UA96/1 Southern Educator, Vol. II, No. 4

Southern Normal School
Announcement Extraordinary.

The management of the Southern Normal School and Bowling Green Business College is authorized to make the following important announcement:

A corporation with a capital stock of $50,000 is now being organized, in order to provide for the schools a permanent home in the shape of new college buildings, with modern furniture and equipments.

Two hundred wealthy and influential men who live in the State of Kentucky will own the stock of the corporation.

The schools have been, and are, conducted on business principles, and have made money for the owners. However, the present movement contemplates a greater success in all the departments of our work.

The schools will be conducted as heretofore. H. H. Cherry will be the business manager.

There will be no delay other than may be necessary for the carrying out of these plans.

Young people coming to us may confidently expect strong, faithful teaching along the lines of modern thought and action.

A FEW DON'TS.

Don't imagine that the world is going to reward you with success unless you qualify yourself to achieve it by the application of those great forces—Character, Education, Energy.

Don't imagine that you can long deceive the world regarding your real character.

Don't think that name, rank, position or caste can ever take the place of real merit.

Don't think that you are smart enough to dispense with the aid of a Practical Education.

Don't forget that youth is the period of preparation and that every hour's delay endangers your success in life.

EXPRESSION.

By Prof. Francis Joseph Brown, Teacher of Oratory, Elocution and Physical Training Southern Normal School.

All expression is in proportion to the impression. Just in proportion as we are impressed will we be able to give expression to our thoughts.

The power of vocal expression depends upon the meaning and feeling that a speaker puts into his words, and by being able to express his ideas without effort or fatigue.

Effect is always in an inverse ratio to effort. The greater the effort, the less the effect.

The greatest care should be taken to thoroughly establish the sympathy and harmony between the mental and physical action of the voice. It is only when the whole mind is concentrated upon the idea at the time of its expression that the whole body can be aroused to action.

The speaker must not only concentrate upon the subject as a whole, but upon each individual idea at the time of speaking before he can hope to attain effectiveness in expression by the cooperation of voice and gesture. Mind wandering is the opposite of concentration, and is shown by the emptiness of the voice and the meaningless movements of the body. Its most common result is the habit of using "ah" after every few words, which seem to represent a vacancy in the mind between the ideas.

In concentrating upon an idea, most people contract instead of expanding. This is shown by the strained and high-pitched voices of many earnest speakers, hence the fatigue from extreme tension while speaking. The effect is weakened by the contraction of the channels of expression.

In the study of expression we know what is true of the physical is correspondingly true of the mental, and that a responsive body depends upon a responsive mind. Mental freedom means physical freedom, and mental restraint means physical restraint.

An orator should never speak without having thought, reflected and arranged his ideas. He should not merely speak the words, but he should think the idea conveyed in them. All thought requires a certain time for the process of assimilation before it can nourish the mind and inspire it with original energy.

The effectiveness of the speaker is shown by his power to assimilate the thought. Just as food taken into the body shows that it has been assimilated by the energy of the flesh and strength, so will the thought, when assimilated, show itself in expression. When one is genuinely moved every movement is indicative of the passion. We cannot hide any thought that we have assimilated any more than the sun can hide its light or the flower its fragrance.

A thorough knowledge of the subject is absolutely necessary for freedom of expression, and one will find the difficulty is not so much in the expression of the thought as in the suppression of it. But the fear of conception of an idea alone does not guarantee a correct expression any more than a thorough knowledge of colors and lines would make one an artist.

The body must be trained to respond to each particular and individual thought. Learning one particular trade will not make a man an artist in all, but it will make all trades of a similar nature easier to learn.

Through lack of concentration, speak­ers, as a rule, bring out only a very small proportion of the meaning of the words they use. The mind should be so concentrated on the thought that the words, as they drop from the lips, literally burst with the meaning, and not tinkle like dry beans in a pod. Some pronounce the word "ocean" in such a manner as to make it more suggestive of a mill-pond, so vague and insignificant in the meaning attached to it.

