VOLUME 42, NO. 1-2251 BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 26, 1962

Sou. Ky.'s Tallest

Construction Begun On "Skyscraper" Dormitory

Western's "skyscraper" men's dormitory is now under construction on the old football practice field at the rear of West Hall. The 11-story structure, which will be built of reinforced concrete and finished in colonial brick, will be the tallest building in southern Kentucky.

The contract for its construction was awarded to the Robert C. Crouch Company, Memphis, Tenn., the low bidder, who submitted a total construction bid of $1,197,700. The huge structure will have 10 floors, which will provide bedroom space for 410 men, apartments for the director and assistant director, central elevator service, all necessary supporting auxiliary space, and will be fully air-conditioned. The 11th floor will house the elevator shaft, air conditioning units and other utility equipment.

Cost Estimated At $1,300,000

Estimated total cost of the edifice which will be known as Men's Dormitory No. 5, is $1,300,000. This cost is to include furnishings, landscaping and planting, walkways and utility facilities along with last-minute pre-occupancy details which may come under the category of necessities. Frank Cain, Bowling Green, and Ben Johnson, Owensboro, are the architects.

The dormitory will serve as an anchor for future buildings to be constructed around the eastern sector of the campus in the same architectural motif.

The dormitory project will be financed through sale of bonds to the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency.

Funds to equip the building with additional furniture, if needed, will be paid from the state's capital construction fund.

Four-Story Dorm Planned

At the same time, a four-story dormitory for women is also being planned for construction on the Kentucky Building grounds at a right angle to the recently completed six-story women's dorm. Estimated cost of this building is $800,000. It will provide housing for 230 women and will be fully air-conditioned.

The new women's dormitory will extend from the Russellville Road to the six-story structure near the Heating Plant. It will be constructed of reinforced concrete with brick finish. Plans call for another dormitory of matching design to be erected in a similar space near the Kentucky Building at a later date.

Sandwich Shop

A small sandwich shop is included in the plans for the new building and will be located on the ground floor at the northwest end. W. S. Arrasmith, Louisville, and Joseph P. Wilk, Bowling Green, are the architects.

Pres. Thompson Moves To Stop All Speculation

Dr. Kelly Thompson, president of Western, this week removed himself from any consideration for the presidency of the University of Kentucky.

Dr. Thompson in a letter to S. C. Van Curon, editor of the Frankfort State Journal, stated, "It is my desire to do the very best job that I can as president of Western Kentucky State College. I would, under no circumstances, leave this endeavor for any other position in the United States, regardless of what it might be."

Dr. Thompson's letter was telegraphed to Van Curon relative to a statement Sunday in Van Curon's column 'I Say What I Think' which appeared in the Park City Daily News. In the column Van Curon stated that Dr. Thompson's name had been mentioned in speculation in connection with the University of Kentucky.

Complete text of Dr. Thompson's letter to Van Curon follows: "Your column, 'I Say What I Think,' appearing in yesterday's issue of the Park City Daily News stated that, in speculation, my name had been mentioned incidentally in connection with the

Space Age

By BONNIE LYLE

This is the Space Age.

How many times does 17 $\frac{1}{2}$ divided into 1,897 $\frac{4}{75}$? What is the average rainfall in Vizagapatam? What are the exports of Zamboango? Or how many frogs use Pond's?

The average person wouldn't know the answer to these questions, nevertheless, someday he may be taught with a square peg in a round hole.

The youth of America have been challenged by science today as never before. Our future depends upon it. It is getting to be a big problem deciding whether to put the rugs on the floor or on the ceiling. Unless you say the right thing on that Rorschach ink blot test, you'll never get past that interview.

These days everything is either scientific or psychological.

Why study to be a surgeon if you can't thread a needle? The point in question? Maybe it's Russia's 50-Megaton bomb, maybe it's the long walk to the science building or maybe it is this:

What is to become of all this scientific exploitation in outer space, the fall-out in Japan, and maybe someday the fall-out in Bowling Green? What are we going to do about it?

