

Hotel Boisseau.

J. C. HARDY, Prop.

Rates $2.00 Per Day. /-
Porters Meet all Trains.

Franklin, Ky., July 1, 1898.

Dear Captain,

It may look like I didn't appreciate your letter but I did most truly.

There is not another man in the world whose praise I enjoy like yours. If I can only be as good a soldier as you were I will be satisfied.

At Chickamauga I had no time to write and since coming back to Kentucky have been very much disappointed not to see you.

This recruiting business is awful. I'd give any thing imaginable to be back in camp.

Hotel Boisseau.

J. C. HARDY, Prop.

Rates $2.00 Per Day.

Porters Meet all Trains.

Franklin, Ky.,

1898.

Something must be the matter
with the young blood of Ky.

Any way volunteers come in very slowly. This town is somewhat terrible. It is the only place we have not been received with open arms but you bet they are cold here. Only two have joined us here & one of them was born in Allen.

We leave for Bardetown & Elizabethtown tomorrow & I'll be awfully glad to get out of here.

Reckon we will all be in Cuba in a couple of weeks & think the 3rd will give a good

Hotel Boisseau.

J. C. HARDY, Prop.

..... Rates $2.00 Per Day. 1-
Porters Meet all Trains.

Franklin, Ky., ..... 1898.

account of itself. Lord! how
I want to get there.

Markham + Warner are making A I men + every body in the Regiment likes them.

Warner is certainly one of the most lovable boys I ever saw.

I see from the papers that the Bankruptcy bill has passed.
Hope you will make a lot of money out of it.

Never was so disappointed in any one as in Clarence Hurd.

I wanted to have a long talk with you before I left Ky but reckon now I'll have to wait till after the war.

Hotel Boisseau.

J. C. HARDY, Prop.

Rates $2.00 Per Day.
Porters Meet all Trains.

Franklin, Ky.,

1898.

If I can only work up to a commission in this fiasco, &
the Volunteer Army is kept up
I think I'll make it a life business, for so far I'd rather be a soldier than a millionaire.

Give my very best to Ed
& Will & with lots of love for yourself I will close.

Your friend
Jack M. Russell

Letter from Jack M. Russell to Edward L. Hines

Letter to Capt. Ed. L. Hines, Bowling Green, Ky.

16

HOTEL BOISSEAU.
J.C. Hardy, Prop.

Franklin, Ky., July 1, 1898.

Dear Captain,

It may look like I didn't appreciate your letter but I did most truly.

There is not another man in the world whose praise I enjoy like yours. If I can only be as good a soldier as you were I will be satisfied.

At Chickamauga I had no time to write and since coming back to Kentucky have been very much disappointed not to see you.

This recruiting business is awful. I'd give any thing imaginable to be back in camp.

Something must be the matter with the young blood of Ky. Any way volunteers come in very slowly. This town is something terrible. It is the only place we have not been received with open arms but you bet they are cold here. Only two have joined us here & one of them was born in Allen.

We leave for Bardstown & Elizabethtown tomorrow & I'll be awfully glad to get out of here.

Reckon we will all be in Cuba in a couple of weeks & think the 3rd will give a good account of itself. Lord! how I want to get there.

Markham & Warner are making AI men & everybody in the Regiment likes them.

Warner is certainly one of the most lovable boys I ever saw.

I see from the papers that the Bankruptcy bill has passed. Hope you will make a lot of money out of it.

Never was so disappointed in anyone as in Clarence Hurd.

I wanted to have a long talk with you before I left Ky. but reckon now I'll have to wait till after the war. If I can only work up to a commission in this frolic, & the Volunteer Army is kept up, think I'll make it a life business, for so far I'd rather be a soldier than a millionaire.

Give my very best to Ed. & Will & with lots of love for yourself I will close.

Your friend,

Jack M. Russell.

Letter written to Capt. Edward Ludlar Hines, C.S.A.