COLLECTION NOTES

This collection was assembled by Allen Evesard Allmond, a native of Louisville, Kentucky, and the son of Dr. Marcus Blakey Allmond and Virginia (Meade) Allmond. It contains genealogical information about the Allmond and Meade families. Specific biographical material about Marcus B. Allmond, who came to Louisville in 1880 from the University of Virginia as the first Professor of Ancient Languages in the Male High School, is included. Dr. Allmond opened the “Allmond University School” in 1888 which he conducted until 1900. The collection also contains some maps of the Louisville vicinity from the late-1950s as well as two folders of information about Louisville’s Commercial Club, the forerunner of Louisville’s Chamber of Commerce.
