU 79, No. 16/16 Missouri 76

Nov. 10, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) - Tashia Brown scored 13 of WKU's 18 points in the fourth quarter and finished with 30 as the Lady Toppers opened the season with a 79-76 upset of No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon at the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The Tigers took their last lead at 66-65 with 3:35 to play on two free throws by Sophie Cunningham, but Brown quickly responded with a three-pointer. Cunningham tied the game at 70 with a layup with 2:04 to go and Sidnee Bopp answered that with a 3-pointer.

Brown scored the last six points for WKU in the final minute, including a contested pull-up jumper with 17.5 seconds to play and two free throws with 1.1 to go.

Dee Givens added 20 points for the Lady Toppers, who outscored Missouri 27-17 in the second quarter to lead 45-35 at the half. It is the third-straight season that WKU has knocked off a Top 25 team, the longest such streak for the Lady Toppers since 1990-91 through 1992-93.

GAME #2

Iowa 104, WKU 97 (OT)

Nov. 11, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa - Senior Ivy Brown had a career-high 31 points on 12-of-16 shooting and the Lady Toppers led for much of the afternoon, but WKU fell 104-97 in overtime against Iowa in the title game of the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge on Saturday afternoon inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Brown was named to the All-Tournament Team after her career-best performance that also included six three-pointers; she was joined on the All-Tournament Team by fellow senior Tashia Brown, who added 16 points after tallying 30 in WKU's 79-76 win over No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon.

WKU connected on a school-record 14 three-pointers against the Hawkeyes, finishing with a 14-of-26 (53.8 percent) mark from beyond the arc.

Both sides exchanged big runs to begin the fourth quarter; WKU pushed its lead to 10 points, 85-75, after a 10-3 run, but Iowa responded with 13 straight points to take an 88-85 lead with 3:41 to play. Ivy Brown's three-pointer tied the game back up 20 seconds later, and Gustafson's free throws with 35 seconds to play forced the ninth tie of the game at 93-93.

Sevillian's three-pointer to open the overtime frame gave the Hawkeyes a 96-93 lead, and the Lady Toppers were unable to retake the lead down the stretch as Iowa claimed the 104-97 victory.

No. 6/5 Notre Dame 78, RV/- WKU 65

Nov. 14, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) - Jessica Shepard helped Notre Dame pass its first road test of the season. She had 19 points and 12 rebounds and the No. 6/5 Irish beat WKU 78-65 on Tuesday evening inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

Arike Ogunbowale and Mikayla Vaughn scored 21 and 17 points for the four-time defending Atlantic Coast Conference champs. Notre Dame led 37-28 at halftime and then held steady in the second half, stretching the lead to as wide a margin as 73-59 after WKU got as close as 57-51 early in the fourth quarter.

Tashia Brown scored 25 points for the Lady Toppers, but was just 6-for-25 from the field. Fellow WKU senior Ivy Brown, who came in averaging 18.5 points per game, scored just two points in 35 minutes of play Tuesday and eventually fouled out.

"This is what it was about when we made the schedule to see where we're at as a program and it showed us a lot today and showed us a lot in these past three games, we're getting close," WKU head coach Michelle Clark-Heard said. "We've just got to continue to keep building and bringing players and that's our most important thing."

GAME #4

RV/RV Indiana 73, RV/- WKU 71

Nov. 17, 2017 - Bloomington, Ind. - Assembly Hall

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Sophomore Whitney Creech scored a career-best 25 points on 10-of-16 shooting and WKU erased a 15-point third-quarter deficit, but fell just short, 73-71, against Indiana inside Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall on Friday evening.

Creech scored 11 of her 25 points in the fourth quarter and spurred WKU's strong comeback attempt. The Jenkins, Ky., native followed up her 17-point performance against Notre Dame on Tuesday with another career-best performance on Friday; she finished with multiple three-pointers for the second time in her career, knocking down two of her three chances on the night.

WKU completely erased the 15-point hole and surged into the lead with just over two minutes to play, taking a 71-68 lead after a steal from Sherry Porter that set up a pullup jumper from Creech. On Indiana's next possession, however, Buss knocked down a three-pointer from the corner to again tie the game at 71-71.

Looking to win in regulation or force overtime, the Lady Toppers were unable to stop Buss as she drove into the lane on Indiana's final offensive possession. Creech had a look at a long three-pointer as time expired, but her chance hit the backboard and rimmed out as WKU fell just short, 73-71.

GAME NOTES

GAME #5

RV/- WKU 67, Mercer 62

Nov. 24, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Facing its first deficit of the night with just over 90 seconds remaining, WKU rallied to score 10 of the game's final 12 points to earn a 67-62 victory over Mercer on Friday evening in the 2017 Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown and Ivy Brown led WKU with 21 points apiece; Ivy Brown's first basket of the night also pushed her over the 1,000-point mark for her WKU career, making her the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. Ivy Brown also secured her first double-double of the season with a game-high 14 rebounds.

Jumpers on two straight possessions from Tashia Brown and Creech to open the fourth quarter pushed WKU's lead back to eight points, 56-48, but the Bears responded with a 10-1 run spanning the next seven minutes to grab a 60-57 lead over the Lady Toppers.

Despite facing that deficit, however, WKU stepped up and scored 10 of the game's final 12 points to secure the victory. All 10 of WKU's points in the final 1:43 of the game came from the free throw line; Kayla Smith's pair of shots with 1:05 remaining put the Lady Toppers back in front, and another pair of shots from the charity stripe by Porter with just five seconds remaining iced the 67-62 victory.

Nov. 26, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Trailing by seven points midway through the third quarter, WKU forced 16 second-half turnovers against Georgia State and rallied past the Panthers to win the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic, 74-63, on Sunday afternoon inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown was named Tournament MVP after her 27-point performance on Sunday, 20 of which came in the second half. Ivy Brown joined her on the All-Tournament Team after registering her second straight double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds, and Dee Givens rounded out the WKU trio in double figures with 11 points. The in-season tournament victory was the fifth in six seasons under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard.

The Panthers took their largest lead of the night, seven points, on three different occasions early in the third quarter, the final time coming after Newby's fast-break layup gave Georgia State a 46-39 edge with 6:08 to play. From that point, however, WKU answered with eight straight points, including four straight from Whitney Creech to cap the stretch and give the Lady Toppers their first lead, 46-45, since early in the contest.

Over the last quarter, WKU would not ever relinquish its lead as the Lady Toppers forced 10 Panther turnovers and created 11 points off those takeaways, allowing WKU to claim the 74-63 victory for its first true road win of the season.

WKU HOSTS EVANSVILLE THURSDAY EVENING IN LAST BOUT BEFORE EXAM WEEK

Fresh off its championship at the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic, WKU will return to E.A. Diddle Arena for the first time in 16 days as the Lady Toppers host regional foe Evansville on Thursday evening at 7 p.m.

In its last time out, WKU won a pair of tight decisions against Mercer and Georgia State to capture its fifth in-season tournament crown in the last six seasons at the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic. The Lady Toppers rallied from second-half deficits in each game, including trailing Mercer with just over 90 seconds remaining, to build their first winning streak of the year.

Tashia Brown (22.2 points per game) leads all C-USA players in scoring, and Ivy Brown notched back-to-back double-doubles against the Bears and Panthers in Atlanta.

Evansville (2-2) enters Thursday's matchup with a trio of players in double figures: Hannah Noe (16.8), Brooke Dossett (15.5) and Kerri Gasper (12.3). Kelsi Scott is the team's leading rebounder at a 6.5 per game clip, and Dossett, Gasper and Macie Lively have each dished out 15 assists apiece to lead the Purple Aces.

Following Thursday's game, WKU will take a week-long break for exams before returning to the court at Southern Illinois on Sunday, Dec. 10, at 2 p.m.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

- ▶ With her first basket against Mercer last Friday, Ivy Brown became the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. The former Kentucky Miss Basketball also became just the 12th player in program history to record 20 career points-rebounds double-doubles by notching one against both Mercer and Georgia State.
- ▶ Tashia Brown leads C-USA and ranks 20th in the nation with her 22.2 points per game. At the GSU Thanksgiving Classic, Brown averaged 14.5 points in the second half alone and scored 20 of her 27 points against Georgia State in the second half.
- ▶ With a win on Thursday evening, WKU will continue an impressive run under Michelle Clark-Heard in games played prior to January 1. The Lady Toppers are 52-16 (.765) in such games since the beginning of the 2012-13 campaign.

GAME NOTES

MIXING NEWCOMERS WITH VETS

WKU is set to unveil a new-look roster in 2017-18, mixing five eligible newcomers with seven returners. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown are set to lead the roster this season, with C-USA All-Tournament pick Sidnee Bopp, Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Malaka Frank and Kayla Smith also back for the Lady Toppers.

Newcomers Raneem Elgedawy, Terri Smith, Nichel Tampa, Sherry Porter and Elizabeth Anderson will also be seeking to make their marks during their debut seasons on The Hill.

NEW VOICE OF THE LADY TOPPERS

Legendary WKU play-by-play announcer Barry Williams announced his retirement during the offseason after calling more than 1,000 games for the Lady Toppers.

Jevin Redman, a recent graduate of the University of Southern Indiana with an already well-decorated play-by-play career, made his regular season debut in WKU's upset of then-No. 16 Missouri.

KEEPING THE STREAK(S) GOING

WKU has won 20 or more games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that the Lady Toppers have had such a streak since 2004-05 to 2007-08.

In addition to that stretch, the Lady Toppers have accomplished the impressive feat of winning 27 or more games in each of the last three seasons, marking the first time that that has been done in the storied history of the program.

WKU has also posted four consecutive seasons with a winning streak of 10 or more games. The Lady Toppers are one of just eight programs in the nation with a 10-game winning streak in each of the last three seasons, joining perennial title contenders such as UConn, Maryland,

Notre Dame and Baylor.

CLARK-HEARD AT 130 WINS AND COUNTING

Michelle Clark-Heard has made an incredible impact on the Lady Toppers since taking over the program in 2012-13, amassing a 130-39 record over her first five seasons.

Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

By winning her 100th game in 2015-16, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

WKU PICKED SECOND IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After capturing the C-USA regular season and tournament titles last season, WKU has been picked second in the annual preseason coaches' poll. Despite garnering more first-place votes (eight) than Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers earned the runner-up spot and have been picked in the top three in each of their four C-USA campaigns.

BROWN, BROWN TABBED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE BY COACHES

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown have been selected to the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA team as selected by the league's coaches.

Both were honored as All-C-USA selections following the season in 2016-17, with Ivy garnering First Team honors and Tashia picked up Second Team accolades. Tashia Brown was also chosen to the 2016-17 Preseason All-C-USA Team and earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

Last season, the duo combined for 26.5 points and 12.3 rebounds per game, serving as two of WKU's "Big Three" alongside Kendall Noble. In 2017-18, the Browns appear poised to become one of the top one-two punches among all C-USA players.

2017-18 C-USA PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE TEAM

THAT 80S SHOW

WKU broke the 80-point barrier nine times in 2016-17 and has scored 80 or more points on at least seven occasions per season since Michelle Clark-Heard assumed control of the program in 2012-13.

By winning eight of its nine contests in which it hit 80 points last season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 48-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together 14-1 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted a 63-12 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers had their 13-game winning streak inside Diddle Arena snapped in the loss to Notre Dame on Nov. 14. That streak was tied for the sixth-longest in program history and was WKU's longest since the 2015-16 season.

TOUGH UNDER PRESSURE

Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, the Lady Toppers have played 27 contests that have been decided by three or fewer points. In such games, WKU has posted a 19-9 record overall.

In the same vein, the Lady Toppers have been very tough closers down the stretch as well, recording a 122-12 record when leading or tied with five minutes remaining in games since 2012-13.

ONE OF A KIND

Preseason All-C-USA pick Ivy Brown returns as one of the top post players in the conference after averaging 13.1

JOINING THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown are poised to be two of the top C-USA players in 2017-18. Both are now members of WKU's 1,000-point club, with Tashia currently 14th in school history in scoring, and Ivy ranking 39th in the WKU record book.

points and 8.2 rebounds per game with eight double-doubles last season.

Among all returning C-USA players, Brown is the lone individual who ranked in the top 15 in the league in both scoring (15th) and rebounding (fourth) last season.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Already 14th in program history with 1,464 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season.

To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 299 more points during her final season on The Hill; as a sophomore, the Lake Park, Ga., native totaled 579 points before adding 456 more last season.

STRONG AFTER LOSSES

In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 33-8; WKU suffered its first consecutive losses in the same season in nearly three years against Iowa and Notre Dame.

FAST STARTS FOR FRESHMEN

WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first six games this season.

WKU LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, Sweet 16 appearances, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

GAME NOTES

TOPS ON TOP OF RANKED TEAMS

For the third consecutive year, WKU earned a victory over a ranked opponent by taking down No. 16 Missouri, 79-76, on Nov. 10 in the Hawkeye Challenge.

With the victory, WKU secured its first streak of three seasons with at least one ranked victory since 1990-91 through 1992-93, a span that saw the Lady Toppers reach three NCAA Tournaments and make a Final Four appearance.

BRINGING HOME THE AWARDS

On Nov. 20, both Raneem Elgedawy and Whitney Creech were honored by the C-USA conference office for their strong efforts against Notre Dame and Indiana the previous week.

Elgedawy was named Freshman of the Week, WKU's first recipient of that award since Creech on Dec. 19, 2016, and Creech was named to the Weekly Honor Roll as the player who finished runner-up in the Player of the Week voting.

With two weekly awards this season, WKU has already matched its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

Through WKU's first six games this season, Tashia Brown is averaging 22.2 points per game, a mark that leads all individual players in C-USA and ranks 20th among all Division I players in the nation.

Brown's current scoring rate is by far her career best for a single season and tops her 2016-17 rate by nearly nine points per game.

FEELING CHARITABLE

WKU is currently shooting 93-of-118 (.788) from the free throw line this season, with only one player shooting below 80 percent among those who have attempted at least one free throw.

The Lady Toppers' 93 made free throws are the third-most among C-USA teams, and their 78.8 percent success rate tops the 14-member league.

COMEBACK QUEENS

With its come-from-behind win at Georgia State, WKU continued a strong trend under Michelle Clark-Heard of being able to rally from large deficits.

Since the beginning of the 2015-16 season, WKU owns 11 victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.

CRASHING THE OFFENSIVE GLASS

WKU has been very strong at collecting its own misses this season and has tallied nearly as many offensive rebounds as those on the defensive end.

The Lady Toppers have pulled down a league-leading 15.5 offensive boards per game, and Ivy Brown leads all C-USA players with 4.2 offensive rebounds per game.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE TROUBLE

With back-to-back double-doubles against Mercer and Georgia State, Ivy Brown became only the 12th player in program history to record 20 career points-rebounds double-doubles.

Brown joins former teammates Chastity Gooch (43) and Kendall Noble (20) as players who have reached that milestone.

RECORD BOOK WATCH

Through six games, Ivy Brown is approaching the top 10 in program history in total rebounds, needing just 104 more boards to break into that group. The Hodgenville, Ky., native also ranks ninth in school history with 109 blocks and her 79.4 percent mark from the free throw line for her career is eighth among all Lady Toppers who have made at least 200 free throws.

Tashia Brown is also on pace to finish among the top 10 in school history for field goals made and attempted, minutes played and free throws made.

LOOKING AHEAD

WKU will enjoy a long break following Thursday's matchup against Evansville as the Lady Toppers will be off next week for exams.

The Lady Toppers will return to action on Sunday, Dec. 10, at 2 p.m. as WKU travels to Carbondale, Ill., to face Southern Illinois for the 14th time in program history. WKU leads the Salukis 7-6 in the all-time series, but the two have not met since an 88-71 WKU win on Nov. 23, 2007.

MICHELLE CLARK-HEARD
Sixth Season

“What Michelle Clark-Heard has done is instilled pride back in Western Kentucky... Now with Michelle Clark-Heard, with the passion and pride she has, because she was a player at Western Kentucky, she is bringing that back to Bowling Green.”

-ESPN Analyst Carolyn Peck

Michelle Clark-Heard has quickly shaped the Western Kentucky University Lady Topper Basketball program back into a national name, putting the Lady Toppers back on the national map. In just three seasons at WKU as head coach, Clark-Heard has reached two NCAA Tournaments, won two conference tournament championships and a regular season conference title while posting 76 wins, the most in a coaches first three seasons in WKU women's basketball or men's basketball history.

Clark-Heard's third season directing her alma mater in 2014-15 was one of the best the storied program has seen. She led the Lady Toppers to a 30-5 record, posting a Conference USA record 30 wins in the program's first season as a league member.

The season began with the Lady Toppers making huge waves early by reaching the finals of the Preseason Women's NIT with wins at Colorado and over eventual American East Conference champion Albany before a loss on the road at Mississippi State. WKU also posted non-conference wins over Hofstra, Tulane and Ole Miss.

The Lady Toppers made an immediate impact in Conference USA, posting a 16-2 record to tie the league mark for league wins in a season, including eight wins on the road, to secure the program's first regular season league title as a Conference USA member and 11th in program history. In early January, she led the Lady Toppers to the Associated Press Top 25 Rankings for the first time since the 1997-98 season. She also became just the 10th coach in NCAA history to lead their alma mater into the Associated Press Top 25 rankings as both a player and coach when the Lady Toppers were ranked for two weeks in January 2015.

The Lady Toppers then won three games in three days by a combined eight points to secure a tournament title at the Conference USA Championships in Birmingham, Ala.

Following the season, Clark-Heard was recognized for her outstanding accomplishments, earning Conference USA Coach of the Year and 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I Regional Coach of the Year honors. Her selection as a WBCA Regional Coach of the Year also made her a finalist for the Pat Summitt Trophy, awarded annually to the 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year.

Her success at WKU has also helped her land new opportunities in the USA Basketball ranks. Clark-Heard was named an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Pan American Women's Basketball Team, joining head coach Lisa Bluder of the University of Iowa and fellow assistant coach Scott Rueck of Oregon State University on the 2015 staff.

In Toronto, Clark-Heard helped lead the United States to a silver medal in her international assistant coaching debut, falling just short in the gold medal game against the host Canadians.

In 2013-14, Clark-Heard helped WKU win its final seven regular season games before reeling off three straight in New Orleans, La. in March 2014 to win the Sun Belt Conference Championships with a 61-60 win over Arkansas State after WKU faced a 14-point deficit in the second half. The season

also saw WKU defeat Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic after facing a 16-point deficit in the second half.

The season was capped by a 87-74 loss to fifth-ranked Baylor in Waco, Texas in the opening round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament, ending the longest NCAA Tournament appearance drought in program history.

The run to the tournament helped WKU secure a 24-9 record and finish with 20-wins for the second straight season. Her consecutive 20-win seasons to begin her time at WKU marked the first time in Sun Belt Conference history that a team had won 20 games in back-to-back years following a season in which it had won less than 10 games.

Her success in 2013-14 followed a massive improvement on the floor in 2012-13.

In her first year as a Division One coach in 2012-13, Clark-Heard helped WKU to a 13-win improvement over the 2011-12 season output. It was the largest in Sun Belt Conference history as WKU turned a 9-21 mark into a 22-11 record. WKU's eight win improvement in conference play from five wins to 13 wins was tied for the largest in league history. The Lady Toppers also became the first team in Sun Belt Conference history to win 20 games in the season following a year in which the team won less than 10 games earlier this season.

Her first season at WKU also showcased her ability to develop players. The duo of Chastity Gooch and Alexis Govan averaged a combined 12.7 ppg in 2011-12 but posted 36.5 per outing in 2012-13. The duo combined for 1,203 points after posting 381 last season. The team also saw major improvement in nearly all statistical categories, including improving free throw shooting by over 11 percent to .739, the third highest mark in school history.

Clark-Heard spent five years as an assistant coach to Jeff Walz at Louisville. During her time with the program, the Cardinals made three Sweet 16 appearances and made their first Final Four appearance, finishing as the National Runner-Up in 2009. A roster she helped build also reached the Final Four in 2013 after beating No. 1 Baylor and national power Tennessee in the regional semifinals and finals. Clark-Heard was instrumental in bringing in the No. 12 recruiting class in 2008, then followed with three consecutive Top 10 classes in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The 2010 recruiting class was the highest ranked class in school history, ranked fifth in the nation.

Among the most notable players Clark-Heard coached at Louisville was overall number one pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, Angel McCoughtry and overall number eight pick in the 2013 WNBA Draft, Shoni Shimmel. Overall, she coached five players at Louisville that went on to be drafted in the WNBA Draft.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Clark-Heard spent two seasons as the head coach at Kentucky State, taking the reigns of the program in June 2005. She took over a program that had won just one game during the 2004-05 season. In her first season she led the Thorobrettes to a 5-23 record, four of the wins were against Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opponents. Her team was picked to finish 11th

in the SIAC but ended the season in ninth place. In her second season at KSU, she guided the Thorobrettes to an impressive 19-9 record, finishing tied for fourth place in the SIAC. Clark-Heard earned SIAC Coach-of-the-Year honors after the impressive turnaround. Her 2006-07 Thorobrettes were the second most improved team in NCAA Division II women's basketball during the 2006-07 season.

Before being named head coach at Kentucky State, Clark-Heard spent three seasons at Cincinnati as an assistant and four years at Nebraska in the same role. The Bearcats advanced to postseason play in two of her three seasons there while she helped Nebraska reach the NCAA Tournament twice during her time with the team. She was also responsible for helping sign McDonald's All-American Janice Bright for the Cornhuskers in 2001 while coaching alongside current Louisville coach Jeff Walz and under former WKU coach Paul Sanderford.

A four-year letterwinner on the Hill (1987-90), Clark-Heard was part of four NCAA Tournament teams during her Lady Topper career. She also helped guide the Lady Toppers to a pair of Sun Belt Conference Tournament championships (1988 and 1989) and two conference regular-season titles (1989 and 1990). She played in 118 games during her four years in the Hill, scoring 790 points and pulling down 615 rebounds. WKU amassed 89 victories during her four years in uniform, winning 70 percent of the games over that span and putting together three 20-win seasons.

Upon graduation from WKU, she spent eight years working within a recreational setting, five in Bowling Green and three with the Louisville Metro Parks Department. While in Louisville, she also served as head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at DuPont Manual High School for the 1994-95 seasons and played professionally with the Kentucky Marauders of the Women's Basketball Association in 1994-95.

The Louisville native earned Kentucky High School State Player of the Year honors in 1986 while playing at Atherton High School and was inducted into the Atherton Hall of Fame in 2003.

She was married on August 16, 2003 to Luther Heard.

GAME NOTES

GAME #1

WKU 79, No. 16/16 Missouri 76

Nov. 10, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) - Tashia Brown scored 13 of WKU's 18 points in the fourth quarter and finished with 30 as the Lady Toppers opened the season with a 79-76 upset of No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon at the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The Tigers took their last lead at 66-65 with 3:35 to play on two free throws by Sophie Cunningham, but Brown quickly responded with a three-pointer. Cunningham tied the game at 70 with a layup with 2:04 to go and Sidnee Bopp answered that with a 3-pointer.

Brown scored the last six points for WKU in the final minute, including a contested pull-up jumper with 17.5 seconds to play and two free throws with 1.1 to go.

Dee Givens added 20 points for the Lady Toppers, who outscored Missouri 27-17 in the second quarter to lead 45-35 at the half. It is the third-straight season that WKU has knocked off a Top 25 team, the longest such streak for the Lady Toppers since 1990-91 through 1992-93.

GAME #2

Iowa 104, WKU 97 (OT)

Nov. 11, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa - Senior Ivy Brown had a career-high 31 points on 12-of-16 shooting and the Lady Toppers led for much of the afternoon, but WKU fell 104-97 in overtime against Iowa in the title game of the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge on Saturday afternoon inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Brown was named to the All-Tournament Team after her career-best performance that also included six three-pointers; she was joined on the All-Tournament Team by fellow senior Tashia Brown, who added 16 points after tallying 30 in WKU's 79-76 win over No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon.

WKU connected on a school-record 14 three-pointers against the Hawkeyes, finishing with a 14-of-26 (53.8 percent) mark from beyond the arc.

Both sides exchanged big runs to begin the fourth quarter; WKU pushed its lead to 10 points, 85-75, after a 10-3 run, but Iowa responded with 13 straight points to take an 88-85 lead with 3:41 to play. Ivy Brown's three-pointer tied the game back up 20 seconds later, and Gustafson's free throws with 35 seconds to play forced the ninth tie of the game at 93-93.

Sevillian's three-pointer to open the overtime frame gave the Hawkeyes a 96-93 lead, and the Lady Toppers were unable to retake the lead down the stretch as Iowa claimed the 104-97 victory.

No. 6/5 Notre Dame 78, RV/- WKU 65

Nov. 14, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) - Jessica Shepard helped Notre Dame pass its first road test of the season. She had 19 points and 12 rebounds and the No. 6/5 Irish beat WKU 78-65 on Tuesday evening inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

Arike Ogunbowale and Mikayla Vaughn scored 21 and 17 points for the four-time defending Atlantic Coast Conference champs. Notre Dame led 37-28 at halftime and then held steady in the second half, stretching the lead to as wide a margin as 73-59 after WKU got as close as 57-51 early in the fourth quarter.

Tashia Brown scored 25 points for the Lady Toppers, but was just 6-for-25 from the field. Fellow WKU senior Ivy Brown, who came in averaging 18.5 points per game, scored just two points in 35 minutes of play Tuesday and eventually fouled out.

"This is what it was about when we made the schedule to see where we're at as a program and it showed us a lot today and showed us a lot in these past three games, we're getting close," WKU head coach Michelle Clark-Heard said. "We've just got to continue to keep building and bringing players and that's our most important thing."

RV/RV Indiana 73, RV/- WKU 71

Nov. 17, 2017 - Bloomington, Ind. - Assembly Hall

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Sophomore Whitney Creech scored a career-best 25 points on 10-of-16 shooting and WKU erased a 15-point third-quarter deficit, but fell just short, 73-71, against Indiana inside Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall on Friday evening.

Creech scored 11 of her 25 points in the fourth quarter and spurred WKU's strong comeback attempt. The Jenkins, Ky., native followed up her 17-point performance against Notre Dame on Tuesday with another career-best performance on Friday; she finished with multiple three-pointers for the second time in her career, knocking down two of her three chances on the night.

WKU completely erased the 15-point hole and surged into the lead with just over two minutes to play, taking a 71-68 lead after a steal from Sherry Porter that set up a pullup jumper from Creech. On Indiana's next possession, however, Buss knocked down a three-pointer from the corner to again tie the game at 71-71.

Looking to win in regulation or force overtime, the Lady Toppers were unable to stop Buss as she drove into the lane on Indiana's final offensive possession. Creech had a look at a long three-pointer as time expired, but her chance hit the backboard and rimmed out as WKU fell just short, 73-71.

GAME NOTES

GAME #5

RV/- WKU 67, Mercer 62

Nov. 24, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Facing its first deficit of the night with just over 90 seconds remaining, WKU rallied to score 10 of the game's final 12 points to earn a 67-62 victory over Mercer on Friday evening in the 2017 Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown and Ivy Brown led WKU with 21 points apiece; Ivy Brown's first basket of the night also pushed her over the 1,000-point mark for her WKU career, making her the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. Ivy Brown also secured her first double-double of the season with a game-high 14 rebounds.

Jumpers on two straight possessions from Tashia Brown and Creech to open the fourth quarter pushed WKU's lead back to eight points, 56-48, but the Bears responded with a 10-1 run spanning the next seven minutes to grab a 60-57 lead over the Lady Toppers.

Despite facing that deficit, however, WKU stepped up and scored 10 of the game's final 12 points to secure the victory. All 10 of WKU's points in the final 1:43 of the game came from the free throw line; Kayla Smith's pair of shots with 1:05 remaining put the Lady Toppers back in front, and another pair of shots from the charity stripe by Porter with just five seconds remaining iced the 67-62 victory.

GAME #6

RV/- WKU 74, Georgia State 63

Nov. 26, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Trailing by seven points midway through the third quarter, WKU forced 16 second-half turnovers against Georgia State and rallied past the Panthers to win the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic, 74-63, on Sunday afternoon inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown was named Tournament MVP after her 27-point performance on Sunday, 20 of which came in the second half. Ivy Brown joined her on the All-Tournament Team after registering her second straight double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds, and Dee Givens rounded out the WKU trio in double figures with 11 points. The in-season tournament victory was the fifth in six seasons under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard.

The Panthers took their largest lead of the night, seven points, on three different occasions early in the third quarter, the final time coming after Newby's fast-break layup gave Georgia State a 46-39 edge with 6:08 to play. From that point, however, WKU answered with eight straight points, including four straight from Whitney Creech to cap the stretch and give the Lady Toppers their first lead, 46-45, since early in the contest.

Over the last quarter, WKU would not ever relinquish its lead as the Lady Toppers forced 10 Panther turnovers and created 11 points off those takeaways, allowing WKU to claim the 74-63 victory for its first true road win of the season.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE / November 30, 2017

WKU USES BALANCED EFFORT TO BATTLE PAST EVANSVILLE, 92-54

PDF Box Score and Notes Attached, Quotes to Follow

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Double-double efforts from both Raneem Elgedawy and Ivy Brown and a balanced scoring effort with four players in double figures helped WKU to a 92-54 win over Evansville inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Thursday evening, the third consecutive win for the Lady Toppers.

Elgedawy hit career highs with 19 points and 10 rebounds and Ivy Brown notched her third consecutive double-double with 12 points and 10 boards to lead the Lady Toppers (4-3). C-USA's leading scorer, Tashia Brown, finished with a game-high 20 points on 9-of-19 shooting from the floor, and freshman Sherry Porter rounded out the quartet in double figures with 16 points, 10 of which came in the final quarter of play.

As a team, WKU enjoyed its best shooting performance of the season, going 37-of-73 (50.7 percent) from the field in Thursday's outing. The Lady Toppers forced 21 turnovers and converted those into 28 points and were dominant inside the paint, outscoring the Purple Aces 56-16 in that category.

Marley Miller scored a team-best 17 points for Evansville (2-3) and was joined in double figures by Kerri Gasper (15) and Hannah Noe (13). Evansville knocked down 10 of their 21 three-pointers on the night but could not overcome a strong outing from WKU.

WKU came out of the gates firing and scored the first 11 points of the game with four different scorers contributing to the stretch. Elgedawy chipped in four early points as both baskets came off offensive rebounds and putbacks, and a jumper from Tashia Brown at the 7:25 mark pushed the early Lady Topper advantage to double digits.

That lead grew to as many as 19 points before the close of the first period off a takeaway and layup from Nichel Tampa, but Evansville's Noe trimmed the lead to just 24-7 at the end of the quarter after hitting a late three-pointer for the Purple Aces.

Midway through the second quarter, Evansville cut WKU's lead to just 13 points, 31-18, with 6:41 to play. Noe knocked down a trio of three-pointers on three straight possessions, and Miller's layup capped the quick run.

WKU answered right back, however, scoring 14 straight points over the next four minutes to build its largest lead of the night to that point. Whitney Creech's layup with 2:49 on the clock pushed the Lady Toppers' advantage to 45-18, and WKU would enter the locker room with a 52-26 edge three minutes later.

Evansville put together a 10-2 run early in the third quarter to slash WKU's lead back under 20 points, but WKU fired back by scoring nine of the final 11 points of the frame to push the lead back to 24 points, 73-49.

The Lady Toppers never allowed the Purple Aces any closer than that in the fourth quarter and finished the game on an 11-0 run over the final 6:18 of the game to reach the final scoreline. Porter scored six points during the run for the Lady Toppers and finished with 10 points in the final quarter alone.

With the conclusion of Thursday's matchup, WKU will now take a nine-day break for final exams for the fall semester before returning to the court on Sunday, Dec. 10, on the road at Southern Illinois with a tipoff time scheduled for 2 p.m. The Lady Toppers hold a narrow 7-6 edge in the all-time series against the Salukis, including an 88-71 win in the most recent meeting on Nov. 23, 2007.

Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard

On the ability to move players around...

"I think it was really good just to have the opportunity to play some different people, to give them more quality minutes than four or five minutes here and there. I was proud of a lot of our young ones."

On the team chemistry...

"That's one thing that is really awesome to see. I think we're growing. This is only our seventh game. I think every game they get closer and closer in practice and then they're around each other. This break will be good for us because they'll get the chance to be around each other. There's finals week, but then they'll also have some time to get some individual work and then just kind of be around each other and learn about each other more. The more we continue to grow, the better it will be."

On being home after the long road stretch...

"It was awesome. I was really happy for the girls. We were practicing here and didn't have to leave and go on the road. Just today in shoot around, I was excited and I know they were, just to have the opportunity to play in front of our home crowd."

Ivy Brown

On the game overall...

"I think we came out and jumped on it early and continued to play well. We had a little lapse during the third quarter, but in the fourth quarter we went back to playing aggressive on defense and that really helped us."

On everyone's contributions...

"It's huge. You want everybody to step up. You never know when your number is going to be called so it's big for them to step up."

Sherry Porter

On how the early schedule compared to tonight's game...