The less meaning in the voice the more can be conveyed. Goldsmith says "It is the loud laugh that speaks the vacant mind." If this is true of the laugh, how much more true is it of the speaking voice. The voice should be so full of meaning that we will not see that which is without, but feel that which is within. Every word should be articulated clearly and distinctly as that each element will be given its full significance in its relation to the meaning. No element can be shuffled without obscuring the idea in proportion to the value of the element in its relation to the meaning of the word.

So in the articulation of a sentence do not look for so-called emphatic words. Pronounce every word distinctly, showing the relation each one bears to the development of the thought.

Smart says nothing more distinguishes a person of good from one of mean education than the pronunciation of the unaccented syllables.

The quality of the voice is indicative of the character of the speaker, or in other words quality is to the voice what character is to the individual. There is as much difference between the quality of voices as there is between the density of brass and gold from a physiological standpoint, a pure quality of voice is the language of pure thought. To have a voice all harmony, one must have grand thoughts to express. Mere, low and vicious thoughts cramp and harden the voice.

WANTED.

"The great want of the world is men; men who are not for sale; men who are honest, sound from centre to circumference, true to the heart's core; men who fear the Lord and confound the devil; men who will condemn wrong in friend or foe, in themselves as well as in others; men whose consciences are as steady as the needle to the pole; men who will stand for the right if the heavens totter and the earth reels; men who will tell the truth and look the world and the devil right in the eye; men who neither brag nor run; men that neither swagger nor flinch; men who have courage with out whistling for it, and joy without anything but eating it; men in whom the current of everlasting life runs still and deep and strong; men careful of God's honor and careless of man's applause; men too large for sectarianism and too strong for political cabals; men who do not strive, nor cry, nor cause their voices to be heard in the streets, but who will not fall nor be discouraged till judgment is set in the earth; men who know their message and tell it; men who know their duty and do it; men who know their place and fill it; men who mind their own business; men who will not lie; men who are not too lazy to work nor too proud to be poor; men who are willing to eat what they have earned and wear what they have paid for; men who know Whom they have believed; men whose feet are on the Everlasting Rock; men who are not ashamed of their hope; men who are strong with Divine strength, wise with the wisdom that comes from above, and loving with the love of Christ—men of God!"

We put experience into our Business, Shorthand and Telegraphy courses of study by teaching actual business from the beginning.

Students can enter the Southern Normal School and Bowling Green Business College at any time and get perfect classification.

Read every word in THE SOUTHERN EDUCATOR. It will pay you.
WHERE THEY ARE LOCATED AND WHAT THEY ARE DOING

Allen W. Griffin, of '98, is bookkeeper in Monroe, La.

Jake McGee is now keeping books in a bank in Burksville, Ky.

Mr. A. C. Strode is now in Montana and has a good position.

Miss Lula Neel, of '95, is now mistress of the Hopkinsville Asylum.

H. H. Daughtry is stenographer for T. W. Thomas & Bro., attorneys.

E. W. Dewey has a position as bookkeeper for the L. & N. R. Co.

Myrtle Harper, student of '98, is keeping books in the Business College in '99.

W. T. Oliver & Oliver, attorneys of Benton, have a fine railroad position in '99.

The Board of Examiners of Casey county.

J. N. Holland, Scientific Class of '97, was in Bowling Green a few days ago and will complete the Scientific Course before leaving.

T. M. Wheat, student of '95, was sent by Conference to Earlington, Ky., to take charge of the church at that point.

Miss Lula Cox, of Bowling Green, who was one of our most earnest workers.

Mr. J. H. Poynter, of Texas, is now in England studying art.

Mr. J. O. Poynter, student of '97, is in Berlin, Germany, studying art.

Mr. J. H. Henrichson, of Texas, is now teaching in the West Kentucky Seminary, Beaver Dam, Ky.

Mr. A. C. Strode is now in Montana and has a good position.

Mr. A. L. Strode is now in Montana and has a good position.

Miss Mary Cox, of Louisville, Ky., pupil of '95, is in Bowling Green a few days this fall.

H. P. Gardner, Bookkeeper-Class of '96, is now keeping books in one of the Letchfield banks.

J. A. Zabolio writes that he has planted 4 acres of tobacco.

Mr. J. H. Poynter called upon us a few days ago.

