BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY

November 22, 1940

Dear Sir:

I am writing you as the sole owner of the Park City Hotel. For a number of years I have owned a one-half interest in it, and only recently I have acquired the other one-half interest.

I am making a slight change in the rates. Our prices will be as follows:

Room with running water	$1.00
Room with lavatory and commode	$1.25
Room with bath	$1.50

Seventeen new rooms with bath will soon be completed and furnished with nice maple furniture and other strictly modern equipment.

I have appreciated you as a customer of the Hotel and I sincerely solicit your continuing patronage. It is my intention to give the most courteous and efficient service possible by a modern hotel of moderate prices. Our appreciation of your patronage will be shown by our continuous thoughts for your comfort and enjoyment.

Yours respectfully

PARK CITY HOTEL