Frankly, people tire of hearing this question, because there is no definite answer for it. Our country's welfare is and always has been entrusted to a few select men who have proven themselves able and capable of caring for us.

We shall have to content ourselves with that and hope that the nuclear test blasts stay in the experimental stage.

Book Marks

By LOU LANIER

"Around The World" is the theme of the display located in the main reading room of the library. The display is from the collection of Mrs. Herman Lowe, fourth grade teacher at Western Training School, who has traveled with her husband each summer since 1951, to various parts of the world. She has collected souvenirs from the interesting places she has visited and has loaned us choice objects representing various countries.

This past summer Mr. and Mrs. Lowe visited Alaska and the display includes some unusual items from our 49th state. The library is deeply appreciative of the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Lowe and their willingness to share their experiences with others in this unique manner.

This year the periodical room in the library added approximately eighty new periodical magazines covering almost every field of human knowledge and endeavor.

Would you like to read first hand some of the Russian ideas on the arts, science, technology and other fields? It's there — in The Soviet Review, a magazine designed to give readers a cross section of significant articles published in various Soviet periodicals in the fields of literature and the arts, social analysis and criticism, and science and technology.

Or perhaps you would like to read of the publishing world from the publishers point of view. The Writer tells of all the many things that are concerned with actually getting a book published. It is also a very good guide for you, telling you exactly where to send your own work for publication — or possible publication anyway.

Are our National Parks really for the benefit of all citizens' enjoyment or may they sometimes be exploited for personal gains of individuals? Find out in National Parks Magazine, a periodical of well-known and some not so widely known national parks.

The well liked and widely read Sports Illustrated is in the periodical room of course. Keeping everyone up to date on everything from swimming to golf to football.

A magazine probably new to many of us, National Review is both a journal of fact and opinion — and quite conservative opinion too. If you are a part of the Barry Goldwater contingent, you will particularly like this one.

Dr. A. M. Stickle, former head of Western's Department of History, has presented the Kentucky Library with the papers and correspondence he accumulated during the writing of his biography of Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner.

Miss Elizabeth Coombs, librarian at the Kentucky Library, said she feels the papers will be valuable in the future to students who are doing research in periods covering the life of Buckner.

Dr. Stickle's book, titled "Simon Bolivar Buckner; Borderland Knight," was published in 1940.

Dr. Stickle, who celebrated his 90th birthday during the past summer, spends much of his time at the Kentucky Building.

NEW ATTRACTION—A new attraction to the Western campus this year is the college directory located in front of the library at the entrance to the campus. Many students have been attracted to the new directory which is 66 inches by 42 inches. President Thompson, in greeting many of the new as well as the old students, took time out to discuss the merits of such a directory. Shown here with the president as he explains the use of the directory are (left to right) Shirley Lappie, senior from Bowling Green; Margaret Gregory, junior from Monticello; Linda Skaggs, senior from Bowling Green; Betty Chisholm, sophomore from Scottsville; Camille Mitchell, senior from Scottsville; and Bob Ellis, freshman from Miami, Fla.

Stick With It...

By DOUGLAS L. VERDIER

This year, Western Kentucky State College expects to exceed all previous enrollment records and looks forward to having the largest freshman class in the history of the college.

To most freshmen, the transition from high school to college will bring about many changes and possibly introduce a few problems. For many, college will serve as an introduction to living away from home. This new "freedom," if you will, should not be taken lightly. Rather, it should be incorporated into the crucial transformation from adolescent to adult.

Another new situation which will require some adjustment is dormitory life. By this time, it may already be apparent that life in the residence halls is not always as peaceful and quiet as it could be. Many distractions will tempt the person who is not wary of them. Visitors, television, the urge to run around — all will interfere with maintaining a regular study schedule. The serious student should have the perseverance to avoid these distractions and get what he came to college for — an education.