Miss Hettie Millard returned from Mississippi a few weeks ago. She taught school while in the South.

Guy Herdman, who took the Short-hand Course in '97, is now a partner with Hon. Ben Proctor, attorney.

Mr. Joe Davis, of the spring of '96, is now an opera [sic] in the Dickenson (Tea.) Normal School.

Clarence Cherry, student of '94 and '95, is clerking and stenographer under Col. Smith, of the 3rd Ky., U. S. V.

Mr. Orleans Thrillott, Short-hand Class of '95, is now stenographer under Gen. Wilson, who is in Porto Rico.

S. C. Stevens, Scientific Class of '92 and '93, is now teaching in the West Kentucky Seminary, Beaver Dam, Ky.

Henry R. Wagland, who took the Business Course in '93, is now Lieutenant in the United States military company of G written.

Poplar F. Gus Robertson will enter school again in a few days, and will complete the Scientific Course before leaving.

Rev. R. M. Wheat, student of '95, was sent by Conference to Earlinton, Ky., to take charge of the church at that point.

Mr. W. V. Wooten is a student of '98, is now teaching in the State (Ky.) Seminary. He has an excellent position and is giving satisfactory work.

H. M. Snoddy, Scientific Course, has a fine school in Edmonson county, Ky. He will be in an important matter of the Normal.

Mr. Simon Thibouex writes: "I shall do all my power for your school, and will at all times highly recommend it to my friends."

Miss Ails Morgan, student of our Senior Class, has been engaged by many schools and towns in Kentucky to give recitals.

Miss Sue King, Teachers' Course of '98, has a fine school of 23 pupils at Letch-ec, Ky. She has taught 24 months in the last three years.

Miss Lucy Harper writes: "Some of my friends expect to be with you soon. I shall do all I can for your school and consider it a pleasure."

J. W. Bowser, Business Class of '98, has a good position in the Superintend-ent's department of the Asylum for the insane of Los Angeles, Cal.

Miss Myrtle Harper, student of '98, writes that she has a fine school, and that he will return and complete the classic course after Xmas.

Miss Lydia Lassus writes that she will be in school again after the holidays, and that her brother and several of her friends will also enter.

Mr. G. R. Devosher came to see us as he passed through Bowling Green on his way to Texas to take charge of a high school in the "Lone Star State."

Miss Lola Cox, of Bowling Green, who was in our School of Education for several months during the fall of '97, is now in Berlin, Germany, studying art.

Miss M. McRory writes: "I was examined in Tennessee a few days ago and made a life time certificate." Miss Mary was one of our most earnest workers.

Miss Ora Ireland, student of '96, has purchased one-half interest in the "Re- publican," a weekly newspaper published at Princeton, Ky. He writes: "I purchased the place I learned to love in old Kentucky, nor the many friends that I hope yet remain, nor the Grand Old Normal School and Business College, where I spent many happy hours. I was thinking that I would like to spend my days over again, but I must be content to look upon them as of the past."

Mr. J. C. Hinton, student of '98, has a fine school in the Lone Star State. We are now bowling from the Sentinel, a weekly paper published at Salina, Tex.: "The local school opened last Monday morning exceedingly favorably to all except a few of the old pupils. The enrollment on the opening day was 77, but the attendance is in-

WHERE TO GET THE RIGHT START

In the matter of an education, as of every other good thing, quality is a more important item of consideration than cost. A first-class education can only be secured where first-class facilities are provided; where the course of study is up to date in every requirement; where the teachers have a reputation for thorough, conscientious work, with a realizing sense of their great responsibility, and where a certificate of the student's work and worth means a passport to a good position. It is the best business policy to attend a school of this character—it is more than folly to attend one that does not meet those requirements.

