BIOGRAPHY

Bess Leona Hope was born on 27 September 1896 to John J. Hope (1867-1959) and Louvernia (Bowman) Hope (1873-1949). Louvernia became an invalid after surgery and spent her last 40 years in a wheelchair and later was bed ridden. John practiced veterinary medicine in Monroe County.

Bess attended the Monroe County public schools and graduated from Tompkinsville High School. She matriculated and received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Western Kentucky University. Afterwards we taught for four years in rural schools. After two more years of teaching at the Tompkinsville Elementary School, Bess spent ten years teaching at Tompkinsville High School.

On 1 July 1937 Bess was sworn in as a clerk at the Tompkinsville Post Office. In November 1946, she became postmaster at that post office. She retired from the U.S. Postal Service in 1964. Bess was a long-time member of the Tompkinsville Baptist Church. She died on 10 August 1911 and is buried in the Summer Shade Cemetery in Metcalfe County, Kentucky.

COLLECTION NOTE

This small collection contains material about two members of the Hope family of Monroe County, Kentucky. Most of the collection documents the U.S. Postal Service career of Bess Leona Hope, including employment documents, news clippings, and a few photos. Includes a group photo of Bess’s 1913 8th grade class and a photo of school children at the Boyd School in Monroe County.

A smaller assemblage of items document the veterinary career of John J. Hope, Bess’s father. This chiefly includes receipts for “Renewal of Non-Graduate Veterinary License” from 1919 to 1940. The collection also includes a “Certificate of Meritorious Service” for Hope’s “valuable service rendered to the Democratic Party” in the 1948 general election.

The collection includes a folder of greeting cards, news clippings, and correspondence from/about fellow Monroe Countian and U.S. Congressman Tim Lee Carter. Most of the Christmas cards in this folder, feature Carter with his wife Kathleen and his son William Starr “Billy.”