Before very long, it will become evident that college instructors do not push students to study as much as their high school teachers did. This relaxation of supervision on the part of teachers is based on the assumption that students, by the time they reach college age, should be mature enough to use their own initiative in studying. Many teachers employ the "honor system" when administering a test and very often leave the room during an examination, knowing that each student will continue to do his own work just as if the instructor were present.

Your academic life at Western will be what you as a student make it. All the necessary ingredients for a superior education are at the disposal of the students. The administration and faculty stand ready to council and guide you in any difficult situation. The most modern facilities and equipment have been provided to afford students the maximum opportunities to achieve success.

The next four years may well prove to be the most important years in your life. Make the most of them!

Nominations Open For Woodrow Wilson Awards

Competition for the 1,000 first year graduate study awards offered by the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation for 1963-64 is now under way.

Faculty members have until October 31 to nominate candidates for the awards. All nominees will be notified by the Foundation's regional chairman to return an information form immediately after receipt and to file other credentials no later than November 20, 1962.

Eligible for nomination are men and women of outstanding intellectual promise, graduates of or seniors in the colleges and universities of the United States or Canada and at the time of nomination not registered in a graduate school. The Foundation primarily supports candidates in the humanities and social sciences since financial aid from other sources for students in the science is plentiful.

A Fellow receives a living stipend of $1,500.00 for one academic year. Further benefits are determined by his marital status and the number of his children. Tuition and fees are paid directly to the Fellow's graduate school.

College Hi Holds S A C Elections

College High will be in almost complete control of girls for the 1962-63 school year. Five girls were announced as officers of the school's Student Activities Committee at a coronation ball held recently.

The ball climaxed an election week in which the balloting was conducted at the school with the aid of a voting machine borrowed from the county.

Inaugurated at the ball were Sondra Covington, president; Rosanne Jones, secretary; Charla Aspley, treasurer; and Georanne Sleamaker, parliamentarian. Miss Covington, Miss Graves, and Miss Jones will be seniors when their term of office starts in September. Miss Ashley will be a junior and Miss Sleamaker a sophomore.

Announcement of the new officers was made by Richard Hamner, current president, who was master of ceremonies for the ball sponsored by the Student Activities Committee. Other officers serving with Mr. Hamner for the 1961-62 year were Hugh Tyler, vice-president; Sue Carole Borders, secretary; Dorothy Barbee, treasurer; and Susan Friedli, parliamentarian.

Braden Named State Supervisor

A Western graduate has been named to a committee which will make an intensive study of what can be done to reduce the high drop-out rate of students in Kentucky's schools.

Billy Braden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Reynolds Sr., Glasgow, has been appointed state Supervisor of guidance studies by Wendell P. Butler, state superintendent of public instruction. According to Butler, it will be Braden's task to establish a system for the annual collection of data on school drop-outs in Kentucky. The department presently has no system for determining why a student drops out, and if subsequently enrolls in another school.

Braden, a 1951 graduate of Caverna High School, received his Master's degree in education from Western in 1959. He goes to his new position from Fort Campbell where he was guidance director. He has also taught at Larue and Meade County High schools.

Butler said the objective of the study is to create an awareness of the low holding power of Kentucky's schools in relation to state and national norms. The superintendent expressed hope that results of the study will stimulate local school districts to accept their responsibility to educate all-school-age children living in the district to the maximum of the students' ability.

A recent state-wide study showed holding power increased by 5.9 per cent during the years from 1956 to 1961, but that for each 1,000 students who enrolled in the fifth grade in Kentucky public schools in 1953, only 449 completed high school by 1961. The national average for the same period was 604 high school graduates per each 1,000 students.

Auto Regulations Ease Campus Parking Situation

Automobiles are definitely less in number at Western this year as compared to last year even though student enrollment has increased. The main reason for this is a new policy concerning student possession and operation of an automobile adopted by the Council on Public Higher Education at Frankfort.

