COLLECTION NOTE

This collection consists of material collected by Renee Dorothea Gibbs for a Western Kentucky University folk studies class. The collection includes a recording, index, and photographs from an interview with James Larry Crawford about growing up in Cave City, stories about Mammoth Cave and other caves in the area, and growing tobacco. The photographs are of tools and decorative items from Crawford's home. Also included are photographs of dishes and baskets made by Willow Block and sold under the name Crow Mountain Colored Porcelain at the 2004 Tennessee Association of Craft Artists Craft Fair in Nashville, Tennessee.