"I think it was very good that we started off fast like that. I think the first few games of the schedule kind of prepared us for these. We took what we did from those first few games and applied it tonight. I think everybody did a good job, different people stepped up when they needed to and we just executed."

WKU Lady Toppers vs. Evansville Purple Aces

Postgame Notes

November 30, 2017

E.A. Diddle Arena; Bowling Green, Ky.

FINAL SCORE: WKU 92, Evansville 54

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU improves to 4-3 on the season, while Evansville drops to 2-3. The win was also the third consecutive victory for the Lady Toppers.
- WKU now holds a 9-1 edge in the all-time series against the Purple Aces, but the two sides had not met before tonight since a 75-56 WKU victory on Nov. 16, 2007, in Bowling Green.
- NEXT UP: With the conclusion of Thursday's matchup, WKU will now take a nine-day break for final exams for the fall semester before returning to the court on Sunday, Dec. 10, on the road at Southern Illinois with a tipoff time scheduled for 2 p.m. The Lady Toppers hold a narrow 7-6 edge in the all-time series against the Salukis, including an 88-71 win in the most recent meeting on Nov. 23, 2007.

Team Notes

- WKU had a starting lineup consisting of Whitney Creech, Sherry Porter, Tashia Brown, Ivy Brown and Raneem Elgedawy. The lineup is 2-0 together after also earning a victory over Mercer last Friday.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: WKU scored the first 11 points of the game and ran out to a 15-1 lead over the opening five minutes of the game. Raneem Elgedawy scored four early points for the Lady Toppers to key the run, and WKU would never allow the Purple Aces back within single digits for the rest of the contest.
- WKU led Evansville 52-26 at the halftime break. The Lady Toppers' 52 first-half points were their most since scoring 56 against Lipscomb in the opening 20 minutes on Dec. 15, 2016.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: WKU scored the final 11 points of the night to reach the final 92-54 scoreline. Sherry Porter scored six points during the closing run for the Lady Toppers en route to reaching her total of 16 points.
- With Tashia Brown's 20-point performance, WKU now has a 20-point scorer in six of its first seven games this season.
- WKU had two players with double-doubles, the first time since the Lady Toppers played Alabama A&M on Nov. 11, 2016. In that outing, Tashia Brown had 13 points and 10 rebounds, while Kendall Noble scored 12 points and notched 10 rebounds.

Individual Notes

- Raneem Elgedawy earned her first career double-double scoring a career high 19 points and 10 rebounds.
- Tashia Brown notched 20 points and added six boards.
  - Brown has now scored at least 20 points in five of the first seven competitions for the Lady Toppers.
- Ivy Brown notched her 21st career double-double and her third in a row with 12 points and 10 rebounds.
- Sherry Porter contributed a career high seven assists with zero turnovers. The freshman also added a career high 16 points for WKU.
- Every player who saw playing time except for Elizabeth Anderson scored at least two points, and Anderson pulled down her first two career rebounds for the Lady Toppers and also notched a steal.
- Terri Smith scored her first career points at the final buzzer, scoring on a fast-break layup as time expired.
- Nichel Tampa knocked down her first two field goals of her career and finished with a career-best five points.

ELGEDAWY EARNS SECOND C-USA FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONOR

Raneem Elgedawy Action Shot and Headshot Attached

IRVING, Texas – For the second time in the last three weeks, Raneem Elgedawy has been selected as the C-USA Freshman of the Week as announced by the conference office on Monday afternoon following her first career double-double in WKU's win over Evansville last Thursday.

The honor is Elgedawy's second of her young WKU career and marks the first time that any Lady Topper has earned multiple C-USA Freshman of the Week awards in the same season since Tashia Brown accomplished the feat three times during the 2014-15 campaign. Coupled with Brown's Player of the Week honor on Nov. 13, WKU has also captured three weekly awards through the first four weeks of the season for the first time since joining C-USA.

One of the top young post players in C-USA, Elgedawy's skills were on full display in WKU's 92-54 win over Evansville as she reached career-high marks for both points (19) and rebounds (10) en route to her first career double-double. All five of the Alexandria, Egypt, native's offensive rebounds turned into second-chance points for the Lady Toppers, including a pair of putbacks by Elgedawy herself.

Not only was the freshman efficient at both scoring and rebounding, she also matched her career high with a pair of blocks and came away with a career-best four steals against the Purple Aces. For the season, Elgedawy ranks second among all C-USA freshmen with 6.3 rebounds per game, and her one block per game average is 11th among C-USA players of all classes.

With her pair of Freshman of the Week awards, Elgedawy has also become Lady Topper Basketball's first-ever international player to capture a weekly award.

Elgedawy and the Lady Toppers will have this week off as WKU breaks for final exams, but the team will be back in action on Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. (CT) on the road at Southern Illinois.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - After being off for more than a week for fall semester final exams, WKU will return to the court at 2 p.m. on Sunday afternoon as the Lady Toppers make the quick trek to Carbondale, Ill., to square off against Southern Illinois.

In its last time out, WKU powered to a 92-54 victory over Evansville on Nov. 30. Four different Lady Toppers scored in double figures, and both Ivy Brown (12 points, 10 rebounds) and Raneem Elgedawy (19 points, 10 rebounds) recorded double-double efforts. Freshman Sherry Porter turned in a career-best 16 points, and Tashia Brown notched her fifth 20-point game of the season, scoring 20 against the Purple Aces.

Tashia Brown (21.9 points per game) continues to lead all C-USA players in scoring, and Ivy Brown has notched three consecutive double-doubles for the Lady Toppers.

Southern Illinois (5-3) carries a two-game winning streak into Sunday's clash and has earned road wins over Memphis and Marshall this season. Kylie Giebelhausen leads the Salukis at 13.9 points per game, while Nicole Martin has pulled down a team-best 7.8 rebounds per outing. Brittney Patrick and Kristen Nelson have each dished out 26 assists to lead SIU.

WKU will face a quick turnaround after Sunday's game, heading back to E.A. Diddle Arena to battle SWAC foe Mississippi Valley State on Tuesday evening at 5:30 p.m.

GAME #8 – WKU AT SOUTHERN ILLINOIS

WKU (4-3, 0-0 C-USA) at Southern Illinois (5-3, 0-0 Missouri Valley)

December 10, 2017 | 2:00 p.m. (CT)

Carbondale, Ill. | SIU Arena (8,284)

QUICK SHOTS

- With three consecutive double-doubles, Ivy Brown has become just the 12th player in program history to record 20 career points-rebounds double-doubles and now has 21 for her career. In addition to her three straight double-doubles, Brown has also notched double-digit rebounds in four straight games.

- Tashia Brown leads C-USA and ranks 18th in the nation with her 21.9 points per game. At the GSU Thanksgiving Classic, Brown averaged 14.5 points in the second half alone and scored 20 of her 27 points against Georgia State in the second half.

- Already 14th in program history with 1,484 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season. To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 279 more points during her final season on The Hill.

- WKU is currently shooting 107-of-138 (.775) from the free throw line this season, with only three players shooting below 80 percent among those who have attempted at least one free throw. The Lady Toppers' 107 made free throws are the fourth-most among C-USA teams, and their 77.5 percent success rate tops the 14-member league.

- With three weekly awards (Tashia Brown's Player of the Week on Nov. 13 and Raneem Elgedawy's Freshman of the Week on Nov. 20 and Dec. 4) this season, WKU has already exceeded its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

- With its come-from-behind win at Georgia State, WKU continued a strong trend under Michelle Clark-Heard of being able to rally from large deficits. Since the beginning of the 2015-16 season, WKU owns 11 victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.

- With a win on Sunday afternoon, WKU would continue an impressive run under Michelle Clark-Heard in games played prior to January 1. The Lady Toppers are 53-16 (.768) in such games since the beginning of the 2012-13 campaign.

- WKU has been very strong at collecting its own misses this season and has tallied nearly as many offensive rebounds as those on the defensive end. The Lady Toppers have pulled down a league-leading 16.3 offensive boards per game, and Ivy Brown ranks second among all C-USA players with 4.1 offensive rebounds per game.

- WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first seven games this season.

- WKU owns an impressive record under Clark-Heard when breaking the 80-point barrier. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 49-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

- Through seven games, Ivy Brown is approaching the top 10 in program history in total rebounds, needing just 94 more boards to break into that group. The Hodgenville, Ky., native also ranks ninth in school history with 109 blocks and her 79.8 percent mark from the free throw line for her career is sixth among all Lady Toppers who have made at least 200 free throws.

WKU RETURNS FROM EXAM BREAK AT SOUTHERN ILLINOIS SUNDAY AFTERNOON

After being off for more than a week for fall semester final exams, WKU will return to the court at 2 p.m. on Sunday afternoon as the Lady Toppers make the quick trek to Carbondale, Ill., to square off against Southern Illinois.

In its last time out, WKU powered to a 92-54 victory over Evansville on Nov. 30. Four different Lady Toppers scored in double figures, and both Ivy Brown (12 points, 10 rebounds) and Raneem Elgedawy (19 points, 10 rebounds) recorded double-double efforts. Freshman Sherry Porter turned in a career-best 16 points, and Tashia Brown notched her fifth 20-point game of the season, scoring 20 against the Purple Aces.

Tashia Brown (21.9 points per game) continues to lead all C-USA players in scoring, and Ivy Brown has notched three consecutive double-doubles for the Lady Toppers.

Southern Illinois (5-3) carries a two-game winning streak into Sunday's clash and has earned road wins over Memphis and Marshall this season. Kylie Giebelhausen leads the Salukis at 13.9 points per game, while Nicole Martin has pulled down a team-best 7.8 rebounds per outing. Brittney Patrick and Kristen Nelson have each dished out 26 assists to lead SIU.

WKU will face a quick turnaround after Sunday's game, heading back to E.A. Diddle Arena to battle SWAC foe Mississippi Valley State on Tuesday evening at 5:30 p.m.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

- ▶ With three consecutive double-doubles, Ivy Brown has become just the 12th player in program history to record 20 career points-rebounds double-doubles and now has 21 for her career. In addition to her three straight double-doubles, Brown has also notched double-digit rebounds in four straight games.
- ▶ Tashia Brown leads C-USA and ranks 18th in the nation with her 21.9 points per game. At the GSU Thanksgiving Classic, Brown averaged 14.5 points in the second half alone and scored 20 of her 27 points against Georgia State in the second half.
- ▶ With a win on Sunday afternoon, WKU would continue an impressive run under Michelle Clark-Heard in games played prior to January 1. The Lady Toppers are 53-16 (.768) in such games since the beginning of the 2012-13 campaign.

GAME NOTES

MIXING NEWCOMERS WITH VETS

WKU is set to unveil a new-look roster in 2017-18, mixing five eligible newcomers with seven returners. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown are set to lead the roster this season, with C-USA All-Tournament pick Sidnee Bopp, Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Malaka Frank and Kayla Smith also back for the Lady Toppers.

Newcomers Raneem Elgedawy, Terri Smith, Nichel Tampa, Sherry Porter and Elizabeth Anderson will also be seeking to make their marks during their debut seasons on The Hill.

NEW VOICE OF THE LADY TOPPERS

Legendary WKU play-by-play announcer Barry Williams announced his retirement during the offseason after calling more than 1,000 games for the Lady Toppers.

Jevin Redman, a recent graduate of the University of Southern Indiana with an already well-decorated play-by-play career, made his regular season debut in WKU's upset of then-No. 16 Missouri.

KEEPING THE STREAK(S) GOING

WKU has won 20 or more games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that the Lady Toppers have had such a streak since 2004-05 to 2007-08.

In addition to that stretch, the Lady Toppers have accomplished the impressive feat of winning 27 or more games in each of the last three seasons, marking the first time that that has been done in the storied history of the program.

WKU has also posted four consecutive seasons with a winning streak of 10 or more games. The Lady Toppers are one of just eight programs in the nation with a 10-game winning streak in each of the last three seasons, joining perennial title contenders such as UConn, Maryland,

Notre Dame and Baylor.

CLARK-HEARD AT 130 WINS AND COUNTING

Michelle Clark-Heard has made an incredible impact on the Lady Toppers since taking over the program in 2012-13, amassing a 130-39 record over her first five seasons.

Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

By winning her 100th game in 2015-16, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

WKU PICKED SECOND IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After capturing the C-USA regular season and tournament titles last season, WKU has been picked second in the annual preseason coaches' poll. Despite garnering more first-place votes (eight) than Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers earned the runner-up spot and have been picked in the top three in each of their four C-USA campaigns.

BROWN, BROWN TABBED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE BY COACHES

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown have been selected to the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA team as selected by the league's coaches.

Both were honored as All-C-USA selections following the season in 2016-17, with Ivy garnering First Team honors and Tashia picked up Second Team accolades. Tashia Brown was also chosen to the 2016-17 Preseason All-C-USA Team and earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

Last season, the duo combined for 26.5 points and 12.3 rebounds per game, serving as two of WKU's "Big Three" alongside Kendall Noble. In 2017-18, the Browns appear poised to become one of the top one-two punches among all C-USA players.

THAT 80S SHOW

WKU broke the 80-point barrier nine times in 2016-17 and has scored 80 or more points on at least seven occasions per season since Michelle Clark-Heard assumed control of the program in 2012-13.

By winning eight of its nine contests in which it hit 80 points last season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 49-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together 14-1 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted a 63-12 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers had their 13-game winning streak inside Diddle Arena snapped in the loss to Notre Dame on Nov. 14. That streak was tied for the sixth-longest in program history and was WKU's longest since the 2015-16 season.

TOUGH UNDER PRESSURE

Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, the Lady Toppers have played 27 contests that have been decided by three or fewer points. In such games, WKU has posted a 19-9 record overall.

In the same vein, the Lady Toppers have been very tough closers down the stretch as well, recording a 123-12 record when leading or tied with five minutes remaining in games since 2012-13.

ONE OF A KIND

Preseason All-C-USA pick Ivy Brown returns as one of the top post players in the conference after averaging 13.1

JOINING THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown are poised to be two of the top C-USA players in 2017-18. Both are now members of WKU's 1,000-point club, with Tashia currently 14th in school history in scoring, and Ivy ranking 38th in the WKU record book.

points and 8.2 rebounds per game with eight double-doubles last season.

Among all returning C-USA players, Brown is the lone individual who ranked in the top 15 in the league in both scoring (15th) and rebounding (fourth) last season.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Already 14th in program history with 1,484 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season.

To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 279 more points during her final season on The Hill; as a sophomore, the Lake Park, Ga., native totaled 579 points before adding 456 more last season.

STRONG AFTER LOSSES

In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 33-8; WKU suffered its first consecutive losses in the same season in nearly three years against Iowa and Notre Dame.

FAST STARTS FOR FRESHMEN

WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first seven games this season.

WKU LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, Sweet 16 appearances, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

GAME NOTES

TOPS ON TOP OF RANKED TEAMS

For the third consecutive year, WKU earned a victory over a ranked opponent by taking down No. 16 Missouri, 79-76, on Nov. 10 in the Hawkeye Challenge.

With the victory, WKU secured its first streak of three seasons with at least one ranked victory since 1990-91 through 1992-93, a span that saw the Lady Toppers reach three NCAA Tournaments and make a Final Four appearance.

BRINGING HOME THE AWARDS

On Nov. 20, both Raneem Elgedawy and Whitney Creech were honored by the C-USA conference office for their strong efforts against Notre Dame and Indiana the previous week.

Elgedawy has already claimed a pair of C-USA Freshman of the Week awards this season, the first Lady Topper to claim multiple Freshman of the Week honors since Tashia Brown in 2014-15.

With three weekly awards this season, WKU has already exceeded its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

Through WKU's first seven games this season, Tashia Brown is averaging 21.9 points per game, a mark that leads all individual players in C-USA and ranks 18th among all Division I players in the nation.

Brown's current scoring rate is by far her career best for a single season and tops her 2016-17 rate by nearly nine points per game.

FEELING CHARITABLE

WKU is currently shooting 107-of-138 (.775) from the free throw line this season, with only three players shooting below 80 percent among those who have attempted at least one free throw.

The Lady Toppers' 107 made free throws are the fourth-most among C-USA teams, and their 77.5 percent success rate tops the 14-member league.

COMEBACK QUEENS

With its come-from-behind win at Georgia State, WKU continued a strong trend under Michelle Clark-Heard of being able to rally from large deficits.

Since the beginning of the 2015-16 season, WKU owns 11 victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.

CRASHING THE OFFENSIVE GLASS

WKU has been very strong at collecting its own misses this season and has tallied nearly as many offensive rebounds as those on the defensive end.

The Lady Toppers have pulled down a league-leading 16.3 offensive boards per game, and Ivy Brown ranks second among all C-USA players with 4.1 offensive rebounds per game.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE TROUBLE

With three straight double-doubles against Mercer, Georgia State and Evansville, Ivy Brown became only the 12th player in program history to record 20 career points-rebounds double-doubles.

Brown joins former teammates Chastity Gooch (43) and Kendall Noble (20) as players who have reached that milestone.

RECORD BOOK WATCH

Through seven games, Ivy Brown is approaching the top 10 in program history in total rebounds, needing just 94 more boards to break into that group. The Hodgenville, Ky., native also ranks ninth in school history with 109 blocks and her 79.8 percent mark from the free throw line for her career is sixth among all Lady Toppers who have made at least 200 free throws.

Tashia Brown is also on pace to finish among the top 10 in school history for field goals made and attempted, minutes played and free throws made.

LOOKING AHEAD

WKU will be right back on the court Tuesday evening as the Lady Toppers battle Mississippi Valley State inside E.A. Diddle Arena at 5:30 p.m.

The Lady Toppers have never met the Devilettes on the hardwood but own a 2-0 mark against SWAC teams under Michelle Clark-Heard after a pair of victories over Alabama A&M in 2014-15 and 2016-17.

GAME NOTES

MICHELLE CLARK-HEARD
Sixth Season

“What Michelle Clark-Heard has done is instilled pride back in Western Kentucky... Now with Michelle Clark-Heard, with the passion and pride she has, because she was a player at Western Kentucky, she is bringing that back to Bowling Green.”

-ESPN Analyst Carolyn Peck

Michelle Clark-Heard has quickly shaped the Western Kentucky University Lady Topper Basketball program back into a national name, putting the Lady Toppers back on the national map. In just three seasons at WKU as head coach, Clark-Heard has reached two NCAA Tournaments, won two conference tournament championships and a regular season conference title while posting 76 wins, the most in a coaches first three seasons in WKU women's basketball or men's basketball history.

Clark-Heard's third season directing her alma mater in 2014-15 was one of the best the storied program has seen. She led the Lady Toppers to a 30-5 record, posting a Conference USA record 30 wins in the program's first season as a league member.

The season began with the Lady Toppers making huge waves early by reaching the finals of the Preseason Women's NIT with wins at Colorado and over eventual American East Conference champion Albany before a loss on the road at Mississippi State. WKU also posted non-conference wins over Hofstra, Tulane and Ole Miss.

The Lady Toppers made an immediate impact in Conference USA, posting a 16-2 record to tie the league mark for league wins in a season, including eight wins on the road, to secure the program's first regular season league title as a Conference USA member and 11th in program history. In early January, she led the Lady Toppers to the Associated Press Top 25 Rankings for the first time since the 1997-98 season. She also became just the 10th coach in NCAA history to lead their alma mater into the Associated Press Top 25 rankings as both a player and coach when the Lady Toppers were ranked for two weeks in January 2015.

The Lady Toppers then won three games in three days by a combined eight points to secure a tournament title at the Conference USA Championships in Birmingham, Ala.

Following the season, Clark-Heard was recognized for her outstanding accomplishments, earning Conference USA Coach of the Year and 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I Regional Coach of the Year honors. Her selection as a WBCA Regional Coach of the Year also made her a finalist for the Pat Summitt Trophy, awarded annually to the 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year.

Her success at WKU has also helped her land new opportunities in the USA Basketball ranks. Clark-Heard was named an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Pan American Women's Basketball Team, joining head coach Lisa Bluder of the University of Iowa and fellow assistant coach Scott Rueck of Oregon State University on the 2015 staff.

In Toronto, Clark-Heard helped lead the United States to a silver medal in her international assistant coaching debut, falling just short in the gold medal game against the host Canadians.

In 2013-14, Clark-Heard helped WKU win its final seven regular season games before reeling off three straight in New Orleans, La. in March 2014 to win the Sun Belt Conference Championships with a 61-60 win over Arkansas State after WKU faced a 14-point deficit in the second half. The season

also saw WKU defeat Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic after facing a 16-point deficit in the second half.

The season was capped by a 87-74 loss to fifth-ranked Baylor in Waco, Texas in the opening round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament, ending the longest NCAA Tournament appearance drought in program history.

The run to the tournament helped WKU secure a 24-9 record and finish with 20-wins for the second straight season. Her consecutive 20-win seasons to begin her time at WKU marked the first time in Sun Belt Conference history that a team had won 20 games in back-to-back years following a season in which it had won less than 10 games.

Her success in 2013-14 followed a massive improvement on the floor in 2012-13.

In her first year as a Division One coach in 2012-13, Clark-Heard helped WKU to a 13-win improvement over the 2011-12 season output. It was the largest in Sun Belt Conference history as WKU turned a 9-21 mark into a 22-11 record. WKU's eight win improvement in conference play from five wins to 13 wins was tied for the largest in league history. The Lady Toppers also became the first team in Sun Belt Conference history to win 20 games in the season following a year in which the team won less than 10 games earlier this season.

Her first season at WKU also showcased her ability to develop players. The duo of Chastity Gooch and Alexis Govan averaged a combined 12.7 ppg in 2011-12 but posted 36.5 per outing in 2012-13. The duo combined for 1,203 points after posting 381 last season. The team also saw major improvement in nearly all statistical categories, including improving free throw shooting by over 11 percent to .739, the third highest mark in school history.

Clark-Heard spent five years as an assistant coach to Jeff Walz at Louisville. During her time with the program, the Cardinals made three Sweet 16 appearances and made their first Final Four appearance, finishing as the National Runner-Up in 2009. A roster she helped build also reached the Final Four in 2013 after beating No. 1 Baylor and national power Tennessee in the regional semifinals and finals. Clark-Heard was instrumental in bringing in the No. 12 recruiting class in 2008, then followed with three consecutive Top 10 classes in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The 2010 recruiting class was the highest ranked class in school history, ranked fifth in the nation.

Among the most notable players Clark-Heard coached at Louisville was overall number one pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, Angel McCoughtry and overall number eight pick in the 2013 WNBA Draft, Shoni Shimmel. Overall, she coached five players at Louisville that went on to be drafted in the WNBA Draft.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Clark-Heard spent two seasons as the head coach at Kentucky State, taking the reigns of the program in June 2005. She took over a program that had won just one game during the 2004-05 season. In her first season she led the Thorobrettes to a 5-23 record, four of the wins were against Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opponents. Her team was picked to finish 11th

in the SIAC but ended the season in ninth place. In her second season at KSU, she guided the Thorobrettes to an impressive 19-9 record, finishing tied for fourth place in the SIAC. Clark-Heard earned SIAC Coach-of-the-Year honors after the impressive turnaround. Her 2006-07 Thorobrettes were the second most improved team in NCAA Division II women's basketball during the 2006-07 season.

Before being named head coach at Kentucky State, Clark-Heard spent three seasons at Cincinnati as an assistant and four years at Nebraska in the same role. The Bearcats advanced to postseason play in two of her three seasons there while she helped Nebraska reach the NCAA Tournament twice during her time with the team. She was also responsible for helping sign McDonald's All-American Janice Bright for the Cornhuskers in 2001 while coaching alongside current Louisville coach Jeff Walz and under former WKU coach Paul Sanderford.

A four-year letterwinner on the Hill (1987-90), Clark-Heard was part of four NCAA Tournament teams during her Lady Topper career. She also helped guide the Lady Toppers to a pair of Sun Belt Conference Tournament championships (1988 and 1989) and two conference regular-season titles (1989 and 1990). She played in 118 games during her four years in the Hill, scoring 790 points and pulling down 615 rebounds. WKU amassed 89 victories during her four years in uniform, winning 70 percent of the games over that span and putting together three 20-win seasons.

Upon graduation from WKU, she spent eight years working within a recreational setting, five in Bowling Green and three with the Louisville Metro Parks Department. While in Louisville, she also served as head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at DuPont Manual High School for the 1994-95 seasons and played professionally with the Kentucky Marauders of the Women's Basketball Association in 1994-95.

The Louisville native earned Kentucky High School State Player of the Year honors in 1986 while playing at Atherton High School and was inducted into the Atherton Hall of Fame in 2003.

She was married on August 16, 2003 to Luther Heard.

GAME NOTES

GAME #1

WKU 79, No. 16/16 Missouri 76

Nov. 10, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) - Tashia Brown scored 13 of WKU's 18 points in the fourth quarter and finished with 30 as the Lady Toppers opened the season with a 79-76 upset of No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon at the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The Tigers took their last lead at 66-65 with 3:35 to play on two free throws by Sophie Cunningham, but Brown quickly responded with a three-pointer. Cunningham tied the game at 70 with a layup with 2:04 to go and Sidnee Bopp answered that with a 3-pointer.

Brown scored the last six points for WKU in the final minute, including a contested pull-up jumper with 17.5 seconds to play and two free throws with 1.1 to go.

Dee Givens added 20 points for the Lady Toppers, who outscored Missouri 27-17 in the second quarter to lead 45-35 at the half. It is the third-straight season that WKU has knocked off a Top 25 team, the longest such streak for the Lady Toppers since 1990-91 through 1992-93.

GAME #2

Iowa 104, WKU 97 (OT)

Nov. 11, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa - Senior Ivy Brown had a career-high 31 points on 12-of-16 shooting and the Lady Toppers led for much of the afternoon, but WKU fell 104-97 in overtime against Iowa in the title game of the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge on Saturday afternoon inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Brown was named to the All-Tournament Team after her career-best performance that also included six three-pointers; she was joined on the All-Tournament Team by fellow senior Tashia Brown, who added 16 points after tallying 30 in WKU's 79-76 win over No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon.

WKU connected on a school-record 14 three-pointers against the Hawkeyes, finishing with a 14-of-26 (53.8 percent) mark from beyond the arc.

Both sides exchanged big runs to begin the fourth quarter; WKU pushed its lead to 10 points, 85-75, after a 10-3 run, but Iowa responded with 13 straight points to take an 88-85 lead with 3:41 to play. Ivy Brown's three-pointer tied the game back up 20 seconds later, and Gustafson's free throws with 35 seconds to play forced the ninth tie of the game at 93-93.

Sevillian's three-pointer to open the overtime frame gave the Hawkeyes a 96-93 lead, and the Lady Toppers were unable to retake the lead down the stretch as Iowa claimed the 104-97 victory.

No. 6/5 Notre Dame 78, RV/- WKU 65

Nov. 14, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) - Jessica Shepard helped Notre Dame pass its first road test of the season. She had 19 points and 12 rebounds and the No. 6/5 Irish beat WKU 78-65 on Tuesday evening inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

Arike Ogunbowale and Mikayla Vaughn scored 21 and 17 points for the four-time defending Atlantic Coast Conference champs. Notre Dame led 37-28 at halftime and then held steady in the second half, stretching the lead to as wide a margin as 73-59 after WKU got as close as 57-51 early in the fourth quarter.

Tashia Brown scored 25 points for the Lady Toppers, but was just 6-for-25 from the field. Fellow WKU senior Ivy Brown, who came in averaging 18.5 points per game, scored just two points in 35 minutes of play Tuesday and eventually fouled out.

"This is what it was about when we made the schedule to see where we're at as a program and it showed us a lot today and showed us a lot in these past three games, we're getting close," WKU head coach Michelle Clark-Heard said. "We've just got to continue to keep building and bringing players and that's our most important thing."

GAME #4

RV/RV Indiana 73, RV/- WKU 71

Nov. 17, 2017 - Bloomington, Ind. - Assembly Hall

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Sophomore Whitney Creech scored a career-best 25 points on 10-of-16 shooting and WKU erased a 15-point third-quarter deficit, but fell just short, 73-71, against Indiana inside Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall on Friday evening.

Creech scored 11 of her 25 points in the fourth quarter and spurred WKU's strong comeback attempt. The Jenkins, Ky., native followed up her 17-point performance against Notre Dame on Tuesday with another career-best performance on Friday; she finished with multiple three-pointers for the second time in her career, knocking down two of her three chances on the night.

WKU completely erased the 15-point hole and surged into the lead with just over two minutes to play, taking a 71-68 lead after a steal from Sherry Porter that set up a pullup jumper from Creech. On Indiana's next possession, however, Buss knocked down a three-pointer from the corner to again tie the game at 71-71.

Looking to win in regulation or force overtime, the Lady Toppers were unable to stop Buss as she drove into the lane on Indiana's final offensive possession. Creech had a look at a long three-pointer as time expired, but her chance hit the backboard and rimmed out as WKU fell just short, 73-71.

GAME NOTES

GAME #5

RV/- WKU 67, Mercer 62

Nov. 24, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Facing its first deficit of the night with just over 90 seconds remaining, WKU rallied to score 10 of the game's final 12 points to earn a 67-62 victory over Mercer on Friday evening in the 2017 Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown and Ivy Brown led WKU with 21 points apiece; Ivy Brown's first basket of the night also pushed her over the 1,000-point mark for her WKU career, making her the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. Ivy Brown also secured her first double-double of the season with a game-high 14 rebounds.

Jumpers on two straight possessions from Tashia Brown and Creech to open the fourth quarter pushed WKU's lead back to eight points, 56-48, but the Bears responded with a 10-1 run spanning the next seven minutes to grab a 60-57 lead over the Lady Toppers.

Despite facing that deficit, however, WKU stepped up and scored 10 of the game's final 12 points to secure the victory. All 10 of WKU's points in the final 1:43 of the game came from the free throw line; Kayla Smith's pair of shots with 1:05 remaining put the Lady Toppers back in front, and another pair of shots from the charity stripe by Porter with just five seconds remaining iced the 67-62 victory.

GAME #6

RV/- WKU 74, Georgia State 63

Nov. 26, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Trailing by seven points midway through the third quarter, WKU forced 16 second-half turnovers against Georgia State and rallied past the Panthers to win the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic, 74-63, on Sunday afternoon inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown was named Tournament MVP after her 27-point performance on Sunday, 20 of which came in the second half. Ivy Brown joined her on the All-Tournament Team after registering her second straight double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds, and Dee Givens rounded out the WKU trio in double figures with 11 points. The in-season tournament victory was the fifth in six seasons under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard.

The Panthers took their largest lead of the night, seven points, on three different occasions early in the third quarter, the final time coming after Newby's fast-break layup gave Georgia State a 46-39 edge with 6:08 to play. From that point, however, WKU answered with eight straight points, including four straight from Whitney Creech to cap the stretch and give the Lady Toppers their first lead, 46-45, since early in the contest.

Over the last quarter, WKU would not ever relinquish its lead as the Lady Toppers forced 10 Panther turnovers and created 11 points off those takeaways, allowing WKU to claim the 74-63 victory for its first true road win of the season.

GAME #7

WKU 92, Evansville 54

Nov. 30, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Double-double efforts from both Raneem Elgedawy and Ivy Brown and a balanced scoring effort with four players in double figures helped WKU to a 92-54 win over Evansville inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Thursday evening, the third consecutive win for the Lady Toppers.

Elgedawy hit career highs with 19 points and 10 rebounds and Ivy Brown notched her third consecutive double-double with 12 points and 10 boards to lead the Lady Toppers (4-3). C-USA's leading scorer, Tashia Brown, finished with a game-high 20 points on 9-of-19 shooting from the floor, and freshman Sherry Porter rounded out the quartet in double figures with 16 points, 10 of which came in the final quarter of play.

Evansville put together a 10-2 run early in the third quarter to slash WKU's lead back under 20 points, but WKU fired back by scoring nine of the final 11 points of the frame to push the lead back to 24 points, 73-49.

The Lady Toppers never allowed the Purple Aces any closer than that in the fourth quarter and finished the game on an 11-0 run over the final 6:18 of the game to reach the final scoreline. Porter scored six points during the run for the Lady Toppers and finished with 10 points in the final quarter alone.

BROWN'S RECORD QUARTER POWERS WKU PAST SOUTHERN ILLINOIS, 75-49

PDF Box Score Attached, Postgame Notes to Follow

CARBONDALE, III. – Ivy Brown matched a program record with 16 points in the third quarter and both she and Tashia Brown finished with a game-high 20 points as WKU returned from its exam break with a 75-49 victory over Southern Illinois inside SIU Arena on Sunday afternoon.

Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown each finished with 20 points for the Lady Toppers (5-3) to lead all scorers, giving WKU at least one 20-point scorer in seven of its first eight games this season. Ivy Brown tallied 16 of her 20 points in the third quarter, knocking down four three-pointers without a miss, en route to matching the program record for points by one player in a single quarter.

As a team, WKU connected on 26 of its 58 shots (44.8 percent) on the afternoon, including a 14-of-23 (60.9 percent) mark in the second half alone. The Lady Toppers' perimeter defense shined throughout the afternoon, holding the Salukis without a three-pointer in the second half and only 3-of-20 (15 percent) for the entire game.