The new student motor vehicle policy, adopted July 9, presently prohibits the possession and operation of any type automobile by freshmen on the campus at Western. The same stipulation also applies to those students on academic probation or disciplinary probation. Sophomores will be affected by the policy in Sept. 1963.

Thus, the number of automobiles on campus will be from one third to one half the number that would result if there were no regulations applied.

Exceptions to these regulations may be granted only with special permission of the Dean of Students in order to avoid hardship based on physical handicap, necessary commuting to classes, use for essential work and other proven need. Another exception to the policy is that in September, 1963, all students registered as sophomores who have an academic standing of "B" or above may be granted the privilege of operating motor vehicles at Western.

However, in order to operate an automobile at Western, certain requirements must be met. The student must first register his car with the college. Then, if he is able to meet the requirements, an identification sticker will be issued to the student operator. The sticker must be permanently attached to the bottom left side of the rear glass, or in the case of convertibles, in the lower right side of the windshield. Whenever there is a change in vehicle ownership, the old decal must be destroyed.

Conditions that are to be met upon registration of the student's automobile are as follows:

"A student desiring to register a motor vehicle must present a valid operator's license, and must show that the vehicle is insured against public liability and property damage in an amount no less than the minimum (amount) recommended by the Department of Insurance of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. If the student is under 21 years of age, the application must be accompanied by the written consent of his parent or guardian regardless of the ownership of the vehicle. Exceptions may be made only by the Dean of Students.

"If the operator's license should be revoked or if the insurance is permitted to lapse, the privilege to operate a motor vehicle at Western will be revoked."

With the new policy now in effect, registration of motor vehicles will be a part of the academic registration procedure. Those students obtaining automobiles after registration must register their vehicles at the Dean of Students office as soon as possible.

Penalties for parking and other traffic violations will result in fines up to the amount of $5.00. Parking by students is strictly forbidden in all faculty parking areas between the hours of 7:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. weekdays and before noon on Saturdays.

"Any student with more than three violations during one term shall jeopardize his status as a student and automatically forfeits the privilege of operating a motor vehicle at Western. This does not preclude the removal of a student's privilege for less than three violations if the situation warrant the action."

English Jones, who received his B.S. degree from Western State College, has been named interim president of Pembroke State College, Pembroke, N. C., following the resignation of Dr. Walter J. Gale, president.

He left that position to go to Pembroke State College as head of the agriculture department in 1956. In addition to his teaching duties he was named dean of men, then dean of student affairs, for the past two years. More recently he has been administrative assistant to the president.

Toppers Scalp Indians 28-7

Led by the passing of senior quarterback Jim Daily and the running of freshman fullback John Burt, the Toppers scored 28 points before the Indians finally scored late in the fourth quarter. Western's first tally came early in the second quarter when Jim Burt threw the block that sprang brother John loose for a nine yard gallop and a touchdown. Sam Clark's kick for the extra point was good as were the following three after each touchdown.

The Toppers went to the air for their other three touchdowns. Late in the second quarter Bill Straub tossed to senior end Bill Mumford for the second score and the Toppers took a 14-0 lead at half time.

Jim Daily passed for both third quarter touchdowns and both were grabbed by sophomore ends. Glenn Blackburn gathered in the first one from 18 yards out and Stan Napper caught the second from 8 yards out.

Despite the rain and slick ball Daily connected on six of seven passes for 100 yards and two touchdowns. Junior quarterback Bill Straub hit on one of three for 21 yards. Lee Murray was the Ohio Valley Conference's top leader in pass receiving with three catches good for 39 yards. John Burt was the leading ground gainer with 68 yards in 11 carries. The Topper's defensive line held the Indians to 155 yards on the ground and the defensive secondary held them to only 7 yards in the air.

Raiders Ranked First In Pre-Season OVC Poll

Western Kentucky's football forces get the supreme test Saturday night.

The Hilltoppers will be returning to Western Stadium to face Middle Tennessee State—the favorite to cop the Ohio Valley Conference championship.

