

Commonwealth of Kentucky
Henderson County, Kentucky, ss. I, S.

Clayton King complainant of James Moyon in custody de of a deed by broken out women, for this to wit. That where as the said defendant on the 10th day of March in the year 1844, by his Covenant of that date signed & sealed with his good seal which is to the effect now here shown, for value then promised to pay unto the Plaintiff his heirs or assigns seventy five dollars with lawful interest within four years from this date, which it was stipulated by said covenant might be be discharged by the payment of said balance at the new Bonds or Beef cattle in a good likely young horse any of the above articles to be paid at what it will sell for in actual cash yet the said defendant altho often thereto he requested de. hath not yet paid kept and performed his said Covenant but has entirely broken the same so in this that he hath not paid unto the said Plaintiff the said sum of $75. or discharged the same in do. or delivered at the new Bonds, or in Beef cattle, or a likely young horse or in any way or manner what soever. with has entirely broken the same and the same to keep and perform hath wholly failed or neglected and hath both refused to the benefit of the Plaintiff of $200 and therefore he shall do - Forbes vs H.

Stendeman's lawsuit for his Declaration was filed in the Clerk's office of the Stendeman Circuit Court at May 1818. At Barham's

10 15 March 1944

1825
55

Doc at the time had for the country South

One dollar. 12 cents in change

John

St. Andrew's