Kylie Giebelhausen was the lone Southern Illinois player in double figures, finishing with 10 points on the day.

WKU built an early 4-0 lead off quick jumpers from Tashia Brown and Sherry Porter, but the Salukis quickly trimmed that lead to just one point on a triple from Giebelhausen. From that point, neither team was able to gain more than three points of separation for the next six minutes as the two sides remained locked in a one-possession battle.

Sidnee Bopp finally gave the Lady Toppers a two-possession edge with her first three-pointer of the night at the 1:30 mark, and WKU carried that slight lead through the end of the first frame.

Led by four points from Ivy Brown, WKU finally found a breakthrough over the first three minutes of the second quarter, opening its first double-digit lead of the afternoon on the strength of a 10-3 run. Brown keyed the stretch with a corner three-pointer and was one of four Lady Toppers to find the basket during the run that gave WKU a 31-19 lead.

Southern Illinois fired back with seven unanswered points over the next three minutes to cut WKU's lead to just five points, but the Salukis were unable to close the gap any further as WKU carried a 38-30 lead into the locker room for halftime.

Ivy Brown sparked WKU's 16-1 run early in the third quarter, knocking down three triples on three straight possessions for the Lady Toppers to stretch the advantage to 54-31. Brown would go on to knock down another shot from beyond the arc and two layups in the quarter to reach her program-record total of 16 points in the 10-minute frame.

Over the final quarter, WKU did not allow the Salukis to close the gap under 20 points as the Lady Toppers coasted to the 75-49 victory.

WKU will face a quick turnaround as the Lady Toppers head back to Bowling Green, welcoming Mississippi Valley State into E.A. Diddle Arena at 5:30 p.m. The Lady Toppers and Devilettes have never met on the hardwood, but WKU holds a 2-0 mark against SWAC foes under Michelle Clark-Heard with a pair of victories over Alabama A&M in 2014-15 and 2016-17.

WKU Lady Toppers at Southern Illinois Salukis

Postgame Notes

December 10, 2017

SIU Arena; Carbondale, Ill.

FINAL SCORE: WKU 75, Southern Illinois 49

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU improves to 5-3 on the season, while Southern Illinois falls to 5-4. WKU has now won four straight games and earned its second true road victory of the season.
- With the win, WKU took an 8-6 lead in the all-time series against the Salukis. Prior to Sunday, WKU had not met Southern Illinois since an 88-71 Lady Topper win on Nov. 23, 2007.
- NEXT UP: WKU will face a quick turnaround as the Lady Toppers head back to Bowling Green, welcoming Mississippi Valley State into E.A. Diddle Arena at 5:30 p.m. The Lady Toppers and Devilettes have never met on the hardwood, but WKU holds a 2-0 mark against SWAC foes under Michelle Clark-Heard with a pair of victories over Alabama A&M in 2014-15 and 2016-17.

Team Notes

- WKU had a starting lineup consisting of Whitney Creech, Sherry Porter, Tashia Brown, Ivy Brown and Raneem Elgedawy. The lineup is 3-0 together after also earning wins over Mercer and Evansville.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: Leading 21-18 at the start of the second quarter, WKU opened the frame with a 10-3 run over the first three minutes to build its first double-digit lead of the afternoon. Four different Lady Toppers scored during the run, led by four points from Ivy Brown; Brown's free throw at the 7:33 mark gave the Lady Toppers a 31-19 lead over the Salukis.
- WKU held a 38-30 lead over the Salukis at halftime and improved to 4-2 when leading at halftime this season.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: The Lady Toppers opened the third quarter on a 16-1 run keyed by three consecutive three-pointers from Ivy Brown. In less than four minutes, WKU's lead had grown from eight points to a 54-31 advantage, punctuated by a fourth shot from beyond the arc by Brown.
- With two 20-point performances from Tashia Brown and Ivy Brown, WKU now has had a 20-point scorer in seven of its first eight games this season.
- WKU held Southern Illinois to eight third-quarter points, the fourth time this season that it has held an opponent to single digits in a quarter.

Individual Notes

- Ivy Brown finished with 20 points and six rebounds, going 7-of-10 from the field and 5-of-7 from three-point range.
  - Brown matched the program record with 16 points in the third quarter. Previously, Kendall Noble scored 16 points, also in the third quarter, at UTSA on Jan. 28, 2017.
- Tashia Brown tallied 20 points on the afternoon, her fourth straight 20-point outing and sixth of the season.
  - With six 20-point games this season, Brown has already matched her total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.
- While she did not score, Dee Givens pulled down a career-best nine rebounds, including seven on the offensive end of the floor.
- Whitney Creech set career-bests for both free throws made and attempted by going a perfect 8-for-8 from the charity stripe.
- Raneem Elgedawy fell just shy of a double-double with eight points and seven rebounds.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Just two days after playing on the road at Southern Illinois, WKU will welcome Mississippi Valley State to E.A. Diddle Arena at 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday evening for the first-ever meeting between the two sides on the hardwood.

WKU downed Southern Illinois, 75-49, in its last time out on Sunday in the Lady Toppers' top defensive effort thus far on the season. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown each tallied 20 points for WKU, and Ivy Brown scored a program-record 16 of those 20 points in the third quarter alone. The Salukis could not get anything going against WKU's defense, being held to 35.3 percent (18-of-51) shooting from the field and just 15 percent (3-of-20) from beyond the arc.

Tashia Brown (21.6 points per game) continues to lead all C-USA players in scoring and has tallied four straight 20-point games for the Lady Toppers, the longest such stretch of her career.

Mississippi Valley State (0-6) has yet to win this season, falling in all six contests by an average of 25.8 points. Kristy Parker (14.7), LaKenda Bassett (14.2) and Desiray Mosley (11.0) lead the Devilettes in scoring; Bassett also leads the team with five rebounds per game and 28 total assists on the season while playing a team-high 36.5 minutes per game.

After Tuesday's game, WKU will return to the court on Saturday and Sunday at the West Palm Beach Invitational, squaring off against Stetson (Saturday at 11 a.m. CT) and Toledo (Sunday at 10 a.m. CT) in the in-season tournament.

GAME #9 – WKU VS. MISSISSIPPI VALLEY STATE

WKU (5-3, 0-0 C-USA) vs. Mississippi Valley State (0-6, 0-0 Southwestern Athletic)

December 12, 2017 | 5:30 p.m. (CT)

Bowling Green, Ky. | E.A. Diddle Arena (7,326)

QUICK SHOTS

- As of Dec. 11, WKU is ranked No. 32 in the latest NCAA RPI rankings, an improvement of 13 spots from the initial rankings on Dec. 4. WKU is the lone C-USA representative in the top 100 of the rankings, with Middle Tennessee second at No. 119.

- Tashia Brown leads C-USA and ranks 14th in the nation with her 21.6 points per game. Brown has four straight 20-point games and has hit the mark in six of WKU's eight games this season, already matching her total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

- After holding Southern Illinois to just eight third-quarter points on Sunday, WKU has now held opponents to four single-digit quarters thus far in 2017-18. On the offensive end, the Lady Toppers have produced 16 20-point quarters, meaning that WKU has broken the 20-point barrier in exactly half of its quarters this season.

- In the third quarter against Southern Illinois on Dec. 10, Ivy Brown exploded for 16 points keyed by four three-pointers, including a triple on three straight possessions to open the frame. Brown's 16-point quarter matched the program record held by Kendall Noble, who also scored 16 points in the third quarter at UTSA on Jan. 30, 2017.

- Already 13th in program history with 1,504 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season. To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 259 more points during her final season on The Hill.

- WKU has been very strong at collecting its own misses this season and has tallied nearly as many offensive rebounds as those on the defensive end. The Lady Toppers have pulled down a league-leading 16.5 offensive boards per game, and Ivy Brown ranks second among all C-USA players with 3.8 offensive rebounds per game. WKU's 16.5 offensive boards also ranks 27th in the nation alongside Notre Dame.

- WKU is currently shooting 122-of-157 (.777) from the free throw line this season, with only two players shooting below 80 percent among those who have attempted at least one free throw. The Lady Toppers' 122 made free throws are the second-most among C-USA teams, and their 77.7 percent success rate tops the 14-member league and ranks 16th in the nation.

- With a win on Tuesday evening, WKU would continue an impressive run under Michelle Clark-Heard in games played prior to January 1. The Lady Toppers are 54-16 (.771) in such games since the beginning of the 2012-13 campaign.

- With three weekly awards (Tashia Brown's Player of the Week on Nov. 13 and Raneem Elgedawy's Freshman of the Week on Nov. 20 and Dec. 4) this season, WKU has already exceeded its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

- With its come-from-behind win at Georgia State, WKU continued a strong trend under Michelle Clark-Heard of being able to rally from large deficits. Since the beginning of the 2015-16 season, WKU owns 11 victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.

- WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first eight games this season.

- WKU owns an impressive record under Clark-Heard when breaking the 80-point barrier. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 49-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

- Through eight games, Ivy Brown is approaching the top 10 in program history in total rebounds, needing just 88 more boards to break into that group. The Hodgenville, Ky., native also ranks ninth in school history with 109 blocks and her 79.5 percent mark from the free throw line for her career is seventh among all Lady Toppers who have made at least 200 free throws.

LADY TOPPERS FACE QUICK TURNAROUND VS. MISSISSIPPI VALLEY STATE TUESDAY

Just two days after playing on the road at Southern Illinois, WKU will welcome Mississippi Valley State to E.A. Diddle Arena at 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday evening for the first-ever meeting between the two sides on the hardwood.

WKU downed Southern Illinois, 75-49, in its last time out on Sunday in the Lady Toppers' top defensive effort thus far on the season. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown each tallied 20 points for WKU, and Ivy Brown scored a program-record 16 of those 20 points in the third quarter alone. The Salukis could not get anything going against WKU's defense, being held to 35.3 percent (18-of-51) shooting from the field and just 15 percent (3-of-20) from beyond the arc.

Tashia Brown (21.6 points per game) continues to lead all C-USA players in scoring and has tallied four straight 20-point games for the Lady Toppers, the longest such stretch of her career.

Mississippi Valley State (0-6) has yet to win this season, falling in all six contests by an average of 25.8 points. Kristy Parker (14.7), LaKenda Bassett (14.2) and Desiray Mosley (11.0) lead the Devilletes in scoring; Bassett also leads the team with five rebounds per game and 28 total assists on the season while playing a team-high 36.5 minutes per game.

After Tuesday's game, WKU will return to the court on Saturday and Sunday at the West Palm Beach Beach Invitational, squaring off against Stetson and Toledo in the in-season tournament.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

► After holding Southern Illinois to just eight third-quarter points on Sunday, WKU has now held opponents to four single-digit quarters thus far in 2017-18. On the offensive end, the Lady Toppers have produced 16 20-point quarters, meaning that WKU has broken the 20-point barrier in exactly half of its quarters this season.

► Tashia Brown leads C-USA and ranks 14th in the nation with 21.6 points per game in 2017-18. Brown has four straight 20-point games and has hit the mark in six of WKU's eight games this season, already matching her total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

► With a win on Tuesday evening, WKU would continue an impressive run under Michelle Clark-Heard in games played prior to January 1. The Lady Toppers are 54-16 (.771) in such games since the beginning of the 2012-13 campaign.

GAME NOTES

MIXING NEWCOMERS WITH VETS

WKU is set to unveil a new-look roster in 2017-18, mixing five eligible newcomers with seven returners. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown are set to lead the roster this season, with C-USA All-Tournament pick Sidnee Bopp, Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Malaka Frank and Kayla Smith also back for the Lady Toppers.

Newcomers Raneem Elgedawy, Terri Smith, Nichel Tampa, Sherry Porter and Elizabeth Anderson will also be seeking to make their marks during their debut seasons on The Hill.

NEW VOICE OF THE LADY TOPPERS

Legendary WKU play-by-play announcer Barry Williams announced his retirement during the offseason after calling more than 1,000 games for the Lady Toppers.

Jevin Redman, a recent graduate of the University of Southern Indiana with an already well-decorated play-by-play career, made his regular season debut in WKU's upset of then-No. 16 Missouri.

KEEPING THE STREAK(S) GOING

WKU has won 20 or more games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that the Lady Toppers have had such a streak since 2004-05 to 2007-08.

In addition to that stretch, the Lady Toppers have accomplished the impressive feat of winning 27 or more games in each of the last three seasons, marking the first time that that has been done in the storied history of the program.

WKU has also posted four consecutive seasons with a winning streak of 10 or more games. The Lady Toppers are one of just eight programs in the nation with a 10-game winning streak in each of the last three seasons, joining perennial title contenders such as UConn, Maryland,

Notre Dame and Baylor.

CLARK-HEARD AT 130 WINS AND COUNTING

Michelle Clark-Heard has made an incredible impact on the Lady Toppers since taking over the program in 2012-13, amassing a 130-39 record over her first five seasons.

Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

By winning her 100th game in 2015-16, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

WKU PICKED SECOND IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After capturing the C-USA regular season and tournament titles last season, WKU has been picked second in the annual preseason coaches' poll. Despite garnering more first-place votes (eight) than Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers earned the runner-up spot and have been picked in the top three in each of their four C-USA campaigns.

BROWN, BROWN TABBED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE BY COACHES

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown have been selected to the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA team as selected by the league's coaches.

Both were honored as All-C-USA selections following the season in 2016-17, with Ivy garnering First Team honors and Tashia picked up Second Team accolades. Tashia Brown was also chosen to the 2016-17 Preseason All-C-USA Team and earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

Last season, the duo combined for 26.5 points and 12.3 rebounds per game, serving as two of WKU's "Big Three" alongside Kendall Noble. In 2017-18, the Browns appear poised to become one of the top one-two punches among all C-USA players.

THAT 80S SHOW

WKU broke the 80-point barrier nine times in 2016-17 and has scored 80 or more points on at least seven occasions per season since Michelle Clark-Heard assumed control of the program in 2012-13.

By winning eight of its nine contests in which it hit 80 points last season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 49-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together 14-1 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted a 63-12 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers had their 13-game winning streak inside Diddle Arena snapped in the loss to Notre Dame on Nov. 14. That streak was tied for the sixth-longest in program history and was WKU's longest since the 2015-16 season.

TOUGH UNDER PRESSURE

Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, the Lady Toppers have played 27 contests that have been decided by three or fewer points. In such games, WKU has posted a 19-9 record overall.

In the same vein, the Lady Toppers have been very tough closers down the stretch as well, recording a 124-12 record when leading or tied with five minutes remaining in games since 2012-13.

ONE OF A KIND

Preseason All-C-USA pick Ivy Brown returns as one of the top post players in the conference after averaging 13.1

JOINING THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown are poised to be two of the top C-USA players in 2017-18. Both are now members of WKU's 1,000-point club, with Tashia currently 13th in school history in scoring, and Ivy ranking 36th in the WKU record book.

points and 8.2 rebounds per game with eight double-doubles last season.

Among all returning C-USA players, Brown is the lone individual who ranked in the top 15 in the league in both scoring (15th) and rebounding (fourth) last season.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Already 13th in program history with 1,504 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season.

To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 259 more points during her final season on The Hill; as a sophomore, the Lake Park, Ga., native totaled 579 points before adding 456 more last season.

STRONG AFTER LOSSES

In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 33-8; WKU suffered its first consecutive losses in the same season in nearly three years against Iowa and Notre Dame.

FAST STARTS FOR FRESHMEN

WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first eight games this season.

WKU LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, Sweet 16 appearances, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

GAME NOTES

TOPS ON TOP OF RANKED TEAMS

For the third consecutive year, WKU earned a victory over a ranked opponent by taking down No. 16 Missouri, 79-76, on Nov. 10 in the Hawkeye Challenge.

With the victory, WKU secured its first streak of three seasons with at least one ranked victory since 1990-91 through 1992-93, a span that saw the Lady Toppers reach three NCAA Tournaments and make a Final Four appearance.

BRINGING HOME THE AWARDS

On Nov. 20, both Raneem Elgedawy and Whitney Creech were honored by the C-USA conference office for their strong efforts against Notre Dame and Indiana the previous week.

Elgedawy has already claimed a pair of C-USA Freshman of the Week awards this season, the first Lady Topper to claim multiple Freshman of the Week honors since Tashia Brown in 2014-15.

With three weekly awards this season, WKU has already exceeded its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

Through WKU's first eight games this season, Tashia Brown is averaging 21.6 points per game, a mark that leads all individual players in C-USA and ranks 14th among all Division I players in the nation.

Brown's current scoring rate is by far her career best for a single season and tops her 2016-17 rate by nearly nine points per game.

FEELING CHARITABLE

WKU is currently shooting 122-of-157 (.777) from the free throw line this season, with only two players shooting below 80 percent among those who have attempted at least one free throw.

The Lady Toppers' 122 made free throws are the second-most among C-USA teams, and their 77.7 percent success rate tops the 14-member league and ranks 16th in the nation.

COMEBACK QUEENS

With its come-from-behind win at Georgia State, WKU continued a strong trend under Michelle Clark-Heard of being able to rally from large deficits.

Since the beginning of the 2015-16 season, WKU owns 11 victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.

CRASHING THE OFFENSIVE GLASS

WKU has been very strong at collecting its own misses this season and has tallied nearly as many offensive rebounds as those on the defensive end.

The Lady Toppers have pulled down a league-leading 16.5 offensive boards per game, and Ivy Brown ranks second among all C-USA players with 3.8 offensive rebounds per game.

WKU's 16.5 offensive boards per game also rank 27th in the nation alongside Notre Dame.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE TROUBLE

With three straight double-doubles against Mercer, Georgia State and Evansville, Ivy Brown became only the 12th player in program history to record 20 career points-rebounds double-doubles.

Brown joins former teammates Chastity Gooch (43) and Kendall Noble (20) as players who have reached that milestone.

RECORD BOOK WATCH

Through eight games, Ivy Brown is approaching the top 10 in program history in total rebounds, needing just 88 more boards to break into that group. The Hodgenville, Ky., native also ranks ninth in school history with 109 blocks and her 79.5 percent mark from the free throw line for her career is seventh among all Lady Toppers who have made at least 200 free throws.

Tashia Brown is also on pace to finish among the top 10 in school history for field goals made and attempted, minutes played and free throws made.

QUARTER FOR YOUR THOUGHTS

In the third quarter against Southern Illinois on Dec. 10, Ivy Brown exploded for 16 points keyed by four three-pointers, including a triple on three straight possessions to open the frame.

Brown's 16-point quarter matched the program record held by Kendall Noble, who also scored 16 points in the third quarter at UTSA on Jan. 30, 2017.

RPI WATCH

As of Dec. 11, WKU is ranked No. 32 in the latest NCAA RPI rankings, an improvement of 13 spots from the initial rankings on Dec. 4.

WKU is the lone C-USA representative in the top 100 of the rankings, with Middle Tennessee second at No. 119.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

After allowing an average of 82.8 points per game across its first four matchups this season, WKU's defense has buckled down during its four-game winning streak.

During that stretch, the Lady Toppers are giving up only 57 points per game and have not allowed more than 63 points in any single contest.

LOOKING AHEAD

Following Tuesday's game, WKU will be back in action on Saturday and Sunday in the 2017 West Palm Beach Invitational hosted by Keiser University.

On Saturday at 11 a.m. (CT), the Lady Toppers are set to battle Stetson, and WKU will take on Toledo on Sunday morning at 10 a.m. (CT).

WKU leads the combined all-time series against the Hatters and Rockets 2-0, defeating Stetson in the 1984-85 season and downing Toledo during the 1994-95 campaign.

MICHELLE CLARK-HEARD
Sixth Season

“What Michelle Clark-Heard has done is instilled pride back in Western Kentucky... Now with Michelle Clark-Heard, with the passion and pride she has, because she was a player at Western Kentucky, she is bringing that back to Bowling Green.”

-ESPN Analyst Carolyn Peck

Michelle Clark-Heard has quickly shaped the Western Kentucky University Lady Topper Basketball program back into a national name, putting the Lady Toppers back on the national map. In just three seasons at WKU as head coach, Clark-Heard has reached two NCAA Tournaments, won two conference tournament championships and a regular season conference title while posting 76 wins, the most in a coaches first three seasons in WKU women's basketball or men's basketball history.

Clark-Heard's third season directing her alma mater in 2014-15 was one of the best the storied program has seen. She led the Lady Toppers to a 30-5 record, posting a Conference USA record 30 wins in the program's first season as a league member.

The season began with the Lady Toppers making huge waves early by reaching the finals of the Preseason Women's NIT with wins at Colorado and over eventual American East Conference champion Albany before a loss on the road at Mississippi State. WKU also posted non-conference wins over Hofstra, Tulane and Ole Miss.

The Lady Toppers made an immediate impact in Conference USA, posting a 16-2 record to tie the league mark for league wins in a season, including eight wins on the road, to secure the program's first regular season league title as a Conference USA member and 11th in program history. In early January, she led the Lady Toppers to the Associated Press Top 25 Rankings for the first time since the 1997-98 season. She also became just the 10th coach in NCAA history to lead their alma mater into the Associated Press Top 25 rankings as both a player and coach when the Lady Toppers were ranked for two weeks in January 2015.

The Lady Toppers then won three games in three days by a combined eight points to secure a tournament title at the Conference USA Championships in Birmingham, Ala.

Following the season, Clark-Heard was recognized for her outstanding accomplishments, earning Conference USA Coach of the Year and 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I Regional Coach of the Year honors. Her selection as a WBCA Regional Coach of the Year also made her a finalist for the Pat Summitt Trophy, awarded annually to the 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year.

Her success at WKU has also helped her land new opportunities in the USA Basketball ranks. Clark-Heard was named an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Pan American Women's Basketball Team, joining head coach Lisa Bluder of the University of Iowa and fellow assistant coach Scott Rueck of Oregon State University on the 2015 staff.

In Toronto, Clark-Heard helped lead the United States to a silver medal in her international assistant coaching debut, falling just short in the gold medal game against the host Canadians.

In 2013-14, Clark-Heard helped WKU win its final seven regular season games before reeling off three straight in New Orleans, La. in March 2014 to win the Sun Belt Conference Championships with a 61-60 win over Arkansas State after WKU faced a 14-point deficit in the second half. The season

also saw WKU defeat Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic after facing a 16-point deficit in the second half.

The season was capped by a 87-74 loss to fifth-ranked Baylor in Waco, Texas in the opening round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament, ending the longest NCAA Tournament appearance drought in program history.

The run to the tournament helped WKU secure a 24-9 record and finish with 20-wins for the second straight season. Her consecutive 20-win seasons to begin her time at WKU marked the first time in Sun Belt Conference history that a team had won 20 games in back-to-back years following a season in which it had won less than 10 games.

Her success in 2013-14 followed a massive improvement on the floor in 2012-13.

In her first year as a Division One coach in 2012-13, Clark-Heard helped WKU to a 13-win improvement over the 2011-12 season output. It was the largest in Sun Belt Conference history as WKU turned a 9-21 mark into a 22-11 record. WKU's eight win improvement in conference play from five wins to 13 wins was tied for the largest in league history. The Lady Toppers also became the first team in Sun Belt Conference history to win 20 games in the season following a year in which the team won less than 10 games earlier this season.

Her first season at WKU also showcased her ability to develop players. The duo of Chastity Gooch and Alexis Govan averaged a combined 12.7 ppg in 2011-12 but posted 36.5 per outing in 2012-13. The duo combined for 1,203 points after posting 381 last season. The team also saw major improvement in nearly all statistical categories, including improving free throw shooting by over 11 percent to .739, the third highest mark in school history.

Clark-Heard spent five years as an assistant coach to Jeff Walz at Louisville. During her time with the program, the Cardinals made three Sweet 16 appearances and made their first Final Four appearance, finishing as the National Runner-Up in 2009. A roster she helped build also reached the Final Four in 2013 after beating No. 1 Baylor and national power Tennessee in the regional semifinals and finals. Clark-Heard was instrumental in bringing in the No. 12 recruiting class in 2008, then followed with three consecutive Top 10 classes in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The 2010 recruiting class was the highest ranked class in school history, ranked fifth in the nation.

Among the most notable players Clark-Heard coached at Louisville was overall number one pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, Angel McCoughtry and overall number eight pick in the 2013 WNBA Draft, Shoni Shimmel. Overall, she coached five players at Louisville that went on to be drafted in the WNBA Draft.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Clark-Heard spent two seasons as the head coach at Kentucky State, taking the reigns of the program in June 2005. She took over a program that had won just one game during the 2004-05 season. In her first season she led the Thorobrettes to a 5-23 record, four of the wins were against Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opponents. Her team was picked to finish 11th

in the SIAC but ended the season in ninth place. In her second season at KSU, she guided the Thorobrettes to an impressive 19-9 record, finishing tied for fourth place in the SIAC. Clark-Heard earned SIAC Coach-of-the-Year honors after the impressive turnaround. Her 2006-07 Thorobrettes were the second most improved team in NCAA Division II women's basketball during the 2006-07 season.

Before being named head coach at Kentucky State, Clark-Heard spent three seasons at Cincinnati as an assistant and four years at Nebraska in the same role. The Bearcats advanced to postseason play in two of her three seasons there while she helped Nebraska reach the NCAA Tournament twice during her time with the team. She was also responsible for helping sign McDonald's All-American Janice Bright for the Cornhuskers in 2001 while coaching alongside current Louisville coach Jeff Walz and under former WKU coach Paul Sanderford.

A four-year letterwinner on the Hill (1987-90), Clark-Heard was part of four NCAA Tournament teams during her Lady Topper career. She also helped guide the Lady Toppers to a pair of Sun Belt Conference Tournament championships (1988 and 1989) and two conference regular-season titles (1989 and 1990). She played in 118 games during her four years in the Hill, scoring 790 points and pulling down 615 rebounds. WKU amassed 89 victories during her four years in uniform, winning 70 percent of the games over that span and putting together three 20-win seasons.

Upon graduation from WKU, she spent eight years working within a recreational setting, five in Bowling Green and three with the Louisville Metro Parks Department. While in Louisville, she also served as head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at DuPont Manual High School for the 1994-95 seasons and played professionally with the Kentucky Marauders of the Women's Basketball Association in 1994-95.

The Louisville native earned Kentucky High School State Player of the Year honors in 1986 while playing at Atherton High School and was inducted into the Atherton Hall of Fame in 2003.

She was married on August 16, 2003 to Luther Heard.

GAME NOTES

GAME #1

WKU 79, No. 16/16 Missouri 76

Nov. 10, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) - Tashia Brown scored 13 of WKU's 18 points in the fourth quarter and finished with 30 as the Lady Toppers opened the season with a 79-76 upset of No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon at the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The Tigers took their last lead at 66-65 with 3:35 to play on two free throws by Sophie Cunningham, but Brown quickly responded with a three-pointer. Cunningham tied the game at 70 with a layup with 2:04 to go and Sidnee Bopp answered that with a 3-pointer.

Brown scored the last six points for WKU in the final minute, including a contested pull-up jumper with 17.5 seconds to play and two free throws with 1.1 to go.

Dee Givens added 20 points for the Lady Toppers, who outscored Missouri 27-17 in the second quarter to lead 45-35 at the half. It is the third-straight season that WKU has knocked off a Top 25 team, the longest such streak for the Lady Toppers since 1990-91 through 1992-93.

Iowa 104, WKU 97 (OT)

Nov. 11, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa - Senior Ivy Brown had a career-high 31 points on 12-of-16 shooting and the Lady Toppers led for much of the afternoon, but WKU fell 104-97 in overtime against Iowa in the title game of the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge on Saturday afternoon inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Brown was named to the All-Tournament Team after her career-best performance that also included six three-pointers; she was joined on the All-Tournament Team by fellow senior Tashia Brown, who added 16 points after tallying 30 in WKU's 79-76 win over No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon.

WKU connected on a school-record 14 three-pointers against the Hawkeyes, finishing with a 14-of-26 (53.8 percent) mark from beyond the arc.

Both sides exchanged big runs to begin the fourth quarter; WKU pushed its lead to 10 points, 85-75, after a 10-3 run, but Iowa responded with 13 straight points to take an 88-85 lead with 3:41 to play. Ivy Brown's three-pointer tied the game back up 20 seconds later, and Gustafson's free throws with 35 seconds to play forced the ninth tie of the game at 93-93.

Sevillian's three-pointer to open the overtime frame gave the Hawkeyes a 96-93 lead, and the Lady Toppers were unable to retake the lead down the stretch as Iowa claimed the 104-97 victory.

No. 6/5 Notre Dame 78, RV/- WKU 65

Nov. 14, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) - Jessica Shepard helped Notre Dame pass its first road test of the season. She had 19 points and 12 rebounds and the No. 6/5 Irish beat WKU 78-65 on Tuesday evening inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

Arike Ogunbowale and Mikayla Vaughn scored 21 and 17 points for the four-time defending Atlantic Coast Conference champs. Notre Dame led 37-28 at halftime and then held steady in the second half, stretching the lead to as wide a margin as 73-59 after WKU got as close as 57-51 early in the fourth quarter.

Tashia Brown scored 25 points for the Lady Toppers, but was just 6-for-25 from the field. Fellow WKU senior Ivy Brown, who came in averaging 18.5 points per game, scored just two points in 35 minutes of play Tuesday and eventually fouled out.

"This is what it was about when we made the schedule to see where we're at as a program and it showed us a lot today and showed us a lot in these past three games, we're getting close," WKU head coach Michelle Clark-Heard said. "We've just got to continue to keep building and bringing players and that's our most important thing."

RV/RV Indiana 73, RV/- WKU 71

Nov. 17, 2017 - Bloomington, Ind. - Assembly Hall

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Sophomore Whitney Creech scored a career-best 25 points on 10-of-16 shooting and WKU erased a 15-point third-quarter deficit, but fell just short, 73-71, against Indiana inside Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall on Friday evening.

Creech scored 11 of her 25 points in the fourth quarter and spurred WKU's strong comeback attempt. The Jenkins, Ky., native followed up her 17-point performance against Notre Dame on Tuesday with another career-best performance on Friday; she finished with multiple three-pointers for the second time in her career, knocking down two of her three chances on the night.

WKU completely erased the 15-point hole and surged into the lead with just over two minutes to play, taking a 71-68 lead after a steal from Sherry Porter that set up a pullup jumper from Creech. On Indiana's next possession, however, Buss knocked down a three-pointer from the corner to again tie the game at 71-71.

Looking to win in regulation or force overtime, the Lady Toppers were unable to stop Buss as she drove into the lane on Indiana's final offensive possession. Creech had a look at a long three-pointer as time expired, but her chance hit the backboard and rimmed out as WKU fell just short, 73-71.

GAME #5

RV/- WKU 67, Mercer 62

Nov. 24, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Facing its first deficit of the night with just over 90 seconds remaining, WKU rallied to score 10 of the game's final 12 points to earn a 67-62 victory over Mercer on Friday evening in the 2017 Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown and Ivy Brown led WKU with 21 points apiece; Ivy Brown's first basket of the night also pushed her over the 1,000-point mark for her WKU career, making her the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. Ivy Brown also secured her first double-double of the season with a game-high 14 rebounds.

Jumpers on two straight possessions from Tashia Brown and Creech to open the fourth quarter pushed WKU's lead back to eight points, 56-48, but the Bears responded with a 10-1 run spanning the next seven minutes to grab a 60-57 lead over the Lady Toppers.

Despite facing that deficit, however, WKU stepped up and scored 10 of the game's final 12 points to secure the victory. All 10 of WKU's points in the final 1:43 of the game came from the free throw line; Kayla Smith's pair of shots with 1:05 remaining put the Lady Toppers back in front, and another pair of shots from the charity stripe by Porter with just five seconds remaining iced the 67-62 victory.

GAME #6

RV/- WKU 74, Georgia State 63

Nov. 26, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Trailing by seven points midway through the third quarter, WKU forced 16 second-half turnovers against Georgia State and rallied past the Panthers to win the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic, 74-63, on Sunday afternoon inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown was named Tournament MVP after her 27-point performance on Sunday, 20 of which came in the second half. Ivy Brown joined her on the All-Tournament Team after registering her second straight double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds, and Dee Givens rounded out the WKU trio in double figures with 11 points. The in-season tournament victory was the fifth in six seasons under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard.

The Panthers took their largest lead of the night, seven points, on three different occasions early in the third quarter, the final time coming after Newby's fast-break layup gave Georgia State a 46-39 edge with 6:08 to play. From that point, however, WKU answered with eight straight points, including four straight from Whitney Creech to cap the stretch and give the Lady Toppers their first lead, 46-45, since early in the contest.

Over the last quarter, WKU would not ever relinquish its lead as the Lady Toppers forced 10 Panther turnovers and created 11 points off those takeaways, allowing WKU to claim the 74-63 victory for its first true road win of the season.

GAME NOTES

GAME #7
WKU 92, Evansville 54
 Nov. 30, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Double-double efforts from both Raneem Elgedawy and Ivy Brown and a balanced scoring effort with four players in double figures helped WKU to a 92-54 win over Evansville inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Thursday evening, the third consecutive win for the Lady Toppers.

