COLLECTION NOTE

This collection includes interviews and information about six Bosnians who immigrated to Bowling Green, Kentucky. All of the interviewees had lived in the United States for at least five years. Information is included as to how they escaped the civil war in Yugoslavia, adjusted to life in the United States, and how they were able to remain connected with their native cultural heritage. Some of the interview field notes are restricted due to the sensitive nature of the content or at the interviewee's request. Only four of the interviews were recorded, and are listed in the shelf list as folders 2a-2d.
