The illustration on the opposite page can give you but a faint idea of the real beauty of this magnificent memorial. It is truly a work of art. A careful study of the illustration will quickly show you the symbolic meaning of the design. At the top in the distance is the Holy City. The Golden Gates of the City stand ajar guarded by angels bearing olive branches and golden trumpets—welcoming the spirit of the departed through the gates into the City. Hovering lightly among the clouds just below, is a snow-white dove representing the spirit of your loved one on its upward flight to its eternal home on high. Interwoven around the angel, representing the Heavenly Messenger, is a large scroll and then two smaller ones bearing the inscription: “In Loving Remembrance of Our Beloved”. The angel is holding an oval in which are printed these beautiful words:

The Golden Gates were opened wide,
A gentle voice said “come”,
And Angels from the other side
Welcomed our loved one home.

At the base of this artistic memorial is a space in which are printed in gold the name of the deceased together with the dates of birth and death and the age. There is also a space for the printing of any verse in this catalog or a special verse if desired.

The inverted torch, the broken column with the figure of a little child leaning against it—weeping for the ties that are broken—admonish us to ever bear in mind our loved ones who have gone before and to remember that ere long we too will be among the departed.
