WHY THE BULLETIN!
If the church would advance its aspirations must be voiced to its own members as well as the community at large.
How is it to be rallied, strengthened and inspired but by voicing its aspirations and upholding before it lofty and noble ideals.
How can this be done better than by the Bulletin, which is the voice of the people and the prognosticator of a Greater Taylor's Chapel.

CHURCH NEWS.
Sunday, January 13.
In spite of the snow Sunday the members and friends poured into the Chapel to hear our P. E., Dr. J. H. Abel, who preached two great sermons. He was at his best and carried his hearers off their feet by his eloquent delivery.
Two were converted and seven joined the church.
Those added to the church were: Selma Moxley, J. L. Rhea, Vesden Brooks, Holster Angel, Hoyt Goodnight.
Those converted and added to the church were Edna Shaffer and Finis Angel.
This in itself says the church is moving on towards a greater Taylor's Chapel. There were a number of visitors among them were, Rev. and Mrs. P. Wilkerson, pastor C. M. E. Church and wife; Rev. Overall, of Dyer, Tenn.; Mrs. Charlotte Cox, her daughter, Clara Mae, and cousin Birdie Lee Guest, Scottsville Pike; Mrs. Mary Simpson and Mrs. Ethel Johnson, both of Terre Haute, Ind.; Mrs. Delia Milligan, Indianapolis, Ind., and Mr. Sample. We invite you to call again.
If you haven't a church home, make one, by joining Taylor's Chapel.

BIBLE QUERY BOX.
What is the proper mode of baptism? (b) Where in the Scriptures will I find immersion? (c) Why do Methodists hold that sprinkling or pouring is right? G. M. B.
Answer. (a) The Scripture gives none; (b) Nowhere; (c) We hold that sprinkling or pouring is right as water baptism is a symbol of spiritual baptism, which is uniformly expressed by the term sprinkling or pouring. (See Isa. 44:3; Ezek. 36:25; Joel 2:28; Acts 2:18, 33; I Cor. 10:1, 2; Titus 3:5, 6; Heb. 12:24.
(a) Where was the A. M. E. Church founded? (b) Is the place in the Bible? B. P. P.
Answer: (a) Philadelphia; (b) Yes, it is in the Bible. Read Rev. 3:7.
Hand in your questions today, and look for the answer.

Mrs. Emma Allen, College street, is much improved.
Mrs. Julia Lovati, 700 Kentucky street, is on the sick list.
The daughter of Mrs. Helms, Fifteenth street, is on the sick list.
Don't forget Greater Taylor's Chapel.
You that failed to pay the P. E. are indebted to the church.
Everybody is talking about a Greater Taylor's Chapel.
Mrs. J. Jenkins and Mrs. P. Wilkerson, 404 Center street, went to Bristol, Ky., Wednesday night on business of the Mozart Lodge.
Mrs. Hill, W. Main street, is recovering from a fall she received accidentally.
We wish to announce that we have added to our staff of editors, the very efficient young lady, Miss V. N. Curd.
Mr. J. S. Bland, 401 Fourth street, accidentally burned his hand Sunday night and his little daughter, Lilly Mae, is on the sick list.

Mrs. Mary Hampton and Mrs. Georgia Turner, both of Swilkey, Pa., are in the city, having been called here by the serious illness of their father, Mr. Geo. Madocks, of Main street, who died Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. West tenders her regards to all the members and friends and asks their prayers for the speedy return of her mother's health.

Those remaining on the sick list this week are Mr. Geo. Vick, Mrs. C. Lynn, both on Eleventh street, and Mr. Bill Williams, Fair Ground street.
Mrs. Josephine Pryor, Fourth street, who was on the sick list last week, is able to be out, and also Miss Birdie Jackson, 702 Kentucky street, and Mrs. Florence Adams, 404 Center street.

Mrs. Ella Bryant, of Franklin, Ky., has returned home after visiting her sister, Mrs. Willie Finn, this city.
Mr. and Mrs. Blay, son, Edward, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Colbert, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Keller, Miss Dora Keller, Mrs. Sallie Cage, and Mr. Thurman Goodnight, were the dinner guests of Mrs. Betty France, 527 Kentucky street, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Simpson and Johnson, who were among the out-town guests at the Silver Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Houston Cox, will leave Saturday for their home in Terre Haute, Ind., after spending a pleasant fortnight in the city. While here they worshipped Sunday morning at the Chapel.
Mrs. Charlotte Cox, Scottsville Pike, Mrs. Mary Simpson, the sister of Mr. Cox, and Mrs. Ethel Johnson, both of Terre Haute, Ind., were the breakfast guests of Mrs. Dr. Z. K. Jones, State street, Wednesday, January 16. They will also be the dinner guests of Mrs. Annie Willis, Friday, at 523 Second street.
The Pastor was a visitor in Jonesville Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobson and Mrs. Loving are on the sick list.

Rev. Loving, who went to Cincinnati to visit his daughter, is sick.

Mr. Porter Nicholson, of Thomas street, is much improved.

The officers of Diamond Lodge No. 23 K. of P., were installed Monday night by B. P. Pryor District Deputy.

Stewardess Board No. 2 met with Mrs. Mary Kellar, Tuesday afternoon, January 15, at her home on North Kentucky street. By five o'clock the members of this splendid society had gathered for the regular weekly meeting. Visitors present were: Misses R. A. Brown, J. Winlock, Presiding Elder J. H. Abel, and wife, and Prof. W. M. Wilson.

After devotions and the transaction of the business that came before the body, the Society and its visitors retired to the dining room for dinner. The menu follows: Oyster cocktail, roast turkey, creamed potatoes, peas, cheessed macaroni, candied yams, hot biscuit and butter, jello and cake.

All in all, it was a great meeting and the dinner was such that even a king might enjoy.

MRS. BETTIE FRANCE,
President of Board.

MISS DAISY BOYD,
Secretary.

The Bulletin and its readers extend to Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bland, 401 Fourth street, their deepest sympathy in their loss by death of their little nephew, Chas. Richard Huskey, Sunday. And also to Mrs. Cole in the death of her nineteen-year-old son, Vincent Sears.
WHAT ONE OF YOUR EX-PASTORS
SAYS ABOUT THE BULLETIN.

1934 W. Walnut St.

My Dear Dr. West:

Many thanks for the newsy little Bulletins you send me—something Taylor's Chapel has long needed. You are on the right track, keep it up.

Regards to the Madam and all friends.

 Truly your Bro.
        J. ACTON HILL.

Sunday, Jan. 20.

A goodly number were present
for morning worship.

The pastor preached at 11:00
a. m. Three were added to the church.

Those joining were Francis Lov­
all, Nellie Lynn and Alvis Mohon.

This says we need a greater Taylor’s Chapel.

Mrs. Dr. Z. K. Jones was a welcome visitor at the chapel, and also Dr. Abel.

A Greater Taylor’s Chapel is our aim.

WANTED—250 new members to join Taylor’s Chapel. The church with a welcome for all strangers and visitors.

We acknowledge with pleasure
the work you have done this quarter; the records show a marked increase along all lines. A total of 28 full members and seven probationers without any revival or special effort is no bad record.

Who can deny that the church is moving on towards the goal of a Greater Taylor’s Chapel.

Dear Fellow Members:

I regret to have noticed your absence from our services recently, and am sending this brief message of my interest in you, hoping that you can resume your regular attendance very soon. If possible, I want you to be present on Sunday next.

Fraternally yours,

THE PASTOR.

Sunday was a red letter day, the pastor preaching at each service.

Misses Louise Merrit and Exery Jones were added to the church. The name of Miss Bertha Wade was taken and sent to State street church.

The visitors were so numerous that space will not permit the giving of their names. Three were baptized.

This makes a total of thirteen new members for the month added to Taylor's Chapel. Does not this say that the church is moving on?

Mr. Hoyte Goodnight, Fairground street, is on the sick list. Also Mrs. Bill Grider and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Tenth street.

Allen's Day Celebration week of February 10th.

A Greater Taylor's Chapel is our aim.
The Pastor would like to meet the following named persons after morning service: Mrs. Bettie France, Mrs. and Mrs. S. Gipson, Mrs. Blye, Mrs. Florence Taylor, Misses D. Keller, Exery Jones, Mr. R. Angel, M. Covington, H. B. Huffman, S. Shaffer, L. Merrit, Mr. R. Jackson, E. J. Wideman. Messers. T. Goodnight, Samuel Starks, Finas Angel and B. G. Hurst.

Miss C. E. Goodnight entertained Board No. 2 at her home, 232 High street, Tuesday. All the members were present but one, after the regular business we were served with delicious refreshments. Music was an added feature of the program.

Hereafter all envelopes will be left with the pastor and turned over to the secretary on Tuesday night.

As we go to press we learn of the burning of one of the dormitories of Wilberforce University. This institution is the oldest institution for Negro Education in the world. It is owned and controlled by the A. M. E. Church.

The failure of the Secretary to turn in the envelopes on Tuesday night and the recent illness of the Pastor, the monthly report will be deferred until next week.

The Pastor was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer, 418 Center street Sunday.

Col. G. W. Bowles was in the city on business connected with the U. O. O. F. Lodge. He visited the Chapel and gave an excellent talk.

Mr. Clarence Bland, of Louisville, and son, were in the city being called here by the death of Mr. Bland's father, Mr. Tobie Bland.

Mr. J. B. Winrow was brought home from Louisville for burial Sunday. The funeral services were held at State street Church, Rev. Offut, pastor, officiating.

We are now in the second month of the New Year.

The increase in attendance is noticeable at all services. The offerings have increased 3% per cent, which speaks well for the membership. Credit is due the envelope and Bulletin system that has acted like magic in awakening the members to the duty of the hour and turning the eyes of the public upon you.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 17.

In spite of the heavy rain that continued throughout the day, quite a crowd gathered in the large auditorium of the chapel for service.

The visitors were numerous. Miss Beatrice Palmore was added to the church, making a 20 per cent increase in members. Already the offerings have increased to 47 per cent, attendance 66 2-3 per cent, and interest in a greater Taylor's Chapel has reached the 99 2-3 per cent mark.

Our aim is a 100 per cent church.

All present Sunday, I am sure, saw the need of a greater Taylor’s Chapel.