We have given many young people a Right Start in Life, and that start gave them the impetus that led to success. Do you want to get started right? Then avail yourself of the facilities afforded by the S. N. B. and R. G. B. C.}

"I am not much of a mathematician," said the cigarette, "but I can add to a man's nervous troubles, I can subtract from his physical energy, I can multiply his aches and pains, and I can divide his mental powers. I can take interest from his work and discount his chances of success."
From The Park City Daily Times, Bowling Green, Ky.: “Notwithstanding the inclement weather a fine audience greeted Prof. Brown in his first reading in this city. The entertainment was given last night at the chapel of the school and every one present was pleased with the extent of the attendance. The Professor demonstrated beyond the shadow of a doubt that he is master of his art, and that Cherry Bros. made no mistake in employing him. He will have a fine class is already assured. Bowling Green people have seldom, if ever, had an opportunity to receive instruction in elocution from a man such as Prof. Brown, and they will not be slow to take advantage of it. At a later date another recital and reading will be given for the public.”

INSPIRATION.

“This universe, all glittering through the stars, Is kept by God, an everlasting school.”

“Never, though the winds may rave, Falter nor look back, But upon the darkest wave Leave a shining track.”

“Don’t wait until the iron is hot, But make it hot by muscle; Don’t wait for wealth your father’s got, Take off your cost and hustle.”

“If you come to a river deep and wide, And you have no canoe to skim it, And fill our future’s atmosphere With sunshine or with shade. The tissue of life to be We weave with colors all our own, And in the field of destiny We reap what we have sown.”

“If you ever mind my boy, Or think that life won’t tell, The work is the work for you, To him that doeth it well. Pancy the world a hill, my boy, Look where the millions stop; You’ll find the crowd at the base, my boy, There’s always room at the top.”

“The name of God advancing Flow and sow and labor now, Let there be when evening cometh, Honest sweat upon thy brow. And then will come the master, When work stops at set of sun; Saying as he pays the wages. Good and faithful one, well done.”

NORMAL COLLEGE NOTES.

This will be the banner year for the Southern Normal.

The second term begins Nov. 15, 1898.

The school has enrolled more students during this season of the year than at any time in its history.

Our students are now taking drills in parliamentary law, and we expect “warm times” in the Moot House of Representatives.

Many of the old students have written us that they will return to school in January, beside quite a number are now with us.

The rates of board and tuition have been reduced.

Dr. W. M. Bailey and his most excellent family have charge of the board- ing departments, and the students are delighted with the same.

The rates of board and tuition have been reduced. It will not cost a student much more to live in Bowling Green than it would at home.

All the teachers join us in promising students who attend the S. N. S. strong and faithful work along the lines of modern thought and action.

We are under many obligations to our many friends who have sent students to the S. N. We are especially thankful to our old students who are so loyal and good to us.

contains the pictures of all the members of the faculty, and an outline of the courses of study.

The Scientific and Classic courses promise to be large and interesting. We are proud of these departments of our institutions. They will be largely patronized the coming year. Students of these departments who get through the courses of study will graduate on the evening of July 14, 1898.

