CALL TO ORDER

The January 17, 1989 meeting of the Associated Student Government was called to order by President Scott Whitehouse. Absences included Dwight Adkins, Dana Baith, Brad Cooper, Minda McCandless, Kelly Neill, and Scott Wilson.

OFFICERS REPORT

President Scott Whitehouse, by the request of Ron Hennig, did not wish everyone a Merry Christmas but instead a Happy New Year. He summarized last year's events. He also mentioned a few ideas for this semester such as building the first shuttle stop shelter and helping with the escort service. He read Dean Bailey's memo concerning resolutions passed last semester. He stated that the hotline needs work and publicity. We need to encourage people to use the service. Dr. Meredith will be here to visit with us at next week's meeting. Also, anyone interested in an application for Mountain Laurel Queen see Scott after the meeting.

Administrative Vice-President Adrian Smoot welcomed everyone back. He encouraged everyone to work harder this semester. Applications are being accepted for the vacant offices. Mock resolutions will be printed in the Herald this semester to receive input of students' ideas. Committee chairs' meeting will be Thursday at 3:00.

Public Relations Vice-President Amos Gott also welcomed everyone back along with visitors. He passed out memos concerning what ASG has done, the "Campus Pride is Western Wide" program, and the Student Assistance Center Program. "Campus Pride '89" clean-up campaign begins next week, January 23-February 7. ASG Awareness Week is January 30-February 3.

Secretary Mickie Hennig announced that these positions are open: on-campus rep., two off-campus reps., senior class vice-president, freshman class vice-president, Ogden College Alternate, Business College Alternate, and Graduate College REP. and Alternate.

Treasurer Larry Gumbel announced that the Fall Voucher ^{EXDU 201/1/89} summaries are out.