We are glad to report that the spirit of harmony exists among the members as never before. If you are looking for a church with love, peace, joy and good will towards all, just come over to the Chapel. The place where the crowds go. We invite you to attend our services. They are worth while. Don’t worry about getting a seat, the ushers will look after that. Don’t bother about the style, we want you to feel free to worship God in your own way.

Baptizing Sunday, March 2, at which time the pastor will preach a baptismal sermon. Come and hear it.

The following named persons will meet at the parsonage, 867 Eleventh street, Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o’clock: Mrs. H. C. Hampton, E. Garriosn, Mr. and Mrs. H. Goodnight, H. Mahon, S. Vick, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Jenkins, Mrs. Mazell Hines, Julia Lively, Misses S. Hardin, G. M. Beasley; H. Cox, Mrs. Denning, Mrs. M. Covington, Mrs. C. Board No. 1 met with Mrs. Julia Carter, 409 Chestnut street. After the regular business, we then repaired to the dining room where we enjoyed a wonderful dinner.

Board No. 2 met with Mrs. Bettie France, 527 Kentucky street, Wednesday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Christian Fort, of Evansville, Ind., is in the city, being called here on account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. Amanda Lewis, Tenth street.

Mrs. Pearl Vanneter died Wednesday night at her home on Main street.

There will be a candy pulling given at the church, Wednesday evening, February 27, by the members of the Young People's Progressive Club.

HOSTESS AT DINNER.
Miss Lura Lee entertained with a dinner Sunday at her home, 327 Chestnut street, to compliment Misses Bertha Wilson and Exey Jones. A delicious course dinner was served.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank the friends for their kindness during the recent illness and death of our mother, Mrs. Belle Grider. We thank the choir for their sweet music, Rev. West, the pastor of Taylor's Chapel, Presiding Elder Abel and Rev. W. Hampton and the donors of the beautiful floral designs.

THE CHILDREN.

A. C. E. LEAGUE.

On account of the inclemency of the weather quite a few were present at the League Sunday evening. If you want courage, determination, enthusiasm and ambition to exist in the League, be present Sunday evening at 5:30 in the discussion 'How To Create a Greater Interest in the League.'

Visitors welcome.

The Young People's Progressive Club met at the home of Mrs. E. I. Wiseman, Monday evening, February 18th, at four o'clock. The following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. E. I. Wiseman; Vice President, Miss Lura Lee; Secretary, Mrs. Josephine Pryor; Treasurer, Miss May Willia Ray; Pianist, Miss Ruby N. Johnson; News Reporter, Miss Harriet A. Huffman.

The hostess served a delicious salad and ice course which was enjoyed by all.

Mr. George Porter, of Indianapolis, Ind., a student in Indiana University, spent a few hours Wednesday in the city en route to Nashville, Tennessee, where he will visit for a few days.

Misses V. V. Andrews and N. A. Moreland, of the State Street School Faculty, gave interesting addresses to the faculty Wednesday evening. Miss. Andrews on "The Value of English," and Miss Moreland, "Why We Should Have Laboratory Work In Our Schools."

A statement in a local paper, made it appear that Dr. Jones was operating or allowing gambling devices and games to be operated about his office. The facts are some tenants in Doorets building owned by him at 310 Main street, were accused by other tenants, but were unwilling to substantiate the charge in the open. Later the matter was reported to Judge W. O. Rodes who acquitted him with the facts, then Dr. Jones had the offending tenants to move. There was no trial, continuance of case, or other legal procedure as one might be led to believe from the wording of the article. No notice other than that stated was given.
We are in receipt of a letter from Bishop A. J. Carey, stating that because of the fact that our General Conference meets in May, the Commencement of Turner College will be in April.

And our Educational Rally, which we have formerly held in May will be held in March, and each pastor is requested to raise his quota and be ready to report in Lexington, March 31st.

The amount to be reported from Taylor's Chapel is $35.00, or any amount over that we can raise.

Fifty cents per member would carry us far over the $100.00 mark. I am sure that there is not a member nor friend that does not feel interested enough in education to donate freely to this cause.

Therefore, be it known, that the fifth Sunday in March will be observed by the membership of Taylor’s Chapel as Connectional Funds Day, on which day a special program will be rendered.

A letter has been received from our Presiding Elder asking that each pastor will do his bit to make the Bowling Green District a success.

As head of the District, Taylor’s Chapel cannot afford to lag, as other churches are watching you, and as you do they will do.

A man cannot successfully work when the head is wrong, neither can the Bowling Green District, if Taylor’s Chapel fails in her reports.

SICK LIST THIS WEEK
Miss Nancy Potter, Eleventh street; Mrs. M. E. West, 867 Eleventh street; Mrs. Lucy Granger, 602 College street.

A Greater Taylor's Chapel

VOL. I. Bowling Green, Ky., March 2, 1924 NO. 9.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 24.

The crowds continue to increase. Rev. J. W. Crews was a welcome visitor at the Chapel Sunday and preached morning and evening. All present enjoyed the services and said it was like olden times. His sermons were thoughtful, practical and inspiring. We extend a hearty welcome to the Doctor at all times.

Prof. L. W. Hughes, Woodburn, Ky., and Mrs. Christiana Fort, of Evansville, Ind., were among the visitors.

Hitch your wagon to the star! What star? Your highest aim. What is that? Greater Taylor's Chapel.

Another move toward a greater Taylor's Chapel was demonstrated at the business meeting Tuesday night. The program for March was drawn up. Watch the Bulletin for program. The following persons will constitute the Finance Committee; Messrs. C. M. Rhea, J. F. Moxley, J. W. Keller, J. T. Allen, T. Goodnight, J. W. Robinson, Mrs. M. B. Abel, Mrs. L. Henry and Miss D. Keller.

Mrs. H. Moxley and L. Henry are to have the supervision of the Dinner Committee.

Mrs. L. Henry and M. B. Abel were appointed chairmen of the Entertainment Committee.

Sunday, March 23rd, was adopted as joint Rally Day.

Sunday, March 30, Educational Rally.

Those holding Brick cards will please turn them in today.

Board No. 2 met at the residence of Mrs. M. Keller, 410 Kentucky street, Tuesday.

The Young People's Progressive Club met with Miss Mildred Gipson, 218 Kentucky street, Monday. Three new members were added. The hostess served salad and ice courses.

The Willing Workers Club met and organized Thursday with the following officers: President Miss C. D. Cox; Vice President, Miss H. Goodnight; Treasurer, Mrs. H. C. Hampton, Secretary, Mrs. Rose Angel; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. M. E. West; Reporter, Mrs. Mazel Hines.

The W. W. Club will meet at the residence of Mrs. H. C. Hampton, 867 Tenth street, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. They will give a leap year entertainment Monday night. A prize of $2.00 will be given the best dressed couple.

Old Folks' Concert Monday night.

Dear Member:

This is my fourth month as pastor and you haven't been to church yet. We are sorry your faith is so weak, as to cause you so little concern about your church and your duty towards God and it.

We take this method of notifying you that unless you want to be classified as no good and published as being against the administration you will please start the habit of attending church.

There is something for you at Taylor's Chapel

The faculty and student body of State street High School are enjoying many inspiring and beneficial lectures this term. On February 29th, Miss G. M. Beasley addressed the faculty and students. Her subject "Culture of the Body" was well discussed and vividly showed the kinship of physical development to mental development.

On March 5th Misses Brown and Carpenter gave professional lectures to the faculty. Miss Brown discussed "The Will Power" and brought out many helpful points on self control and value of mental training. Miss Carpenter discussed "Music in the Public School."

Beginning Saturday, March 8th, the ladies of Taylor's Chapel will serve dinner to the men and public in the Loving building, every Saturday thereafter. Dinner 35c. Proceeds to go for a Greater Taylor's Chapel.

The Young People's Progressive Club met with Mrs. P. B. Pryor Monday. Three new members were added. Mrs. M. E. West was a guest.

A great meeting was reported. The hostess served salad and ice courses. Next meeting at Miss Edna Shaffer's, 418 Center street, Monday 4 p. m.
PREACHING SCHEDULE TODAY.

Pryor's Rising Club will meet Thursday night at the residence of B. P. Pryor, 408 Chestnut street.
The League will render a program Sunday evening.
Mr. Porter Nicholson was the dinner guest of his daughter, Mrs. H. Goodnight, Sunday.

The Bowling Green Musical Society organized under the direction of Mr. E. W. Edwards will meet March 20th, with Mrs. Bernice Martin, State street. Hours 5:30 to 7:00 p. m. The president urges a full attendance of members.
Prof. W. C. Jackson, son of the well-known Mrs. L. E. Jackson a teacher in the city schools for more than twenty years, has closed his school at Hiseville, Ky., and returned home to visit parents and friends. Miss C. N. V. is very happy to know of his coming.

If you are looking for a church where efficiency counts, come to the Chapel.

The Gatewood Chautauqua Club enjoyed a very pleasant meeting with Mrs. Sally Claypool, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Claypool is the oldest member of the club and despite her age she always gives the club a hearty welcome. A delicious two course lunch was served.

Day by day in every way we see the need of a "Greater Taylor Chapel."
At the opening of Sunday School last Sunday morning there were twenty men and boys present and only two girls. Girls, what are we going to do about this? Wake up and take your rightful place.

The Young Peoples Progressive Club met with Miss Edna Shaffer, Monday at 418 Center street. Two new members were added. Miss G. M. Beasley was a guest. A great meeting was reported. The hostess served delicious refreshments. Guess who didn't know how to use a thimble? Next meeting with Miss M. R. Angel at the home of Mrs. Houston Cox, on South Broadway, Monday 4 p. m. The Club will give a peanut hunt March 31st, and an Apron Social April 16th.
The candy pulling given by the club at the residence of Miss M. Gipson, 218 Kentucky street, was another step towards a Greater Taylor's Chapel.

FRONT LINE S. S.
By J. F. M.

To secure the systematic study of God's Word on the part of the individual and to make membership in the Sunday School possible for all.
In spite of the great enlightenment
the age the widespread knowledge of God's Word, the increased activity for political and social reforms in the multiplicity of organizations of the Christian church, we have come upon a condition in the home life of the Nation that is alarming. The home has gradually given up its duties and functions,
abrogated its rights and prerogatives,
until there is danger that it will be no longer the center of building a nation in virtue, religion and prosperity.

