Client of the Month

Knights Inn Cave City, KY

The Knights Inn in Cave City was purchased by Percy Ichhaporia and his wife, Urvazi in October 2006. Mr. Ichhaporia owned a gas/convenience store, and opened the wildly popular "Flavors" from around the world, a restaurant in Pune that he designed and created the menus himself. They have already improved the pool and many of the rooms, have a new electronic sign ordered which will be the first and only at the Cave City exit, and plans to have the new bar/restaurant that he has modeled after his successful "Flavors" with some alterations for local taste opening in late April. Percy designed the restaurant interior and is also constructing the menu.

Funded in part through a cooperative agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration. Reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities will be made if requested at least two weeks in advance. Contact [Chris Bixler, 247 Double Springs Rd., Bowling Green, KY (270)843-6071.