Seventeen dollars pays for tuition for twenty weeks in the S. N. This is only 85 cents per week for tuition. During the season of the year when the student does not burn coal his board will cost $2.15 per week, including table board, room rent and all incidental expenses. When he burns coal his expenses will not be 1 cent over $2.15 per week.
we were always informed on the subject we would not interfere with their plans, for there are many people in this world who will not give up the time to go to school that should enter. Over 3,000 Kentucky teachers alone will remain at home next year when they should be in school, be-bids this the whole South is open to us.
Why should we quarrel, brothers, when there is plenty of room and plenty of work for all of us and a few more?
We must keep the schools open, if you do a high grade work, and be "doing" late and early, and work from a seal that springs from devotion, that we may unconsciously get a few more of your "prospective cares."
We are located forever, and longer
we live the harder it will be to resist us.
We have established a great Normal School, and we want you to investigate the work it is doing and feel confident that if you will that your desire will be to help us, and as far as it is expe-DOWLING GREEN, KY., OCT., 1898.
JEALOUS SCHOOLS.
Many of the schools in this country are our best friends, and have sent us many students and will continue to do so, and we are a thousand times thankful to those institutions for what they have done. We are in sympathy with every trustee, teacher and school that does an honest, faithful and thorough work for the cause of education, and we cannot understand why it is that a few schools that should be our friends will turn "green with jealousy" when they happen to see one of our Catalogues or Journals in the hands of one of their "prospectives." We can get along without one or two of these fellows, and if begins Nov. 15 lasts only 9 weeks. The reason we do this is to be able to com-ence our January term in time to teach 20 weeks before the first Teachers' Examination which is held the first Friday
and Saturday in June '99.
"He teaches best who feels the hearts of all men in his breast and knows their strength and weakness by his own."
what we offer FREE.
Free Course in Vocal Music.
Free Course in Penmanship, under an expert.
Free Course in Free-hand Drawing.
Free Lecture Course.
Free Teachers' Course in practical reading.
Free Membership to the Debating Societies.
Free Membership to the House of Representatives, which is the most thoroughly organised house ever managed by a school.
Free course in Phonetie Spelling.
Free Membership to the Child's Study Club.
Free Drills in Parliamentary Law.
Free Special Course in Psychology and Pedagogy, including special work in Child Study.
No schools have ever offered more Drills for the accommodation and instruction of their pupils than the Southern Normal School and the Bowling Green Business College. The Normal
House of Representatives alone is worth the amount of tuition charged.
CALENDAR.
We have arranged our classes so that students can enter at any time and find classes to suit them. If you are ready to enter school now is the time. It is not necessary to wait. However we give below the time when each term begins.
First term opened September 6, 1898,
and continues for 10 weeks.
Second term opens November 15, '98,
and continues for 9 weeks.
Third term opens January 17, '99, and continues for 10 weeks.
Fourth term opens March 28, '99, and continues 10 weeks.
Fifth term (Summer Term) opens June 6, '99, and continues 6 weeks.
It will be noted that the term which begins Nov. 15 lasts only 9 weeks. The reason we do this is to be able to com-
ence our January term in time to teach
20 weeks before the first Teachers' Examination which is held the first Friday
and Saturday in June '99.
"He teaches best who feels the hearts of
all men in his breast and knows their
strength and weakness by his own."
from Louisiana to Bowling Green just as soon as the quarantine lines are raised.
We guarantee an School of railroad and to all students who join these special parties.
Have you decided to enter school in Kentucky? If you have it will pay you to write now and learn when the next special party will leave your State.
Many students will enter from Louisiana just as soon as the quarantine is raised. Don't wait, but write to us now and get full information.
We are a thousand and Thankful to the old students from Louisiana for the complimentary manner in which they have spoken of our schools, and for many students they have sent to us.
The professionally educated teacher is a comparative novice in his work until he masters the art of school government. He should govern
so as to continuously developmental self control on the part of the pupil, and his training should result in the formation of habits of self-help by the means of the book, and in skill in the art of original investigation and verification; but the novice in teaching finds himself directly opposed by the pupil's self-will at the beginning. —Dr. W. T. Harris.
STATE CERTIFICATE EXAMINA-TION.
Prof. Bell, one of the members of the State Board of Examiners, will be in Bowling Green, the third Friday and Saturday in June, 1899, and assist in holding the State examination. All students who are in our State Certificate Course will have the privilege of taking the examination under one of the State examiners without going to Frankfort.
MISS ELLA HITT.

Our advantages for giving lessons on the Piano and Organ cannot be excelled. Our teacher, Miss E. Hitt, is not only a fine teacher, but a finished musician.

Her natural talent in music has been strengthened by years of teaching and cultivation. Persons desiring work in this line alone, or in connection with other work, will find their needs fully met.

Miss Hitt also has charge of the classes in Vocal Music, which are free to all our students. It is taught as a drill and the classes meet every day.

Special attention is given to voice culture, quartette work and club work. The classes have already shown much enthusiasm under her management.

A LAW COURSE.

We will organize a Law Course in the S. N. B., beginning in January, 1899. Students who are in the Classic Course will be given the privilege of taking Law instead of Greek if they prefer.

SCHOOLS UNITE US.

We are sorry to note that some schools are imitating our methods of advertising and in some cases have copied our advertisement.

After you read the EDUCATOR hand it to some one who is thinking of entering school.

TO TENNESSEE CORRESPONDENTS.

Our patronage from Tennessee is large and growing all the time. The attendance promises to be extremely large during the present year.

Our Tennessee students are delighted with our schools, and are doing all they can to influence their friends to enter.