The first great need is the revival of the Study of the Bible in the home.
In thinking of any community it is possible to call to mind a vast army of people who are never seen in Sunday School or church. Many of them are hindered from attending by reasons wholly beyond their control, mothers with little children or other household cares, the sick and those who care for them, the aged, many who were once active in the work of the church and Sunday School.

Then, too, our economic and social life has made it impossible for thousands of others to attend because they are employed on the Lord's Day.

Fifty years ago the Sunday School was largely considered a children's school. No plan had been perfected for reaching youths and adults, and those who could not attend. Today the Sunday School not only has classes of all those who can attend regardless of age. It is also making it possible for those who can't attend to share in the privileges and blessings of the organized Sunday School through its Home Department.

Dr. D. B. Cabell, of the Safe
Drug Co., who recently underwent a serious operation, spent two days in the city and his many friends
here were glad to see him.
The crowds are so great at the Chapel that we are compelled to have a new church.

If you are looking for a church that is alive come to the Chapel.

There is something for you at Taylor's Chapel.

At the church conference and official meeting held Tuesday night it was voted that all clubs holding or raising money for Greater Taylor's Chapel shall report and pay all money collected to the Finance Committee on or about the 25th of each month.

The Tacky Social by W. W. board Monday night, was a success.

TUESDAY NIGHT, MARCH 25

Dante's Inferno, in motion pictures, also religious and educational pictures and Travelogues, by Prof. Tully at the Chapel. Admission 10c and 15c.

Miss Exy B. Jones is out again after a short illness.

Mrs. Mahala Potter is on the sick list.

The home of Mrs. L. Blakey burned Tuesday afternoon destroying everything she had.

The boards are all at work and they say we must have a Greater Taylor's Chapel.

The city is alive with interest in a Greater Taylor's Chapel.

If you are not with us get out of the way, or else we will run over you.

Dr. J. A. Hill, the silver-tongued orator, will preach at the Chapel Sunday, April 6th, and lecture Monday night, April 7th.

Peanut Hunt, March 31st.

Apron Social, April 15th.

Dust Cap Social, April 8th.

Mr. and Mrs. Colbert, of Scottsville, have moved to Bowling Green. Also Mr. and Mrs. Spence.

Mr. A. B. Owsley, Ann Arbor, Mich., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Geo. Isabell, 322 Kentucky street.

Thursday evenings are really enjoyed by the choir members. When the weekly rehearsal was held at Miss R. Johnson's, delicious brick cream and cake were served and at Miss L. Lee's, fruits were enjoyed by all. Long live the choir of Old Taylor and long may it sing to the Glory of God.

After a very interesting meeting the hostess served a delicious luncheon. This meeting will be long remembered.

The next meeting will be with Misses H. A. Huffman and Mattie L. Covington, Monday, 4:00 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Mary Kellar, 410 Kentucky street.

Day by day in every way we see the need of a "Greater Taylor Chapel."
Sunday the spacious auditorium of the Chapel was almost filled. The visitors were Miss Mabel Hill, Mr. John Alexander, Prof. Reynold and Mr. Virgil Cole.

The church is moving on, every day in every way.

There has been up to now, an increase in new members to the number of forty, and everybody seems anxious to do something for the church.

We make this plea for education. Let us show our colors today and rally to this cause. We were asked for $35.00. Since that is just an ordinary collection, let us see how much over that we can raise.

Go where every one goes. Where? To Taylor’s Chapel.

Sunday was high day in Zion. Miss Essie Robeson was added to the church.

The coming of Spring continues to increase our congregation.

A number of visitors were present. We invite you to come again.

The K. of P.'s annual sermon was delivered by the pastor and everything was carried out in fine order. The choir was at its best and also the pastor.

Sunday night the Educational and A. C. E. League programs were fine. We mention especially the paper by Miss E. A. Brown and talk by Prof. H. J. Reynolds.

If you are looking for a church where efficiency counts, come to Taylor's chapel.

Baptizing today. Communion Sunday, April 13th, and Quarterly Meeting. Each class leader will collect from his class $5.00 or more, and the leader reporting the largest amount over five dollars will be given the smallest Bible in the world.

Our secret investigation department reports our enemies setting a trap and planning a frame-up. Unable to stop our progress by coldness, indifference, criticism, sarcasm and mockery, they have resorted to a cheap, mean and very low trick of trying to kill our influence. This is to notify you that we are wise to the game and your purpose. In the Bulletin dated Feb. 17, we told you it was your own death you were planning. Now stand from under for something is about to fall with a crushing blow.

in order to protect the church we are compelled, after giving fair warning, to expose and denounce the promoters of this black crime. I think the church should know who you are that would be traitors and have her fail. Read the next issue of the Bulletin.

Miss E. B. Jones spent the week-end in Louisville

Dr. J. H. Abel, P. E., and Rev. T. E. West, the pastor, attended the Educational meeting of the A. M. E. church in Lexington Monday.

Dr. Abel has just returned from Nashville, Tenn., where he attended an educational mass meeting for Turner College. He reports great success at both meetings. Rascoe Conkling Simmons was the principal speaker at Lexington, Ky., and Nashville, Tenn.

Mrs. Carrie Bryson, of Indianapolis, Indiana, was called home because of the illness of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Green, 321 Park street.

Mr. Haskins, of Lexington, State Inspector of the N. B. A., spent a few days in the city last week.

If your Education is measured by what you give to it, I am sorry for some people.

The Young Peoples Progressive Club met with the Misses M. W. B. and R. Johnson, at the home of Miss Johnson, 466 Chestnut street. The guests were Messrs. C. M. Rhea, Wm. E. Crawford and Prof. Wilson. After a very interesting meeting the hostess served a delicious luncheon and ice course. We all wondered why Y and Z were so anxious to hide the peanuts? The club will meet Monday day at 4 P. M. with Miss L. Lee and Mrs. M. Turner, at the residence of Mrs. Stahl, on Chestnut street. All members are requested to bring sewing.

The program and Peanut Hunt given by this club Monday night, was a success, Master Earl Gipson being the winner of the prize. We are sure the church appreciates our work as none of them were out, and we had to make fires and light up.

The B. G. Music Club met with Miss M. W. Carmon. State street. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Miss Edna Claypool, Kentucky street, is on the sick list. t

Pryor's Rising Club met with Mrs. Lee on Chestnut street, Thursday night.

Some don't like me because. I see all people alike, and give all a chance.

I measure no one by what they know only, but by what they can do.

Favoritism has not found a place in my heart where church membership is concerned. We look upon all with the same respect, and render unto all favors alike.

Mrs. L. Barnett's address of welcome was acclaimed by all as being great, and the talk of Mr. Rhea received no little praise. And the choir sailed into fame upon the ships of notes. While the pastor brought up the rear with credit, winning the day for Taylor's Chapel in the hardest fought battle of the year. We say read on Mrs. Barnett, talk on Mr. Rhea, sing on that illustrious choir.

Look out! A very interesting wedding soon. Many out of town guests will be present.

President and Secretary,

EVERYONE THAT SMILES IS NOT YOUR FRIEND

(Composed by T. E. W. and read to the Rhetoric Class of '09, T. N. C. Shelbyville, Tenn. To my friend and classmate, J. E. C.)

I've made a mistake in my life
One to make I didn't intend;
But I've learned a lesson in the strife.
Every one that smiles is not a friend.

I had a friend I thought was true,
My secret in him I'd pen;
But to me he proved untrue.
For every one that smiles is not a friend.

His troubles he would tell me
And in my face he'd grin;
To others he would talk about me,
But every one that smiles is not a friend.

He claimed to be my right hand man,
His deceit, God knows. 'Twas a sin;
He split my heart's blood with the dagger in his hand.
But every one that smiles is not a friend.

But now dear classmates listen,
I am sure you comprehend
That its not all gold that glistsen,
Nor every one that smiles a friend.

Dr. J. A. Hill, ex-pastor of Taylor's Chapel, now P. E. Louisville District and candidate for Bishop, to be elected at the General Conference at Louisville in May, preached two powerful sermons Sunday and lectured Monday night at the Chapel.

Dr. Abel, P. E. Bowling Green District, in his masterly way, presented the speaker on Monday night.

Dr. Hill's lecture was timely, thoughtful and inspiring. We invite the doctor to call again, and we pray for his success.

The choir blended harmonies in such a masterly way until it was unanimously declared that it was the best in Western Kentucky.

Bro. Cash, of Franklin and Bro. Sherrel, this city, united with the church, making a total of forty-three new members added to the church.

You will have to come early to get a seat.

The Young Peoples' Progressive Club met with Miss Lura Lee and Mrs. Margaret Turner at the home of Mrs. Stahl, on Chestnut street. After a very interesting meeting the hostess served a delicious luncheon and ice course. Guess who is all worried because they lost a male member of the club? We would say to her, cheer up, he'll be home soon. The club will meet Monday at 4 P. M. with Misses Beulah Covington at the residence of Mr. E. I. Wiseman, 329 Center street.

H. A. H.
We would like to call your attention to the fact that there seems to be creeping into the ranks a spirit of indolence, whether it is caused from lost interest in the church and its work, or a movement to defeat the administration, I am unable to tell.

Another thing that is becoming noticeable is the coolness of some.

It has been said that you were spasmodic and would soon grow tired and quit. Now it's up to you to fool them.

Last quarter you raised over one thousand dollars. That shows what you can do. So now is your chance, it is now or never.

Do you want a new church? If so, prove it.

If Dr. Abbington, of Dallas, Texas, with a few dozen members could build two buildings at a cost of $75,000 each, in less than two years, why can't the members of proud old, historical Taylor's Chapel put up one at a cost of $35,000 or $50,000? We can if we try. Now let's do.

The parsonage is greatly in need of paint and repairs. Each year it loses in value due to neglect in its up-keep.

In December, 1923, the members and friends gave a surprise to the pastor and wife. We wonder if they will be back before next December.

Have you forgotten the class meeting? Are we going into idolatry?

Dollar Money Rally, May 4th. Pay your dollar money now and be through with it.

If you are looking for a place to worship where you will be welcome, come to the Chapel.

It seems just a little lonesome as all the teachers and many friends are in Louisville attending the K. N. E. A. this week.

Mrs. J. T. Allen, president, made some helpful remarks.

Next meeting at Mrs. J. Carter's, 409 Chestnut street.

Mrs. L. Lively, Smallhouse pike, is recovering from a fall she received last Thursday.

