After the Board considered this item, Gen. Denhardt moved that the selection be postponed until the next meeting of the Board, which meeting will be held in Louisville. Mrs. James seconded the motion and it was unanimously passed.

Miss Marjorie Helm, the librarian, was requested to meet with Mrs. James, Col. Stites and Capt. Davis for the purpose of making selections and submitting recommendations to the Board at its next meeting in Louisville on Friday, October 7, in the Leather room of the Seelbach Hotel at 9:30 a.m.

Capt. Davis was then requested to explain the objections of the L. & N. Railroad authorities to the construction of the coal trestle of the central heating plant at the spur track railroad, which he did.

Upon motion of Gen. Denhardt with a second from Col. Stites the Board approved the action of the local committee in arranging for an additional ladies' dressing room in the stadium and in supplying the necessary heat, light and hot water according to specifications of Capt. Davis.

The Board then adjourned.