In a pre-season poll of OVC head coaches, Middle Tennessee was picked to win the crown handily, with defending champion Tennessee Tech finishing second and Western Kentucky third.

The coaches undoubtedly made their choice of MSC for the No. 1 spot on the strength of the Raiders' returning veterans, which include several who ranked in 1961 as one of the finest groups of freshman and sophomores in the history of the conference.

Perhaps the toughest of the Raiders to stop will be 6-3, 208-pound end George Dykes. He set a school record last fall with 27 pass receptions good for 721 yards, eight touchdowns and two conversions. He also led the MTSC Tangerine Bowl squad in scoring with 44 points. He was a first-team choice on the All-OVC squad and made honorable mention in the Little All-America balloting.

MTSC also boasts two of the loop's finest young halfbacks in sophomore Jim Harvey and junior Jackie Pope, a high-touted transfer from the University of Tennessee.

Quarterback was figured to be one of the Raiders' most questionable spots, but sophomore Louis Alford and junior Bob Kerr have filled the gap in admirable fashion. This backfield talent behind an experienced line gives Middle Tennessee a potent punch.

Western Kentucky will match the title favorites with a squad showing the greatest depth of any Hilltopper combine in years.

With the rushing led by brothers Jim and John Burt and full-

Two other linemen were elected co-captains; Jim Taylor, 200-pound senior tackle from Clarksville, Tennessee; and Joe Bugel, 215-pound senior guard from Munhall, Pennsylvania.

NOTICE

Western's NRA Rifle Team will hold a meeting on Tuesday, October 2, at 7:30 p.m., in the Military Science department of the physical education building.

All Western students, men and women, are eligible to become members of this organization.

The business of this meeting will consist of organization and election of officers.

Tops Vs. Raiders

back Joe Jagers, and the passing paced by Jim Daily and Bill Straub, Western counts on more offensive power than it generated in 1961. A year ago the Hilltoppers finished third in the conference race and earned Coach of the year Honors for Nick Denes.

And the Toppers still have most of the rock-ribbed defenders that led the way to six wins in nine starts last year even though averaging only 14 points per game themselves.

With both squads noted for their overall aggressiveness, the Western - MTSC collision in Western Stadium Saturday night at 7:30 stacks up as one of the best attractions in years.

It will mark Western's first OVC showing before the home-folks this season. The Hilltoppers have seldom been more anxious to please.

Fans will get a chance Saturday night to see what promises to be the nucleus of Western's first cross-country team. The Hilltoppers under new track coach Tom Ecker will display what could be the best track team in 20 years at the half of the Western - Middle Tennessee football game, when they will take on the cross-country team from Bellarmine in a two-mile race on the Stadium track.

Ecker, the author of the all-time best selling book, Championship Track and Field, intends to put it into use in the hopes of ending Murray's fabulous streak of five OVC track titles.

Ecker's busy summer of recruiting has turned up such performers as Paul Woodall, who competes in six events; Gary Imel of Sterling, Ill., who holds the national high school indoor pole vault record (13 feet, 6 inches); Dale King of Columbus, Ohio, who had the third best outdoor mark last season (13 feet, 10 1/4 inches); Tom Graham, a freshman from Scottsburg, Ind., who has done the mile in 4:27 and the two mile in 9:45; and Jerome Beazley of Anderson, Ind., who can speed the 880 in under two minutes.

Mickey Brown, a freshman who last years set several records and scored a phenomenal 126 points in 7 meets, will not return to the Western campus this year as he has transferred to Howard Payne College in Brownwood, Texas.

Top Offensive and Defensive Teams Meet

Last year's top defensive team (Western) will meet last year's top offensive team (Middle Tennessee) Saturday night only this year the situation is just reversed. After one week of conference play the Hilltoppers belted out 357 yards to move ahead on team offense while routing Southeast Missouri 28-7. The Blue Raiders meanwhile were blanking Austin Peay 28-0 and holding the Governors to just a mere 24 yards to dominate all team defensive phase.

