The Kentucky Museum's third annual "Glorious Fourth of July Celebration" is scheduled for Thursday, July 4 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on the grounds of the Kentucky Building.

As in previous years, the event features such activities as a watermelon-eating contest, games and races for all ages, musical attractions, and free refreshments. This year's event will also feature storytelling by WKU graduate students Sandy Holtsclaw and Kathy Connett. In addition to the museum's volunteer force, the Junior Eastern Kentucky University Women's Basketball team will help serve refreshments and lead games.

For further information contact the Kentucky Museum at 745-2592.

Annual Meeting

Romana Johnson and Sandra Dunn are to be commended for their effort in bringing the "action back to Main Street," during Preservation Week in 1985. Activities began with over 80 members and guests attending Landmark's 5th Annual Meeting on May 13 at the Elks Lodge. This association and dinner provided an opportunity to recognize those who have made contributions to historic preservation and economic development in Warren County.

This Heritage Award went to Jane Morningstar for her tireless efforts in promoting preservation activities to the community. Landmark appreciates the property owners for their generosity in sponsoring the Open Houses. We also want to thank Bennie Bonham, Norman Harman Hamed, Ms. G. Hawkins, Mary Hazzard, Ms. Melgie Holm, Mary Ethlynn Banks, Dr. E.A. Balicki, and Mrs. W.T. Hines.

CITY HALL TOUR

Landmark's last meeting for the 1984-1985 year will be held Wednesday, June 26, 1985 at 7:30 p.m. This meeting will take place at the City Hall Commission Chamber, 1001 College Street, with Mr. Chuck Coates, City Manager, as our guest speaker. Mr. Coates will speak on the history of City Hall and plans for expansion. A tour of City Hall and the annex will also be included. We hope to see you all there.

GOOD LUCK KEVIN...

Kevin Hunter, Staff Assistant for Landmark the past four years has resigned to make a career move to the deep South. Kevin has accepted the position of Architectural Historian with the Mobile Historic Development Commission in Mobile, Alabama.

For the past several years Kevin has worked tirelessly "behind the scenes" in many of Landmark's programs and activities including responsibilities for putting out our monthly newsletter, assembling our book Architecture of Warren County, Kentucky 1790-1940, planning membership meetings, taking photographs, performing National Register and survey work, and numerous other duties that Landmark is involved with.

Kevin has made a significant contribution to Bowling Green/Warren County and to Landmark for which we are all appreciative. We will all miss Kevin, but wish him and his wife, Becky, all the best in their new home in Mobile.