Elgedawy hit career highs with 19 points and 10 rebounds and Ivy Brown notched her third consecutive double-double with 12 points and 10 boards to lead the Lady Toppers (4-3). C-USA's leading scorer, Tashia Brown, finished with a game-high 20 points on 9-of-19 shooting from the floor, and freshman Sherry Porter rounded out the quartet in double figures with 16 points, 10 of which came in the final quarter of play.

Evansville put together a 10-2 run early in the third quarter to slash WKU's lead back under 20 points, but WKU fired back by scoring nine of the final 11 points of the frame to push the lead back to 24 points, 73-49.

The Lady Toppers never allowed the Purple Aces any closer than that in the fourth quarter and finished the game on an 11-0 run over the final 6:18 of the game to reach the final scoreline. Porter scored six points during the run for the Lady Toppers and finished with 10 points in the final quarter alone.

GAME #8
WKU 75, Southern Illinois 49
 Dec. 10, 2017 - Carbondale, Ill. - SIU Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Ivy Brown matched a program record with 16 points in the third quarter and both she and Tashia Brown finished with a game-high 20 points as WKU returned from its exam break with a 75-49 victory over Southern Illinois inside SIU Arena on Sunday afternoon.

Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown each finished with 20 points for the Lady Toppers (5-3) to lead all scorers, giving WKU at least one 20-point scorer in seven of its first eight games this season. Ivy Brown tallied 16 of her 20 points in the third quarter, knocking down four three-pointers without a miss, en route to matching the program record for points by one player in a single quarter.

Ivy Brown sparked WKU's 16-1 run early in the third quarter, knocking down three triples on three straight possessions for the Lady Toppers to stretch the advantage to 54-31. Brown would go on to knock down another shot from beyond the arc and two layups in the quarter to reach her program-record total of 16 points in the 10-minute frame.

Over the final quarter, WKU did not allow the Salukis to close the gap under 20 points as the Lady Toppers coasted to the 75-49 victory.

LADY TOPPERS FACE QUICK TURNAROUND VS. MISSISSIPPI VALLEY STATE TUESDAY

Just two days after playing on the road at Southern Illinois, WKU will welcome Mississippi Valley State to E.A. Diddle Arena at 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday evening for the first-ever meeting between the two sides on the hardwood.

WKU downed Southern Illinois, 75-49, in its last time out on Sunday in the Lady Toppers' top defensive effort thus far on the season. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown each tallied 20 points for WKU, and Ivy Brown scored a program-record 16 of those 20 points in the third quarter alone. The Salukis could not get anything going against WKU's defense, being held to 35.3 percent (18-of-51) shooting from the field and just 15 percent (3-of-20) from beyond the arc.

Tashia Brown (21.6 points per game) continues to lead all C-USA players in scoring and has tallied four straight 20-point games for the Lady Toppers, the longest such stretch of her career.

Mississippi Valley State (0-6) has yet to win this season, falling in all six contests by an average of 25.8 points. Kristy Parker (14.7), LaKenda Bassett (14.2) and Desiray Mosley (11.0) lead the Devilletes in scoring; Bassett also leads the team with five rebounds per game and 28 total assists on the season while playing a team-high 36.5 minutes per game.

After Tuesday's game, WKU will return to the court on Saturday and Sunday at the West Palm Beach Beach Invitational, squaring off against Stetson and Toledo in the in-season tournament.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

► After holding Southern Illinois to just eight third-quarter points on Sunday, WKU has now held opponents to four single-digit quarters thus far in 2017-18. On the offensive end, the Lady Toppers have produced 16 20-point quarters, meaning that WKU has broken the 20-point barrier in exactly half of its quarters this season.

► Tashia Brown leads C-USA and ranks 14th in the nation with 21.6 points per game in 2017-18. Brown has four straight 20-point games and has hit the mark in six of WKU's eight games this season, already matching her total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

► With a win on Tuesday evening, WKU would continue an impressive run under Michelle Clark-Heard in games played prior to January 1. The Lady Toppers are 54-16 (.771) in such games since the beginning of the 2012-13 campaign.

GAME NOTES

MIXING NEWCOMERS WITH VETS

WKU is set to unveil a new-look roster in 2017-18, mixing five eligible newcomers with seven returners. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown are set to lead the roster this season, with C-USA All-Tournament pick Sidnee Bopp, Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Malaka Frank and Kayla Smith also back for the Lady Toppers.

Newcomers Raneem Elgedawy, Terri Smith, Nichel Tampa, Sherry Porter and Elizabeth Anderson will also be seeking to make their marks during their debut seasons on The Hill.

NEW VOICE OF THE LADY TOPPERS

Legendary WKU play-by-play announcer Barry Williams announced his retirement during the offseason after calling more than 1,000 games for the Lady Toppers.

Jevin Redman, a recent graduate of the University of Southern Indiana with an already well-decorated play-by-play career, made his regular season debut in WKU's upset of then-No. 16 Missouri.

KEEPING THE STREAK(S) GOING

WKU has won 20 or more games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that the Lady Toppers have had such a streak since 2004-05 to 2007-08.

In addition to that stretch, the Lady Toppers have accomplished the impressive feat of winning 27 or more games in each of the last three seasons, marking the first time that that has been done in the storied history of the program.

WKU has also posted four consecutive seasons with a winning streak of 10 or more games. The Lady Toppers are one of just eight programs in the nation with a 10-game winning streak in each of the last three seasons, joining perennial title contenders such as UConn, Maryland,

Notre Dame and Baylor.

CLARK-HEARD AT 130 WINS AND COUNTING

Michelle Clark-Heard has made an incredible impact on the Lady Toppers since taking over the program in 2012-13, amassing a 130-39 record over her first five seasons.

Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

By winning her 100th game in 2015-16, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

WKU PICKED SECOND IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After capturing the C-USA regular season and tournament titles last season, WKU has been picked second in the annual preseason coaches' poll. Despite garnering more first-place votes (eight) than Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers earned the runner-up spot and have been picked in the top three in each of their four C-USA campaigns.

BROWN, BROWN TABBED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE BY COACHES

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown have been selected to the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA team as selected by the league's coaches.

Both were honored as All-C-USA selections following the season in 2016-17, with Ivy garnering First Team honors and Tashia picked up Second Team accolades. Tashia Brown was also chosen to the 2016-17 Preseason All-C-USA Team and earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

Last season, the duo combined for 26.5 points and 12.3 rebounds per game, serving as two of WKU's "Big Three" alongside Kendall Noble. In 2017-18, the Browns appear poised to become one of the top one-two punches among all C-USA players.

2017-18 C-USA PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE TEAM

Alex Johnson, Middle Tennessee (Player of the Year)
Tashia Brown, WKU
Ivy Brown, WKU
Nyilah Jamison-Myers, Charlotte
Kierra Anthony, Louisiana Tech
Shayna Gore, Marshall
Terriell Bradley, North Texas
Rachael Childress, UAB

FOURTH YEAR IN CONFERENCE USA

Over its first three seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 47-7 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted a 16-2 record last season.

THAT 80S SHOW

WKU broke the 80-point barrier nine times in 2016-17 and has scored 80 or more points on at least seven occasions per season since Michelle Clark-Heard assumed control of the program in 2012-13.

By winning eight of its nine contests in which it hit 80 points last season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 49-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together 14-1 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted a 63-12 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers had their 13-game winning streak inside Diddle Arena snapped in the loss to Notre Dame on Nov. 14. That streak was tied for the sixth-longest in program history and was WKU's longest since the 2015-16 season.

TOUGH UNDER PRESSURE

Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, the Lady Toppers have played 27 contests that have been decided by three or fewer points. In such games, WKU has posted a 19-9 record overall.

In the same vein, the Lady Toppers have been very tough closers down the stretch as well, recording a 124-12 record when leading or tied with five minutes remaining in games since 2012-13.

ONE OF A KIND

Preseason All-C-USA pick Ivy Brown returns as one of the top post players in the conference after averaging 13.1

JOINING THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown are poised to be two of the top C-USA players in 2017-18. Both are now members of WKU's 1,000-point club, with Tashia currently 13th in school history in scoring, and Ivy ranking 36th in the WKU record book.

points and 8.2 rebounds per game with eight double-doubles last season.

Among all returning C-USA players, Brown is the lone individual who ranked in the top 15 in the league in both scoring (15th) and rebounding (fourth) last season.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Already 13th in program history with 1,504 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season.

To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 259 more points during her final season on The Hill; as a sophomore, the Lake Park, Ga., native totaled 579 points before adding 456 more last season.

STRONG AFTER LOSSES

In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 33-8; WKU suffered its first consecutive losses in the same season in nearly three years against Iowa and Notre Dame.

FAST STARTS FOR FRESHMEN

WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first eight games this season.

WKU LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, Sweet 16 appearances, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

GAME NOTES

TOPS ON TOP OF RANKED TEAMS

For the third consecutive year, WKU earned a victory over a ranked opponent by taking down No. 16 Missouri, 79-76, on Nov. 10 in the Hawkeye Challenge.

With the victory, WKU secured its first streak of three seasons with at least one ranked victory since 1990-91 through 1992-93, a span that saw the Lady Toppers reach three NCAA Tournaments and make a Final Four appearance.

BRINGING HOME THE AWARDS

On Nov. 20, both Raneem Elgedawy and Whitney Creech were honored by the C-USA conference office for their strong efforts against Notre Dame and Indiana the previous week.

Elgedawy has already claimed a pair of C-USA Freshman of the Week awards this season, the first Lady Topper to claim multiple Freshman of the Week honors since Tashia Brown in 2014-15.

With three weekly awards this season, WKU has already exceeded its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

Through WKU's first eight games this season, Tashia Brown is averaging 21.6 points per game, a mark that leads all individual players in C-USA and ranks 14th among all Division I players in the nation.

Brown's current scoring rate is by far her career best for a single season and tops her 2016-17 rate by nearly nine points per game.

FEELING CHARITABLE

WKU is currently shooting 122-of-157 (.777) from the free throw line this season, with only two players shooting below 80 percent among those who have attempted at least one free throw.

The Lady Toppers' 122 made free throws are the second-most among C-USA teams, and their 77.7 percent success rate tops the 14-member league and ranks 16th in the nation.

COMEBACK QUEENS

With its come-from-behind win at Georgia State, WKU continued a strong trend under Michelle Clark-Heard of being able to rally from large deficits.

Since the beginning of the 2015-16 season, WKU owns 11 victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.

CRASHING THE OFFENSIVE GLASS

WKU has been very strong at collecting its own misses this season and has tallied nearly as many offensive rebounds as those on the defensive end.

The Lady Toppers have pulled down a league-leading 16.5 offensive boards per game, and Ivy Brown ranks second among all C-USA players with 3.8 offensive rebounds per game.

WKU's 16.5 offensive boards per game also rank 27th in the nation alongside Notre Dame.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE TROUBLE

With three straight double-doubles against Mercer, Georgia State and Evansville, Ivy Brown became only the 12th player in program history to record 20 career points-rebounds double-doubles.

Brown joins former teammates Chastity Gooch (43) and Kendall Noble (20) as players who have reached that milestone.

RECORD BOOK WATCH

Through eight games, Ivy Brown is approaching the top 10 in program history in total rebounds, needing just 88 more boards to break into that group. The Hodgenville, Ky., native also ranks ninth in school history with 109 blocks and her 79.5 percent mark from the free throw line for her career is seventh among all Lady Toppers who have made at least 200 free throws.

Tashia Brown is also on pace to finish among the top 10 in school history for field goals made and attempted, minutes played and free throws made.

QUARTER FOR YOUR THOUGHTS

In the third quarter against Southern Illinois on Dec. 10, Ivy Brown exploded for 16 points keyed by four three-pointers, including a triple on three straight possessions to open the frame.

Brown's 16-point quarter matched the program record held by Kendall Noble, who also scored 16 points in the third quarter at UTSA on Jan. 30, 2017.

RPI WATCH

As of Dec. 11, WKU is ranked No. 32 in the latest NCAA RPI rankings, an improvement of 13 spots from the initial rankings on Dec. 4.

WKU is the lone C-USA representative in the top 100 of the rankings, with Middle Tennessee second at No. 119.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

After allowing an average of 82.8 points per game across its first four matchups this season, WKU's defense has buckled down during its four-game winning streak.

During that stretch, the Lady Toppers are giving up only 57 points per game and have not allowed more than 63 points in any single contest.

LOOKING AHEAD

Following Tuesday's game, WKU will be back in action on Saturday and Sunday in the 2017 West Palm Beach Invitational hosted by Keiser University.

On Saturday at 11 a.m. (CT), the Lady Toppers are set to battle Stetson, and WKU will take on Toledo on Sunday morning at 10 a.m. (CT).

WKU leads the combined all-time series against the Hatters and Rockets 2-0, defeating Stetson in the 1984-85 season and downing Toledo during the 1994-95 campaign.

MICHELLE CLARK-HEARD
Sixth Season

“What Michelle Clark-Heard has done is instilled pride back in Western Kentucky... Now with Michelle Clark-Heard, with the passion and pride she has, because she was a player at Western Kentucky, she is bringing that back to Bowling Green.”

-ESPN Analyst Carolyn Peck

Michelle Clark-Heard has quickly shaped the Western Kentucky University Lady Topper Basketball program back into a national name, putting the Lady Toppers back on the national map. In just three seasons at WKU as head coach, Clark-Heard has reached two NCAA Tournaments, won two conference tournament championships and a regular season conference title while posting 76 wins, the most in a coaches first three seasons in WKU women's basketball or men's basketball history.

Clark-Heard's third season directing her alma mater in 2014-15 was one of the best the storied program has seen. She led the Lady Toppers to a 30-5 record, posting a Conference USA record 30 wins in the program's first season as a league member.

The season began with the Lady Toppers making huge waves early by reaching the finals of the Preseason Women's NIT with wins at Colorado and over eventual American East Conference champion Albany before a loss on the road at Mississippi State. WKU also posted non-conference wins over Hofstra, Tulane and Ole Miss.

The Lady Toppers made an immediate impact in Conference USA, posting a 16-2 record to tie the league mark for league wins in a season, including eight wins on the road, to secure the program's first regular season league title as a Conference USA member and 11th in program history. In early January, she led the Lady Toppers to the Associated Press Top 25 Rankings for the first time since the 1997-98 season. She also became just the 10th coach in NCAA history to lead their alma mater into the Associated Press Top 25 rankings as both a player and coach when the Lady Toppers were ranked for two weeks in January 2015.

The Lady Toppers then won three games in three days by a combined eight points to secure a tournament title at the Conference USA Championships in Birmingham, Ala.

Following the season, Clark-Heard was recognized for her outstanding accomplishments, earning Conference USA Coach of the Year and 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I Regional Coach of the Year honors. Her selection as a WBCA Regional Coach of the Year also made her a finalist for the Pat Summitt Trophy, awarded annually to the 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year.

Her success at WKU has also helped her land new opportunities in the USA Basketball ranks. Clark-Heard was named an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Pan American Women's Basketball Team, joining head coach Lisa Bluder of the University of Iowa and fellow assistant coach Scott Rueck of Oregon State University on the 2015 staff.

In Toronto, Clark-Heard helped lead the United States to a silver medal in her international assistant coaching debut, falling just short in the gold medal game against the host Canadians.

In 2013-14, Clark-Heard helped WKU win its final seven regular season games before reeling off three straight in New Orleans, La. in March 2014 to win the Sun Belt Conference Championships with a 61-60 win over Arkansas State after WKU faced a 14-point deficit in the second half. The season

also saw WKU defeat Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic after facing a 16-point deficit in the second half.

The season was capped by a 87-74 loss to fifth-ranked Baylor in Waco, Texas in the opening round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament, ending the longest NCAA Tournament appearance drought in program history.

The run to the tournament helped WKU secure a 24-9 record and finish with 20-wins for the second straight season. Her consecutive 20-win seasons to begin her time at WKU marked the first time in Sun Belt Conference history that a team had won 20 games in back-to-back years following a season in which it had won less than 10 games.

Her success in 2013-14 followed a massive improvement on the floor in 2012-13.

In her first year as a Division One coach in 2012-13, Clark-Heard helped WKU to a 13-win improvement over the 2011-12 season output. It was the largest in Sun Belt Conference history as WKU turned a 9-21 mark into a 22-11 record. WKU's eight win improvement in conference play from five wins to 13 wins was tied for the largest in league history. The Lady Toppers also became the first team in Sun Belt Conference history to win 20 games in the season following a year in which the team won less than 10 games earlier this season.

Her first season at WKU also showcased her ability to develop players. The duo of Chastity Gooch and Alexis Govan averaged a combined 12.7 ppg in 2011-12 but posted 36.5 per outing in 2012-13. The duo combined for 1,203 points after posting 381 last season. The team also saw major improvement in nearly all statistical categories, including improving free throw shooting by over 11 percent to .739, the third highest mark in school history.

Clark-Heard spent five years as an assistant coach to Jeff Walz at Louisville. During her time with the program, the Cardinals made three Sweet 16 appearances and made their first Final Four appearance, finishing as the National Runner-Up in 2009. A roster she helped build also reached the Final Four in 2013 after beating No. 1 Baylor and national power Tennessee in the regional semifinals and finals. Clark-Heard was instrumental in bringing in the No. 12 recruiting class in 2008, then followed with three consecutive Top 10 classes in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The 2010 recruiting class was the highest ranked class in school history, ranked fifth in the nation.

Among the most notable players Clark-Heard coached at Louisville was overall number one pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, Angel McCoughtry and overall number eight pick in the 2013 WNBA Draft, Shoni Shimmel. Overall, she coached five players at Louisville that went on to be drafted in the WNBA Draft.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Clark-Heard spent two seasons as the head coach at Kentucky State, taking the reigns of the program in June 2005. She took over a program that had won just one game during the 2004-05 season. In her first season she led the Thorobrettes to a 5-23 record, four of the wins were against Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opponents. Her team was picked to finish 11th

in the SIAC but ended the season in ninth place. In her second season at KSU, she guided the Thorobrettes to an impressive 19-9 record, finishing tied for fourth place in the SIAC. Clark-Heard earned SIAC Coach-of-the-Year honors after the impressive turnaround. Her 2006-07 Thorobrettes were the second most improved team in NCAA Division II women's basketball during the 2006-07 season.

Before being named head coach at Kentucky State, Clark-Heard spent three seasons at Cincinnati as an assistant and four years at Nebraska in the same role. The Bearcats advanced to postseason play in two of her three seasons there while she helped Nebraska reach the NCAA Tournament twice during her time with the team. She was also responsible for helping sign McDonald's All-American Janice Bright for the Cornhuskers in 2001 while coaching alongside current Louisville coach Jeff Walz and under former WKU coach Paul Sanderford.

A four-year letterwinner on the Hill (1987-90), Clark-Heard was part of four NCAA Tournament teams during her Lady Topper career. She also helped guide the Lady Toppers to a pair of Sun Belt Conference Tournament championships (1988 and 1989) and two conference regular-season titles (1989 and 1990). She played in 118 games during her four years in the Hill, scoring 790 points and pulling down 615 rebounds. WKU amassed 89 victories during her four years in uniform, winning 70 percent of the games over that span and putting together three 20-win seasons.

Upon graduation from WKU, she spent eight years working within a recreational setting, five in Bowling Green and three with the Louisville Metro Parks Department. While in Louisville, she also served as head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at DuPont Manual High School for the 1994-95 seasons and played professionally with the Kentucky Marauders of the Women's Basketball Association in 1994-95.

The Louisville native earned Kentucky High School State Player of the Year honors in 1986 while playing at Atherton High School and was inducted into the Atherton Hall of Fame in 2003.

She was married on August 16, 2003 to Luther Heard.

GAME NOTES

GAME #1

WKU 79, No. 16/16 Missouri 76

Nov. 10, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) - Tashia Brown scored 13 of WKU's 18 points in the fourth quarter and finished with 30 as the Lady Toppers opened the season with a 79-76 upset of No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon at the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The Tigers took their last lead at 66-65 with 3:35 to play on two free throws by Sophie Cunningham, but Brown quickly responded with a three-pointer. Cunningham tied the game at 70 with a layup with 2:04 to go and Sidnee Bopp answered that with a 3-pointer.

Brown scored the last six points for WKU in the final minute, including a contested pull-up jumper with 17.5 seconds to play and two free throws with 1.1 to go.

Dee Givens added 20 points for the Lady Toppers, who outscored Missouri 27-17 in the second quarter to lead 45-35 at the half. It is the third-straight season that WKU has knocked off a Top 25 team, the longest such streak for the Lady Toppers since 1990-91 through 1992-93.

GAME #2

Iowa 104, WKU 97 (OT)

Nov. 11, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa - Senior Ivy Brown had a career-high 31 points on 12-of-16 shooting and the Lady Toppers led for much of the afternoon, but WKU fell 104-97 in overtime against Iowa in the title game of the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge on Saturday afternoon inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Brown was named to the All-Tournament Team after her career-best performance that also included six three-pointers; she was joined on the All-Tournament Team by fellow senior Tashia Brown, who added 16 points after tallying 30 in WKU's 79-76 win over No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon.

WKU connected on a school-record 14 three-pointers against the Hawkeyes, finishing with a 14-of-26 (53.8 percent) mark from beyond the arc.

Both sides exchanged big runs to begin the fourth quarter; WKU pushed its lead to 10 points, 85-75, after a 10-3 run, but Iowa responded with 13 straight points to take an 88-85 lead with 3:41 to play. Ivy Brown's three-pointer tied the game back up 20 seconds later, and Gustafson's free throws with 35 seconds to play forced the ninth tie of the game at 93-93.

Sevillian's three-pointer to open the overtime frame gave the Hawkeyes a 96-93 lead, and the Lady Toppers were unable to retake the lead down the stretch as Iowa claimed the 104-97 victory.

No. 6/5 Notre Dame 78, RV/- WKU 65

Nov. 14, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) - Jessica Shepard helped Notre Dame pass its first road test of the season. She had 19 points and 12 rebounds and the No. 6/5 Irish beat WKU 78-65 on Tuesday evening inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

Arike Ogunbowale and Mikayla Vaughn scored 21 and 17 points for the four-time defending Atlantic Coast Conference champs. Notre Dame led 37-28 at halftime and then held steady in the second half, stretching the lead to as wide a margin as 73-59 after WKU got as close as 57-51 early in the fourth quarter.

Tashia Brown scored 25 points for the Lady Toppers, but was just 6-for-25 from the field. Fellow WKU senior Ivy Brown, who came in averaging 18.5 points per game, scored just two points in 35 minutes of play Tuesday and eventually fouled out.

"This is what it was about when we made the schedule to see where we're at as a program and it showed us a lot today and showed us a lot in these past three games, we're getting close," WKU head coach Michelle Clark-Heard said. "We've just got to continue to keep building and bringing players and that's our most important thing."

RV/RV Indiana 73, RV/- WKU 71

Nov. 17, 2017 - Bloomington, Ind. - Assembly Hall

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Sophomore Whitney Creech scored a career-best 25 points on 10-of-16 shooting and WKU erased a 15-point third-quarter deficit, but fell just short, 73-71, against Indiana inside Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall on Friday evening.

Creech scored 11 of her 25 points in the fourth quarter and spurred WKU's strong comeback attempt. The Jenkins, Ky., native followed up her 17-point performance against Notre Dame on Tuesday with another career-best performance on Friday; she finished with multiple three-pointers for the second time in her career, knocking down two of her three chances on the night.

WKU completely erased the 15-point hole and surged into the lead with just over two minutes to play, taking a 71-68 lead after a steal from Sherry Porter that set up a pullup jumper from Creech. On Indiana's next possession, however, Buss knocked down a three-pointer from the corner to again tie the game at 71-71.

Looking to win in regulation or force overtime, the Lady Toppers were unable to stop Buss as she drove into the lane on Indiana's final offensive possession. Creech had a look at a long three-pointer as time expired, but her chance hit the backboard and rimmed out as WKU fell just short, 73-71.

GAME NOTES

GAME #5

RV/- WKU 67, Mercer 62

Nov. 24, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Facing its first deficit of the night with just over 90 seconds remaining, WKU rallied to score 10 of the game's final 12 points to earn a 67-62 victory over Mercer on Friday evening in the 2017 Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown and Ivy Brown led WKU with 21 points apiece; Ivy Brown's first basket of the night also pushed her over the 1,000-point mark for her WKU career, making her the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. Ivy Brown also secured her first double-double of the season with a game-high 14 rebounds.

Jumpers on two straight possessions from Tashia Brown and Creech to open the fourth quarter pushed WKU's lead back to eight points, 56-48, but the Bears responded with a 10-1 run spanning the next seven minutes to grab a 60-57 lead over the Lady Toppers.

Despite facing that deficit, however, WKU stepped up and scored 10 of the game's final 12 points to secure the victory. All 10 of WKU's points in the final 1:43 of the game came from the free throw line; Kayla Smith's pair of shots with 1:05 remaining put the Lady Toppers back in front, and another pair of shots from the charity stripe by Porter with just five seconds remaining iced the 67-62 victory.

GAME #6

RV/- WKU 74, Georgia State 63

Nov. 26, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Trailing by seven points midway through the third quarter, WKU forced 16 second-half turnovers against Georgia State and rallied past the Panthers to win the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic, 74-63, on Sunday afternoon inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown was named Tournament MVP after her 27-point performance on Sunday, 20 of which came in the second half. Ivy Brown joined her on the All-Tournament Team after registering her second straight double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds, and Dee Givens rounded out the WKU trio in double figures with 11 points. The in-season tournament victory was the fifth in six seasons under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard.

The Panthers took their largest lead of the night, seven points, on three different occasions early in the third quarter, the final time coming after Newby's fast-break layup gave Georgia State a 46-39 edge with 6:08 to play. From that point, however, WKU answered with eight straight points, including four straight from Whitney Creech to cap the stretch and give the Lady Toppers their first lead, 46-45, since early in the contest.

Over the last quarter, WKU would not ever relinquish its lead as the Lady Toppers forced 10 Panther turnovers and created 11 points off those takeaways, allowing WKU to claim the 74-63 victory for its first true road win of the season.

GAME NOTES

GAME #7
WKU 92, Evansville 54
Nov. 30, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Double-double efforts from both Raneem Elgedawy and Ivy Brown and a balanced scoring effort with four players in double figures helped WKU to a 92-54 win over Evansville inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Thursday evening, the third consecutive win for the Lady Toppers.

Elgedawy hit career highs with 19 points and 10 rebounds and Ivy Brown notched her third consecutive double-double with 12 points and 10 boards to lead the Lady Toppers (4-3). C-USA's leading scorer, Tashia Brown, finished with a game-high 20 points on 9-of-19 shooting from the floor, and freshman Sherry Porter rounded out the quartet in double figures with 16 points, 10 of which came in the final quarter of play.

Evansville put together a 10-2 run early in the third quarter to slash WKU's lead back under 20 points, but WKU fired back by scoring nine of the final 11 points of the frame to push the lead back to 24 points, 73-49.

The Lady Toppers never allowed the Purple Aces any closer than that in the fourth quarter and finished the game on an 11-0 run over the final 6:18 of the game to reach the final scoreline. Porter scored six points during the run for the Lady Toppers and finished with 10 points in the final quarter alone.

GAME #8
WKU 75, Southern Illinois 49
Dec. 10, 2017 - Carbondale, Ill. - SIU Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Ivy Brown matched a program record with 16 points in the third quarter and both she and Tashia Brown finished with a game-high 20 points as WKU returned from its exam break with a 75-49 victory over Southern Illinois inside SIU Arena on Sunday afternoon.

Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown each finished with 20 points for the Lady Toppers (5-3) to lead all scorers, giving WKU at least one 20-point scorer in seven of its first eight games this season. Ivy Brown tallied 16 of her 20 points in the third quarter, knocking down four three-pointers without a miss, en route to matching the program record for points by one player in a single quarter.

Ivy Brown sparked WKU's 16-1 run early in the third quarter, knocking down three triples on three straight possessions for the Lady Toppers to stretch the advantage to 54-31. Brown would go on to knock down another shot from beyond the arc and two layups in the quarter to reach her program-record total of 16 points in the 10-minute frame.

Over the final quarter, WKU did not allow the Salukis to close the gap under 20 points as the Lady Toppers coasted to the 75-49 victory.

WKU DEFEATS MISSISSIPPI VALLEY STATE, 87-48, FOR FIFTH STRAIGHT WIN TUESDAY

PDF Box Score Attached, Postgame Notes and Quotes to Follow

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Tashia Brown scored a game-high 26 points and was one of four Lady Toppers in double figures as WKU cruised past Mississippi Valley State, 87-48, on Tuesday evening inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

The 26-point outburst was Brown's seventh 20-point outing of the season, and she was joined in double figures by Ivy Brown (15), Raneem Elgedawy (12) and Sidnee Bopp (12). Bopp was strong from beyond the arc on Tuesday, knocking down four of her five chances from three-point range, and helped the Lady Toppers (6-3) to a 9-of-20 (45.0 percent) mark on three-pointers as a team.

Ivy Brown also pulled down a game-high 11 rebounds to tally her fourth double-double of the season as the Lady Toppers held a 39-27 advantage in rebounding. WKU continued its strong work on the offensive boards thus far this season, securing 16 during the game and turning those into 17 second-chance points.

LaKendra Bassett led Mississippi Valley State (0-7) with 17 points, and Sydney Floyd chipped in 10 more for the Devilettes, who were held to just 17-of-48 shooting (35.4 percent) on the night.

WKU opened the evening by scoring nine of the game's first 12 points to race out to an early lead over the Devilettes. Tashia Brown notched the first four points for the Lady Toppers, and Bopp punctuated the run with her first three-pointer of the night at the 5:59 mark to give WKU a 9-3 advantage.

Chyna Sawyers' triple trimmed WKU's lead back to just three points, but the Lady Toppers fired back with eight unanswered points to take their first double-digit lead of the night. Dee Givens and Bopp keyed the stretch with a pair of three-pointers, and Bopp's with 3:51 on the clock pushed the WKU lead to 17-6.

Ivy Brown pushed WKU's lead back to double digits with a three-pointer just 15 seconds into the second quarter, part of a 9-0 run to begin the frame by the Lady Toppers. Twice the Devilettes were able to cut WKU's advantage to 15 points over the final seven minutes of the quarter, including with 3:29 to play, but WKU responded by tallying 10 of the final 14 points of the half, including a pair of triples from Bopp and Terri Smith, to carry a 41-20 lead into the halftime break.

Trailing by 20 points early in the third quarter, Mississippi Valley State cut back into WKU's lead with a three-pointer from Floyd and a fast-break layup off the hands of Bassett, leaving the Lady Toppers with a 45-30 advantage midway through the frame.

That would be the closest that the Devilettes would come, however, as WKU used another big 10-0 run to rebuild its 20-point edge. Whitney Creech and Ivy Brown combined to score eight of the points during the stretch for the Lady Toppers, who came away with their largest lead of the night (55-30) to that point following Elgedawy's jumper with 2:30 on the clock.

In the fourth quarter, WKU did not allow Mississippi Valley State any closer than 26 points and led by as many as 40 before reaching the final 87-48 scoreline.

WKU will return to action at the 2017 West Palm Beach Invitational on Saturday and Sunday. The Lady Toppers are set to take on two strong non-conference foes in Stetson (Saturday at 11 a.m. CT) and Toledo (Sunday at 10 a.m. CT) during the event as they seek to claim their second in-season tournament title of the season after winning the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic last month.

All,

Please find postgame notes attached and video links and postgame quotes down below for tonight's 87-48 victory over Mississippi Valley State, WKU's fifth consecutive win.

Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard

On the game overall...

"I think the most important thing is that we're just trying to get better as a group and have some consistency across the board. Defensively, we held them to ten points each quarter for the first half and then we came out. I was happy the first half, point wise, that's where it should've been, but then we came out in the third quarter and gave away 19. Just a lot of the little things, we've got to clean up.

On Tashia Brown's injury...

"They said she's fine, but we just have got to make sure, any time you go down and get hit that hard, it's a scary moment. I'm just glad, she's a tough kid, she gets back up and she's ready to go."

On the upcoming games...

"We've got to get in here and get some practice in because those two teams, Stetson is really good and Toledo is really good too. Just prepping because it's going to be great competition and that's what it's all about. These next three games are big, Stetson, Toledo and then turn around and go to Ball State who's undefeated right now and just beat Purdue and a lot of other (teams). It's going to be good for us, I'm just excited about it. I think that the seniors are ready to lead and it was good to see Whitney (Crech) and Sid (Sidnee Bopp) play the way they did today and we just have to continue to get better."

Sidnee Bopp

On going to Florida...

"We're always talking about championships and stuff with Coach Heard, so the more tournaments we go to, the more championships we can get. We just go out there and try our best."

On growing during these big wins...

"Coach is always telling us how we need to come out here and play our best and try to get better. Especially in these games we need to try our best."

Tashia Brown

On her big hit in the game...

"I'm good, I'm tough... I'm just tough-minded. I'm not going to let anything stop me. If I can control it, I'm going to keep going."

On growing during these big wins...

