My Dear Sister.

I thought I would drop you a few lines and let you know what we are doing. I had a very bad spell with my head the night after I left your house - we we staid in glasgow till wednesday morning went to louisville on wednesday Mr Perdegast got through with his business on friday we left there on the after noon train got here sunday after noon Brother Daly was not at home his wife dispatched to him and he got home today and we can start home in the morning you dont know how glad I am we dont have to stay any longer.

Waly of this place and keath of Louisville is the men that is going to California. we will get home on next manday if no accident you dont know how glad I shall be to see our dear Children.
I hope and pray we may find them all well.

Mr Perdegast is almost worn out but feels glad that this business is off his hands did Mastin get home all right. Tell him and Sarah they must write to us give our love to Brother Frank and tell him we would lov to have a letter from him. remember us to Bell and her Husband tell them to write. when we get home we will let you hear from us. Mr Pende-

-gast is gone to get a wagon to take us to the depio in the morning and I have to get our lunch ready so I will have to close.

love to all and a large share for your self.

your sister

Jane Pendegast

P.S. Tell easter she must be a good girl and help you all she can J. P.