We give a special course of study for all teachers from Tennessee. Teachers preparing for the different grade certificates can get such a course of study as will fit them for the Tennessee examinations.

We would be glad to hear from you and give you further information about the courses of study.

NEW NORMAL LITERATURE.

By the time you read this the special new Normal literature will be printed. It will give a full outline of the different courses of study, and also a picture of the members of the faculty, together with an announcement of the branches each will teach. It is very attractive. We would be glad to mail this literature to all parties desiring the same.

SEND US NAMES.

Send us the names and addresses of your friends who will enter school and we will mail them our literature. We earnestly request all parties to send the names and addresses of their friends who are thinking of entering school.

TELEGRAPH SCHOOL.

We have decided to give a full course in Telegraphy for $15.00. Board will cost from $2.00 to $2.50 per week. Our Telegraphy school is under the management of an experienced operator who had charge of an office of one of the largest railroad systems in the United States. The course of study given is eminently thorough and practical.

If you think of entering a Business College it will pay you to send for the new catalogue which will be out by November 10th, 1898.

What Will It Cost To Spend Five Months in the Southern Normal School?

SENDENpaque:

Yours here. We will send you a 20-weeks' scholarship to the Southern Normal School for $1. This is only for per week. Excellent salary board would cost you $2.50 per week. You could make your tuition, board, and free book expenses $17.00 for a five months' term in the Southern Normal School. During the season of the year when you do not earn coal, your incidental expenses will be $2.50 per week, and when you have coal, the incidental expenses will be $3.00 per week. This amount added to $17.00 would make your total expenses for ten weeks, or one-half of the term, $20.50. You would have $17.00 and your tuition $2.50, leaving only $30.00 on which board and tuition. If you prefer private board, we guarantee we can stay the same in the best families. The board furnished for $3.00 per week. At the rate your board would cost you $3.00 for five months, and your tuition $7.50 for the same length of time, you would have only $70.00 on which to live for the entire term of five months. Very truly yours.

CHERRY BROTHERS.

For R. H. CHERRY.
BUSINESS COLLEGE NOTES.

The book-keeping classes are large and interesting.

We teach actual business from the beginning.

Students are given individual instruction in Business during the entire day.

Experience is put into our course of study by teaching actual business from the beginning.

We recommend whole men—and not half-hearted, half-saved and a piece of a man to a position.

Mr. Harman, who has not a superior as a business writer, is getting wonderful results in his classes in rapid business writing.

The class in rapid addition is an interesting feature of our Business College work. Some of our students are already experts in addition.

Mr. Ashby, who is principal of the Business Department, is skillfully managing his work. He knows how to teach business as well as penmanship.

The magnificent new Business Hall is crowded with aspiring conscientious students who know that they must "get ready" before they "get a position."

The Bowling Green Business College is raising the standard of Business Education, and the students and the correspondents who have mind enough to think, appreciate same.

A copying tedious and mechanical text book method is not permitted for one minute in our Business College. Our students must know and be able to do business before they leave us.

Our school is not overrun with a swarm of "suckers" who nibble at "Guaranteed Position Bait," and who, after getting caught, filled the atmosphere with denunciations of business education.

Times are better. Prosperity is here. Young people want positions but are not willing to make the necessary preparation, and yet they wonder why they fail. It is heart sickening to hear the wails of those unfortunates.

It would be a little trouble in making them believe that we are not yet a Rockefeller, Gould or Vanderbilt. Our friends cannot understand what becomes of the vast amount of money collected from the hundreds of students who enter our schools. They fail to consider the large amount of money that is required to run the schools.

It takes cautious, conservative management that is capable of locating the difference between a false and true method and premise to run a school.

The entire object of true education is to make people not merely do right things, but to enjoy right things; not merely industrious, but to love industry; not merely learned, but to love learning; not merely honest, but to hunger and thirst after honesty. —Ruskin.

"Wind and vision" would soon break a case of prosperity and turn it into bankruptcy.

"The entire object of true education is not a superior as a business writer, is getting wonderful results in his classes in rapid business writing.

The class in rapid addition is an interesting feature of our Business College work. Some of our students are already experts in addition.