"I feel like these games are more about ourselves. Just work on the things we need to for bigger games like our defense and stuff like that. Just working on the little things."

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - WKU will play in its final in-season tournament of the 2017-18 season this weekend as it takes on Stetson (Saturday at 11 a.m. CT) and Toledo (Sunday at 10 a.m. CT) in the 2017 West Palm Beach Invitational hosted by Keiser University.

In its last time out, WKU took down Mississippi Valley State inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Tuesday evening, picking up an 87-48 victory. Tashia Brown scored a game-high 26 points, Ivy Brown notched her fourth double-double of the season and Sidnee Bopp connected on four of her five shots from beyond the arc to pace the Lady Toppers, who held the Devilettes to just nine fourth-quarter points.

Tashia Brown (22.1 points per game) continues to lead all C-USA players in scoring and has tallied five straight 20-point games for the Lady Toppers, the longest such stretch of her career.

Stetson (6-5) is led by 18.1 points per game from Brittney Chambers and has won three of its last four games, and Kaayla McIntyre paces Toledo (7-2) with 13.9 points and 8.9 rebounds per outing. The Rockets have also been hot as of late, winning six of their last seven games entering the weekend's tournament.

Following this weekend's pair of games, WKU will travel to Muncie, Ind., next Thursday at 6 p.m. (CT) to battle undefeated Ball State in its last matchup before the holidays.

GAME #10 – WKU VS. STETSON

WKU (6-3, 0-0 C-USA) vs. Stetson (6-5, 0-0 Atlantic Sun)

December 16, 2017 | 11:00 a.m. (CT)

West Palm Beach, Fla. | Countess de Hoernle Ballroom

GAME #11 – WKU VS. TOLEDO

WKU (6-3, 0-0 C-USA) vs. Toledo (7-2, 0-0 Mid-American)

December 17, 2017 | 10:00 a.m. (CT)

West Palm Beach, Fla. | Countess de Hornle Ballroom

QUICK SHOTS

- As of Dec. 13, WKU is ranked No. 46 in the latest NCAA RPI rankings and will face No. 24 Toledo and No. 132 Stetson in West Palm Beach. WKU is the lone C-USA representative in the top 100 of the rankings, with Middle Tennessee second at No. 117.

- Tashia Brown leads C-USA and ranks 11th in the nation with her 22.1 points per game. Brown has five straight 20-point games and has hit the mark in seven of WKU's nine games this season, already exceeding her total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

- After holding Mississippi Valley State to just nine fourth-quarter points on Sunday, WKU has now held opponents to five single-digit quarters thus far in 2017-18. On the offensive end, the Lady Toppers have produced 19 20-point quarters, meaning that WKU has broken the 20-point barrier in more than half of its quarters this season.

- In the third quarter against Southern Illinois on Dec. 10, Ivy Brown exploded for 16 points keyed by four three-pointers, including a triple on three straight possessions to open the frame. Brown's 16-point quarter matched the program record held by Kendall Noble, who also scored 16 points in the third quarter at UTSA on Jan. 30, 2017.

- Already 13th in program history with 1,530 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season. To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 233 more points during her final season on The Hill.

- WKU has been very strong at collecting its own misses this season and has tallied nearly as many offensive rebounds as those on the defensive end. The Lady Toppers have pulled down a league-leading 16.4 offensive boards per game, and Ivy Brown ranks second among all C-USA players with 3.9 offensive rebounds per game. WKU's 16.4 offensive boards also ranks 29th in the nation alongside Elon.

- Sharpshooter Sidnee Bopp has connected on eight of her last nine three-point attempts and has now hit 17 of her 33 (51.5 percent) chances this season. Bopp's 51.5 percent mark leads all C-USA players and is currently the best single-season mark in school history.

- WKU is currently shooting 136-of-174 (.782) from the free throw line this season, with only three players shooting below 80 percent among those who have attempted at least one free throw. The Lady Toppers' 136 made free throws are the second-most among C-USA teams, and their 78.2 percent success rate tops the league and ranks 14th in the nation.

- With wins this weekend, WKU would continue an impressive run under Michelle Clark-Heard in games played prior to January 1. The Lady Toppers are 55-16 (.775) in such games since the beginning of the 2012-13 campaign.

- With three weekly awards (Tashia Brown's Player of the Week on Nov. 13 and Raneem Elgedawy's Freshman of the Week on Nov. 20 and Dec. 4) this season, WKU has already exceeded its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

- With its come-from-behind win at Georgia State, WKU continued a strong trend under Michelle Clark-Heard of being able to rally from large deficits. Since the beginning of the 2015-16 season, WKU owns 11 victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.

- WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first nine games this season.

- WKU owns an impressive record under Clark-Heard when breaking the 80-point barrier. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 50-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

- Through nine games, Ivy Brown is approaching the top 10 in program history in total rebounds, needing just 77 more boards to break into that group. The Hodgenville, Ky., native also ranks ninth in school history with 109 blocks and her 79.7 percent mark from the free throw line for her career is sixth among all Lady Toppers who have made at least 200 free throws.

LADY TOPPERS HEAD TO FLORIDA FOR WEST PALM BEACH INVITATIONAL

WKU will play in its final in-season tournament of the 2017-18 season this weekend as it takes on Stetson (Saturday at 11 a.m. CT) and Toledo (Sunday at 10 a.m. CT) in the 2017 West Palm Beach Invitational hosted by Keiser University.

In its last time out, WKU took down Mississippi Valley State inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Tuesday evening, picking up an 87-48 victory. Tashia Brown scored a game-high 26 points, Ivy Brown notched her fourth double-double of the season and Sidnee Bopp connected on four of her five shots from beyond the arc to pace the Lady Toppers, who held the Devilettes to just nine fourth-quarter points.

Tashia Brown (22.1 points per game) continues to lead all C-USA players in scoring and has tallied five straight 20-point games for the Lady Toppers, the longest such stretch of her career.

Stetson (6-5) is led by 18.1 points per game from Brittney Chambers and has won three of its last four games, and Kaayla McIntyre paces Toledo (7-2) with 13.9 points and 8.9 rebounds per outing. The Rockets have also been hot as of late, winning six of their last seven games entering the weekend's tournament.

Following this weekend's pair of games, WKU will travel to Muncie, Ind., next Thursday at 6 p.m. (CT) to battle undefeated Ball State in its last matchup before the holidays.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

► After holding Mississippi Valley State to just nine fourth-quarter points on Sunday, WKU has now held opponents to five single-digit quarters thus far in 2017-18. On the offensive end, the Lady Toppers have produced 19 20-point quarters, meaning that WKU has broken the 20-point barrier in more than half of its quarters this season.

► Tashia Brown leads C-USA and ranks 11th in the nation with 22.1 points per game in 2017-18. Brown has five straight 20-point games and has hit the mark in seven of WKU's nine games this season, already exceeding her total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

► Sharpshooter Sidnee Bopp has connected on eight of her last nine three-point attempts and has now hit 17 of her 33 (51.5 percent) chances this season. Bopp's 51.5 percent mark leads all C-USA players and is currently the best single-season mark in school history.

GAME NOTES

MIXING NEWCOMERS WITH VETS

WKU is set to unveil a new-look roster in 2017-18, mixing five eligible newcomers with six returners. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown are set to lead the roster this season, with C-USA All-Tournament pick Sidnee Bopp, Dee Givens, Whitney Creech and Kayla Smith also back for the Lady Toppers.

Newcomers Raneem Elgedawy, Terri Smith, Nichel Tampa, Sherry Porter and Elizabeth Anderson will also be seeking to make their marks during their debut seasons on The Hill.

NEW VOICE OF THE LADY TOPPERS

Legendary WKU play-by-play announcer Barry Williams announced his retirement during the offseason after calling more than 1,000 games for the Lady Toppers.

Jevin Redman, a recent graduate of the University of Southern Indiana with an already well-decorated play-by-play career, made his regular season debut in WKU's upset of then-No. 16 Missouri.

KEEPING THE STREAK(S) GOING

WKU has won 20 or more games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that the Lady Toppers have had such a streak since 2004-05 to 2007-08.

In addition to that stretch, the Lady Toppers have accomplished the impressive feat of winning 27 or more games in each of the last three seasons, marking the first time that that has been done in the storied history of the program.

WKU has also posted four consecutive seasons with a winning streak of 10 or more games. The Lady Toppers are one of just eight programs in the nation with a 10-game winning streak in each of the last three seasons, joining perennial title contenders such as UConn, Maryland,

Notre Dame and Baylor.

CLARK-HEARD AT 130 WINS AND COUNTING

Michelle Clark-Heard has made an incredible impact on the Lady Toppers since taking over the program in 2012-13, amassing a 130-39 record over her first five seasons.

Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

By winning her 100th game in 2015-16, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

WKU PICKED SECOND IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After capturing the C-USA regular season and tournament titles last season, WKU has been picked second in the annual preseason coaches' poll. Despite garnering more first-place votes (eight) than Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers earned the runner-up spot and have been picked in the top three in each of their four C-USA campaigns.

2017-18 C-USA PRESEASON COACHES POLL

BROWN, BROWN TABBED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE BY COACHES

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown have been selected to the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA team as selected by the league's coaches.

Both were honored as All-C-USA selections following the season in 2016-17, with Ivy garnering First Team honors and Tashia picked up Second Team accolades. Tashia Brown was also chosen to the 2016-17 Preseason All-C-USA Team and earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

Last season, the duo combined for 26.5 points and 12.3 rebounds per game, serving as two of WKU's "Big Three" alongside Kendall Noble. In 2017-18, the Browns appear poised to become one of the top one-two punches among all C-USA players.

2017-18 C-USA PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE TEAM

Alex Johnson, Middle Tennessee (Player of the Year)
Tashia Brown, WKU
Ivy Brown, WKU

THAT 80S SHOW

WKU broke the 80-point barrier nine times in 2016-17 and has scored 80 or more points on at least seven occasions per season since Michelle Clark-Heard assumed control of the program in 2012-13.

By winning eight of its nine contests in which it hit 80 points last season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 50-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together 14-1 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted a 65-12 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers had their 13-game winning streak inside Diddle Arena snapped in the loss to Notre Dame on Nov. 14. That streak was tied for the sixth-longest in program history and was WKU's longest since the 2015-16 season.

TOUGH UNDER PRESSURE

Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, the Lady Toppers have played 27 contests that have been decided by three or fewer points. In such games, WKU has posted a 19-9 record overall.

In the same vein, the Lady Toppers have been very tough closers down the stretch as well, recording a 125-12 record when leading or tied with five minutes remaining in games since 2012-13.

ONE OF A KIND

Preseason All-C-USA pick Ivy Brown returns as one of the top post players in the conference after averaging 13.1

JOINING THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown are poised to be two of the top C-USA players in 2017-18. Both are now members of WKU's 1,000-point club, with Tashia currently 13th in school history in scoring, and Ivy ranking 33rd in the WKU record book.

points and 8.2 rebounds per game with eight double-doubles last season.

Among all returning C-USA players, Brown is the lone individual who ranked in the top 15 in the league in both scoring (15th) and rebounding (fourth) last season.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Already 13th in program history with 1,530 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season.

To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 233 more points during her final season on The Hill; as a sophomore, the Lake Park, Ga., native totaled 579 points before adding 456 more last season.

STRONG AFTER LOSSES

In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 33-8; WKU suffered its first consecutive losses in the same season in nearly three years against Iowa and Notre Dame.

FAST STARTS FOR FRESHMEN

WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first nine games this season.

WKU LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, Sweet 16 appearances, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

GAME NOTES

TOPS ON TOP OF RANKED TEAMS

For the third consecutive year, WKU earned a victory over a ranked opponent by taking down No. 16 Missouri, 79-76, on Nov. 10 in the Hawkeye Challenge.

With the victory, WKU secured its first streak of three seasons with at least one ranked victory since 1990-91 through 1992-93, a span that saw the Lady Toppers reach three NCAA Tournaments and make a Final Four appearance.

BRINGING HOME THE AWARDS

On Nov. 20, both Raneem Elgedawy and Whitney Creech were honored by the C-USA conference office for their strong efforts against Notre Dame and Indiana the previous week.

Elgedawy has already claimed a pair of C-USA Freshman of the Week awards this season, the first Lady Topper to claim multiple Freshman of the Week honors since Tashia Brown in 2014-15.

With three weekly awards this season, WKU has already exceeded its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

Through WKU's first eight games this season, Tashia Brown is averaging 22.1 points per game, a mark that leads all individual players in C-USA and is tied for 11th among all Division I players.

Brown's current scoring rate is by far her career best for a single season and tops her 2016-17 rate by nearly nine points per game.

FEELING CHARITABLE

WKU is currently shooting 136-of-174 (.782) from the free throw line this season, with only three players shooting below 80 percent among those who have attempted at least one free throw.

The Lady Toppers' 136 made free throws are the second-most among C-USA teams, and their 78.2 percent success rate tops the league and ranks 14th in the nation.

COMEBACK QUEENS

With its come-from-behind win at Georgia State, WKU continued a strong trend under Michelle Clark-Heard of being able to rally from large deficits.

Since the beginning of the 2015-16 season, WKU owns 11 victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.

CRASHING THE OFFENSIVE GLASS

WKU has been very strong at collecting its own misses this season and has tallied nearly as many offensive rebounds as those on the defensive end.

The Lady Toppers have pulled down a league-leading 16.4 offensive boards per game, and Ivy Brown ranks second among all C-USA players with 3.9 offensive rebounds per game.

WKU's 16.4 offensive boards per game also rank 29th in the nation alongside Elon.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE TROUBLE

With three straight double-doubles against Mercer, Georgia State and Evansville, Ivy Brown became only the 12th player in program history to record 20 career points-rebounds double-doubles.

Brown joins former teammates Chastity Gooch (43) and Kendall Noble (20) as players who have reached that milestone.

RECORD BOOK WATCH

Through nine games, Ivy Brown is approaching the top 10 in program history in total rebounds, needing just 77 more boards to break into that group. The Hodgenville, Ky., native also ranks ninth in school history with 109 blocks and her 79.7 percent mark from the free throw line for her career is sixth among all Lady Toppers who have made at least 200 free throws.

Tashia Brown is also on pace to finish among the top 10 in school history for field goals made and attempted, minutes played and free throws made.

QUARTER FOR YOUR THOUGHTS

In the third quarter against Southern Illinois on Dec. 10, Ivy Brown exploded for 16 points keyed by four three-pointers, including a triple on three straight possessions to open the frame.

Brown's 16-point quarter matched the program record held by Kendall Noble, who also scored 16 points in the third quarter at UTSA on Jan. 30, 2017.

RPI WATCH

As of Dec. 13, WKU is ranked No. 46 in the latest NCAA RPI rankings and will face No. 24 Toledo and No. 132 Stetson in West Palm Beach.

WKU is the lone C-USA representative in the top 100 of the rankings, with Middle Tennessee second at No. 117.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

After allowing an average of 82.8 points per game across its first four matchups this season, WKU's defense has buckled down during its five-game winning streak.

During that stretch, the Lady Toppers are giving up only 55.2 points per game and have not allowed more than 63 points in any single contest.

BOPP TO THE TOP

After knocking down four of her five three-pointers against Mississippi Valley State, Sidnee Bopp now leads all C-USA players with her 51.5 three-point field goal percentage this season.

Heading into the weekend, Bopp has connected on eight of her last nine shots from beyond the arc.

LOOKING AHEAD

Following the West Palm Beach Invitational, WKU will be back in action next Thursday at 6 p.m. (CT) as the Lady Toppers take on undefeated Ball State in Muncie, Ind., in their last matchup before the holiday break.

The series between the Lady Toppers and Cardinals is tied at 3-3, with WKU winning the most recent meeting, 68-61, inside E.A. Diddle Arena last season.

GAME NOTES

MICHELLE CLARK-HEARD
Sixth Season

“What Michelle Clark-Heard has done is instilled pride back in Western Kentucky... Now with Michelle Clark-Heard, with the passion and pride she has, because she was a player at Western Kentucky, she is bringing that back to Bowling Green.”

-ESPN Analyst Carolyn Peck

Michelle Clark-Heard has quickly shaped the Western Kentucky University Lady Topper Basketball program back into a national name, putting the Lady Toppers back on the national map. In just three seasons at WKU as head coach, Clark-Heard has reached two NCAA Tournaments, won two conference tournament championships and a regular season conference title while posting 76 wins, the most in a coaches first three seasons in WKU women's basketball or men's basketball history.

Clark-Heard's third season directing her alma mater in 2014-15 was one of the best the storied program has seen. She led the Lady Toppers to a 30-5 record, posting a Conference USA record 30 wins in the program's first season as a league member.

The season began with the Lady Toppers making huge waves early by reaching the finals of the Preseason Women's NIT with wins at Colorado and over eventual American East Conference champion Albany before a loss on the road at Mississippi State. WKU also posted non-conference wins over Hofstra, Tulane and Ole Miss.

The Lady Toppers made an immediate impact in Conference USA, posting a 16-2 record to tie the league mark for league wins in a season, including eight wins on the road, to secure the program's first regular season league title as a Conference USA member and 11th in program history. In early January, she led the Lady Toppers to the Associated Press Top 25 Rankings for the first time since the 1997-98 season. She also became just the 10th coach in NCAA history to lead their alma mater into the Associated Press Top 25 rankings as both a player and coach when the Lady Toppers were ranked for two weeks in January 2015.

The Lady Toppers then won three games in three days by a combined eight points to secure a tournament title at the Conference USA Championships in Birmingham, Ala.

Following the season, Clark-Heard was recognized for her outstanding accomplishments, earning Conference USA Coach of the Year and 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I Regional Coach of the Year honors. Her selection as a WBCA Regional Coach of the Year also made her a finalist for the Pat Summitt Trophy, awarded annually to the 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year.

Her success at WKU has also helped her land new opportunities in the USA Basketball ranks. Clark-Heard was named an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Pan American Women's Basketball Team, joining head coach Lisa Bluder of the University of Iowa and fellow assistant coach Scott Rueck of Oregon State University on the 2015 staff.

In Toronto, Clark-Heard helped lead the United States to a silver medal in her international assistant coaching debut, falling just short in the gold medal game against the host Canadians.

In 2013-14, Clark-Heard helped WKU win its final seven regular season games before reeling off three straight in New Orleans, La. in March 2014 to win the Sun Belt Conference Championships with a 61-60 win over Arkansas State after WKU faced a 14-point deficit in the second half. The season

also saw WKU defeat Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic after facing a 16-point deficit in the second half.

The season was capped by a 87-74 loss to fifth-ranked Baylor in Waco, Texas in the opening round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament, ending the longest NCAA Tournament appearance drought in program history.

The run to the tournament helped WKU secure a 24-9 record and finish with 20-wins for the second straight season. Her consecutive 20-win seasons to begin her time at WKU marked the first time in Sun Belt Conference history that a team had won 20 games in back-to-back years following a season in which it had won less than 10 games.

Her success in 2013-14 followed a massive improvement on the floor in 2012-13.

In her first year as a Division One coach in 2012-13, Clark-Heard helped WKU to a 13-win improvement over the 2011-12 season output. It was the largest in Sun Belt Conference history as WKU turned a 9-21 mark into a 22-11 record. WKU's eight win improvement in conference play from five wins to 13 wins was tied for the largest in league history. The Lady Toppers also became the first team in Sun Belt Conference history to win 20 games in the season following a year in which the team won less than 10 games earlier this season.

Her first season at WKU also showcased her ability to develop players. The duo of Chastity Gooch and Alexis Govan averaged a combined 12.7 ppg in 2011-12 but posted 36.5 per outing in 2012-13. The duo combined for 1,203 points after posting 381 last season. The team also saw major improvement in nearly all statistical categories, including improving free throw shooting by over 11 percent to .739, the third highest mark in school history.

Clark-Heard spent five years as an assistant coach to Jeff Walz at Louisville. During her time with the program, the Cardinals made three Sweet 16 appearances and made their first Final Four appearance, finishing as the National Runner-Up in 2009. A roster she helped build also reached the Final Four in 2013 after beating No. 1 Baylor and national power Tennessee in the regional semifinals and finals. Clark-Heard was instrumental in bringing in the No. 12 recruiting class in 2008, then followed with three consecutive Top 10 classes in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The 2010 recruiting class was the highest ranked class in school history, ranked fifth in the nation.

Among the most notable players Clark-Heard coached at Louisville was overall number one pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, Angel McCoughtry and overall number eight pick in the 2013 WNBA Draft, Shoni Shimmel. Overall, she coached five players at Louisville that went on to be drafted in the WNBA Draft.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Clark-Heard spent two seasons as the head coach at Kentucky State, taking the reigns of the program in June 2005. She took over a program that had won just one game during the 2004-05 season. In her first season she led the Thorobrettes to a 5-23 record, four of the wins were against Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opponents. Her team was picked to finish 11th

in the SIAC but ended the season in ninth place. In her second season at KSU, she guided the Thorobrettes to an impressive 19-9 record, finishing tied for fourth place in the SIAC. Clark-Heard earned SIAC Coach-of-the-Year honors after the impressive turnaround. Her 2006-07 Thorobrettes were the second most improved team in NCAA Division II women's basketball during the 2006-07 season.

Before being named head coach at Kentucky State, Clark-Heard spent three seasons at Cincinnati as an assistant and four years at Nebraska in the same role. The Bearcats advanced to postseason play in two of her three seasons there while she helped Nebraska reach the NCAA Tournament twice during her time with the team. She was also responsible for helping sign McDonald's All-American Janice Bright for the Cornhuskers in 2001 while coaching alongside current Louisville coach Jeff Walz and under former WKU coach Paul Sanderford.

A four-year letterwinner on the Hill (1987-90), Clark-Heard was part of four NCAA Tournament teams during her Lady Topper career. She also helped guide the Lady Toppers to a pair of Sun Belt Conference Tournament championships (1988 and 1989) and two conference regular-season titles (1989 and 1990). She played in 118 games during her four years in the Hill, scoring 790 points and pulling down 615 rebounds. WKU amassed 89 victories during her four years in uniform, winning 70 percent of the games over that span and putting together three 20-win seasons.

Upon graduation from WKU, she spent eight years working within a recreational setting, five in Bowling Green and three with the Louisville Metro Parks Department. While in Louisville, she also served as head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at DuPont Manual High School for the 1994-95 seasons and played professionally with the Kentucky Marauders of the Women's Basketball Association in 1994-95.

The Louisville native earned Kentucky High School State Player of the Year honors in 1986 while playing at Atherton High School and was inducted into the Atherton Hall of Fame in 2003.

She was married on August 16, 2003 to Luther Heard.

GAME NOTES

GAME #1

WKU 79, No. 16/16 Missouri 76

Nov. 10, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) - Tashia Brown scored 13 of WKU's 18 points in the fourth quarter and finished with 30 as the Lady Toppers opened the season with a 79-76 upset of No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon at the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The Tigers took their last lead at 66-65 with 3:35 to play on two free throws by Sophie Cunningham, but Brown quickly responded with a three-pointer. Cunningham tied the game at 70 with a layup with 2:04 to go and Sidnee Bopp answered that with a 3-pointer.

Brown scored the last six points for WKU in the final minute, including a contested pull-up jumper with 17.5 seconds to play and two free throws with 1.1 to go.

Dee Givens added 20 points for the Lady Toppers, who outscored Missouri 27-17 in the second quarter to lead 45-35 at the half. It is the third-straight season that WKU has knocked off a Top 25 team, the longest such streak for the Lady Toppers since 1990-91 through 1992-93.

GAME #2

Iowa 104, WKU 97 (OT)

Nov. 11, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa - Senior Ivy Brown had a career-high 31 points on 12-of-16 shooting and the Lady Toppers led for much of the afternoon, but WKU fell 104-97 in overtime against Iowa in the title game of the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge on Saturday afternoon inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Brown was named to the All-Tournament Team after her career-best performance that also included six three-pointers; she was joined on the All-Tournament Team by fellow senior Tashia Brown, who added 16 points after tallying 30 in WKU's 79-76 win over No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon.

WKU connected on a school-record 14 three-pointers against the Hawkeyes, finishing with a 14-of-26 (53.8 percent) mark from beyond the arc.

Both sides exchanged big runs to begin the fourth quarter; WKU pushed its lead to 10 points, 85-75, after a 10-3 run, but Iowa responded with 13 straight points to take an 88-85 lead with 3:41 to play. Ivy Brown's three-pointer tied the game back up 20 seconds later, and Gustafson's free throws with 35 seconds to play forced the ninth tie of the game at 93-93.

Sevillian's three-pointer to open the overtime frame gave the Hawkeyes a 96-93 lead, and the Lady Toppers were unable to retake the lead down the stretch as Iowa claimed the 104-97 victory.

GAME NOTES

GAME #3

No. 6/5 Notre Dame 78, RV/- WKU 65

Nov. 14, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) - Jessica Shepard helped Notre Dame pass its first road test of the season. She had 19 points and 12 rebounds and the No. 6/5 Irish beat WKU 78-65 on Tuesday evening inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

Arike Ogunbowale and Mikayla Vaughn scored 21 and 17 points for the four-time defending Atlantic Coast Conference champs. Notre Dame led 37-28 at halftime and then held steady in the second half, stretching the lead to as wide a margin as 73-59 after WKU got as close as 57-51 early in the fourth quarter.

Tashia Brown scored 25 points for the Lady Toppers, but was just 6-for-25 from the field. Fellow WKU senior Ivy Brown, who came in averaging 18.5 points per game, scored just two points in 35 minutes of play Tuesday and eventually fouled out.

"This is what it was about when we made the schedule to see where we're at as a program and it showed us a lot today and showed us a lot in these past three games, we're getting close," WKU head coach Michelle Clark-Heard said. "We've just got to continue to keep building and bringing players and that's our most important thing."

GAME #4

RV/RV Indiana 73, RV/- WKU 71

Nov. 17, 2017 - Bloomington, Ind. - Assembly Hall

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Sophomore Whitney Creech scored a career-best 25 points on 10-of-16 shooting and WKU erased a 15-point third-quarter deficit, but fell just short, 73-71, against Indiana inside Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall on Friday evening.

Creech scored 11 of her 25 points in the fourth quarter and spurred WKU's strong comeback attempt. The Jenkins, Ky., native followed up her 17-point performance against Notre Dame on Tuesday with another career-best performance on Friday; she finished with multiple three-pointers for the second time in her career, knocking down two of her three chances on the night.

WKU completely erased the 15-point hole and surged into the lead with just over two minutes to play, taking a 71-68 lead after a steal from Sherry Porter that set up a pullup jumper from Creech. On Indiana's next possession, however, Buss knocked down a three-pointer from the corner to again tie the game at 71-71.

Looking to win in regulation or force overtime, the Lady Toppers were unable to stop Buss as she drove into the lane on Indiana's final offensive possession. Creech had a look at a long three-pointer as time expired, but her chance hit the backboard and rimmed out as WKU fell just short, 73-71.

GAME NOTES

GAME #5

RV/- WKU 67, Mercer 62

Nov. 24, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Facing its first deficit of the night with just over 90 seconds remaining, WKU rallied to score 10 of the game's final 12 points to earn a 67-62 victory over Mercer on Friday evening in the 2017 Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown and Ivy Brown led WKU with 21 points apiece; Ivy Brown's first basket of the night also pushed her over the 1,000-point mark for her WKU career, making her the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. Ivy Brown also secured her first double-double of the season with a game-high 14 rebounds.

Jumpers on two straight possessions from Tashia Brown and Creech to open the fourth quarter pushed WKU's lead back to eight points, 56-48, but the Bears responded with a 10-1 run spanning the next seven minutes to grab a 60-57 lead over the Lady Toppers.

Despite facing that deficit, however, WKU stepped up and scored 10 of the game's final 12 points to secure the victory. All 10 of WKU's points in the final 1:43 of the game came from the free throw line; Kayla Smith's pair of shots with 1:05 remaining put the Lady Toppers back in front, and another pair of shots from the charity stripe by Porter with just five seconds remaining iced the 67-62 victory.

GAME #6

RV/- WKU 74, Georgia State 63

Nov. 26, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Trailing by seven points midway through the third quarter, WKU forced 16 second-half turnovers against Georgia State and rallied past the Panthers to win the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic, 74-63, on Sunday afternoon inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown was named Tournament MVP after her 27-point performance on Sunday, 20 of which came in the second half. Ivy Brown joined her on the All-Tournament Team after registering her second straight double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds, and Dee Givens rounded out the WKU trio in double figures with 11 points. The in-season tournament victory was the fifth in six seasons under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard.

The Panthers took their largest lead of the night, seven points, on three different occasions early in the third quarter, the final time coming after Newby's fast-break layup gave Georgia State a 46-39 edge with 6:08 to play. From that point, however, WKU answered with eight straight points, including four straight from Whitney Creech to cap the stretch and give the Lady Toppers their first lead, 46-45, since early in the contest.

Over the last quarter, WKU would not ever relinquish its lead as the Lady Toppers forced 10 Panther turnovers and created 11 points off those takeaways, allowing WKU to claim the 74-63 victory for its first true road win of the season.

GAME NOTES

GAME #7
WKU 92, Evansville 54
 Nov. 30, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Double-double efforts from both Raneem Elgedawy and Ivy Brown and a balanced scoring effort with four players in double figures helped WKU to a 92-54 win over Evansville inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Thursday evening, the third consecutive win for the Lady Toppers.

Elgedawy hit career highs with 19 points and 10 rebounds and Ivy Brown notched her third consecutive double-double with 12 points and 10 boards to lead the Lady Toppers (4-3). C-USA's leading scorer, Tashia Brown, finished with a game-high 20 points on 9-of-19 shooting from the floor, and freshman Sherry Porter rounded out the quartet in double figures with 16 points, 10 of which came in the final quarter of play.

Evansville put together a 10-2 run early in the third quarter to slash WKU's lead back under 20 points, but WKU fired back by scoring nine of the final 11 points of the frame to push the lead back to 24 points, 73-49.

The Lady Toppers never allowed the Purple Aces any closer than that in the fourth quarter and finished the game on an 11-0 run over the final 6:18 of the game to reach the final scoreline. Porter scored six points during the run for the Lady Toppers and finished with 10 points in the final quarter alone.

GAME #8
WKU 75, Southern Illinois 49
 Dec. 10, 2017 - Carbondale, Ill. - SIU Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Ivy Brown matched a program record with 16 points in the third quarter and both she and Tashia Brown finished with a game-high 20 points as WKU returned from its exam break with a 75-49 victory over Southern Illinois inside SIU Arena on Sunday afternoon.

Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown each finished with 20 points for the Lady Toppers (5-3) to lead all scorers, giving WKU at least one 20-point scorer in seven of its first eight games this season. Ivy Brown tallied 16 of her 20 points in the third quarter, knocking down four three-pointers without a miss, en route to matching the program record for points by one player in a single quarter.

Ivy Brown sparked WKU's 16-1 run early in the third quarter, knocking down three triples on three straight possessions for the Lady Toppers to stretch the advantage to 54-31. Brown would go on to knock down another shot from beyond the arc and two layups in the quarter to reach her program-record total of 16 points in the 10-minute frame.

Over the final quarter, WKU did not allow the Salukis to close the gap under 20 points as the Lady Toppers coasted to the 75-49 victory.

GAME #9

WKU 87, Mississippi Valley State 48

Dec. 12, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Tashia Brown scored a game-high 26 points and was one of four Lady Toppers in double figures as WKU cruised past Mississippi Valley State, 87-48, on Tuesday evening inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

The 26-point outburst was Brown's seventh 20-point outing of the season, and she was joined in double figures by Ivy Brown (15), Raneem Elgedawy (12) and Sidnee Bopp (12). Bopp was strong from beyond the arc on Tuesday, knocking down four of her five chances from three-point range, and helped the Lady Toppers (6-3) to a 9-of-20 (45.0 percent) mark on three-pointers as a team.

Trailing by 20 points early in the third quarter, Mississippi Valley State cut back into WKU's lead with a three-pointer from Floyd and a fast-break layup off the hands of Bassett, leaving the Lady Toppers with a 45-30 advantage midway through the frame.

That would be the closest that the Devilettes would come, however, as WKU used another big 10-0 run to rebuild its 20-point edge.

In the fourth quarter, WKU did not allow Mississippi Valley State any closer than 26 points and led by as many as 40 before reaching the final 87-48 scoreline.

WKU OUTLASTS STETSON, 66-58, IN WEST PALM BEACH INVITATIONAL OPENER

PDF Box Score Attached, Postgame Notes to Follow

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. – Tashia Brown extended her 20-point scoring streak to six straight games with a game-high 24 points and WKU held on for a 66-58 victory over Stetson in the opening game of the 2017 West Palm Beach Invitational inside the Countess de Hoernle Student Life Center on Saturday afternoon.

With her sixth consecutive 20-point game, Tashia Brown became the first Lady Topper to accomplish that feat since the program's all-time leading scorer, Crystal Kelly, also did so during the 2007-08 campaign. Brown was joined in double figures by Raneem Elgedawy (13), Ivy Brown (12) and Whitney Creech (10).

