

Philippine Islands
March 21-45

Dear Sister & Family

Just a few line while I have a few spare hours to let you know that I am still in the Philippines so still fighting the Japs, things over here are pretty tough, for several different reasons. Some which I can't mention but one thing is the flies very one so that a person can't rest for there are so many dead jap soldier laying around there for. Creating lots of flies.

How is Gayton hope he is getting better and able to work. for I know that he wants to work everyday. I found that this had been a cold winter there. it has been 3 yrs since I have seen any snow.

Well there is not any news here. that you would be interested in. Tell all the say Hello and write me all the news for that is what we come from. Some is more news. Hoping all the best of luck Love Robert.