Blue Raiders Have All-America End

The winner of Saturday night's Western - Middle Tennessee game should go on to capture the OVC, but the Topper's defensive secondary will have to contain the pass catching of All-America end candidate, George Dykes (no relation to this columnist). Dykes led the OVC last year as a sophomore in scoring with 44 points a in pass receiving with 24 catches for 647 yards and 7 touchdowns. Showing mid season form this year he is tied for the scoring lead along with his quarterback Louis Alford.

Daily Heads Two Depts.

Quarterback Jim Daily, New Albany, Ind. senior, heads two statistical departments after one week of conference play. His six completion in seven attempts for 100 yards and two touchdowns and total offense with 113 yards, makes him the only one in the conference to lead in more than one department.

Men's Intramural Program Planned For Fall Semester

An intramural sports meeting was held last Thursday, at which representatives of different clubs, fraternities, and organizations were present. They discussed how the new Men's Intramural Program would be set up.

This fall there will be seven intramural sports offered for the male students at Western. They are flag football, handball, basketball, ping-pong, bowling, and a bridge tournament.

The signing up for these sports will begin in the immediate future. Anyone interested in signing up can do so in the intramural office located in the gym, or by seeing Coach Griffin, Hershall Wallace, or John Blair.

Pres. Thompson Would End Rumors

such speculation, not only in connection with the University of Kentucky but relative to any position, anywhere, regardless of the circumstances.
"At the risk of being immodest, I mention the following: Within the past two years I was officially asked to consider a position which carried with it financial remuneration and national prestige to a much greater extent than my present position. My answer declining to even consider the position was final and without hesitation.
"Inasmuch as my services at Western can rightfully be classified as unique in Kentucky, I hope that my words will not be misread in connection with speculation which might arise regarding any other individual. The descriptive word "unique" is used because of the fact that I am now in my 34th year as an employee of Western Kentucky State College, having been employed by Western's Founder, Dr. H. H. Cherry, in June, 1929. During that long span of time, I have been away from this campus only during a leave of absence of one semester in 1937 and during World War II when I served in the United States Navy.
"I consider my position at Western a matter of dedication and obligation — dedication because of the fact that my work here has been my entire life and will continue to be — obligation because of my fervent desire to repay in some small measure the indescribable contribution which Western has made to my personal life.
"It is my desire to do the very best job that I can as President of Western Kentucky State College. I would under no circumstances leave this endeavor for any other position in the United States, regardless of what it might be."

Dr. Thompson became president of Western in 1955. Since that time the growth and development of the college has placed Western among the national leaders.
 The enrollment has more than trebled since 1955. The physical plant has undergone a spectacular enlargement as eight major buildings have been completed and occupied. Two buildings are now under construction and will be ready for occupancy in Sept. 1963. These are the $3,000,000 Academic-Athletic Building and a 10-story dormitory for men. An eight-grade elementary school in cooperation with the Bowling Green School System will be ready for occupancy on the campus next year.
 The expansion of the teaching staff has kept pace with the rapidly rising enrollment while the curricular offerings have been broadened and expanded to meet the needs of student body.

Both the primary and general election voting will be held in the Student Center. All ballot boxes will be clearly marked. The polls will open at 7:30 a.m. and close at 4:30 p.m. on each election day.

Denhardt Elected Debate Captain

Western Debate Associates of Tau Kappa Alpha met Friday, September 21 in Room 1 of the Student Center to plan the coming year's activities.
 Mr. Russell Miller, head of forensics, was there to meet the class and present Mr. Randy Capps, who will stand in for Mr. Miller during his absence this semester. Mrs. Charles English, coach, also attended and addressed the group. Officers of the associates were elected as follows: Captain, Bob Denhardt; Co-Captain, Ken Duncan; Secretary - Treasurer, Harvey Zimmerman, and Public Relations, Carolyn Patton.
 The question for the coming year is "Resolved that the non-communist nations of the world should form an economic community".