Both Elgedawy and Ivy Brown also tallied double-doubles with 10 and 12 rebounds, respectively. Brown now has a double-double in five of her last six games, while Elgedawy hit the mark for the second time this season for the Lady Toppers (7-3), who captured their sixth straight win.

Kennedi Colclough and Brittney Chambers led the Hatters (6-6) with 16 points apiece, and Shania Meertens rounded out the trio in double figures with 12 points. Meertens also chipped in six rebounds and six assists on the afternoon.

Following an early three-pointer from Ivy Brown, Stetson jumped out to a four-point lead on two occasions in the opening quarter, but each time WKU was able to erase the deficit. Trailing 9-5 midway through the quarter, the Lady Toppers fired off six straight points to go back out in front on Creech's jumper with 3:06 to play in the frame.

Six more unanswered points from the Lady Toppers spanning into the second quarter gave them their largest lead of the day to that point. Elgedawy tallied five of the six points during the stretch for WKU, including a jumper to cap the run with a 17-10 advantage.

Another long run, this time by the Hatters, put Stetson out in front with four minutes to go before the halftime break. Colclough keyed the stretch with a pair of jumpers, and Meertens' pullup left WKU facing an 18-17 deficit.

WKU managed to retake the lead with a few seconds remaining in the half, giving the Lady Toppers a 24-23 edge heading into the locker room.

Coming out of halftime, Stetson surged back in front with five straight points. Chambers knocked down a triple on the Hatters' second possession of the quarter, and Colclough's layup with nine minutes on the clock gave Stetson a 28-24 lead.

Over the next five minutes, WKU used the strength of an 11-4 run to erase the deficit. Four different Lady Toppers scored during the run, including a pair of pullup jumpers from Creech, and a fast-break layup by Tashia Brown reestablished a 35-32 lead for the Lady Toppers at the 4:41 mark.

WKU's lead grew to as many as seven points before the end of the third quarter, and the Lady Toppers took a 46-39 edge into the final 10 minutes.

During the fourth quarter, Stetson closed within four points three times, but the Lady Toppers refused to allow them any closer than that. WKU's final six points came from the charity stripe as the Lady Toppers held off the Hatters down the stretch for the 66-58 win.

WKU will round out its play in the 2017 West Palm Beach Invitational tomorrow morning at 10 a.m. (CT) against Toledo. The Lady Toppers and Rockets have met just one other time in program history, a 77-63 WKU victory in the NCAA Tournament on March 17, 1995. Following tomorrow's matchup, WKU will then have one more game before the holiday break, taking on currently undefeated Ball State in Muncie, Ind., at 6 p.m. (CT) on Thursday evening.

WKU Lady Toppers vs. Stetson Hatters – 2017 West Palm Beach Invitational

Postgame Notes

December 16, 2017

Countess de Hoernle Student Life Center; West Palm Beach, Fla.

FINAL SCORE: WKU 66, Stetson 58

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU improves to 7-3 on the season, while Stetson drops to 6-6.
- With the win, WKU improves to 2-0 all-time against the Hatters. In the only other meeting between the two sides, WKU picked up a 104-70 win over Stetson on Feb. 14, 1985.
- With Saturday's win, WKU improved to 16-4 in in-season tournaments under Michelle Clark-Heard, including a 4-1 mark in such games this season with wins over Missouri, Mercer, Georgia State and Stetson.
- NEXT UP: WKU will round out its play in the 2017 West Palm Beach Invitational tomorrow morning at 10 a.m. (CT) against Toledo. The Lady Toppers and Rockets have met just one other time in program history, a 77-63 WKU victory in the NCAA Tournament on March 17, 1995. Following tomorrow's matchup, WKU will then have one more game before the holiday break, taking on currently undefeated Ball State in Muncie, Ind., at 6 p.m. (CT) on Thursday evening.

Team Notes

- WKU used a new starting lineup of Whitney Creech, Sidnee Bopp, Tashia Brown, Ivy Brown and Raneem Elgedawy against the Hatters on Saturday. The new lineup moved to 1-0 when starting together.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: WKU used a 12-1 run spanning the first and second quarters to grab its largest lead of the day to that point. Trailing 9-5 midway through the opening frame, the Lady Toppers scored 12 of the next 13 points to turn that deficit into a 17-10 lead with 9:04 remaining in the second quarter.
- WKU held a narrow 24-23 lead over Stetson at the halftime break and improved to 6-2 this season when leading at halftime.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: Down 28-24 early in the third quarter, WKU used an 11-4 run to retake the lead for good. Whitney Creech knocked down a pair of pullup jumpers during the stretch for WKU, who would not relinquish the lead again after going up 35-32.
- When holding opponents to 59 points or fewer, WKU now holds a 65-3 record under Michelle Clark-Heard and has won its last 31 games when accomplishing that feat.
- With a 24-point performance from Tashia Brown, WKU now has had a 20-point scorer in nine of its first 10 games this season.
- WKU continued its strong defensive performance during its six-game winning streak. The Lady Toppers are allowing only 55.7 points per game and have not surrendered more than 63 points in a single contest during that stretch.

Individual Notes

- Tashia Brown netted 24 points, her sixth straight 20-point game and eighth in 10 chances for WKU this season.
  - Brown is the first Lady Topper to have six straight 20-point games since the program's all-time leading scorer, Crystal Kelly, accomplished that during the 2007-08 season.
- Ivy Brown tallied her fifth double-double in the last six games with 12 points and 12 rebounds.
  - Brown now ranks 10th in program history with 23 career points-rebounds double-doubles.
- Raneem Elgedawy also earned her second career double-double with 13 points and 10 boards.
- Sidnee Bopp drew her first collegiate start against the Hatters.

BROWN TAKES OVER IN THIRD QUARTER AS WKU DEFEATS TOLEDO, 70-56

PDF Box Score Attached, Postgame Notes to Follow

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. – Tashia Brown matched the program record with 16 points in the third quarter and finished with a game-high 29 points on the afternoon as WKU defeated Toledo, 70-56, to conclude play at the 2017 West Palm Beach Invitational inside the Countess de Hoernle Student Life Center on Sunday afternoon.

Brown scored 16 of WKU's (8-3) 18 points in the third quarter to spark the Lady Toppers to their seventh consecutive win. For the day, she finished 12-of-21 from the floor and also pulled down nine rebounds, falling just shy of a double-double.

Ivy Brown double-doubled for the sixth time in her last seven games, finishing with 14 points and 10 rebounds, and Raneem Elgedawy rounded out the trio in double figures with 10 points.

As a team, WKU shot 28-of-64 (43.8 percent) from the field while holding the Rockets to just 18-of-51 (35.3 percent) shooting.

Kaayla McIntyre led Toledo (7-3) with 16 points and nine rebounds, and Sara Rokkanen (11) and Mikaela Boyd (10) also reached double figures.

Toledo jumped out to an early lead over the Lady Toppers after scoring the first five points of the game. Rokkanen knocked down a three-pointer just 14 seconds into the contest, and a jumper on the next possession by Sarah St-Fort left WKU facing an early deficit.

The Lady Toppers fired back with a 7-2 run over the next four minutes, sparked by four points from Elgedawy. The two-time C-USA Freshman of the Week knocked down a pair of jumpers, and Tashia Brown's free throw at the 4:57 mark knotted the game at 7-7 just after the first media timeout of the afternoon.

Leading 12-10 with just over three minutes left in the first quarter, Toledo closed the frame on a 10-4 run to take an eight-point lead after the opening 10 minutes, capped by Jay-Ann Bravo-Harriott's late triple.

Facing a 24-16 deficit early in the second quarter, WKU surged in front for the first time on the strength of 10 unanswered points. Four different Lady Toppers scored during the stretch, which was keyed by a three-point play from Tashia Brown and Sidnee Bopp's three-pointer to cap the run and give WKU a 26-24 lead.

Toledo trimmed the lead to one point on three different occasions, but WKU maintained its lead through the halftime break with a 37-32 edge.

In the third quarter, Tashia Brown took over for the Lady Toppers, scoring 16 of the team's 18 points in the period. Each time that Toledo would look to make a run, a basket from Brown would rebuild the three-possession lead for WKU, and the lead grew to 10 points, 55-45, by the end of the quarter.

Over the final 10 minutes, WKU did not allow Toledo any closer than seven points as the Lady Toppers closed out the 70-56 win to close their time at the West Palm Beach Invitational.

With its Florida trip over, WKU will round out play before the holiday break with another short road trip to Muncie, Ind., to take on Ball State at 6 p.m. (CT) on Thursday evening. The all-time series between the Lady Toppers and Cardinals is tied 3-3, and the teams have split the last two meetings. WKU claimed the most recent meeting, 68-61, between the two sides inside E.A. Diddle Arena last season.

BROWN, ELGEDAWY CLOSE STRONG WEEK WITH C-USA WEEKLY HONORS SWEEP

IRVING, Texas – Tashia Brown and Raneem Elgedawy have been named the C-USA Player of the Week and C-USA Freshman of the Week, respectively, by the conference office on Monday afternoon following three strong performances for WKU this past week.

Brown's Player of the Week honor is her second of the season and third of her career, while Elgedawy claimed Freshman of the Week honors for the third time this season, matching Brown's mark for the most by a Lady Topper since moving to C-USA in 2014-15. Lady Topper Basketball now has five combined weekly awards this season, three more than any other C-USA program; WKU also claimed its second sweep of C-USA's weekly awards since joining the conference, with the first coming on March 2, 2015, when Kendall Noble (Player) and Brown (Freshman) earned the honors.

In addition to her accolades from the conference office, Brown also captured College Sports Madness' High-Major National Player of the Week honor for the second time in 2017-18, making her the only player in the nation to win that weekly award twice this season thus far.

Brown continued her incredible start to the season in WKU's three victories over Mississippi Valley State, Stetson and Toledo this week. The Lake Park, Ga., native averaged 26.3 points and seven rebounds across the three contests while shooting 30-of-61 (.492) from the floor to extend her streak of 20-point games to seven straight outings. The senior is one of only two Division I players, alongside Temple's Tanaya Atkinson, with such a streak this season, and leads all C-USA players while ranking sixth in the nation at 22.9 points per game.

Against Toledo on Sunday, Brown flashed her ability to take over a game at any time, matching the program record with 16 points in the third quarter to break open the contest. The senior tallied all but two of the Lady Toppers' points in the frame, and at one point scored 14 consecutive points, single-handedly outscoring the Rockets, 16-13, in the quarter.

Elgedawy enjoyed one of her strongest weeks yet on The Hill, averaging 11.7 points and 7.7 rebounds while picking up her second career double-double against Stetson on Saturday. For the first time in her career, Elgedawy scored in double figures and shot better than 50 percent from the floor in three consecutive games while continuing to be a force on the offensive glass. Of the Alexandria, Egypt, native's nine offensive rebounds, seven turned into second-chance points for the Lady Toppers, including four direct putbacks by Elgedawy herself.

Brown, Elgedawy and the Lady Toppers will be back in action for the final time before the holiday break on Thursday evening at 6 p.m. (CT) for a critical non-conference matchup at undefeated Ball State. The Cardinals are 9-0 entering Monday evening's game against Austin Peay, while the Lady Toppers are riding a seven-game winning streak into the clash.

ELGEDAWY EARNS PRESTIGIOUS USBWA NATIONAL FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK AWARD

Raneem Elgedawy Headshot Attached

ST. LOUIS – Raneem Elgedawy has been selected as the US Basketball Writers' Association (USBWA) National Freshman of the Week as announced by the organization on Tuesday morning, the first such honor for a Lady Topper since the inception of the weekly award in 2014-15.

As the C-USA Freshman of the Week, Elgedawy was nominated for the award, which was chosen by Mel Greenberg, the USBWA coordinator for women's basketball. South Florida's Kitija Laksa was also named the USBWA National Player of the Week by Greenberg.

Elgedawy enjoyed one of her strongest weeks yet on The Hill, averaging 11.7 points and 7.7 rebounds while picking up her second career double-double against Stetson on Saturday. For the first time in her career, Elgedawy scored in double figures and shot better than 50 percent from the floor in three consecutive games while continuing to be a force on the offensive glass. Of the Alexandria, Egypt, native's nine offensive rebounds, seven turned into second-chance points for the Lady Toppers, including four direct putbacks by Elgedawy herself.

Already a three-time C-USA Freshman of the Week winner, Elgedawy has matched the program record in that category held by Tashia Brown, who also earned the weekly honor three times during the 2014-15 campaign.

For the season, Elgedawy is averaging 9.1 points and 6.7 rebounds per game and has started all 11 games for the Lady Toppers. Of WKU players with 10 or more field goal attempts this season, Elgedawy's .506 (42-of-83) mark from the floor ranks second only to Ivy Brown, and her seven blocks are also good for the second-best total on the squad. The freshman is one of only two Lady Toppers with multiple double-doubles this season, earning hers against Evansville and Stetson.

Elgedawy and the Lady Toppers will be back in action for the final time before the holiday break on Thursday evening at 6 p.m. (CT) for a critical non-conference matchup at undefeated Ball State. The Cardinals are 10-0 entering Thursday night's clash, while the Lady Toppers are riding a seven-game winning streak into the matchup.

The US Basketball Writers' Association was formed in 1956 at the urging of then-NCAA Executive Director Walter Byers. With some 900 members worldwide, it is one of the most influential organizations in college basketball. It has selected a women's All-America team since the 1996-97 season. For more information on the USBWA and its award programs, contact executive director Joe Mitch at 314-795-6821.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - In its final game before the holidays, WKU will travel to Muncie, Ind., on Thursday evening for a battle at undefeated Ball State set for a 6 p.m. (CT) tipoff. Ball State enters the matchup on a 10-game winning streak, while WKU has won its last seven consecutive games.

At the West Palm Beach Invitational, the Lady Toppers took down Stetson and Toledo to extend their winning streak. Tashia Brown averaged 26.5 points against the Hatters and Rockets, Ivy Brown picked up a pair of double-doubles and Raneem Elgedawy continued her strong freshman season with her second double-double of the year against Stetson.

Tashia Brown (22.9 points per game) continues to lead all C-USA players in scoring and has tallied seven straight 20-point games for the Lady Toppers, the longest such stretch by any Lady Topper since Crystal Kelly had nine straight 20-point outings in 2006-07.

Ball State (10-0) sports five players in double figures, led by Moriah Monaco's 16.3 points per game; Destiny Washington (13.0), Carmen Grande (12.8), Jasmin Samz (11.9) and Frannie Frazier (10.7) round out the Cardinal quintet in double figures. Grande leads the team with 99 total assists, while Oshlynn Brown has pulled down a team-best 7.1 boards per game.

After Thursday's clash, WKU will be off until Friday, Dec. 29, at 5:30 p.m. (CT) when the Lady Toppers welcome Lee University to E.A. Diddle Arena to kick off a four-game homestand.

GAME #12 – WKU AT RV/NR BALL STATE

WKU (8-3, 0-0 C-USA) at RV/NR Ball State (10-0, 0-0 Mid-American)

December 21, 2017 | 6:00 p.m. (CT)

Muncie, Ind. | Worthen Arena (11,500)

QUICK SHOTS

- As of Dec. 19, WKU is ranked No. 34 in the latest NCAA RPI rankings and will face No. 28 Ball State on Thursday evening. WKU is the lone C-USA representative in the top 100 of the rankings, with Middle Tennessee second at No. 130.

- Tashia Brown leads C-USA and ranks sixth in the nation with 22.9 points per game in 2017-18. Brown has seven straight 20-point games and is one of only two Division I players (alongside Temple's Tanaya Atkinson) to have such a streak this season.

- Over the last four meetings between WKU and Ball State, both teams have defended their home court with a pair of victories. The Lady Toppers will be seeking their first win in Muncie since a 61-58 win on Nov. 16, 2009, on Thursday evening.

- Tashia Brown and Raneem Elgedawy each earned awards this week, with Brown capturing C-USA Player of the Week and College Sports Madness High-Major National Player of the Week and Elgedawy earning her third C-USA Freshman of the Week honor and becoming the first Lady Topper to win USBWA National Freshman of the Week.

- After allowing an average of 82.8 points per game across its first four matchups this season, WKU's defense has buckled down during its seven-game winning streak. During that stretch, the Lady Toppers are giving up only 55.7 points per game and have not allowed more than 63 points in any single contest.

- Just one week after Ivy Brown tied the program record with 16 points in the third quarter at Southern Illinois, Tashia Brown matched that mark in the third quarter against Toledo on Dec. 17. Brown scored 16 of the team's 18 points in the frame, including 14 straight points, and outscored the entire Toledo team, 16-13, over the 10-minute span.

- Already 13th in program history with 1,583 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season. To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 180 more points during her final season on The Hill.

- WKU has been very strong at collecting its own misses this season and has tallied nearly as many offensive rebounds as those on the defensive end. The Lady Toppers have pulled down a league-leading 16.2 offensive boards per game, and Ivy Brown ranks second among all C-USA players with 4.0 offensive rebounds per game. WKU's 16.2 offensive boards also ranks 29th in the nation among Division I teams.

- After knocking down two of her three three-pointers against Toledo, Sidnee Bopp now ranks second among C-USA players with her 48.7 three-point field goal percentage this season. Heading into Thursday's game at Ball State, Bopp is 19-of-39 from three-point range this season, and her 48.7 percent mark would currently set the program single-season record.

- WKU is currently shooting 164-of-214 (.766) from the free throw line this season, with only four players shooting below 80 percent among those who have attempted at least one free throw. The Lady Toppers'

164 made free throws are the most among C-USA teams, and their 76.6 percent success rate tops the league and ranks 19th in the nation.

- With a win on Thursday, WKU would continue an impressive run under Michelle Clark-Heard in games played prior to January 1. The Lady Toppers are 57-16 (.781) in such games since the beginning of the 2012-13 campaign.

- With five weekly awards (Tashia Brown's Player of the Week on Nov. 13 and Dec. 18 and Raneem Elgedawy's Freshman of the Week on Nov. 20, Dec. 4 and Dec. 20) this season, WKU has already exceeded its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

- With its come-from-behind win at Georgia State, WKU continued a strong trend under Michelle Clark-Heard of being able to rally from large deficits. Since the beginning of the 2015-16 season, WKU owns 11 victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.

- WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first 11 games this season.

- WKU owns an impressive record under Clark-Heard when breaking the 80-point barrier. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 50-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

- Through 11 games, Ivy Brown is approaching the top 10 in program history in total rebounds, needing just 55 more boards to break into that group. The Hodgenville, Ky., native is also tied for eighth in school history with 113 blocks and her 79.6 percent mark from the free throw line for her career is seventh among all Lady Toppers who have made at least 200 free throws.

WKU SET FOR THURSDAY EVENING CLASH AT UNDEFEATED BALL STATE

In its final game before the holidays, WKU will travel to Muncie, Ind., on Thursday evening for a battle at undefeated Ball State set for a 6 p.m. (CT) tipoff. Ball State enters the matchup on a 10-game winning streak, while WKU has won its last seven consecutive games.

At the West Palm Beach Invitational, the Lady Toppers took down Stetson and Toledo to extend their winning streak. Tashia Brown averaged 26.5 points against the Hatters and Rockets, Ivy Brown picked up a pair of double-doubles and Raneem Elgedawy continued her strong freshman season with her second double-double of the year against Stetson.

Tashia Brown (22.9 points per game) continues to lead all C-USA players in scoring and has tallied seven straight 20-point games for the Lady Toppers, the longest such stretch by any Lady Topper since Crystal Kelly had nine straight 20-point outings in 2006-07.

Ball State (10-0) sports five players in double figures, led by Moriah Monaco's 16.3 points per game; Destiny Washington (13.0), Carmen Grande (12.8), Jasmin Samz (11.9) and Frannie Frazier (10.7) round out the Cardinal quintet in double figures. Grande leads the team with 99 total assists, while Oshlynn Brown has pulled down a team-best 7.1 boards per game.

After Thursday's clash, WKU will be off until Friday, Dec. 29, at 5:30 p.m. (CT) when the Lady Toppers welcome Lee University to E.A. Diddle Arena to kick off a four-game homestand.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

► Tashia Brown and Raneem Elgedawy each earned awards this week, with Brown capturing C-USA Player of the Week and College Sports Madness High-Major National Player of the Week and Elgedawy earning her third C-USA Freshman of the Week honor and becoming the first Lady Topper to win USBWA National Freshman of the Week.

► Tashia Brown leads C-USA and ranks sixth in the nation with 22.9 points per game in 2017-18. Brown has seven straight 20-point games and is one of only two Division I players (alongside Temple's Tanaya Atkinson) to have such a streak this season.

► Over the last four meetings between WKU and Ball State, both teams have defended their home court with a pair of victories. The Lady Toppers will be seeking their first win in Muncie since a 61-58 win on Nov. 16, 2009, on Thursday evening.

GAME NOTES

MIXING NEWCOMERS WITH VETS

WKU is set to unveil a new-look roster in 2017-18, mixing five eligible newcomers with six returners. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown are set to lead the roster this season, with C-USA All-Tournament pick Sidnee Bopp, Dee Givens, Whitney Creech and Kayla Smith also back for the Lady Toppers.

Newcomers Raneem Elgedawy, Terri Smith, Nichel Tampa, Sherry Porter and Elizabeth Anderson will also be seeking to make their marks during their debut seasons on The Hill.

NEW VOICE OF THE LADY TOPPERS

Legendary WKU play-by-play announcer Barry Williams announced his retirement during the offseason after calling more than 1,000 games for the Lady Toppers.

Jevin Redman, a recent graduate of the University of Southern Indiana with an already well-decorated play-by-play career, made his regular season debut in WKU's upset of then-No. 16 Missouri.

KEEPING THE STREAK(S) GOING

WKU has won 20 or more games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that the Lady Toppers have had such a streak since 2004-05 to 2007-08.

In addition to that stretch, the Lady Toppers have accomplished the impressive feat of winning 27 or more games in each of the last three seasons, marking the first time that that has been done in the storied history of the program.

WKU has also posted four consecutive seasons with a winning streak of 10 or more games. The Lady Toppers are one of just eight programs in the nation with a 10-game winning streak in each of the last three seasons, joining perennial title contenders such as UConn, Maryland,

Notre Dame and Baylor.

CLARK-HEARD AT 130 WINS AND COUNTING

Michelle Clark-Heard has made an incredible impact on the Lady Toppers since taking over the program in 2012-13, amassing a 130-39 record over her first five seasons.

Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

By winning her 100th game in 2015-16, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

WKU PICKED SECOND IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After capturing the C-USA regular season and tournament titles last season, WKU has been picked second in the annual preseason coaches' poll. Despite garnering more first-place votes (eight) than Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers earned the runner-up spot and have been picked in the top three in each of their four C-USA campaigns.

BROWN, BROWN TABBED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE BY COACHES

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown have been selected to the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA team as selected by the league's coaches.

Both were honored as All-C-USA selections following the season in 2016-17, with Ivy garnering First Team honors and Tashia picked up Second Team accolades. Tashia Brown was also chosen to the 2016-17 Preseason All-C-USA Team and earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

Last season, the duo combined for 26.5 points and 12.3 rebounds per game, serving as two of WKU's "Big Three" alongside Kendall Noble. In 2017-18, the Browns appear poised to become one of the top one-two punches among all C-USA players.

THAT 80S SHOW

WKU broke the 80-point barrier nine times in 2016-17 and has scored 80 or more points on at least seven occasions per season since Michelle Clark-Heard assumed control of the program in 2012-13.

By winning eight of its nine contests in which it hit 80 points last season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 50-2 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together 14-1 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted a 65-12 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers had their 13-game winning streak inside Diddle Arena snapped in the loss to Notre Dame on Nov. 14. That streak was tied for the sixth-longest in program history and was WKU's longest since the 2015-16 season.

TOUGH UNDER PRESSURE

Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, the Lady Toppers have played 27 contests that have been decided by three or fewer points. In such games, WKU has posted a 19-9 record overall.

In the same vein, the Lady Toppers have been very tough closers down the stretch as well, recording a 127-12 record when leading or tied with five minutes remaining in games since 2012-13.

ONE OF A KIND

Preseason All-C-USA pick Ivy Brown returns as one of the top post players in the conference after averaging 13.1

JOINING THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown are poised to be two of the top C-USA players in 2017-18. Both are now members of WKU's 1,000-point club, with Tashia currently 13th in school history in scoring, and Ivy ranking 33rd in the WKU record book.

points and 8.2 rebounds per game with eight double-doubles last season.

Among all returning C-USA players, Brown is the lone individual who ranked in the top 15 in the league in both scoring (15th) and rebounding (fourth) last season.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Already 13th in program history with 1,583 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season.

To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 180 more points during her final season on The Hill; as a sophomore, the Lake Park, Ga., native totaled 579 points before adding 456 more last season.

STRONG AFTER LOSSES

In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 33-8; WKU suffered its first consecutive losses in the same season in nearly three years against Iowa and Notre Dame.

FAST STARTS FOR FRESHMEN

WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first 11 games this season.

WKU LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, Sweet 16 appearances, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

GAME NOTES

TOPS ON TOP OF RANKED TEAMS

For the third consecutive year, WKU earned a victory over a ranked opponent by taking down No. 16 Missouri, 79-76, on Nov. 10 in the Hawkeye Challenge.

With the victory, WKU secured its first streak of three seasons with at least one ranked victory since 1990-91 through 1992-93, a span that saw the Lady Toppers reach three NCAA Tournaments and make a Final Four appearance.

BRINGING HOME THE AWARDS

On Dec. 18, both Tashia Brown and Raneem Elgedawy were honored by the C-USA conference office for their strong efforts in three WKU victories the previous week.

Brown has earned a pair of C-USA Player of the Week honors this season, while Elgedawy has captured three C-USA Freshman of the Week laurels to match Brown's program record in the category.

With five weekly awards this season, WKU has already exceeded its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

Through WKU's first 11 games this season, Tashia Brown is averaging 22.9 points per game, a mark that leads all individual players in C-USA and ranks sixth among all Division I players.

Brown's current scoring rate is by far her career best for a single season and tops her 2016-17 rate by nearly nine points per game.

FEELING CHARITABLE

WKU is currently shooting 164-of-214 (.766) from the free throw line this season, with only four players shooting below 80 percent among those who have attempted at least one free throw.

The Lady Toppers' 164 made free throws are the most among C-USA teams, and their 76.6 percent success rate tops the league and ranks 19th in the nation.

COMEBACK QUEENS

With its come-from-behind win at Georgia State, WKU continued a strong trend under Michelle Clark-Heard of being able to rally from large deficits.

Since the beginning of the 2015-16 season, WKU owns 11 victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.

CRASHING THE OFFENSIVE GLASS

WKU has been very strong at collecting its own misses this season and has tallied nearly as many offensive rebounds as those on the defensive end.

The Lady Toppers have pulled down a league-leading 16.2 offensive boards per game, and Ivy Brown ranks second among all C-USA players with 4.0 offensive rebounds per game.

WKU's 16.2 offensive boards per game also rank 29th in the nation among Division I teams.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE TROUBLE

With three straight double-doubles against Mercer, Georgia State and Evansville, Ivy Brown became only the 12th player in program history to record 20 career points-rebounds double-doubles.

Brown joins former teammates Chastity Gooch (43) and Kendall Noble (20) as players who have reached that milestone.

RECORD BOOK WATCH

Through 11 games, Ivy Brown is approaching the top 10 in program history in total rebounds, needing just 55 more boards to break into that group. The Hodgenville, Ky., native is also tied for eighth in school history with 113 blocks and her 79.6 percent mark from the free throw line for her career is seventh among all Lady Toppers who have made at least 200 free throws.

Tashia Brown is also on pace to finish among the top 10 in school history for field goals made and attempted, minutes played and free throws made.

QUARTER FOR YOUR THOUGHTS

Just one week after Ivy Brown tied the program record with 16 points in the third quarter at Southern Illinois, Tashia Brown matched that mark in the third quarter against Toledo on Dec. 17.

Brown scored 16 of the team's 18 points in the frame, including 14 straight points, and outscored the entire Toledo team, 16-13, over the 10-minute span.

RPI WATCH

As of Dec. 19, WKU is ranked No. 34 in the latest NCAA RPI rankings and is set to face No. 28 Ball State on Thursday evening in Muncie.

WKU is the lone C-USA representative in the top 100 of the rankings, with Middle Tennessee second at No. 130.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

After allowing an average of 82.8 points per game across its first four matchups this season, WKU's defense has buckled down during its seven-game winning streak.

During that stretch, the Lady Toppers are giving up only 55.7 points per game and have not allowed more than 63 points in any single contest.

BOPP TO THE TOP

After knocking down two of her three three-pointers against Toledo, Sidnee Bopp now ranks second among C-USA players with her 48.7 three-point field goal percentage this season.

Heading into Thursday's game at Ball State, Bopp is 19-of-39 from three-point range this season, and her 48.7 percent mark would currently set the program single-season record.

GIRL ON FIRE

With seven straight 20-point outings, Tashia Brown is currently on the longest such streak by any Lady Topper since Crystal Kelly during the 2006-07 season.

Only one other Division I player, Temple's Tanaya Atkinson, has a streak of seven games or longer of scoring 20 points.

NATIONAL TREASURES

Not only did Tashia Brown and Raneem Elgedawy earn C-USA honors this week, both also garnered national attention.

Brown was named College Sports Madness' High-Major National Player of the Week for the second time this season, while Elgedawy became the first Lady Topper in program history to be named the US Basketball Writers' Association National Freshman of the Week.

LOOKING AHEAD

Following Thursday's battle at Ball State, the Lady Toppers will be off until Friday, Dec. 29, before returning home to E.A. Diddle Arena to face Lee University at 5:30 p.m. (CT).

The Lady Toppers and Flames have never met on the court, and the game will serve as WKU's non-conference finale before kicking off C-USA play against Middle Tennessee on Jan. 4.

MICHELLE CLARK-HEARD
Sixth Season

“What Michelle Clark-Heard has done is instilled pride back in Western Kentucky... Now with Michelle Clark-Heard, with the passion and pride she has, because she was a player at Western Kentucky, she is bringing that back to Bowling Green.”

-ESPN Analyst Carolyn Peck

Michelle Clark-Heard has quickly shaped the Western Kentucky University Lady Topper Basketball program back into a national name, putting the Lady Toppers back on the national map. In just three seasons at WKU as head coach, Clark-Heard has reached two NCAA Tournaments, won two conference tournament championships and a regular season conference title while posting 76 wins, the most in a coaches first three seasons in WKU women's basketball or men's basketball history.

Clark-Heard's third season directing her alma mater in 2014-15 was one of the best the storied program has seen. She led the Lady Toppers to a 30-5 record, posting a Conference USA record 30 wins in the program's first season as a league member.

The season began with the Lady Toppers making huge waves early by reaching the finals of the Preseason Women's NIT with wins at Colorado and over eventual American East Conference champion Albany before a loss on the road at Mississippi State. WKU also posted non-conference wins over Hofstra, Tulane and Ole Miss.

The Lady Toppers made an immediate impact in Conference USA, posting a 16-2 record to tie the league mark for league wins in a season, including eight wins on the road, to secure the program's first regular season league title as a Conference USA member and 11th in program history. In early January, she led the Lady Toppers to the Associated Press Top 25 Rankings for the first time since the 1997-98 season. She also became just the 10th coach in NCAA history to lead their alma mater into the Associated Press Top 25 rankings as both a player and coach when the Lady Toppers were ranked for two weeks in January 2015.

The Lady Toppers then won three games in three days by a combined eight points to secure a tournament title at the Conference USA Championships in Birmingham, Ala.

Following the season, Clark-Heard was recognized for her outstanding accomplishments, earning Conference USA Coach of the Year and 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I Regional Coach of the Year honors. Her selection as a WBCA Regional Coach of the Year also made her a finalist for the Pat Summitt Trophy, awarded annually to the 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year.

Her success at WKU has also helped her land new opportunities in the USA Basketball ranks. Clark-Heard was named an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Pan American Women's Basketball Team, joining head coach Lisa Bluder of the University of Iowa and fellow assistant coach Scott Rueck of Oregon State University on the 2015 staff.

In Toronto, Clark-Heard helped lead the United States to a silver medal in her international assistant coaching debut, falling just short in the gold medal game against the host Canadians.

In 2013-14, Clark-Heard helped WKU win its final seven regular season games before reeling off three straight in New Orleans, La. in March 2014 to win the Sun Belt Conference Championships with a 61-60 win over Arkansas State after WKU faced a 14-point deficit in the second half. The season

also saw WKU defeat Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic after facing a 16-point deficit in the second half.

The season was capped by a 87-74 loss to fifth-ranked Baylor in Waco, Texas in the opening round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament, ending the longest NCAA Tournament appearance drought in program history.

The run to the tournament helped WKU secure a 24-9 record and finish with 20-wins for the second straight season. Her consecutive 20-win seasons to begin her time at WKU marked the first time in Sun Belt Conference history that a team had won 20 games in back-to-back years following a season in which it had won less than 10 games.

Her success in 2013-14 followed a massive improvement on the floor in 2012-13.

