THE SESSIONS
JULY 22, 1893
TO APRIL 14, 1893

HISTORY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF MOUNT ZION

Muhlenberg County and the town of Greenville were established in the year 1800. Soon after, several Presbyterian Families moved from the upper Counties of Kentucky and settled in the neighborhood where Mount Zion now stands. These Families were originally from Pennsylvania and other states, who came to the West in quest of Land for themselves and their children.

But in all their anxiety to obtain a comfortable situation and living, the Cause of Christ, the Glory of God and the salvation of their children was very near their Hearts. Like David who could not content himself to "Dwell in A House of Cedar," while "The ark of God dwelleth within Curtains;" (2 Sam 7-2). So they; when they had erected comfortable Dwellings for themselves, their next effort was to Build a House for the Lord.

This is a plain House - 24 by 42 - feet with a shingle Roof, with a plain Pulpit and common seats and was put up in the year.

The first Presbyterian minister that came, was The Rev. Mr. Nelson who supplied the Mount Zion and Greenville Churches in the years 1804 and 1805.

Mr. Nelson had some difficulties with some members at Greenville and left for Knoxville Tennessee where he lived and preached many years with great success, usefulness and reputation.

The Rev. Mr. Nelson was a sensible, pious and "elegant Preacher" and much Beloved; especially by the Mt. Zion Church.

The Mount Zion Church was very irregularly supplied with the gospel from 1805 to 1811; when the Rev. Wm. Gray from near Bardstown of Transylvania Presbytery came and supplied the Churches of Mount Zion and Greenville during the years 1811 and 1812.

Mr. Gray, was a very modest, pious and unassuming man, and of humble pretensions in his own esteem so that in his out-start, he could not do justice to his own Talents. He had difficulty in passing the ordeal of Presbytery in entering the Ministry, but became a very pleasing and highly agreeable speaker and a highly useful Preacher.

He was much esteemed and beloved in both Churches and especially at Mt. Zion; but some difficulties arose between him and some Greenville members and he removed to Ohio state, where he settled over two of the largest Churches and became preeminently useful.

The writer heard him conclude a sermon in Pine street Church. Rev. Ezra styles Ely Dd, and such was the Harmony of his cadences, the sweetness and melody of his voice, his pathos and Eloquence, that everything seemed to melt under him.

The Mount Zion Church still having no regular Pastor, had to obtain supplies of Preaching, as she had opportunity. And a great part of the Time when the members heard Presbyterial Preaching they had to go up to the Greenville Court House. The Ministers she heard at Greenville or at Mount Zion from 1804 to 1823 were as follows:

Rev. James McGready

Rev. David Rice

Rev. Wm. Dickey

Rev. Thomas Cleland

Rev. Terah Timpling

Rev. Samuel Reynolds

Rev. Mr. Balch

Rev. Robert Stewart

Rev. Samuel Finley

Rev. James H. Dickey

Rev. John Howe

Rev. Halsey & Mason, Missionaries.

Rev. Mr. Abel

Rev. John Lyle

Rev. Joshua Wilson

Rev. Gideon Blackburn

Rev. Samuel B. Robinson

Rev. Robert A. Lapsley

Rev. Joseph B. Lapsley

Rev. Dewey Whitney

Rev. David Phillips

Rev. Charles Phillips

Rev. Wm. K. Stewart

Rev. John Hamelton

Rev. Lyman Whitney

Rev. Ralph Cahman

In the fall of 1822. The Rev. Isaac Bard visited Mount Zion and Greenville Churches and preached to acceptance and was unanimously called by those Churches in July 25, 1823: yet through informality it was delayed until September at the meeting of Presbytery at Russellville it was accepted.

The Rev. Isaac Bard was ordained at Greenville on July 26, 1823 at Greenville by the Muhlenberg Presbytery and afterwards installed over the Greenville & Mt. Zion Churches and the Right Hand of Fellowship given by the Church Members.

Mount Pleasant was organized afterwards in the fall of 1823 by the Rev. Isaac Bard; Wm. Martin and John Smith were ordained Elders and reported to Presbytery by him and Mount Pleasant Church was put on the List of Churches in the Record Book of Muhlenberg Presbytery.

The Rev. Isaac Bard was Pastor of the Three Churches; Mount Zion, Greenville and Mount Pleasant 10 years; and then resigned the care of them.

He was ever a supply of Mount Zion from 1823 to 1844, and very much during that time also of Greenville and Mount Pleasant.

Towards the churches of his former care he entertains the liveliest feelings of interest and affection, hoping that God will Bless them with his smile and grace and give them shepherds after "his own Heart".

December 1- 1823.

Mt Zion

The Mount Zion Church has had a nominal existence as far back as 1804; but never was really organized until December of 1823; When The Rev. Isaac Bard ordained;

Evangelistic Services were conducted by Rev. F. J. Wharton, of Central City, Ky., from Friday, May 27th to Sunday, June 5th. As a result, seven professed faith in Christ and one reconsecrated his life. Of this number, three signified their desire to connect themselves with the Presbyterian Church. These three were Messrs. James And Irvin Young, and Miss Nannearle Young. During the services, Geo. B., Mrs. Grace S., R. E., Mrs. Lon H, Jno. Wm, Orville Lee and Miss Mary Lula Young, all of the Central City Presbyterian Church., Mrs. Lelia S. Tucker (W.T.) of the New Providence Baptist Church; Mrs. John Baxter of the Nelson Presbyterian Church, and Geo and Daisy Winstead of the DeKoven Methodist Church all signified their desire to be connected with a Presbyterian Church.

On Sunday Afternoon, June 5th under the authority vested in him as Evangelist for Muhlenburg County (Greenville and Graham excluded) Rev. T. J. Wharton organized the Mt. Zion Presbyterian Church receiving the testimonials of the above named; receiving by profession Messrs James and Irvin Young and Miss Nannearle Young. The ordinance of Baptism was administered to Messrs James and Irvin Young. Miss Nannearle Young already having been baptised on Sept. 29th, 1918.

Geo. and Grace S. Young having with them their baptised niece Evelyn who had received the ordinance, Sept. 29th, 1918. and R. E. and Lon Hicks Young brought their baptised child Harry who had received this ordinance on the same day.

The Church having been organized, Messrs Geo. B and R. E. Young were duly elected ordained and installed Elder and Deacon respectively. This church begins its work with fourteen members. There is also a well attended Sunday School. The sum of $200. 00 has been gathered for the purpose of Roofing and plastering the old building, and Mr. J. A. Smith, Senl. Mgr. of the Gibraltar Coal Co. has promised to paint the building.

A new Town Brownie is Springing up nearby and the future is bright. Mr. Wharton has for sometime supplied the church for two Sunday afternoons each month and will continue to do so.