Prof. E. E. Reed was among the visitors at the Chapel Sunday.

Dr. N. A. Cabell went to Louisville Thursday to attend the K. N. E. A.

Mr. J. F. Moxley, District Superintendent of Sunday Schools, made an official visit Sunday at the Chapel.

Group serving last Saturday reported $8.40. Group A will serve Saturday, April 26. Group B, Saturday, May 3.

CLASS DUES PAID APRIL 13.

Dr. P. W. Offutt, Pastor of State street church, has returned from Milwaukee where he closed a ten days' meeting.

Mrs. Maud Bland, Fourth and Center streets, entertained Board No. 2, Tuesday. After business, they repaired to the dining room, where they enjoyed a real dinner. The table was beautifully decorated. Menu: turkey, peas, dressing, pickles, tomatoes, creamed Irish potatoes, greens, fruit salad, corn bread, biscuit and pie.

Misses D. Keller, C. E. Goodnight, Messrs. L. Goodnight, B. P. Pryor, G. J. Colbert, W. Price, B. Henry, Prof. W. M. Wilson and Rev. T. E. West motored to Franklin, Ky., Tuesday, where Rev. West delivered the Commencement Address to the graduating class.

Principle T. B. C. Williams and his corps of efficient teachers have done a great work this year. The exercise was superb and greatly enjoyed by all present.

Ham Smile, May 5th. Admission 10 cents. A ham will be given to the one smiling the sweetest.

Board No. 1 met with Mrs. G. J. Colbert, Kentucky street, Monday. Mrs. M. D. Lott, the very efficient secretary, discussed, to the satisfaction of the board, "Our Duties as Stewar desses." Mrs. M. B. Able will discuss, Monday, "Our Work in the Church. The hostess served salad, sandwiches, tea, sherbet and cake. We regret that we will soon lose one of our members.

The Y. P. P. Club met with Miss S. Hardin and Rev. T. E. West. After completing plans for a May Festival, May 1, 2 and 3, the host and hostess served a tempting luncheon and ice course.

Jonesville Club met with Miss A. Vannatter, West Main street, Friday.

Mr. L. Goodnight, leader of class No. 4, was the prize winner in the Class Leaders Contest. The smallest Bible in the world was the prize.

The following named persons will meet the Pastor after service: Francis Abel, Clivis Mahon, Holder Angel, James Covington, John Goodnight, Edward Bye, J. L. Rhea, Frank Moxley, Harold Moxley, Master Covington, Theodore Cage, and all the young boys of the Sunday School.

Look out for a big wedding soon. Don't fail to come to the Ham Smile, Monday night, May 4th.

Miss Pauline McKinley Wolfe and Prof. H. J. Reynolds, of Harrisburg, Pa., were married March 31st. The Bulletin and its readers wish for them a long and happy life.

Madam Rumor has it that one of the young ladies of the Progressive Club married Easter. We wonder if it is true?

The popular President of the Y. P. P. Club is attending the K. N. E. A this week.

Rev. A. H. Turner, pastor A. M. E. Church, Woodburn, and Dr. J. H. Abel, P. E., were welcome visitors Sunday.

The Cantata, “Voices from the Garden,” rendered Sunday evening, was a success.

The Progressive Club will have a May Festival, May 1, 2 and 3.

Dr. Brooks, of Sunnyside C. M. E. Church, is conducting a revival at Phillips’ Chapel C. M. E. church.

Dr. Howard, the Presiding Elder, was in the city Sunday.

All aboard for the General Conference in Louisville, May 5th.

The following named persons turned over to the Pastor money for bricks. M. Mallory $2.75, L. Stovall $3.25, M. Bland $2.00, Mrs. Lee $1.85, H. A. Huffman $1.55, R. Bland $1.00, B. Bland 50 cents, J. L. Rhea 15c. Total $12.95. Same was turned over to the Finance Committee March 11. Now in the hands of the Pastor $1.00 for bricks by Sister F. Blye. Mr. Walter Williams reported $2.00 for bricks in the rally. The cards are in the hands of the Financial Secretary. Some turned in money and no cards. That is the reason we haven’t published the names of contributors.
TO THE A. C. E. L.

Dear Co-Workers:

I am sorry my sudden illness caused my absence on last Sunday evening, yet I hope you carried the work right on for it is not the spirit of this progressive age to lag; we must make the League worth while as it is the index to the League of Greater Taylor's Chapel. I am asking the cooperation of all in this great work.

I count this thing to be grandly true, that a noble deed is a step towards God; lifting the soul from the common sod to a purer air and broader view. We rise by things that are under our feet, by that we have mastered of good and gain, by pride disposed and passion slain, and the vanquished ills that we hourly meet.

Baccalaureate Sermon to Graduating class of B. G. A. this afternoon at the A. C. P. Church, at 3:00 P. M., by Rev. West.

The Baccalaureate Sermon of the graduating class of S. S. H. S. will be delivered by Rev. T. E. West May the 25th, at Taylor's Chapel.

Mrs. W. W. Wilson, of Louisville, is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. Hester Parker, 1269 Center street.

Dear Members:

For five months we have labored together and our labors are already bearing fruit because Taylor Chapel is alive today as never before. Your loyal service is not to be ignored, you have been faithful to every trust, you have put Taylor's Chapel in a class to itself, you rank among the leading churches of the Conference. Let us remember the world turns on the pivot of progress and we should be actuated by this spirit as it permeates our whole being. We should not care what others think or say in regards to our persistent efforts spent in the acquirement of heights not yet attained.

It is our incentive not to be wall flowers, but living, active creatures filling well our stations in life, in a world no less active. Our sole objectives being a greater Taylor's Chapel, and everlasting life at the termination of this. Do well your bit today and tomorrow you will not have cause for regret.

The Pastor and members of Taylor Chapel extend to Mrs. Parker their heartfelt thanks for the use of the Loving building. Your kindness will never be forgotten.

Mrs. Edith Crenshaw, of 312 Hight street, is making her home in Detroit.
This is the church with a feeling of welcome to strangers. Where will strangers find a cordial welcome? At Taylor's Chapel? Where is Taylor's Chapel? On Seventh street, between College and Center. It's the great big church with the little pastor. Can he preach? Come and see. Thank you. I'll be out Sunday.

Miss L. Lee spent last week in Scottsville.

When the pastor calls and you are away from home, don't peep out of the window and be sure you haven't spent a few hours in the did showing at the K. N. E.

Several prizes were won by W. W. Club. The club will meet with Miss G. M. Angel, Smallhouse Pike, and Miss S. Hardin, Eleventh street, once a month.

Henry Yost, a member of the S. S. H. S. Sophomore class, won third honors in high jumping. His jump was 5 feet 1 in. and first honor was 5 feet 3 in. Get the other two inches next time, Henry.

Mrs. B. B. Crews, wife of our former pastor, Rev. J. W. Crews, was in the city for two days last week. She was enroute to Louisville, Ky., where she met the executive board of the Missionary Society. While in the city she was the guest of the Wilson family, 1301 Center street. Mrs. Crews will visit her parents at Chattanooga before returning to her home.

Mrs. M. Loving, Jonesville, is very sick.

Miss M. Luvall and family are at home after spending the week in Louisville. While there she attended the K. N. E. A. and worshiped at Quinn's Chapel and Jones' Chapel. Billy says he would like to go again.

Mr. A. G. West, of Nashville, Tenn., spent a few hours in the city, Tuesday, visiting his brother, Rev. T. E. West. Mr. West is an artist by trade and was en route to Cleveland, Ohio, but he intends making his headquarters in New York after June 1st.

We wonder why X is seen on Chestnut street so often?

Mrs. Ora Watt, this city, and Mr. Will Williams were married in Louisville last week.

Mr. Henry Thomas Cox, one of the popular young men of the Y. P. P. Club, spent last week in Louisville, attending the K. N. E. A.

Miss V. N. Curd, one of the efficient editors of the Bulletin, has returned after spending a pleasant week at the K. N. E. A.

In the absence of our pianist Sunday, Miss R. Johnson filled the position creditably.

Dr. J. H. Abel, Mr. J. Bland and Mr. Lee, of Scottsville, were among the visitors at the Chapel Sunday. Dr. Abel preached an excellent sermon Sunday night.

We were glad to see Sister C. L. Johnson and E. Rhea at service Sunday. It looked somewhat like old times.

Everyone is wondering what was the matter with the members in Jonesville Sunday morning, as Sister Rhodes was the only one of the grown people out.

Quite a few of our members were visiting Sunday morning and Sunday night. It is alright to visit, but be sure you are not needed at home first.

Mrs. M. G. Colbert was on the sick list Sunday.

Mrs. H. C. Hampton was the guest of Mrs. M. E. West Sunday.

The Y. P. P. Club met with Members F. Goodnight and N. V. Lyman at the residence of Mrs. Goodnight. The hostess served a delicious luncheon and ice course. The club will meet with Messrs. Raymond Taylor and Samuel Starks, at the home of Miss M. Gipson, 218 Kentucky street.

Dr. J. H. Abel will leave for the General Conference today.

Miss Mary Bishop, of Louisville, entertained all the Bowling Green visitors to the K. N. E. A. at The State Board of Health headquarters on Friday evening. A delicious salad and ice course was served and an interesting and instructive picture was shown. All present enjoyed the evening.

Prof. W. M. Wilson appeared on the program of the Grammar Department of the K. N. E. A. and discussed in a masterly way the subject, "Arithmetic." The teachers were loud in praise of the man.

