

(Form 18.)

H. H. HANNA, Chairman,
Indianapolis, Ind.
WILLIAM C. CORNWELL,
New York.

M. L. CRAWFORD,
Texas.

J. M. FALKNER,
Alabama.

N. A. FLETCHER,
Michigan.

J. F. HANSON,
Georgia.

C. C. HARRISON,
Pennsylvania.

ROWLAND G. HAZARD,
Rhode Island.

J. B. HENDERSON,
District of Columbia.
SAMUEL HILL,
Minnesota.

JOHN P. IRISH,
California.
C. C. JACKSON,
Massachusetts.

H. H. KOHLSAAT,
Illinois.
EUGENE LEVERING,
Maryland.

JOHN J. MITCHELL,
Illinois.
ALEXANDER E. ORR,
New York.

HENRY C. PAYNE,
Wisconsin.
GEO. FOSTER PEABODY,
New York.

T. C. POWER,
Montana.

H. L. REMMEL,
Arkansas.

E. O. STANARD,
Missouri.

E. B. STAHLMAN,
Tennessee.

AUGUSTUS E. WILLSON,
Kentucky.

W. R. TRIGG,
Virginia.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
OF THE
INDIANAPOLIS MONETARY CONVENTION
OF THE
BOARDS OF TRADE, CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE, COMMERCIAL CLUBS, AND OTHER SIMILAR
COMMERCIAL BODIES OF THE UNITED STATES.

RUSSEL M. SEEDS, Secretary.

Indianapolis, October 1898.

Dear Sir:

Pardon me for addressing to you a printed letter, but the list of our correspondents has grown to such enormous proportions that we find it a physical impossibility to do otherwise, and there are a few things that we desire to say to all.

The greatest danger in this election lies in the indifference, due to over-confidence, of the people who stand for the best and most conservative principles in American politics. In view of this, it is necessary to use every possible effort to bring out a full vote on election day. Every man of your acquaintance should receive from you a personal letter urging upon him the importance of the issues to be decided and begging him to use every effort to bring out a full vote.

No possible opportunity should be lost to combat the argument made by so many candidates standing upon a silver platform, to the effect that personally they are all right. Those who believe in a sound currency should bear in mind that the man elected upon the silver platform will vote with his party caucus at Washington, and a vote for him is a vote directly against sound money. The principle involved is altogether too important to admit of personal preference swaying votes.

Very truly yours,

June 17, 1935.
Presented to Kentucky Library by A. A. Page, Jr., Edmonton, Ky

H. H. Hanna
Chairman.