Wrote to Anna this morning - wrote you my "Gypsy" letter. The rest of the poem. Anna says she expects to catch, though she is ashamed to say that kind of work. Aunt B. and Rev. have given a good deal of money for the poor. He gave some for the "Gypsy" too. But she says she is afraid it will affect them so it did me. It does not care for any more. It did me up. Anna and Rev. took a long walk this afternoon. After tea you must hurry after the mail - and Rev. my wife, sweetheart - heard from you last night. Anna is still all - from 9 o'clock.

The fish was very old. I saw a very
small fish.
The fish was
very young.