Don’t worry about what you will wear: come on to the Chapel and feel at home.
If you are tired and thirsty stop in at Mrs. B. France’s, 523 Kentucky street. Her sherbet and cake is superb.
Prof. W. M. Wilson, Misses G. M. Beasley, V. V. Andrews, R. A. Brown and N. A. Moreland, teachers in S. S. H. S., have returned after spending last week in Louisville, attending the K. N. E. A.
Mr. Chas. Price, 323 Park street, is on the sick list.
Mr. Gaines, High street, is much improved.
Rev. T. D. McGhee, of Detroit, Mich., passed through the city last week.
GENERAL CONFERENCE NOTES

Conference opened Monday.
Bishop John Hurst delivered the opening sermon.
Bishop J. S. Philiper, of Georgia, delivered the Episcopal address.
Bishop B. F. Lee Sr., Bishop of the Church superannuated Tuesday, being now past 84 years old, having served the Church the major part of these years, and at one time president of Wilberforce and acclaimed the scholar of the Church. His work in Kentucky and all over the Union in this great Church of Allen, stands as a perpetual monument to his useful life.
Remember that he superannuated because he wanted to do so and not by being asked.
Dr. H. L. P. Jones, of St. Paul, Minn., was appointed one of the secretaries.
Prof. A. S. Jackson, Educational Secretary, made his report.
The A. M. E. Church declared war on ignorance.
Wednesday night was Missionary Night. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. K. Handy.
Bishop Sampson Brooks, of West Africa, and Bishop W. T. Vernon, of South Africa, spoke of the work of the A. M. E. Church in Africa.
Prof. Ira T. Bryant, Secretary and Treasurer of the A. M. E. S. S. Union, made his report and received a great ovation for the work he has done. Mr. Bryant is a business man of no mean ability.
Dr. J. J. McDowell, Pastor of St. Paul A. M. E. Church, Fayetteville, Tenn., and wife; Mrs. Brison and Mr. Reynolds, all of Fayetteville, Tenn., motored through to Louisville to attend the General Conference. They spent the night at the parsonage Thursday night.
Mr. Jumper, of Louisville, was the guest of Miss Lura Lee, Chestnut street, while here. He worshiped at the Chapel.
Out of a class of 14 persons to finish the Common School department of B. G. A., Masters Hoster Angel and Isaac Abel were the only boys. This fact is deplorable. Boys, what are you going to do about this?
It's an old saying that the hand that rocks the cradle shall rule the world. At the rate the girls are going it will soon be an established fact. We wonder where these girls will get husbands from, when so few of the boys seem interested in education. Boys, be stir yourselves and acquire an education for no woman wants to feel that her husband is inferior to her, intellectually.
Capt. Roberts, your lectures were all inspiration and courage. Prof and Mrs. W. L. Shobe and sons, are spending a few weeks with Mrs. Shobe’s mother, Mrs. Lucy Rodes, in Jonesville. Prof. and Mrs. Shobe taught in Flemingsburg, Ky., and report a very successful year’s work. We are pleased to have them in our midst and Walter Rodes and Ben are happy to be in Bowling Green with grandmother.

Mrs. Cora White, of Nashville, will appear at State street Church Tuesday night, May 23. Hear her, she needs no introduction.

All captains, chairmen, secretaries and treasurers of clubs belonging to Taylor’s Chapel will meet Tuesday night to perfect plans for a May festival.

May Festival, May 23 and 27.

Group C, served Saturday.

Group B, served last Saturday. They reported $8.00.

Group D, will serve Saturday the 17th.

Mrs. Sullivan, of Indiana, was in the city attending the Graduation Exercises of B. G. A. Her niece, Miss Louise Merritt, was among the Senior graduates.

Miss M. W. Ray, one of the popular members of the Y. P. P. Club, graduated Wednesday night from the B. G. A. The Commencement Exercises of the B. G. A. under the direction of Prof. H. J. Reynolds, was a success. Prof. and Mrs. Reynolds left Saturday for Detroit on their honeymoon. The teachers of S. S. H. S. are busy these days getting ready for Commencement.

Board No. 1 will meet with Mrs. Lewis, on Tenth street, Monday.

Mrs. Cash, 120 College street, is on the sick list.

Mrs. Ada Garret, of Woodburn, joined Taylor’s Chapel Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Easly, of Buffalo, N. Y., spent the day with Mrs. O. F. Porter last week.

Miss O. F. Porter, College street, entertained at dinner Sunday, Misses W. W. Wilson, of Louisville; E. Helm and Rev. and Mrs. West.

Mr. A. Porter is in the city visiting his mother and sister, on College street.

The Y. P. P. Club met with Messers. R. Taylor and S. Starks Monday at the residence of Miss M. Gipson, 218 Center street. Tempting refreshments were served. Next meeting will be announced from the pulpit.

Mrs. Barlow, of Woodburn, was in the city Wednesday to attend the graduation of her granddaughter, Miss L. Merritt.

Pryor’s Rising Club will meet at the residence of Mrs. H. Moxley, 225 Fourth street, Thursday night. All members are requested to attend.

Board No. 2 met with Miss C. E. Goodnight, High street. After an interesting meeting, the hostess served a refreshing ice course.

Board No. 1 met with Mrs. E. Gardner. Prof W. M. Wilson was a visitor. Mrs. M. B. Abel read a paper on “Our Work in the Church.” It was superb. This board made the pastor a present of $15.00. We thank them from the depths of our heart. The hostess served a complete dinner.

Mr. Harry Cox was among the visitors at the Chapel Sunday and also Mrs. Denning, of Kansas.

We wonder why some of the members can go to other churches and can’t come to their own.
We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness during the illness and death of our beloved son, William Edward Bland, who departed this life Wednesday morning, at 12:10 o'clock, age 11 months and 14 days.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Bland and Family.

GENERAL CONFERENCE

NOTES.

Mr. L. E. Swanigan, of Chicago, spent several days in the city last week, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanigan.

The Y. P. P. Club met Monday afternoon with Miss Beulah Covington. The club perfected its plans for the May Festival. The hostess served a delicious luncheon.

Let us encourage these young people rather than knock them. If we feel that their conduct at any time should be criticised let us show them a better way and not condemn their efforts. Some of the officers of Taylor Chapel have evidently forgotten that they were once young.

The funeral of William Sears, a prominent young lawyer of the city, was held at State Street church Wednesday afternoon. Rev. W. P. Offutt officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moxley entertained their daughter, Gretchen, with a surprise birthday party Wednesday evening. Miss Moxley received a number of useful presents and those present enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Mesdames Margaret Abell and Emma Loving are in Louisville attending the General Conference.
The Ladies’ Gatewood Chautauqua Club met Thursday, May 23, by and with Mrs. Lee Ann Sweeney. After an interesting business meeting the hostess served a delicious two-course lunch. The next meeting will be Thursday night at Mrs. Mattie Stahl’s home on Chestnut street.

The State Street High School baseball team journeyed to Horse Cave, Ky., on Friday and met the “Quicksteps” of that place in a thrilling game. Lewis was on the mound for S. S. H. S. and pitched a wonderful game. The game went into the ninth a dead-lock tie, 5 to 5 but through luck the Horse Cave team won out. Now we owe them two Ickings. Come out and help us to administer them on “Field Day” May 23.

Track Meet and Field Day of S. S. H. S., Friday, May 23. By your presence you will greatly encourage our boys and girls. Tickets 40 cents.

See the Track Meet prizes now on display at Cabell’s Safe Drug Store. The Athletic Club is very thankful to Dr. Cabell for giving us window space for the display and the splendid gift, a fountain pen, donated by the Safe Drug Co., is heartily appreciated.

Miss M. J. Brown, sister of R. A. Brown, is in the city visiting. She is on her way home from Louisville where she was engaged in school work, to her home in Franklin, Tenn. She was entertained Friday evening by friends of Miss R. A. Brown, at which time they made her most welcome.

Miss M. L. Wilson has closed her school at Lynch, Ky., and is now at home. Her parents, brothers and sisters and many friends greeted her and are glad to see her. Miss Wilson is one of the many young ladies of our city who is climbing for the top round. She is a graduate of the K. N. I. I. and has been engaged in school work for some years. After spending a few days at home she will leave for Indianapolis for summer school.

Board No. 1 will meet at Sister M. D. Lott’s 1301 Center street, Monday, May 19.

Board No. 2 will meet at Sister Mary Principal H. J. Bly’s, Tuesday, May 20.

The Y. P. P. Club met with Miss B. Covington, Center street. Miss V. N. Curd bore greetings from the City Federation of Clubs and also an invitation to the Y. P. P. C. to join the Federation. The President put it before the club, but it was deferred until a later date. Mr. Rhea was also a visitor. The hostess served a salad and ice cream.

Next meeting with Mrs. E. I. Wiseman and Mr. J. V. Hutcherson at the residence of Mrs. Wiseman, on Center street.

Richard, the three and one-half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, Fourth street, died Friday, May 9. Burial Sunday, May 11th, Rev. West officiating.

Also the baby of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bland, Fourth street, died Thursday, May 15. Burial Saturday, Rev. P. Wilkerson officiating.

Board No. 1 met with Mrs. Lewis on Tenth street. Mrs. G. J. Colbert read an interesting paper. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

The next meeting with Mrs. M. D. Lott, 1301 Center street.

The Pastor spent last week in Louisville, attending the General Conference.

CONFERENCE NOTES

Financial Secretary: Hawkins, elected by acclamation.

Educational Secretary: Jackson, of Texas, by acclamation.

Christan Recorder: R. R. Wright.

A. C. E. Morris.

The Bishops will receive their appointments next week.

Conference will adjourn Wednesday sine die.

Dr. Johnson was elected President of the Church Extension Department with headquarters at Washington, D.C.

E. I. Wiseman, President of the Y. P. P. Club was taken seriously ill Friday night at the Bazaar given by her club in the Loving building on Main street.

Why do you light the young people of your church, when in them lies the destiny of the church? Hadn’t you rather see them interested in the church and working for the same thing than to have them waste their time and talent for Satan?

If you last Sunday’s offering doesn’t appear, it will be in the next issue.

The A. C. E. League will begin
Sunday, May 18, to do real League work.

The subject, “Close to Christ,” was beautifully discussed last Sunday by Mr. W. M. Wilson and Rev.
T. E. West. The A. C. E. League is not only for the young folks but all are urged to be present and take part in these meetings. We hope to be able to send delegates to the A. C. E. conference in July.
Help us make our League a success.

Miss M. L. Covington, Secy.
Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Wolfe entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H.
J. Reynolds, Friday evening, May 9, 1924. The out-of-town guests were, Mrs. Hale, Mrs. H. A. Boyd,
Miss Noble and Miss Agnes Wolfe,
all of Nashville, Tenn. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds received many handsome presents. The bride and groom left Saturday for Detroit, Mich.

The Live Wire Club of the Agent’s force of the National Benefit Life Insurance Co., met Friday afternoon. Rev. W. P. Offutt de-ivered the address. We only wish the entire community could have heard Dr. Offutt. He blazed a pathway for the negroes in business in Bowling Green. Such men as Dr. Offutt will long be remembered. We extend him our prayers that he continues such work. We extend an invitation to all to attend our meetings any Friday at 1 o’clock. Program each Friday.

