Dear Eva:

Received your letter, sure was glad to hear from you. I am very sorry I haven't written sooner but you know how it is in the Corp, we are working twenty four hrs a day. Its not like working for the U. S. A.

I am very sorry you dont like Arkansas as well as Ky but as things are at the present I cant say much either way. I would think how ever that as far as hills are concerned there shouldn't be much trouble finding out which has the most ^{best} hills. I always thought it was a pretty level state.

I got a letter from L. B. today.
He said he was in California. He had been in the hospital. I don't know what was the trouble, but he is out and okay now. You know the old saying you don't keep a good man down. L. B. has moved to Morganville. He tells me she has heard wrong about those ty murt yulips. Some people might call it murt yulip, but from what I have tasted it made the hair rise on your head.
It takes a man to dunk it, I don't think people from Arkansas could take it. ⁽³⁾

No I haven't heard from two Tom Smith in quiet awhile or his foot either. I guess they don't have the time to spare to write a "suppose to be sending a letter." I'll get even with them some day. Well I guess I will have to cut this one short this time.
You see I only have a few minutes to write this letter so if I want to get it off today I will have to close. Am sending you the picture you asked for, its not as good but if you have any more or rats and/oral maybe it will serve the purpose. Will write more next time. Love Pete.

 Say kid I'm still waiting for all those letters. I haven't heard from Emma for some time. Has she fallen in love again? I think I had had a few cross words with my

 I miss this in about all

Dear Eva.

Just got off from work so I thought I would drop you a few lines. Hope this card finds everyone well.

If you can read this gap card it's more than I can do. It's hard enough for me to read my own writing.

I really have a time with the yank. Only one Ky boy to help me out. They tell every one I'm from N.Y. so you see I really don't know where I