In her first year as a Division One coach in 2012-13, Clark-Heard helped WKU to a 13-win improvement over the 2011-12 season output. It was the largest in Sun Belt Conference history as WKU turned a 9-21 mark into a 22-11 record. WKU's eight win improvement in conference play from five wins to 13 wins was tied for the largest in league history. The Lady Toppers also became the first team in Sun Belt Conference history to win 20 games in the season following a year in which the team won less than 10 games earlier this season.

Her first season at WKU also showcased her ability to develop players. The duo of Chastity Gooch and Alexis Govan averaged a combined 12.7 ppg in 2011-12 but posted 36.5 per outing in 2012-13. The duo combined for 1,203 points after posting 381 last season. The team also saw major improvement in nearly all statistical categories, including improving free throw shooting by over 11 percent to .739, the third highest mark in school history.

Clark-Heard spent five years as an assistant coach to Jeff Walz at Louisville. During her time with the program, the Cardinals made three Sweet 16 appearances and made their first Final Four appearance, finishing as the National Runner-Up in 2009. A roster she helped build also reached the Final Four in 2013 after beating No. 1 Baylor and national power Tennessee in the regional semifinals and finals. Clark-Heard was instrumental in bringing in the No. 12 recruiting class in 2008, then followed with three consecutive Top 10 classes in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The 2010 recruiting class was the highest ranked class in school history, ranked fifth in the nation.

Among the most notable players Clark-Heard coached at Louisville was overall number one pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, Angel McCoughtry and overall number eight pick in the 2013 WNBA Draft, Shoni Shimmel. Overall, she coached five players at Louisville that went on to be drafted in the WNBA Draft.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Clark-Heard spent two seasons as the head coach at Kentucky State, taking the reigns of the program in June 2005. She took over a program that had won just one game during the 2004-05 season. In her first season she led the Thorobrettes to a 5-23 record, four of the wins were against Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opponents. Her team was picked to finish 11th

in the SIAC but ended the season in ninth place. In her second season at KSU, she guided the Thorobrettes to an impressive 19-9 record, finishing tied for fourth place in the SIAC. Clark-Heard earned SIAC Coach-of-the-Year honors after the impressive turnaround. Her 2006-07 Thorobrettes were the second most improved team in NCAA Division II women's basketball during the 2006-07 season.

Before being named head coach at Kentucky State, Clark-Heard spent three seasons at Cincinnati as an assistant and four years at Nebraska in the same role. The Bearcats advanced to postseason play in two of her three seasons there while she helped Nebraska reach the NCAA Tournament twice during her time with the team. She was also responsible for helping sign McDonald's All-American Janice Bright for the Cornhuskers in 2001 while coaching alongside current Louisville coach Jeff Walz and under former WKU coach Paul Sanderford.

A four-year letterwinner on the Hill (1987-90), Clark-Heard was part of four NCAA Tournament teams during her Lady Topper career. She also helped guide the Lady Toppers to a pair of Sun Belt Conference Tournament championships (1988 and 1989) and two conference regular-season titles (1989 and 1990). She played in 118 games during her four years in the Hill, scoring 790 points and pulling down 615 rebounds. WKU amassed 89 victories during her four years in uniform, winning 70 percent of the games over that span and putting together three 20-win seasons.

Upon graduation from WKU, she spent eight years working within a recreational setting, five in Bowling Green and three with the Louisville Metro Parks Department. While in Louisville, she also served as head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at DuPont Manual High School for the 1994-95 seasons and played professionally with the Kentucky Marauders of the Women's Basketball Association in 1994-95.

The Louisville native earned Kentucky High School State Player of the Year honors in 1986 while playing at Atherton High School and was inducted into the Atherton Hall of Fame in 2003.

She was married on August 16, 2003 to Luther Heard.

GAME NOTES

GAME #1

WKU 79, No. 16/16 Missouri 76

Nov. 10, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) - Tashia Brown scored 13 of WKU's 18 points in the fourth quarter and finished with 30 as the Lady Toppers opened the season with a 79-76 upset of No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon at the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The Tigers took their last lead at 66-65 with 3:35 to play on two free throws by Sophie Cunningham, but Brown quickly responded with a three-pointer. Cunningham tied the game at 70 with a layup with 2:04 to go and Sidnee Bopp answered that with a 3-pointer.

Brown scored the last six points for WKU in the final minute, including a contested pull-up jumper with 17.5 seconds to play and two free throws with 1.1 to go.

Dee Givens added 20 points for the Lady Toppers, who outscored Missouri 27-17 in the second quarter to lead 45-35 at the half. It is the third-straight season that WKU has knocked off a Top 25 team, the longest such streak for the Lady Toppers since 1990-91 through 1992-93.

GAME #2

Iowa 104, WKU 97 (OT)

Nov. 11, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa - Senior Ivy Brown had a career-high 31 points on 12-of-16 shooting and the Lady Toppers led for much of the afternoon, but WKU fell 104-97 in overtime against Iowa in the title game of the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge on Saturday afternoon inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Brown was named to the All-Tournament Team after her career-best performance that also included six three-pointers; she was joined on the All-Tournament Team by fellow senior Tashia Brown, who added 16 points after tallying 30 in WKU's 79-76 win over No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon.

WKU connected on a school-record 14 three-pointers against the Hawkeyes, finishing with a 14-of-26 (53.8 percent) mark from beyond the arc.

Both sides exchanged big runs to begin the fourth quarter; WKU pushed its lead to 10 points, 85-75, after a 10-3 run, but Iowa responded with 13 straight points to take an 88-85 lead with 3:41 to play. Ivy Brown's three-pointer tied the game back up 20 seconds later, and Gustafson's free throws with 35 seconds to play forced the ninth tie of the game at 93-93.

Sevillian's three-pointer to open the overtime frame gave the Hawkeyes a 96-93 lead, and the Lady Toppers were unable to retake the lead down the stretch as Iowa claimed the 104-97 victory.

GAME #3

No. 6/5 Notre Dame 78, RV/- WKU 65

Nov. 14, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) - Jessica Shepard helped Notre Dame pass its first road test of the season. She had 19 points and 12 rebounds and the No. 6/5 Irish beat WKU 78-65 on Tuesday evening inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

Arike Ogunbowale and Mikayla Vaughn scored 21 and 17 points for the four-time defending Atlantic Coast Conference champs. Notre Dame led 37-28 at halftime and then held steady in the second half, stretching the lead to as wide a margin as 73-59 after WKU got as close as 57-51 early in the fourth quarter.

Tashia Brown scored 25 points for the Lady Toppers, but was just 6-for-25 from the field. Fellow WKU senior Ivy Brown, who came in averaging 18.5 points per game, scored just two points in 35 minutes of play Tuesday and eventually fouled out.

"This is what it was about when we made the schedule to see where we're at as a program and it showed us a lot today and showed us a lot in these past three games, we're getting close," WKU head coach Michelle Clark-Heard said. "We've just got to continue to keep building and bringing players and that's our most important thing."

GAME #4

RV/RV Indiana 73, RV/- WKU 71

Nov. 17, 2017 - Bloomington, Ind. - Assembly Hall

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Sophomore Whitney Creech scored a career-best 25 points on 10-of-16 shooting and WKU erased a 15-point third-quarter deficit, but fell just short, 73-71, against Indiana inside Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall on Friday evening.

Creech scored 11 of her 25 points in the fourth quarter and spurred WKU's strong comeback attempt. The Jenkins, Ky., native followed up her 17-point performance against Notre Dame on Tuesday with another career-best performance on Friday; she finished with multiple three-pointers for the second time in her career, knocking down two of her three chances on the night.

WKU completely erased the 15-point hole and surged into the lead with just over two minutes to play, taking a 71-68 lead after a steal from Sherry Porter that set up a pullup jumper from Creech. On Indiana's next possession, however, Buss knocked down a three-pointer from the corner to again tie the game at 71-71.

Looking to win in regulation or force overtime, the Lady Toppers were unable to stop Buss as she drove into the lane on Indiana's final offensive possession. Creech had a look at a long three-pointer as time expired, but her chance hit the backboard and rimmed out as WKU fell just short, 73-71.

GAME NOTES

GAME #5

RV/- WKU 67, Mercer 62

Nov. 24, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Facing its first deficit of the night with just over 90 seconds remaining, WKU rallied to score 10 of the game's final 12 points to earn a 67-62 victory over Mercer on Friday evening in the 2017 Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown and Ivy Brown led WKU with 21 points apiece; Ivy Brown's first basket of the night also pushed her over the 1,000-point mark for her WKU career, making her the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. Ivy Brown also secured her first double-double of the season with a game-high 14 rebounds.

Jumpers on two straight possessions from Tashia Brown and Creech to open the fourth quarter pushed WKU's lead back to eight points, 56-48, but the Bears responded with a 10-1 run spanning the next seven minutes to grab a 60-57 lead over the Lady Toppers.

Despite facing that deficit, however, WKU stepped up and scored 10 of the game's final 12 points to secure the victory. All 10 of WKU's points in the final 1:43 of the game came from the free throw line; Kayla Smith's pair of shots with 1:05 remaining put the Lady Toppers back in front, and another pair of shots from the charity stripe by Porter with just five seconds remaining iced the 67-62 victory.

GAME #6

RV/- WKU 74, Georgia State 63

Nov. 26, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Trailing by seven points midway through the third quarter, WKU forced 16 second-half turnovers against Georgia State and rallied past the Panthers to win the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic, 74-63, on Sunday afternoon inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown was named Tournament MVP after her 27-point performance on Sunday, 20 of which came in the second half. Ivy Brown joined her on the All-Tournament Team after registering her second straight double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds, and Dee Givens rounded out the WKU trio in double figures with 11 points. The in-season tournament victory was the fifth in six seasons under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard.

The Panthers took their largest lead of the night, seven points, on three different occasions early in the third quarter, the final time coming after Newby's fast-break layup gave Georgia State a 46-39 edge with 6:08 to play. From that point, however, WKU answered with eight straight points, including four straight from Whitney Creech to cap the stretch and give the Lady Toppers their first lead, 46-45, since early in the contest.

Over the last quarter, WKU would not ever relinquish its lead as the Lady Toppers forced 10 Panther turnovers and created 11 points off those takeaways, allowing WKU to claim the 74-63 victory for its first true road win of the season.

GAME NOTES

GAME #7
WKU 92, Evansville 54
 Nov. 30, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Double-double efforts from both Raneem Elgedawy and Ivy Brown and a balanced scoring effort with four players in double figures helped WKU to a 92-54 win over Evansville inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Thursday evening, the third consecutive win for the Lady Toppers.

Elgedawy hit career highs with 19 points and 10 rebounds and Ivy Brown notched her third consecutive double-double with 12 points and 10 boards to lead the Lady Toppers (4-3). C-USA's leading scorer, Tashia Brown, finished with a game-high 20 points on 9-of-19 shooting from the floor, and freshman Sherry Porter rounded out the quartet in double figures with 16 points, 10 of which came in the final quarter of play.

Evansville put together a 10-2 run early in the third quarter to slash WKU's lead back under 20 points, but WKU fired back by scoring nine of the final 11 points of the frame to push the lead back to 24 points, 73-49.

The Lady Toppers never allowed the Purple Aces any closer than that in the fourth quarter and finished the game on an 11-0 run over the final 6:18 of the game to reach the final scoreline. Porter scored six points during the run for the Lady Toppers and finished with 10 points in the final quarter alone.

GAME #8
WKU 75, Southern Illinois 49
 Dec. 10, 2017 - Carbondale, Ill. - SIU Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Ivy Brown matched a program record with 16 points in the third quarter and both she and Tashia Brown finished with a game-high 20 points as WKU returned from its exam break with a 75-49 victory over Southern Illinois inside SIU Arena on Sunday afternoon.

Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown each finished with 20 points for the Lady Toppers (5-3) to lead all scorers, giving WKU at least one 20-point scorer in seven of its first eight games this season. Ivy Brown tallied 16 of her 20 points in the third quarter, knocking down four three-pointers without a miss, en route to matching the program record for points by one player in a single quarter.

Ivy Brown sparked WKU's 16-1 run early in the third quarter, knocking down three triples on three straight possessions for the Lady Toppers to stretch the advantage to 54-31. Brown would go on to knock down another shot from beyond the arc and two layups in the quarter to reach her program-record total of 16 points in the 10-minute frame.

Over the final quarter, WKU did not allow the Salukis to close the gap under 20 points as the Lady Toppers coasted to the 75-49 victory.

GAME NOTES

GAME #9

WKU 87, Mississippi Valley State 48

Dec. 12, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Tashia Brown scored a game-high 26 points and was one of four Lady Toppers in double figures as WKU cruised past Mississippi Valley State, 87-48, on Tuesday evening inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

The 26-point outburst was Brown's seventh 20-point outing of the season, and she was joined in double figures by Ivy Brown (15), Raneem Elgedawy (12) and Sidnee Bopp (12). Bopp was strong from beyond the arc on Tuesday, knocking down four of her five chances from three-point range, and helped the Lady Toppers (6-3) to a 9-of-20 (45.0 percent) mark on three-pointers as a team.

Trailing by 20 points early in the third quarter, Mississippi Valley State cut back into WKU's lead with a three-pointer from Floyd and a fast-break layup off the hands of Bassett, leaving the Lady Toppers with a 45-30 advantage midway through the frame.

That would be the closest that the Devilettes would come, however, as WKU used another big 10-0 run to rebuild its 20-point edge.

In the fourth quarter, WKU did not allow Mississippi Valley State any closer than 26 points and led by as many as 40 before reaching the final 87-48 scoreline.

GAME #10

WKU 66, Stetson 58

Dec. 16, 2017 - West Palm Beach, Fla. - Student Life Center

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. - Tashia Brown extended her 20-point scoring streak to six straight games with a game-high 24 points and WKU held on for a 66-58 victory over Stetson in the opening game of the 2017 West Palm Beach Invitational inside the Countess de Hoernle Student Life Center on Saturday afternoon.

With her sixth consecutive 20-point game, Tashia Brown became the first Lady Topper to accomplish that feat since the program's all-time leading scorer, Crystal Kelly, also did so during the 2007-08 campaign. Brown was joined in double figures by Raneem Elgedawy (13), Ivy Brown (12) and Whitney Creech (10).

WKU used the strength of an 11-4 run to erase the deficit in the third quarter. Four different Lady Toppers scored during the run, including a pair of pullup jumpers from Creech, and a fast-break layup by Tashia Brown reestablished a 35-32 lead for the Lady Toppers at the 4:41 mark.

WKU's lead grew to as many as seven points before the end of the third quarter, and the Lady Toppers took a 46-39 edge into the final 10 minutes.

During the fourth quarter, Stetson closed within four points three times, but the Lady Toppers refused to allow them any closer than that. WKU's final six points came from the charity stripe as the Lady Toppers held off the Hatters down the stretch for the 66-58 win.

GAME NOTES

GAME #11 WKU 70, Toledo 56

Dec. 17, 2017 - West Palm Beach, Fla. - Student Life Center

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. - Tashia Brown matched the program record with 16 points in the third quarter and finished with a game-high 29 points on the afternoon as WKU defeated Toledo, 70-56, to conclude play at the 2017 West Palm Beach Invitational inside the Countess de Hoernle Student Life Center on Sunday afternoon.

Brown scored 16 of WKU's (8-3) 18 points in the third quarter to spark the Lady Toppers to their seventh consecutive win. For the day, she finished 12-of-21 from the floor and also pulled down nine rebounds, falling just shy of a double-double.

In the third quarter, Tashia Brown took over for the Lady Toppers, scoring 16 of the team's 18 points in the period. Each time that Toledo would look to make a run, a basket from Brown would rebuild the three-possession lead for WKU, and the lead grew to 10 points, 55-45, by the end of the quarter.

Over the final 10 minutes, WKU did not allow Toledo any closer than seven points as the Lady Toppers closed out the 70-56 win to close their time at the West Palm Beach Invitational.

WKU FALLS 93-81 AT BALL STATE THURSDAY NIGHT

PDF Box Score and Postgame Notes Attached

MUNCIE, Ind. – Tashia Brown scored a game-high 25 points, but WKU was unable to overcome a hot-shooting Ball State team on the road on Thursday evening, falling 93-81 against the Cardinals inside Worthen Arena.

Brown's eight straight 20-point games currently mark the longest active streak in the category among Division I players, and 20 of her 25 points for the Lady Toppers (8-4) came after the halftime break. WKU saw its seven-game winning streak snapped with the setback.

Ivy Brown finished the evening with 19 points and was one of four Lady Toppers in double figures. Dee Givens (15) and Raneem Elgedawy (11) rounded out the WKU quartet in double figures. Elgedawy fell just one rebound short of a double-double, and Tashia Brown (8) and Ivy Brown (7) also came up just short of double-doubles.

Moriah Monaco led Ball State (11-0) with 24 points and was one of six Cardinals to reach double figures; Destiny Washington (15), Maliah Howard-Bass (12), Oshlynn Brown (12), Carmen Grande (11) and Jasmin Samz (11) rounded out the group. Grande tallied a double-double by adding 12 assists, and Washington (9) and Brown (8) nearly captured double-doubles.

As a team, Ball State knocked down 13 of their 29 chances (44.8 percent) from beyond the arc on the night. From the field, WKU finished 28-of-72 (38.9 percent) on Thursday evening.

Ball State jumped out to an early lead after scoring the first five points of the evening, but WKU fired back with a 9-2 run to grab its first lead. Ivy Brown keyed the stretch with a pair of early three-pointers, and Whitney Creech turned a Cardinal turnover into a jumper to cap the run and give the Lady Toppers a 9-7 edge at the 5:34 mark.

Tied 14-14 two minutes later, the Cardinals used a run of their own to retake the lead, scoring seven unanswered points. Monaco netted five of the points for Ball State and Brown's layup handed Ball State a 21-14 lead.

After the Ball State lead grew to as many as nine points late in the first quarter, WKU fired off eight consecutive points early in the second frame to get back within one point, 28-27. Three different Lady Toppers scored during the short run with another four points coming from Ivy Brown, which forced Ball State into a timeout just 65 seconds into the second quarter.

Another long run, this time 8-2 from the Cardinals, put them ahead for good through the halftime break. Ball State's lead stretched to as many as 12 points, but the Lady Toppers managed to battle back to a single-digit deficit, 46-38, heading into the locker room.

WKU closed the gap to six points three times in the opening minutes of the third quarter, but the Cardinals were able to pull away each time. An 8-0 run by Ball State midway through the frame gave the Cardinals a 17-point lead, 63-46, following Samz's three-pointer at the 4:17 mark.

Over the final quarter of play, WKU was unable to cut the deficit back to single digits. The Lady Toppers scored the final eight points of the game, including a pair of three pointers from Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown, to reach the final 93-81 scoreline.

WKU will now be off until next Friday, Dec. 29, when the Lady Toppers will welcome Lee University into E.A. Diddle Arena at 5:30 p.m. (CT). The Lady Toppers and Flames have never met on the hardwood, and the matchup will serve as the non-conference finale for WKU; the Lady Toppers will open C-USA play on Thursday, Jan. 4, with a home battle against archrival Middle Tennessee.

WKU Lady Toppers at RV/NR Ball State Cardinals

Postgame Notes

December 21, 2017

Worthen Arena; Muncie, Ind.

FINAL SCORE: RV/NR Ball State 93, WKU 81

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU dropped to 8-4 on the season and had its seven-game winning streak snapped. Ball State moves to 11-0.
- WKU falls to 3-4 all-time against the Cardinals and has dropped its last three meetings between the two sides played inside Worthen Arena.
- NEXT UP: WKU will now be off until next Friday, Dec. 29, when the Lady Toppers will welcome Lee University into E.A. Diddle Arena at 5:30 p.m. (CT). The Lady Toppers and Flames have never met on the hardwood, and the matchup will serve as the non-conference finale for WKU; the Lady Toppers will open C-USA play on Thursday, Jan. 4, with a home battle against archrival Middle Tennessee.

Team Notes

- WKU returned to its starting lineup of Whitney Creech, Sherry Porter, Tashia Brown, Ivy Brown and Raneem Elgedawy on Sunday. The lineup dropped to 5-1 when starting together this season.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: Trailing by nine points, 28-19, late in the first quarter, the Lady Toppers used an 8-0 run to climb back within one point, 28-27, early in the second frame. Ivy Brown keyed the stretch with four points and was one of three different Lady Toppers to score during the run.
- WKU trailed Ball State, 46-38, at the halftime break and fell to 1-2 when trailing at halftime this season.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: Down 20 points with 3:25 to play, WKU scored the final eight points of the game to close the final gap to 12 points. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown each knocked down a three-pointer during the final run, and Sherry Porter capped the run with a fast-break layup with 26 seconds left on the clock.
- WKU's 19 made free throws were tied for its second-most in a single game this season, trailing only the 29 made against Mercer on Nov. 24.
- The Lady Toppers pulled down 24 offensive rebounds, the second-best mark this season after having 25 against Notre Dame on Nov. 14.
- WKU dropped to 50-3 when scoring 80 points or more under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard.

Individual Notes

- Tashia Brown scored a game-high 25 points to lead the Lady Toppers on Thursday evening.
  - Brown scored 20 of her 25 points in the second half.
  - Brown matched her career high with 25 attempted field goals, finishing 8-of-25 (.320) on the night.
  - Brown now has eight consecutive 20-point games dating back to Nov. 24 against Mercer. With Temple's Tanaya Atkinson failing to reach the mark on Thursday, Brown now holds the longest active 20-point streak in the nation.
- Ivy Brown fell just short of a double-double with 19 points and seven rebounds.
- Dee Givens tallied 15 points, her most since scoring 16 at Iowa on Nov. 11.
  - Givens also dealt out a career-best five assists to lead the team.
- Raneem Elgedawy, the reigning USBWA National Freshman of the Week, was just one rebound short of a double-double with 11 points and nine rebounds, including six offensive boards.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - In its 2017-18 non-conference finale, WKU is set to host Division II Lee University on Friday evening at 5:30 p.m. (CT) inside E.A. Diddle Arena. The Lady Toppers have won seven of their last eight games, while Lee fell to North Alabama, 63-62, in its last time out on Dec. 18.

WKU had its seven-game winning streak snapped on the road at Ball State in its last game prior to the holiday break, falling 93-81 against the Cardinals. Tashia Brown was one of four Lady Toppers in double figures with 25 points, Ivy Brown added 19 and Dee Givens (15) and Raneem Elgedawy (11) rounded out the quartet.

Tashia Brown (23.1 points per game) continues to lead all C-USA players in scoring and has tallied eight straight 20-point games for the Lady Toppers, the longest active streak among Division I players this season.

Lee University (9-3) is led by a pair of players in double figures in Erin Walsh (14.3) and Carrie Cheeks (10.8); Cheeks is also the team's leading rebounder at an 8.3 per game clip. Through 12 games, the Flames are attempting just under 25 three-pointers per game and connect from deep at a 33.7 percent rate.

WKU will open C-USA play against archrival Middle Tennessee next Thursday, Jan. 4, at 7 p.m. inside Diddle Arena as the Lady Toppers seek their fourth straight win in the rivalry.

GAME #13 – WKU VS. LEE UNIVERSITY

WKU (8-4, 0-0 C-USA) vs. Lee University (9-3, 2-2 Gulf South)

December 29, 2017 | 5:30 p.m. (CT)

Bowling Green, Ky. | E.A. Diddle Arena (7,326)

QUICK SHOTS

- As of Dec. 27, WKU is ranked No. 26 in the latest NCAA RPI rankings and has faced three teams in the top 30 in Notre Dame, Missouri and Ball State. WKU is the lone C-USA representative in the top 100 of the rankings, with UTEP second at No. 131.

- Tashia Brown leads C-USA and is tied for fourth in the nation with 23.1 points per game in 2017-18. Brown has eight straight 20-point games and has the longest such streak among Division I players this season.

- Already 12th in program history with 1,608 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season. To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 155 more points during her final season on The Hill.

- Through 12 games, Ivy Brown is approaching the top 10 in program history in total rebounds, needing just 48 more boards to break into that group. The Hodgenville, Ky., native is also tied for eighth in school history with 115 blocks and her 79.7 percent mark from the free throw line for her career is sixth among all Lady Toppers who have made at least 200 free throws.

- Since the 2000-01 campaign, WKU has squared off against just one other non-Division I opponent in regular season action prior to Friday's bout with Lee University, defeating Alaska-Anchorage, 62-58, in the Great Alaska Shootout championship game on Nov. 25, 2015.

- Through 12 games, WKU leads C-USA and is tied for 13th in the country from the free throw line, going 183-of-237 (77.2 percent) from the charity stripe. The Lady Toppers' 183 made free throws are the most among all C-USA teams, and WKU has shot 80 percent or better in five games this season.
- After allowing an average of 82.8 points per game across its first four matchups this season, WKU's defense has buckled down over its last eight games. During that stretch, the Lady Toppers are giving up only 60.4 points per game and have allowed more than 63 points just one time over that same span.
- Just one week after Ivy Brown tied the program record with 16 points in the third quarter at Southern Illinois, Tashia Brown matched that mark in the third quarter against Toledo on Dec. 17. Brown scored 16 of the team's 18 points in the frame, including 14 straight points, and outscored the entire Toledo team, 16-13, over the 10-minute span.
- WKU has been very strong at collecting its own misses this season and has tallied nearly as many offensive rebounds as those on the defensive end. The Lady Toppers have pulled down a league-leading 16.8 offensive boards per game, and Ivy Brown ranks second among all C-USA players with 4.0 offensive rebounds per game. WKU's 16.8 offensive boards also ranks 23rd in the nation among Division I teams.
- After knocking down 11 of her last 18 three-point attempts, Sidnee Bopp now ranks second among C-USA players with her 47.6 three-point field goal percentage this season. Heading into Thursday's game at Ball State, Bopp is 20-of-42 from three-point range this season, and her 47.6 percent mark would currently rank second on the program's single-season charts.
- In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 33-8; WKU suffered its first consecutive losses in the same season in nearly three years against Iowa and Notre Dame.
- With five weekly awards (Tashia Brown's Player of the Week on Nov. 13 and Dec. 18 and Raneem Elgedawy's Freshman of the Week on Nov. 20, Dec. 4 and Dec. 20) this season, WKU has already exceeded its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.
- WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy (12) and Sherry Porter (6) have been consistent starters for the Lady Toppers this season.
- WKU owns an impressive record under Clark-Heard when breaking the 80-point barrier. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 50-3 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

LADY TOPPERS ROUND OUT NON-CONFERENCE PLAY VS. LEE FRIDAY EVENING

In its 2017-18 non-conference finale, WKU is set to host Division II Lee University on Friday evening at 5:30 p.m. (CT) inside E.A. Diddle Arena. The Lady Toppers have won seven of their last eight games, while Lee fell to North Alabama, 63-62, in its last time out on Dec. 18.

WKU had its seven-game winning streak snapped on the road at Ball State in its last game prior to the holiday break, falling 93-81 against the Cardinals. Tashia Brown was one of four Lady Toppers in double figures with 25 points, Ivy Brown added 19 and Dee Givens (15) and Raneem Elgedawy (11) rounded out the quartet.

Tashia Brown (23.1 points per game) continues to lead all C-USA players in scoring and has tallied eight straight 20-point games for the Lady Toppers, the longest active streak among Division I players this season.

Lee University (9-3) is led by a pair of players in double figures in Erin Walsh (14.3) and Carrie Cheeks (10.8); Cheeks is also the team's leading rebounder at an 8.3 per game clip. Through 12 games, the Flames are attempting just under 25 three-pointers per game and connect from deep at a 33.7 percent rate.

WKU will open C-USA play against archrival Middle Tennessee next Thursday, Jan. 4, at 7 p.m. inside Diddle Arena as the Lady Toppers seek their fourth straight win in the rivalry.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

► Through 12 games, WKU leads C-USA and is tied for 13th in the country from the free throw line, going 183-of-237 (77.2 percent) from the charity stripe. The Lady Toppers' 183 made free throws are the most among all C-USA teams, and WKU has shot 80 percent or better in five games this season.

► Tashia Brown leads C-USA and is tied for fourth in the nation with 23.1 points per game in 2017-18. Brown has eight straight 20-point games, the longest active streak among Division I players entering Friday evening's clash.

► Since the 2000-01 campaign, WKU has squared off against just one other non-Division I opponent in regular season action prior to Friday's bout with Lee University, defeating Alaska-Anchorage, 62-58, in the Great Alaska Shootout championship game on Nov. 25, 2015.

GAME NOTES

MIXING NEWCOMERS WITH VETS

WKU is set to unveil a new-look roster in 2017-18, mixing five eligible newcomers with six returners. Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown are set to lead the roster this season, with C-USA All-Tournament pick Sidnee Bopp, Dee Givens, Whitney Creech and Kayla Smith also back for the Lady Toppers.

Newcomers Raneem Elgedawy, Terri Smith, Nichel Tampa, Sherry Porter and Elizabeth Anderson will also be seeking to make their marks during their debut seasons on The Hill.

NEW VOICE OF THE LADY TOPPERS

Legendary WKU play-by-play announcer Barry Williams announced his retirement during the offseason after calling more than 1,000 games for the Lady Toppers.

Jevin Redman, a recent graduate of the University of Southern Indiana with an already well-decorated play-by-play career, made his regular season debut in WKU's upset of then-No. 16 Missouri.

KEEPING THE STREAK(S) GOING

WKU has won 20 or more games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that the Lady Toppers have had such a streak since 2004-05 to 2007-08.

In addition to that stretch, the Lady Toppers have accomplished the impressive feat of winning 27 or more games in each of the last three seasons, marking the first time that that has been done in the storied history of the program.

WKU has also posted four consecutive seasons with a winning streak of 10 or more games. The Lady Toppers are one of just eight programs in the nation with a 10-game winning streak in each of the last three seasons, joining perennial title contenders such as UConn, Maryland,

Notre Dame and Baylor.

CLARK-HEARD AT 130 WINS AND COUNTING

Michelle Clark-Heard has made an incredible impact on the Lady Toppers since taking over the program in 2012-13, amassing a 130-39 record over her first five seasons.

Clark-Heard's 130 wins over her first five seasons with the program are the most in that category of any coach in school history, surpassing the legendary Paul Sanderford's mark of 127 from 1982-83 through 1986-87.

By winning her 100th game in 2015-16, Clark-Heard also became just the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in their first four years at the Division I level.

WKU PICKED SECOND IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After capturing the C-USA regular season and tournament titles last season, WKU has been picked second in the annual preseason coaches' poll. Despite garnering more first-place votes (eight) than Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers earned the runner-up spot and have been picked in the top three in each of their four C-USA campaigns.

BROWN, BROWN TABBED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE BY COACHES

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown have been selected to the 2017-18 Preseason All-C-USA team as selected by the league's coaches.

Both were honored as All-C-USA selections following the season in 2016-17, with Ivy garnering First Team honors and Tashia picked up Second Team accolades. Tashia Brown was also chosen to the 2016-17 Preseason All-C-USA Team and earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

Last season, the duo combined for 26.5 points and 12.3 rebounds per game, serving as two of WKU's "Big Three" alongside Kendall Noble. In 2017-18, the Browns appear poised to become one of the top one-two punches among all C-USA players.

THAT 80S SHOW

WKU broke the 80-point barrier nine times in 2016-17 and has scored 80 or more points on at least seven occasions per season since Michelle Clark-Heard assumed control of the program in 2012-13.

By winning eight of its nine contests in which it hit 80 points last season, WKU also extended an impressive streak under Clark-Heard. The Lady Toppers have posted a near-perfect 50-3 mark when scoring 80 or more since the 2012-13 season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together 14-1 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted a 65-12 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers had their 13-game winning streak inside Diddle Arena snapped in the loss to Notre Dame on Nov. 14. That streak was tied for the sixth-longest in program history and was WKU's longest since the 2015-16 season.

TOUGH UNDER PRESSURE

Since Michelle Clark-Heard took over the program, the Lady Toppers have played 27 contests that have been decided by three or fewer points. In such games, WKU has posted a 19-9 record overall.

In the same vein, the Lady Toppers have been very tough closers down the stretch as well, recording a 127-12 record when leading or tied with five minutes remaining in games since 2012-13.

ONE OF A KIND

Preseason All-C-USA pick Ivy Brown returns as one of the top post players in the conference after averaging 13.1

JOINING THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Seniors Tashia and Ivy Brown are poised to be two of the top C-USA players in 2017-18. Both are now members of WKU's 1,000-point club, with Tashia currently 12th in school history in scoring, and Ivy ranking 31st in the WKU record book.

points and 8.2 rebounds per game with eight double-doubles last season.

Among all returning C-USA players, Brown is the lone individual who ranked in the top 15 in the league in both scoring (15th) and rebounding (fourth) last season.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Already 12th in program history with 1,608 career points, Tashia Brown is looking to move even further up the charts during her senior season.

To move into the top 10 in school history, Brown would need to score 155 more points during her final season on The Hill; as a sophomore, the Lake Park, Ga., native totaled 579 points before adding 456 more last season.

STRONG AFTER LOSSES

In games immediately following a loss since Michelle Clark-Heard took over in 2012-13, the Lady Toppers are 33-8; WKU suffered its first consecutive losses in the same season in nearly three years against Iowa and Notre Dame.

