This is Western Kentucky University's "Gemini 14," a musical group that toured the Caribbean defense command last winter to entertain servicemen in the Canal Zone, Puerto Rico, Cuba, the Bahamas and the West Indies. The Western group was among those from only 14 colleges and universities throughout the nation selected to represent the U.S abroad by the USO-National Music Council Committee. The performers are: Front row- Nancy Hill, Ellen Schermack, Pat Smith, Lynn Aukerman, Jamie Carlyle. Second row- Rosemary Elzen, Anita Mills, Nancy Baker, Carla Bratcher. Third row- Larnelle Harris, Tour Director and Music Department Head Dr. Howard Carpenter, Band Director David Livingston, Eddie Key, Rosemary Gohagan at the marimba and Joanny Raynor at the piano.