Mr. Sorey Cabell, of Nashville, Tenn., spent Wednesday in the city as the guest of his brother,
Dr. N. A. Cabell. Mr. Cabell was enroute to New York City where he will spend the summer.
Board No. 1 was entertained by Miss Vanmeter. A regular dinner was served.

Board No. 2 was entertained by Mrs. Smith. Covers were laid for twelve. Mrs. J. T. Allen, president of Board No. 1, Mrs. G. J. Colbert of No. 1, Messrs. J. T. Allen and G. J. Colbert, and Mrs. Mahon, were the guests. Both boards will meet with Mrs. West Monday at her parsonage, 867 Eleventh street.

Rally Sunday.

Mrs. M. E. West, Eleventh street, and Mrs. P. W. Offutt, State street, are on the sick list.

Bazaar will start Monday night in the basement.

Mrs. H. C. Hampton has returned after spending last week in Louisville attending General Conference.

The Commencement exercises of S. S. H. S. was a success.

Miss L. Lee, one of the popular members of the Y. P. P. Club, was among the graduates of S. S. H. S.

The Y. P. P. Club will meet with Mrs. P. J. Fryor and Miss Mildred Gipson at the home of Miss Gipson, 210 Kentucky street.

Mrs. Nuby has returned from a visit to her home in Lewisburg, Tenn.

Dr. Brooks, of the C. M. E. Church, Sunnyside, will preach at the Chapel tonight.

District Conference and Sunday School Convention, June 25, Owensboro, Ky.

Church Conference and the election of delegates Tuesday night.

Mrs. Southall, of Memphis, on her way from the General Conference, stopped over a few days to visit her aunt, Mrs. Nelson. While here she worshipped at the Chapel. Other visitors were Mesdames Ma­ hone and Dunnham, of Chicago, Mrs. Cosby, Allen Springs, Mrs. F. Pace, of Indianapolis, who has returned to her home to live, Mr. Lee, of Scottsville, Mr. Lillard, this city.

Dr. Dubois was the guest of Dr. O. D. Porter, Friday.

Dr. N. A. Cabell has been transferred to Providence, Ky., to take charge of the Drug Store there, Dr. Cabel, his brother, is in charge here.

Misses R. A. Brown and W. C. Jackson wish to announce the opening of their sewing room on Monday, June 2nd, at the corner of Fourth and State streets. Phones 196-M and 1112.

The Social Committee will prepare a program for next Sunday evening, June 8, 1924, on Children's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allen entertained in honor of Mrs. Mattie Smith who is leaving the city for Chicago, Illinois, and Ohio are in the city visiting their mother.

Each Sunday we find some improvement in our A. C. E. League meeting. Some of you show good spirit in coming out and taking a part in our meeting. We ask you all to come out and help us to make our C. E. meeting worth while and we ask you all to come out and help us to make our League what it should be. We are doing little things now but hope to do greater things in days to come.

Miss Harriet A. Huffman is on the sick list.
Board No. 1 met with Mrs. Abel. Tempting refreshments were served. Next meeting with Mrs. J. T. Allen.

Y. P. P. Club met with Mrs. J. P. Pryor and Miss M. Gipson at the residence of Miss Gipson. Delicious refreshments were served.

Rally for a Greater Taylor Chapel today.

Some are not doing their duty. We wonder why?

Are we progressing or not? Look at this and tell:

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR APRIL

NOTICE!

All officers and members of the A. C. E. League are asked to be on time Sunday evening.

Mr. J. F. Moxley was elected Steward's Delegate to the District Conference.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hall, who will spend the vacation with her mother and sisters, General Conference, continue to who very recently moved to that be quite ill at their home in Nashville, Tenn.

The following students have returned home to be with us during vacation: Misses Rosa Taylor and Willa Watson, who attended Tennessee State Normal, and Pauline Loving, from Oberlin Conservatory.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kuykendall, Misses N. A. Moreland and Ruth Kuykendall, and Mr. W. M. Wilson motored to Mammoth Cave last Friday afternoon. Reaching the grounds about 6:30 P. M., the party partook of a delightful luncheon and after a few minutes, left entered the Cave at 8 o'clock via Route No. 1. Echo River, Washington Monument and the Cork Screw were some of the many features that were so greatly enjoyed by the party.

Messrs. Robt. E. Leece and Raymond R. Rayson, of Ashland, Ky., students at Fisk University passed through the city Wednesday morning en route to their "Old Kentucky Home" for the vacation period.

Misses S. H. Rodes, one of the city's most popular and progressive young ladies, has returned home to spend vacation days with her mother, Mrs. L. J. Rodes. Miss Rodes teaches at Benham, Ky., and the mountain people appreciate the splendid work she is doing for them.

Mrs. Fannie B. Parker, daughter of Mrs. Mary W. Colbert, has returned home after a lengthy stay in Pittsburgh, Pa. We are pleased to have her with us again.

Messrs. Chas. Haskins, Robt. Mc­Curdy, Henry Yost and Willis Wilson, Jr., of Chicago, Ill., were dinner guests of W. M. Wilson Friday evening at 6:30. A delicious three course dinner was served.

CARD OF THANKS.
We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to our many friends for their kindness and helpful sympathy during the illness and death of our infant son, William Edward, who departed this life May 14, 1924.
Also thanks to the pastor, Rev. T. E. West, who in his sympathy tried to reach us in time for the funeral; to Rev. P. Wilkerson, and Rev. Henderson for their comforting remarks; to Mr. Kuykendall for his efficient services and to the donors of the beautiful floral offerings.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Bland and Family.

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to extend our thanks to our many friends who were so kind to remember us during the illness and death of our little son, George Morgan, who departed this life May 9, 1924.
We wish to thank Rev. T. E. West for his consoling remarks and also Rev. P. Wilkerson. Also Mr. J. E. Kuykendall for the efficient manner in which he conducted the funeral, and the children's duet.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kennedy, and Family.

Misses Ruby Johnson and Edna Shaffer were elected delegates to the Sunday School Convention.
Miss May W. Ray, one of the popular members of the Y. P. P. Club and also the A. C. E. League, has returned to her home on account of illness.
We never say die! But live and do. When the Bulletin failed to appear last Sunday there was much rejoicing on the part of our enemies in the church and out of it, because they thought it was the funeral of the Bulletin.

He that laughs last laughs best, and so the joke is on them. The Bulletin is alive and 100 per cent alive, and so are the Editors, so don’t worry.

We were the first to get out a church paper in the city. After a few months came the State Street Messenger, then later the Trumpet. You know it must be worth while or others would not copy after it.

I wonder why everyone seems down in the mouth? Our rally broke all previous records in the church’s history, $751.21 was fine they say, for Taylor Chapel, but still there is room for improvement.

The choir will meet and rehearse at 6 o’clock this evening.

Today is Dollar Day.

The Pastor and Delegates to the District Conference and Sunday School Convention will leave Wednesday morning for Owensboro, Ky.

Some people spend all their time in fault finding.

Come over to the Chapel and enjoy yourself.

We have some members in the church that haven’t been to church since I’ve been here. Just four more months and we will drop their names.

Beginning Friday night, June 26, every member that absents his or herself from class meeting for three consecutive nights, without a legal excuse, will be called before a select number of the members and dealt with according to the Law of the Church.

We hate to expose some of the members of the church, but if you do not mend your ways we will be compelled to do so.

In quum nostrī non miserearīs non speare debes for ut tu misereamus ut seres ita metes.

Mr. Thomas Pryor is spending his vacation at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Pryor, 408 Chestnut street.

Dr. F. G. Snelson, P. E., of the Memphis District of the West Tennessee Conference, was with us in our rally and preached two powerful sermons.

Yes, Miss L. E. Goodall and Dr. A. J. Kendall were married in Nashville, May 17th. Mrs. Kendall is one of the popular young ladies of the city, a member of Taylor Chapel and an efficient teachers in S. S. H. S. Dr. Kendall is a graduate of Mehany Medical College, Nashville, Tenn., in dentistry and is now visiting his parents in Atlanta, Ga., where he will begin the practice of his profession.

Mr. J. V. Hutcherson, proprietor of the Little Pullman Barber Shop, and one of the popular young men of the Y. P. P. Club, went to Trenton Saturday where he was married to Miss Coley L. Alvey, one of the popular young ladies of the city. Why didn't you let us know about it J. V.?

The Bulletin and its many readers wish for both couples a long life full of sunshine and no clouds.

Mr. Taylor, 619 Center street, is on the sick list, as is also Mr. Charlie Price, Park street, Mr. Carey, Kentucky street, Mrs. M. G. Colbert, Kentucky street, Mrs. Price, Delafield, little Selene Moxley, Fourth street, little Arletha Bland, Fourth street, Mrs. M. Loving, Jonesville, Mrs. Johnson, Smallhouse pike, and Mrs. C. Those reported off the sick list this week are Mrs. W. P. Offutt, State street, Mrs. M. E. West, Eleventh street, and Miss H. A. Huffman, Smallhouse pike.

Miss E. G. Farmer, of Stanford, Ky., is in the city, having been called here on account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. M. E. West.

Mrs. M. E. West extends her heartfelt thanks to the members and friends of Taylor Chapel and also the Art Club for their kindness during her recent illness.

A Greater Taylor Chapel is our aim.

Allen C. E. League tonight at 6:30.

Trustees meeting Monday night.

In our church conference Tuesday night the trustees were given power to fix up the parsonage.

If you want your name to appear in the Bulletin, use the collection envelopes.

The Class Secretary and Church Secretary will please balance their books and have reports ready for the pastor when he calls Monday.

Stewards, trustees, stewardesses and missionary society will please do the same.

It is now just four months until Conference. We must be up and doing.

Sunday, June 29, will be devoted to the raising of general funds and missionary money.

The W. W. Club met with Mrs. E. Garrison, Kenton street Refreshments were served. Next meeting Thursday with the President, Mrs. H. Goodnight, Kenton street.

The Missionary Society met with Mrs. M. B. Abel, at her home on State street.

Popular Pastor Contest and Rally Sunday, July 10th.

We have named the clubs after all the pastors of the city, there are nine, and we are giving a hat to the most popular pastor.