FAST STARTS FOR FRESHMEN

WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last four seasons. Tashia Brown earned five starts in 2014-15, Kayla Smith drew 31 starts in 2015-16, Sarah Price appeared in the starting lineup five times in 2016-17 and Raneem Elgedawy has started WKU's first 12 games this season.

WKU LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, Sweet 16 appearances, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

GAME NOTES

TOPS ON TOP OF RANKED TEAMS

For the third consecutive year, WKU earned a victory over a ranked opponent by taking down No. 16 Missouri, 79-76, on Nov. 10 in the Hawkeye Challenge.

With the victory, WKU secured its first streak of three seasons with at least one ranked victory since 1990-91 through 1992-93, a span that saw the Lady Toppers reach three NCAA Tournaments and make a Final Four appearance.

BRINGING HOME THE AWARDS

On Dec. 18, both Tashia Brown and Raneem Elgedawy were honored by the C-USA conference office for their strong efforts in three WKU victories the previous week.

Brown has earned a pair of C-USA Player of the Week honors this season, while Elgedawy has captured three C-USA Freshman of the Week laurels to match Brown's program record in the category.

With five weekly awards this season, WKU has already exceeded its total from the entire 2016-17 campaign.

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

Through WKU's first 12 games this season, Tashia Brown is averaging 23.1 points per game, a mark that leads all individual players in C-USA and ranks fourth among all Division I players.

Brown's current scoring rate is by far her career best for a single season and tops her 2016-17 rate by nearly nine points per game.

FEELING CHARITABLE

WKU is currently shooting 183-of-237 (.772) from the free throw line this season, with only four players shooting below 80 percent among those who have attempted at least one free throw.

The Lady Toppers' 183 made free throws are the most among C-USA teams, and their 77.2 percent success rate tops the league and ranks 13th in the nation.

COMEBACK QUEENS

With its come-from-behind win at Georgia State, WKU continued a strong trend under Michelle Clark-Heard of being able to rally from large deficits.

Since the beginning of the 2015-16 season, WKU owns 11 victories when trailing at the halftime break and four wins when down with five minutes to play in regulation.

CRASHING THE OFFENSIVE GLASS

WKU has been very strong at collecting its own misses this season and has tallied nearly as many offensive rebounds as those on the defensive end.

The Lady Toppers have pulled down a league-leading 16.8 offensive boards per game, and Ivy Brown ranks second among all C-USA players with 4.0 offensive rebounds per game.

WKU's 16.8 offensive boards per game also rank 23rd in the nation among Division I teams.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE TROUBLE

With three straight double-doubles against Mercer, Georgia State and Evansville, Ivy Brown became only the 12th player in program history to record 20 career points-rebounds double-doubles.

Brown joins former teammates Chastity Gooch (43) and Kendall Noble (20) as players who have reached that milestone.

RECORD BOOK WATCH

Through 12 games, Ivy Brown is approaching the top 10 in program history in total rebounds, needing just 48 more boards to break into that group. The Hodgenville, Ky., native is also tied for eighth in school history with 115 blocks and her 79.7 percent mark from the free throw line for her career is sixth among all Lady Toppers who have made at least 200 free throws.

Tashia Brown is also on pace to finish among the top 10 in school history for field goals made and attempted, minutes played and free throws made.

QUARTER FOR YOUR THOUGHTS

Just one week after Ivy Brown tied the program record with 16 points in the third quarter at Southern Illinois, Tashia Brown matched that mark in the third quarter against Toledo on Dec. 17.

Brown scored 16 of the team's 18 points in the frame, including 14 straight points, and outscored the entire Toledo team, 16-13, over the 10-minute span.

RPI WATCH

As of Dec. 27, WKU is ranked No. 26 in the latest NCAA RPI rankings and has faced three teams in the top 30 in Notre Dame, Missouri and Ball State.

WKU is the lone C-USA representative in the top 100 of the rankings, with UTEP second at No. 131.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

After allowing an average of 82.8 points per game across its first four matchups this season, WKU's defense has buckled down over its last eight games.

During that stretch, the Lady Toppers are giving up only 60.4 points per game and have allowed more than 63 points just one time over that same span.

BOPP TO THE TOP

After knocking down 11 of her last 18 three-point attempts, Sidnee Bopp now ranks second among C-USA players with her 47.6 three-point field goal percentage this season.

Heading into Thursday's game at Ball State, Bopp is 20-of-42 from three-point range this season, and her 47.6 percent mark would currently rank second on the program's single-season charts.

GIRL ON FIRE

With eight straight 20-point outings, Tashia Brown is currently on the longest such streak by any Lady Topper since Crystal Kelly during the 2006-07 season.

No other Division I player has put together a streak of eight or more consecutive 20-point games this season thus far.

NATIONAL TREASURES

Not only did Tashia Brown and Raneem Elgedawy earn C-USA honors this week, both also garnered national attention.

Brown was named College Sports Madness' High-Major National Player of the Week for the second time this season, while Elgedawy became the first Lady Topper in program history to be named the US Basketball Writers' Association National Freshman of the Week.

LOOKING AHEAD

With non-conference play behind them, the Lady Toppers will begin their "second season" with C-USA play on Thursday, Jan. 4, at 7 p.m. (CT) as they welcome archrival Middle Tennessee into E.A. Diddle Arena.

WKU has won three straight meetings against the Blue Raiders and claimed its first regular season sweep in the series since 2003-04 with a pair of victories last season.

MICHELLE CLARK-HEARD
Sixth Season

“What Michelle Clark-Heard has done is instilled pride back in Western Kentucky... Now with Michelle Clark-Heard, with the passion and pride she has, because she was a player at Western Kentucky, she is bringing that back to Bowling Green.”

-ESPN Analyst Carolyn Peck

Michelle Clark-Heard has quickly shaped the Western Kentucky University Lady Topper Basketball program back into a national name, putting the Lady Toppers back on the national map. In just three seasons at WKU as head coach, Clark-Heard has reached two NCAA Tournaments, won two conference tournament championships and a regular season conference title while posting 76 wins, the most in a coaches first three seasons in WKU women's basketball or men's basketball history.

Clark-Heard's third season directing her alma mater in 2014-15 was one of the best the storied program has seen. She led the Lady Toppers to a 30-5 record, posting a Conference USA record 30 wins in the program's first season as a league member.

The season began with the Lady Toppers making huge waves early by reaching the finals of the Preseason Women's NIT with wins at Colorado and over eventual American East Conference champion Albany before a loss on the road at Mississippi State. WKU also posted non-conference wins over Hofstra, Tulane and Ole Miss.

The Lady Toppers made an immediate impact in Conference USA, posting a 16-2 record to tie the league mark for league wins in a season, including eight wins on the road, to secure the program's first regular season league title as a Conference USA member and 11th in program history. In early January, she led the Lady Toppers to the Associated Press Top 25 Rankings for the first time since the 1997-98 season. She also became just the 10th coach in NCAA history to lead their alma mater into the Associated Press Top 25 rankings as both a player and coach when the Lady Toppers were ranked for two weeks in January 2015.

The Lady Toppers then won three games in three days by a combined eight points to secure a tournament title at the Conference USA Championships in Birmingham, Ala.

Following the season, Clark-Heard was recognized for her outstanding accomplishments, earning Conference USA Coach of the Year and 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I Regional Coach of the Year honors. Her selection as a WBCA Regional Coach of the Year also made her a finalist for the Pat Summitt Trophy, awarded annually to the 2015 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year.

Her success at WKU has also helped her land new opportunities in the USA Basketball ranks. Clark-Heard was named an assistant coach for the 2015 U.S. Pan American Women's Basketball Team, joining head coach Lisa Bluder of the University of Iowa and fellow assistant coach Scott Rueck of Oregon State University on the 2015 staff.

In Toronto, Clark-Heard helped lead the United States to a silver medal in her international assistant coaching debut, falling just short in the gold medal game against the host Canadians.

In 2013-14, Clark-Heard helped WKU win its final seven regular season games before reeling off three straight in New Orleans, La. in March 2014 to win the Sun Belt Conference Championships with a 61-60 win over Arkansas State after WKU faced a 14-point deficit in the second half. The season

also saw WKU defeat Georgetown in the Puerto Rico Classic after facing a 16-point deficit in the second half.

The season was capped by a 87-74 loss to fifth-ranked Baylor in Waco, Texas in the opening round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament, ending the longest NCAA Tournament appearance drought in program history.

The run to the tournament helped WKU secure a 24-9 record and finish with 20-wins for the second straight season. Her consecutive 20-win seasons to begin her time at WKU marked the first time in Sun Belt Conference history that a team had won 20 games in back-to-back years following a season in which it had won less than 10 games.

Her success in 2013-14 followed a massive improvement on the floor in 2012-13.

In her first year as a Division One coach in 2012-13, Clark-Heard helped WKU to a 13-win improvement over the 2011-12 season output. It was the largest in Sun Belt Conference history as WKU turned a 9-21 mark into a 22-11 record. WKU's eight win improvement in conference play from five wins to 13 wins was tied for the largest in league history. The Lady Toppers also became the first team in Sun Belt Conference history to win 20 games in the season following a year in which the team won less than 10 games earlier this season.

Her first season at WKU also showcased her ability to develop players. The duo of Chastity Gooch and Alexis Govan averaged a combined 12.7 ppg in 2011-12 but posted 36.5 per outing in 2012-13. The duo combined for 1,203 points after posting 381 last season. The team also saw major improvement in nearly all statistical categories, including improving free throw shooting by over 11 percent to .739, the third highest mark in school history.

Clark-Heard spent five years as an assistant coach to Jeff Walz at Louisville. During her time with the program, the Cardinals made three Sweet 16 appearances and made their first Final Four appearance, finishing as the National Runner-Up in 2009. A roster she helped build also reached the Final Four in 2013 after beating No. 1 Baylor and national power Tennessee in the regional semifinals and finals. Clark-Heard was instrumental in bringing in the No. 12 recruiting class in 2008, then followed with three consecutive Top 10 classes in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The 2010 recruiting class was the highest ranked class in school history, ranked fifth in the nation.

Among the most notable players Clark-Heard coached at Louisville was overall number one pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, Angel McCoughtry and overall number eight pick in the 2013 WNBA Draft, Shoni Shimmel. Overall, she coached five players at Louisville that went on to be drafted in the WNBA Draft.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Clark-Heard spent two seasons as the head coach at Kentucky State, taking the reigns of the program in June 2005. She took over a program that had won just one game during the 2004-05 season. In her first season she led the Thorobrettes to a 5-23 record, four of the wins were against Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opponents. Her team was picked to finish 11th

in the SIAC but ended the season in ninth place. In her second season at KSU, she guided the Thorobrettes to an impressive 19-9 record, finishing tied for fourth place in the SIAC. Clark-Heard earned SIAC Coach-of-the-Year honors after the impressive turnaround. Her 2006-07 Thorobrettes were the second most improved team in NCAA Division II women's basketball during the 2006-07 season.

Before being named head coach at Kentucky State, Clark-Heard spent three seasons at Cincinnati as an assistant and four years at Nebraska in the same role. The Bearcats advanced to postseason play in two of her three seasons there while she helped Nebraska reach the NCAA Tournament twice during her time with the team. She was also responsible for helping sign McDonald's All-American Janice Bright for the Cornhuskers in 2001 while coaching alongside current Louisville coach Jeff Walz and under former WKU coach Paul Sanderford.

A four-year letterwinner on the Hill (1987-90), Clark-Heard was part of four NCAA Tournament teams during her Lady Topper career. She also helped guide the Lady Toppers to a pair of Sun Belt Conference Tournament championships (1988 and 1989) and two conference regular-season titles (1989 and 1990). She played in 118 games during her four years in the Hill, scoring 790 points and pulling down 615 rebounds. WKU amassed 89 victories during her four years in uniform, winning 70 percent of the games over that span and putting together three 20-win seasons.

Upon graduation from WKU, she spent eight years working within a recreational setting, five in Bowling Green and three with the Louisville Metro Parks Department. While in Louisville, she also served as head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at DuPont Manual High School for the 1994-95 seasons and played professionally with the Kentucky Marauders of the Women's Basketball Association in 1994-95.

The Louisville native earned Kentucky High School State Player of the Year honors in 1986 while playing at Atherton High School and was inducted into the Atherton Hall of Fame in 2003.

She was married on August 16, 2003 to Luther Heard.

GAME NOTES

GAME #1

WKU 79, No. 16/16 Missouri 76

Nov. 10, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) - Tashia Brown scored 13 of WKU's 18 points in the fourth quarter and finished with 30 as the Lady Toppers opened the season with a 79-76 upset of No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon at the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The Tigers took their last lead at 66-65 with 3:35 to play on two free throws by Sophie Cunningham, but Brown quickly responded with a three-pointer. Cunningham tied the game at 70 with a layup with 2:04 to go and Sidnee Bopp answered that with a 3-pointer.

Brown scored the last six points for WKU in the final minute, including a contested pull-up jumper with 17.5 seconds to play and two free throws with 1.1 to go.

Dee Givens added 20 points for the Lady Toppers, who outscored Missouri 27-17 in the second quarter to lead 45-35 at the half. It is the third-straight season that WKU has knocked off a Top 25 team, the longest such streak for the Lady Toppers since 1990-91 through 1992-93.

Iowa 104, WKU 97 (OT)

Nov. 11, 2017 - Iowa City, Iowa - Carver-Hawkeye Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

IOWA CITY, Iowa - Senior Ivy Brown had a career-high 31 points on 12-of-16 shooting and the Lady Toppers led for much of the afternoon, but WKU fell 104-97 in overtime against Iowa in the title game of the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge on Saturday afternoon inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Brown was named to the All-Tournament Team after her career-best performance that also included six three-pointers; she was joined on the All-Tournament Team by fellow senior Tashia Brown, who added 16 points after tallying 30 in WKU's 79-76 win over No. 16/16 Missouri on Friday afternoon.

WKU connected on a school-record 14 three-pointers against the Hawkeyes, finishing with a 14-of-26 (53.8 percent) mark from beyond the arc.

Both sides exchanged big runs to begin the fourth quarter; WKU pushed its lead to 10 points, 85-75, after a 10-3 run, but Iowa responded with 13 straight points to take an 88-85 lead with 3:41 to play. Ivy Brown's three-pointer tied the game back up 20 seconds later, and Gustafson's free throws with 35 seconds to play forced the ninth tie of the game at 93-93.

Sevillian's three-pointer to open the overtime frame gave the Hawkeyes a 96-93 lead, and the Lady Toppers were unable to retake the lead down the stretch as Iowa claimed the 104-97 victory.

GAME #3

No. 6/5 Notre Dame 78, RV/- WKU 65

Nov. 14, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) - Jessica Shepard helped Notre Dame pass its first road test of the season. She had 19 points and 12 rebounds and the No. 6/5 Irish beat WKU 78-65 on Tuesday evening inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

Arike Ogunbowale and Mikayla Vaughn scored 21 and 17 points for the four-time defending Atlantic Coast Conference champs. Notre Dame led 37-28 at halftime and then held steady in the second half, stretching the lead to as wide a margin as 73-59 after WKU got as close as 57-51 early in the fourth quarter.

Tashia Brown scored 25 points for the Lady Toppers, but was just 6-for-25 from the field. Fellow WKU senior Ivy Brown, who came in averaging 18.5 points per game, scored just two points in 35 minutes of play Tuesday and eventually fouled out.

"This is what it was about when we made the schedule to see where we're at as a program and it showed us a lot today and showed us a lot in these past three games, we're getting close," WKU head coach Michelle Clark-Heard said. "We've just got to continue to keep building and bringing players and that's our most important thing."

GAME #4

RV/RV Indiana 73, RV/- WKU 71

Nov. 17, 2017 - Bloomington, Ind. - Assembly Hall

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Sophomore Whitney Creech scored a career-best 25 points on 10-of-16 shooting and WKU erased a 15-point third-quarter deficit, but fell just short, 73-71, against Indiana inside Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall on Friday evening.

Creech scored 11 of her 25 points in the fourth quarter and spurred WKU's strong comeback attempt. The Jenkins, Ky., native followed up her 17-point performance against Notre Dame on Tuesday with another career-best performance on Friday; she finished with multiple three-pointers for the second time in her career, knocking down two of her three chances on the night.

WKU completely erased the 15-point hole and surged into the lead with just over two minutes to play, taking a 71-68 lead after a steal from Sherry Porter that set up a pullup jumper from Creech. On Indiana's next possession, however, Buss knocked down a three-pointer from the corner to again tie the game at 71-71.

Looking to win in regulation or force overtime, the Lady Toppers were unable to stop Buss as she drove into the lane on Indiana's final offensive possession. Creech had a look at a long three-pointer as time expired, but her chance hit the backboard and rimmed out as WKU fell just short, 73-71.

GAME #5

RV/- WKU 67, Mercer 62

Nov. 24, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Facing its first deficit of the night with just over 90 seconds remaining, WKU rallied to score 10 of the game's final 12 points to earn a 67-62 victory over Mercer on Friday evening in the 2017 Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown and Ivy Brown led WKU with 21 points apiece; Ivy Brown's first basket of the night also pushed her over the 1,000-point mark for her WKU career, making her the 39th member of WKU's 1,000-point club. Ivy Brown also secured her first double-double of the season with a game-high 14 rebounds.

Jumpers on two straight possessions from Tashia Brown and Creech to open the fourth quarter pushed WKU's lead back to eight points, 56-48, but the Bears responded with a 10-1 run spanning the next seven minutes to grab a 60-57 lead over the Lady Toppers.

Despite facing that deficit, however, WKU stepped up and scored 10 of the game's final 12 points to secure the victory. All 10 of WKU's points in the final 1:43 of the game came from the free throw line; Kayla Smith's pair of shots with 1:05 remaining put the Lady Toppers back in front, and another pair of shots from the charity stripe by Porter with just five seconds remaining iced the 67-62 victory.

GAME #6

RV/- WKU 74, Georgia State 63

Nov. 26, 2017 - Atlanta, Ga. - GSU Sports Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

ATLANTA - Trailing by seven points midway through the third quarter, WKU forced 16 second-half turnovers against Georgia State and rallied past the Panthers to win the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic, 74-63, on Sunday afternoon inside the GSU Sports Arena.

Tashia Brown was named Tournament MVP after her 27-point performance on Sunday, 20 of which came in the second half. Ivy Brown joined her on the All-Tournament Team after registering her second straight double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds, and Dee Givens rounded out the WKU trio in double figures with 11 points. The in-season tournament victory was the fifth in six seasons under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard.

The Panthers took their largest lead of the night, seven points, on three different occasions early in the third quarter, the final time coming after Newby's fast-break layup gave Georgia State a 46-39 edge with 6:08 to play. From that point, however, WKU answered with eight straight points, including four straight from Whitney Creech to cap the stretch and give the Lady Toppers their first lead, 46-45, since early in the contest.

Over the last quarter, WKU would not ever relinquish its lead as the Lady Toppers forced 10 Panther turnovers and created 11 points off those takeaways, allowing WKU to claim the 74-63 victory for its first true road win of the season.

GAME NOTES

GAME #7
WKU 92, Evansville 54
 Nov. 30, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Double-double efforts from both Raneem Elgedawy and Ivy Brown and a balanced scoring effort with four players in double figures helped WKU to a 92-54 win over Evansville inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Thursday evening, the third consecutive win for the Lady Toppers.

Elgedawy hit career highs with 19 points and 10 rebounds and Ivy Brown notched her third consecutive double-double with 12 points and 10 boards to lead the Lady Toppers (4-3). C-USA's leading scorer, Tashia Brown, finished with a game-high 20 points on 9-of-19 shooting from the floor, and freshman Sherry Porter rounded out the quartet in double figures with 16 points, 10 of which came in the final quarter of play.

Evansville put together a 10-2 run early in the third quarter to slash WKU's lead back under 20 points, but WKU fired back by scoring nine of the final 11 points of the frame to push the lead back to 24 points, 73-49.

The Lady Toppers never allowed the Purple Aces any closer than that in the fourth quarter and finished the game on an 11-0 run over the final 6:18 of the game to reach the final scoreline. Porter scored six points during the run for the Lady Toppers and finished with 10 points in the final quarter alone.

GAME #8
WKU 75, Southern Illinois 49
 Dec. 10, 2017 - Carbondale, Ill. - SIU Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Ivy Brown matched a program record with 16 points in the third quarter and both she and Tashia Brown finished with a game-high 20 points as WKU returned from its exam break with a 75-49 victory over Southern Illinois inside SIU Arena on Sunday afternoon.

Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown each finished with 20 points for the Lady Toppers (5-3) to lead all scorers, giving WKU at least one 20-point scorer in seven of its first eight games this season. Ivy Brown tallied 16 of her 20 points in the third quarter, knocking down four three-pointers without a miss, en route to matching the program record for points by one player in a single quarter.

Ivy Brown sparked WKU's 16-1 run early in the third quarter, knocking down three triples on three straight possessions for the Lady Toppers to stretch the advantage to 54-31. Brown would go on to knock down another shot from beyond the arc and two layups in the quarter to reach her program-record total of 16 points in the 10-minute frame.

Over the final quarter, WKU did not allow the Salukis to close the gap under 20 points as the Lady Toppers coasted to the 75-49 victory.

WKU 87, Mississippi Valley State 48

Dec. 12, 2017 - Bowling Green, Ky. - E.A. Diddle Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Tashia Brown scored a game-high 26 points and was one of four Lady Toppers in double figures as WKU cruised past Mississippi Valley State, 87-48, on Tuesday evening inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

The 26-point outburst was Brown's seventh 20-point outing of the season, and she was joined in double figures by Ivy Brown (15), Raneem Elgedawy (12) and Sidnee Bopp (12). Bopp was strong from beyond the arc on Tuesday, knocking down four of her five chances from three-point range, and helped the Lady Toppers (6-3) to a 9-of-20 (45.0 percent) mark on three-pointers as a team.

Trailing by 20 points early in the third quarter, Mississippi Valley State cut back into WKU's lead with a three-pointer from Floyd and a fast-break layup off the hands of Bassett, leaving the Lady Toppers with a 45-30 advantage midway through the frame.

That would be the closest that the Devilettes would come, however, as WKU used another big 10-0 run to rebuild its 20-point edge.

In the fourth quarter, WKU did not allow Mississippi Valley State any closer than 26 points and led by as many as 40 before reaching the final 87-48 scoreline.

GAME #10

WKU 66, Stetson 58

Dec. 16, 2017 - West Palm Beach, Fla. - Student Life Center

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. - Tashia Brown extended her 20-point scoring streak to six straight games with a game-high 24 points and WKU held on for a 66-58 victory over Stetson in the opening game of the 2017 West Palm Beach Invitational inside the Countess de Hoernle Student Life Center on Saturday afternoon.

With her sixth consecutive 20-point game, Tashia Brown became the first Lady Topper to accomplish that feat since the program's all-time leading scorer, Crystal Kelly, also did so during the 2007-08 campaign. Brown was joined in double figures by Raneem Elgedawy (13), Ivy Brown (12) and Whitney Creech (10).

WKU used the strength of an 11-4 run to erase the deficit in the third quarter. Four different Lady Toppers scored during the run, including a pair of pullup jumpers from Creech, and a fast-break layup by Tashia Brown reestablished a 35-32 lead for the Lady Toppers at the 4:41 mark.

WKU's lead grew to as many as seven points before the end of the third quarter, and the Lady Toppers took a 46-39 edge into the final 10 minutes.

During the fourth quarter, Stetson closed within four points three times, but the Lady Toppers refused to allow them any closer than that. WKU's final six points came from the charity stripe as the Lady Toppers held off the Hatters down the stretch for the 66-58 win.

GAME NOTES

GAME #11
WKU 70, Toledo 56

Dec. 17, 2017 - West Palm Beach, Fla. - Student Life Center

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. - Tashia Brown matched the program record with 16 points in the third quarter and finished with a game-high 29 points on the afternoon as WKU defeated Toledo, 70-56, to conclude play at the 2017 West Palm Beach Invitational inside the Countess de Hoernle Student Life Center on Sunday afternoon.

Brown scored 16 of WKU's (8-3) 18 points in the third quarter to spark the Lady Toppers to their seventh consecutive win. For the day, she finished 12-of-21 from the floor and also pulled down nine rebounds, falling just shy of a double-double.

In the third quarter, Tashia Brown took over for the Lady Toppers, scoring 16 of the team's 18 points in the period. Each time that Toledo would look to make a run, a basket from Brown would rebuild the three-possession lead for WKU, and the lead grew to 10 points, 55-45, by the end of the quarter.

Over the final 10 minutes, WKU did not allow Toledo any closer than seven points as the Lady Toppers closed out the 70-56 win to close their time at the West Palm Beach Invitational.

GAME #12
RV/NR Ball State 93, WKU 81

Dec. 21, 2017 - Muncie, Ind. - Worthen Arena

SUMMARY AND NOTABLES

MUNCIE, Ind. - Tashia Brown scored a game-high 25 points, but WKU was unable to overcome a hot-shooting Ball State team on the road on Thursday evening, falling 93-81 against the Cardinals inside Worthen Arena.

Brown's eight straight 20-point games currently mark the longest active streak in the category among Division I players, and 20 of her 25 points for the Lady Toppers (8-4) came after the halftime break. WKU saw its seven-game winning streak snapped with the setback.

Another long run, this time 8-2 from the Cardinals, put them ahead for good through the halftime break. Ball State's lead stretched to as many as 12 points, but the Lady Toppers managed to battle back to a single-digit deficit, 46-38, heading into the locker room.

WKU closed the gap to six points three times in the opening minutes of the third quarter, but the Cardinals were able to pull away each time. An 8-0 run by Ball State midway through the frame gave the Cardinals a 17-point lead, 63-46, following Samz's three-pointer at the 4:17 mark.

Over the final quarter of play, WKU was unable to cut the deficit back to single digits. The Lady Toppers scored the final eight points of the game, including a pair of three pointers from Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown, to reach the final 93-81 scoreline.

STRONG SECOND HALF PUSHES WKU PAST LEE, 88-64, IN NON-CONFERENCE FINALE

PDF Box Score Attached, Postgame Notes and Quotes to Follow

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Tashia Brown pushed her NCAA-leading 20-point scoring streak to nine consecutive games with 30 points and Ivy Brown added a double-double of 20 points and 15 rebounds as WKU defeated Lee University, 88-64, in its non-conference finale inside E.A. Diddle Arena on Friday evening.

Tashia Brown matched her season high with 30 points on 11-of-18 shooting on the night while also going 8-of-10 from the charity stripe. The 30-point outing was the fourth of Brown's career and her second this season after also tallying 30 points in WKU's upset win over then-No. 16 Missouri on Nov. 10.

Ivy Brown hauled down a season-best 15 boards, including six on the offensive end, and added 20 points and a career-best six steals for the Lady Toppers (9-4), who close non-conference play with eight wins in their last nine games.

As a team, WKU was strong inside the paint, outscoring the Flames 40-20 in that category. The Lady Toppers also owned a 23-8 advantage in points off turnovers, generating 23 takeaways on the night. WKU jumped out to an early lead over the first two and a half minutes after scoring 11 of the game's first 15 points. Ivy Brown kicked off the scoring with a three-pointer from the right corner and had five points during the early Lady Topper run, and Tashia Brown added a pair of jumpers in the first two minutes to push the advantage to 11-4.

Over the final seven minutes of the first frame, WKU stretched its lead to 14 points. Leading 24-16 at the 2:34 mark, the Lady Toppers got triples from Whitney Creech and Sidnee Bopp over the last 90 seconds to carry a 30-16 advantage into the second frame.

Lee made a push midway through the second quarter and managed to cut WKU's lead to 10 points with an 11-3 burst, but WKU immediately answered back with five unanswered points as Ivy Brown's jumper put the Lady Toppers ahead, 42-27.

Over the final two and a half minutes of the first half, Lee outscored WKU 10-4, capped by a three-pointer from Halle Hughes, to cut the Lady Topper advantage to 49-42 heading into the locker room. WKU opened the third quarter hot, scoring the first 13 points out of the break. Six points from Ivy Brown and five more from Tashia Brown keyed the run for the Lady Toppers, who came away with their largest lead of the evening to that point, 62-42.

Lee was unable to close the gap back to single digits for the remainder of the contest. In the fourth quarter, WKU retook its 20-point advantage at the 5:58 mark after a pair of free throws by Raneem Elgedawy, and Sherry Porter's layup with 26 seconds to play pushed WKU to the final scoreline of 88-64. With non-conference play now completed, WKU is set to open C-USA play next Thursday evening at 7 p.m. (CT) against archrival Middle Tennessee inside Diddle Arena. The Lady Toppers have won three straight games in the rivalry against the Blue Raiders, including the last two games played at home; next Thursday's game will also be the second of WKU's four-game homestand.

Tashia Brown

On entering into conference play...

"We've just got to play tougher teams... just playing at that level, like at a high level, we'll be even more prepared for conference."

Ivy Brown

On wrapping up non-conference season and entering into conference...

"I think we had a good non-conference season, but I think we have a long way to go for conference season. You can always improve, so I'm excited to see what we can do in the next few days of practice to get better for Middle (Tennessee)."

On where they go from here...

"I think we go back to film and break down all the things we messed up on. Getting focused on defense and getting focused on being aggressive and doing what we do best."

HC Michelle Clark-Heard

On wrapping up the non-conference season and moving forward...

"First off, I'm really proud of our team. The schedule we've played, to have nine games on the road, to be able to come home and play the competition that we've played. Although we've got to get a little better on being more resilient on defense and doing the things that we need to to get stops and not playing, as far as all the time or on the clock, we just need to play really hard as a group. I was really proud of us the second half, because I felt like we came out and did that for at least the first six or seven minutes."

On Tashia Brown...

"I'm just really excited that I'm getting the chance to coach her. She's a phenomenal young lady, just so humble. She wants to get better, we watch film. She watches a lot of basketball. She tries to evaluate her game and she wants to know what she can do to get better. Coming into this season, she's taken a whole new approach: her nutrition, her working out, doing the things she needs to in order to be in the shape to do this. What is this, nine games now in a row where she's scored 20 plus? That's not easy to do, I don't care who you're playing. I'm just proud of her and the way she's worked and what she's doing to help lead this team."

On Ivy Brown and the pair of seniors' last conference season...

"Ivy Brown has been incredible for us. Double-doubles and rebounding and getting on the floor and talking and leading. Every day, I walk away, with these two, this is our last go around in conference together. Myself and the staff, we're just working really hard so we can put them in the position every single day so we can have a chance to win."

WKU Lady Toppers vs. Lee University Flames

Postgame Notes

December 29, 2017

E.A. Diddle Arena; Bowling Green, Ky.

FINAL SCORE: WKU 88, Lee 64

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU improves to 9-4 on the season as it enters conference play. This was an exhibition game for Lee University.
- This was the first competition between WKU and Lee University.
- NEXT UP: WKU will open C-USA play against archrival Middle Tennessee next Thursday, January 4, at 7 p.m. in E.A. Diddle Arena. The game will be broadcast nationally on Fox College Sports. Middle Tennessee currently leads the all-time series 41-29. WKU defeated Middle Tennessee in their last meeting 82-75 on February 16.

Team Notes

- WKU used the starting lineup of Whitney Creech, Sherry Porter, Tashia Brown, Ivy Brown and Raneem Elgedawy for the second time on Friday. The lineup improved to 2-0 together after defeating Stetson earlier this season.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: WKU slowly pulled away from Lee throughout the beginning of the first quarter, but used a 7-0 run beginning at 6:52 to extend its lead to 20-8. The Lady Toppers scored 30 points in the first quarter, the most they've scored in a quarter since December 3, 2016, where they scored 31 in the second quarter while playing Austin Peay. The Flames used a 6-0 run midway through the second quarter to combat the WKU lead, diminishing it to just 10 points with a score of 37-27.
- WKU led Lee University 49-42 at the halftime break.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: WKU returned from the halftime break with a 13-0 run that lasted for the first four and a half minutes of the third quarter. After the Lady Toppers' run in the third quarter, Lee University never got closer than 14 points in the second half.
- The Lady Toppers scored 23 points off 23 Flame turnovers.
- WKU outscored Lee University 40-20 in the paint.
- WKU improved to 51-3 when scoring 80 points or more under Head Coach Michelle Clark-Heard.

Individual Notes

- Tashia Brown tied a season high set in the season opener against then-No. 16 Missouri with 30 points.
  - Brown now has nine consecutive 20-point games dating back to Nov. 24 against Mercer. Brown continues to hold the longest active 20-point streak in the nation.
  - Brown now has four 30-point games in her career.
- Ivy Brown earned her seventh double-double of the season with 20 points and a season-high 15 rebounds.
  - The last time Brown scored 20 points was at Southern Illinois on December 10.
- Raneem Elgedawy was just one point shy of a double-double pulling down 10 boards and scoring nine points.
- Sidnee Bopp scored eight points for the Lady Toppers, playing with at least three fouls for the entirety of the second half.
- Whitney Creech added seven points and five assists to just one turnover.
- Nichel Tampa contributed seven points and while rebounding five shots.
