CALL TO ORDER

The August 29, 1989 meeting of the Associated Student Government was called to order by President Amos Gott. Absences included Eric Elliot, Heather Feldman, John Seiber, and Chris Summerville.

President Amos Gott introduced the ten candidates for Judicial Board and Alternates. A motion was made and accepted to accept all candidates. The motion passed. Gott swore in the new Judicial Board members and mentioned that ones not present would be sworn in tomorrow at the executive council meeting.

Kevin Hargrove swore in new Congress members.

A motion was made and seconded to accept Dwight Adkins as Junior Class Vice President, Shannon Ragland as Potter College Alternate, Darla Roof and Heather Feldman as on Campus Representative, Brian Thornton as off Campus Representative, and Todd Johnson and David Pittman as Representatives at large. The motion passed. The new congress members were sworn in with David Pittman being sworn in at the next Executive Council Meeting. A motion was made and seconded to accept Daryl Pepper as Parliamentarian. The motion passed and Daryl was sworn in.

OFFICER REPORTS

President Amos Gott explained whom the President's Board consisted of and also the purpose. He stated the following five goals of ASG: More involvement in ASG, with the students, and major organizations; Better relations with administration, more and better legislation that is followed through Public Relations, and a better committee system. He also mentioned the promotion of the Student Assistance Center and the need for Glasgow Representatives. He also explained the new procedures for Homecoming elections. He also reported on, July 6th, Regent's meeting. President Gott also commented on the notebooks for Congress members and that the meetings will always begin at 5:00 p.m.

Administrative Vice-President Michael Colvin mentioned the Congressional notebook material and how to write a resolution. He stated the attendance policy and that the Administrative meeting Thursday, August 31, will be at 4:00. He also discussed the resolution for the stop light at the corner of Regents and Normal.
Public Relations Vice-President Van Hodge had visitors stand and introduce themselves. He stated that he has correspondence with other universities from the NACA Conference and that he had met with the Herald Report in the previous week. He had anyone interested in applying for a freshman position introduce themselves. He announced that the Public Relations Committee will meet Tuesdays at 4:00 and that at 9:30 tonight is "Promote ASG Night" at South Hall.

Secretary Julie Fleming announced that Junior Class President, Potter College Alternate, Business College Representative and Alternate, Education College Representative and Alternate, on Campus Representative, and Representative at large positions are still open. Also, any corrections to the address and telephone list of Congress need to be made.

Treasurer Eddie Smith discussed the budget summary and mentioned that the budget is an operational budget.