W. P. Offutt Club, B. P. Pryor, Captain.

H. D. Carpenter Club, Miss A. Vannater, Captain.

Rev. Blewitt Club, J. T. Allen, Captain.

Rev. Matthew Club, Mrs. H. Goodnight, Captain.

Rev. Hampton Club, Miss D. Keller, Captain.

Rev. Wm. Wolfe Club, J. W. Keller, Captain.

Rev. P. Wilkerson Club, Mrs. B. France, Captain.

Rev. Jones Club, C. M. Rhea, Captain.

Rev. T. E. West Club, Miss O. F. Porter, Captain.

Now, who shall wear the hat? Vote your sentiments.

Mrs. Nellie V. Strangier and little daughter, have returned to Franklin, Ky., after visiting relatives, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Nicholson, on Thomas avenue, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Goodnight, 1115 Kenton street.

The names of those contributing in the rally will appear next week.

Miss S. H. Rodes, one of the county's efficient teachers, played for the choir Sunday.

They are running a revival at Wesley Chapel. Go over and help them.

Dr. G. W. Robinson, pastor of Payne Chapel, A. M. E. Church, stopped off and spent a few hours in the city. Dr. Robinson was en route to Louisville on business.

Mrs. G. J. Colbert is better after undergoing an operation.

Mrs. C. L. Jackson was the hostess of a very unique Porch Party, Wednesday, from 4 to 7 o'clock, at her residence on Center street.

Miss M. C. Slaughter, Critic Teacher of Morris College, Sumpter, S. C., was on honor.

Miss M. C. Slaughter, who for a number of years was one of our most efficient city teachers, resigned her position three years ago to accept a more lucrative one as critic teacher in Morris College, Sumpter, S. C. Since teaching in the "Palmetto State" she has won the reputation as was hers in Kentucky "second to none." After spending several weeks here, she will leave Friday for Columbia, S. C., and will be one of the Summer School teachers at Benedict, College. Miss Slaughter is a product of Bowling Green, having been born and reared here. We hope you God's speed.

Mr. Allen Winstead, of Franklin, Tenn., was the guest of Miss R. A. Brown, on State street, Sunday. While here he worshipped at the Chapel.
How pleased we are at the work done by the members of proud, old, historic Taylor's Chapel. The pace setters of churches in the city of Bowling Green, you have won for yourselves laurels, coveted by all that know you.

You are in harmony, one with the other, which is a sure sign of getting something done.

I like that spirit of love that abides in the ranks and that tie that binds us in a unit producing a working force that will stop at nothing to accomplish the right objective. All are falling in line with a sweet good will.

The Sunday School, the A. C. E. League, the class and prayer meetings are claiming much attention and interest is growing in all departments.

A nice crowd greeted us Sunday night at the Chapel. The pastor delivered two very instructive sermons.

Quite a few visitors were present and left saying they would return next Sunday. Miss Margaret Hardin was also among the visitors...

Dear Member: We failed to see you at church Sunday. Won’t you please be present Sunday next.

The Pastor.

Mrs. Lela Knight, Chestnut street, is on the sick list.

Miss Malissia Huskie, of Franklin, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Maud Bland, Fourth street.

WANTED—Eighteen women to qualify for deaconess, the highest position in the church.

We cannot shut our eyes to the fact that many are staying from church on account of the weather.

Some people don’t do anything but find fault with everything that goes on. Will you please take a vacation on meddling.

Taylor Chapel intends to have an A. C. E. League, so you that are hoping the League will go down, please stay away and don’t interfere with us for we mean to build up a League in Taylor’s Chapel. So if you are not moving with us get out of our way and let us move on. We are few in number now, but we hope to register far above the 200 mark by the next convention. If you are a member of Taylor’s Chapel you are a member of the A. C. E. League.

Come out Sunday evening at 6:30 and bring your friends and take a part in our work. If it’s not what you want it to be, come out and help make it what you want it to be.

The President.

A Financial Drive will begin Monday, July 14. Preaching every night. Come and bring your friends.

Sure, Miss Mildred Gipson and Mr. Raymond Taylor, both popular members of the Y. P. P. Club, are married. The Bulletin and its many readers wish them a life of happiness and prosperity.

There will be another wedding among the Y. P. P. Club this month.

The officers of the A. C. E. League will meet this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The Woman's Mite Missionary Chorus will meet Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Chapel.

Coming soon, to Taylor's Chapel, eighteen Bishops and a host of General officers and delegates. Don't miss seeing them.

Who is the most popular pastor in the city? Bro. B. P. Pryor says it is Rev. W. P. Offutt. Mr. C. M. Rhea says it is Rev. Jones. Bro. J. W. Keller says not so, it is Rev. Wm. Wolf. Mr. J. T. Allen asserts it is Rev. Blewitt. Miss A. Vanmeter says Rev. H. D. Carpenter is the one. Miss D. B. Keller says it is Rev. Hampton. Mrs. H. Goodnight declares it's Rev. Mathews. Mrs. B. France says it is Rev. P. Wilkerson. Miss O. F. Porter says they are all wrong, Rev. T. E. West is the most popular and he shall wear the hat.
Last week was home coming and K. of P. Grand Lodge Encampment week. Quite a few out-of-town visitors were in the city.

The local Lodge left not a stone unturned to make this the greatest Grand Lodge meet in the history of the Grand Lodge.

Messrs. C. M. Rhea, J. Brown, J. F. Moxley, K. R. & S., W. H. Moxley, M F., Geo. Douglass, C. C., Major B. P. Pryor and others had all things well arranged and it was unanimously declared by all to be the best Grand Lodge session they ever attended.

But they must remember that this is Bowling Green, where generous hospitality bubbles along the banks of Barren River, and piped to thousands of homes of the city. We were glad to have you visit our city. Call again. We are noted for treating people right.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonas, of Louisville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Keller, 410 Kentucky street, last week.

Miss Covington, of Chicago, is visiting relatives in the city. She and Miss L. Covington, of Center street, were the guests of her cousin, Mrs. H. C. Hampton, 867 Tenth street, Thursday.

The brother of Mrs. Isabell died Thursday morning.

Mrs. D. Gatewood was called to Detroit to the bedside of her sister.

Miss Winona Hill, of Louisville, is the guest of Miss Lotta M. Cox, on East Broadway.

Miss Mahone, of Chicago, is visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. Malone on Eleventh street.

Anniversary Celebration of Taylor Chapel, Thursday night, August 23.

A. C. E. League this evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Mabel McCullough, of Chicago, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Swanigan, last week.

We invite all visitors and strangers to the Chapel. The Church with a welcome.

At the close of our third quarter the reports show that we have raised $1,371.03, an increase over last quarter of over $300.00. This shows that we are still going upward.

He is a poor member that would like to see the church fail.

Our Missionary Convention will meet August 21st, in Franklin. What have you done for Missions?

Rev. J. W. Crews was in the city last week. While here he called upon all the members.

There will be a lawn fete given on the lawn of the parsonage.

Who is ashamed of our work? We are now remodeling the parsonage, something long needed to have been done.

Miss N. Potter has returned home after a visit in Louisville.

The daughter of Rev. Price, of Chicago, spent a few days in the city visiting friends.

Mrs. M. B. Able, 419 State street, is hostess to her mother, Mrs. Macebee, of Nicholasville.
Mrs. B. France spent Sunday in Woodburn.

Mrs. White, of Franklin, Ky., was the guest of Mrs. B. France Monday.

Mr. J. F. Moxley, Harold and Jas. Moxley, Mesdames M. B. Abel, Maccabee, Young, Francis Young, Francis Abel, M. R. Angel, E. Shafer, R. N. Johnson, F. Angel, Miss Ray, R. Cox, B. Henry, Miss M. E. Williams, M. E. West and Rev. T. E. West, motored to Woodburn Sunday, where Rev. West preached an excellent sermon.

We have watched carefully your actions and we know now who would gladly see the administration fail.

Announcements from the pulpit today.

Pay your dollar money now as we close out our Conference near Sunday, August 31st.

Revival will start Tuesday night. Let us all do something for Christ.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Artis, of Detroit, will sing. Don't fail to hear them.

Mr. E. H. Farmer was the guest of Mrs. M. E. West last week.

Board No. 1 met with Mrs. M. D. Lott. The hostess served a delicious ice course.

Board No. 2 met with Mrs. Gibson. The meeting was interesting. Miss D. Boyd, an ex-member of the Board, was a pleasant visitor and addressed the members. The hostess served a tempting ice course.

The W. M. M. Society met with Mrs. A. N. Jackson. Mrs. Young, of Lexington, and Mrs. Maccabee, of Nicholasville, were welcome visitors and made some helpful remarks to the society. The hostess served a refreshing ice course.

Mrs. Loving, of Indianapolis, Ind., has returned home after visiting her sister, Mrs. E. Nicholas, on Chestnut street. Also Mrs. J. Adams, who was visiting relatives, Mr. Press Wilson and family, has returned to her home in Indianapolis. While here they worshipped at the Chapel.

Prof. W. M. Wilson, our efficient pianist, and one of the teachers in the city schools, has returned after spending the summer in the U. of C.

Miss M. L. Wilson, one of the new teachers in S. S. H. S., is home after spending the summer in Indianapolis.

We are glad to have them with us and we wish for them the greatest success.

Mrs. Shucks, of Louisville, and daughter, Frances, enroute to the W. M. M. Convention in Franklin, were the guests of Mrs. M. B. Abel. Mrs. Shucks worshipped at the Chapel Sunday.

Quite a few ministers and delegates were in the city last week attending the General Association of the Baptist church.

Rev. E. T. Offut, of Lexington, preached at the Chapel at 11 o'clock, and Rev. G. M. Price, of Paris, at 8 P. M. Both speakers delivered excellent sermons.

We have gone over the top in all things this year. Our record stands for inspection at any time. Never in the history of the church has such a friendly spirit existed among the members as now.

Never before have old and young worked as they have this year; those that would hold back can't for fear of being detected, so they are in the crowd that moves on.

The choir is getting in fine trim, they are rehearsing regularly.

If you want a real church home, join at the Chapel.

Mrs. L. Livley Smallhouse pike, accidentally fell and broke her foot.

The members of the Y. P. P. Club will all bring pencils—it is important.

Mr. L. Turner, the husband of Mrs. M. Turner, one of the Y. P. P. Club, was shot to death Tuesday evening. The Y. P. P. Club and the Bulletin and its many readers, extend to her their greatest sympathy.

