Administrative History: Agriculture has been a program since 1914 under the leadership of M.C. Ford and became a separate department in 1940.

Cherry Country Life Club formed in 1925 is among the oldest clubs on campus.

Block & Bridle Club is a member chapter of the national organization of clubs at institutions that offer programs in animal science. Membership is open to all students that have an interest in any phase of animal science.

WKU Equestrian Team competes in multiple horsemanship and reining events in Kentucky and Tennessee.
