BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Mildred Tucker was born in Warren County, Kentucky, on November 5, 1894. Her parents were James Harvey Tucker (1865-1962) and Mildred “Minnie” (Carpenter) Tucker (1867-1933). Following her graduation as valedictorian from Bowling Green High School in 1915, she entered Hamilton College in Lexington, Kentucky. After her freshman year at Hamilton, she transferred to Transylvania University graduating in 1918.

Tucker returned to Warren County where she married John Vernon Hardcastle, (1886-1975), on August 26, 1925. Hardcastle was a member, and an avid promoter, of the Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as several other genealogical and historical societies and groups. She died on April 11, 1994, and was interred in the Smiths Grove Cemetery in Warren County.

COLLECTION NOTES

A scrapbook kept by Tucker while at Hamilton College comprises this collection. The scrapbook was dismantled as it was in a terrible condition. All pertinent items were salvaged.