Mr. Ashby, who is principal of the Business Department, is skillfully managing his work. He knows how to teach business as well as penmanship.

The magnificent new Business Hall is crowded with aspiring conscientious students who know that they must "get ready" before they "get a position."

The Bowling Green Business College is raising the standard of Business Education, and the students and the correspondents who have mind enough to think, appreciate same.

A copying tedious and mechanical text book method is not permitted for one minute in our Business College. Our students must know and be able to do business before they leave us.

Our school is not overrun with a swarm of "suckers" who nibble at "Guaranteed Position Bait," and who, after getting caught, filled the atmosphere with denunciations of business education.

Times are better. Prosperity is here. Young people want positions but are not willing to make the necessary preparation, and yet they wonder why they fail. It is heart sickening to hear the wails of those unfortunates.

It would be a little trouble in making them believe that we are not yet a Rockefeller, Gould or Vanderbilt. Our friends cannot understand what becomes of the vast amount of money collected from the hundreds of students who enter our schools. They fail to consider the large amount of money that is required to run the schools.

It takes cautious, conservative management that is capable of locating the difference between a false and true method and premise to run a school.

The entire object of true education is to make people not merely do right things, but to enjoy right things; not merely industrious, but to love industry; not merely learned, but to love learning; not merely honest, but to hunger and thirst after honesty. —Ruskin.

"Wind and vision" would soon break a case of prosperity and turn it into bankruptcy.

"The entire object of true education is not
THE FACULTY.

T. C. CHERRY, (Teaches Scientific and State Certificate Courses)
English Grammar, Literature, Methods of Teaching and School Government.

H. H. CHERRY, (Business Manager Southern Normal School and Bowling Green Business College) Lecturer and School Economy and Civil Government.

J. R. ALEXANDER, (Classic and State Certificate Courses)
The Sciences, Mathematics and Physiology.

J. C. WILLIS, (Classic and State Certificate Courses)
Latin, Greek, Higher Mathematics, Ethics, English Criticism and Psychology.

MISS ELLA HITT, (Musical Director)
Plains, Organ and Vocal Music.

FRANCIS JOSEPH BROWN, (School and Independent Oratory, Elocution and Physical Culture.)

MRS. J. C. WILLIS, (Art Department.)
Oil, China, Pastel and Crayon.

MRS. H. H. CHERRY,

W. S. ASHBY, Book-keeping, Business Practice, Commercial Law, Penmanship and Free Hand Drawing.

J. LEWIE HARMAN, Spelling, Penmanship, Arithmetic and Private Secretary.

E. G. ANDREWS, (Stringed Instruments and Orchestra Department.)
Mandolin, Violin, Viola and Cello.

A. B. LYON, (Telegraph School.)
Instructor in Telegraphy.

MISS MARY BEISEL, (Art Department.)
W. S. ASHBY, Stringed Instruments and Orchestra Department.

J. C. BROUSSARD, Mandolin, Violin, Viola and Cello.

L. W. POWELL, (Art Department.)
French, Book-keeping and Arithmetic.

WILLIS, FRYE AND W. L. PHILLIPS, (Office Stereotypers.)
We believe that the life and existence of a school depend to a large extent on the faculty and the administration. We know that no school in this country has a stronger and more painstaking faculty than the S. S. B.

We are conscious that the glory and inspiration that characterize a great school depend to a great extent upon the faculty, and with this in mind we have employed men and women who are devoted to teaching, and who are authority on the subjects they teach. We employ men and women who have spirit and enthusiasm enough to drive their lives into the lives of our students and cause them to look to higher ideals and nobler purposes.

A dead, formal, cold and 'strangely dignified' teacher in our faculty would either have to "thaw out" and get a little of the spirit or else we would discharge him for incompetence. We do not employ "dummy teachers."

The members of our faculty are in sympathy with our students and don't forget them. We are not in the habit of getting sidetracked on the idea that we are gone, but we watch their course in life and are at all times ready to help them.
Mr. Brown can be engaged for an evening’s entertainment, in full or part program. For further particulars, address

H. H. CHERRY, Business Manager, Bowling Green, Ky.