Mr. J. Helm, of Louisville is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. E. Garrison, of Kenton street.

Mr. Geo. Colbert is in Pittsburgh.

Read the Bulletin, it's the newest.

Come over to the Chapel and you will come again.
The Jonesville Club known as the pace-setters of the church, have led all others in raising finances; the members are honest, upright and loyal and have worked hard to make this administration a success. They say they are with us. Mr. C. M. Rhea is President, and he believes in doing things.

Pryor’s Rising Club, known as the old regular, holds second place in the catalog of great things. You will find some of the true and tried members of the church in this organization whose highest aim is the success of the administration. Mr. B. P. Pryor is President, who believes in putting the program over.

The W. W. Club, known as the path-findners, stands out among the other clubs and played an important part in making the administration a success. The members are all willing and eager to work, and we cannot see a greater Taylor Chapel on the site of the old one. Mrs. H. Goodnight is President.

Mr. H. T. Cox motored through from Louisville last week to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cox.

Mrs. Charlotte Cox has returned from Terre Haute, Ind., accompanied by her brother-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Sipars. If you desire to hear some real music and good singing, come over to the Chapel. The choir is singing better and better at all times. There is complete harmony in this organization. Mr. J. T. Allen is President.

Miss Sanoma Hardin is spending her vacation in Ohio.

The A. C. E. League, known as the future church, is still alive with interest that is manifested at each meeting. Here the young people are given their first lesson in church work.

The Sunday School, under the leadership of Mr. J. W. Keller, is doing great work. Mr. Keller is known as the thinker and scholar. This department is the University of the church, here the young people are being Christianized and taught the principles of right living.

Mesdames M. B. Abel, M. E. West, L. Shucks, and Misses M. R. Jackson and F. Shucks, motored through to Franklin, Thursday, to attend the W. M. M. Convention.

Miss C. E. Goodnight spent the week end in Franklin.

The General Conference was a success.

Mrs. J. W. Crews stopped over to visit the Wilsons. She was on route to the W. M. M. Convention.

The W. M. M. Society is doing much to help spread the cause of Christ. They have labored hard this year, but all reports are in fine shape. They have gone over the top in man's land.

Mrs. A. D. Oglesby will visit her mother and friends in Alabama before returning to her home in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

She gives one dollar for the Bulletin.

Mrs. Fred Isabell contributed 40 cents to the Bulletin.

Mr. H. Yost is on the sick list.
Sunday was a great day in Zion, large crowds were present at both morning and evening services.

The pastor preached at 11 a.m. Subject: A Call to Serve”; all present enjoyed the discourse and went tway determined to do some real work for the Master.

Before the sermon was a day old it begin ato bear fruit.

First, it was noticeable in the League, Mrs. F. Blye brought 10 new members to be added to this department. Then at the evening service most all the pews of the large auditorium were taken.

Dr. Abel, ex--P. E. of the Bowling Green District, but recently appointed P. E. of the Louisville District, was a welcome visitor and delivered a wonderful sermon Sunday evening to the satisfacti n of all.

Among the many visitors were Prof. Buford, the new prnciple of S. S. H. S., Brs. W. J. Hutcherson, one of the city’s most efficient teacher in the School at Woodteachers, Miss R. A. Brown, a teacher in the school at Woodburn, Mrs. Huffman, Mr. Potter and others. It looked like old times to see Mrs. E. Bibbs, one of the staunch members, present at the morning service. We are always glad to see the members fall in line.

Visitors are always welcome and we are pleased to have you. Come to the Chapel for you will not find a more cordial welcome in all the City of Bowling Green.

If you are looking for a church home, cast your lot with us.

Taylor Chapel for the people, and of the people.

This is a new year. It calls for new things and greater work.

There is good news for you at the Chapel.

Our report for ten months shows progress. Let’s beat it this year.

Rev. P. W. Wilkerscn left Mon­day for Conference at Winchester.

Mrs. M. D. Lott, 1301 Center street, the very efficient secretary of the church, has returned after visiting friends in Murray and Paducah, Ky.

Mrs. C. M. Rhea, the wife of our assistant superintendent, was a visitor at the Chapel Sunday.

We want and must have a greater Taylor Chapel.
The church is moving on. Our report for ten months stands as follows:

Trustees $1759.89
Stewards 1378.81
General Funds 414.15
Miscellaneous 206.27

Total for ten months $3759.12

How is this for Taylor Chapel?

We started our new year's work at high tide.

Total raised to date $83.30.

This says we are moving on and foretells a great year.

The clubs and boards are all getting in action.

Now watch them grow.

Mrs. V. N. Cabell is on the sick list, also Mrs. Ella Hill.

Mrs. M. B. Bland, attended the Conference in Paducah, Ky.

All the people want a greater Taylor Chapel.

Mr. Jim Lewis is on the sick list, also Mrs. M. Parker.

Mr. Jenkins and family have moved to Fourth street.

Preaching this afternoon at Saltier's Chapel in Jonesville, and Monday night at Wesley Chapel in Barrtown. Come out and help us.

Guess who went nutting and ate their chestnuts as fast as they found them?

Five young ladies of a certain church club told the chief editor that they had all married recently.

We would be happy to meet their husbands.

We are sure to reduce the high cost of living, now that we have the breakfast dance. Next the lunch strut and dinner skip. Then we will have all three meals.

Rev. Grider, of Elkton, Ky., has been running a very successful revival at the Eleventh street Baptist church.

Rev. S. T. Jones, of the M. E. Church, College and Sixth streets, has on a very interesting campaign. He is being assisted by the city pastors.

The members of the choir will please not sit in the congregation.

A. C. E. League this evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Services will begin strictly at 7:30, lasting one hour and fifteen minutes. Come early if you want a seat.

We need some more ushers to help seat the people.

The clubs will be ready by the fourth Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Luval have moved to Louisville. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wiseman to Memphis, and Mr. and Mrs. Finn have returned to Bowling Green.

Mrs. N. V. Lynn is visiting in Indiana and Mr. and Mrs. Sherrell have moved to Mayfield, Ky., their home.

Pray for a greater Taylor Chapel.

The pastor will begin his regular visiting next week.

If you like to read the Bulletin donate something to it.

Mr. Jones, of Lewisburg, Tenn., is visiting his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Newby on Kentucky street.

Mr. Oglesby is visiting relatives on Kentucky street. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Isabell.

Come over to the Chapel and you will come again.

We need a greater Taylor Chapel.

We have some clean athletes at S. S. H. S.

Progress is the watch word at S. S. H. S. * * *

Prof and Mrs. Hines, of Nashville, are in the city showing the "Passion Play." It is fine.

We would like to see you at Taylor Chapel. * * *

If you want to hear some real singing, come over to the Chapel and hear the choir.

It is wonderful how they blend their voices into a unit of symmetry productive of music dulcet to the soul and pleasing to the ear.

A greater Taylor Chapel is our aim.

If you desire a church home where all is peace, we have it for you at the Chapel. Here love is King,crowned, and harmony stalks through the ranks in decorum Divine, and we are cemented together by the mercies of God.

Mrs. Youst, of Brown street, is on the sick list.

If you are not treated right at the Chapel, notify the pastor.

Our aim, a greater Taylor Chapel.

Dear Co-Workers:

We are now ready to begin our year's work. Let each one feel that he or she is responsible for the success of the church.

This is not a time for day-dreaming, but one of activities and this age of progress demands the best of all. We are living today for unborn generations, let us prepare well for our children now.

We need and must have a greater Taylor Chapel. I am sure you are not contented to remain forever in the present building.

Up, ye loyal sons and daughters of Allen and look to your task. Let "God First" be your motto. A greater Taylor Chapel your aim, progress your watch-word, and soulst eh reward of your labor.

Sing, you, and shout, but remember its a greater Taylor Chapel now or never.

Last year's work is now ancient history, yet it is worthy of praise, but there is no information in looking backwrad. Onward is the command of the new era.

Mrs. W. W. Wilson, who was in the city a few days visiting her netice, Mrs. V. N. Cabell, who has been very ill, but who is now greatly improved, has returned to Louisville, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Hester Parker.

Refreshments served by Emergency Committee Tuesday night.

Fish fry by Board No. 2 Wednesday night.

I would be a 100 per cent Christian or no Christian at all.

As we go to press we learn of the death of Mrs. H. C. Hampton's brother, Mr. Rhodes of Second street. We sympathize with her in this her hour of sore grief, and commend her to God, who doeth all things well.

When you go to church find a seat and remain until service is over. Don't disturb the speaker by moving around.

Rev. P. Williamson, for seven years pastor of College street C. M. E. Church, has moved to Glasgow.

Mrs. M. Loving is better.

Don't forget to come to class meeting Friday. It will be young people's night.

Each leader will hold class meeting if there is only one in the class.

Be on time by the hands of the clock.

Gow here the crowd goes, to Taylor Chapel.

Be a Booster and not a Knocker.

Mrs. Thomas was burned to death a few days ago.

Mrs. Jenkins was run down by a car Saturday night in crossing the street.

Your church should be first with you at all times.

Board No. 1 met with Mrs. M. B. Abel, 419 State street.

After a very interesting meeting we repaired to the nicely arranged dining room. The table was beautifully decorated with the spirit of Hallowe'en. The hostess served a delightful menu.

Board No. 1 will meet Monday with the President, Mrs. E. T. Allen, College street, at 3 p.m.

Board No. 2 met at the residence of the President, Mrs. B. France. After completing arrangements for a fish fry Wednesday evening, the hostess served a tempting menu.

Rev. Jones, celebrated his 45th birthday Wednesday night.

Judge Gilliam addressed a large crowd of voters at Taylor Chapel Wednesday night.

DON'T BLAME THE PASTOR.

There is some complaint about certain persons being elected to various offices, claiming it to be favoritism. The pastor does not elect anyone, but the the boards do. I have no favorites in business, and if I had a board that based its deliberations upon such I would dismiss it. We mean to give all a square deal and if you merit a position you will be elected to it. Not what you know, but what you do, counts.

Mrs. M. Polk is on the sick list. Also Mrs. Hill, West Main; Mrs. V. N. Cabell Center street, the child of Mrs. Alexander, West Main street, Mrs. Todd, Kentucky street, Mrs. Johnson, Smallhouse pike, and Mr. G. Vick, Eleventh street.
