To any one into whose hands this may fall, we are to day laying the corner stone of our new Baptist Church which the increasing of our membership demands the supposed cost will be $80,000 and as I write this I fully realize that quite probable that not a single person here will be living when this comes to light, and exhort you to live Godly lives and to carry on the work of the Lord, in this part of the earth, and it seems now to me that ⁱⁿ the future years. ^{Bowling Green, Ky.} This work with all the many advantages can be carried much more successfully and rapidly than in the past. God grant that it may be so. With best wishes to you for the building up of the Kingdom, I am,

Fraternally yours,
