HISTORY

According to a newspaper clipping the Hardinsburg Magazine Club was organized in 1917. The object of the club, as defined by its 1955 Constitution, was “to promote interest in current literature, to stimulate intellectual growth, and to strengthen individual effort among its members.” Club meetings were held in member homes, and current events culled from popular magazines were the topic of discussions.

COLLECTION

This collection consists chiefly of the club’s minutes, bound and loose, from 1930 to 1939 and 1959 to 1993. It also includes correspondence, information on programs given by members, resolutions upon the deaths of members, and newspaper clippings.
