

House of Representatives U. S.,

Versailles, Ky July 24, 1884
~~Washington, D. C.~~

P. 57

My dear Aunt

I Comply with your request with pleasure
Genl Lewis's wife is a niece of mine, His address at present is of Judge Joseph
H. Lewis, Glasgow, Barren
Co Ky. He is a judge of the Ky Court of Appeals but it being vacation, he is at home, as stated above
Please present me very kindly to Mrs Wright

Your friend
J. C. Blackburn

United States Senate,

Dictated to Stenographer.

Washington, D. C..

February 20th, 1889.

General Duncan S. Walker,
321 Lexington Ave.,
New York City.

My dear Sir:-

Your of the 19th has been received and would be more than glad if I could accommodate you in the direction that you indicate but I have my family all here and it is sufficiently numerous to require all the tickets that are allowed me. If I knew where to get any for you I would gladly do it but I don't know which way to turn.

Very truly,

A. C. Blackburn

*Rep from Ky
Sick Col Confed*

JOSEPH C. S. BLACKBURN.

373
52

32
520

Joseph C. S. Blackburn-

U. S. Senator - Ky.

1885-1897.

Blackburn, Joseph Clay Styles; b. Woodford Co., Ky., Oct. 1, 1838; Sayres Institute, Frankfort, and Centre College, Danville, 1857; lawyer, 1858-1861; Confed. army, 1861-1865; Ky., Legis. 1871, 1873; Repr. Ky, 44th, 45th, 46th, 47th and 48th Congresses (Dem.), 1875-1885; U. S., Senator, Ky., (Dem.), 1885.

